WESLEY and MARGARET BOYD

METHODISTS SET SPECIAL SERVICES STARTING SUNDAY

Beginning Sunday morning September 14th Mr. Wesley Boyd will conduct Services. He is a great singer and a fine lay-preacher. He is also a student of the Bible.

Services will be conducted on Sunday at the regular hours 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Weekday evening services will be at 8 o'clock. Wesley will direct a Bible study on the Book of John at 10 a. m. These services will continue through Thursday evening, September 18th.

WESLEY BOYD is an Irish Baritone, born and brought up near Belfast in Ireland. In 1955 he had the distinction of winning the outstanding awards at both Belfast and Dublin Musical Festivals, including the Rose Bowl at Belfast and the John McCormack Cup at Dublin.

In 1956, through the influence of Rev. Joe Blinco, and English Methodist minister and member of the Billy Graham Team, Mr. Boyd entered full-time Christian service in the field of evangelistic music. He has accompanied Mr. Blinco on many cruises in various parts of the world including the West Indies, Australia, Canada, Great Britain and the United States.

MARGARET BOYD is an outstanding pianist, having been the official accompanist for most of the Music Festivals in Northern Ireland. She has accompanied, from time to time, most of the leading concert artists who have visited Belfast. Margaret is a graduate of the Royal Academy of Music in London, England. She has toured extensively as an accompanist for the Belfast Girl Singers in Europe and the United States. Margaret has also played the violin in the Studio Symphony Orchestra and was pianist for the Belfast Philharmonic Society. In May of 1961, Wesley and Margaret were united in marriage.

Hundreds of High Plains and Plainview area farmers will converge on Halfway Thursday for the 13th annual High Plains Research Foundation Field Day.

Activities begin at 1:30 p.m. with tours to be conducted through Foundation research plots with scientists at four spots along the tour to explain phases of research. Tours will be made on flat-bed semi-trailers with a tour guide aboard each trailer.

The evening program will begin at 5 p.m. with U.S. Representative Bob Price as guest speaker.

New Exhibits The addition of an agricultural chemical and crop seeds exhibit area under a tent on the south lawn of the Moody Building is expected to become as popular as the farm machinery exhibit which grows each year.

Field Day activities are scheduled to provide area farmers and members of the Foundation a review of some research work undertaken by Foundation scientists. Also on display are the offices and shop facilities of the Foundation.

Of special interest on the field tours will be studies undertaken this year in minimum tillage in sorghum and cotton in which seedbed preparations were eliminated and the Foundation's swine feeding economics study in portable slatted floor pens which began in May.

Other research points of interest will be corn variety tests, sorghum variety tests, fertilizer-herbicide tests and the continuing study on cultural practices to eliminate volunteer castors. During the evening program, door prizes through drawings will be awarded.

The regular semi-annual trustees meeting will be conducted Thursday morning beginning at 10.

Commenting on Petersburg, Coach Steve Hill, who helped scout the Buff in a scrimmage with Hale Center, says they are quick and tough. "The linemen are as quick as any we'll see this year, and the back hit with quickness and power," he said.

Coach L. A. Noles' Buffs build their attack around 2 starters from last year-- fullback Joe Robertson and halfback Wendell Solis. Altogether, the Buffs have seven offensive starters and six defensive regulars off of last years 7-3 ball club. They have been picked as the team to beat in district 4-A. After seeing them in their scrimmage with Hale Center, the local coaches came home impressed with the spirit and enthusiasm of not only the Petersburg football team, but of the whole town.

"They feel this is their year to possibly have as good a team as they've had since winning state in 1963," Coach Nickerson said. "We have our work cut out for us, but we know the Lopes will be ready," he added.

The team elected captains Monday afternoon. Five seniors were chosen to lead the Antelopes during the 1969 season. They were Bobby Klatt, Larry Turner, Larry Pittman, Ronald Harkey, and Don Snodgrass. Coach Nickerson said of these boys, "They are all dedicated football players who have gained the confidence of the coaches and the team. I think the boys have made a wise selection of captains. There are others who qualified and received a number of votes, but these five received a majority."

COUNTY LINE CHIT-CHATS

By Mrs. G. W. Nelson
Mr. Manley of Anton, father of G. W. Manley is in the Littlefield Hospital suffering from burns he received when he tried to put a roof on his house after the hail. He will be dismissed this week and stay with his son Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Manley. He had to have skin grafts and he has diabetes.
G. W. Manley and Fred Exum returned Monday night from a fishing trip to Falcon Dam. Edd Nelson is at home after spending three months in West Texas Hospital and Ray's Hospitality Home in Lubbock. He suffered a heart attack June 9.
Mr. and Mrs. Leo White of Plains are visiting Edd Nelson this week.
Mrs. Sue Terrell of County Line has decided to sell her grocery store and home in County Line and trade for a home in Lubbock around January, we sure hate to see her leave County Line. She will be missed by all.
Mr. and Mrs. Doyce Woods and son have moved back to the community. They are living in the McGuire home south of County Line. Welcome home.
Mrs. Hugh Porter has returned to her home in Quanah after visiting her daughter Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nelson. She reported Quanah had nine inches of rain Tuesday night after she returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCurdy visited Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Nelson at Causey, N. M. last week on their way to Ruidoso for Labor Day holidays.
Mrs. Check Hudson was given a surprise housewarming by County Line friends Thursday afternoon. Attending the party were: Mesdames: Noble Rice, G. W. Nelson, Olen Horne, G. W. Manley, Sam Terrell, Buddy Rice, R. D. Presley, Emmett Crow, and Mrs. J. C. Roberts of Lubbock and Mrs. Joel Thomson of Sudan. The group presented her with a brown and gold canister set.
A surprise birthday party was held for Mrs. Sue Terrell, Mrs. Olen Horne, Mrs. Emmett Crow, and Mrs. Wayland Nelson, Thursday afternoon in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Check Hudson on Highway 54. Cake and coffee were served to the following guests, Faye Nelson, Sue Terrell, Mary Lynn Rice, Dovie Roberts, Mary Thomson, Helen Crow, Fauncine Horne, Minnie V. Presley and Mary Ruth Manley.
Everyone was given a tour of the new three bedroom home and enjoyed a friendly chat and visit with each other. Everyone has been so busy since the hail that the birthday club has not met all summer.
Buddy Rice, Delton Stone, Linda! Myatt and several others are fishing at Falcon Lake this week.

JOY BOONE AND MR. ELLIS ARE MARRIED IN RITES AT TULIA

Miss Joy Elizabeth Boone and Horace Leonard Ellis Jr. exchanged wedding vows at eight p.m. Friday, in the Chapel at First Baptist Church, Tulia, with the Rev. Frank Pollard, pastor, officiating the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boone, Abernathy and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Leonard Ellis Sr., Tulia.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore an Edwardian ensemble of ivory silk and wool tush. A sleeveless Princess style dress featured a matching double breasted coat. A butterfly veil was caught to a bowed bandeau of ivory silk.

The bridal bouquet was designed in a cascade arrangement of miniature white chrysanthemums topped with a white cattleya orchid.

The setting for the ceremony was an arch of votive candles entwined with smilax votive candles and smilax outlined the altar rails, also.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Ronald Clark Lowe, Borger. She was attired in a princess dress of ivory silk and wool designed with a victorian neck and long sleeves. Her bouquet was of gold and bronze pom poms.

Best man was Jack Meacham, Tulia ushers were Weldon Mote, Tulia, and Tommy Boone, Lubbock, brother of the bride.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. L. J. Hager, Abernathy. Soloist, Ron Lowe, Borger sang "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Mrs. Charles Thomas Boone, Lubbock, sister-in-law of the bride, registered the guests, at the Chapel entry.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis were honored with a reception in Fellowship Hall following the ceremony.

The brides table was centered with an arrangement of gold and bronze mums. A three tiered wedding cake supported by Grecian columns was served by Mrs. Rex King, Tulia. Mrs. Carolyn Fredenburg, Tulia was seated at the punch bowl.

Other members of the house party were Kathy and Carla Pinson, Abernathy.

Mrs. Ellis is a graduate of Abernathy High School and Texas and is presently teaching in the Tulia Schools.

Ellis is a graduate of Tulia High School and South Plains College. He is co-owner of Swisher Tire Co., Tulia.

After a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., the couple will be at home at 604 North Bowie. Tulia.
