Winners Named In Christmas Lighting

FIRST PLACE WINNER in the Abernathy C. of C. Christmas Lighting and Decorating Contest is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartlett and family at 1010 2nd St. The Bartletts received $25 cash for first place. Focal point of their decorations shows Santa Claus climbing to the roof, his bag of toys and a large wreath. Supporting decorations and lighting on the west and east ends of the front yard.

WINNING SECOND place and $15 cash prize was the Herbert Rapstine family at 1615 Ave. G in the Virgil Phillips Addition. Focal point is a huge holiday wreath made of pine cones. It is mounted at a front window and the family's lighted Christmas tree is framed by the wreath to the viewer outside the house.

PLACING THIRD, and earning the $10 cash prize was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Graham at 1604 Ave. G. This entry not pictured because a daytime photo would not do it justice.

Chamber of Commerce President Ralph Wolf said judges were hard pressed to choose winners because of the unusually beautiful and the large number of entries. Judges are not members of the chamber of commerce.

Judges selected the following homes for honorable mention in the lighting and decoration contest: Harvey Lutrick, 1602 Ave. G; Marvin Stephens, 1608 Ave. G; Jerry Nix, 1612 Ave. G.; R.L. Shires, 1215 15th St. and Pete Thompson, 202 Ave. N.

Take time and drive all over town and see the beautiful Christmas lights and decorations.

Local relatives of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. (Si) Peters said they are residing in Girdwood, Alaska, near Anchorage. He is operating a service station. He formerly operated stations in Abernathy. They plan to come to Abernathy on their vacation next July.

RITEs MONDAY FOR URCEL MORELAND

Funeral rites for Urcel L. Moreland, 74, who died Saturday in West Texas Hospital, Lubbock, following a brief illness, were held at 2:30 p.m. Monday in Abernathy First United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Conrad M. Ryan, pastor, officiated. Masonic graveside rites were conducted in Resthaven Memorial Park in Lubbock. Arrangements were under direction of Chamber Funeral Home of Abernathy.

Pallbearers were Billy Houston, Thomas Johnston, Thomas Hernandez, J. D. Webb, Edwin Crow and Buck Cecil.

Moreland settled in the Lakeview community in 1892 where he farmed until 1923. He then moved to Abernathy and established a dry cleaning firm. He was a member of the Masonic lodge, and served on the city council. He also was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include the wife, Susie; two brothers, James of Lubbock, and W. K. of Tustin, Calif.; and three sisters, Mrs. R. M. Jarrott of Sante Fe, N.M., Mrs. Glen Hughes of Albuquerque, N.M., and Mrs. Raymond Blue of Abernathy.

PATTERSON IN CHARGE OF SERVICE

The Rev. Louis Schaap, pastor of the Abernathy Church of the Nazarene, announced today that Mr. Lewis Patterson, of Abernathy and a member of the local church, will be in charge of the Sunday morning and Evening church services at the Abernathy church Sunday, Dec. 28th.

The church is happy to have Mr. Patterson, who has been active in doing supply pastoral work for the Church of the Nazarene in West Texas for the past several years, and who formerly pastored several churches as a speaker for these services in his home church. Mr. Patterson is the son of R. C. (Pat) Patterson, Sr. of Abernathy.

Mr. L. B. Flud, of the local congregation, will be the speaker at the mid-week service of the church on Dec. 31st. Mr. Flud has had considerable experience in preaching also having served as a pastor of another denomination for some years. It is a privilege for the church to have him speak for them.

CROWDER ON STAFF OF TCU NEWSPAPER

(FORT WORTH, Dec.) Four key staff members for the Skiff, Texas Christian University's student newspaper, have been named for the spring, 1970 semester.

Frank K. Lewis of Dallas, a senior journalism-government major, will assume the editorship. President of TCU chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, he has served as news director of the University's radio station, KTCU-FM. Last spring Lewis was managing editor for the campus publication and during the current fall term he has been contributing editor.

Two Fort Worth residents will hold editor roles. Nancy O'Neill will be managing editor. Recently elected vice president of the Student House of Representatives, she is a junior majoring in journalism and English.

Beginning his fourth semester, as sports editor will be Paul Ridings, senior student assistant for TCU's sports information department.

Larry Crowder of Abernathy has been named news editor by the University's publications committee. The senior journalism major serves as vice president of the TCU Band as well as district vice-president of Kappa Kappa Psi, national organization for bandsmen, and is company commander of the Army ROTC cadet battalion. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H.O. Crowder of Route 2, Abernathy.
