Company vice president and Ford Division general manager, calls Maverick "the greatest automotive value ever offered in terms of price, upkeep and features included at no extra cost."
Planned to be economical in purchase price, operating cost and maintenance, Maverick offers a longer, lower, wider body than the principal import, yet turns in a tighter radius for easy handling and parking.
Transmission choice includes the fully synchronized three-speed manual, the three-speed automatic with an optional shift-for-yourself feature, and, for the first time, a new semi-automatic transmission. Cheaper than the automatic and clutchless, it permits a change of gears with a single movement of the hand lever.
"Maverick will live up to its name in being a unique, independent kind of car," said Lloyd Givens, manager of Abernathy Motor Co.

DONNA HUFFAKER Receives Award From Lubbock Area Muscular Dystrophy President

On October 7, 1966 David enlisted in the Navy for a 4-year tour of duty. His initial training was at San Antonio, followed by San Diego, Hawaii and then back to San Diego. He attained the rank of Seaman 3rd Class, and was being trained as a Corpsman (equivalent to a nurse, caring for the wounded, etc.)
About two months ago David was assigned to a 12 month tour in Vietnam, serving with the Marines. His tragic death occurred two months later while on a patrol. The meager report given his parents stated only that he had been shot in the head from small arms fire and apparently death was instantaneous.
Besides his parents, David is survived by two brothers and a sister; also three step-sisters and two step-brothers.

Her fan-shaped detachable train unfolded from a cluster of tiny pleats under pearl-encrusted lace across the back bodice. A bouffant veil of imported pure silk English illusion, extended in tiers from a satin Dior bow. She carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds centered with a white orchid.

Miss Margaret Henson was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Beverly Calhoun of Highlands, Miss Linda Heald of Dallas, Miss Peggy Prince and Miss Janis Caldwell.

The Guide summarizes important Federal estate and gift tax laws. It also explains both types of tax and the requirements for filing returns and paying these taxes.

(Editor's Note: One of S. H. Lebow's daughters sent the following to The Review.)

"My Papa-S. H. Lebow"

I know a man that works in town, Stopping cars and slowing them down. So, the kids crossing the street, will not this day, their Maker meet. He's there thru' sand, wind, snow, rain and sleet. Helping everyone safely cross the street. So, if he stops you--this crossing-guard, don't give him hard. For, without him, your kids could be hit, by a truck or a car going tickety-split! Few people appreciate him, the way I do--Well--if he was your Papa--you'd be proud of him too!!!

This is for you Papa-and; in my books--The best one!!! I decided to scratch you a poem instead of sending an Easter card--Hope you like it.

Miss Luhn, J.T. Turner Exchange Nuptial Vows

Large ivy covered screens, flanked by four tall candelabras holding votives candles set the scene for the wedding Friday evening Miss Lisa Luhn and John Terry Turner.

Dr. Harrison Baker read the formal double ring vows in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony at the First Baptist Church. Mrs. Carl Nixon presented the wedding music. Mr. and Mrs. Martin R. Luhn, 4017 Spencer St., and Mrs. Ellis Turner and the late Mr. Turner of Celeste are parents of the newlywed couple.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal, candlelight pure silk satin and facepéau de sole gown, enhanced with imported French re-embroidered lace.

The gown, fashioned by the bride's mother, was styled with a high neckline and fitted empire bodice. Lace, with seed pearls, defined the waist, neckline and encircled the long fitted sleeves. A lace band accented the princess style of the A-line skirt.

Her fan-shaped detachable train unfolded from a cluster of tiny pleats under pearl-encrusted lace across the back bodice. A bouffant veil of imported pure silk English illusion extended in tiers from a satin Dior bow. She carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds centered with a white orchid.

Miss Margaret Henson was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Beverly Calhoun of Highlands, Miss Linda Heald of Dallas, Miss Peggy Prince and Miss Janis Caldwell.

The attendants were attired in formal gowns of citrus yellow corded tulle designed similar to the bridal gown. Wide moss green sashes at the waistlines

According To IRS

Payment of Federal taxes on gifts is due April 15, the same day income taxes must be paid. Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for Northern Texas, said, "Taxpayers who made gifts during calendar year 1968, or are planning to make gifts in the future, will find answers to many of their gift tax questions in IRS Publication 448, 'A Guide to Federal Estate and Gift Taxation.'"

The Guide summarizes important Federal estate and gift tax laws. It also explains both types of tax and the requirements for filing returns and paying these taxes.

Campbell said that the part on estate taxation will be very helpful to taxpayers whose estates may be subject to Federal estate tax and want to make the most beneficial provisions for their heirs.

The booklet may be purchased for 25 cents a copy from the District Director of Internal Revenue or from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402.
