County Will Use Jury Wheel

District Judge Ben Charlie Chapman said that Haskell County is making plans to put into operation a jury wheel to select venirees for both district and county court juries.

A law adopted by the Texas Legislature this year repeals all laws regulating the formulation of jury commissions. Haskell county has picked venirees from a list of prospects selected by a jury commission.

Although the bill did not set out to eliminate jury commissions anywhere except in counties having population of 10,000 or more, Attorney General Crawford Martin issued a legal opinion July 14 in which he held that all counties must comply with the law because all laws pertaining to jury commissions had been wiped off the books.

The law sets out that the sheriff, district clerk, county clerk and tax collector shall get together sometime each year between August 1 and 15 and prepare the wheel.

In this wheel, which will be somewhat like those in use for community drawings, will be placed the names of all qualified voters in the county.

Unlike the usual container for drawings, the jury wheel must be of solid exterior and must have two locks, with the sheriff having one key, and the district clerk the other.

Cards placed in the wheel are to be of uniform size and color. The wheel is to be turned so that the cards are thoroughly mixed before the venire is selected.

After the cards are selected, the jury list is prepared and the prospective jurors are notified as in the past.

Those who are exempt from servicing on juries have been greatly reduced by the law. Only those persons over 65 years of age and women who have legal custody of a child or children under the age of 10 are now exempt. The law specifically eliminates any consideration of economic factors.

Judges in the past have been known to excuse a juror if he is busy putting in, or gathering his crop. Presumably this will no longer be permitted.

An opinion dated July 20th, 1971, by Attorney General Crawford Martin held that persons under 21 years of age may not serve on juries, and their names need not be placed in the jury wheel. All other names on the current voter registration list as of August 1, each year MUST be placed in the jury wheel and no others.

Neither the District or County Judge can excuse a juror before trial unless the juror requests same in writing, giving the reason and making an affidavit and then neither judge can excuse for economic reasons until the day of trial and all attorneys must agree at that time on excuse for economic reasons, before either judge can excuse a juror.

Judge Chapman commended the Commissioners Court for their cooperation in planning and assisting with setting-up this new system.

Haskell's Reputation Is Growing

Steps to Encourage Pride

by CLYDENE COMEDY

At one of their last meetings of their club year, a group of women dedicated to the success—and the beauty and progress—of Haskell, called a town meeting, open to representatives of every club, association, county and city board or organization. The Progressive Study Club of Haskell is just that—progressive. It was their desire to form the core of an organization to build a Memorial Civic Center here, and to clean and beautify the city.

Their progress in developing the nucleus of both was astounding. A board is now very actively making plans and investigating the possibilities and the groundwork for the Memorial Civic Center.

Their plans for beautifying our town are progressing somewhat slower, but nonetheless, are progressing. A group of the clubwomen met recently to compile committees to continue this work, from a list of volunteers turned in at the Town Hall meeting. A big representative group of the leading citizens of Haskell was at that meeting, and almost everyone there had suggestions for cleaning up the city. All present offered to help in any way to see that this got done.

Your help is now being requested. Not only from the ones who were present for the planning meeting, but help from every resident of Haskell and from anyone living anywhere who owns property within the city limits.

No matter how much everyone wants to see their city clean and beautiful, it CAN NOT BE ACCOMPLISHED unless everyone helps. There's only so much that volunteer workers can do, and so much area they can legally clear and work on. The rest is up to the homeowner; the renter or leasor; and the property owner.

Pride — and progress — are two of Haskell's strong points. No matter where we have gone over Texas in the year that we have owned The Free Press — and our trips have carried us over many points of the state, both small towns and large cities — we have come home with a pride that grows every day. A pride in the fact that Haskell is well-known over Texas as being successful and progressive. In an era when small towns are crying that they are dying; that their young people are moving away; that their business communities are in trouble; Haskell's reputation as a success grows. Newspaper people; Chamber of Commerce people; political leaders; all have expressed this idea: "What makes Haskell so successful, when other towns its size are in such trouble?"

We are proud to tell them — and tell them in all sincerity — that Haskell is the home of a unique group of people. They dedicate themselves solely to Haskell's growth and progress.

I know it's hard for some here to believe — farmers and stockmen; merchants who have lived here all their lives; residents who do not come in contact so much with Texans whose careers are tuned to the pulse of our State. But Haskell's reputation is growing. We are being watched by large cities, and by cities not so large. We are being imitated, and that in itself is one of the finest compliments a city can have.

And, it's truly up to us to make our town look like the progressive town it is. We must clear old lots; clean up business and residence sites;

VEE Horse Vaccine Given Again Friday

Innoculations against the VEE disease in horses went at a fast pace last Thursday reported County Agent Max Stapleton, as around one hundred horses were processed by Dr. Ballard, Veterinary from Stamford.

Haskell County horses so far are healthy and have shown no signs of the disease, but a constant check is kept on them by Stapleton. It will take some days for the inoculations to take effect on horses, to immunize them, and until they have been released they still are not allowed to be moved from their owners property.

The inoculation clinic set up for county horses was reported a success by all involved, but in case some horses were not brought in last week, there will be another chance at the Fair Grounds at 1:00 o'clock tomorrow, July 30, and will have serum available. If you own horses that have not been vaccinated, you are required to have them inoculated. The shots are free of charge, so take your horses to the Fair Grounds tomorrow at 1:00 p. m.

To be eligible for either contest the person must be a member of the Farm Bureau.

Outstanding Gardens For The Month Of July Selected by Garden Club

The Haskell Garden Club selected the following gardens for the month of July:

Mr. and Mrs. Drey Lowe, 1004 N. Ave. F, have a lovely enclosed back garden that features antiques displayed on a wall back of the patio. Some of the antiques are scales, lantern, well-pulley, corn grinder, horseshoes, wire cutters, ice tongs, cow bells, and buggy haim. Mrs. Lowe's grandmother's old sewing machine has been made into a table and used as a potted plant stand. Cultivator seats are used on the patio. Two minnow buckets are used as hanging baskets. In the far corner of the garden a bird sanctuary has been set-up, consisting of blue martin house and tree stump, plow disc bird bath. Blue Martins devour thousands of insects and thus helps the ecology.

For color there are clipped evergreens, pink and red geraniums, red crepe myrtles and Jack bean vines on fence. Neat well-kept grass adds coolness.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wheatley, 1010 N. Ave. H, have an outstanding garden. At the front and side there are huge pecan and hackberry trees, deep velvety St. Augustine grass. A bird bath adds a touch of water and coolness for dry summer days and encourages birds.

A fence covered with honeysuckle and climbing roses (that bloom in May) separates the front from the vegetable garden. Blackeyed peas, tomatoes, squash and cantaloupe thrive here.

A low zig-zagged brick fence centered with an automatic light made from a well pump defines the north border.

The patio is highlighted with an old-fashioned well with bucket and rope, but isn't a well at all, but is a barbecue pit. Shaded by a mimosa tree, red and green patio chairs seem to invite and say "welcome." Caladiums, tropicana roses, and a planter box of petunias add color and beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hale, 700 N. 19th, have started a very unique landscape design featuring a huge four thousand pound rock and two ever green ligustrum poodle trees. A clump of red oaks and seasonal flowers for color will be added later.

Mrs. Virginia Abila, 107 N. 14th, has an interesting, well-kept front garden. She has used a flowering althea as an accent plant in a bed of zinnias, cannas, morning glory vine and bordered the bed with double moss.

Three chinaberry trees on the west provide shade from the hot sun and also are a line of demarkation.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harper, 1009 N. Ave. H, have an outstanding, improved ruffled, trumpet vine that is a beauty to behold. Mrs. Mittie Weatherly put the vine out several years ago and it has bloomed profusely with very little care. She placed it beside a blue vitex bush for contrast of color then planted pomegranate bushes to carry that lovely orange color across the front of the lot.

Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Williams have added a Japanese garden to their landscape design, a dry river lighted by Japanese lantern, stepping stones that lead to a stone bench shaded by red-

New Features Announced By RCA Television

"There's something new in the RCA line," announced Mr. and Mrs. Barney Frazier, dealers for RCA TV's in Haskell. "RCA has moved to make the performance and dependability characteristics of solid state color television available to a greater number of consumers by incorporating tubeless chassis designs in 65 per cent of its 1972 models."

In announcing the new RCA feature, E. P. Miles, General Manager of the Dallas wholesale distributor for RCA, said "In this age of consumerism, RCA is stressing user benefits in the design of solid state models, including longer circuit life, easier repairs, an absence of tubes that by their nature wear out and traditionally have been a prime reason for service calls. The new line gives RCA a clear lead in the number of models of color TV sets on the market that contain no tubes other than the picture tube."

Warrantys are also updated to cover greater service of these new RCA models. The new 1972 models are being shipped to dealers now.

soil fertility; economically sound conservation farming. Haskell County farmers and ranchers not only believe in soil conservation practices, but they are practicing "what they preach". This fact may be verified by driving around over the county and viewing the many, many miles of terracing, erosion control dams, range improvement, etc.

THE RESTLESS WIND

Quotes Farm Broadcasters Letter of June 25—"Wind erosion in the Great Plains area reached a 14-year high in the season just ended with 4.7 million acres undergoing extensive damage... the drought-plagued Southwest was the hardest hit, with 2.7 million acres of land damage occurring in West Texas alone. Most of this season's damage was on land not sufficiently protected by the residues of preceding crops."

to do any good? Then hitch-up the old tractor to the grain drill and sow a few oats (not wild ones) in those cotton rows immediately following strip-ping. Don't even bother to shred the cotton stalks. They will help retard wind erosion. Idle gossip? Not on your life. Haskell County farmers managed over 15,000 acres of crop residues the past ten months that we know about, and possibly another 50,000 to 60,000 acres that we didn't get around to finding. And nearly every ton of cotton burs produced last fall found their way back to the land. All for one purpose only—to aid in controlling wind erosion.

Let's not kid ourselves, and spend money this coming blow season on tillage operations to control wind erosion. Let your crop residues do the job for you. If you are in doubt as to the advantages, the hows and whys, discuss the situation with your Soil Conservation Service Technician. He will be more than happy to talk with you about this problem. Let's all work together for better crop residue management for the prevention of wind erosion.

Woodard Farm Sales Offers Ford Tractors

In 1953, H. V. "Woody" Woodard came to Haskell as manager of Turner Tractor Company at 1100 North First Street. Just two years later, in 1955, he bought the business from A. M. Turner Sr. and changed the name to Woodard Farm Sales, the Ford Tractor dealership for this trade area. The business grew and prospered, and in 1964 the modern new building at 1107 N. First Street was built to become its new home.

Woody employs three Haskell residents—Bobby Roberts, Victor Sanchez and Nelda Jetton, to assist him in running the business. They all are proud of the fact that Woodard Farm Sales serves customers over a 30-mile radius of this agricultural area. They handle a full line of Ford tractors and complete farm equipment, and also have complete service and parts for every item they sell. They offer speedy pickup and delivery service on all Ford farm equipment.

In this prosperous agricultural area their fast service is a keynote to the business that is built and maintained solely for the service to farmers, thus it is their constant aim to continue to improve in all areas of that service. Being a vital part of the business community of Haskell is another point of pride of Woodard Farm Sales. It is of serious concern to every progressive Haskell businessman that Haskell be the hub of activity of this trade area. Woodard Farm Sales joins other businesses here to always make this hold true.

H. V. WOODARD, owner and operator of Woodard Farm Sales, stands beside a beautiful new Ford Tractor, only one of many always on the display floor. Their stock of all kinds of farm equipment is always ready for demonstration, and available for easy selection, for the farmers of this area.

A special invitation is voiced to all farmers in this entire trade area to look to the Ford tractor for the workhorse equipment they need to keep pace with today's agriculture. The solid construction and low maintenance required by a Ford tractor is its strongest selling point. The complete line of Ford parts in stock at all times keeps that hard-worked equipment in constant repair. The versatile farm equipment designed by Ford increases the productivity of the farm machinery. So, Mr. Farmer, when you are in need of a new tractor, let the folks at Woodard Farm Sales give you a complete demonstration of the Ford tractor and equipment. Call Woodard Farm Sales anytime you need new equipment, or fast, efficient repair service on your Ford farm equipment. They'll be there—ready to serve you.

Anderson Tire Is A Versatile Haskell Business

"We serve customers from all over the Big Country," said Andy Anderson. That service includes one of the fullest lines of home appliances in the trade area. Nationally advertised brands, famous for their dependability, are on the display floor, always in a big assortment of styles so that customers may choose exactly the one they want.

ANDERSON TIRE COMPANY

The very same fast, efficient service is offered on appliance repair. TV repair is just one of the services available at Andersons, and Boyd Rousseau, the serviceman, is fully qualified in this line.

Anderson Tire Company has been in business since December 15, 1962 and was first located at 300 S. Ave. E. The modern home of the business was built in 1967 at 206 S. Ave. E and houses the growing business today. It was planned for growth, and that's just what's happened to it.

Owned and operated by Andy Anderson, the business employs seven other Haskell citizens—Kenneth Campbell, Earl Proctor, Boyd Rousseau, J. W. Davis, John Davis, and Dean McGee. Mrs. Edna Anderson is office manager. All the people at Anderson Tire Company take special pride in their on-the-farm tire service. In this agricultural area it is of vital importance that the farmer suffers as little breakdown time as possible thru the growing and harvesting seasons. Anderson Tire sees that customers have the very minimum time loss possible. A quick phone call to Anderson's gets the tires where they're needed—fast! And in the shop department, that complete tire and tractor service is just as speedy.

service is always available on those appliances. This is the vital part of any appliance purchase. That is why the service department stocks such a big array of parts.

"We offer our merchandise and our service to everyone in the Big Country," stated Andy, "and invite everyone to come in and check our prices before they buy. We're sure that Anderson Tire Company will be the place you want to do business when you need a new appliance or tire and tractor service on your farm."

OUR POLICY ON USED EQUIPMENT

When we get used equipment, we do one of two things... If it cannot be put in A-1 shape, we wholesale these to a tractor jockey. The others, we completely re-condition... putting into A-1 condition... which carry a full guarantee... It may be a little higher than others, but it is in top working condition. Our warranty is 90 days, $50.00 deductible. If you don't believe our used tractors are good, ask someone who has bought one. This is just one of our policies.

Smitty's Auto Supplies Wide Trade Area

In 1930 Charles Smith opened his business at 204 N. First St. in Haskell. Known as Smitty's Auto Supply, it has grown into one of the biggest supply stores in this area. "Smitty" expects to round out a full fifty years of service in this line.

Despite droughts, storms and floods, the business has continually grown and prospered during the past 41 years. As autos become more complicated in construction and maintenance, Smitty's Auto Supply becomes bigger. The continued increased need for more and different auto parts makes this possible, and the continued growth of the business services over this trade area makes it necessary.

Smitty's ships orders from as far west as Plainview out on the High Plains of Texas, to as far north as Wichita Falls, just on the state line of Oklahoma. This speaks well of the big line of auto parts he stocks. People in this entire area have come to know that they can get the parts they need—fast—at Smitty's.

Five qualified employees help him in the business. They include R. M. Davis, Owen Pelsue, Tommy Patterson, Curtis Darden and his bookkeeper, Mrs. Jack Ray. All are tuned to the needs of the customer, and help get the parts they need in a hurry.

Smitty's is just one of many businesses in Haskell that is a 'specialty' outlet, so to speak. Our town is well-known for its reputation of having a business spread that offers this trade area every line of merchandise needed to keep the town completely self-sufficient, and Smitty's is one of those businesses. There's no need for any resident of this trade area to shop for any item anywhere besides right here in Haskell. Smitty takes pride in this fact, and that's why his stock of auto parts is constantly re-supplied.

When new parts are put on the market for new automobiles, they are stocked at Smitty's as soon as possible.

His prices, too, are more in line with today's budget than those to be found in bigger towns. Because of Haskell's sound founding, he is able to offer low, competitive prices at all times on every item in stock. That's one of the big drawing factors to his wide trade area business, and he intends to keep it that way.

When you need any auto part—no matter how large or how small—and you need it at a price that will fit your budget, Smitty invites you to stop in and let him or any of his employees serve you.

"I expect to enjoy continued service to this trade area for many years, and look forward to serving my many loyal and faithful customers during that time," he stated, "and I invite everyone in this trade area to become a valued customer of Smitty's Auto Supply."

AUTHORIZED DEALERS  CHRYSLER

While some years are good car years, 1971 has been a

VINTAGE YEAR FOR PLYMOUTH DUSTER

ONE OF OUR BEST YEARS.
It takes something special to come up with a Vintage Year. But that's what '71 has been for Chrysler-Plymouth. Everything—from drawing board to final assembly—has come together in great fashion. We like to think our slogan "Coming Through" had a lot to do with it, because it's more than a phrase. It's a pledge, a dedication to one purpose: To come through for you with the kind of automobiles you want—not only in style, size and price—but also in quality you can live with for years to come. A good example is Plymouth Duster.

ECONOMY CAN BE BEAUTIFUL, TOO.
Plymouth Duster is a rare breed of economy car. It comes through small enough for easy handling and good gas mileage, big enough for families with baggage. Now add Duster's high resale value (a leader in its class, along with other Plymouth compacts), and you have a rare breed of economy car indeed.

NOW, A GREAT SELECTION COMING THROUGH FINAL CLEARANCE PRICED.
'71 has been a Vintage Year for Chrysler-Plymouth. Quality shines and shows in every line. Drive a Plymouth or Chrysler. Prove how our '71 models have come through. Check our great selection. We think you'll agree: quality cars at final clearance prices is what "Coming Through" is all about. For us. For you.

1971. It was a very good year.

Coming Through.
