Hale County 4-H Drill Team - 7:30 P. M.

"LITTLE BRITCHES" RODEO - 8:00 P. M.

Countdown Begins For Little Britches Rodeo June 7-8

It's here! You won't want to miss it! The Little Britches Rodeo sponsored by the Abernathy Riding Club will be this Friday and Saturday, June 7 and 8. The Hale County 4-H Drill Team will perform at 7:30 both nights and the Grand Entry and Rodeo will begin at 8:00 p. m.

Winners of the Queen Contest which was held Saturday, June 1, in the arena will be presented. Becky Albers was selected as Queen with Sherry Evans and Nelda Rogers as runners up. Further details on the Queen Contest will be found in another article in this edition of The Review.

There will be barrel races, pole bending, flag races, ribbon roping, bareback and bull riding.

In addition to the names of up-and-coming cowboys listed in last week's Review, we would like to add others, plus some cowgirls too. They are: Alan Albers; Holly Shaffer; Cindy, Patsy and Joan Davis; Nelda Rogers; Van Riley; Max Riley; Don Barron; Doyle and Doug Albrecht; Dan, Conner and Sherry Evans; Becky Albers; Vicki Lynn Shadden; Stacy Mills; Bill Dubose; Dean McGuire; Sharla and Micah Griffin; David Kincaid; David Rodriguez.

There will also be some rather still competition coming from as far away as Justiceburg, Blackwell, Roaring Springs, Post, Ralls, Slaton, Lorenzo, Girard, Morton and other places.

If you have never seen a Little Britches Rodeo, you have missed something. It's been said our American kids are going soft. Not these young people. They all have plenty of grit. (Sometimes almost as much on the outside as on the inside.)

If you want to be able to join in the local conversation next week, you won't want to miss this rodeo. See you there.

Houstons Bring In First Wheat At Service Grain

a 16,320 load of wheat--from irrigated croplands of Bill Houston & Son, six miles south of Cotton Center--was received late Wednesday, May 29th, at Service Grain & Fertilizer Co. of Abernathy, manager Dennis Rhodes reported Thursday.

Rhodes said the shipment "was the earliest I ever remember," adding that expected yield for the load is 35 bushels per acre. Test weight was 62 pounds; moisture content 11.38.

The early shipment reflects the beginning of the 1974 wheat harvest in Hale County.

Farewell Fellowship

Sunday evening following the Sunday evening worship services at the First United Methodist Church, members and guests enjoyed fellowship and ice cream and cake during this time. Mr. L. S. Wilson presented Rev. and Mrs. Conrad Ryan with a Bible as a going away gift from the church. Rev. and Mrs. Ryan will be leaving next week to their new appointment at the Hale Center First Methodist Church. The Ryans have been at the Abernathy church eight years.

Also recognized at the fellowship were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Caffey and children who will be moving to Sidney soon. The Caffey's have both been teachers in the Abernathy school; he will be teaching in the junior high school in Comanche this year.

Other church member families moving are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McClelland and children, who are moving to Monahan; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Newberry, who are moving to Brownfield; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bartley and family, who moved to Cameron; and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Love and son.

BECTON-HECKVILLE

Kenneth Dean of Fort Worth is a house guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Flora Dean. He is a Texas Tech student.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Waters and Dean enjoyed a Memorial Day fishing trip to Lake Kemp. They also visited Mrs. Bindie Ferguson, a friend of thirty years, who has a retirement home on the lake.

Mrs. Donald Adrian is recovering nicely from a broken arm she sustained in a fall at her home.

Crops are up and looking good in this area. So far no rain, except to "lay the dust". So far no area here has received hail.

Mrs. Winston Watkins visited Mrs. Howard Kurkin Wednesday afternoon.

Becton Baptist Church has recently disbanded. It follows the closing of Becton United Methodist Church last fall. At one time there was a Becton Church of Christ, too, which flourished. All these churches had been active since the early 1900's. Most charter members have been deceased for years. Progress marches on but it leaves sadness in the hearts of who loved our country churches.

Mr. Joe B. Becton is recovering satisfactorily from recent open heart surgery. His many friends here are happy that he has made such excellent progress.

Mrs. Flora Dean returned
