Welcome to the Celebration Here Saturday

HOBBY CLUB DISPLAY FOR JULY FIRST CELEBRATION

The memory of the late Mrs. Gid B. Adkisson, Sr., will be honored by the Abernathy Hobby Club in the display for the July 1st Celebration here. She was a charter member of the club. The attractive display of crafts is in the show windows of the former recreation hall, now the Girl Scout meeting place. It is the last brick building at the east end on the north side of Main Street.

"Operation Motorcide" Starts June 30

"Independence Day1" What does this mean to you? One hundred and ninety six years ago this young nation rose up to declare that all men are created equal, that all men are endowed with certain inalienable rights. Among these rights are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. These rights are still held in high esteem today. But, how much value do we really place on life?

The death toll on our nation's highways exceeds one thousand each week. Yet does the average motorist stop to think that death could be waiting for him today, or maybe tomorrow? No, I'm sure that to the average motorist, accidents always involve the "other" driver. Not me! Still, death claims a life every two and one-half hours in Texas! The acceptance of traffic fatalities has brought about the "everyday occurrence" attitude that exists today. Life means more than that. Life is a God-given gift and it should not be carelessly thrown away. Each 4th of July, the Texas Department of Public Safety conducts "Operation Motorcide." This is an extensive cov- Cemetery under direction of erage of the Texas traffic problems during the holiday period. public is kept aware of the traffic deaths and is continually made aware of the main causes of traffic accidents. This year's "Operation Motorcide" will begin at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, June 30, and will run until midnight Tuesday, July 4.

Major C. W. Bell, Regional
Commander of the Lubbock Region of the Department of Public Safety, states, "All available personnel will be used in an effort to keep the highway deaths at a minimal. We will be on the lookout for violations of the traffic laws; especially we will be alert for the speeding driver and the drinking driver. Speed and DWI are the two largest contributors of traffic fatalities. Major Bell reminds all motorists that "each driver is responsible for keeping control of his vehicle in order to avoid colliding with another vehicle, a pedestrian or any fixed object. No one wants to be responsible for the death of another. Let's make our streets and highways as safe as possible. We all could drive twice as safe as we usually drive, so let's make an all-out effort and make into a mourning." Do your part. this 4th of July a safe, happy "Drive Friendly," the Texas holiday. From The Desk of the City Manager

We attended the Annual City Managers Association meeting in McAllen recently and as al-ways, we learned a great deal from mixing and mingling with the many fine city managers Texas can justifiably brag about having. Present company ex-cluded, of course.

While we were there we attended services at the church in which we formerly served and heard a fine "Fathers Day" sermon. It started the wheels turning in our heads about how being a father is kinda like being a citizen. When you have been away on vacation or business you are always thrilled to see your city come over the horizon. Just as a father is filled with hope, joy and satisfaction when he sees his child. It is almost impossible to look at your child or your city without feel -ing strong emotions. This is truly a unique experience. It is easy to understand why fathers, to start. -- Jim Davis.

"Why Do We Stand When The Flag Goes By?"

The following letter reflects the results of a recent trip to New York City by members of the Board of Education and Ad-(Story From Public Relations Dept. of A & M University) (Note to Editors: With July ministration staff of the Aber-

COLLEGE STATION -- At Texas A & M University home football games, the Corps of Cadets always marches in to the music of the Aggie Band. At one of these events, recently, I heard a young boy ask his dad, "Why do the people stand up when the flag goes by?" I didn't hear the father's answer, but I began to wonder how I would have answered him.

I think I would have begun by pointing to the live oak trees around the university drill field planted in memory of Texas A&M University students who gave their lives in World War I. After the game I would have taken him by the Memorial Student Center built in memory of over 900 Aggies, whose It has been a real pleasure names are on a bronze plaque at the entrance. They gave their lives in the World Wars and those since. I would have also pointed out other memorials on the campus, those that remind us of sacrifices in the Those making the June 7-9 most recent years. Later, when I could have a quiet time with him, I would talk about Concord's Bridge, Shenandoah Valley, Flanders Field, St. Lo, Guadalcanal, Bastogne, Korea, and Viet Nam. I would mention to him my young Aggie friend, James Ray 63 of Conroe, who has been a prisoner of North Viet Nam for more than five years. And, of course, all the other young men imprisoned over there.

I would then talk of what our flag represents, what kind of country it flies over. I would remind him that America is the land of the refugee, the land of "the huddled masses longing to be free," and a land dedicated to justice, tranquili-ty, and the general welfare of

I would discuss with him how the very lines of the maps of hundreds who plowed and planted and fought and planned, and whose offspring have poured their abundance around the world to lift others. Then I would talk of the slant eyes, black faces, Nordic color, Irish enthusiasm, Italian grace, German laughter, Baptists, Catholics, Methodists, Texans, Yankees, Republicans, Democrats, and a thousand and one other tall, short, fat and thin people who call themselves Ameri-

We would discuss the "land of the free," "home of the brave," the opportunity to climb the ladder of success according to ability and desire. Yes, as I thought about how to furnish them with a city in which to grow up that will make all of our dreams and aspirations for them possible. This is indeed the remarks and aspirations are the remarks and aspirations the flag goes by I caught myself standing there in the quietthe responsibility of a lifetime. ness of my office. The thoughts caught me up in a reverent respect and I wanted to cry out how much I love the land that has done so much for me. I thought of the nine boys in our company, Company G. 272 Infantry, 69th Division, two of them black, who were killed in World War II. I thought of all the schools, jobs, homes, hospitals, and families that make our country not perfect, but far ahead of any other country in the world.

That is the reason why we stand, my boy. So we can get a good look at the red, white, and blue as it passes by, representing all of those sacrifices, all those hopes, all of those things we want for future Americans. This flag going by gives you the privilege to keep sit-ting, if you want to. But if you are part of the fabric of those who have made it possible for you to rise up in respect, you by your actions will trigger a standing ovation. So stand tall when the flag goes by, so it can always pass your way again.

Mrs. Kenneth Wright announced that the Dairy Mart of Abernathy WILL BE OPEN Tuesday, the Fourth of July.

TALK IN PRINT

-tip-Expressions of grief run the gamut of the emotional scale from stoic silence to hysterics. Sunday morning, on a brief visit to a man whose mate of more than 63 years lay critically ill in a Lubbockhospital, I saw an expression of grief that I had never noticed before. Firmly believing that his wife would never return to their home, the man's face was etched and lined with grief. His words were few, but the deepest kind of grief was sculptured in his face. What I saw would have been a perfect subject for artist Norman Rockwell, who translates the mood of his subjects into life-like paintings.

A few weeks ago I happened to see this elderly couple walking from the back of their back yard to their house. They were holding each other's hand as they slowly walked along... like they were walking together into the sunset of life.

(She died a few hours after the above paragraphs were written. She was Mrs. Ben G. Haney.)

-tip-Mrs. BFD says Senator George McGovern's tv voice reminds her of the voice of the sissy-appearing pianist, Liber-ace. "I'd hate to have to listen to that voice for four or eight years," she declared.

-tip-Why would President Nixon, whose chances of re-election whose chances of re-election are very good at this time, jeopardize the dignity of his office by knowingly let his supporters or aides raid and bug the Democratic National Headquarters in Washington? It appears to me that the raid and pears to me that the raid and bugging bit is an inside Demo-cratic job, staged by supporters of the Party's potential nomi-nees...and without the knowledge and / or consent of the Democratic presidential hopefuls or the high-ranking Democratic National Headquarters officials. The break-in was staged to reflect on the Republicans, who are accused of the

The tragedy of the religious war in Northern Ireland has had an economic backlash in the Republic of Ireland. The Irish Tourist Board asks the help of the news media to assure potential tourists that there is no such violence in the Republic of Ireland. They say you'll be safe in Dublin, and elsewhere in the Republic of Ireland.

The United States should tell Northern Ireland that the taxpayers of America DO NOT want to furnish the money for replacing all the industry and business they are destroying in this useless civil (religious) war. If they realized that the United States would not help rebuild their country they might cease destroying it. -tip-

Even when a relatively minor change is made in automobile insurance policies, it results in a great amount of misunderstanding between policyholders, agents and companies. It appears that eventually we will have "No Fault" automobile insurance, which will be a drastic change. This will result in a state of utter confusion, with policyholders mad at the agents and companies due to widespread misunderstanding.

-tip-Due to the power surround-ing the position, I believe that the voters of Texas should be allowed to elect the person to fill the office of Speaker of the House of Representatives when they ballot on other state offices. The Lieutenant Governor performs a corresponding function in the Senate, and he is elected by the people.

-tip-Lobbyists, as they now operate, should be banned. A lot of the useless and damaging state laws now on the books are the result of lobbyists' activities. Many of these laws are not in the interest of the general public. Activities of lobbyists may have been at the root of the political scandals that have damaged the reputation of our state in recent months and prior years. There should be a law prohibiting a lobbyist from talking to representatives and senators individually about their cause. Lobbyists' appeal to lawmakers should be confined to committee hearings and then only when all members of the committee are present.

Television could do a great service for the people. Laws should require that all committee sessions be televised and that all sessions of the senate and house of representatives be televised ... this should apply on both the state and national levels of government. This idea may not be practical, but it sounds good.

COTTON CONTEST ENTRIES SOUGHT

1972 is the year to enter the Hale County 4-H Cotton Pro-duction Contest. All young people (boys and girls) between the ages of 9 & 19 are eligible to enter, states James Esty, Assistant County Agricultural Agent - Agronomy.

It takes only half interest in five acres of cotton, a signed entry card (due in Mr. Esty's office by July 1, 1972), and a record of cotton harvested from the five acres.

Awards are presented on yield only, not production records. If you are a member of 4-H, come by and pick up an entry card. If you're not in 4-H come by anyway, join a 4-H club, and join the fun!

son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lutrick, recently attended the annual CO-OP Youth Leadership Camp on the campus of William Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri,

They were among some 800 outstanding rural youth who attended the camps' four sessions.
They attended the June 12-17 session.

Miss McClendon and Lutrick were sponsored by County Line Co-op Gins, Abernathy Farmers Co-op Gins, Co-op Grain Company of Abernathy & Heckville and Abernathy Consumers Fuel Association.

The camp program is designed to develop leadership abilities, to teach good citizenship, to increase understanding of farmer cooperatives and to provide plenty of fun.

Farmland Industries, with headquarters in nearby Kansas City, sponsors this event.

Youth at camp are from 17 midwestern states which have farmer cooperatives that own and operate Farmland Industries, a regional cooperative manufacturing petroleum, feed, fertilizer and other farm supplies.

Campers arrived at William Jewell on Monday for registration, games and swimming. The following morning they toured Farmland Industries facilities in the Kansas City area. From Monday through Saturday morning, they took part in regular camp activities ranging from athletics to group discussions. Campers themselves plan and conduct much of the camp program and even establish their own rules through their Camp Senate. Campers learn how a co-op functions by or-ganizing and operating a Co-op Canteen during their camping

COLLEGE STATION, June, (Spl) -- Kathe McClendon, Hale County 4-H Club member, has been named to receive the 1972 Danforth Leadership Training Award for Texas, announces the state 4-H office at Texas A&M University. Kathe, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McClendon of Abernathy, will attend about two weeks of summer training at the American Youth Foundation Leadership Training Camp at Stoney Lake, Michigan, July 25-August 6.

The camp is sponsored annually by the Ralston Purina Co. in memory of its founder. the late William H. Danforth, who for many years was interested in developing the leadership capacities of young peo-ple. The camp is conducted for the outstanding "Four-Square" 4-H boy and girl from each state and from each of five Canadian provinces.

Kathe has been an active 4-H'er during her nine - year career. Her honors in all 4-H project areas number five medals, four first places, one blue ribbon and one award in local, county and district competition. She has attended the National 4-H Congress, given demonstrations at the State Fair of Texas, narrated the county dress revue, emceed the county food show, and has been a 4-H Roundup clothing win-

She was also named winner of a $500 scholarship June 6 for her entry in the bread-cereal group at the 1972 State 4-H Food Show.

One 4-H project that has especially influenced Kathe is. nior leadership. Because of her leadership experiences in 4-H Club work, she has served as a volunteer worker at the State School for the Mentally Retarded at Lubbock.

A senior at Abernathy High School, she is a member of the band, varsity basketball team, FHA, drama club and is a cheerleader. She has worked in the Head Start program two

'Since grass and weeds have been a problem at this ocation on the Steinle Farm in the past, the area should provide an excellent test site for evaluation of all treatments," Mooney said.

'We won't have to provide an artificial water grass growth for the study. Another objective of the test is to determine which herbicides or rates would give adequate weed control grain sorghum while also allowing planting of small
