Fat Stock Show Friday P. M.

Abernathy's 11th Annual FFA-4-H Club project show is to be staged Friday in the Abernathy ple rest room facilities for spectators and entrants.

The men who are putting this show over met Saturday morning phy will have his name engraved of their work and learning. Be arrangement of the stalls, judging arena, and a limited amount of seating. The general arrangement of stalls, alleyways, judging arena, handling of the animals and just where they are to be penned was worked out thoroughly. Arrangements were made for hay and also sand for the judging arena. The area in front of both barns will be floodlighted and there will be ample light in the rear also as this will be the first local show to be held at night.

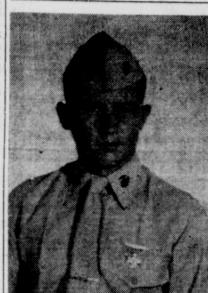

The order of showing of the exhibits for judging will be thus: first will be light gilts; second, heavy gilts; third, light barrows; medium barrows; fifth, heavy barrows. Next will be the selection of the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion. Immediately following will be the judging the two pens of Capons and any other show stock that may be on hand. This will take place while getting the hogs back to their pens and making ready for judging the cattle. So far there are about sixty hogs to be in the show and fifteen cattle. In the cattle division, light steers will be judged first, then heavy steers and the selection of the Grand Champion and the Reserve Cham-

Judging will begin at 7:00 p. m. Friday evening. Boys should get their animals in the barn between 4:00 p. m. and 10:00 p. m. Thursday which will allow them several hours Friday to get their entries washed up and in shape for the showing.

Entrants should not forget about the new Chris Benn Trophy to for three aldermen April 5, was Davis, Joe Lovelace, Marvin Floyd awarded this year. They will be judged for this trophy by the Monday night.

On Wednesday, March 16, we will have a Photographer to take pictures of business and professional men and women. The pictures will be used at various times by us. We would like to have an engraving of you and we are extending this invitation for this purpose. Engravings of good quality are very desirable and we have aranged with Winston B. Lucas Photographer, a specialist in his work, to take the pictures and furnish the engravings. There will be no charge for this and the studio will show proofs for your selection for the engravings. Of course, you may purchase additional prints for your presonal use if you wish but this is entirely up to you. If you would like to cooperate with us in this matter, and we hope you will, your Photograph will be made from 1 p. m. to 7 p. m. on Wednesday, March 16, in the building Johns Real Estate Office and Lambert Cleaners, at 912 Ave. D in Abernathy

We suggest that you bring a coat and tie. You need not wear them, you will have time to arrange yourself before the portrait is made

This is a part of having a better newspaper, more community nterest, and we will appreciate your cooperation.

The student program was followed by a short business meeting. Mrs. Gid Adkisson, Jr., President, presided. Officers for the coming year were nominated and elected. They are: President, Mrs. Ralph Davis;

First Vice President, Mrs. Elton Second Vice President, Settle; Elbert Harp; Secretary, Mrs. Joe B. Reeves; Treasurer Mrs. David Ray Pinson.

The meeting was adjourned and the program turned over to Mr. Noel Johnson. He welcomed everyone present and thanked them for their cooperation during the year. He also gave a report on the progress of the construction of the new school facilities.

He invited everyone to attend the Open House held in all of the class rooms immediately following the program. Later, refreshments were served in the school cafe-teria. A very profitable and en-joyable evening was reported by all the visitors.

WORLD'S MOST COMPLETE LINE

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of The Abernathy Weekly Review as he saw conditions. These people are all leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the co-operation of those citizens in Lubbock who helped make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

J. WILKIE TALBERT

To serve the public honestly, efficiently, and cheerfully is the basic foundation many progressive business men of Lubbock have found to be the shortest route to success. In making this statement, the man we have in mind is J. Wilkie Talbert of the Acacia Mobile Home Park, which is listed in both the Mobile Home Mfg. Assn., and Woodalls publications as a three star court. Specialized And Dependable Agricultural Credit

Farmers And Ranchers

SPECIALIZED BECAUSE:

- 1. It handles only agricultural credit.
- 2. The loan committee is composed of farmers and ranchers who know farming and ranching in this area and the General Manager who has had years of credit experience and training.
- 3. All personnel dealing with credit have an agricultural background and agricultural credit training.

DEPENDABLE BECAUSE:

- 1. Local conditions do not affect our supply of money, since it is all borrowed through the Intermediate Credit Bank at Houston from the investing public all over the nation.
- 2. The association is owned by those who borrow from it and is in bus ness to help them make money rather than a big profit for itse f.
- 3. It is strong, with over $2,900,000 capital and reserves it can handle most any loan regardless of size.

LOAN ARE AVAILABLE for most any agricultural purpose -Operating Expenses, Equipment Purchases, Building, Land Purchases, Pay off existing indebtedness, and are made in line with man's equity in his business and ability to repay.
