to a window, planked down the 20, called for a ticket with a certain number. The attendant punched out the ticket and handed him ten dollars in change. The local man waited a while then asked for the rest of his change from the 20. He was at the $10 window instead of the $2-per-ticket window which he had intended to patronize. The attendant agreed to keep the ticket and see if he could sell it before race time. He couldn't, and the local man thought he was stuck with $10 worth of tickets on a certain horse. The horse came in first and paid the Abernathy couple slightly over $1,000.00. That's the story as told to me by a person other than the ones involved in the "lucky mistake."

Time is running out for those who are undecided how to vote in the presidential election. November 8, the general election date, soon will be here, and I am among those still undecided. The Democrats could have made a better selection for the top-place candidate. Stuart Symington of Missouri would have had a better chance of winning for his party.

The Republicans, a little shy on potential presidential timber, had only one choice, Nixon. This will be a wandering, rambling, disconnected column, and I warn you to quit reading here if you want to avoid boredom. This is a "talking to myself" column, in which I hope to find the answer to my problem of how to vote November 8. Indulging in a bit of self-flattery, "thinking" comes easier for me when I am pounding a typewriter . . . using the word "thinking" loosely, of course.

In this process, I am seeking out both the good and the bad about the two parties and their candidates.

First, the most controversial issue in this section of the United States . . . religion. So long as the Bill of Rights and the remaining portions of the Constitution of the United States are in effect, I'll respect every person's religious rights . . . and voting rights. Senator John F. Kennedy was not rejected by the Armed Forces in World War II because he is a Catholic by religious belief. He served his country with honor in that conflict, and I believe he has every right to seek the presidency. My decision on the religious beliefs of the candidates.

Prior to the Los Angeles Convention, this column suggested that the Democratic delegates take a page from their own party history book and avoid another Hoover-Al Smith situation. Some 800 delegates were willing to risk a Demo defeat on the religious issue. We'll know November 9 whether or not they were right.

Those who may be avoiding Kennedy because he is a Catholic are reminded of the remarks made in San Francisco last week by Henry Cabot Lodge, the GOP veep candidate. The daily press quoted Mr. Lodge, a Protestant, as saying he favors federal aid to parochial and public schools. Using tax money to support Catholic schools has been opposed by Protestants for so long as I can remember. The best information I have is that Kennedy has not favored federal money for parochial schools.

And, on the racial issue, Lodge was quoted in San Francisco as saying: "I would like to see a Negro in the cabinet." In San Francisco, that statement went over like the proverbial lead balloon. We have logged some 18,000 miles of travel in the United States in the past three years and have made it a special point to observe the racial situation at every opportunity. In September, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Edwards, the Marshall Ledford and the BFDs were in San Francisco. It was our observation that the Negroes there are surly. This we discussed with white natives. A tone of bitterness was noted in their reply. "We had only 14,000 Negroes in San Francisco before World War II, and today we have about 60,000," the San Franciscan said.

One of the best shows we saw on the trip was in SFC, a one-man show by Nat King Cole in the Fairmont Hotel on Nob Hill. The ballroom was jam-packed and over 100 persons were turned away. SFC may not like their local Negroes, but they went for the visiting entertainer from Los Angeles. Or, was the Fairmont crowd all tourists?

It was not Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hurst who gave us the information on SFC's Negro population. We had a good, but too short, visit with them while we were in San Francisco. They helped us see parts of SFC that we otherwise would have missed. The former Abernathians, and my former bosses, are happy in their beautiful Golden Gate City. Mr. Hurst operates a typesetting machine for the San Francisco Examiner.

I warned that this would be a rambling column. Now back to politics and to Mr. Lodge. He could have served the United States better in his United Nations position than as vice president, if elected. He did a brilliant job in the UN, but as veep will he have an opportunity to use his talent in foreign affairs policy making?

Although I have no special fondness for Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, I recognize his unusual abilities in the field of politics. He has done a good job as a senator and as Senate Majority Leader.

"THE CHURCH AND STATE"

BY ROY DEAN VERNER

Reading Time: 4 Minutes

In answer to a question concerning one's obligation to civil government and to God Jesus said, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's." (Mark 12:17). This question had been asked of Jesus attempting to get Him to contradict Himself. Our Lord laid down a principle concerning the spiritual kingdom and the civil government that was to exist throughout the Christian dispensation. In John 18:36 Jesus said, "My kingdom is NOT of this world." He was stating the same principle here.

In Old Testament times the Jews were under a covenant with God that involved the joining of the government and the religion of the people. As Jesus came on the scene He changed the arrangement. The Apostle Paul has taught that civil government is ordained of God. "Let every soul be in subjection to the higher powers: for there is no power but of God; and the powers that be are ordained of God . . . For rulers are not a terror to good work, but to the evil . . . Render to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; honor to whom honor." (Rom. 13: ASV).

The arrangement then, as God would have it, is for the church to exist separate and apart from the civil government. The government should have no control over the church and the church should not try to run the government. When this arrangement does not exist it is in violation of God's Will.

A Christian who does not continue to support this kind of government is in violation of God's law. One who would support an institution which would destroy the arrangement of separation of church and state would be supporting that which is contrary to the Will of God.

Johnson could have come home from Los Angeles a hero in his state had he stayed with his pre-balloting vow not to accept second place on the Demo ticket. Being the political opportunist that he is, why did Johnson take the veep slot? The turn of both domestic and foreign events during the next four years may make the administration that takes over in January look extremely bad. In that case, Johnson, remaining in the Senate would have had a good chance for the first place nomination at the 1964 Demo National Convention.

Johnson is better qualified than Kennedy to serve as president, but he could not have been elected this year. Kennedy had a hard time getting the big labor bosses of the North to accept Johnson even in the veep position on the ticket. Like him or not, you have to admit that Johnson is a smart politician, an effective leader of politicians, and the best political campaigner on the road (or in the air) today.

Senator John Fitzgerald Kennedy has been running for president since the Demo National Convention in 1956 at Chicago, when he narrowly missed the nomination for vice president. His overwhelming victory at Los Angeles in July shows what four years of concentrated effort by individuals who have plenty of money to spend can accomplish. This is not a job at the Kennedy millions. His money will have little effect on whether he'll make a good or bad president. Neither will Nixon's back ground of "hard work for a living and education" be a sole qualification in considering him.

Some switch, isn't it? The Democratic Party, long considered the party of the little man, nominates a millionaire candidate. The Republican Party, regarded as the rich man's party, nominates someone of Nixon's financial status. There's nothing crazier than politics!

Kennedy has been absent from the Washington scene a lot the past four years while he was "running for president." Communications and advisers may have kept him briefed on all he should know about what was taking place in the Senate, but that's not like being on the job and voting as a Senator.

Nixon, who has been plugging away as presiding officer of the Senate and at other veep duties has a better, deeper knowledge of what has been going on in Washington.

Kennedy says its common international practice for one nation to apologize to another nation when a blunder is made. This is why he said he should apologize to K for the U2 flight. How do you apologize to a pig? K, by his disgusting performances at the UN, earns the "pig" tag.

Aims of The Roman Catholic Hierarchy

"Tell us that we think more of the Church (Catholic) than we do the United States; of course we do. Tell us that we are Catholics first and Americans or English afterwards; of course we are. Tell us, in the conflict between the Church and the civil government we take the side of the Catholic Church; of course we do. Why, if the government of the United States were at war with the church, we should say: 'To H--- with the government of the United States. And if the church and all the governments of the world were at war, we should say: 'To H--- with the governments of the World.' They would say we are Catholics first, and we love the church more than we love our own children.

I love the people of America; I love the people of every nation . . . but let the governments of the world steer clear of the Catholic Church, let the emperors, let the kings, and the presidents not come into conflict with the head of the Catholic Church. Because the Catholic Church is everything to all Catholics of the world; they renounce all nationalities where there is question of loyalty to her. And why is the Pope so strong? Why is the Pope such a tremendous power? Why, the Pope is the ruler of the world. Why? Because the world would die for the rights of the Pope. He is the Head of the Church, and they would die for the Church . . . The Catholics of the world are Catholics first and always, they are Americans, they are Germans, etc., afterwards."

The above was quoted from—The Western Watchman, St. Louis, June 27, 1912 endorsed by (Catholic) Cleveland Universe, November 22, 1912; quoted from the Thrones of the Papal Viceroys Set-up in the United States, published by Protestant Book Concern, Bible House, New York, N. Y., page 21, 22.

Hale 4-H Club Stock Exhibited At State Fair

Hale County 4-H members exhibited 30 head of barrows, 10 head of steers, 9 lambs and 1 beef heifer at the State Fair of Texas, October 17-22, according to B. F. Yeates, Ass't. County Agricultural Agent.

Four-H members loaded their livestock on a truck in Plainview Sunday afternoon and the animals arrived in Dallas, Monday morning on the 17th to all be exhibited throughout the week. All livestock went before a sifting committee on Tuesday the 18th and the showing started Wednesday. The steers showed Wednesday morning and the beef heifers Wednesday afternoon, also Wednesday afternoon, 3 breeds of swine were exhibited. Starting Thursday morning the rest of the barrows will be shown and the market steers; on Friday will be the sale of steers and Saturday morning will be the sale on pigs and lambs.

Most of the 4-H members went to Dallas Tuesday afternoon after school and will return Thursday evening in an effort to keep the exhibitors from missing any more school than is absolutely necessary. The 4-H adult leaders in the County and the County Extension Agent will take care of the exhibitors' livestock the rest of the week.

game, reeled off fine ground gains through the middle of the line.

Halfback Leo Kiker was also a workhorse as he fought his way for precious yardage on several occasions. Halfback Tom Ritchey also pitched in to aid the Antelope cause. Reserve quarterback Bobby Pettit and freshman halfback Richard Saari saw a lot of action in the last half of the game, especially in the final quarter, with Pettit guiding the team to pay dirt on one occasion.

Passes Filled The Air

The Antelopes completed 6 out of 11 passes for a total of 84 yards in the air and two touchdowns. John Bown connected with Johnnie Adams for 11 yards, hit Neal Humphrey with a 26 yarder, and blasted Jack Waters with a quick 5-yarder. Halfback Tom Ritchey connected once on a 12 yard pass to halfback Leo Kiker. Keith Beard threw one touchdown pass, hitting end Jerry Gist with the six-pointer from 20 yards out. The only pass completion in the last half was from Leo Kiker to Richard Saari.

The Indians, usually a strong passing unit, connected on 6 of 9 passes during the first half for 44 yards. However, the last half was an entirely different story as the Antelope line rushed the passer, quarterback Steve Middleton, continuously, giving him little time to find a target, and at times dropped him for a loss. Several passes were batted down by alert halfbacks and linebackers, also. Thus, in the last half the Indians attempted 16 passes, completing only 3 for 23 yards.

The Antelopes made 291 yards rushing and held the Indians to 115 yards. In the passing department, the Antelopes made 84 yards to 67 for Morton. Abernathy ran up a total of 24 first downs, while Morton managed 8.

Scoring
 The Antelopes opened the scoring early in the initial quarter after tackle Billy Jack Hackler recovered an Indian fumble on Morton's 44 yard line. Five plays later Mike Ritchey scored from 6 yards out.

The try for extra point was short but the Antelopes scored three more times in the second quarter for a 24-0 halftime lead.

Fullback Johnnie Adams went 8 yards off right tackle for one touchdown. Then Mike Ritchey took a pitch out from Brown and skirted right end for his second six-pointer of the tilt. Scoring in the first half ended after Beard hit Gist on a 20-yarder for the score.

Early in the third quarter Morton scored on a 1-yard plunge by halfback Johnny Vanderventer to make it 6-24. The drive covered 92 yards with fullback Wilburn Zuber and halfbacks Vanderventer and Larry Tanner carrying most of the load.

The Antelopes added two touchdowns in the final quarter, the first coming on a 10-yard pass from Leo Kiker to Richard Saari. Mike Ritchey went in and kicked the only extra point of the night to make the score 31-6.

Ritchey also accounted for the final tally as he took a quick kick off the foot of Zuber on his own 40 yard line, carried back to the 35 to gain running room and evade would-be tacklers, circled to his left, then reversed his field picking up key blocks from team mates as he zig-zagged through the scattered Indians to the goal line 65 yards away.

Play Lockney There

The Antelopes will journey to Lockney Friday night and will be seeking their second win in District 2-AA against the strong Longhorns.

The Longhorns not only have depth with 14 returning lettermen from last year's squad, but also have considerable speed.

Junior High Teams Played At Tulia Last Week

(By Bobby Dyess)

The 7th grade yearlings played the Tulia 7th grade to a 0-0 tie last Tuesday night before the rains came down.

The Abernathy team and the Tulia team both beat Lockney 22-0, so we had some idea how tough Tulia would be.

The quarters were six minutes long as they were at Lockney but the game was even shorter. Tulia started off with the ball and had run six plays when the 1st quarter ended.

The yearlings drove the ball to the one yard line in the fourth quarter but couldn't score. Tulia penetrated the yearling 20 yard line once and the game ended as has been stated previously, 0-0.

8th Grade Game

Just as kickoff time rolled around for the 8th grade game at Tulia last Tuesday night, the rains started.

The 1st half was a defensive battle with Tulia forcing Abernathy behind their own goal for a safety.

In the third quarter the Yearlings drove the ball to score a touchdown with Terry Turner having the honors on a three yard plunge. Joe Sandoval made the 2-point conversion run.

The fourth quarter saw the Tulia team set the 8th grade Yearlings behind their goal once again. Joe Sandoval intercepted a Tulia pass and raced 45 yards for a touchdown only to be called back because he stepped out of bounds on the twenty. The Yearlings couldn't get a scoring drive started and the game ended with the Tulia team on top, 10-8.

Owens Hurt

Jim Owens, the 8th grade fullback, received a broken wrist in the Tulia game and will be out for the rest of the season.

TALK — In Print

In agreement with Kennedy, our position in world leadership has slipped in the past several years. He is right in charging neglect of our Latin American neighbors. I am not satisfied with the State Department's activities under the late John Foster Dulles or under Christian Herter. Could a Democratic administration have done more to stem the tide of communism? The trouble Nixon ran into on his Central and South American trip was communists inspired. His famed "kitchen argument" with K in Moscow is in Nixon's favor. He, I believe, will offer K resistance rather than appeasement. K would only interpret any show of appeasement as an admission of weakness and fear.

Which candidate made the islands of Quemoy and Matsu an issue in the campaign? They have a tiger by the tail, so to speak. If Kennedy is elected, will Red China consider that a mandate for them to take over the islands? Will Red China continue its present attitude toward the islands if Nixon is elected? This shouldn't have been a campaign issue. I like the fact that both Kennedy and Nixon are young men. I believe we need young, vigorous men of reasonably good health in decision and policy making positions. These young men, however, should lend an attentive ear to all advice given them by the elder statesmen of both parties. Their wealth of knowledge gained through experience can be passed on to the young leaders.

health problem as it was? Age and health problems also have robbed the nation of the services of a full-time president. As in Kennedy's case, I believe Eisenhower has been away from Washington too much in the past four years. His health condition likely demanded the many vacations and long weekend rests.

Congress made a big blunder in limiting to two the number of consecutive terms any one man can serve as president. A lame duck president cannot serve his nation as well. This damaging bit of legislation should be repealed. If Kennedy is elected and serves the Nation well for eight years he should be allowed to seek reelection. The same for Nixon.

Truman's recent trip to Texas lost votes for Kennedy. Here's a real good reason to vote for Kennedy, James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, is fighting him.

The elder citizens of the nation should have adequate medical care with financial assistance from the government if they have no other means to secure it. This program, or any other program should not be tied in with social security.

Too many such raids on social security by welfare programs will drain this agency of funds. Congress originally set up social security to aid widows and minor dependents of workers, and as a retirement program. For near a quarter of a century citizens have made social security payments on the promise of security for their families, and an income from that source after retirement. Congress should pass legislation to hold social security for its original purpose. Medical aid could be handled in some other way.

choose the Republican suggestion that it go for school buildings, releasing local funds to raise teacher salaries.

Now, for something near and dear to all of us, MONEY. Which candidate will do the most for the farmers? And I am just as interested in this as any farmer could be. What the next administration does regarding agriculture will affect me the same as it will the farmers.

Even the most rabid Democrat will admit that Kennedy's voting record in the Senate has not com-

Hazardous Land In Area Being Put Into Grasses

ARTHUR RAY BROWN
Arthur Ray Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Brown, Route One, Abernathy, entered the Navy Feb. 2, 1960, and received boot training at the U. S. Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif. After completing the initial phase of training, he went to the Machinist Mate School, Great Lakes, Ill. His next duty station will be at Norfolk, Va.

Much hazardous land can be turned into a profitable enterprise and receive a good conservation treatment at the same time, many Hale County farmers have found.

There is an increasing demand for grass pasture by feed lot operators in the county, but Jim Whiteside, Lubbock businessman and Hale County farmer, began his operation in reverse. He established 94 acres of Midland Bermuda grass pasture last year and is now building feed lots to accommodate 3,000 head of cattle.

Most of the grass, comparatively new in this area, is being grown on sloping and lake bottom land which was undesirable for row cropping. According to Bill Ward, manager of the 317-acre farm located five miles northwest of Abernathy, they have successfully used grass as a conservation measure and in comparison with row crops are realizing a good profit while conserving their soil.

The farm is under the Great Plains Conservation Program and eventually 215 acres of the steeper land will be planted to grasses. The remainder of acreage that does not need intensive conservation treatment will be put in row crops.

Sprigged 1,500 Acres
Ward said 21,325 bushels of sprigs have been dug. With these they have sprigged approximately 1,500 acres of Bermuda grass pasture, about 500 each in Hale, Swisher and Castro counties.

Whiteside used 900 pounds of ammonium nitrate in four applications after sprigging. In one application he used 500 pounds, to insure a big growth. The remainder of the fertilizer was used in three applications. His pasture has been watered three times this year and the fourth time on portions. Ordinarily, in a normal rainfall year, Ward believes three times would be sufficient.

In May, 200 head of Ft. Sumner, N. M., Hereford steers were put on the pasture and another 100 Angus steers from Amarillo were added in June. Fed a free choice supplement of meal, ground grain and a strong salt mixture, the steers gained two pounds per head per day.

The Midland Bermuda, a hybrid strain from Coastal Bermuda and Indian Bermuda grass, furnishes late grazing in the fall.

Whiteside and his farm manager are sold on the grass for conditioning cattle to finish for market in the feed lot. This year Whiteside will feed out from 800 to 1,000 head of steers coming off grass pasture similar to his.

Putting Corn Into Silos
In preparation for his feedlot operation, Whiteside has just completed excavation of three trench silos, each with a holding capacity of 1,200 tons. The pits are being filled with corn from 150 acres contracted from a neighbor.

The cattle on his pasture will go to the feed lots about Oct. 15. They are working on the feeding program now, Ward said, but are planning to feed a concentrated ration of corn ensilage, grain, whole cotton seed and minerals.

For precision mixing of the feed ration, Whiteside has purchased an 8,000-pound capacity mixer truck that will be filled from an overhead storage tank to be erected over the scales.

In addition to contract planting on 35 farms, about 1,700 acres of grass has been planned to be established through the Hale County Soil Conservation District, according to SCD technicians. Although this isn't an impressive figure, they said, it is about 12 times as much as was planned to be established in 1959 and is an indication that grass is being used more as a conservation measure.

County agricultural observers agree that the situation in Hale County is almost a "natural" for the grazing and feeding of local cattle instead of sending them to northern and western states to be finished for market.

Arvie S. Elliott, president of the First National Bank of Abernathy, has been named to head the Texas edition of the 4-H Club Bank Drive. Elliott's appointment was made by the Bank of America's Board Chairman, Jesse W. Tappan, who heads the bank program for the National 4-H Sponsors Council.

Cotton should be produced, harvested and handled so that it reaches the gin as dry, loose and clean as possible. Fred Elliott, extension cotton work specialist, says that mishandling of seed cotton can reduce lint quality of the bale by as much as a grade. This means dollars out of the farmer's pocket. A little care could prevent these needless losses.

W. S. C. S. NEWS

The Methodist Woman's Society for Christian Service met Monday, October 10, at 2:00 p. m. to begin the study of "Basic Christian Beliefs," under the leadership of Mrs. J. C. Mills.

The meeting opened with a prayer service led by Mrs. J. W. Davis. Mrs. Wayne McClendon brought the devotional with prayer by Mrs. W. M. Medlin.

Mrs. R. A. McAlister presided over a short business session. Mrs. Mills introduced the study and the program was presented by Mrs. Lewis Lutrick, Mrs. Harold Davis, Mrs. Horace Davis, and Mrs. L. A. Suttle. Mrs. Auvie Johnson closed the meeting with prayer after a short discussion on the study.

Those attending were Meses. R. A. Lutrick, A. L. Stone Jr., Horace Davis, Elton Settle, M. M. Bell, George Ragland, Harold Davis, F. A. Goebel, J. C. Mills, M. M. Evans, J. W. Davis, W. A. Richter, Don Huffaker, Harold McCure, Lewis Lutrick, Paul D. Noland, J. B. McClure, R. A. McAlister, Jackie Barton, L. A. Suttle, W. M. Medlin, Wayne McClendon, E. B. Lindsey, and Auvie Johnson.

The study was to continue at 2:00 p. m. on Monday, October 17 in the church.

Mrs. M. M. Bell, Reporter

Dr. Tyrus R. Timm, head of the department of agricultural economics and sociology at Texas A & M College, has announced that the tenth annual Farm and Ranch Credit School for Bankers will be held November 28-30. The keynote of this year's program is "What Will Be The Most Profitable Agricultural Loans in 1961?" A special anniversary program is planned, and Timm advises any banker interested in attending to register early.

KEEP COTTON DRY, LOOSE AND CLEAN

College Station—The final grade of lint in a bale of cotton is determined by the condition of the gin. For this reason, cotton should be produced, harvested and handled so that it reaches the gin as dry, loose and clean as possible, says Fred Elliott, extension cotton work specialist.

Picking early in the morning or late in the afternoon when cotton is very moist should be avoided. Loss of color associated with de-moisture accounts for a large part of grade difference between cotton harvested during high-moisture periods and dry periods. To get the best possible prices for cotton, the farmer should harvest it dry and keep it dry, the specialist points out.

Small capacity transport vehicles have no place in the cotton field, Elliott continues. Four-wheel, large-capacity, wood-slatted or wood-slatted or wire-sided trailers are recommended.

Another quality reducer, which is closely associated with small transports, is tramping the seed cotton in the trailer. Even the most elaborate and expensive ginning system cannot remove all of the small "pin and pepper" trash that is ground into the cotton by tramping.

Seed cotton should be harvested as clean as possible to permit the use of less gin machinery in obtaining a good grade. Pickers should be cautioned not to allow green leaves, excessive trash, dirt, colored rags, grass and other foreign objects to be mixed in seed cotton.

"Remember," Elliott concludes, "You can help maintain quality in cotton by harvesting seed cotton when it is dry and by keeping it loose and clean."

pletely satisfied the farmers. His votes in many cases have been against legislation that farmers wanted to see enacted. This, however, may have been prior to 1956, the year he began running for president.

To say that Benson has not pleased the farmers would be the understatement of this century. Abernathy area economy, I believe, depends 80 per cent on the weather and 20 per cent on the administration in power in the White House.

Under the Republicans, the farmers' problems have been declining income and rising costs of production. I heard Eisenhower, in October, 1952, at Lubbock airport, talk about 90 per cent, "even 100 per cent," parity.

Hearts of political candidates bleed for the "little man" during presidential campaigns. The candidates lump together the farmers, laborers and Negroes and promise them all kinds of wonderful things to get their votes. Come January of the following year, you wonder what happened to the promises.

There is much lacking, from the farmers' point of view, in farm programs offered this year in platform of both parties. A farm auction sale, in many instances, means that some old boy has given up because he could not make a living on the farm. There have been fewer farm auction sales in this community the past eight years than in the preceding years.

More fine homes have been built on farms in this community in the past eight years than in preceding years, and all this was not done on money saved up from Democratic administrations.

Not many of our farmers are driving automobiles and pickups over two years old.

The only barometer I know to gauge an area's economic situation is money on deposit in banks. Abernathy First State Bank and all banks in Hale and Lubbock Counties have high deposits. Major source of income for these two counties is agriculture.

When the state banking commission requests banks to publish statements in their hometown newspapers, the paper is provided a copy. I have a file of these statements dating back to 1946. In Sept., 1946, Demo administration, deposits at Abernathy First State Bank were: $1,271,983.95; October, 1947: $1,715,989.85; June, 1948: $1,940,035.74; June, 1949: $1,712,007.94; Oct., 1950: $1,395,340.51; Oct., 1951: $1,735,361.27; Sept., 1952: $2,004,823.66; Sept., 1953: $1,792,206.91; Oct., 1954: $2,424,276.98; Oct., 1955: $2,287,367.47; Sept., 1956: $2,562,020.07; Oct., 1957: $2,661,464.19; Sept., 1958: $2,708,196.77; Oct., 1959: $4,139,191.12; Oct., 1960: $3,116,987.94.

The figures above are for about seven years under the Democrats, the first seven, and about seven years under the Republicans.

Home construction as well as industrial and business construction, has been going at a rapid pace under the Republican administration.

Some farmers in this area made the 1960 crop with net money, after taxes, from the 1959 crop. It's unusual for farmers to make a crop without having to seek loans to finance operations. There may be farmers in other parts of the nation suffering real hardship under the Republican administration.

It is my observation that farmers in this area have fared pretty well the past few years. There is a chance, I admit, that they may have fared better under a Demo administration. I don't know.

The most outspoken Democrat I know is H. M. Baggary, editor and publisher of one of the finest weekly newspapers in this, or any other, state, The Tulia Herald. If the Tulia Herald has not prospered under a Republican administration my eyes are deceiving me each week.

Newspapering in Tulia has gone from six or eight pages per week only a few years ago to a big fat 16 to 20 pages per week. And these pages have ample advertising. I contend that Baggary and his Tulia Herald have prospered under the Republican administration.

A newspaper prospers only to the extent the merchants it serves prosper, and the merchants do only as well as the people in the trade area they serve. I would judge, from the growth of the Tulia Herald, that the farmers and ranchers of Swisher County have done very well under the Republicans. Further indicating the sound economy of the Tulia area is Tulia First National Bank's statement in the Tulia Herald Oct. 13. At the close of business Oct. 3, 1960, the statement shows a total of $10,328,095.45 on deposit in Tulia First National Bank.

While chiding Republicans on their foreign policies, Kennedy, as a campaigning candidate, already is drawing fire on one of his proposed foreign policies. Nationalist China Foreign Office on Formosa is taking a dim view of Kennedy's attitude toward the islands of Matsuo and Quemoy.

Eisenhower has restored integrity and dignity to the White House. Only scandal of real importance reported thus far is the Sherman Adams-Goldfine thing. Adams soon thereafter was removed from the White House scene. Integrity and dignity will continue in the White House regardless of its occupancy, Kennedy or Nixon.

Down to this point, this week's column was written as time permitted over a period from Wednesday afternoon to Saturday afternoon of last week. In Sunday's Lubbock Avalanche-Journal a letter headed "Prefers Nixon" was signed "A Reader, Abernathy." I have no idea who wrote the letter. Nearest identification is a statement in the letter: "I am a retired farmer myself." The person who wrote the letter mentioned, as stated in this column, bank deposits, fine homes and new cars.

All evidence points to the fact that farmers in this area have not suffered too great a hardship from eight years of Republican power in the White House. Of course, there is no guarantee that another eight years of Republican power would be like that.
