The Abernathy Band played the "Triumphal March" as an opening Fanfare and steppedoff for the remainder of the number. As the band reached the judges platform (balcony of the Pioneer Hotel), the "YO-UNG LIONS" was heard. At this point, the fans (as well as the Antelope Football Team) almost drowned the musical strains of the numbers.

Jerry Bartley, band director, states, "never have I been so proud of an organization for accepting the new ways of a new band director. Also, the supporters of the band across from the judges stand gave the band members the extra bit of confidence needed to win the Parade. '
