by Sam Hunley Bright prospects for another district championship are facing the Abernathy Antelopes as they kick off the 1974-75 basketball season.

The Antelopes will return four starters from last year's quad and went 19-10 for the year and a second place finish in the district race.

The Antelopes will lack towering height, but speed and ball handling should make up the difference.
Tommy Horsford, 6' 3", senior will handle the center spot and should give the Antelope a good inside threat.

Artis Bets, 6' 0", senior will be the playmaker in the Antelope attack. Artis is considered one of the finest all-around players in the area.

Alonso Ramos, 5' 8", senior will hold down a guard position and will add speed and ball handling to the Antelope squad. Dayne Myatt, 6' 2", senior will give additional strength to the center position for the Antelopes. Joey Dor-man, 5' 10", senior and Gary Stoese, 5' 10", senior up from the J. V. are good ball handlers and should provide the Antelopes with strength at the guard positions.

Wayne Riley, 5' 11", junior who started last year as a sophomore will give the Antelopes a definite outside shooting advantage. Kelly Tooker, 6' 3", junior who saw limited action last year should help the Antelopes in the rebounding category.

Robin Wright, 6' 0", junior who played on the J. V. last year will provide the Antelopes with the speed and quickness needed to make the defensive unit tough.
Ken Davenport, 6' 0", sophomore who saw a great deal of action last year as a freshman will be used at a forward position.
Ken being a fine athlete will help the Antelopes in every aspect of the game.
Rodney Shipman, 5' 11", sophomore shows a fine talent for the game of basket ball and should help the Antelopes in every aspect of the game.

Coach Irlbeck is definitely a winner and if he has anything to do about it the Antelopes will go all the way in 1975.

LADY LOPES
Coach Diana Lewis, an outstanding basketball player in her own right with the Hutcherson Flying Queens, has brought life back to girls basketball in Abernathy.

Coach Lewis, who formerly coached at Trent and Canyon high schools, has shown the spirit and determination needed to produce winning teams and dedicated young women.

The girls coming off a 12-13 record from last year should definitely be a contender for the district championship in 1974-75. Offense should be one of the strong points of the Lady Lopes. Cheryl Rogers, 5' 8", junior should provide the inside scoring threat for the team. Nan Shipman, 5' 2", senior and Melinda Huffaker, 5' 8", junior should give the Antelopes the necessary ball handling and outside shooting to win against anyone. Cindy Allen, 5' 4", senior, Karen Lambert, 5' 10", junior, Nelda Rogers, 5' 6", junior, Jane Goheen, 5' 11", senior and Melanie Moorehead, 5' 4", senior will give the Lady Lopes the needed depth that has been vacant for a number of years. All of

PUBLIC HEARING SLATED HERE

Emergency School Aid Act, torium of the Academic Cenart show at Graham's Dining Room on Highway 87.

ing the month.

7-8-9 Grades Basketball Activities

Following is the schedule of games for Abernathy Junior High School for the early part of the 1974-1975 basketball season:

Morton comes to Abernathy Dec. 5, to play the 9th grade girls, starting at 6:30 p. m.

Abernathy 8th grade boys & girls play in a tournament at Floydada Dec. 5-6-7.

The five forwards are capable of scoring in double figures on any given night.

The guard situation should be a healthy one for this year's campaign. Dorinda Lovellace, 5' 8", senior, Elaine Hamilton, 5' 8", senior, and Cindy Connell, 5' 10", senior should give the Lady Lopes a good advantage in the height department. Penny Thomason, 5' 4", junior, Susie Davenport, 5' 2", junior, Debbie Knox, 5' 6", junior, and Pam Rogers, 5' 5", senior will add speed to the defensive unit.

The Lady Lopes will have talent on both ends of the court this year, and with a new upsurge of spirit and a new coach the situation looks good for a very successful season.
