A SALUTE TO THE MEN AND WOMEN IN LAW ENFORCEMENT

When we are victims of a crime we are often quick to criticize. The police are our favorite targets. Where were they when I needed them? It is an often heard phrase. If you feel this way have you ever visited your law enforcement agency to see what an officer does during a shift. We see them drinking coffee, but do we realize that their coffee breaks are often used to toss around ideas on catching a criminal or solving a case? Do we realize that many officers never get a chance to eat a meal or may only get five minutes before they are called away to help a citizen? How often do we see an officer who has just finished working fourteen hours get called back out after he has gone to sleep to assist another officer who has a burglar trapped in a building or to look for a lost child. How many of us can actually say we know first hand what a police officer goes through?

It is impossible for a police officer to be everywhere at once. It is easy to understand that a police officer cannot know every citizen and where everyone lives or what they do, when their homes will be occupied or vacant, who is visiting a home or who is a criminal. We must depend on our neighbors to help, to provide extra eyes and ears for the police. Your neighbor will certainly know more about your habits, when you are usually gone or at home, what kind of car you drive, who belongs around your house, what is strange or out of place in your neighborhood.

KENT HARRISON IS IN WHO'S WHO

LEVELLAND -- A total of 42 students at South Plains College have been named to Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges. Students were selected on the basis of scholarship and active involvement in both campus and community life, according to Bob Fallon, director of student activities at SPC. Those nominated were full-time sophomores who maintained at least a 3.0 grade point average. Faculty advisors each submitted three names, which were then evaluated by a nominating committee.

Their names and biographical information will appear in an annual publication, "Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges," which is available as a reference source for schools, employers and others. Included in the list of students named to Who's Who was Steven Kent Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Harrison of Abernathy.

Rutledge Family Reunion Christmas

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Rutledge of 8505 Kenosha Drive in Lubbock hosted a Christmas Day gathering of the Rutledge family.

Attending were Mr. Oleta Welch of Benjamin, Mr. and Mrs. Buford Davenport of Abernathy, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hall of Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh K. Fry and Mrs. L. E. Smiddy of Amarillo, Gail Rutledge of Schretz, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Welch of Seagraves, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cunningham and Kevin of Durant, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Havens, Mark, Jill, Lori, Gordon and Kay of Abernathy.

Ronnie Pope of Dermott visited over the Christmas holidays with his mother, Mrs. Wynelle Pope and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ray of Austin visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hopson, Susie and Kristi during the Christmas holidays.

Our neighbors are important to us. How about if we are asleep and our neighbor sees our house on fire, wouldn't we hope that they could call the fire department and get us up? How about if you are on vacation and the neighbor sees a man crawling in a window, wouldn't we appreciate them a little more if they called the police and a burglar was arrested and we were saved the loss of thousands of dollars in property?

I would certainly want my neighbor helping me and the police and would certainly do the same for them. Are you a good neighbor? Think about it. Neighborhood watch is vital, even if we have never experienced crime in the block before, if may happen tomorrow.

Your local law enforcement agency has valuable information to offer to you and your neighbors and all it takes is asking. You want to organize your neighborhood into a trained informed and alert group of citizens call your law enforcement agency, they can help you.

Every time a law enforcement officer begins a shift he lays his life on the line to protect your life and property. While most people are enjoying relatives and friends during the holidays, the law enforcement officers are working to protect you and your relatives and friends. Abernathy's woman in law enforcement is Miss Nannie Belle Ritchey who spends her nights and holidays answering your calls and sending your requests by radio to law enforcement officers on duty nights and holidays.

RE: West Texas Hospital Auxiliary

Dear Sir:

We have recently formed a hospital auxiliary at West Texas Hospital and are very interested in securing publicity through your paper in Public Service Announcements. We want to solicit new members and would like to know what guidelines and requirements that you have for material submitted to your newspaper.

West Texas Hospital Auxiliary was organized on October 6, 1976. Our services consist of: an information desk; delivering patient mail, flowers from florists, juice to patients, daily newspapers; escort and messengers service; delivering and picking up menus for dietary; offering coffee and tea to all visitors; and assisting the admitting office in registration. We have two daily shifts five days a week: 8:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.; 12:30 p.m.-4:30 p.m. We also have one two-hour shift each Saturday mornings 10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon.

We are very flexible with our volunteers and the days and hours they wish to work. Our weekend volunteers consist of persons who have jobs during the week, but wish to give service on a regular basis.

We would appreciate any information that you have in relation to volunteer directories, etc., so that we may more efficiently contact the average person. If you have any suggestions in reference to how we may proceed in your community, please advise us.

Thank you for your cooperation in this regard.
Sincerely,
Mrs. Jo Johnson

For The Record

Tips On Choosing And Using Your Record Player

To be eligible for warranty service you are sometimes required to fill out and mail a warranty card that is packaged with the equipment. It's a good idea to do this as soon as you unpack the unit. Also, file the sale slip away should proof of the purchase date be required later, say the experts at the Electronic Industries Association.

If there's no power coming in to your stereo unit, before you call the repairman, check to see if your unit is plugged in. If it is, check the fuses in the rear of your receiver. If one has burnt out, it is very inexpensive to replace.

Much of the poor performance in audio equipment is the result of not properly installing and operating the equipment. Before you buy, ask a salesman to familiarize you with the installation requirements and operating instructions. Follow the directions carefully and be sure to save all manuals and operating instructions in case you have a question later on.

Cranberries will keep for 4 to 8 weeks in your refrigerator. Or you can freeze them with no preparation.

Program among top five in U.S.

AUSTIN, Texas (Sp.)—A University of Texas program that trains specialists who deal with problems of reading difficulties is among the top five in the U.S. and Canada, a survey shows.

The graduate reading program of UT's Department of Curriculum and Instruction is known for its pioneering work in bilingual education and for providing personnel who work with the public schools in regard to reading difficulties that may arise from learning disabilities or other reasons.

Master's and doctoral degrees in reading are offered, as is an undergraduate concentration for elementary and secondary education majors.

Year-End Farm Prices Offer Gloomy Prospects

AUSTIN--Year-end farm prices in Texas do not offer much hope for a prosperous 1976.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White made this gloomy summary following the monthly report by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service on agricultural prices. Averages for November 1976 marked the seventh consecutive month of decreases in prices for livestock and products.

All slaughter livestock except sheep declined in prices from those in October with hogs down 70 cents at $31 a hundredweight (cwt.), beef cattle 60 cents lower to $29.50 per cwt., lambs dropping 50 cents to $46.10.

Sheep prices were up 40 cents from October to $13.30.

Baled hay prices have remained steady with the demand high due to the effects of severe weather on pastures.

Grains have continued a downward trend. Current prices for major grains are averaged at $3.31 per cwt. for sorghum and $2.27 for a bushel of corn.

Even with small average reductions in feed prices, none of the market averages for livestock or other commodities (except oats) were above production costs.

"At the same time that farm prices are slumping, the farmer's share of a dollar spent in retail food stores was down to 37.6 cents in October, the lowest level in five years," White said.

"The secret of success is constancy to purpose." Benjamin Disraeli

News From First Methodist Church

Sunday Night Film At Methodist Church

"CORRIE" Behind the Scenes with THE HIDING PLACE, a new full-length color release from World Wide Pictures, will be shown at First United Methodist Church, 704 Ave. D, on Sunday, January 2, 1977. A single showing is scheduled to begin at 6:00 p.m.

THE HIDING PLACE, a true story filmed in Holland and other European locations, is based on the experiences of Corrie ten Boom, who, with her father, sister, and brother, provided refuge for countless Jewish families. A secret room was constructed in their home as a hiding place for use during Gestapo raids. The ten Boom's activities were discovered, and they were sent to prisons and concentration camps.

According to Kenneth Bliss, Director of Distribution for World Wide Pictures, THE HIDING PLACE has been extremely well-received, both by audiences and film critics. "CORRIE" was produced to give people who have seen THE HIDING PLACE or read her many best-selling books an opportunity to hear her share many of her memories about her life in Holland, her family, and her lifetime of service to others.

Parsons Family Holiday Guests

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parsons and Mrs. Clarise Parsons over the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Parsons and family of Hollenberg, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parsons and Dan of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Parsons of Palo Duro Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kent and Glenn of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Rickey Kent of Leveland, Mr. and Mrs. Lupe Ramos and son, Mr. and Mrs. Sabino Gonzales, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Johnson, and a nephew, Gilbert Kent of Austin.

Mrs. Clarise Parsons celebrated her 85th birthday on Monday, Dec. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson and children spent Christmas in the home of her parents in Wichita Falls.

Bliss added that the film "offers a great lesson in the perseverance of a personal faith in a very dark and trying period of world history. Corrie ten Boom, now in her eighties, has a tremendous vitality, a deep spiritual commitment, and a profound love for her fellow man. We believe we have succeeded in transmitting a part of her zest, personality, and source of strength through this film."

Bliss noted that the film includes "interesting side-lights on the experiences of the cast and crew during the filming of THE HIDING PLACE."

The Reverend Al E. Jennings, pastor of Methodist, stresses that the showing of "CORRIE" is open to the public free of charge. "We encourage families to plan to attend together, for what we believe will be a memorable experience," he concluded.

Hale County agricultural statistics noted

By DOUG McDONOUGH
Herald Staff Writer

The market value of all agricultural products sold from the 1,110 farms in Hale County in 1974 totaled $136,124,000, according to a preliminary report of the 1974 Census of Agriculture released this week by the U.S. Department of Commerce. Production expenses for these farms totaled $113,145,000 for the same period.

The figures are for farms qualifying under the definition first used for the 1959 Census of Agriculture: A farm includes all agricultural operations conducted at any time during the census year under the control of an individual management, providing that sales of agricultural products amounted to, or normally would amount to, at least $250 for places of less than 10 acres or $50 for places of 10 acres or more.

Figures for farms with sales of $2,500 or more are shown for 1974 and 1969. These farms accounted for $135,802,000 of all agricultural products sold in 1974 and $56,947,000 in 1969.

THERE WERE 1,003 farms with $2,500 or more in sales in 1974, 1,178 in 1969. The average size increased from 604 to 673 acres during the five years. The value per acre increased from $383 to $463 raising the average value per farm from $231,078 to $311,359.

The market value of livestock and livestock products on farms of $2,500 or more in sales was $67,579,000 in 1974; poultry and poultry products, $2,000; and crop sales, $68,221,000.

Farms reporting less than $1,000 in sales numbered 18 in 1974. The value of agricultural products sold on these farms totaled $7,000.

Hale County listed 576,313 acres of cropland in use in 1974 on 1,056 farms. In 1969, there were 617,026 acres on 1,225 farms. Harvested cropland totaled 468,584 acres on 996 farms, 397,855 acres on 1,197 farms in 1969. Cropland used for pasture amounted to 34,681 acres in 1974, 33,037 in 1969. Acres under irrigation in 1974 dropped to 398,438 on 868 farms. There were 413,673 acres under irrigation on 1,149 Hale County farms in 1969.

THE AVERAGE AGE of the farm operator increased to 49.8 years in 1974 from 48.2 years in 1969. The number of farms with full owner-operators in 1974 were 433, 18 less than 1969. Farms operated by part owners numbered 351, 83 less than five years before. The number of tenant farms also declined with the 1974 report, 326 or 99 less than in 1969.

For farm expenses, the report listed the cost of hired farm labor at $6,213,000, increasing from $4,540,000 in 1969. Oil products cost $4,540,000 in 1969. Oil products cost $4,540,000 in 1969. Oil products cost $4,540,000 in 1969.

Seed and grain corn covered 11,249 acres and yielded 976,867 bushels in 1974; up from 4,968 acres and 266,249 bushels in 1969. Seed and grain milo was planted on 184,307 acres and yielded 13,870,346 bushels in 1974; 170,722 acres and 14,120,792 bushels in 1969.

Wheat was planted on 50,269 acres, yielding 1,123,054 bushels in 1974; 31,514 acres and 1,046,308 bushels in 1969. Soybeans declined from 1,783,694 bushels on 53,377 acres in 1969 to 1,409,833 bushels on 44,767 acres in 1974.

COTTON ACREAGE and yield increased in 1974. There were 99,880 bales from 164,769 acres compared to 87,515 bales from 116,069 acres in 1969. Vegetables were planted on 2,784 acres in 1974, 2,482 acres in 1969.

County Agent Ollie Liner said that the report held up the fact that the 1974 crop yield was better than average. "We had less cropland under production and the market stayed up."

Copies of the report are available through the Subscribers Services Section (publications), Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233, or any Department of Commerce District Office at 25 cents each.

Dorothy Jean Moorhead grew up in the Mountainair area. When she was three years old she became a victim of Polio, before the vaccine was discovered.

She attended the Ewing school and before finishing grammar school, she became completely confined to a wheel chair.

Dorothy (Moorhead) Van Packham

From the Mountainair, New Mexico Newspaper:

Capt. C.W. Barrett commanding officer of the Supply Depart. at the Naval Ship Yard, Long Beach, California inspects award presented to one of his employees, Mrs. Dorothy Jean Packham, which she received from the Mayor of Long Beach honoring her as the Handicapped Employee of the Year of that city.

Dorothy Jean (Moorhead) Van Packham is the niece of Mrs. Oma Toler & Jerry Moorhead & a cousin of the Toler children & Moorhead children. She is the daughter of Mrs. Michael Moorhead & the late Mr. Dick Moorhead of Mountainair, New Mexico.

Realizing her problem, she was determined to overcome any obstacles by getting a good education.

She attended the 8th and 9th grades in Mountainair and the 10, 11, and 12 grades at Estancia High School. Dorothy took a one year course in Teachers Aide which helped her develop a pleasing personality.

In 1969 she enrolled at Browns Business College in Albuquerque and took a clerk-typist course. Even though she could only type with one hand she achieved 35 to 40 words per minute. She had to travel back and forth from Mountainair to attend this class.

On August 15, 1970 she became the bride of Gordon Van Packham. They made their home in Estancia until October of 1972 when they moved to Albuquerque.

Dorothy attended Technical Vocation Institute in Albuquerque and received a diploma in accounting. She also took a course in Data Processing at TVI.

In December of 1975 Dorothy and Gordon moved to Long Beach, California. There, Dorothy took and passed the civil service examinations and was hired by the Supply Department at the Long Beach Naval Shipyard June of this year as a GS-4.

Dorothy grew in popularity and her knowledge and excellent work habits did not go unnoticed. On October 8 she will be advanced two grades above her present rating.

On October 1 she received the award of "Handicapped Employee of the Year", by the city of Long Beach. The Honorable Thomas J. Clark, Mayor of the city of Long Beach presented the award to Dorothy.

National employ the handicap week is the first full week in October. It is the major annual event focusing on the job and training needs of the handicapped and highlighting the potential of the disabled worker.

Dorothy saw her needs early and through determination and self-discipline received an education, developed confidence, good working habits, and a pleasing personality, thus enabling her to become a very self sufficient person, deserving of this honor.

Dorothy was also honored here in New Mexico, when she was 2nd runner-up in the 1975 Miss New Mexico Wheel Chair Handicap Contest.

Don't Ignore Treatment for Shock

SHOCK. The very word tends to set the adrenalin moving. However, to the victim of shock it means exactly the opposite - a depressed condition of many vital bodily functions which can threaten life even though prior injuries would not otherwise be fatal.

The theme keeps recurring in first aid training regardless of the accident: treat for shock, treat for shock.

Shock may be caused by a wide range of incidents: severe injuries, hemorrhage, loss of other body fluids, infection, heart attack, stroke, poisoning, lack of oxygen. It's referred to as traumatic shock as opposed to electrical or insulin shock. It is aggravated by pain, rough handling and delay in treatment.

In the early stages of shock, the body compensates for a decreased blood flow to the vital organs by constricting blood vessels in the skin, soft tissues and skeletal muscles. As a result, the victim's skin can be pale and cold to the touch; skin may be moist and clammy if perspiration has occurred; the victim is weak; pulse is rapid; rate of breathing is increased - possibly shallow and irregular; the victim may be nauseated.

Immediate first aid is necessary to eliminate the cause of shock - bleeding, severe pain, stoppage of breathing. To treat for shock, keep the victim lying down, cover only enough to keep him or her from losing body heat and get medical help as quickly as possible.

Victims in shock may improve if their feet are elevated 8-to-12 inches, but if there is breathing difficulty and increased pain, feet should be lowered. They should not be elevated if the person has a head injury, and victims should never be moved if neck or lower spine injuries are suspected.

If the accident victim is exposed to cold and dampness, additional clothing and blankets should be placed over and under the person. Extra heat should not be administered.

There are many shock treatment situations that have not been covered in this article and can only receive proper emphasis in first aid classes. In rural areas where immediate emergency treatment by professionals often is delayed by distance and other factors, dealers should consider training for one or two key employees. The expense is minimal - normally the cost of the first aid paperback book.

PREVENT BURGLARIES

help test

Would You Know What To Do?

Score 400-500 points . . . You should be teaching your neighbors.
 Yourself 300-400 points . . . Read your Neighborhood Watch material.
 200-300 points . . . Ask your law enforcement agency for help.
 0-100 points . . . Go home. You've probably been robbed.

Safeguard Your Property Against Burglary

Is yours an open house? Safeguard your property against these major invitations to burglars.

Locks—Your first line of defense. Locks are only good if you use them. Inexpensive locks are relatively useless. Keep your doors locked. Keep control of your keys.

Exterior Doors—Main entry—never admit anyone unless you know them. A simple wide angle viewer helps to identify any visitors. Mail slots should be hooded to prevent undesired visibility into the room. Check hinges, door snugness and strike. Every exterior door should be solidcore construction. Door chains can be snapped or cut. Check with your local law enforcement agency for additional security hints regarding exterior doors to provide maximum door security.

Lawn Care—A very effective clue that someone is at home and cares.

Walks and Driveways—Should be kept free from offering concealment to intruders and other criminals.

Gates and Fences—While possibly offering concealment to criminals, gates and fences properly used can also increase the difficulty of breaking in.

Windows—Windows must be securely latched. There are three basic types of windows. Double Hung Windows are the most common. Most double hung windows use sash locks, which do not lock, but merely engage. These may stop a child but will not deter a highly motivated felon. Supplemental keyed locks are inexpensive and easily installed and offer freedom of operation and maximum security.

Casement Windows—Are generally considered the easiest to secure. Simple removal of the crank after opening the window a few inches will deter most burglars.

French Windows—Can generally be treated like doors and fitted with appropriate locks.

Basement or Garage Windows—Should be nailed shut if not equipped, if needed for ventilation they can be secured by good locks.

Locks—Your first line of defense, locks are only good if properly installed. Inexpensive locks are relatively ineffective. Keep your doors and windows locked. Keep track of your keys.

Check & USE Your 1st Line of Security . . . LOCKS

Cylinder Deadlocks (Deadbolts)

Single Deadlock

All outside entrance doors should have a one inch deadlock or deadbolt. The bolt may be operated from inside by the thumb turn or from the outside with a key. If there is glass within 40 inches of the lock, a double cylinder, one inch deadlock is recommended. It must be operated by a key from either side. Special care must be taken to allow for emergency exit. Occupants must have access to keys.

Double Deadlock

Key in the Knob Locks/Case Hardened Padlocks

Key in the knob locks are most frequently used yet are least secure. There are two types with a trigger bolt (dead-latch); these are more secure than locks without this feature. Generally, these types of locks can be forced, by breaking off the knob portion which can be jimmied or shimmed because of the short length of latch. These locks can be effectively supplemented by the additional use of a deadbolt.

Your garage door should be secured with a good, case hardened padlock, on which both ends of the shackle engage.

Sliding Glass Doors

Two Back Up Methods

A sliding glass door is lifted into position when installed and, therefore, must be lifted from the track to be removed. To prevent this, it is recommended that 1/4 inch pan head (large head) sheet metal screws be inserted into the top of the door frame at both ends and the middle. These screws should be adjusted so that the door barely clears them when it is operated.

The best lock for a sliding glass door is a deadlock, which utilizes a bored pin tumbler cylinder and is operable by a key from the outside. The lock bolt should engage the strike sufficiently so that it will not be disengaged by any amount of movement.

THE PURPOSE OF SECURING A SLIDING DOOR IS TO KEEP IT FROM SLIDING OR BEING PRIED UP AND OUT OF THE TRACK

Farm Bureau Policy

FORT WORTH — Carol Chaloupka, Dalhart feed grain and cattle producer, was re-elected president of the 13,000-member Texas Farm Bureau at the conclusion of the organization's four-day meeting here Dec. 8.

Following adjournment of the convention, the TFB Board of Directors met and named Henry Burton, Lubbock ag producer, as vice president; and re-elected Reed Lang of Rio Hondo, grain, cotton and citrus producer, as secretary-treasurer.

Three new directors were elected by voting delegates, replacing three men who were ineligible for re-election due to a six-year limitation rule.

They are Calvin Rueter of Clifton, replacing John A. Smith of Cameron; Vester Smith of Loop, replacing Bill R. Reid of Lamesa; and J. R. (Bubba) Day of Uvalde, succeeding R. A. Fasel of Hondo.

During the final two days of the convention, the 1,000 voting delegates from 160 counties adopted state policies to guide the TFB next year, and also approved recommendations on national issues. The latter are being forwarded to the American Farm Bureau Federation for consideration at its annual meeting Jan. 9-11 in Honolulu.

TFB took a stand in support of the effort to increase the "dollar a bale" cotton promotion and research program. The referendum on the cotton check-off will be conducted by mail Dec. 13-17. Delegates also took a new position on Burcellosis control which calls for a strong emphasis on voluntary calf-hood vaccination and an adult vaccination program for problem quarantined herds.

In other state-level policy matters, delegates: — Favored the use of the state sales tax to finance public education in lieu of ad valorem taxes.

— Asked for a well-headed tax on Texas-produced gas and oil to be used to lower school taxes.

— Opposed labor organizers having access to individual farms for the purpose of organizing farm workers. They also opposed picketing or demonstrating on private property.

— Asked that jurisdiction over natural gas be taken from the Railroad Commission and transferred to the Texas Utilities Commission. In the matter of national recommendations, delegates:

— Said top priority should be given to agriculture on all sources of energy.

— Opposed divestiture of any industry.

— Called target prices in farm programs unsound, but said "in the presence of a target price program, the target price should be increased on all crops to a level which would cover the current cost of production ..."

— Said farmers and ranchers should be exempt from certification requirements for private use of agricultural chemicals.

— Opposed export embargoes on any agricultural commodity except for national defense purposes.

— Asked the Federal government to enforce present laws relating to countervailing duties on agricultural imports.

— Wanted the Secretary of Agriculture to have veto power over any EPA regulations pertaining to agriculture.

— Favored making cheating on welfare a felony offense.

— Said we should "discontinue all allotments and subsidies." The latter was approved overwhelmingly by the delegates after an impassioned speech by Joe Franz of Fredericksburg.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A young fellow boasted, "My wife inherited her beauty." "How's that?" asked a friend. "Her uncle died," he explained, "and left her a drug store."

But the Bible speaks of a beauty that does not come from cosmetics, but Christ. Psalm 149:4 guarantees, "He will beautify the meek with salvation."

He takes a dirty heart and makes it white. "Wash me," cried the Psalmist, "and I shall be whiter than snow." Salvation goes to the heart of the person. It does not whiten-wash, but washes white.

He takes a disturbed soul and makes it peaceful. So many today are uptight. But no one need be tense. There is a cure. It is not found in a pill, but a Person. Every pill in every drugstore will not cure the tension as Christ. He says, "My peace I give unto you."

He takes a drab life and makes it radiant. "He freed me from all my fears," testified the Psalmist. "Others too were radiant at what He did for them." Christianity is not something that is stuffy. It brings adventure, a hope, a joy that is life-transforming and meaningful!

Here is a beauty treatment that is free and permanent. Why not try it?
