HALE COUNTY RANKED AMONG TOP TEN IN TEXAS FOR 1974 COTTON PRODUCTION

With a total of 94,400 bales, Hale County cotton farmers ranked in the top ten counties in the production of upland cotton in Texas for 1974, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White reported.

County farmers harvested some 164,500 acres, compared with 149,500 in 1973. Yield per harvested acres reached only 275 pounds -- a reduction of 247 pounds from the previous year.

Statistics for the past year have been compiled by the Texas Crop and Livestock Service, which show Texas slipping to Number Two in the nation in cotton production with a total of 2,462,000 bales. California led the nation with 2,595,000 bales.

Short moisture conditions, which reached drought proportions by April and May, delayed planting in many areas of the Texas High and Low Plains, according to White. Numerous farmers dry planted, but mid-June rains came too late for most of the crop. Planting on the Texas Plains was substantially below normal, and many stands were eventually abandoned.

Growth and development of the late maturing crop were delayed by cool weather and rains, and harvest ran behind schedule through October and November. In addition, cool, wet weather in January delayed completion of harvest until February.

TEXAS WHEAT PRODUCERS TO MEET AUGUST 7 IN AMARILLO

Sagging prices, export sales, labor relations, domestic use and international trade policy are among the subjects to be threshed by the wheat leaders from throughout the commercial wheat production area of Texas, meeting in Amarillo Thursday, August 7, 1975.

Leo Witkowski, President of the Texas Wheat Producers Association said the organization's regular mid-year meeting will be from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Holiday Inn 1-40.

Other officers of the Association in addition to Witkowski are Ken Kendrick, Vice President, Startford; Dwight Hamilton, Vice President, Olney; and C. L. Edwards, Secretary-Treasurer, Panhandle.

Jerry Rees, Executive Vice President of the National Association of Wheat Growers, (of which Texas Wheat is a supporting member) will be principal speaker and discussion leader as current wheat problems and opportunities are delved into. On behalf of wheat producers, Rees has recently participated in International Wheat Council meetings in London on foreign trade policy and met with George Meany of the AFL-CIO and Thomas Gleason of the International Longshoremen's Association relative to the unions members loading grainships destined for Russia.

Cox Receives Award For Air Force Work

GRAND FORKS, N. D. -- Second Lieutenant Billy C. Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Wright of Abernathy, has been awarded the senior missileman badge at Grand Forks AFB, N. D., in recognition of his support of the Minuteman missile program.

Lieutenant Cox is a deputy missile combat crew commander at Grand Forks with the 447th Strategic Missile Squadron, a unit of the Strategic Air Command.

A 1964 graduate of Kress (Tex.) High School, he received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in 1974 from Pan American University, Edinburg, Tex., and was commissioned there through the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps program.

Struve Attends Reunion of WWII Seabee Unit

Rudolph Struve attended the reunion last weekend of the 52nd Naval Construction Battalion (Seabees), of which he was a member during World War II. The reunion, which was the 28th annual meeting of the group, was held at the Lubbock Hilton Inn, and began Friday.

The group, which served in the Aleutian Islands, Hawaii and Guam, held its first reunion in 1948 at Pine Bluff, Ark., and has never held a reunion in the same state twice in a row.

Last week's reunion marked the first to be held in the West Texas area, though the unit passed through Lubbock and spent a day there in January of 1943 while on the way to their first assignment from boot camp.

Dr. Dudley Strain, minister of the First Christian Church of Lubbock was guest speaker for the group during their noon luncheon Saturday. The day's activities continued at 2:00 p.m. with a tour of the Ranching Heritage Center at Texas Tech, and at 7:00 p.m. with dinner and dancing.

The reunion concluded Sunday when participants departed for their destinations throughout the nation.

Agent Announces Clearance Of Sunflower Desiccant

Early-planted sunflower crops in Hale County have completed the blooming stage and are now in a period of grain filling, according to County agent Ollie Limer.

Since this is the period in which oil content and seed weight are being determined, farmers need to be careful not to stop plant growth too quickly with harvest-aid chemicals.

Limer said that with the excellent moisture conditions in the area, it could take four to six weeks after the completion of the bloom stage for seed to reach full maturity.

Several weeks could be required for the head base to dry naturally. During this period, the seed will begin to shatter and some yield will be lost. The best alternative is to rush the final drying process with the use of a harvest aid chemical.

Recently, Paraquat was cleared for use as a sunflower desiccant in Texas. The chemical may be applied at a rate of one to two pints per acre when sunflower seeds are mature. Five gallons of spray mix. (Paraquat plus water), should be used while treating by air and 20 to 40 gallons with ground equipment. For best results a surfactant such as Ortho X-77 should be added at the rate of one quart per 100 gallons of water.

"Read all label directions carefully before using Paraquat," Limer emphasized.

Once a harvest aid chemical is applied, the crop will be ready to harvest in seven to ten days. A combine equipped with a sunflower header attachment should be immediately available because delays could be costly in terms of seed loss due to shattering and bird feeding.

"Keep in mind," said Limer,

"Paraquat is a non-selective desiccant. It will kill any plant tissue it contacts, including cotton, sorghum and other crops in adjacent fields."

Aerial applicators can help by equipping their aircraft with the new types of drift-reducing nozzles such as "raindrop," or by using drift-reducing agents, such as Target or Nalco-Troll.

"These equipment changes and additives will probably increase the cost of the spraying operation," said Limer. "In the long run, however, this could be money well-spent if there is danger of damaging adjacent crops."

RAIN HAMPERS ACTIVITIES AT RIDING CLUB PLAYDAY

-- "tractor riding" is first event --

Reported by Mrs. Randy Evans

The playday at the Abernathy Riding Club Arena got off to a late start Saturday afternoon due to the heavy rainfall the previous night. M. D. and Doyle Evans displayed their tractor driving talent for several hours trying to dry out the muddy arena. In fact some thought they had come to a tractor pull instead of a playday.

The major portion of our contestants and spectators were from out of town. District I. A. S. P. E. R. C. President, Mark Sutt from Littlefield arrived early in the day to set up the electronic clock. Mark worked at the playday just like he was a club member. If you see Mark be sure to express our gratitude to him, he is really a swell guy.

Our thanks to HI-PRO Feed Company for the ton of feed they donated. Remember them the next time you need feed. HI-PRO is located at 316

East 40th in Lubbock, ask for Marvin.

High point trophy winners at the playday were:

MRS. H B COGGIN:

Enjoys Helping Others

By Lori Hopson
A woman who has traveled side-by-side with her husband through his forty-four years as a minister, Mrs. H B Coggin has built her own personal ministry out of service to those around her.

"I've really enjoyed this part of my life," she says of her efforts to make life easier for others. "It's been a very wonderful life for me."

Blanche has spent many years of her life in doing those extra things; such as remembering birthdays and anniversaries, visiting the sick and helping the underprivileged; which tend to mean such a great deal.

Blanche says she's the kind of person who must always be busy in order to be happy, and she spends much of her time working on projects such as crocheting, hand crafts, baking, canning, and sewing. These varied projects all have one thing in common, and that is that she always has someone in mind as a recipient for her handmade gifts.

"I love people," she says, "and when I do these things, it's because I love to do them. I like to have a little something to leave with someone when I go to visit them." This includes her own family as well as shut-ins, hospital patients, and others.

The Coggins returned to Abernathy just over four years ago, after having served here for five years from 1957 to 1962 at a local church. They have two sons; Charles, who lives in Denver City with his wife Carolyn and their two children Carol and Carl; and Rev. Morris Coggin of Rye, Colorado. He and his wife Dixie have four children: Deanna, Mark, Linda and Hollis.

Blanche says she enjoys cooking, especially for guests, and is never happier than when she can have someone over to "share a meal" and visit with her. Some of her favorite people are friends in Abernathy, which she says she loves because it's a "friendly" place.

"I just love it," she says, "The people are friendly, nice people. I like to live in a place where you can wave at someone across the street and they'll wave back--you feel so much more at home in a community like this."

She adds that, though one should always go into a new town with the idea of making it a real home, it's easier to do in some places than in others.

"This is just a wonderful part of the country," she says.

Blanche enjoys cooking all kinds of dishes, from meats and casseroles to salads and desserts, and two of her favorites are her carrot salad and her special pecan pie.

She showed Jeannie the luxurious furniture, the imported carpets, the priceless paintings, and asked, "Don't you think these things are lovely?"

"I do," answered Jeannie. "What a beautiful home for Jesus to visit. Does He ever come here?" "I'm afraid not" confessed the woman.

"We have a small apartment," continued Jeannie. "We don't have any carpets or pretty things. But Jesus comes and makes us very happy."

Music during the ceremony was provided by organist Mrs. M.M. Styles and soloist Jimmy Gary, both of Lubbock.

Miss Belinda Fortenberry of New Deal served as Maid of Honor in an evening-length gown of peach floral-print chiffon. A peach-colored hat and gladioli complimented the gown, which featured a v-neckline and puffed sleeves.

HALE COUNTY LEADS IN SOYBEAN PRODUCTION

Farmers in Hale County made an important contribution to Texas agriculture in 1974 by leading the state in the production of soybeans and by placing third in sorghum yields.

According to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, farmers produced almost 1.5 million bushels of soybeans and 15 million bushels of sorghum. Compared with 1973, countywide production for most field crops was down last year. Soybean yields dropped 11 percent while sorghum fell 34 percent.

Dry weather, lasting from late fall through winter, caused most of the planting problems on the Texas High Plains last year. Farmers either dry planted or waited for additional rain, and yields of some crops were down drastically from previous years. Growth in most dryland areas was spotty and much replanting was necessary.

Despite the many problems associated with 1974, Texas farmers were able to produce more than 7.8 million bushels of soybeans and 312 million bushels of sorghum. Texas led the nation in the production of sorghum.

Complete figures on Texas field crops have been compiled in the "1974 Texas Field Crop Statistics." Copies may be obtained by writing John C. White, Commissioner, Texas Department of Agriculture.

Outdoors in Texas

By MERWYN SIMPSON

Chiggers and Ticks

Outdoors in our great state during the summertime is a good place to be, but be careful! Chiggers and ticks are waiting to attack, literally by the millions in many parts of the state. These tiny troublemakers are not insects, but members of the Arachnida class, which includes spiders. Ticks can bury into the skin, and can carry Rocky Mountain spotted fever, theileriasis, tularemia, and Texas fever. Embedded ticks should be soaked in rubbing alcohol, and gently pulled off. Give the tick several minutes to release its grip. Portions of the tick could remain embedded in the skin, causing infection. Chiggers can usually be removed by a hot, soapy bath after a trip thru grass or weeds. Insect repellent or eating a sulfur cream of tartar tablet before your trip can help. Repellents or rotenone dust should do the trick for ticks. Tip of the Week: Don't scratch those bites...it irritates the skin and causes infection from chigger and tick bites.

TEXAS TALK

By Harold Thompson

Protein potency is one of the terms being used to describe the positive aspects of beef promoters arguments supporting the favorable factors of beef protein versus plant protein. The beef backer with one of the most impressive data accumulations to support the meat producers position is Dr. Bruce Taylor, an animal nutritionist at Arizona University. Dr. Taylor says one of the most important aspects of judging protein is an evaluation of the amount of protein actually utilized by the body compared to the amount of intake. Using a scale with egg protein rated at 100, Dr. Taylor says beef would rate at 80 and corn and milo at 50. Citing statistics based on feeding out a 650 pound steer with a ton of grain, Dr. Taylor says the human body would actually utilize exactly the same weight of protein whether consuming the 160 pounds of protein in the feed or the 112 pounds in the finished steer. His final conclusion... a choice between corn and milo or beef.

"RAYS OF HOPE"

by Pat Stanton

How do you approach an impossible situation when dealing with someone in your family or a close friend?

When you believe that there is no hope, what do you do? Someone once said, "When you come to the end of your rope, tie a knot and hang on." This is good mental philosophy, but how do you go about tying the knot that will hold?

The greatest practical teacher of all gave definite instructions from the Bible in Mark 11:24. He said, "Therefore I say unto you, what things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them."

Many Christians are fainting spiritually because they are forgetting the key to prayer. Faith is the key that unlocks the answers to our prayers. Jesus said to believe the moment that you pray. Don't wait until you think that you can see the answer coming and then start believing.

Mark 11:23 is another power-packed teaching for our lives today. This says that whatever we say will come to pass if we believe and not doubt. Recently, I was speaking and singing at a church in Lubbock, at the close of the service, a young man came to the front to talk and ask for prayer. He was holding a little boy and as he put the child down, the boy held on to his daddy's leg. I soon learned that the man was desperate and at the end of hope. His wife had left him and had not wanted the boy. Time had passed and now the mother was going to court to get the young boy away from his father.

What would you have suggested to this crying Dad? Was there any hope that he could have peace? Was there any hope for the young boy? Well, I shared with this young man that there was help available through God. I also prayed a prayer of faith and trusted God to do a miracle in his life. I reminded him of the verses in Mark 11:23-24, and told him to start believing and thanking God now that he was going to bring peace to his wife and the restoration of his home.

God will always honor any prayer of faith that comes from a pure and forgiving heart. Also, the believer that is confessing with his mouth the victory is his, will get the attention of God quicker than a 24 hour vigil.

We Christians need to fill our mouths with positive confessions of faith based on God's promises. When you learn to live this way, there is absolutely nothing that can defeat you and rob you of an abundant life.

Youth of the First Methodist Church will be in charge of services this Sunday, with Jimmy Nunn serving as speaker for the morning service, and First Baptist Church director David McMullen speaking for the evening service.
