IRLBECK PLANS JULY FOURTH BASKETBALL CELEBRATION CAMP HERE

Carl Irlbeck, Abernathy's head basketball coach, will hold a basketball clinic during the month of July. The purpose of the clinic will be to further the fundamental skills, knowledge and attitude of basketball in the Abernathy area. The clinic will be held at the outside courts located at the Irlbeck residence, 1509 Ave. G in Abernathy. Each player will be required to bring a medical statement of fitness as they register for the camp. Age groups for the clinic will be from the 3rd to the 8th grades. The week-long clinic will have sessions from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. Monday through Friday. The boys camp will be held talk 16 to July 20 while held July 16 to July 20, while the girls will be from July 23 to July 27. Cost for the camp will be $12.

Registration will be made in advance of the opening day of the camp (July 16 for boys and July 23 for girls). Early registration will ensure an even number of participants. This will enable the kids to get the personal attention needed.

The camp will enable your child to develop his or her skills and knowledge of the sport of basketball. If enough youngsters are interested and want to begin developing their skills in the game, this camp will a fford that opportunity. --Sammy Hunley

Five high school students from Hale County will attend the 11th annual High School Students Citizenship Seminar to be conducted by the Texas Farm Bureau July 16-20 on the campus of Baylor University in Waco, according to Bobby Cox, president of the County

Farm Bureau. Students selected to attend from this county include: John Rantz, Abernathy; Dwain Schumacher, Plainview; Steve Marshall, Hale Center; Lorna Gail Rhodes, Petersburg; and Patti Robertson, Cotton Cen-

They will be among nearly 500 students from all over the state who will be entering the 11th and 12th grades in September and have been carefully screened as to leadership a bility and scholastic achievement.

Attendance is not limited to students from Farm Bureau families, but is open to those who reside in towns or cities as well as rural areas. Their attendance is sponsored by the local county Farm Bureau.

Purpose of the seminar, according to Mr. Cox, is to convey to the students a better understanding of our American heritage and the capitalistic private enterprise system "that has made ours the greatest of all nations.

He also said they will be informed about some of the forces, both internal and external, that are eroding our way of life. The ultimate goal, he added, in addition to helping them to be better informed, is to cause them to want to pass on their experiences to others.

MURRAY - MURRAY EXCHANGE VOWS

Karen Sue Murray and Vur-lon Murray, Jr., were married Saturday, June 30, at 4 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Murray of Star Route, Winthrop, Ark. and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Vurlon Murray of Route 2, Foreman, Arkan-

The ceremony was per-formed by Curtis Timberlake. The setting for the wedding was in the bride's parents' yard. The decorations for the yard were red roses and white gardenias. The arch in which the couple repeated their vows under was covered in ivy and red roses. A basket of white gardenias stood on each side of the arch. The bride was given in marriage by Roland Murray, her brother, She chose a gown of exclusive design fashioned of sheer organza and scalloped Venice lace. It had a ruffled yoke and mandarin collar. The gown also had long fitted sleeves with petal pointed cuffs. The bodice was fitted and banded with a red satin sash with a bow and streamers in back. The bouffant skirt cascaded in tiers. She wore a picture hat of scalloped lace trimmed in red satin. The hat was banded with French silk illusion which flowed into a fingertip veil. The bride carried a basket bouquet of flowers which was made up of red rose buds, white carnations and greenery. White streamers flowed down from the flowers.

Denae Embry of Ashdown, niece of the bride, was maid of honor, Carla Vickers, Dalhart, also a niece, was junior bridesmaid. Janet Lovell, a nicce, of Edgewood and Marsha Williamson of Foreman were also bridesmaids. Tracey Murray of Amarillo, a niece, was flower girl and Lance Slaton of Texarkana, the groom's nephew, was ring bearer. The bridesmaids wore long red and white checked ging-ham dresses with a white satin sash. The bridesmaids also carried red and white checked gingham parasols.

Pat Reed of Foreman was best man. Groomsmen were Marty Pyron and J. L. Gauldin, both of Foreman, Seating guests were Chuck Vickers of Dalhart and Alan Embry of Ashdown, Both are nephews of the bride. They wore white cuffed slacks with matching red and white coats.

The reception followed the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents. The rehearsal dinner was also held there. After a honeymoon in Dallas, the couple will live in Foreman. The bride Foreman High School. The groom attended college for four years and is now a farmer. The bride's parents, the C. L. Murrays, resided at 1012 2nd Street in Abernathy before moving to Arkansas. Mrs. Murray is a sister of Becky and Rocky Attebury of Abernathy. The Murray's address: Star

Route, Winthrop, Ark. 71866. five children attended the q

a.m. to 3 p.m. Classes in St. Isidore's Chapel here. FIRST FRIDAY: First Friday Mass was held at St. Isidore's at 9 a.m. July Lutrick-Perkins Vows Repeated

The marriage of Miss Rhon-da Gail Perkins and Johnny Lynn Lutrick was solemnized at the candlelighted altar of Paramount Baptist Church in Amarillo Saturday evening, June 30. Dr. Charles Lutrick, uncle of the bridegroom, of St. John's Methodist Church of Lubbock officiated the double ring ceremony.

The couple's parents are
Mr. and Mrs. Billie G. Perkins of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lutrick of Abernathy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Danny Wilson of Amarillo, sister of the bride, Mr. Harvey Lutrick of Abernathy served his son as best man.

The bridesmaids were Miss Debbi Hrncir of Amarillo, Miss Judith Ann Kolander of Amarillo, and Mrs. James Berry of Austin.

Serving as groomsmen were Mike Kerr of Abernathy, John Elliot of Lubbock, and Bob Wilson of Lubbock. Acting as ushers were Ben Wallace of Dallas, Pat Hale of Grand Prairie, Jimmy Clark of Lubbock, and Danny Wil-son of Amarillo.

Soloists were Jane Gordon of Lubbock singing "Whither Thou Goest" and Claudia Bunkley of Stamford singing

"The Wedding Song".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Juliet style gown of white pure silk and English net embellished with clusters of Swiss appliques. The sleeveless princess silhouette featured a high silhouette featured a high wedding band neckline. Alternating godets of silk and English net accented with lace motifs formed the full bell skirt and a band of scalloped lace completely encircled the hemline. Fullness was gently shirred to the back forming a chapel length train.

She wore a matching Juliet capulet of Swiss lace appliques which held her short three-tiered veiling trimmed completely in tiny snow-flowers. Her attendants wore gowns of multi-colored floral chiffon veiled over green and white gingham. The gowns featured spaghetti straps and a full gathered skirt. The natural waistline was defined with a green velvet ribbon. A cape of the floral chiffon was worn over the shoulders.

Following the ceremony

a reception was held for Rhonda and Johnny at the Tas-cosa Country Club. After honeymooning in Los An-geles, California, the couple will reside in Lubbock.

The bride is a junior at Texas Tech University and a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. The bridegroom also attends Texas Tech. He is a senior business major and a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He is employed by Lubbock National Bank.

Why walk on the grass when you can ride?

Before you buy a walk-behind mower, check the price of a John Deere Gas-Powered Riding Mower. You'll be pleasantly surprised at how little more it will cost you to enjoy their convenience. Select from two models-6- and 7-hp. Both do an excellent job of mowing, trim close, and ride great. Grass catcher available for 6-hp.
