AREA RESIDENT 38 YEARS

Everett Masters Is Candidate For Commissioner Precinct 3

Everett E. Masters, a long-time resident of this area who farms four miles north of Cotton Center, became the first candidate to formally enter the 1968 Democratic primary.

Everett, 54 years of age, is a candidate for County Commissioner, precinct three. He filed as a candidate for the post Tuesday, Dec. 19.

Precinct three includes Cotton Center, Hale Center and Abernathy. Currently serving as commissioner of the precinct is Ernest Rice of Hale Center who was appointed to the position following the death of the elected commissioner, Herschel Williams, earlier this year.

Everett has engaged in farming in the Cotton Center area for 28 years. He is an active member of the Methodist Church at Cotton Center and the Masonic Lodge and the Woodmen of the World at Hale Center.

DURING HIS ADULT life Everett has been a tireless worker for better hospitals, churches, schools, REA, RTA natural gas for farmers and other worthwhile projects. A past president of the Hale County Farm Bureau, he has toiled for agriculture several times on a high level that required personal visits to Washington, D. C. on such issues as the bracero program, cotton marketing and sugar beet development for the High Plains area.

He also has been a strong supporter of the extension service in its work for farmers and youth in Hale County, and the FFA program.

Everett is the father of two sons, Wesley of Amarillo and Jesse of Mayfield, both graduates of Cotton Center high school. His wife Florence, also has four children, Jean of Houston; Mary Ethel, a junior at West Texas State University in Canyon; James, a Marine posted in Florida; and Marvin, a senior at Hale Center high school.

EVERETT IS one of the founders of the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation which now serves the entire state of Texas and part of Oklahoma and Louisiana. The chapter was the first one of its kind organized west of the Mississippi River.

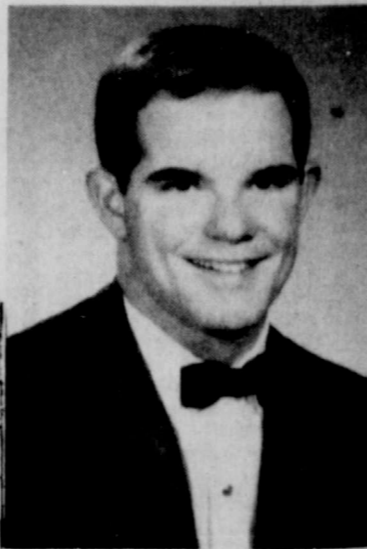

In his announcement, Everett said, "I believe in the future of Hale County. It is not only one of the top agricultural counties in the state, but it is also gaining in industry."

"I believe we need strong leadership in the commissioners Court to handle the county government for such a progressive area and to keep the wheels of progress rolling." He said that if he is elected he will devote full time to serving the best interest of the precinct and the county, and will strive to give this precinct the strong representation it deserves. "If elected, I will represent every part of our precinct fairly and impartially," he said.

Presently he is a member of the County School Board, but he said he would resign from that position if elected to the commissioner's post.

BRISCOE COUNTY FARMER HAS NEAR RECORD MICRONAIRE

It is a quite interesting story to hear the experience of Mr. Joe B. Mercer, a member in the Briscoe County Co-Op Gin, who lives in Silverton and farms on the High Plains near that city, as he relates his experience with a new cotton that was first released in 1966. Mr. Mercer has a verticillium wilt problem on his farm and he planted the new Gregg 25V that has the glandless seed, both years of 1966 and 1967, and no wilt showed up in the cotton. In 1966 he watered in July and then again just before the rain started around the 20th of August, which lasted for 4 or 5 weeks, and he says the cotton didn't make at all of this year he planted the same cotton again, but he managed it differently and he has a quite different story to tell.

Out of 97 wrap-ups from approximately 48 acres he had 80 bales ranging in micronaire from 3.7 to 4.3 with only 11 bales falling below the 3.5. The lint yield per acre averaged 1054 pounds compress weights; there were 61% of the staples ranging from 1 inch to 1-1/16; with 30% being 1/32, and the remainder

$3.2 MILLION

New Physical Activities Plant At WTS

West Texas State University expects to submit a contract in March to its board of regents for construction of a $3.25 million physical activities building, and hopes to have the building completed by September, 1969.

Final plans for the building have been approved by the board of regents, Texas State Senior Colleges, and university financial vice president Virgil Henson said financing will come from a federal grant and revenue bonds.

The physical activities building will be constructed on the northeast portion of the campus near the proposed location of new men's and women's dormitories. The building will house a 50-meter Olympic-sized swimming pool and a 38,000 square-foot area for basketball, volleyball, and tennis.
