Haskell Group Attacks Validity Of Millers Creek Reservoir Vote

A grand old flag! It's a flying flag... wonder, though, if our national symbol of freedom flies as often, as it used to.

Two weeks ago, just prior to Flag Day, this newspaper called attention, editorially and otherwise, to the fact that the "Old Glory" should be respectfully displayed on every day without thinking of the meaning of a holiday and its significance to the nation.

It is in this patriotic chorus that we are directed to ourselves. We are to be the worst. We are to be the best. We are to be at a place, or at our home. And that is not an patriotic to fly our national banner at home!

Three-judge Federal Court has impeded to hear the case, since it raises the question of constitutionality of Texas law. When the U. S. Supreme Court ruled in the Louisiana case, it held that the new principle of law would be retroactive only on elections on which a period for contest under state law had not expired.

The Water Authority election involved combination revenue and tax bonds. Therefore, a decision that the election was invalid would extend the Supreme Court principal to a new type of bond issue.

The five Haskell plaintiffs contend that they are qualified voters and that they were prohibited by Texas law from taking part in the election.

Rainfall For Year Still Far Above Normal

Although Haskell fell below normal in rainfall during the month of June, the overall precipitation for 1969 is still far above normal, according to figures released by Sam Herren, "The Weatherman."

Normal rainfall for June is 2.84 inches. A total of 1.57 inches fell during the month. Normal rainfall to date for 1969 is 11.93 inches, however, a total of 17.98 has been registered through June, Herren's figures reveal.

Here is how the rains came during June: June 2, .02; June 9, .04; June 13, .08; June 14, 1.14; June 17, .03; June 20, .04; June 24, .04. Total, 1.57.

A low of 54 degrees was registered on June 2 and on June 21, a high of 1.04 was registered.

IN COMPETITION with other beauties of the state, Marsha Shaver of Rochester will leave July 6 for Fort Worth to enter the Miss Texas Beauty Pageant as "Miss Throckmorton." She will be chaperoned at Green Oaks Inn by Mrs. R. A. Lane of Haskell.

Marsha Shaver To Compete In Miss Texas Contest, Fort Worth

A Haskell County beauty, who is presently representing Throckmorton as "Miss Throckmorton" will be entering higher competition July 6th.

She will be representing Throckmorton in the "Miss Texas Beauty Pageant" in Fort Worth; and, naturally, not only Throckmorton, but all of Haskell County, will be interested in this event.

She is Marsha Shaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Shaver Jr., of Rochester, and a junior student in Texas Tech at Lubbock. She is majoring in clothing and textiles, and in home education.

She will leave Rochester on Sunday, July 6, and will be in Fort Worth all the following week preparing for the state pageant. Her chaperone while there will be Mrs. R. A. Lane of Haskell.

Marsha is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority at Tech, and a member of the Angel Flight, a drill team of about 50 girls that acts as hostesses for ROTC both on and off campus. This year, Marsha was one of the 17 Angel Flight to make a trip to Anaheim, Calif., where they placed third in competition with top drill teams in the nation.

She is also a member of the Texas Tech M'amselles, a group of models sponsored by Neiman Marcus. This group of 20 girls will model and represent Texas Tech wherever called upon.

Haskell Rolls Back The Clock For Frontier Day Celebration

Two Weeks' Singing School To Begin Here On Monday, July 7th

Applications have been received from eight different states, including Alabama and South Dakota, for the annual two-weeks singing school which will begin Monday, July 7, at the Church of Christ, 510 N. Ave. E. in Haskell. According to Bob Connel, minister, this promises to be the best singing school since its beginning some four years ago. The school will close on Friday, July 18.

Students will begin arriving on Sunday, July 6, and the school officially gets underway Monday, July 7, at 8:45 a. m. The school is for all ages, 10 years and up—boys and girls, men and women. Students will be kept in the homes of local church members. Mr. Connel stated.

The school will be directed by Holland L. Boring Sr., of Floresville, with Bob Connel serving as co-ordinator. Others of the staff will be Don B. Boring of Carbondale, Colo., and Paul Epps of Seymour.

Assisting will be Hartsell Johnson of Alva, Okla., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Johnson of Haskell. Course of study will include fundamentals of song leading, rudiments of hymn music, harmony and composition, daily voice lessons, sight reading, how to teach hymn music, hymnology and instructions in A Capella singing.

Following daytime classes, 8:45 a. m. to noon and 1:00 to 4:00 p. m., singing and devotional periods will be held each evening from 7:30 to 9:00 o'clock. The public is invited.

A highlight of the school will be the appearance of all students and singing instructors on the courthouse square on Friday night, July 11. An inspirational program in song will be given, and the public is especially invited to this outdoor program.

Another special invitation is extended to everyone to attend the final program on Friday night, July 18. This program will consist of choruses, quartets and special numbers—one which lovers of good gospel singing will certainly enjoy.

Regarding this inspirational church-sponsored effort, Mr. Connel said, in part: "Certainly we must learn to be compared to the discovery of the new word by Columbus."

George Morgan, of the Space Craft Center, Houston, told members of the Lions Club at the Tuesday noon-day luncheon meeting at Felker's Restaurant dining room.

Charles Thornhill was program chairman for the day and introduced the speaker. "Even if the space program was halted today, our tax dollars would have been well spent," the speaker said.

Morgan pointed out the many steps of preparation now underway for the flight to the moon on July 16th.

Following his very interesting and informative talk of the activities of the Space Craft Center, a number of questions were fired to the speaker from the floor concerning the space program.

Guests noted, other than the program speaker, were E. O. Morgan of Rule, John Wallace Cox, Wayne Cadenhead, Anders Thufvesson, of Alhus, Sweden, and H. T. Fillingham, Jr. Anders Thufvesson, Lions Exchange student, was presented a plaque from the Haskell Lions Club by president, Bud Herren.

Prexy Herren presided over the meeting. Mike Abbott lead the singing, with Judy Therwanger at the piano, and the invocation was given by A. C. Pierson.

As the clock struck midnight on Tuesday night of this week, cowboys were still roping and tying Brahma calves and just a few minutes before midnight, the western bands were still playing the hoedowns still popular, but the chief type of music in the early days of the west.

Haskell citizens woke up on Wednesday after in the present time after a full day and night of Frontier Day entertainment which rolled back the hands of the clock to 1898 at which time the Cowboy Reunion was held here.

Many novel and interesting features of the days' program drew a large crowd of both local and out-of-town people to the celebration.

At this writing, it is believed that the barber shops and restaurants received the most vigorous workout, due to the slash in prices. Barbers had long lines in front of their place of business even before the doors were open for customers capitalizing on the 25-cent haircuts.

Of the five barbers taking part in the program, at least four were painfully reminded of the "good old days" when a quarter was the standard price for a haircut. They were Richard Bischoffhausen, Sam Parks, Leslie Jones and Bruce Young. The only "youngster" who went along with the old time prices was Tommy Matthews who will readily tell you he had a lot of fun but if he had to cut hair for that kind of price, he more than likely would suddenly change to another profession.

Restaurant employees were truly swamped with customers for their bargains of lunches, steak and etc., for 25c per helping.

A highlight of the downtown activity was a livestock weight-guessing contest for women only. A huge Holstein steer belonging to Mack Cooke of northeast of Haskell some 28 miles. Three ladies tied for first place in the contest with an estimate of 2,410 pounds of weight. They were Mrs. Ed Hester, Mrs. Bus-

PUNKIN' PIE IN JULY
An eleven pound pumpkin grown in the Browning-Hester-McBroom community garden was brought to the Free Press Tuesday afternoon. It was reported by Bettye McBroom that they still have much larger pumpkins in the garden.

It is usually in the fall of the year around Halloween when pumpkins hit their peak... but here it is only the first of July and the "home-grown" pumpkins are ready for those good 'ole punkin' pies.

Jaycees To Buy Plectron Units For Firemen
As a community service project this year, the Haskell Jaycees in a meeting Tuesday night voted to purchase two plectron units at a cost of approximately $100 each for the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department.

Stitching And Stewing

County H. D. Agent By Ruth Ann Fansler

Glass containers can be used in home freezing although care in handling is required. Clear glass makes labeling unnecessary. Add only the date of freezing.

If you use jars, here are a few simple steps for handling them:

1. Examine jars to make sure they have no nicks or cracks. Wash them in hot, soapy water, rinse and scald them. Invert jars on a clean cloth to drain and cool.
2. Pack food in clean jars to within 1/2 inch of the top of jar. Pack firmly but not tightly.
3. Place cap on the jar with sealing composition next to the glass and screw the band tight. No special cap is needed for freezing; use canning lids.

Mrs. Don Whitley of the Waldrip Home Demonstration Club in O'Brien submitted this week's recipe.

Welfare Payments May More If Amendment Passes

Welfare Commissioner Hackney says the state welfare program is at stake in a special election.

At the date, Texans vote on a constitutional amendment on welfare payments.

Under the amendment, the state will enable the welfare department to use appropriate funds to provide for the needy blind, aged, and dependent children.

The amendment will mean the state welfare system, Hackney says, is a massive program.

Texas Historical Marker To Be Dedicated July 4

T. L. Roach Jr., rancher of Amarillo and Colfax, N. Mexico, and President of Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, will dedicate the Oldtimers granite and metal Texas Historical marker at the Texas Cowboy Reunion, Stamford, on July 4th, at 3:00 p. m., at the Oldtimers Bunkhouse in Stamford.

The Cattle Raisers Association is even older than the Oldtimers group, having been organized at Graham, Texas in the 1870's.

The Oldtimers memorial is an 8,000 pound granite marker with the names of all past presidents on one side and the largest Texas Historical metal marker on the other. It is located on Highway 277, at the corner of the air conditioned Bunkhouse, where President Roach will speak.

The members of the Independent Baptist Church had services from Tuesday night, closing Sunday, each captain sponsored a month of the year.

The services were very inspirational and reviving. Rev. Burks, Rev. J. Jackson, Rev. Mitchell, were guests for the week. Rev. J. C. Vaughn of Seymour brought the sermon Sunday at 3:00 p. m.

Mrs. Bessie Hanson thanked the women for their cooperation financially and spiritually. The auxiliaries raised one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars. This was a special effort coming up to "Home Coming" in July.

Vacation Bible School will be held at the Independent Baptist Church, July 7-11. All are invited to attend and adults are needed to supervise and help with the children.

Cowger, Soil Conservationist Is Transferred To Haskell Office

Ernest L. Cowger, Soil Conservationist for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Soil Conservation Service, of Stamford, has been transferred to Haskell to serve in the same capacity. It was announced today by District Conservationist J. C. Yearly, Jr.

Dan M. Lovron, who has been assisting the Stamford Work Unit on a part-time basis for the past several years, will also be headquartered at Haskell, Yearly said. Both Cowger and Lovron were transferred to Haskell by the closing of the Stamford Office of the SCS.

Cowger, a veteran Conservationist, will continue to assist landowners and operators in Haskell County with the development of conservation plans for their farms and ranches, Yearly said. Cowger, who has resided in Stamford for the last 15 years, is well known to producers in the southern part of Haskell County. He will be assisting with the development of a total conservation program over all of Haskell County.

Lovron lives on his home farm about five miles northwest of Stamford. Cowger will retain his Stamford residence, but will commute to Haskell.

All landowners and operators in Haskell County will now seek their conservation assistance from the Haskell Work Unit. The location of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service work will govern the location of Farm and Ranch Conservation Plans. If your ASCS Farm number is located in Haskell County, then Haskell Work Unit will serve your soil and water conservation needs.

The Soil Conservation Service Work Unit Office is located at 102 North Ave. E in Haskell. This is US 277, and the Office is located next door to the Haskell Chamber of Commerce.

VIETNAM VIEW

(As reported by Marine Corps Combat Correspondents)

By Lt. Col. Joe Kinney
DA NANG, Vietnam—With the knowledge that in Vietnam death lurks around every corner, Marines attend religious services with some degree of regularity. As one leatherneck puts it, "There's something about this country that brings you a little closer to God."

In addition to the normal motivation for spiritual nourishment, however, Marines of the 1st Marine Division's 5th Regiment recently had another stimulus to attend church.

Normally, the Liberty Bridge Marine combat outpost is only accessible by truck convoy from An Hoa or Da Nang. The ride from An Hoa is one of the roughest a man can experience as drivers cover the bumpy 7-mile distance at top speed to elude snipers.

On a recent Sunday, as a convoy consisting of elements of the 5th Marine Regiment rolled in, rains of monsoon intensity struck. In looking for cover from the unseasonal downpour, their eyes caught sight of the outpost chapel.

"It's always nice to have a full house," said Navy Lt. Glenn E. Powell, 37, 482 Aidende, South Euclid, Ohio Catholic chaplain, with a wide grin, as the drenched Leathernecks in full combat gear joined his services.

By Cpl. Hank Berkowitz
AN HOA, Vietnam—A determined Marine of "B" Company, 1st Battalion, 5th Marine Regiment, felt that the company needed some information from a prisoner, so he captured one despite intense sniper fire and one Viet Cong (VC) who tried to stop him.

Pfc. Frucoso A. Gonzalez, 19, 1449 Margarita, Corpus Christi, Texas, was taking part in a company sweep through an area three miles southeast of Liberty Bridge when another VC tried to hide in the dense brush. Before they could go after them the company came under intense small arms fire from the rice paddies directly to their front.

The company returned the fire and Gonzalez spotted one of the three trying to flee into a Vietnamese village a few hundred yards away. "I was hoping that he had some information that would help my company in the area we were sweeping," explained Gonzalez, "so I took off after him with my partner covering me."

The two men chased the fleeing enemy over fireweed terrain, firing as they ran. Gonzalez got to within 40 feet of him when he saw the VC throw his rifle into a bomb crater. He chased him for another 50 yards before he was able to catch him.

"I grabbed him by the head and shoved him to the ground. I was hanging on to him with one hand while looking for his two comrades who were firing at us. My partner killed one and then I spotted the other and finished him off with a short burst from my M-16."

Gonzalez and his partner waited with the prisoner for the rest of the company to sweep toward their position and then joined them. The prisoner was taken to the rear for interrogation.

"I would have hated to see that VC disappear in the village—just to come out later and kill more Marines," said Gonzalez. "Besides, a little exercise never hurt anyone."

By Cpl. Dave Allen
DA NANG, Vietnam—The three-man crew had moved their "super-shotgun" onto a small dusty hill in the "Arizona Territory," 20 miles southwest of Da Nang, after Leathernecks of the 5th Marines had snapped a trap shut on an estimated 400 North Vietnamese Army (NVA) soldiers.

Pfc. Ricardo Morales, 21, 106 Villereal St., San Antonio, Tex., a member of a 106mm recoilless rifle team assigned to the 2nd Battalion, 5th Marines, was on a very special "stake-out" two fellow Marines and he manned during a recent three-day engagement with the enemy.

The enemy had been trapped as they tried to infiltrate towards Da Nang. Many of the NVA tried to hide from the torrent of Marine artillery and air strikes. However, many others, reeling from the incessant fighting and from the concussions of hundreds of explosions, ran across open fields and rice paddies.

"That's where we came in," reported Lance Cpl. Raymond Trevino, 19, 1907 Athel, San Antonio, Tex. "Whenever we saw

Tax Questions And Answers

(This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.)

Q—My house has gone up in value in the 15 years I've owned it. Will I be taxed on this increase when I sell?

A—Profits on the sale of a home are taxable. There are situations, however, where the tax may be postponed or even eliminated.

A person who buys another house within a year of the sale of his old home may be able to postpone the tax depending on how much the new one costs. Under certain conditions the postponement provision may also apply if a new home is constructed.

There is no tax on the profit of a home sale for those 65 years of age and over when certain conditions are met.

For details on these provisions, send a post card to your IRS district office and ask for Publication 523, Tax Information on Selling Your Home.

Q—I'm taking a job as a waitress at a resort hotel. Will the tips I make count as income?

A—Yes, tips are taxable income and do have to be reported.

If your tips amount to $20 a month or more, they will also be credited for Social Security purposes. In that case, they should be reported to your employer so that he can make the necessary adjustments in your withholding.

them in the open, we would load our 106, aim in and fire"

During the last three days of the battle, the three-man crew killed at least seven enemy in this fashion. "We spotted four this morning moving across a foot bridge about 1,800 yards from our position," added Pfc. Merle L. Jeffries, 19, 1815 Clay St., St. Joe, Mo. Before the last man had crossed the bridge, a round was on the way and the four NVA were out of action.

Proposed depth is 4,000 feet to test the Palo Pinto.

Sokjerner Drilling Corp. & J. D. Tompkins of Abilene filed application to drill a wildcat project six miles north of Haskell.

The 4,900-foot rotary project will test the Burson Strawn Sand.

Two Students On H-SU Honor Roll

Two Haskell students have been listed as making the honor roll at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene for the spring semester.

Gerre C. Larned, a junior, was named on the dean's list. To qualify for this honor, a student must carry a minimum course load of 12 hours and make a grade of A on all courses.

Vicki Lynn Morrison, senior of Haskell, was named on the honor roll, which means that she carried a minimum course load of 12 hours and achieved a status of magna cum laude, or a 3.58 grade point average.

Mrs. Gene Overton
Farm work is going right along with the weather cooperating. The cotton for the most part is so clean that hosing will not be the problem it was last summer. Most all the wheat and oats have been cut. The maize has nice green heads on it, and the little cotton is simply beautiful. So much for the crops.

The less said about the weather, the better. The heat is terrific, and one would think it would sap the strength of our farmers. Some men say it is cooler out under a tractor umbrella than most anywhere on a hot day. One thing that may be hard on them is coming in to a cool house for lunch and then going back to the heat. But hot weather on cotton with good moisture underneath is supposed to be just what the doctor ordered to make cotton grow.

Troop No. 48, Boy Scouts of America, left Sunday morning for Camp Tonkawa for a week's camping and work on merit badges. The school allowed the troop to use one of the little buses. Scoutmaster Wallar Overton had to come back Monday evening for some special work at the Masonic Lodge, and he reported that camp this summer is the best one ever. (He says that every summer). But the camp leaders are not even wearing their watches, and the scouts don't have to be at a certain class at a certain time. Classes are being held for two or three hours every day, and they can attend any hour a class is going on. Even the swimming pool is open for a certain length of time, and a boy can choose his time to swim.

I am sure there is a gaping hole in the camp activities with Mr. Holland Cogdell gone. There never was a nature counselor like he. His classes and his museum were the highlights of camp for scouts all the while he was in camp. His experience as a Forest Ranger made him an authority on so many facets of nature. That was why Gene and Wallar insisted our scouts take every class they could under Mr. Cogdell. His death last spring was a blow to Camp Tonkawa. But the boys on staff who are teaching nature have the museum, and have worked under Mr. Cogdell.

Scouts attending camp this summer are Mike Brazell, Senior Patrol Leader, Ricky Brazell, Glen Casselberry, Phillip Cokrell, Tom Pritchard, Jim Bob Mickler and Joe Mickler. Parents will go take supper on Thursday night and see the Order of the Arrow Tap-Out ceremony.

Several Paint Creekers have been ill with this virus that is making the rounds. It causes high temperature and lasts about two or three days. Wayne Dilbeck, little Matt and Pat Horton, Janice Isbell, Milla Perry, James and Carl Hopkins . . . have all been ill either over the weekend or this week.

Did you see the plane circling the community last Saturday about 1:30 or 2 o'clock? It was piloted by 1st Lt. Mike Overton of Ft. Rucker, Alabama. It was as big a thrill for him to see Paint Creek from the air as it was for us to know he was piloting the plane. He said Georgia and Alabama skies are misty from the Gulf moisture, and a pilot can't see the whole country under him as he can in Texas skies. Too, there are trees everywhere and it was fun for him to see the farms and fields in Texas. He and Captain Dick Larson and Lt. Phil Goodenough of Ft. Rucker got in a day of required piloting and navigating by flying from Rucker to Texas.

Henry Thane was taken to the Hendricks Memorial Hospital in Abilene Monday for further tests. He has been a patient in the Haskell Hospital for almost two weeks. His daughter, Mrs. Burl Medford and Mr. Medford went with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Twain Micker and children and Mr. and Mrs. Roddy Kuenstler and children spent several days camping on the river last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jones and Greg Jones of Brownfield, Texas spent last weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fischer. Greg is spending this week with the Fischers. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are moving to Fort Worth where he is being transferred by his company.

Danny Isbell has learned to drive a car with hand controls at the Abilene Rehabilitation

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Earles have their family home with them this week. Seaman Bob Earles from San Francisco, Calif., is on a month's liberty. Judy Earles, who is a nurse at the St. Anthony Hospital in Amarillo is here, and Mrs. Don Erwin of Wichita Falls and her children are here. Mr. Erwin will join them this weekend.

Mrs. R. V. Earles was in Fort Worth Saturday and Sunday after being notified that her father, Mr. J. D. Garrett, had fallen and broken his hip. He is hospitalized, but will not undergo surgery until later. Mrs. Earles came home Sunday night and will go back for the surgery.

Leonard Howard and Sabrina Doty celebrated their 6th birthday at the J. W. Howard home on June 25. Mrs. Howard had a birthday supper for them, and guests were their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pierce, Debbie, Sherri and Sabrina of Rule, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Howard, Theresa, David, Kathy and Becky of Sydney, Australia, and hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howard and children, Hollis, Gail and Leonard.

BRICKER-ATKINSON NUPITALS READ
Mrs. Thelma Perry Bricker, formerly of Haskell and Paint Creek, was married to R. A. Atkinson of San Angelo and Water Valley, on June 14th in the Prayer Chapel of Arlington Heights Methodist Church in Ft. Worth. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phillips of Water Valley, with only a few members of the family and a few close friends in attendance.

Mrs. Atkinson has been employed for a number of years at Weaver's Pharmacy in Fort Worth as a drug typist. She is the daughter of Mrs. Wayne Perry, who makes her home with her, and the late Wayne Perry of Paint Creek. She is the sister of Hoyt Perry. Mr. Atkinson is a lifetime resident of Water Valley and San Angelo, and is in the garage business in San Angelo. The couple will make their home in Water Valley.

Superintendent Bill Gibbs underwent knee surgery at Hendricks Memorial Hospital in Abilene Wednesday morning.

Analyn Pritchard is at G.A. Camp this week at the Lueders Baptist Encampment grounds. She is with a group of girls from her grandmother's church in Abilene.

The Tax Equalization Board met at the Paint Creek School Monday evening. Present were representatives of the West Texas Utilities Company, some oil companies who have oil interests in our community, our Paint Creek tax lawyers, Irine Stewart, tax advisor, the school tax equalization board consisting of Gene Overton, Dale Middlebrook and Sammy Griffith. It was a most harmonious meeting with everybody pleased about their taxes. Imagine that! The school is doing so many nice improvements this summer. Some pipe guards have been built around the football field in the place of the cable ones we have had so long. New sidewalks in front of the building and to the Home Economics cottage. The gym is getting a completely new floor. They removed all the old one, and are building a brand-new hardwood floor.

But the nicest news from the school is that Mrs. Felts is coming back next year as our Homemaking teacher. Not only is she one of the most capable Homemaking teachers, but one of the prettiest in the area. And not only are the girls pleased, but I think Mrs. Felts is glad to be coming back, too. She will commute from her home in Avoca.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Howard and family of Sydney, Australia are on vacation here visiting his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Howard of Haskell and his brother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howard, are also here. Kenneth is a geophysicist with an oil company. They may be transferred to Singapore soon.

I forgot to put this in the column at the time, but Teddy Wadzeck won a medal in the Fort Worth Press Soil Conservation essay contest. He was not a winner in the California Creek Soil Conservation contest, but all the essays entered are sent on to the Fort Worth Press contest, and there he was de-

Teddy was a senior at Paint Creek this past year, but missed so much school because of illness that he was unable to graduate. He is completing his work by taking two half credits correspondence this summer. He plans to be a beautician.

Tom Patterson of Dallas visited one evening last week with the Gene Overtons.

Mrs. Hollis Haynes retired from the teaching profession at the close of this past spring term. She taught remedial reading two years at Paint Creek, and last year taught the first grade. We hate to lose her because she is an exceptional teacher. Mrs. Bob Harrison of Stamford will take her place as first grade teacher.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Texas Highway Department is planning the improvement of U. S. 277 in Haskell County from U. S. 380 North of Stamford to the south city limit of Haskell along the existing route.

The proposed improvement will consist of constructing two additional lanes to make a four-lane highway. The usual construction will consist of an additional roadway with 24 ft. pavement and surfaced shoulders, a usual 100 ft. median and right-of-way widened to 280 ft., except on the two-mile section immediately south of Haskell where a four-lane undivided section is proposed consisting of 4-12 ft. lanes, 4 ft. painted median and surfaced shoulders on the existing 100 ft. right of way.

Maps and other drawings showing the proposed location and geometric design and any other information about the proposed project are on file and available for inspection and copying at the Resident Engineer's office at North Central Avenue in Hamlin. Also, drawings showing the proposed geometric design have been placed on file with the County Judge in Haskell.

Information about the State's Relocation Assistance Program, the benefits and services for displacees and the relocation assistance office as well as information about the tentative schedules for acquisition of right of way and construction can be obtained at the Resident Engineer's office.

Any interested citizen may request that a public hearing be held covering the social, economic and environmental effects of the proposed location and design for this highway project by delivering a written request to the Resident Engineer's office on or before July 16, 1969.

In the event such a request is received, a public hearing will be scheduled and adequate notice will be publicized about the date and location of the hearing. 26-27c

Many other guesses were dangerously close to the actual weight of the steer while other estimates would truly make a cattle buyer a little bit hesitant to turn his checkbook over to the "wife" to purchase cattle for him. Lowest guess noticed in the several hundred cards was 1100 pounds, while the top most estimate was something over 12,000, which goes to prove that a woman's place is in the home.

The "old Hub" cutting horse contest at the James Powell arena had 21 horses entered including some of the major brands of the continent. Trophies were awarded to three, with first place going to Dimples, ridden by Billy Drimmon of the Pitchfork Ranch, while second place was also won by the Pitchfork spread by a horse known as King Bailey 29 and ridden by Bart Craft. Third place award went to a 21-year-old horse representing the Coody Hackamore Brand, owned by Nancy Coody Morales and ridden by her husband, Soulfy Morales. Some of the ranches represented were the S M S, Pitchfork, 4 Sixes, Coody Ranch, Claude Smith Ranch of Denton, Burl Webb of Evant and the Felix Mullino Ranch of Rochester.

Four western bands were present for the Jamboree featuring the all-girl band of Abilene, The Western Queens, The KIDWT band of Stamford, The Melody Makers of Haskell and the western string band of Rochester.

Free Press are a mighty fine batch of boys and girls—from the publisher on down, or up, whichever the occasion might be. They realized, when we came to pinch hit for Al Hinds, that we'd stepped into a situation with our ignorance exposed.

We had a very limited knowledge of the town's activities, its people, the spelling of their names, what had recently transpired and what was yet to come that needed mention in the news columns. Each and every one of the Free Press crew just seemed to turn handsprings to be helpful and to make our job less tedious, more pleasant and meaningful.

Our parting words are those of a famous comedian, whom you'll recognize: "Thank you, and good night — and God bless!"

ANDERS THUFVESSON, FROM SWEDEN, HONORED BY LIONS

Through the international exchange program of the Lions Club, Anders Thufvesson of Ahus, Sweden, is spending four weeks in Haskell. Anders' first look at Texas was from aboard a jet flight to Dallas from Stockholm, Sweden. He arrived at Love Field where he was met and embraced as a "new" family member by the Frank Cadenheads.

On Tuesday, June 17, after a wee morning hour arrival on Monday, Anders was guest at the Haskell Lions Club. As the first foreign exchange student to the club since the beginning of the program three years ago, Anders' presence created high interest. Last week, June 23rd, Anders spoke to the Haskell Lions Club of the history of the Ahus Lions Club. At this second meeting, Hess Hartsfield, Haskell Lions Club president, presented Anders with a very small pair of cowboy boots. (These were redeemed for some "fittin'" size). Anders gave Mr. Hartsfield a Lions Club Banner from the Ahus Lions Club.

Anders' quick reply to the first question which is usually asked him is, "I like it very good." The next most often asked question receives the reply, "Yes, it is VERY hot!" Anders' home area in Sweden has an average temperature of 76 degrees.

All Swedish do not have the opportunity to attend college. As Anders says, "It depends on how I make the test." He aspires to make the test which will enable him to pursue the science field and to study medicine. Gunilla, his older sister, is a senior student in the University of Lund, Sweden where her fiancée is a senior. Also, (News has come since Anders arrival that a wedding date has been set for October). Ola, a younger brother, is 12 and the last child in the home. Already Ola has studied English for two years. In the fall, Anders will start his last two years in the "gymnasium" school—the equivalent of the U. S. High School. Ahus is a small town (4,000 people in the winter) and does not have a gymnasium school; therefore, Anders boards a bus each morning at 7:30 and arrives home in the afternoon at 5:00. He attends school in Kristianstad, about 15 miles from Ahus. For several years, Anders has had a pen-pal in Germany. He visited with the German youth twice and states that he is in much better use with the German than English language. Ola has a pen-pal in England.

It was a real surprise to learn how quickly clothing gets soiled here and how often one must change clothing. Anders says that he thinks it must be very hard to be an American housewife—"wash all time."

Physical prowess may or may not be a native trait of other Swedish youth! It is surely one of Anders'. He swims, plays tennis, basketball, soccer, ice hockey and other games. On his first visit to the local "not-so-blue" waters, he mastered the sport of water skiing to the degree that he learned to slalom.

After a full week of hearing, speaking and trying to understand our Texas-drawl English, Anders met his largest gathering of people in church. Many Haskell folk came to meet him, talk with him and shake his hand in welcome. Anders remarked that he felt he knew "what it must feel like to be a famous person." He liked it! The warmth which attends the greetings and handshakes given to Anders often causes him to remark on the kind friendliness of the people. That trait does cross international boundaries of understanding, doesn't it!

Haskell Student Gets A&M Honor
Galen D. Peiser of Haskell has been named a distinguished student at Texas A&M University, announced Dr. Horace R. Byers, academic vice president. In addition to posting at least a 2.25 grade point ratio, a student qualifying for distinguished student honors must have been enrolled for a minimum of 15 semester hours and have no grade lower than a "C". Distinguished student ranking is limited to 10 per cent of A&M's undergraduate enrollment.

Peiser, a junior agronomy student, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Peiser of Haskell.

ATTEND MARKET
Mrs. James E. Crawford, Mrs. E. M. Frierson and Mrs. W. A. Lyles were in Dallas, Sunday and Monday, attending the "Christmas in June" market for Lyles Jewelry.

Joseph Thigpen On Honor Roll

ABILENE — Joseph E. Thigpen, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Thigpen, of Haskell, has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll for the spring semester at Abilene Christian College.

Thigpen, a senior agricultural major, is among 351 students named. To achieve the honor, a student must take at least 12 hours and have a 3.5 grade point average out of a possible 4.0.

Sheriff's Posse Adds Another Trophy To List

Some 10 riders and their mounts of the Haskell County Sheriff's Posse made the long trek to Plainview last Thursday, but not without reward. They took first place parade honors at the Plainview Rodeo, thus adding the fourth trophy to this year's list.

Some eight or ten riding clubs

'Americans Want Government By Law, Not Whim

Government by law, rather than by whim, is believed to be one of the sustaining forces of our precious liberty. The following opinions and beliefs, prepared by the committee on American Citizenship, State Bar of Texas, might give readers of the Free Press a better understanding of this concept:

ers of the Free Press a better understanding of this concept:

WE BELIEVE

1. In government by law, rather than government by whim, because it is more likely to promote and sustain exact justice for all men.

2. That because "all Power is vested in, and consequently derived from, the People"; the Supreme Law should be an enumeration of the powers granted by the People to their chosen representatives.

3. That the best such Supreme Law and enumeration of powers granted by the People to their Government, in the history of man, is the Constitution of the United States of America.

4. In the lawyers' maxim, that "to determine the meaning of the law, it is necessary first to find the intent of the lawgiver."

5. That the meaning of the Supreme Law, once determined, remains the same and is, therefore, not subject through adjudications or interpretations which differ from the intent of the lawgiver who established it.

6. That the Supreme Law (or Constitution) can be altered or changed legally only by the legislatures or conventions of three-fourths of the several States, as provided in Article V of the Constitution of the United States of America.

7. That government should be the servant and not the master, of the People, and that therefore our government and all its branches should help preserve government by law in accordance with the foregoing principles and not give us government according to the whim of those administering and interpreting the law.

RETURNS TO HOUSTON

Mr. Samuel Garner of Houston has returned home after a three weeks visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hunter, Sam, a versatile youngster, made many friends while here, and says that "Haskell is such a nice town, but since they discontinued the train from View to Houston, transportation in and out is something else." He went by plane on Sunday, and the flight from Abilene via Dallas, Austin, San Antonio to Houston.

What About Rattling Bathtubs

We'd always considered the rattlesnake's rattle as a warning—that they rattle before they bite. But we recently encountered a release from the State Health Department that blows that theory into kingdom come!

A rattling tail indicates nervousness rather than a sign of aggression, the department said. Neither does the reptile strike only when coiled, but "a rattler may strike in any direction from any position."

The safest thing to do on encountering a poisonous snake, according to the department, is to remain still or edge away gingerly. But can you do that? No, we're inclined to yell "snake" at the top of our lungs and then make out like we're trying to jump over a mountain—and that's a recommended don't! Movement excites the snake, making it more apt to strike.

Anyway, it appears that we should be more afraid of the bathtub than a snake. Despite the deadliness of the four native Texas poisonous snakes, only 31 persons have died of snakebite in the past 10 years.

"More people are killed or seriously injured in their bathtubs than by snakebites," it was stated. If we had bathtubs that would rattle, too, maybe we could put up a better defense! We can't avoid the bathtub as totally as the reptile!

MRS. ERON JENKINS

This hot weather and high wind is getting to be the usual thing. One of the cool rainy days we had in April or May would really be welcome about now. And the weeds and grass are growing even faster than the young cotton, if that's possible. Young maize headed out. This year has been a very unusual one. Time does have a way of passing faster than we think.

4-H Bike Riders Get Safety Tips

A new nationwide bicycle program for 4-H youngsters has been announced jointly by the Cooperative Extension Service and the National 4-H Service Committee. It is designed for boys and girls from 9 to 19, with special emphasis on participation by youth of elementary school age.

Already an estimated 125,000 4-H'ers have bicycle projects, according to the Extension Service. From coast-to-coast, bicycling is one of the fastest growing fun and leisure time activities.

The program is sponsored by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio. Officials of the company and 4-H representatives negotiated for more than a year in setting up the educational pattern.

A series of annual awards will be provided by the sponsor. They consist of individual certificates for all participating members and a $50 U.S. savings bond for the state champion. Six 4-H'ers will get expense-paid educational trips to the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago. The trips will be awarded on a sectional basis. Four national $600 scholarships also will be awarded.

Guidebooks and other instructional materials are being specially written for this new program, according to a 4-H spokesman, and will be ready later this year. The bicycle project could well be advanced preparation for driving a motor vehicle. Similar safety rules, maintenance and mechanical checks apply.

The 4-H'ers will learn correct hand signals for turning or stopping, which are the same as for a motor vehicle. They are urged to obey traffic signs and signals. They are taught to yield right-of-way to pedestrians and practice courtesy at all times.

A lot of fun has been built into the program, too. Exhibitions of riding skill, games and contests are planned. Safety factors in bicycle selection will be brought to the attention of youngsters and parents as well.

For example, the popular "high rise" bike may or may not fit the rider; or "regular" bikes may need adjustments. Hand-me-down bikes are not always satisfactory either, according to some authorities, because the size, weight and balance may be unsuitable for the child.

The most recent statistics available report accidents involving bicycles and motor vehicles resulted in 700 deaths annually. Of this number 64 per cent involved persons 14 years or younger.

Road Patrol Cars Planned To Aid Motorists

Trained truck and bus industry safety men will take to the roads July 4th and Labor Day to participate in a unique Holiday Road Patrol.

The Texas program is being sponsored by the Texas Motor Transportation Association and its Council of Safety Supervisors, a state-wide organization representing the motor carrier industry.

Jack C. Bryan, Director of Safety for the Texas Motor Transportation Association of Austin, said about 50 to 60 road patrol cars will be on the most heavily traveled highways of the state during the peak traffic hours during the holiday weekends. The cars will be manned by experienced members of the Texas Council of Safety Supervisors who will be particularly alert for motorists in trouble.

The Holiday Patrol vehicles will be equipped with tools, spare fuses, warning flags, first-aid equipment and gasoline safety containers. In addition, many of the cars are radio equipped to allow the driver to summon repair equipment or additional help.

"While these men will not have arrest powers," Bryan emphasized, "we will cooperate with the State Highway Patrol in every way possible."

Governor Preston Smith commended the Texas truck and bus group for its cooperation and said:

"We welcome the added assist from the safety men of the truck and bus industry. Their wide experience on the roads and their record of assistance to motorists will aid substantially during this period of high density traffic."

Return From Hawaiian Tour

Mrs. Fred Monke and Mrs. P. F. Weinert have returned from a gala 10-day tour of the Hawaiian Islands, sponsored by the Texas Federation of Women's Club Travel Service. They met the tour group in Dallas and flew to Honolulu.

Upon arrival in Honolulu, they were given a true "Aloha Land" welcome with orchid leis and pineapple juice and escorted to their Hotel New Surf-rider on Walkiki Beach.

The cruise on the boat, "Leilani" to the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial and Pearl Harbor were solemn moments of quiet reflections, as well as the Punchbowl National Cemetery tour by bus.

They attended the ever famous Luau at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, fascinated by feasting Hawaiian style.

Shopping in the largest shopping center in the world, Ala

Moana, and seeing Iolani Palace, truly was a picture of the present and past.

Having stayed five days in Honolulu and touring the Island of Oahu, Mrs. Monke and Mrs. Weinert flew to the valley Island of Maui, toured the Hono Lao Valley, and spent the night at the beautiful Sheraton Maui, near the old whaling village of Lelanai.

The flight to the Orchid Island, Hawaii, gave the visitors a view of rolling prairies, the Parker Ranch, the volcano area, active but sleeping, the Orchid Gardens and to Hilo and a plane ride home across the beautiful blue Pacific.

Mrs. Monke and Mrs. Weinert declare this trip magnificent and will be remembered as a peaceful and relaxing journey into Paradise...Aloha Land.

Haskell To Receive Study Of Economy

Haskell County is one of 30 areas of the state to be involved in an intensive three-year study of the structure of the economy.

Research assistants from Hardin - Simmons University's Bureau of Economics and Business Research will begin conducting interviews with selected firms at communities in Haskell County between now and next fall.

"The study is an Input-Output analysis," said Dr. Jim Vinson, head of the H-SU bureau. "It is a technical analysis of the interrelationships between industries. It is a statewide accounting system which will illustrate the sources of supplies of Texas industries as well as the total market."

The project is being conducted through the Division of Planning Coordination of the Governor's Office.

Counties involved in the study in which H-SU research assistants will be conducting interviews include the following: Taylor, Mitchell, Nolan, Callahan, Eastland, Comanche, Brown, Coleman, Stephens, Shackelford, Jones, Fisher, Scurry, Kent, Stonewall, Haskell, Throckmorton, Young, Jack, Knox, Baylor, Archer, Montague, Clay, Wichita, Wilbarger, Foard, Cottle, Childress and Hardeman.

H-SU field representatives, between now and next fall, will interview selected Texas manufacturing firms in communities in the 30-county region.

Vinson said results of the survey will be made available to those interested in the development of the state. "Immediate returns will be efficiency measures for individual operations and planning for more adequate supply sources and market outlets."

"Texas is one of the few states to employ this relatively new technique," said Vinson. "Few states have been aggressive enough to adopt it."

In Vinson's view, Texas is taking a major step toward involving itself in an extensive study.

The H-SU Bureau of Economics and Business Research is headed by Vinson. It is the end of its first year of operation. The bureau will obtain economic information gained by the research assistants in the 30-county area.

Wheat producers in 28 counties and one New Mexico county are receiving Federal Crop Insurance Corporation payments totaling $423,500. 17 of the 28 years of wheat has been available in the state area. This has a nearly $11 million in additional income for the insured farmers.
