The double-ring ceremony was performed before a background of tall arched candelabra holding large votive candles and greenery. On the lower level of the altar area were candle trees and palms. The kneeling bench was draped with smilax, and family pews were marked with elongated bouquets of green spider mums, fern and satin streamers.

Parents of the couple are L. L. Col. and Mrs. James Dewey Jelley, of Dorchester, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson Watson of Haskell.

Rev. F. Edward Watson, minister, performed the ceremony. Traditional wedding music was played by Sue Patterson of Dallas.

Maid of honor was Miss Mary Sanders of San Jose, California, and Miss Linda Newton, of Terrell, Texas, served as bridesmaid.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight organza over tissue taffeta, featuring a portrait neckline, empire waist. The straight skirt had a deep overlay of re-embroidered Alencon lace, studded with tiny seed pearls. The lace was repeated at the waistline and on the long sleeves accented with loops of pearls. The bride wore an heirloom gold filigree ... pearl pendant, belonging to her paternal great-grandmother.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade of phaeonopsis orchids, stephanotis and miniature ivy leaves on white Bibik. Worked into the bouquet was a wedding band belonging to a paternal grandmother. After the ceremony the bride presented two red roses, from her bouquet, to her mother and one to the groom's mother.

The bridesmaids wore identical full-length gowns in lime green, with empire waistline and brief sleeves. A self-belt held the back fullness of the sheath skirts, and the back of the gown was enhanced with scallops. In their hair were scattered stephanotis blossoms and their cascade bouquets were of yellow spider mums and clusters of stephanotis with moss green velvet streamers.

The bride's mother chose a candlelight crepe sleeveless gown with Sabrina neckline and self-belt caught with a gold pin. On her bag was pinned a gardenia corsage.

Stitching And Stewing

County H. D. Agent By Ruth Ann Fanster

Cucumbers have two classes: slicing and pickling. For crisp pickles, use firm, small to medium cucumbers. Do not buy more than can be processed at one session. Know the strength of vinegar you are using. A high-grade cider or white distilled vinegar of 40 to 60 percent grain strength gives good results. Pure dairy or pickling salt should be used if possible. One fine table salt contains a little starch which clouds the liquid.

Use fresh, good quality spices — whole unless otherwise directed. Avoid using copper, brass or iron kettles or ones from which the tin has been worn. Such metals react with the acid of the vinegar, giving the pickles an unattractive, dark color. Stainless steel, glass or aluminum should be used.

Select firm but not plump cucumbers for slicing. They should be well-shaped with fresh-looking green skins.

For a different cucumber treat, a milder cucumber ring filled chicken or turkey salad. Unfold cucumber gelatin ring in crisp leaves of lettuce and fill center of ring with the salad. Drizzle French dressing over the salad.

The following recipe filled with poultry salad serves six to eight.

- Cucumber Ring
- 1 package lime-flavored gelatin
- 1 cup unsweetened pineapple juice
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups grated cucumber
- Place gelatin in bowl; heat pineapple juice to boiling and add to gelatin. Stir to dissolve gelatin. Add to lemon juice and salt; mix well. Chill until mixture begins to set. Add cucumbers pour into 1 1/2 quart ring mold and chill until firm.

SPECIAL CAPPING CEREMONY HONORS CANDY STRIPERS

The Haskell Memorial Hospital Auxiliary held a special capping ceremony for the Candy Strippers including volunteers from Haskell, Weinert and Paint Creek in a meeting held in the community room, Haskell National Bank, Monday, August 25, at 7:30.

Mrs. O. B. Woodrum of Abilene who is sponsor of the Sr. Auxiliary of the Hendrick Memorial Hospital, assisted by two of the girls, from Abilene, brought an interesting message on the work of the health of today's hospitals. She told of the work accomplished in the year 1969 by their Auxiliary. She asked, are we going to be prepared for the progress of the work of tomorrow? The health program has progressed more than in other phases of the area of the field of service in hospitals over the nation.

The two young candy strippers of Abilene, Susan Hanie Crim and Bonnie Schroeder, told of the State Auxiliary of Junior Volunteers meeting, which they attended at San Antonio. She said they were admitted free into the HemisFair because of their uniforms. One told of the Abilene Hendrick Hospital which contains over 300 beds, and they assist in caring for the ill and invalids with cheer and loving care, and they continued their work three months in summer. They have one male volunteer, whom they appreciate, as he is a good assistant to them in their service at the hospital.

Mrs. Bailey Guess of Weinert brought the thought for the day, "No Time To Be Afraid?", pertaining to the latest accomplishment of the Astronauts landing on the moon. Bringing the thought of the idea of the progress in our world.

Mrs. E. L. Wyche and Mrs. O. B. Woodrum conducted the capping and award, using the candlelight ceremony, using the 23rd Psalm as an illustration written by a Pink Lady, concerning the leader of the great cause of service to the sick.

Sue Wilkinson received a service pin for over 600 hours in five years of service.

Judy Blair received two stripes on cap. Wanda Griffith was given a certificate of appreciation for her hours of work. Marsha Berry received a halo of stripes on her cap for 350 hours work.

Becky Stubblefield was given two stripes and Denise Perry received two stripes for their caps and Cathy Pringle two stripes. Those receiving one stripe were Alexia Mayfield, Caron Guess, Paula Wilfong, of Weinert, and Gail Barnett, of Haskell.

Those receiving caps were Lee Ann Toliver, Ruthie Dutton, Weinert; and Walleene Breadthauer, Weinert.

Mrs. Jetton and Mrs. Gholson of Rice Springs Care Home, expressed their appreciation to the girls for their outstanding service at Rice Springs Home and presented Paula Wilfong, Ruthie Dutton and Waleen Breadthauer of Weinert, a special award for their extra tender, loving care. Mrs. Buster Gholson concluded the program with the Candy Strippers pledge.

The hostesses were Mesdames W. H. Pittman, Nettie McCollum and Perry Spenny, assisted by Mrs. Mildred Guess of Weinert. The table was centered by a

TARRANT COUNTY TO BENEFIT FROM CONTRACT AGREEMENT

One of 27 Texas counties in Region VI, Tuberculosis Control Division, Texas Department of Health will benefit from a contract agreement signed August 27, between the health department of the Tarrant County Hospital District and the state health department.

The contract between the health department and the county hospital district will provide medical care for indigent tuberculosis patients who are otherwise unable to afford the care.

The regional official stressed the fact that former patients, with proper follow-up, cannot pass the disease along to others. "One of the products of modern medical research," he said, "is a better understanding of how infectious diseases pass from person to person."

Proper Management of Small Grain And Sorghum Residue Is Important

Clayey-type soils are subject to water erosion. Thus residues should be left on the soil surface to impede the flow of water. The mulch of straw or chisel or sweep-type tools are best for proper management of crop residue.

Residue management varies with the different textural groups of soil. Wind is the primary hazard of sandy textured soils, therefore stalks should be left standing through the critical erosion period or until about March 15.

Texas Department Of Public Safety Says Crime Rate Is Up In Texas

The crime rate in Texas for the first six months of 1969 is running 7.7% higher than the comparable period last year, according to a report released today by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, DPS director, said major crime increased in all categories except murder and homicide, where the statewide rate declined by 8.8%.

The greatest increase was listed in the robbery category, up 31.2%. Aggravated assaults were up by 20.9%, auto theft up 14.8%, and burglary up 9.7%. Speir said rapes were up 7.2% and thefts up 3.9%.

In Texas, the crime clock ticked off one major crime every 1-1/3 minutes for the January through June period. There was one murder every eight hours, a rape every 4 1/2 hours, a robbery every 1-1/4 hours, a burglary every five minutes. An aggravated assault occurred every 2 1/2 minutes, a theft every 2-1/3 minutes, and an auto theft every 16 minutes.

The greatest increase in crime was in urban areas where the overall rate increased by 8.5%. In rural areas throughout Texas, the average rate increased by less than 1%.

An analysis of crime rate changes in urban areas by population indicates an upswing of almost 9% in cities of over 100,000 population. The rate is up 7.1% in cities of over 50,000, and up 18.8% in cities having populations between 25,000 and 50,000.

Cities having populations between 10,000 and 25,000 had an overall rate increase of 5.9%. While those between 5,000 and 10,000 had a 12.4% decrease. Smaller towns from 2,500 to 5,000 population report an increase of just over 18%.

Statewide crime clearance rates for the first six months held at 27%, the same as 1968.

However, DPS statistics indicate an 84% clearance rate for murders and 66% for rapes, with a 39% clearance rate for robbery.

In urban areas, the 1963 crime clearance rate is 26%, the same as last year. Rural clearances stand at 37%, as compared to 43% at mid-year 1968.

Sleeper Speaks To State-Wide Insurance Meet

Speaking to a state-wide meeting of insurance women in Austin, August 22, Dwight W. Sleeper, Jr., of Dallas, the President of the Texas Association of Insurance Agents, stated:

Texas insurance men have long believed that this state has the finest system of insurance regulation in the entire country. At this time when a special committee is reviewing auto rate-making procedures, it may be well to stop and consider what outsiders think about Texas insurance regulation.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:
 If the credit men's association had an annual award for the outfit that collected the greatest percentage of accounts there wouldn't even be a contest. Internal Revenue would have to be declared the winner by a wide margin every year. It sounds like the tax folks are fumbling around when you read the stories about the millions declared "uncollectible." When you take a look at Internal Revenue's record of two-tenths of one percent declared "uncollectible" out of $168 billions collected, it looks a little different. However, getting on the "uncollectible" list is only a temporary blessing. If Internal Revenue has your tax account marked "uncollectible" about the only way that you can keep it that way is to die—or never earn any more money—because as soon as you become able to pay, Internal Revenue is usually able to collect.

PRATTLE:

top bracket in this district a team has to be up for every game. It's difficult to pick "the champ" ... but going into my somewhat foggy, smoggy, hazy crystal ball, I pick 'em like this:

1. Haskell: There is no doubt about it, Haskell will have a speedy backfield and a good passing game. With five offensive and five defensive regulars back from a 6-2-2 record last year, guided by the potent quarterbacking from Lanny Ivy and fleet-footed Charles Franklin, the Indians are my pick ... and they will be out for "heap plenty scalps."

2. Stamford: As always, the Bulldogs must be contended with. They won it all last season and with a strong crop of seniors, they could go all the way this year ... but I think this is the year of the Indians.

3. Ballinger: The Bearcats from down Ballinger way have vicious claws, and they can literally "chew you to pieces." They have a lot of talent and could knock-off the whole bunch ... but bear meat is not on my menu.

4. Coleman: The Bluecats have seven offensive and four defensive starters back. The Bluecats racked-up a 5-4-1 record last year and were beginning to roll at the end of the season. Watch out for the Cats.

5. Hamlin: With six offensive and seven defensive holdovers from a 4-5-1 record in '68, the Pied-Pipers could finish higher in the district. If they can solve their quarterback problem.

6. Anson: The Tigers wound-up with a poor season last year, but they will have experience, with six offensive and seven defensive holdovers. The Tiger's tails are wagging high and Anson is looking upward.

7. Winters: The Winters Blizzards can blow cold and blow hot. They can freeze you or burn you up. They will be stronger on defense, but are going to have to do some rebuilding.

8. Merkel: Moving up into AA contention last year, Merkel wound-up with a 4-6 season, but will have to do much better than that to stay in the thick of the battle.

NUMBER THIRTY-FIVE

Thousands Of Children Are Headed Back To School; Drive Carefully

Thousands of children are headed back to school full of nervous excitement—but with little knowledge of safety. And so again, with law enforcement agencies throughout the state, American Automobile Association urges extra care during the first few weeks of school.

Colorful announcements of the slogan "School's Open Drive Carefully" are posted throughout Texas communities and parents and motorists are urged to assume their responsibilities as soon as the school year begins.

Accidents kill more children between one and four years of age than any other cause. Because kindergarten and first grade youngsters may on their own in traffic for the first time, suffer most of the school route injuries, AAA suggests that parents walk with their children on the opening day of school, making sure that their children are familiar with traffic aids and regulations and use guarded crosswalks whenever possible.

Driving children to school only adds to the confusion around school areas, creating more hazardous conditions. Even though children should learn traffic rules, the major traffic responsibility consistently falls on the driver. AAA pleads with all drivers to help protect the lives of school children this year by driving with particular care everywhere children might be playing or crossing—and especially near school areas.

Health Is Major Concern Of 4-H Youth

A group of hand-picked 4-H teenagers representing nearly every state recently held a three-day workshop in Washington, D. C. on major health problems of youth throughout the U. S.

The 4-H'ers are especially interested in health because every one of the 3-1/4 million members has "pledged my health to better living." The fourth H in the 4-H emblem represents "Health".

Their prime concern is to learn more about the widespread use of narcotics among students; what lies ahead for boys and girls who start smoking as young as 10; why one out of 15 teens is a potential alcoholic; and why so many teens are mentally ill, resulting in the high incidence of suicide among them.

The national 4-H Health program was set up years ago by the Cooperative Extension Service so that children would become aware of the importance of sound physical and mental health for themselves.

Establishing every-day habits of good health is No. 1 on their list. Personal projects cover many aspects including safety, sanitation, poisons, and other hazards common to home and community.

At the end of the 4-H club year, health projects are summarized by the members, and evaluated by local 4-H leaders and Extension Service personnel. The most outstanding individual projects are then considered for various awards provided by the health program sponsor, Eli Lilly and Company of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Awards for each state are the same. The 4-H'er who completes the most noteworthy project will be a delegate to the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago, all expenses paid. Honor medals go to the four highest ranking members in the county. State and county certificates of merit also will be awarded to clubs reporting exceptionally fine health programs.

Seven national winners will be selected from among the 1969 state champions, and each will receive a $600 scholarship. At the conclusion of the 4-H Congress, these seven young men and women will leave Chicago for a day's tour of the Eli Lilly plant before returning to their homes.

Foundation For Blessings Enjoyed

We have reached the "I don't know where the summer went" season. Fall lies just around the corner. The unofficial demarcation line that most of us live by is Labor Day and the opening of school. The two come so closely together that Labor Day, which this year is on September 1, has become the traditional occasion for end-of-summer family outings.

Whether we realize it or not, we seem to have reached a millennium of sorts. How else can the endless stream of costly playthings...campers, boats, motors, scooters and pullman-size vehicles...that will take to the road this coming Labor Day be explained. As far as material possessions go, no people have ever enjoyed abundance on such a mass scale. Labor Day is a fitting time to recall that it has been the unique combination of American capital that has made this abundance possible. The objective of youngsters that will be returning to school on the heels of Labor Day should be to learn how to live with the good things of life that have come from the efforts of previous generations.

Perhaps in the classrooms, greater attention should be given to matters of the spirit, respect for persons and property and obedience to the laws of the land. After all, these are the foundations of the blessings we enjoy today.

Rites Are Held For Prominent Munday Banker

William Ernest Braley, 82, prominent Munday banker, and long-time resident of Munday, passed away at 1:45 p. m., Thursday, August 21, in the Knox County Hospital, Knox City, following an illness of several weeks.

Services were held Saturday at 10:30 a. m. from the First Baptist Church in Munday, with Dr. Harry Scales, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Haskell, where Mr. Braley was a member, officiating. Burial was in Johnson Memorial Cemetery under direction of McCauley-Smith Funeral Home of Munday. Nephews served as pallbearers.

Mr. Braley was born Nov. 12, 1886, at Rockdale and graduated from Duncan County High School near Rockdale, attending Southwest State University and the University of Texas. He married Alma Collier March 12, 1920, at Mineral Wells.

Mr. Braley was a cashier at a bank in Goree from 1924 until 1932 and at a Mineral Wells bank two years before joining the Munday bank. He became president of First National in 1939 and served in that capacity until February of 1969, when he became president of the board of directors.

He was a Mason, Past Worshipful Master of lodges in Munday and Mineral Wells, receiving his 50-year pin in 1962 at the Munday Lodge. He was a member of the Munday Lions Club, served as chairman and director of Knox County Hospital board, and had served on the state board of the 4-H Club Foundation.

When the tax surcharge was passed there was a small gap in what most taxpayers had withheld and what they would owe. It appeared that many taxpayers would end up 1968 owing the government money. Based on this difference, IRS predicted slightly fewer refunds, and certainly a reduction in the amount of the average refund check.

However, it didn't work out that way, in the Dallas District at least. By June 30, 1969, Internal Revenue had issued 1,008,650 refund checks to North Texans, for a probably record amount of $170,206,756.04. The best guess on the cause of an increase in the number and amount of refunds rather than a decrease—North Texas taxpayers don't like to end up the year owing Uncle Sam. As a matter of fact, a good part of the North Texans filing tax returns carefully arrange their withholding payments to make sure that they have a refund coming rather than owing taxes.

Some of these folks have a government-enforced saving plan which pays off in the form of the refund check. Others just don't want to owe the government "nothin'." At any rate, more than one million out of 1,600,000 returns filed ended up on the right side of Internal Revenue's balance sheet for their account.
