NUMBER 41

Approximately fifty young men of Abernathy High School reported for the first summer workout of the football team. They are shown above as the AHS cheerleaders and students were holding a surprise pep rally in their honor. Mr. Curtis Davenport, high school principal, spoke at the pep rally which was held just before the team went to the field for their very first workout.

The AHS football team members are shown above as they were fixing to go to the practice field for their first summer workout. They were postponed for a few minutes by a surprise pep rally planned and directed by the AHS cheerleaders. The cheerleaders, at left, led yells for the team. About fifty boys reported to workouts and the outlook is good for a good football season.

Firms Underwrite Antelope Booster Ads In The Review

A list published below gives the names of Abernathy business places which are underwriting large booster advertisements for the Abernathy High School Antelopes' 1964 football season.

Objective of the football ads is threefold. The firms listed below want the AHS Antelope football boys to know they are behind them and rooting for them in every game they play this season.

Secondly, the advertisements purpose is to urge the fans to turn out for every game the Antelopes play. The Antelopes appreciate seeing their football stands filled with Abernathy fans when they are playing.

Also, the school's athletic department needs the money that big crowds at football games bring into the school fund. The athletic program is very costly, and a large attendance at all of the games will help.

The Antelopes had a bad 1963 season, and the state coaching school tabbed the Antelopes as the underdog team in District 3-AA this year.

The following merchants are to be commended for their support of the Antelopes. Everyone rushes to boost a winning team, but it takes a real sincere fan and booster to stay with a hard luck team as the merchants listed below are doing in running the football ads this year.

Underwriting the football ads are: Robison's Drapery Shop, Scotty's Automotive Shop, Plains Grain Co. & Fertilizer, Abernathy Co-op Grain & Fertilizer Co., Service Grain & Fertilizer, Higginbotham-Bartlett Co., Hill's Abernathy Pharmacy, Abernathy Floral, Ann's Dress Shop, Abernathy First State Bank, Pope's Parts Place, Bill Wolf & Sons Irrigation Supply, Abernathy Motor Co., Grimsley's Grocery & Market, Burnie's Beauty Shop, Abernathy Consumers Fuel Association, Harold's Super Market, Bruce Furniture & Appliance, Inc., Abernathy Sheet Metal Works, Newton Radio & TV, Abernathy Oil Co., Cosden Station, Plains Gas of Abernathy, Inc., County Line Co-op Glns.

There are several local business places yet to be contacted to help underwrite the football ads. The names of other co-operating business places to be contacted later will be added to the above list in next week's paper.

The football ads will carry information on the upcoming games, the complete season schedule, pictures of the Antelopes, and names of businesses sponsoring the ads. The first ad will appear Sept. 2, boosting the Antelopes in their game with Frenship the night of Sept. 4.

RIDING CLUB GETS SECOND PLACE IN MORTON PARADE

Abernathy Riding Club won the second place trophy in the Morton Rodeo parade Thursday afternoon.

A dinner and business meeting for Abernathy Riding Club members will be held Sept. 5, in Graham's Restaurant private dining room at 7:30 p. m.

Chambers ambulance took the Rev. C. B. Stovall to Medical Arts Clinic, Lubbock, then returned him to his home here Monday.

Delaine Rappe was a patient at Hi-Plains Hospital, Hale Center. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McPherson recently returned from a reunion at Maud, Okla. It was a reunion of the McPherson and Johnson families, with 101 relatives, plus a number of friends, attending.

A typographical error in last week's paper made a misquote out of a quote. It should have read: "Look," said H. E. Richter, pointing to the flag on the pole at the post office, "it is so hot the flag has wilted."

Ninety high school band members reported for the first full band rehearsal of the new season Monday morning, and after joining in with the cheerleaders in a short pep rally to help kick off the new football season, settled down to work on new music and marching routines. Twenty-five other members were accounted for on jobs, vacations, or other reasons, and a few others have not reported in yet.

Rehearsals are being held daily from 8:30 a. m. to 11:30, with the new stage band rehearsing about twice a week. Uniform checkouts, individual work, etc., are being taken care of in the afternoons.

Current Water Supply Is Good

At the moment, when this was written at 4:35 p. m. Monday, City Manager Charles Norwood reported that our water situation had improved some up to that time (4:35 p. m. Monday). By the time this goes into print, it may be better or it could be worse. Indications are that it will be as good or better. If you, the reader, are confused, join the club. So are we, the city officials and others who are involved.

As of 4:35 p. m. Monday, the city was pumping the new well on the city square, a well on 6th St., and a well on 12th St. A new well drilled late last week north of Big State Grain & Fertilizer Co. was being tied into the system. The city was receiving water into the system from an irrigation well on the Lemay and Don McKenney farm at the east edge of town. And, the city was seeking a permit from Lubbock County to drill a well in Southeast Abernathy.

Contacts were made with the Canadian Water Authority people Friday when Jim Bob Smith, W. T. Settle, Dan Ward and Andy Reid were given an escorted tour of the Canadian dam site in the Texas Panhandle.

The local men discussed with the officials the possibility of making an opening here in the Canadian water line that will be laid east of Abernathy, between town and the airport section, on its way to Lubbock and towns to the south. Also, the City of Abernathy has filed a formal request to buy any surplus water that the Canadian project may have to sell. Water from this source will not be available until about 1967.

X-Ray Unit Due Here August 26

(By O. F. Rea)

The Mobil Tuberculosis X-ray unit will be in Abernathy Wednesday, August 26, and will be located on the north side of the city square all day. While there is no specific charge for this service, a donation of 50 cents or more will be appreciated as it will help to defray the expense of the operation. The unit will operate from 7:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Tuberculosis identified in its early stages can be successfully treated and if you have the least suspicion of a possibility of your having this disease, by all means have yourself X-rayed.

All persons are eligible for X-rays except children under 10 years of age. Should you wish to schedule this service for your industry, employees or neighborhood center, you may do so by calling PO-2-0506 for a reservation date, said Mrs. Clifford Sharp, TBA executive director.

Five Generations Of Harral Family

(By O. F. Rea)

Pictured here are five generations in the W. A. Harral family. Mrs. W. A. Harral who was 90 years old in March this year, of Abernathy; Henry Harral, her son, of Encine, New Mexico; Henry's daughter, Mrs. Billy Byrd, Tulla, Texas; Henry's grand-daughter, Mrs. Don Adams, Corpus Christi, Texas; and Henry's great-grandson, Kenneth Adams, also of Corpus Christi, Texas.

Mrs. W. A. Harral came to the Plains in 1889 and settled 8 miles southwest of Hale Center when she was 15 years old. They moved to Abernathy in 1910 to be near school. This makes Mrs. Harral one of, if not the oldest residents of this area of the South Plains. She has also lived here in Abernathy for the past 54 years.

NEW SCHOOL BUSES

H. V. Gallaway, Abernathy, school bus foreman, went to Kosciusko, Miss., last week to take delivery of a new school bus for the local bus fleet. The bus has a 48-passenger Superior body mounted on a Chevrolet truck chassis.

Expected to be added to the school bus fleet soon is a new 60-passenger Ward bus body mounted on a Dodge truck chassis. The Ward bus body factory is in Austin.

Pat Bundick, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bundick, 301 Ave. K, Abernathy, was under treatment in Hi-Plains Hospital, Hale Center.

Mrs. Peggy Lee Wadman and two sons, Wyley Bruce and Terry, of Las Vegas, Nev., arrived here Sunday to visit in the home of her father, Wylie Wilkison.

The family of the late S. L. Smith held a reunion at Tulsa, Oklahoma August 15. All the children are living, numbering ten, needless to say there is a host of grand children and great-grand children. Mr. Smith was the father of Mrs. Joe E. Reeves and farmed for a number of years south of County Line.

Carl Speer returned home Monday from Taylor Hospital, Lubbock.

Cotton Consumption Up
Representatives of the American Textile Manufacturers Institute have told Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman that the one-price cotton program passed by congress this year is already having a beneficial effect on the cotton industry according to a report published in the Daily News Record—the textile industry's daily newspaper.

Heading up the group meeting with Mr. Freeman was William E. Reid, President of Riegel Textile Corporation and President-elect of ATMI. He told the Secretary that carded and combed yarn prices have fallen and that there has also been a decline in fabric prices.

Inventories throughout the industry were low in anticipation of one-price cotton, it was pointed out, and only the strong demand following institution of the program has kept prices from falling to even lower levels.

Reid said the cotton textile industry and the apparel industry are so competitive that the lower raw cotton prices will be passed down the line, but there is a time lag before these lower prices will reach the consumer. Among the benefits coming to the industry, Mr. Freeman was told that the program has already caused increased cotton consumption and is resulting in new mills devoted to cotton fabric production.

Pfeiffenberger Back

George W. Pfeiffenberger, Executive Vice President of PCG since its inception in 1956, has returned to the office on a part time basis following recent surgery.

Quality Report

The comprehensive report on "Production and Quality" of the 1963 High Plains cotton crop soon to be published by PCG will show total production for the 23 counties of 2,097,995 bales; a per-acre yield average of 480 pounds lint; average fiber strength (Pressley) of 78,000 pounds per square inch; micronaire average of 3.5, and an area staple average of 29.8 thirty-seconds of an inch. The complete report should be published this month.

New Weathermen Hits

Oliver Newton, who moved into South Plains Research and Extension Center offices in May as Area Agricultural Meteorologist, is so far batting pretty close to an even 1,000 on his 30-day forecast. For June he predicted from two to four inches of rain over the High Plains, and that rain would fall on each farm or community an average of five times during the month. It's hard to imagine how you could stick your neck out any farther on the High Plains—but the rain came through to save him. Hooray! We hope he has the same success with similar predictions in the future.

Spot Market Quotations

The announcement by the Secretary of Agriculture that "beginning August 1 the price quoted for the base quality of cotton, Middling 1-inch, in each of the 15 redesignated bona fide spot markets will be the price at which this cotton is traded before Payments in Kind (PIKs) are made on the cotton" is certainly good news to producers.

In fact, keeping these quotations at the domestic level (before PIKs) instead of having them fall to the world level (after PIKs) was the primary objective of producer groups who fought to have PIKs made to the last handler rather than the first buyer. It was feared that should the PIKs be issued to the first buyer, all price quotations would be pulled down to the world price level, placing producers at a considerable disadvantage before the public and in legislative dealings.

It was announced on June 3 that the PIKs would be available to domestic users or other handlers in trade channels after the cotton leaves the hands of the farmer. Therefore, since all cotton will enter trade channels at the higher level, this will make prices available on a large number of transactions at the higher level, and these prices can be used by Quotations Committees and the Department of Agriculture in determining quotations.

Cotton Quotations are published daily by Agricultural Marketing Service's Cotton Division, and if prices from which PIKs have already been deducted are used in developing these quotations, they will be adjusted upward to reflect the price before the PIK was made.

Boll Weevil Meetings

July 22 and 23 are the dates set for two meetings at which more definite plans will be laid for this fall's massive boll weevil control program. The first will bring together the Boll Weevil Technical Advisory Committee, composed largely of the nation's top entomologists. This group is expected to lay down the guidelines for the area to be sprayed, chemicals to be used, rates of application and other phases of the program on which their experience will prove valuable.

The following day the Area-wide Boll Weevil Committee will meet. This committee, made up of one member from each of the 23 High Plains counties in Plains Cotton Growers territory, will consider Advisory Committee recommendations and work on the organization of county and community committees. County Agents from the 23-county area have been invited to the meeting and will work with the Area-wide Committee on forming these committees and on planning educational programs.

Farmers in the 23 High Plains counties have requested 39,046 acres on which to grow cotton for export in 1964—almost 45 percent of the estimated 88,000 such acres asked for in the nation and 95 percent of the 41,402 export acres requested in Texas.

Under new cotton legislation approved early last April, each farmer was given the opportunity to sign up for and plant a maximum of 5% above his total allotment, provided the cotton produced on the additional acres was sold for export at the "world price." In order that the additional acreage be approved by the USDA's Agricultural Stabilization Conservation Service, farmers were required to furnish bond by July 1 guaranteeing export of the cotton without benefit of government price support.

The acreage totals here, however, represent only the acres for which farmers "signed up", and are not necessarily the same as the total acres finally approved by ASC. By the same token, they do not represent the number of export acres planted because even farmers who signed and became bonded for export acreage were not required to plant all or any part of the acreage requested. Acreage actually planted for export will not be known until ASC offices get the measured cotton acreage on all of the farms requesting export acres. Some of the farms will probably drop out entirely, while others will not plant the entire maximum for which they were approved. Final figures will probably not be available until about October 15.

According to a USDA report, most of the export acreage requested was in three states—Texas, California and Mississippi—with Texas accounting for almost half. California was second with 19,553 acres and Mississippi third with 13,597. Percentage-wise, California's requests came to 2.6 percent of the state's total allotment, which far outstrips the 6 percent of total allotment for Texas and 9 percent for Mississippi.

The 39,046 export acres requested on the High Plains comes to about 35 percent of the 113,632 acres that would have been allocated here had each farmer asked for his full 5 percent allowance. And, since the total requests came from 5,479 farmers, or about 20 percent, it can be assumed that most requests came from farmers with larger acreage allotments.

According to Lewis David, State Executive Director of the ASC at College Station, the following are the number of requests and requested acres from High Plains counties:

Hale, no. of farms requesting, 684. No. of acres requested 3417. Lubbock County, farms requesting, 820. Number of acres requested 5197.

BOLL WEEVIL EDUCATION

A meeting July 1 with county agents from over the South Plains gave assurance of a full scale effort by the Extension Service to educate area farmers and businessmen on all phases of the coming boll weevil control program.

W. H. (Bud) Jones, District Extension Agent, told Plains Cotton Growers that the Extension Service would "be holding meetings within cotton producing counties to present the latest and most comprehensive information available on why the boll weevil must be controlled before it establishes a foothold on the Plains." In addition, Jones said County Agents would discuss and recommend weevil control measures in those counties already plagued with weevil infestations.

Also attending the meeting were Bill Gunter, Area Extension Agronomist of Lubbock, and V. G. Young, State Agricultural Agent from College Station. It was pointed out at the meeting that the possible $2 million cost of the "diapause" control program to be initiated this fall figures to be only .6 of one percent of the lint and seed value of a normal crop produced in the 23-county area served by Plains Cotton Growers.

President Johnson has requested the Senate to include $1 million in the 1965 fiscal year budget to provide funds for matching those put up by High Plains producers for weevil control, and Congressman George Mahon has testified in favor of the appropriation before the Senate Agricultural Appropriations sub-committee.

Agriculture In Texas Is Still Big Business

Although the number of people on Texas farms and ranches is declining, many of those leaving the country are not leaving the agricultural industry, says John G. McHaney, Extension economist, Texas A&M University.

Today nearly 40 percent of all Texans derive their income wholly or in part from farming and ranching or connected businesses, reports the economist. These businesses supply the production needs of farmers and process and distribute agricultural products.

Many agricultural processes once handled on the farm are now performed by these businesses and much labor once needed on the farm is used by them. McHaney points out. For example, farmers today purchase most of their power in the form of gasoline and machinery instead of raising animals and feeding them. Workers that supply the production needs perform a service for the farmer and are partially dependent on him for their living. About 96 percent of the agricultural production in Texas must pass through the business firms of the state before reaching the final consumer, says the economist.

To Test Soil

COLLEGE STATION, July 23.—Now is the time to test soils for salinity. Harmful salts, advises Dr. C. D. Welch, Extension soil chemist, are often deposited in the soil during irrigation and while irrigation is active, it's a good time to do some checking. Salinity may reduce crop yields as much as 25 percent and under extreme conditions may ruin soil for almost any type of agricultural production. All waters contain some salt and a salinity threat exists wherever irrigation is practiced, says Welch.

A soil test to determine the nature and severity of salt conditions should be the first step in management and treatment of salt affected soils. Authorities attribute the downfall of many civilizations indirectly to soil salinity, especially of those where heavy irrigation was practiced. Salts accumulating in the soil soon became the limiting factor in crop production and ultimately the fall of the civilization resulted.

Boll Weevil Creeping West

Boll weevil infestations are increasing above the Caprock. A report from Ollie Limer, County Agent, says 25 weevil cases were confirmed above the Caprock as of Monday, July 20. Heaviest infestations above the Caprock to date have been found in Crosby County, with other cases reported from Floyd and Dickens counties.

Weevil infestations in cotton below the Caprock are widespread. Populations of the damaging insect continued a slow—but steady—increase this past week. Heaviest weevil infestations below the Caprock were noted in the Afton and East Afton areas of Dickens County. Light to heavy weevil infestations exist in several other counties off the Caprock.

Many farmers have started spot spraying where weevil infestations have appeared in their fields above the Caprock. Infestations above the Caprock are still light and confined to fairly small areas of the field. Spot spraying will help prevent a buildup and spread of the weevils further into the Plains. This is an important part of the overall weevil control program.

Farmers below the Caprock should begin control when infestations reach the 10-15% level. Infestations of 50-60%, which are present in some fields below the Cap, are much more difficult and expensive to control than if treated earlier.

Bollworm populations are still light over most of the area. However, increased egg-laying has been noted during the past week. Producers should be making regular inspections of their fields for bollworms. Where control is necessary, insecticides should be applied as soon as possible after eggs hatch. Accurate timing of applications can be determined only by regular field inspections. County Agent Limer, reports that no boll weevil have been found to date in Hale County; however, a boll weevil committee has been formed. Joe Leach, Plainview, is serving as County Chairman of this committee and he has appointed members in each of the communities to this committee. They are as follows: Abernathy, Billy Houston; Cotton Center, J. Morris Thomas; Edmondson, Elmo Snelling; Hale Center, Swann Pettit; Halfway, Owen Pinkerton; Petersburg, Don Hegli; Plainview, Dee Martin; Prairieview, Tull Thompson.

Leach is calling a meeting of this planning committee for 2:00 p. m. on Monday afternoon, August 3rd in Plainview.

Fresh strawberries by the crates, shortcakes by the hundreds of pounds, unusual baked and frozen dishes featuring strawberries, and sparkling jams, jellies and preserves made from strawberries were in the spotlight at Potetec recently as home demonstration club women, members of the Farm Bureau and Grange, Rotary Club and other area leaders and berry growers paid tribute to the community's top money crop during the 17th annual Potet Strawberry Festival. The festival traditionally ushers in the area's strawberry harvest. Yields are expected to be better than average if the weather continues favorable for the next month, says Hollis Duke, Atascosa county agent.

Livestock producers, feeders and consumers in the San Antonio area will be audience for a special added feature when they attend the June 3 auction sale at the Union Stockyards there. A program, "Selling Meat—USA," will be presented just before the sale by R. B. Eiling, director of industry relations for the National Livestock and Meat Board, and Charlene Lee, an assistant.

Today's turkeys are a menu planner's dream, says Mrs. Gwen Clayatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist. The birds are meaty, tender, delicious, and versatile. Fried turkey pieces, barbecued turkey, roast turkey, turkey salad, creamed turkey and turkey casseroles are but a few of the ways you may serve this economical bird.

Micronaire readings, commonly referred to as "mike," will be included as additional quality factor for upland cotton going under price support loan beginning with 1964 crop. Producers will be required to furnish, at their expense, mike readings as determined by cotton classing offices of the Agricultural Marketing Service for each bale of 1964-crop upland cotton on which price support is requested. Local county agents have additional information on the subject.

The revised edition of the USDA's Insecticide Handbook is now available. It is the first edition to cover household and house plant insects. The usual coverage is devoted to recommendations on other insecticides. Single copies of "Insecticide Recommendations," AH 120, can be purchased for one dollar from the Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402.

The sterile-male technique of insect control is being used in this year's campaign against the Mexican fruit fly. Technique is similar to that being used in the southwestern campaign against the screwworm, a pest of livestock. If the new biological control method proves successful, it will eliminate the need for conventional pesticides in this U. S. - Mexican effort. The campaign is being carried out in Southern California.

School Term To Begin In August

The office of Abernathy School Superintendent Delwin Webb announced that the 1964-1965 school term will begin in late August. Abernathy High School students and Abernathy Junior High students will register August 28, and classes for all students will begin Monday, August 31.
Jerry Moorhead, Elementary School principal reminds parents of children who will start school for the first time August 31 of two for the first time enrollment items:
1. Bring the child's birth certificate to verify the fact that the child will be six years of age on or before September 1, 1964.
2. And bring a certificate to verify that the child has had a smallpox vaccination.
All students, beginners and those in other grades, too, must have had a smallpox vaccination before they can enroll in Abernathy school.

Better Season Predicted For AHS Antelopes

District 3-AAA—Olton, Friona and Floydada form the Big Three in this district, and if a Big One should emerge, Olton is the nominee.
The Mustangs have 7 starters returning among the 13 lettermen. They have quality in the backfield, headed by QB Joe Priest, and excellence in the line, starting with guard Leon Kendall (185), who was All-South Plains last year. Dennis Givens (190) is another accomplished performer, and so are linemen Dwight Clark, Charles Church, Don Sopher, Don Mitchell and Darrell Glover. Jerry LaFrance, Richard Hall and Joe Castello help make it a salty backfield.

Friona welcomes back 6 starters and 15 lettermen from its 8-2 team of last year. Outstanding blocker-linebacker-runner Doug Dodd (170) provides the rallying point. Halfbacks Milton Hargus and Danny Murphee have good speed, and Dale Milner, Larry Buckley and Joey Taylor are formidable names in the line.

Floydada (16 lettermen, 6 veterans returning) will look to guard Bill Polts and line passer Keith Teague to heal up its charge. Nor can the presence of end Mac Willson, a fine receiver, interior linemen David Lutrick and Zeke Robertson, and backs Ken Campbell, Sammy Watts, and James McNeill be overlooked.

Everybody returns at Abernathy, which means the 0-10 team last year is ready to move up. Among the 25 letter-men is this nucleus: tackles John Reagan and Bill Lee, ends Boyce Paxton and Ronnie Murray, guard Jim Owens, and backs Pat Hale, Jake Mallow and Mike Tannehill. Dimmitt returns only 8 lettermen and must rebuild. A fine crop of newcomers is on hand, however, and also a nifty threesome of QB Steve Hutton and ends Dick Dyer and Tommy Nichols.

Lockney finds fullback Rusty Smith, who scored 78 points last year, its top gun. Roger Dorman and Dale Galloway also make for an improved picture.

(Editor's Note: Word came that Jake Mallow may not play during the 1964 season due to a back injury.)

The ambulance phone is 298-2331.

Don't wait until Monday. Turn news in to The Review Thursday, Friday and Saturday, too.

SHAMROCK STATION IMPROVEMENTS

Boney Attebury's Shamrock Service Station on Ave. D at 13th St. has been remodeled and repainted. A new color combination will be noted on the building and the gasoline pumps.

COTTON SITUATION—Carry-over of cotton on August 1 was the highest since the all-time record was set in 1956. It increased during the 1963-64 crop year despite larger disappearance than year earlier due to the large 1963 crop. Favorable growing conditions and record-high yields contributed to the largest crop in a decade.

BE PREPARED—Since no one can predict when an emergency will arise, it's good to be prepared as much as possible with information and materials. Knowing in advance what can be done is a big step toward offsetting the damage of any emergency.

MRS. GEROG S. REAGAN (Myra Dianne Kimball)

Hi-Plains Hi-Lights

NEWS from the High Plains Research Foundation

Flame cultivation, as an economical means of weed control, is one of the last steps to fully mechanize our agricultural process of raising food and fiber. The necessity of mechanical cultivation of weeds by the use of heat has been brought about by two major factors: (1) weeds, and (2) scarcity and expense of labor.

Farmers have fought weeds in one form or another since they first planted crops. One of the best ways of eliminating the weed problem is to pull it by hand. In this day and time, this type of labor is neither economical or practical. The use of heat in agriculture has proven to be both economical and practical.

Jack H. Parks, agricultural engineer for the High Plains Research Foundation in charge of flame cultivation, reports that conditions are good at this time, following an irrigation or rain, to control weeds by using heat. Parks states that the size of the crop that is to be flamed is one of the most important items to consider. Grain sorghum should be from 8 to 10 inches tall, cotton needs to be around 6 to 8 inches in height, while both castorbeans and soybeans should be 10 inches.

Conventional cultivation by the use of sweeps did a good job for many years, but each time a crop of weeds was plowed, in effect, a new crop of weeds was started by turning new weed seeds up so they could germinate. The use of sweeps also cut back the yield by pruning the roots of the planted crops. This can be avoided by the use of heat.

The use of herbicides is currently gaining much favor and popularity, and some do a very good job. It is important to remember that residues remain for a period of time so that proper crop sequence should be followed as specified by the manufacturer. A good combination of herbicides and flame cultivation can be found by using herbicides at an early stage in the growth of crops to control the weeds before the crop gets to flaming size.

Flame cultivation may not be the total answer, but at this time, it is apparent that by following recommended practices and procedures, it can be an effective and economical means of weed control.

A cost of production survey done by the High Plains Research

Abernathy (Texas) Weekly Review, Thursday, Aug. 20, 1964—Page 5

Foundation shows the spiraling cost to produce a dollar on the farm. In 1940, to produce $1.00 on the farm cost 46c. In 1959, the cost of production of $1.00 rose to 63c. In 1962-63, the cost had jumped to 79.8c to produce $1.00 on the farm. This ever increasing high cost of production is what the Texas farmer, as well as farmers everywhere, must face. The cost of production is what is causing farmers to move off the farm.

The economy of the use of heat through flame cultivation is one of the important steps in any farming operation that can mean the difference between a profit or loss in farming.

Instructions on the use of flame cultivation have been forwarded to all farmers and businessmen who support the Foundation's private enterprise research work.

SCHOOL DAYS CALL FOR SAFE DRIVING

In a matter of days, Abernathy streets will be filled with children on foot, on bicycles and in cars as the new school term begins. Watch for them. Use extra care in driving in the area of the school campus. Obey commands given by Mr. S. H. Lebow, who guards the crosswalk on Ave. D between city hall and Pinson's.

Drivers in the rural areas are urged to watch for school buses. The best rule is to STOP when a school bus is stopped to take on or discharge passengers. The state law requires school bus drivers to report motorists who drive in a dangerous manner while a school bus is stopped.

COTTON SITUATION — Carry-over of cotton on August 1 was the highest since the all-time record was set in 1956. It increased during the 1963-64 crop year despite larger disappearance than year earlier due to the large 1963 crop. Favorable growing conditions and record-high yields contributed to the largest crop in a decade.

BE PREPARED—Since no one can predict when an emergency will arise, it's good to be prepared as much as possible with information and materials. Knowing in advance what can be done is a big step toward offsetting the damage of any emergency.

Social Security Information

People who will be applying for social security benefits in the near future should remember to bring certain documents with them which may very likely speed up the processing of their claims, said Mr. John G. Hutton, district manager for social security in Lubbock, Texas.

Mr. Hutton said that you can reduce the processing time on your claim by bringing the following things with you when you come to file your claim: (1) Proof of age, such as your birth certificate, baptismal certificate or old life insurance policy; (2) A copy of your 1963 tax return if you are self-employed; (3) 1963 W-2 form (the statement of your wages from your employer); (4) A list of your employers during the year, amounts each paid you and their addresses, if you had several employers during the year.

It will also help if you have the following dates in mind or written down: your date of birth, wife or husband's date of birth, date of marriage, and dates of prior marriages and divorce (or date of death) of each. Bring birth certificates of any children you have.

Mr. Hutton explained that the person who brings these items on the first visit enables the social security office to start his claim without undue loss of time and gets his checks coming sooner.

Our representative will be at county courthouse in Plainview 9:30 a. m., each Tuesday.

Foundation shows the spiraling cost to produce a dollar on the farm. In 1940, to produce $1.00 on the farm cost 46c. In 1959, the cost of production of $1.00 rose to 63c. In 1962-63, the cost had jumped to 79.8c to produce $1.00 on the farm. This ever increasing high cost of production is what the Texas farmer, as well as farmers everywhere, must face. The cost of production is what is causing farmers to move off the farm.

The economy of the use of heat through flame cultivation is one of the important steps in any farming operation that can mean the difference between a profit or loss in farming. Instructions on the use of flame cultivation have been forwarded to all farmers and businessmen who support the Foundation's private enterprise research work.

SCHOOL DAYS CALL FOR SAFE DRIVING

In a matter of days, Abernathy streets will be filled with children on foot, on bicycles and in cars as the new school term begins. Watch for them. Use extra care in driving in the area of the school campus. Obey commands given by Mr. S. H. Lebow, who guards the crosswalk on Ave. D between city hall and Finson's.

Drivers in the rural areas are urged to watch for school buses. The best rule is to STOP when a school bus is stopped to take on or discharge passengers. The state law requires school bus drivers to report motorists who drive in a dangerous manner while a school bus is stopped.

SPECIAL U. S. MILK PROGRAM PROVIDES VIM AND VITALITY

Vim and vigor! Health and vitality!

That should be the result of the Special Milk Program of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Under this program during the past fiscal year, Texas school children consumed 108,008,000 half-pints of milk—one of the most nearly perfect foods.

This milk, however, was in addition to about 123,266,000 half-pints served with Type A lunches, says John J. Slaughter, southwest area food distribution division director, USDA Agricultural Marketing Service, Dallas.

Special milk was provided at 3,613 public and private schools, child care centers, summer camps and other non-profit institutions, said Slaughter. It was served primarily at mid-morning and mid-afternoon breaks.

Milk for the program was purchased locally, explains Slaughter. The USDA furnished a cash reimbursement averaging about three-and-one-half cents per half-pint or approximately $3,835,000 for Texas during the year.

These reimbursements enabled children to purchase milk at reduced prices, Slaughter points out.

Milk is especially important to youngsters as a body-building food and is a source of calcium, protein and riboflavin.

The program is administered by the AMS in cooperation with participating state agencies and institutions to help and encourage children to drink more milk.

Older Citizens Have Special Market Needs

A marketing research organization has explored special market needs for older citizens, and has come up with findings that should be of interest to consumers.

Many leaders in the field of geriatrics have pointed out for some time that there are special market needs for older citizens, says Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension Service consumer marketing specialist. Now, a corporation in New York is going to do something about it.

The decision to license a trade name, "Golden Years," for products approved by a board of professional consultants was reached recently after a study conducted by a marketing research agency. The study went directly to people in the over 55-age group, and found:

Hale Food Contract Is Approved

The Hale County Commission's Court approved a contract providing food for 1,500 persons in need of relief in a meeting last week at Plainview.

This contract with the State Department of Public Welfare is presented annually by Clifton Martin, head of Hale County's General Welfare Department, as an investment against deplorable economic conditions in the county.

"That we have certified food for 1,500 persons in no way means we feed that many," Martin said. "But in case the need arises, we have the capability providing that much food."

"Our economic situation in the county has improved until we are now able to cut our request from 2,000 to the 1,500 level."

Set up under the provisions of the surplus commodity program, food is acquired from the state at a cost of 36 cents a person per year.

"We average feeding 500 families a month," Martin continued. "This only costs us $540 annually. Most families spend more than that a year on food. This is a most economical way to feed needy people, and it also uses up government surplus which aids farming output."

In other action, the commissioners accepted $52,927.11 from the State Board of County and District Judges for the purpose of maintaining roads in Hale County.

"Some years ago, the state assumed bonded indebtedness of all county road construction in Texas," County Judge C. L. Abernathy said.

"The board takes a percentage of the gasoline tax and reapportions it to the counties. Since Hale County has no outstanding bonds, this money must strictly be applied to the improvement of county lateral roads and bridge maintenance."

The allotment gave $13,231.77 to each of the four county commissioners.

A quotation was received from Southern Steel Co. of San Antonio on replacing nine locks and one observation window in the felony tank of the county jail.

Sheriff Walter Sanders reported that the locks were badly worn and expressed fear that some prisoners might have to be cut out someday if new locks were not obtained.

The matter was referred to further study before final action could be passed.

The court also approved calling for bids on two new automobiles for the Sheriff's department.

Lubbock county clerk issued a marriage license to Edward Neira Alvarado, Jr., Lubbock, and Miss Mary Ann Duran of Abernathy.

Garry and Danny Slough of Houston visited here in the home of their aunt, Mrs. Jim Ned Gragg.

Gunter Follows Jones As Agent

Billy C. Gunter is to succeed W. H. Jones as district Agricultural Extension Agent at Lubbock on Sept. 1.

Gunter, former Hale County associate farm agent, a member of the district Extension Service staff since 1959, has for a number of years been closely associated with the Plainview Fat Stock Show, having served three terms on the board of directors and worked as an official in the swine exhibit department.

Jones is retiring after thirty years with the Extension Service. John E. Hutchinson, state Extension Service director, in making the announcement of Jones' retirement and Gunter's succession, expressed appreciation for Jones' contribution to the service and spoke highly of Gunter's ability.

Hale County agent Ollie Limer, long associated with both Jones and Gunter, expressed regret that Jones was leaving the service, but said he was pleased that a man of Gunter's ability would take over the post.

Jones and his wife, Sarah, will move in the near future to Fort Worth where he will join the right-of-way acquisition division of the Texas Highway Department.

They have two sons, Welton H. Jr., who is entertainment editor and critic of The Shreveport Times, and Davis, now an ensign in the Coast Guard serving aboard the icebreaker Westwind at Thule, Greenland. Both are A&M graduates.

The new district agent was born in Crosby County and was reared in Lynn County where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Gunter, farm in the O'Donnell area.

Gunter was employed by the Soil Conservation Service as a soil scientist in Lamb County before joining the Extension Service as associate Hale County agent in 1954.

He resigned his Hale County post in 1956 to become area superintendent for the Baker-Castor Oil Co. with headquarters in Plainview. In September, 1959 he rejoined the Extension Service as area agronomist with headquarters in Lubbock.

Prescott-Vacation Headquarters

Situated in Southwest Arkansas, the bustling city of Prescott is the center of many scenic attractions. Eight miles away is ARKLA VILLAGE, an authentic re-creation of a typical frontier town of the mid-1880's, where there's fun for all the family. In another direction you take a ride on the Possum Trot Line of the READER RAILROAD driven by an old-fashioned steam engine. Go another way to a real DIAMOND MINE where, for a small fee, you can dig for your own diamonds (one woman found a $15,000 stone). Then there's OLD WASHINGTON, a famous roadside inn, which around 1830 was the last outpost before reaching the wilderness of the West. To these attractions add NARROWS and WHITE OAK lakes, and you have a wonderful vacation spot — another of the many places to go and things to see in General Telephone Country.

Hale Food Contract Is Approved

The Hale County Commissioner's Court approved a contract providing food for 1,500 persons in need of relief in a meeting last week at Plainview.

This contract with the State Department of Public Welfare is presented annually by Clifton Martin, head of Hale County's General Welfare Department, as an investment against deplorable economic conditions in the county.

"That we have certified food for 1,500 persons in no way means we feed that many," Martin said. "But in case the need arises, we have the capability providing that much food."

"Our economic situation in the county has improved until we are now able to cut our request from 2,000 to the 1,500 level."

Set up under the provisions of the surplus commodity program, food is acquired from the state at a cost of 36 cents a person per year.

"We average feeding 500 families a month," Martin continued. "This only costs us $540 annually. Most families spend more than that a year on food. This is a most economical way to feed needy people, and it also uses up government surplus which aids farming output."

In other action, the commissioners accepted $52,927.11 from the State Board of County and District Judges for the purpose of maintaining roads in Hale County.

"Some years ago, the state assumed bonded indebtedness of all county road construction in Texas," County Judge C. L. Abernathy said.

"The board takes a percentage of the gasoline tax and reapportions it to the counties. Since Hale County has no outstanding bonds, this money must strictly be applied to the improvement of county lateral roads and bridge maintenance."

The allotment gave $13,231.77 to each of the four county commissioners.

A quotation was received from Southern Steel Co. of San Antonio on replacing nine locks and one observation window in the felony tank of the county jail.

Sheriff Walter Sanders reported that the locks were badly worn and expressed fear that some prisoners might have to be cut out someday if new locks were not obtained.

The matter was referred to further study before final action could be passed.

The court also approved calling for bids on two new automobiles for the Sheriff's department.

Lubbock county clerk issued a marriage license to Edward Neira Alvaro, Jr., Lubbock, and Miss Mary Ann Duran of Abernathy.

Gary and Danny Slough of Houston visited here in the home of their aunt, Mrs. Jim Ned Gregg.

Gunter Follows Jones As Agent

Billy C. Gunter is to succeed W. H. Jones as district Agricultural Extension Agent at Lubbock on Sept. 1.

Gunter, former Hale County associate farm agent, a member of the district Extension Service staff since 1959, has for a number of years been closely associated with the Plainview Fat Stock Show, having served three terms on the board of directors and worked as an official in the swine exhibit department.

Jones is retiring after thirty years with the Extension Service. John E. Hutcherson, state Extension Service director, in making the announcement of Jones' retirement and Gunter's succession, expressed appreciation for Jones' contribution to the service and spoke highly of Gunter's ability.

Hale County agent Ollie Liner, long associated with both Jones and Gunter, expressed regret that Jones was leaving the service, but said he was pleased that a man of Gunter's ability would take over the post.

Jones and his wife, Sarah, will move in the near future to Fort Worth where he will join the right-of-way acquisition division of the Texas Highway Department.

They have two sons, Welton H. Jr., who is entertainment editor and critic of The Shreveport Times, and Davis, now an ensign in the Coast Guard serving aboard the icebreaker Westwind at Thule, Greenland. Both are A&M graduates.

The new district agent was born in Crosby County and was reared in Lynn County where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Gunter, farm in the O'Donnell area.

Gunter was employed by the Soil Conservation Service as a soil scientist in Lamb County before joining the Extension Service as associate Hale County agent in 1954.

He resigned his Hale County post in 1956 to become area superintendent for the Baker Casper Oil Co. with headquarters in Plainview. In September, 1959 he rejoined the Extension Service as area agronomist with headquarters in Lubbock.
