The Summer's Sessions At Camp Boothe Oaks Is "Brimming Over"

Boothe Oaks Brimming Over

Over 281 girls are already registered for the summer's sessions at Camp Boothe Oaks, the Girl Scout established camp outside of Sweetwater.

"This is the largest registration we've had since 1965 and most of the girls are Scouts or previous Scouts," said Mrs. Jewel Jennett, the director.

Three sessions are being offered. Session I (one week) is from June 21-June 27 and is for Junior Girl Scouts only (girls in the 4th, 5th and 6th grade next September). This session is full with 96 girls registered.

Session II (two weeks) is from June 28-July 11. Cadettes and Seniors will be attending this session. An added extra is the special program and program-aided training offered to Seniors.

In order to fill the demand for the one week sessions and reduce the waiting lists, session II has been partially split into IIA and IIB with two, one-week sessions for 24 girls (each) during that time. This is available to Junior Scouts only.

The second session is still open. Thirteen girls may register for the two week session, and seven girls for IIA and 11 girls for IIB, Mrs. Jennett said.

Session III (one week) is from July 12-July 18. This session is full with 96 girls registered.

"We plan on having the camp completely full within the next few days with a total of 312 girls from the 16-county area of the West Texas Girl Scout Council being served," she stated.

Therefore, those parents still planning on sending their daughters to camp this summer should register for the Session II right away in order to ensure placement.

The fee is $26.00 (Girl Scouts) and $30.00 (non-Scouts) for the one week sessions and $42.00 (Girl Scouts) and $46.00 (non-Scouts) for the two week sessions. A camp folder with all details may be picked up at the Girl Scout Service Center in Abilene or from local service unit chairmen.

Camp Boothe Oaks has four units with seven tents each. Each unit accommodates 24 girls (four girls to a tent) and a minimum of three staff (one staff tent) consisting of one unit leader and two assistants.

A new feature at camp this summer are two new screened cabins in the Sleepy Hollow unit. These offer a better and more permanent structure for camping.

"Eventually, we plan on having more of these cabins at camp," said Mrs. Jennett.

Mrs. Jewel Jennett, the camp director is on the professional staff of the West Texas Girl Scout Council and the field director for Association III and part of Association V (Robert Lee, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Roby, Roscoe, Blackwell, and Snyder).

Mrs. Jennett comes to West Texas after three years on the staff of the San Antonio Area Council of Girl Scouts. Mrs. Jennett worked with the camp committee and directed Girl Scout Camp Mira Sol near Waring for four summers. Mrs. Jennett gave extensive training in the San Antonio Council.

At various times, as a Girl Scout volunteer, Jewell served as a Cadette troop leader, troop consultant, volunteer trainer, neighborhood chairman and as a member of the training committee and camp committee.

She is a qualified First-Aid instructor for the American Red Cross, holds membership

Barrel Races Bring Crowds To Their Feet

The most crowd pleasing feature at the Texas Cowboy Reunion held annually in Stamford is found to be the Cowgirl Sponsors' Barrel Race, a contest which is an innovation of the TCR and judged strictly on time. Watching these girls, all dressed in beautiful riding clothes, race around the clover leaf pattern of the barrels at break-neck speed brings the crowds to their feet with much applause. The winner each year is awarded a beautiful, hand-tooled saddle and no girl can win more than one time. However, all contestants may compete for the day money every year and many winners return year after year.

So popular is this event that it is impossible for every contestant to ride in the arena during one of the four performances and, in order to take care of all the entries, Jack Mills, Sponsor Chairman, has arranged for those not drawing a performance to ride during slack time, which counts just the same toward winning and the day money awards. Mr. Mills is ably assisted by his secretary, Mrs. Carl Jared, and Clayton Childress, as well as the official hostess and Stamford sponsor.

First entry received for this year's rodeo was Miss Juan Davis of Waxahachie, Texas, riding for the Davis Ranch. Miss Davis got her entry in before she left on a tour of Europe.

Last year there were 84 entries in this popular event and equally as many are expected this year. Mrs. Bill Reed, official hostess of this 40th annual rodeo, and Genie Olson, Stamford Official Sponsor, are busy planning informal entertainments for the visiting girls, which will include a Tail-gate Coke party and an informal luncheon, as well as the annual Sponsors' breakfast.

Anyone who might have a few moments to spare for the benefit of your child, will be greatly appreciated. The school will begin, ages four and five. If there is a necessity to take more, the program will be extended.

Therwhanger Stocks Lobo Lake With Bass

A. L. Therwhanger, in charge of the Game Management in Haskell County, a native of Haskell County, stocked Lobo Lake last week with some 1500 black bass, fingerling size. The fish will be ready for the rodeo next year. Plans are to place larger fish in the lake for the "Fish Rodeo" next month for the youngsters to catch.

Therwhanger started with the Dept. Biologists. They have composed a proposed change for the Permian Basin, hunting, fishing and trapping laws. The one change that will affect Haskell county, if the change is approved, will be section 5.02 Prairie Chicken - open season in Cochran, Hockley, Terry and Yeakum counties only. Open season will be second Saturday of October for two (2) consecutive days, only shotguns and long bow arrows may be used. Bag limit is two (2) and possession limit is four (4) after the first day, provided, however, that it shall be unlawful to fail to present each prairie chicken lawfully taken at one of the check stations operated by the Department prior to 10:00 a. m. on the date taken. It is also unlawful to possess any prairie chicken, except during the open season, that does not have a tag applied at the Department check station.

Therwhanger said again that this is not a new law at this time it is just a proposal.

VISIT DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Freeman, of Haskell, visited their daughter, LaVerne Gayle Freeman, at the Job Corps Center at McKinney, Saturday and Sunday.

The Twelfth Annual World Soaring Championships To Be Held At Marfa

Many nationwide companies have joined together in providing much necessary equipment for the 12th annual World Soaring Championships. The event is being held in Marfa June 20-27 and it will mark the first time that the international event has been held in the United States.

Cessna Aircraft is providing four towplanes to lift the competitors into the free flight patterns; Chevron Oil is furnishing 2,800 gallons of aviation fuel for the towplanes; General Motors will have four Buick Electras for the use of the officials of the meet; Chrysler is providing two Plymouths and two Dodges.

In addition to the rolling equipment and planes needed or the success of the soaring meet, sophisticated calculators, printers and timers are needed for split-second timing and final calculation of winners. Hewlett-Packard is providing the needed equipment for this phase of the operation.

Since each contestant must photograph specific points in his flights to establish evidence that those points have been flown over, Eastman Kodak is furnishing 3,000 Instamatic Film packs.

Office work is a necessary part of the operation and West Texas Office Supply is providing all office equipment needed for the smooth operation of the event, except for 12 typewriters being loaned by Royal Typewriter.

When the West German team arrives in El Paso after a non-stop flight in a Luftwaffe Air Force 707, they will be furnished ed four Buicks and two Opels by the Overseas Division of General Motors.

The contestants from Sweden will travel in four Volvo autos furnished to them by Volvo of the Southwest, Houston.

The four British sailplanes were air-freighted to Webb AFB, Big Spring, in British Royal Air Force air freighters. They will be hauled overland to the site of the contest.

The logistics involved in setting up a "complete city" at the Marfa site has challenged the imagination and labor of hundreds of Marfa residents as well as soaring enthusiasts from all parts of the United States.

Complete feeding facilities, security guards, fire control, sanitation facilities and virtually all facets of city government have been set up except for a Fritz Kahl, Marfa, general chairman of the event.

Practice sessions began on June 15 at Marfa and the actual contest begins on June 20. One of the defending champions is a member of the U. S. team, A. J. Smith of Michigan won the Standard Class Championship title at the 11th World Championships and will be back to defend his title this year.

The U. S. team is composed of team captain Richard Johnson, of Dallas, George Moffat, Jr., of Elizabeth, N. J.; Wallace Scott of Odessa; Rudolph Alteman of Richmond, Washington and Smith.

Twenty-eight nations will be represented at the meet and to solve another problem: communication, numerous interpreters have been engaged (volunteers).

Financing such an undertaking is a stupendous job for the residents of Marfa, a city of approximately 3,000. The Soaring Society of America has no funds to finance such a meet and the U. S. Government does not provide money for such events. Solicitations are being made throughout Texas from individuals, corporations and foundations for funds to pay for the staging of the championships. All contestants pay their own expenses, except for a few foreign teams whose travel and lodging costs are handled by their own government.

Individuals who would like to make a small contribution to the "Olympics of Soaring" can make checks payable to the Soaring Society of America—World Championships, and mail them to Box 1970, Marfa, Texas 79843. Those who contribute as much as $5.00 will be sent a specially designed patch indicating their participation in the 12th World Soaring Championship. Kahl mentioned that such contributions are tax deductible.

Spectators would be well advised to make reservations in

Texas Leads In Interstate Highway Mileage

Texas has more miles of Interstate highways open to traffic at this moment than any other State will have when the giant national system of superhighways is completed sometime in the mid-1970s.

The designated Interstate network in Texas will total 3,170 miles—more than any other State, naturally.

As of May 31 Texas had 2,283.84 miles of Interstate highways open to traffic.

That happens to be 2.84 miles more than California (with the second-largest designated mileage) will have when the network is complete.

The U. S. Bureau of Public Roads reported on March 31st that California had 1,632 miles open to traffic of a 2,281-mile designated Interstate system.

The Texas mileage includes sections of Interstate highways complete to full Interstate standards and others on approved locations which are complete to standards deemed adequate for present traffic volumes.

Assuming that construction money from the Federal Highway Trust Fund is received on schedule, the Texas portion and the national system will be complete sometime in the mid-1970s.

Growing Number Disabled Veterans Obtain Life Ins. Policies From VA

A growing number of disabled veterans have obtained "RH" life insurance policies issued by the Veterans Administration.

Administrator of Veterans Affairs Donald E. Johnson said a comparison of statistics for the first four months of this year with those for the same period last year reveals the number almost doubled.

A total of 6,942 RH policies with a combined value of $65.5 million were issued during the first four months of this year. Last year, the figures were 3,801 policies worth nearly $35 million, Johnson said.

He added that RH is the only government veterans' life insurance open to new issues, and described it as a valuable, low-cost insurance which provides adequate coverage for veterans with service-connected disabilities.

Johnson noted the low cost of this insurance. For example, the premium for a 25-year-old veteran on a $10,000 five year term policy is $2.60 a month.

Coupled with a $10,000 policy converted from Servicemen's Group Life Insurance at standard rates, the disabled veteran can carry $20,000 worth of life insurance coverage at a comparatively low premium rate, he pointed out.

He further explained that RH life insurance is available to veterans separated from service after April 24, 1951, who have a VA disability rating, and who are in good health, a side from their service-connected disabilities.

Regulations require that applications for RH insurance be made within one year of the veteran's notification from VA of his service-connected disability.

The VA official urged disabled veterans to request additional information on RH insurance from their local VA offices as soon as possible after receiving their notification of disability rating.

245 persons under age 60 in Haskell County received a social security check on January 3, 1970.

1,394,452 disabled workers received $157,203,000 from social security for December 1969.

Play Night Held Each Tues. Night At Powell Arena

The James Powell arena was the scene of a Play Night Tuesday night for area cowboys and cowgirls.

Competition was offered in barrel racing, pole bending and flag racing.

Age 12 and under youngsters participating in these events were Debbie Aycock, Casey and Carey Hannsz, Susie James and Carl Hopkins, and Carla Shelton. Other young contestants were Glenda Gail, Jan Sermon, Hannez, Brenda Renfro, A. B. Howard Hopkins.

Play nights are held Tuesday night and interested boys and adults are invited.

114 persons in Haskell County received social security for 1970.

A GOOD TIME OF YEAR

The Hindu poet Rabindranath Tagore wrote of summer: "Today the summer has come at my window with its sighs and murmurs: and the bees are plying their minstrelsy at the court of the flowering grove." There is something about those words that express the spell of the season which will arrive as usual on June 21st. When all is said and done, the poet has caught what, for a great many people, is the enduring spirit of summer that will last longer in memory than the excitement and fun of even the most momentous vacation.

What earthy experience is there that can truly match the tranquility of a summer morning when the sounds of nature can be heard as the heat of the rising sun stirs afresh the good smells of the earth and its vegetation. In the high mountains, the morning is ushered in with the dry hot smell of forests and perhaps the murmur of a nearby stream blending with the sharp strokes of an enterprising woodpecker. In the valleys, the freshness of a summer morning is magnified by traces of dew and the symphony of birds. The burst of energy at the beginning of a midsummer day is but a prelude to indolence as the sun approaches its zenith, driving dogs and small boys to the shade of the nearest tree. These are the things we remember about summer long after the rest is forgotten...things that only a poet can recall.

40 YEARS AGO
(June 19, 1930)

Rainfall of cloudburst proportions flooded this section last Friday evening when a total of nearly nine inches of rain fell here in the space of three hours, causing damage estimated at thousands of dollars to property and growing crops. In Haskell dozens of homes were flooded, the water rising so quickly that numbers of families feared for their safety. However, the peak of the high water started falling within a few minutes after it had been reached. With a total of 8.02 inches recorded at Haskell reports of even heavier precipitation come from Munday and Gorce, and near the latter place the entire family of Oscar Tidwell were drowned when floor waters of Miller Creek caused them to flee from home. Mr. and Mrs. Tidwell and their son and daughter, age 10 and 8, and Mrs. Gilliland, the mother of Mrs. Tidwell, all lost their lives. Old-timers consider Friday's downpour the most disastrous in the past 40 years, citing the fact that in the flood of 1909 the rainfall was spread over two days, while Friday's precipitation was confined to about three hours.

A party composed of A. C. Pierson, Dr. L. F. Taylor, Jno. E. Fouts, Rev. H. R. Whatley and Howard Whatley spent last week on the San Saba river fishing. They left Haskell Monday morning and returned Friday night just as the big rain was getting underway. They report a most enjoyable trip, and state that they caught plenty of fish.

W. H. Murchison attended to business in Lamesa last week.

Miss Hassie Davis, who has been teaching school in Dallas, is at home for the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Davis.

Miss Lucille Foote has returned to Haskell to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Foote, after completing her second year's work in the University of Texas, Austin.

Miss Minadel Davis left last Thursday for Wilcox, Arizona, where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. Scott W. Green Jr.

60 YEARS AGO
(June 18, 1910)

The groom is a prominent young barber at Weinert and the bride is one of Haskell's most accomplished and beautiful young ladies. The couple will be at home after July 1st.

On last Thursday night at the residence of the bride's parents,

Mr. H. C. Cogell and Miss Tisse Simmons were married. The groom is a prominent young merchant and the bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of our fellow townsman, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Simmons of this city.

Messrs. Parks and others shipped 365 fat hives to Wichita, Kansas this week. These cattle had been fed here at the Haskell Oil Mill and were in fine condition.

Miss Eula Poole is attending the state Normal at Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sherrick left Wednesday for an extended tour in West and Southwest Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Boone and daughter, Miss Beryl, spent several days on the ranch in the northeast part of the county this week.

Misses Mabel and Fannie Baldwin have returned from T.C.U. at Waco.

Mr. Chas. Druesedow of the northeast side was in the city Wednesday and reports that cotton is putting on squares in his community.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hemphill, of Aspermont, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Hemphill of this city this week.

F. M. Morton, manager of the Haskell Power Company, made a business trip to Hamlin this week.

Rev. L. O. Cunningham and family have returned from the Austin Seminary and he has resumed his duties as pastor of the Presbyterian Church here.

WASHINGTON

"As it looks from here"

OMAR DURBLESON Congressman 17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C.—It is somewhat difficult to keep in mind the original purpose and intent for which the United Nations was created. Its goal, of course, was to preserve peace in the world. At the time of its organization, Admiral Nimitz said "as long as men talk they do not fight."

It is really difficult to measure the United Nations in terms of accomplishments. The Security Council has settled some pretty sticky situations around the world which could have conceivably led to war. The trouble is that it has developed offshoots which, in its operation, is causing the tail to wag the dog. It is engaging in activities not originally intended.

The 25th Anniversary of the United Nations is to be observed in July. At that time, a World Youth Assembly is to be a part of the celebration. It bodes likely that such a group will attract anti-American revolutionaries and furnish a forum for attack on this country.

From reports, United Nations officials who are making arrangements for the Assembly, have agreed to issue invitations to Communist China, North Vietnam and East Germany who are not even members of the body. One hundred twenty-six invitations are to go out. It can be assumed that a large number will use the occasion to make propaganda against the United States.

As far as can be determined, there are no rules about voting, which means that communist elements can be expected to rig the outcome of every resolution.

The forum to be furnished by the assembly could produce little more than abuses against America and the Free World. If encouragement was needed, it could come from statements recently made by the United Nations Secretary-General U Thant at a United Nations Conference in Tampere, Finland. As a part of the Lenin Anniversary ceremonies, U Thant is quoted as saying that the principal author and creator of the Soviet Totalitarian System was "an outstanding scholar and prominent humanist who championed the advance of human rights and fundamental freedoms."

It is striking that the man he praised butchered and starved untold numbers of human beings who opposed him in Russia. He dismissed morality and prompted terrorist campaigns against all who resisted the communist theory. It is hardly conceivable that the Secretary-General of the United Nations, who is supposed to be dedicated to peace and freedom, could heap praise upon Lenin and describe him as standing for fundamental freedoms.

On other occasions and in general, the United States has stood as the whipping boy in the United Nations. The Secretary-General has from time to time downgraded the United States and the values on which it is built.

The UN is not popular in this country and it will be less so if it permits young revolutionaries from all over the world to use its 25th Anniversary as an occasion to revile America. The organization had better get back on the track of trying to settle disputes among nations and stop trying to distribute America's wealth all over the world and sponsoring other socialistic schemes for which it was never intended. The American taxpayer will be out about $110 million this year for the running of the United Nations which is about 40 percent of its budget.

If the youth assembly turns out as to be expected, there will be a justified demand in this country that we stop paying beyond our share of these expenses and many will advocate our complete withdrawal from it. It makes no sense that Americans should pay for an organization which sponsors those who would heap abuses on our system and who would like to see our downfall. This member of Congress is asking President Nixon and the State Department to deny the admission of the avastants to the bly. They should ted to set foot on
