THE CAUSE OF SOCIAL DEGENERACY

Last week we wrote of the social evil and the war now being made on it by communities in the different States in this Union. But now let us look at the cause for this condition of things. That we have reached a deplorable state in matters of this sort, no student of the times can deny. There has been a rapid growth in this social evil within the past few years. Many of us can remember when the impure woman was the exception in society and we looked upon her with a sense of shame and horror. But such is not the case today. The impure woman has become quite common and she has her location assigned her by common consent in most all our thickly populated communities. And were this evil to stop with the segregated section it would be bad enough then; but that section is only her recognized resort. She is found promiscuously in society. This is a broad statement but men know it to be a fact. How are we to account for this alarming state of things?

Well, let us surmise a little. The old-fashioned mother is one of the needs of this day and generation. She was a home body, kept her eye on her girls, gave them useful employment about the house, dressed them modestly and was particular about their company. She rarely let them go out at night without proper escort and she taught them prudence and discretion. How is it today? Well, we still have mothers here and there who follow this rule with their daughters, but we have multiplied scores of them who pursue the opposite course. They have an idea that it is their business to marry off their girls as early as possible; they thrust them out into society before they have passed their teens, make young ladies of them while they are still children, let young men take them out to parties, to theaters, on buggy and auto rides after dark and permit them to be fondled by young men in the giddy dance. They even dress them in garbs of immodesty, exposing much of their persons and thereby brush off their sense of delicacy. All this tends to bring about an indiscriminate relation of the sexes and to break down the rules of ordinary propriety. Are we overstating the facts in the case? No, we are understating them.

The result is that girls know now at sixteen and eighteen years of age more than our mothers knew when they became wives.

Young men of this day take more liberties with young women than would have been dreamed of in the days when our mothers were girls. They have lost that reverence for womanhood and for the sanctity of virtue that characterized the conduct of our fathers. We are actually living in a day of fast young men and fast young women. And the blame for it can be traced largely to the folly of the mothers of such young people. Many of them delight to see their daughters in the social whirl as the playthings of young men. They make butterflies of them, and their training and indulgence are seen in their imprudence and their frivolity and indiscretion. In this way the standard of morality is lowered, the proper relation between young men and young women is almost wiped out and the sexes are on terms of intimacy, not to say familiarity. If there ever was a time when the old-fashioned mother was needed it is in this day of nonsense and foolishness.

Another trouble is in the popular literature now finding its way into the hands of young boys and girls. There was recently placed in our hands an advanced copy of a new book soon to be issued and placed on the market. Much of it has already appeared in a popular magazine, and our opinion was asked by a book dealer as to its suitability for the general public. The author is a man of renown. We have been wading through it, and we must confess that we are beginning to feel that there has been dragged through our mind a piece of literature foul with lasciviousness and reeking with pollution. Such books as this are being read by our young girls and boys, and the effect is not hard to divine. The most of the popular magazine and book literature of this day is utterly unfit to be read by our sons and daughters.

Another trouble is found in the fact that too many of our girls and young women are permitted to occupy positions in the private offices of men as a means of livelihood. Sometimes this is absolutely necessary; but in most cases it is not necessary. The place for the great majority of our daughters is at home with their mothers and under the protection of their fathers. There are many good men employing these girls who would die before they would suffer them to be imposed upon; but such is not the case with all of them. In these positions these men learn to become familiar with their employes and hundreds of them suffer the consequences of this familiarity. A mother ought to know very thoroughly the character of the man to whose private office she entrusts her daughter. But the love of dress and show is carrying scores and scores of girls to their ruin in the private offices of men. It is well known that many men only want in their employ such young women as are influenced by wrong notions of life.

A man said to a friend of ours the other day; "Do you know where I can get a good stenographer?" He was told of a young lady of high character who would fill the bill. But his reply was: "Oh, she will not do. I want one who is not prudish and diffident." It is not necessary for us to tell what he meant. Any discerning mind understands it. What is to be expected of a young girl placed in the office day in and day out of a man of this sort? Go to our telephone exchanges, our factories where girls are employed, to our dry goods stores where young lady clerks are thrown promiscuously with men, and you will find all the incipient conditions for looseness of life and an improper standard of morals.

Under these circumstances, are you surprised that our municipal authorities are face to face with a well developed and a thoroughly entrenched system of social vice? It is the legitimate outcome of improper home training and a lack of mothers with good sense and with proper views of life. It is the rarest thing that a bad girl ever emanates from a home presided over by an old-fashioned mother who gives to her the right training and who keeps a wise eye upon those who associate with her. Our greatest trouble today is in the home. Women who ought to be wives and mothers are wild over society and dominated with the thought that their highest function is to dress their daughters swell, rush them through a smattering of education, and then fling them out into the social swim where they will meet young men.

Another trouble is found in the mother with false modesty. She never takes her daughters into her confidence and in her own delicate and proper way tell them things that they ought to know. Instead of that she permits them to grow up ignorant of such things until they find the knowledge in some lascivious book or magazine; or from the mouth of some impure girl associate. The mother is a very foolish mother to pursue this course. The mother of ordinary sense ought to know that the child mind will sooner or later seek knowledge of the sex life, and that she is the one to impart it.

Then, again, we find ignorant and indifferent mothers who do not have the first idea of how her girls ought to be trained. She lives on a low plane of things, takes about as much interest in the moral instruction of her children as the cow that browses over the plains. And from this sort of homes girls go out into the world to seek their own living. They necessarily have to occupy low stations in the world of service and in their ignorance of men they often fall into trouble; and from this class the places of evil resort are frequently supplied with victims. If they happen to drift to the city or the large town for employment, which is often the case, they fall into evil ways and go to ruin.

From these sources come the evils of social vice; and in most

"That Million Dollar Look"

Go and see This Wonderful Photo-Play—To Appear at Dick's Theatre Saturday Night.

At our own private and personal expense, we have brought to this town one of the greatest picture-plays that has ever been produced.

For years we have been waiting and hoping for some book, or play, or sermon that would make clear the powerful lesson that this picture shows. It is a lesson that means greater success --- Business success, Social success, Personal success to every man who will take it home to himself and apply it to his daily living.

We brought this picture to Dick's, because we believe that every red-corpused American man who sees it can reap a profit from it—and become a bigger man through it—and we want to do our share to get it before as many folks right here at home as we can. It's helped us—We want you to enjoy its help too.

We are not going to spoil your enjoyment, your "thrill" and excitement by telling you here what the story is. Wait and enjoy the surprise for yourself.

We are simply going to go on record with the statement that it will grip you from the first exposure to the last scene—and make you say a hundred times "Why wasn't the picture ever thought of before?"

Men have lost untold opportunities; have sacrificed dearest ambitions; have handicapped the hopes of years, purely and solely through a lack of the knowledge that this picture vividly and dramatically imparts.

Men have euchred themselves out of big business gains, have closed the doors to countless success chances, have defeated themselves, not only in business, but in politics, in society—YES, EVEN IN LOVE—because they never studied and mastered the lesson that this picture makes clear to them.

If you want to play the game of success skillfully and victoriously; if you want to be a dominating factor in life's power circles—instances the mothers of this day are responsible for it. Some girls are natural born bad; they are moral perverts, and now and then will go wrong despite the best of care; but this is exceptional. Not so with the great masses of them. And the most of them that go wrong are the victims of circumstances. What we need is the right sort of mothers and then the derelict girl will be rare. But the ambitious mother, whose chief idea is to marry her daughter off, the worldly-minded mother, who wants to push her girl into society and take restraints off of her; the mother with false modesty, who permits improper people to tell her girl things of a delicate nature, and the ignorant mother who has no sort of conception of her moral obligation to her daughter, are largely responsible for the social vices that obtain in this day. Oh, for a return of the old-fashioned mother, with substantial sense, with devotion to high moral standards, and with proper solicitude for the physical and moral welfare of her children! Now and then and here and there we still find her, and wherever she lives and moves she is worth her weight in gold. But from the venerated, empty-headed, society-wild, worldly-minded mother, with her false ideas of motherhood and childhood, good Lord deliver us!—Clipped.

Then don't fail to see "That Million Dollar Look" at Dick's Theatre Saturday Night

COPYRIGHTED FARM AND RANCH-HOLLAND'S MAGAZINE

The country paper, for the most part, goes to a class of people whose reading is largely limited—the farmer folk—who haven't an easy access to the big dailies or the hundreds of magazines. Its weekly visit is a heralded even in the family life, and there is a scramble for a turn at reading its interesting pages. It is loaned to a neighbor with the careful injunction to "be sure and take good care of it." It is read and re-read from headline to the last patent medicine reader at the bottom of the last column on the last page.

Almost without exception the local merchant who is enjoying the biggest business is the one who uses most persistently and consistently the space of the local newspaper. It stands without argument that the man who gets the people's patronage is the man who carries what the people want and lets them know he has it. And what more efficient way is there for the merchants of the South-west, the country merchants, to reach the people of their community than through the local papers with their thirteen and a half million of readers?

The country merchant will do well to study the wants of the people whose business he would have. He will do well to carry in stock the lines and brands of goods they demand—the named, widely advertised lines. He will do equally as well to tell the people of what he has for them through carefully prepared advertisements in his local newspaper.

At Dick's Theatre

One of the most enjoyable entertainments of the past week was "The Pendleton Round-up" in three reels at Dick's Theatre. A vivid portrayal of the early western days, and it was interesting from start to finish.

The attraction drew a large crowd and everybody left the show well pleased.

The "Round-Up" is under the very capable management of Mr. G. H. Davis.

Baptist Ladies Aid

The meeting was called to order and a Scripture lesson read by Mrs. Reynolds after which talks were made and papers read that were both interesting and beneficial. The large number present at each meeting proves the devotedness of the women to their work. A more loyal band could not be found. We insist on every Baptist lady joining our Society and assure you are missed when you are absent from among us. Our work is great, our God is a great God, let us serve him more and more, and pray at times that others may come into the fold. When we have done or said something that helped a lost soul to Christ, then our work is worth while. The reports to our delegates to the association were beautiful. The enthusiastic manner in which Mrs. Posey and Mrs. Davis pictured each meeting was good for us all, and shows that every one who missed the association was a loser. If your home duties are such that you can't meet with us, we ask your prayers that our work may be carried on to the upbuilding of the cause and honoring to our God, and that this may be the greatest year in the history of our church. The hour of meeting was changed from 5 to 4 o'clock, so be sure to come on time—4 o'clock. If you are not posted about our work, take the Free Press and you'll find us there each week.

A Card of Thanks.

We desire though the columns of the Free Press, to thank our neighbors, friends and the business men of Haskell, who kindly came to our assistance and helped to repair the loss we sustained a few days ago by fire, when we lost our home. None but those who have experienced what we have, can fully appreciate assistance under such circumstances. We hope that should similar misfortune befall any of you, you will have the same kind assistance of your friends.

Respectfully,
Gus Grussendorf and Family.

Residence Burned.

Last Thursday night at about two o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Whitman were awakened by the noise of the back porch falling in. They soon realized their home was burning and before they could get their children and get out, the ceiling in the family room was dropping in. Very little of the household goods was saved. The loss on house and furniture was about $6000, covered to the amount of $4500 by insurance. The fire boys responded promptly and soon had the fire under control, finally extinguishing it and leaving the charred frame of the building standing.

The Food Value of Currants second only to dates in food value among fruits. In England and Holland they are used extensively, and also bread, cake and puddings, and also stewed.

There are many varieties of currants, all coming from Greece and the adjacent lands. It is from the best of these that we get Waples-Platter Currants. The largest, best flavored berries are selected and dried in the shade to preserve all the delicateness of the fresh fruit. They are washed and cleaned and so carefully sorted before being packed that every currant in every package is perfect. It is this careful attention to detail that gives Waples-Platter Currants their glossy, black appearance.

White Currants are stemless, and are packed in the same manner as the black ones. They are equally delicious and are used in the same manner as the black ones.

Waples-Platter Currants are sold in 50c and 10c packages. They are sold in all grocery stores and fruit markets.

HASKELL, TEXAS, September 20, 1913.

The Abilene Reporter has announced for a policy of "fewer jobs and better pay," and a reduction of the number of representatives. The Free Press has advocated this for a number of years. We think the Reporter will do great service, if it can make the slogan an issue in this state. When one views the failure of parliamentary bodies in this country, he will be astonished at the lack of efficiency they possess. If the directorates of the big corporations were to adopt the methods in vogue in our congress and legislatures, they would all go "busted" and we would not need any anti-trust legislation. One man in the United States Senate can block legislation under the rules indefinitely. If the minority on directorates of the big corporations had such power, they would be able to destroy the chance of success. Texas ought to be divided geographically with a line running north and south and one running east and west through the geographical center and should have just one representative from each quarter, to be elected by the voters of the entire state, that is to say every voter should vote for four representatives. Then have a lieutenant Governor with the powers he now has, and have a governor without the veto power. Pay all of them at least $25,000 per annum. Abolish the two houses and have only one, composed of the four Representatives, with the lieutenant Gov. as President.

HASKELL COUNTY MAKES GOOD

Judge K. K. Legett and C. C. Comper have just returned from a business trip to Rochester, and report the cotton crop in that section probably the best in the entire western section of the state. "I have been on trips to the western part of Haskell county," said Judge Legett, "looking after my farming interests, and I am agreeably surprised with the outlook. Cotton in that section is undoubtedly the finest in this part of the cotton belt. I estimate the yield per acre will be from one-third to one-half bales. "There is an active and aggressive demand for cotton pickers, too. That section of the country has had liberal and beneficial rains which have made the cotton so good, and it is hoped by a number of farmers that a number of pickers will respond to the call for harvest help"—Abilene Reporter.

The editorial that appeared in the Free Press of August 23, advocating an amendment to the Federal constitution providing that no citizen's property shall be taken for debt for less than the current market value of the same, to be fixed, by judicial ascertainment, in a court of competent jurisdiction," has been widely copied by the press of the state, in connection with the tentative amendment we commented on the possible effect in the commercial and economic system, but we have not noticed that the press has ventured an opinion on this phase of the matter. We would like to see a more extended expression from the press. As we see it, such an amendment would bring far reaching results out of all proportion to the few words necessary to give expression to the principles involved.

I object to the term "advertising expense. Right advertising is not an expense and never was. It is an investment, a business endowment policy, which almost from the start can be made to pay its own premiums and a large profit, besides accumulating a fund that guarantees the advertiser every dollar of his investment."—George Dyer.

Have Had the Proof.

The following are a few extracts from better prominent business men who have had the proof as to the ability of our graduates.

"We have had two of your graduates in our employ and both have given entire satisfaction. Your work is thoroughly practical and all you claim for it."

"I am clerk of the District Court, I have had one of your graduates in my office for several months, and find her competent in every respect."

"I have one of your stenographers in my office; she takes notes in shorthand rapidly and transcribes them neatly and accurately on the typewriter, and her general work is such that I can highly recommend your school."

"Having employed several of your graduates, I think your institution the best of its kind in the country."

"We have had six of your graduates in past few years; they were all good, send us another."

"There is such a scarcity of business colleges who fit their students for real business that we cannot refrain from praising and endorsing your college, since several of your students have proven competent in our office."

"We have in our employ a young man who is giving the highest degree of satisfaction. I, therefore, unreservedly commend your college."

"We have had one of your graduates for the past twelve months as bookkeeper and stenographer, and he has handled with ease the departments of our rapidly increasing business."

"As you well know, I have had a number of your graduates in my office. I take this opportunity of saying that every student that I have had from your school shows superiority of training over students that I have had from other schools."

"I have had one of your graduates; his service is satisfactory. The discipline, to say nothing of the actual knowledge gained, would more than pay parents for their child in your institution."

"I have given your graduates a thorough test and have found them to be quick and accurate in their work. The thorough and practical training you give fits them for any kind of a position."

Write for catalog containing hundreds of endorsements together with name and address from business men who pay our graduates good salaries, and then you will be convinced of the reason why some competitors of ours are disposed to deny the fact that with our Famous Byrne Systems we can give you a better course in half the time and at half the expense that they can. Quattlebaum Puts Haskell To The Bad.

Warren W. Quattlebaum, the hefty portside pitcher of Taylor county, passed through the city Friday evening enroute to his home at Ovalo from Anson. Quattlebaum was engaged by the Anson ball players to pitch against the Haskell Team last Thursday. He was in fine fettle and the game was won by him, the score being 11 to 1 in favor of Anson.

The Ovalo pitcher has a contract with the Dallas Giants of the Texas League for the year 1914. In his farming out a short time ago he evidently made good and received some enviable commendations from big-league players who had witnessed some of his "wing stunts."—Abilene Reporter.

This is the first time the Haskell team has been defeated this season. It just takes a league pitcher to do Haskell.

This Company, since commencing business in September, 1906, has paid out five annual dividends to the stockholders, amounting to forty-four per cent interest on the capital stock.

This Company has grown up during the past seven years in the midst of competing companies, many of which had a large surplus to spend in securing business. While there are other good life insurance companies in this state, a number of them started with a large surplus fund contributed by the stock holders. THE GUARANTEE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY started with a paid up Capital Stock of $100,000 and a very small Surplus of $25,000, and by work, close attention to business and economy, has built up a large surplus fund, which, on January 1st, 1913 was assigned and unassigned $172,000, all of which was derived from the earnings on its business.

If you were going to deposit your accumulations of years in a savings bank for the benefit of those dependent on you after you had gone, which institution would you select; one that had started with very little money and had grown to be very strong as a result of many years of hard work, close attention to business and economy of management, or one that had started with lots of money which was contributed by the stock holders, whose existence and was of short duration and experience very limited? Isn't it true that men who save and safely invest their accumulations are most likely to safely invest and preserve the money of others entrusted to their care?

If the Knocker or Twister should call on you, ask him to compare the record of his company with the above.

Methodist Auxiliary Notes

The Ladies of the Missionary Auxiliary met in regular session last Monday. Mrs. S. R. Rike, 1st Vice President led the devotional part of our work after which the routine of our business was taken up. The committees reported the apron sale a success financially and we thank each and every one who contributed to it in any way. This auxiliary certainly has a burden on her shoulders but the ladies are heroically lightening it little by little—"a continual dropping wears away the stone." While the members are faithful and answer to the needs here at home, they are by no means forgetting the call for help elsewhere. Hardly a month passes that our Auxiliary does not send material aid to our brothers and sisters who are less fortunate than we.

We are growing in missionary spirit too, and oh, how we do wish every woman of our Methodist Church might become burdened for the sake of Christ and our Church.

Below is the program prepared by our Superintendent of Publicity for Monday, September 22nd:

Song, "Go Tell the World of His Love"
 Scripture Lesson,—Mrs. Garvin.

Prayer,—Mrs. Rike.

Hard Luck.

Two negroes, after having disputed over a certain lady whom they both admired, decided to settle the matter by a watermelon duel, the winner to have the lady.

Each prepared himself and appeared at the appointed hour. When the melons were consumed it was found that the larger negro had devoured the greater number. The future bride having witnessed the duel, wrote the following note to the winner.

"Dear Mr. Washington: I admire your courage, but decided to marry your opponent, realizing my inability to support anyone with such an appetite as yours."—National Monthly.

.22 RIFLES

The Little Rifles—Big in Quality

YOU are going to buy a .22 calibre rifle, single shot or repeater—you'll find that many well known crack shots started with a Remington-UMC .22. Their advice now would be "By all means, get a Remington-UMC" because they know that there is a tendency in some quarters to look upon these models as only "a small boy's rifle" and to cheapen them so that they can be sold at a price.

You have just as much right to expect full shooting value in your .22 calibre arm as in your $75 big game rifle. You want the Remington-UMC single shot at from $3 to $6. 22, 25, 10 or .32 calibre, made by the same people who make the famous Remington-UMC Autoloading Rifles.

Or, if you prefer the repeating rifle, the Remington-UMC slide action .22 repeater with its easy take-down and special safety features, shooting 24 shots, .22 and .22 long rifle cartridges, at $10 and up, in your arm. Sold by live dealers in this community—the most popular small calibre rifles in America.

"CASCARETS" RELIEVE SICK, SOUR STOMACH.

Move acids, gases and clogged waste from liver and bowels.

Get a ten cent box now. That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heart-burn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any. Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a ten cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. CITY BUILDING NOTES

By L. M. Ward

Fine boosters make fine cities. Keep the path of progress clear. The fruits of toil are success. Co-operation is the law of life. Let the spirit of hive prevail. Only the fittest survive in city building. Make a town beautiful and you make it moral. Whose press agent are you? Your city's or your own? Onward with the steady march of completed achievements. There should be no innocent bystanders in city building. We are developed only by doing things that are difficult. Cleanliness is next to Godliness but fly swatting is divine. Each man is really the builder of the city in which he lives. If you can't boost your home town get up and move where you can. Co-operation is the power through which all things become possible. A commercial organization is only as strong as its weakest member. Men achieve success only by working with other men and for other men. Every member of a commercial organization should be an assistant secretary. The problem of civilization is to eliminate the parasite. The town knocker is a parasite. Co-operation is like the segments of a circle; taken separately each is nothing, but in their combination they produce efficiency.

Start with a bottle today, you will soon feel like a new woman with an ambition to work, without fear of pain. Nothing better for indigestion or biliousness. Price 50c and $1.00 at West Side Drug Store.

What's The Good?

"For the good land," exclaimed Mrs. Wayback, "here is a scientific feller that claims that one dram of this here new poison they have invented will kil a million guinea pigs." "Well, this scientific business makes me tired, anyway," responded Mr. Wayback crossly. "What in tarnation do they think they've gained by killing all them guinea pigs?"

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs"

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative" and mother can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little insides clean and sweet. Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a fifty-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the California Fig Syrup Company. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

He Found Out.

A noted psychologist wished to see what would be the effect on a typical wide-awake boy if some outlandish question was suddenly sprung on him.

Accordingly, he stopped a bright-looking newsboy one evening, and asked with great seriousness:

"What time is it by your nose, Bub?"

"Mine ain't runnin'," promptly returned the lad, "is your'n?"

Caught a Bad Cold

"Last winter my son caught a very bad cold and the way he coughed was dreadful," writes Mrs. Sarah E. Duncan of Tipton, Iowa. "We thought sure he was going into consumption. We bought just one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that one bottle stopped his cough and cured his cold completely." For sale by all dealers.

Got His Size.

One hot afternoon a man walked into the office of a politician who had a very exalted opinion of himself. The office boy went in to tell his boss of the man's visit, and returned and said:

"Mr. Mason says you will have to wait a while. 'Well,' said the man, 'you go back and tell him that I have wasted considerable time on him already and must insist on his keeping his engagement with me.'"

The office boy again disappeared and presently returned. "Mr. Mason says he can't be seen."

"Well," roared the man, "I knew he was small, but I didn't know he was as small as that!"

Safest Laxative for Women.

Nearly every woman needs a good laxative. Dr. King's New Life Pills are good because they are prompt, safe, and do not cause pain. Mrs. M. C. Dunlap of Leadville, Tenn. says: "Dr. King's New Life Pills helped her greatly." Get a box today. Price 25c. Recommended by West Side Drug Store.

Preferred Petticoats.

Herbert hated the dark and his mother decided she must cure him of his fear. She had told him often that he was not alone, that God was always with him. One night, as she tucked him up, he seemed particularly loath to let her go.

"Why, Herbert," she said, reproachfully, "you know who is always with you even in the dark." "Yes," answered the boy, "but, mother, I don't want a man, I want a woman."

FARM FACTS

By Peter Hafford

Get rid of the clouds—they decrease crop yields.

The law of ability governs the success of the farmer.

Character is built upon the rock of developed opportunities.

In union there is strength and in co-operation there is profit.

The farmer can neither help himself nor be helped by others until he organizes.

As long as every farmer tries to go it alone his task becomes increasingly difficult.

The efficiency of farm horses and mules is greatly reduced by unwise feeding and lack of care.

Our transportation systems are the dray cart of agriculture and can be made capable peddlers of farm products.

In our search for solutions we first need to see things as they are and be certain how we shall rebuild before we commence to destroy.

An intelligent co-operation between the toilers of the cities and of the country is necessary for the ultimate solution of our economic problems.

The middleman is nothing more than a farm hand but he is able to fix his own wages and to collect them and to multiply his transactions as he pleases.

Thirty per cent of the perishable farm products of Texas farms never leave the farm but rot in the field for lack of profitable prices and transportation facilities.

Bumper crops without market facilities have sent more farmers staggering down the back alleys of agriculture than all the pests and droughts that ever cursed the nation.

When we make the common carrier the agency between the producer and consumer, we'll have a regulated highway of commerce where the article can safely travel without danger of being burglarized on the roadway of trade.

Lumbago and Rheumatism.

A quick relief from lumbago and rheumatism is had by the application of Hunt's Lightning Oil, the quick acting liniment.

A friend writes, "We have been using Hunt's Lightning Oil for 13 years and deem it above all others."—Mrs. J. T. Nevels, Gordon, Texas, Route 2, Box 31. 25 and 50c a bottle. All dealers.

Fishing Better

Fishing in Corpus Christi bay is excellent. Record catches of trout are being made and numbers of redfish have been taken the past few days. To a certain extent the angler of today is to be congratulated. By keeping the seines out of the passes, the State has made it possible for fish to enter and it appears it will be but a few years until they will be as plentiful as in the good old times so eagerly spoken of by elderly residents.—Corpus Christi Caller.

Mother of Eighteen Children

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to, and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all dealers.

STOMACH TROUBLE

FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Theodor's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Theodor's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Your Hair Gets Soft, fluffy and luxuriant at once.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this is the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

30,000 VOICES!

And Many are the Voices of Haskell
People.

Thirty thousand voices.—What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache; kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it to the home papers. Haskell people are in this chorus. Here's a Haskell case.

Mrs. John Hallmark, Haskell, Texas, says: "There was a feeling of distress in the top of my head and I had a dull pain across my loins that kept me from sleeping well. My back ached and my loins were very lame. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Collier's Drug Store (now the Corner Drug Store), these troubles have not bothered me. No other kidney remedy has ever given me greater satisfaction in my case than this one."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

HASKELL PUBLIC SCHOOL ITEMS

SCHOOL OPENS

School opens next Monday morning, September 22nd. The lines dividing the different wards of the town remain as they were last year. The primary grades, first, second, third and fourth, will be taught in all the wards. Patrons of the school who have moved to town recently can easily find out about the division lines by inquiring from their neighbors.

The intermediate grades, fifth, sixth, and seventh, and the high school grades, eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh, will be taught in the North Ward building.

UNDERS, OVERS AND NON-RESIDENT PUPILS

Pupils who are seven now, or who will be seven by or before the first of next January, are entitled to free school. Pupils who are not seven and who will not be seven before the first of January, are unders. Pupils under age will be admitted on condition that they are at least six years of age. Such pupils will be charged one dollar and one-half per month. Tuition will be collected for one half the year in advance. Parents of such pupils are asked to send $6.75 as first half of the term. No unders will be admitted to the classes until this amount has been paid. Payment may be made to the superintendent of Schools, R. J. Turrentine, at his office in the North Ward building or to N. McNeill, at the hardware store of McNeill & Smith.

Pupils over twenty-one years of age are overs. Such pupils together with all non-resident pupils will pay tuition. The amount will be determined by the grade of the pupil. One half of the tuition for the year must be paid before the pupil will be admitted to the classes. Past experience in collecting tuition has led those in charge of the matter to make this regulation. The general custom is to pay the entire year in advance. It should be noted that tuition will be refunded in case of sickness.

BOOKS

Patrons all understand that the new books are to be used this year. Pupils should bring their old books to school and should not be allowed to secure new books until teachers have given them a list of the new books desired. Many pupils coming from rural districts and from village districts will doubtless not be placed in the grades their cards suggest that they should enter. Experience in Haskell has taught the teachers that such pupils have been promoted long before they were ready to be promoted, in many instances. Pupils who were not in Haskell school last year will be placed in grades only after a few weeks trial work. Such pupils should not secure books until asked to do so by the teachers.

GRADING AND CLASSIFYING PUPILS

Teachers are a unit in saying that the people of Haskell are appreciative of the interest taken in their children by the teachers. It is a pleasure to the teachers to serve such patrons. However, it should be said that teachers are a unit in saying that they have worked for patrons who were so anxious to have their children placed in higher grades. Many patrons constantly beg teachers and the superintendent to promote their children. This is certainly due to a misunderstanding of a teacher's duties. Pupils and patrons are not more anxious for promotions than are the teachers. Pupils can not be classified and graded according to their desires or according to the wishes of interested parents. Teachers who do this are not worthy of the name. The teachers made written reports and recommendations at the close of last year relative to every pupil enrolled. Patrons will confer a special favor upon teachers and the Supt. by not asking that last year's report and last year's work be disregarded.

NEW TEACHERS IN HIGH SCHOOL

There will be two new teachers in the High School this time. Miss Lillian Peek will teach Domestic Science. She is a graduate of Piedmont College in Demorest, Georgia and has had two years of work in Domestic Economy in Boston, Mass.

Miss Kathleen Beardsley will teach Latin and German. She is a graduate of Michigan University and has taken several terms of graduate work in the University of Chicago. Both of these teachers are strong and each has had several years of successful experience.

SILLO DEMONSTRATION PLANT.

These Modern Agencies in Agriculture Will Compete at the Dallas Fair.

There will be assembled at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas, Oct. 18th to Nov. 2nd, some of the most powerful agencies and most able advocates of agriculture in modern times, but none will exceed the silo in importance to the farm. It will present some of the most convincing arguments and most forcible reasons in favor of diversification, livestock, cereals, milo maize, etc., that the farmers of Texas have ever heard.

The silo is the greatest economist of the age and it has made many valuable contributions to the prosperity of the farmer. It teaches thrift, enterprise and economy and is a most competent exponent of progressive agriculture. It has proved an educator of unusual ability and a most competent workman.

Its influence is uplifting and glides like an angel of mercy through fields where droughts and pestilence prevail, delivering products from blight and destruction, and its habitat is the rescue home of the delinquent crops. It is nature's most able assistant in maturing vegetation and is man's best friend. It will multiply the value of the crop after harvest, preserve and unite the food value of the plant and will turn waste into profit.

It will require the assistance of a silo or some kindred agency to make our cereal and forage crops equally as profitable as cotton raising. The soil and climate of Texas are naturally adapted to cotton, and the State as a whole can never hope to lead in cereals unless their value can be increased by artificial means on their journey from the harvest field to the market. The silo is a manufacturing plant built on the farm and enables the farmer to get the profits of both producer and manufacturer.

There will be on exhibition at the Dallas Fair Grounds every make of silo now in use and silo demonstration work will be one of the leading educational features of the Fair. The process is entertaining and the various types of silos will be on competitive trial where their good points can be readily determined by the farmers present. Twelve acres of sorghum raised on the Fair Grounds will be used in the demonstration work.

A Worthy Article.

On our first page will be found a clipping sent us by a mother who signed herself "Old Settler," with a request that we publish. The article is entitled "The Cause of Social Degeneracy" and is so full of needed advise we gladly reproduce it. We trust that every reader of The Free Press will carefully read this article.

There is only one evil we notice omitted from the article, and that is the evil influence of girls and boys who have not the proper home training. Such boys and girls some times make a studied effort to undo and disgrace those who have had the proper training, and we have seen such accomplish their fiendish purpose. One of the lowest elements in human nature is the jealous instinct that would pull one's betters down to a low level, and in this community we have witnessed too often the success of such human hyenas.

INDUSTRIAL ENTERTAINMENT.

The Largest Models of Agricultural Implements and Machinery on Exhibition at the Texas Cotton Palace.

The sun never sets on the dominion of King Cotton and he rules supreme over the most fertile, most profitable and most desirable portion of the globe.

Cotton has reared the occupation, reared the wardrobe and brought into life more industries than any other product the world has ever known. Since the brilliant genius of Eli Whitney gave us the cotton gin, mammoth manufacturing plants have been constructed to make gins, compresses, cotton mills, cotton oil mills, plows, cultivators, wagons, harness, railroad equipment, steamships, and all machinery needed in cultivating, manufacturing, transporting and marketing the crop.

King Cotton will sit on his throne at the Waco Cotton Palace November 1st to 16th and review a grand display of the latest improved models of agricultural implements and machinery that the world possesses.

King Cotton spends annually in the markets of the world one and one-quarter billion dollars for machinery and equipment to cultivate and harvest the crop. The king purchases annually two million agricultural implements; one thousand gins; compresses and mills, and spends millions of dollars in transportation equipment. This Monarch of Agriculture will inspect the exhibits in the Mechanical and Implement Department and manufacturers from all over the globe will exhibit the best products inventive genius and that mechanical skill of the age can devise, all seeking the good opinion of the king.

These exhibits will address the throne in tongues of iron and steel, and in language mute and powerful, tell an eloquent story of their efficiency, utility, strength and economy.

It is a liberal education in mechanical science and a course of instruction in business to hear these masters of mechanics converse with the king and demonstrate how time and labor will be saved to the cotton fields of the South by giving them an opportunity to become royal servants. It will be one of the most interesting and engaging industrial entertainments that will be staged in Texas during the year and no one should miss it. The farmers will be especially benefited by visiting the palace and inspecting the subjects and servants of the king.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriole, Pa. That is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by all dealers.

TEXAS MINERALS.

Exhibits at the Dallas Fair to Be Instructive.

The Texas coal fields have long attracted the attention of Uncle Sam and he has given the world many glowing accounts of their possibilities in his geological reports, but the best evidence of value is the product taken from the mine.

There will be on display at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas, Oct. 18th to Nov. 2nd, exhibits of the more important products.

Practically every mineral known to the geological world is found in Texas, and we produce thirteen minerals in commercial quantities. According to the United States Geological Survey, the mine value of our available coal supply exceeds the Census Bureau valuation of all the farms of the United States, including their equipment, by ten billion dollars and is worth fifty times the value of the world's cotton crop of 1912.

The first mineral production of record in Texas was in 1882 and since that time products valued at $227,000,000 have been taken from our mines and wells. The mine value of the output for 1912 was $20,827,712.

The important mineral products in the order of their mine value are as follows: Petroleum, $8,901,000; coal and lignite, $3,273,288; clay products, $2,660,000; natural gas, $1,401,000; asphalt, $786,783; stone, $588,777; gypsum, $491,085; and salt, $300,000.

According to the report of the Bureau of Economic Geology and Technology of the University of Texas, we have 10,000 square miles of Texas land containing workable coal and it will take 15,000 years to exhaust our present supply at the current rate of mining. We rank 20th with other states in production. Our coal mines furnish employment to 5,350 men for 226 days in the year. We have 45 coal and lignite mines and the annual average production per mine is 44,000 tons.

We have one of the largest petroleum areas in the United States. Our oil fields cover 400,000 square miles of territory. Texas petroleum and its products enter every market in the world. We export 136,324,625 gallons of crude and refined oil annually and their export value is $6,500,000 dollars.

The mineral exhibits will portray many opportunities for investment and will be one of the most instructive departments of the Fair.

An Author - Publisher

By ANDREW C. EWING

Leslie Robinson was the son of a publisher. His father said to him one day when the boy was much elated at being made editor of the high school Banner: "My boy, don't get the literary fever. A great many catch it, and only those recover in whom the literary parasites find nothing to feed on. I fear you have just enough talent for writing to make you uncomfortable all your life."

Alas, the young are not so constituted as to take the advice of the old. Perhaps this is best as it is. It is not success that brings happiness; it is striving for success. But in literary work for all but one in a million there are constant disappointments.

Young Robinson was so unfortunate, according to his father's idea, when he went to college as to be made editor of the university magazine. His essays received the highest marks. He was unconscious of the fact that the reason they took high rank was because those with which they competed were of no value as literary productions.

Mr. Robinson, Sr., died while his son was in college. The publishing business, by the late owner's injunction, was to be carried on, till Leslie was graduated, by the junior partner, after which the son was to manage the interests he had inherited. He proved to have business capacity and soon became the brains of the establishment.

Perhaps if Leslie Robinson had appreciated his business talents he might have lost his desire for literary eminence. He considered himself rather born to literature than to business. Finding time to manage a publishing house and scribe, at the same time he did both. He sent articles to the magazines, and they were always accepted. They were good articles, so that it was not necessary for Mr. Robinson to ask how much their acceptance was due to their merit and how much to their having been offered by the head of the publishing house of Robinson & Co.

After awhile Mr. Robinson brought out a novel. It was accepted by the first publisher to whom it was offered. Robinson scorned to publish it himself. He said that the test of a good book is that a business man will risk his money on it. It cost several thousand dollars to get out an edition of a book, and unless the article was of sufficient merit to insure a return it would not find a publisher. He was still young in the business or he would have known that the higher the type the less the profit. The poet Browning would have starved had he been forced to live on the income he derived from his poems.

Robinson published several books, one after another. He did not succeed in becoming well known as an author, but had no difficulty in securing publishers for what he wrote. By and by the publishers began to ask him to give them his books for publication. This was a long step to the front. Leslie was very proud of himself. Those associated with him in business asked him why if his books were valuable to other publishers they were not valuable to him. He replied that to publish his own works would make it appear that he could not get any other house to take the risk of doing so.

Robinson married a girl with a good deal of horse sense. It did not require a long time for her to see that her husband was an excellent business man. She knew that persons are apt not to value what they are born to and are easily puffed up with a little success at what they do indifferently well. One day she had the temerity to tell her husband that he was naturally fitted for business—indeed, it was his natural vocation.

A dispute arose between them which ended in an agreement that the next novel offered by him should be under an assumed name. Robinson winced at this suggestion made by his wife, for he knew the value of a name, but he admitted that if his novel had not sufficient merit to find a publisher without his name it could not be a literary gem. At any rate, he was willing to abide by the test.

His work was sent first to the publisher who had thus far put out all his books. Within a week it was returned with a printed "unavailable" card. This was a great fall for his literary pride. For the next six months he continued to send his work to his brother publishers. Most of them kept it a long while. He thought this meant that they were making up their minds. It was not this, but that they were too busy to examine it. At the end of the six months it had gone the rounds.

The day it came back from the last publisher Robinson saw a novel advertised by one of his brother publishers, the author of which had stood trial for murder. It appealed him that this man could find a publisher and he could not. As a last resort he tried his own firm. Sending his manuscripts to himself, on its arrival he turned it over to his chief reader, who sent it back to him with the following report:

The author says all he has to say is remarkably well. But he has nothing to say.

No one knows why Leslie Robinson stopped writing except his wife. Friends tell him that a genius was spoiled when he went into business, but he shrugs his shoulders and says that authorship does not pay particularly. Mrs. Robinson looks wistful and says nothing.
