Abernathy Pair Killed In Wreck

An Abernathy woman and her grandson were killed in Lubbock about 9:40 a. m. Saturday when the car in which they were riding was struck by a Santa Fe freight train at a crossing in the 1600-block of Erskine Road.

Justice of the Peace F. H. Bolen pronounced Mrs. Louisa Olguin, 50, of Abernathy, and her 2-year-old grandson Al-samo Olivas, of Rt. 1, Abernathy, dead at the scene.

Driver of the car, Mrs. Margarita Olivas, 30, of Rt. 1, Abernathy, and her other son, David, age not listed, were uninjured, police said.

Victims Thrown Out

Police said the Olivas vehicle was headed west on Erskine Rd. and the train was going south when the collision occurred. The left front of the locomotive struck the right front of the auto, spinning it to the left, according to police reports.

The right front door of the auto flew open and the victims were thrown out of the car, police said, with young Olivas striking the side of the train and Mrs. Olguin landing beneath the still-moving train.

The child was carried 99 feet south from the point of impact and parts of Mrs. Olguin's body were found 154 feet south of the crossing, police said.

One witness to the mishap, W. R. Butcher of Rt. 2, Lubbock, said Mrs. Olivas had pulled to a stop at the track but the front of the car apparently was sticking out over the track and the train hit it.

J. H. Martin, conductor on the train, said the train was going about 20 miles per hour when the collision occurred.

Warning lights at the crossing began flashing when the train still was 1,800 feet from the intersection, according to police reports.

The double fatality raises the death toll to 69 on the South Plains, 14 in the city, and 20 in the county this year. At this time last year, 41 persons had died in traffic mishaps in the area.

Double rites were at 10:00 a. m. Monday in the St. Isidore Catholic Church in Abernathy with the Rev. Richard Casey, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Abernathy Cemetery under the direction of Chambers Funeral Home.

Mrs. Olguin was born in Abilene and had resided in Abernathy 20 years. Survivors include her husband, four sons and 10 daughters.

Survivors of the child include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Olivas of Abernathy; a brother, David, of the home, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Olivas.

Hostesses to register those coming in, and to serve refreshments, should be provided. The city hall clubroom would be a good place for this. Good idea.

Tues., June 24

Dear Lions,

First of all I would like to thank you again for giving me this wonderful opportunity of travel.

We arrived in Hilo, Hawaii on Wednesday afternoon about 1:00 their time. I lost around 5 hours that day.

The next morning we visited the Orchid Garden, Rainbow Falls, the largest volcano (active), Black Sands Beach, and a great deal of greenery. We have ridden the glass bottom boats, swam in the Coral Reefs, and have seen about 6 hula dances, and even danced ourselves. The last two nights we saw a Polynesian Cultural show, and a Hawaiian feast.

I have really loved Hawaii very much and wish we could stay longer, but we will see much more in Japan. I hope to come back sometime soon.

We leave Honolulu tomorrow for Japan. We will be on the plane for 9 hours. I will try to write more in Japan.

Mahalo again (thank you).
Aloha
Anita Ryan
