Thanksgiving Prayer

We thank Thee, O God, for all Thy blessings in creation, for the beauty of the earth and sea and sky, for thy manifold works and the wisdom with which Thou has made them all.

We thank Thee for the happiness of our earthly life, for the powers of mind and body and spirit, and for the joy of loving and being loved by faithful friends. We thank Thee for the revelation of Thy love and the blessings brought to us by Thy Holy Church and for our fellowship with Thee in Christ. We pray that it may please Thee, our Father, to solace all who have lost those whom they must have loved, to strengthen and encourage all those who find it hard and difficult to be thankful and praise Thy name; that it may please thee to inspire all of us who are seeking to improve our lives for Thee. We humbly beseech Thee, our Father, to direct the President of the United States and all who bear with him the responsibility of our nation. Please direct the minds and give visions of truth and justice to man as abides with his brother. We pray that the Church may serve Thee in unity and peace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Rev. Tommie T. Beck, Pastor First United Methodist Church, Abernathy, Texas.

Lutrick Proposes School-Stock Show Facility, Webb Proposes Jr. High Advanced Study Program

(By Jacquelyn Smyers)

Harvey Lutrick proposed to Abernathy School Board, at its November 6 meeting that a building be constructed on school property to house the annual Abernathy Stock Show and be used for school activities the rest of the year. Lutrick is a member of the stock show association. He referred to an earlier community meeting which several board members and school officials attended, at which the need for community meeting places was discussed. The consensus then was that a building suitable for the stock show would not be suitable for other community meetings. The needs seemed to indicate two separate facilities. Abernathy City Council recently appointed a committee to study and propose a building to be used by all community groups. Lutrick suggested that the school board might want to do the same.

The stock show association is thinking of a combination physical education/stock show complex including show arena, grooming area, basketball courts, etc. He said he could think of 25 uses for the facility including 4-H, agriculture related meetings, Young Farmers, Scouts, Little Dribblers, and P.E. classes. It was pointed out later though that school policy prohibits certain activities and irregular use of school facilities by non-school groups.

When a stock show/ag complex was mentioned, Lutrick said he thought a facility would be used more days as a stock show/athletic complex than as a show/ag complex. He said he doesn't favor a building that won't be used. If the school takes over, a bond election will be called so the taxpayers who foot the bill can support or vote against the project.

Don McKenzie said the stock show group considered taking donations for a show building alone but people backed off when the sixty or seventy thousand dollar price was mentioned. Lutrick said he thinks they could do it but that would be only the beginning. The stock show lasts four or five days, yet the building would have to be maintained the rest of the year. That's why they hoped the school would do it.

Jerry Oswalt suggested a citizens advisory committee be appointed, perhaps from the list of those present at the earlier meeting about the stock show facility. He thought it represented a good cross section of the community. Dan Fondy said the board needs to define a goal and choose a committee with the goal in mind. He suggested that the committee map out a proposal, with drawings or plans, to submit to the board. Board President Billie Harrison thought some school personnel should be appointed also to represent school needs. Lutrick was asked to head the committee.

In discussion about financing, School Superintendent Dr. Delwin Webb said the school district is in a good position to do whatever the board and community want to do. He said they have to plan with inflation in mind because, if a project is to be undertaken, every day of delay raises the cost.

EXPERIMENTAL PROGRAM

There was much discussion and some disagreement about Dr. Webb's proposal of an advanced study program for 8th grade students who are far ahead of their grade level in language arts ability. Seven or ten of the 68 students in 8th grade will qualify. They will study short stories, plays, and other literature, write, produce, and film a production of their own.

Dr. Webb said they will miss nothing by being out of the regular reading class because they already read at 11th grade level. Parents will be consulted about the program before qualified students are asked to join the special study.

No grades will be given in the course. Students will instruct themselves (within limits) at their own pace to reach a pre-set goal. Webb said some may be too immature for this type of study and some may not want to participate. He said it's experimental but is an attempt to challenge them in reading, writing, and vocabulary and to offer them the opportunity to move on a little faster than they are usually able to.

He thinks it will work but said success will depend on the students. Staff members had discussed moving advanced students up to high school courses. That however, defeats the purpose unless something extra is added to the high school curriculum later on.

Don McKenzie expressed concern about instituting another new program when we have high school kids doing third grade work. He said the school has many experiments going already and feels it needs to get back to the basics of reading, writing, and arithmetic. Another new program, he felt, would take teachers away from basic classes. He also thinks it's rather late in the year to start a new program.

Webb pointed out that reading is basic and that Abernathy is one of very few schools that teaches reading through 8th grade. He said Abernathy gives 1 1/4 more times than the state requires on language arts but they still miss and continue to miss some kids. The suggested program is a start toward enriching a small group.

He said below grade level students have half a day of special education to give them extra help but the school is required to put them in regular classes the other half. That's why high school classes have students who do below grade level work.

McKenzie asked about Abernathy's former system of fast, slow, and average classes. Webb said that works when you have lots of kids and lots of teachers but not when numbers are limited. He also said the program won't take a teacher from another class.

He cited a state study which indicates that each family's reading and TV habits and homework requirements make the difference in whether students do slow, average, or advanced work. Students from families which subscribe to a daily newspaper and three magazines, require five hours of homework, and watch no TV score higher than others. Those who watch only two hours of TV daily score in the upper 25%. Those who watch five hours daily barely managed the test.

Dan Fondy recommended that they table the matter so board members could study the program, then make a decision. He thought it would be a mistake to rush it and wish later they had taken longer. Harrison pointed out that the advanced program is set up on a time table beginning right away.

David Pinson said he thought it was OK to

Becky Albers Selected 1979 Queen Of American Association Of Sheriff's Posses And Riding Clubs

Becky Albers of Abernathy was recently selected 1979 Queen of the American Association of Sheriff's Posses and Riding Clubs at its Silver Jubilee Convention in Ft. Worth. Becky is a member of the Abernathy Riding Club, District I, Region I.

The A. A. S. P. & R. C. is divided into seven regions that cover the Southwest. Each region has one princess competing for queen. They are judged at five separate association events throughout the year to be announced at the National Convention meeting each November.

As queen, Becky will be traveling to all the regions to participate in parades, play day games and club meetings. Different clubs of the A. A. S. P. & R. C. have specialized interests. Our own Abernathy Riding Club enjoys riding in area parades and grand entries at rodeos. Other activities that clubs over the area are active in Pony Express races, Drill Teams, Six man relay races, and Play Day games. Play Day games include Clover-leaf barrel races, straight away barrel races, poles, potato races, flags and flying W's.

Clubs compete at District level and then send their winners on to National Competition at the A. A. S. P. & R. C. home arenas at Bowie, Texas. Membership is available to anyone. Information is available through Mr. Weldon Garrett, area 806-745-5819; or by writing the American Association of Sheriff's Posses and Riding Clubs at their home office at 3220 Worth Freeway, Suite 122, Ft. Worth, Texas 76111. The A. A. S. P. & R. C. motto is Sportsmanship, Horsemanship and Citizenship. Organization's wish to have Becky present at their events may send her an invitation to the Association office at Ft. Worth or write her at Box 516, Abernathy, Texas 79311.

Becky's first official function was Nov. 18 at District Five Awards banquet in San Angelo. A. A. S. P. & R. C. President Bill Jetter of Lewisville was there with her to welcome the new officers of the District.

Becky had an exciting afternoon at Teddy's Boot & Saddle Shop choosing the new boots and saddle with tack that Teddy's and the association present to each new queen. They should be ready by the time the association's two horse trailer with Becky's name and hometown on it is ready to roll.

A 1978 graduate of Abernathy High School, she is the daughter of Mrs. Betty Albers.

News & Comments

By Buford F. Davenport

NGC--State Comptroller Bob Bullock's office in Austin reports that the check for Abernathy's city sales tax for the monthly period ending Oct. 26, 1978, was for $2,327.40. This brings Abernathy's total to that date for the year of 1978 to $34,652.60.

NGC--With this Nov. 23, 1978, issue, The Abernathy Weekly Review begins its 58th year of service to the residents of South Hale County and North Lubbock County. Thanks to our loyal subscribers and advertisers for 57 good years. And, thanks to those who cooperate by tuning in the news to The Abernathy Weekly Review.

NGC--Jan Hill is planning an Open House at her Abernathy Floral, 1312 Ave. D, Sunday, Dec. 3, from 1 p. m. until 4 p. m. Door prize will be given.

NGC--I have to cope with four women staffers and one who holds the title of an ex-officio staffer. One of them must have put this on my desk: "That difficult age has come and lit you're too old to work and too poor to quit." I, along with The Review, have a birthday this month, too.

NGC--The Lon Lincecum will observe their Golden Wedding Anniversary next month. Their photo and story will be in The Review. Others having 50th Wedding Anniversaries coming up are invited to turn their pictures and stories in so we can publish them on Thursday before the observance.

NGC--L. G. Deering caught the U. S. Weatherman at Lubbock off guard with this question: "How many 'traces' does it take to make an inch of rain?" The weatherman makes frequent calls to the Deering home to obtain temperature and precipitation reports from Mrs. Deering, Abernathy's official weatherlady.

NGC--Abernathy's Mall, Struve Dry Goods, Hoppy's Shop, Shoes & Men's Clothing, Struve Hardware and Newton Radio & TV, four stores on the north side of Main Street in Abernathy with openings in between so customers can go from one to the other without getting out in the weather, are having sales and open house Friday, Nov. 24, lasting until 9 p. m. See Newton's, Hoppy's and Struve Dry Goods' advertisements in this issue of The Review.

NGC--"Garage Sales" are commonplace now. The first that I remember was staged by the Rev. James I. O'Neill in the late 1940s or early 1950s. I bought a Remington typewriter from him.

NGC--The number of roaming dogs is on the increase again in Abernathy. Also increasing is the number of vicious-looking German shepherds running loose over town. There's an outbreak of rabies of dog and racoons in Georgia and Alabama, according to reports on the national news.

NGC--Country weekly newspaper usually are happy to get a new subscriber. There's one we do not want. She is the self-proclaimed atheist gal in Austin that spends her time bringing lawsuits to keep intact the "separation of church and state" concept. If Abernathy School Board gives Abernathy First Baptist Church permission to hold worship services in the school auditorium for several months, she might throw a shoe and haul the case into court. However, I doubt that she will hear about the arrangement. (See Jacquelyn Smyers' school board meeting story elsewhere in this paper.) (Note to our Austin subscribers: destroy this issue of The Review immediately after reading it.)

NGC--Congratulations to the New Deal Lions, head coach B. J. Smith and members of his staff for winning the District 4-A football Championship. Good luck in the play-off games.

The New Deal Lions share the 4-A championship with Hale Center. Floydada is co-champions with Idalou in 4-AA.

NGC--And, congratulations to the AHS Antelope, Coach Larry Aldridge and his staff. We didn't win district, but we had an interesting football season. The Antelopes were the only team that beat Idalou this season. We wish Idalou good luck as the Wildcats go into the play-off games. Idalou tied Floydada to share the 4-AA District Championship, but the Wildcats will represent 4-AA because they beat the Whirlwind earlier in the season. Abernathy, now that we have beaten Idalou, can direct its support to the Wildcats. An AHS graduate and former Antelope football standout player currently is coach of the Idalou Wildcats. He is Tom Ritchey, a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Abernathy.

NGC--It was moving time last weekend for the Federal Aviation Administration personnel and property at Lubbock International Airport. FAA people and property have been divided between the old terminal building and the new tower north of the new terminal. Airport traffic controllers have been operating in the cab, the glassed-in area atop the new tower, but some personnel and equipment had been in the old terminal. Offices, radar, electronics and other equipment and FAA personnel now are in the new tower.

NGC--Boring news: the Cullen Davis trial in Houston; the Israel/Egypt/Carter show; the Kennedy/Martin Luther King investigations; Tax Reforms/Reductions. There's no way taxes will be reformed to take the principal burden off the backs of white collar and blue collar workers. And, there's no way that anyone will realize any real relief through so-called tax reductions. Taxing agencies, from city to federal, are going to get your money one way or the other.

NGC--U. S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas, who voted to give away the Panama Canal, may have lost some sleep since the Nov. 7 elections. Some U. S. Senators who voted as he did were defeated. Texans flooded Bentsen's office with pleas for him to vote against the Panama Canal issue. He ignored them. Texas voters may ignore him if he seeks reelection.

Betty Martin's Father Dies

LEVELLAND---Services for O. U. Connally, 55, of Levelland were held Nov. 15 in First Methodist Church with the Rev. Prentiss McGee, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating, and the Rev. Weldon McCormick, pastor of First Methodist Church, assisting.

Connally died at 10:30 p. m. Monday, Nov. 13, in West Texas Hospital at Lubbock after a long illness.

Rites Held For James A. Bruce

Word was received here that former Abernathian James A. Bruce died in Gallup, New Mexico sometime Saturday. It was reported that his mother, Mrs. Fannie Bruce and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Robinson were called to come to Gallup on Friday.

All that The Review knew was that funeral services were to be held Monday, November 20. We will try to have more information next week.

Lisandro Olivares Earns Promotion

November 15---Marine Staff Sergeant Lisandro Olivares, son of Joe and Mary Olivares of 1008 Jerome St., Abernathy, Tex., has been promoted to his present rank while serving with 3rd Force Service Support Group, on Okinawa.

He joined the Marine Corps in December 1972.

Monochromatic color schemes--one hue in different values and intensities--are easier to live with in a bedroom than different colors on walls, ceilings and floors, points out Sue Young, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Fort Worth Show Set For 1/24-2/4

FORT WORTH (SpI)---Judges for the 1979 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show has been announced by W. R. Watt, Jr., President-Manager. The 83rd Stock Show is scheduled Jan. 24 through Feb. 4 on Amon Carter Square in the West Side of Fort Worth.

Premium Lists for the internationally known exposition are available at the show office or by writing P. O. Box 150, Fort Worth, Texas 76101.

MORE CATTLE FEEDING COULD WEAKEN PRICES--

With the number of cattle on feed in the major feeding states up 16 percent on Oct. 1, marketing could increase sharply during the remainder of the year. This would boost beef supplies and put pressure on cattle prices. Feedlots expect to market about 6.6 million head of cattle during the October-December quarter of this year, a 9 percent increase from a year ago. Fedcattle prices will likely decline but should not fall much below the high $40 per hundredweight level. However, this could lead to feedlot losses due to high breakeven costs, points out a livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

approve the program since it is only a pilot and for a small group. Since the kids are already advanced, he didn't think it would damage them. The board, with the exception of McKenzie, voted to approve the program.

Jerry Oswalt said he thinks the program is a step in the right direction and that he has confidence that those who designed it will be the first to stop it if it doesn't work. Webb said, "It's easier to follow the textbook, teach everyone the same, and let the chips fall where they may. But people have special needs and need special programs to fill them."

McKenzie asked for an outline of teachers' schedules and workloads at the next meeting. Fondy asked Dr. Webb to bring all curriculum changes to the board, whether new things are started or something dropped, to keep them advised of what goes on.

CHURCH REQUEST

The board considered a letter from First Baptist Church asking to use the school auditorium for Sunday worship services while the church is in a construction program. The project will begin in January and last about eight months. The church expects to make whatever financial arrangements the board requires.

The board voted to allow the church to use the auditorium and asked Dr. Webb to study utility costs and custodial expense and recommend a fee to charge.

The board's new policy book establishes a fee for building use but no specific amount has as yet been set. They will consider the amount next meeting.

TEACHERS & TEXTBOOKS

The board added Mae Johnston and Sharon Kester to the school faculty. Mrs. Johnston will teach in the special education program and Mrs. Kester will teach Title I high school remedial reading and math.

It also approved a committee of 15 staff and faculty members to choose new textbooks for Abernathy schools. The state updates or replaces textbooks every six years. Schools choose those they want to use from an approved list.

The following people will serve on the committee because they teach subjects on which new books will be adopted: Gail Stanton, Mary Rose Bowen, Marilyn Ater, Hugh Smith, Carol Cox, Bitsy Aldridge, Malena Gough, Barbara Webb, Wanda LeMoine, Tressa Beasley and Georgia Bartlett.

Delwin Webb, Frank Bartlett, Gid Adkisson, and Mitch LeMoine will also serve.

PLAY TICKETS

Upon recommendation of sponsors of the senior class, the board approved an increase in prices of admission tickets to senior and junior class plays. The move leaves the price of matinee tickets at 50¢ but boosts evening performance tickets to $2 for both adults and students instead of $1.50 for adults and $1 for students as in the past.

Senior class sponsor Floyd Galloway said the senior play proceeds finance the annual senior class trip to Six Flags but, with increased prices of transportation and tickets to the amusement park, the classes run the risk of short funds. He said the students are given a quota of play tickets to sell and those who do not meet the quota must make up the difference from their own

Postal Services Regulations Effective In 1979

Implementation of new minimum-size mail standards will take place next March or April, the U. S. Postal Service said today.

The same effective date will be used to implement a surcharge for oversized mail -- a matter now pending before the Postal Rate Commission.

The Postal Service's Board of Governors established the timetable for the common implementation date at its regular monthly meeting today in Washington. The Postal Service had previously stated that the minimum-size standard would become effective "not before Nov. 30, 1978."

The Board decided, at the recommendation of the Postmaster General William F. Bolger, to defer the minimum-size standards to avoid any unnecessary complication during the Christmas mailing season and to allow major mailers to final opportunity to prepare for the change.

Rather than have separate implementation dates occurring around the same time for the minimum-size standard and the oversize surcharge, the Board decided to consolidate the actions.

Currently, the independent Postal Rate Commission is considering the Postal Service's proposal for a 13-cent surcharge for oversized mail and has until February 25 to act on it. Assuming PRC action around that date, the Board of Governors would consider setting the specific implementation date at its March meeting.

The Commission approved the minimum-size

Special 4-H Film Showing Is Scheduled

Hale County 4-H's belonging to the Plainview, Petersburg, Cotton Center, Hale Center, and Halfway Clubs are having the chance to see an excellent motivational film this month. Anyone who views "John Baker's Last Race" will not leave unmoved, states Mrs. Naomi Wheeler, Assistant County Extension Agent.

The film, supplied by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, focuses on the true life story of a young, gifted Olympic hopeful miler, John Baker of Albuquerque, New Mexico, who at the peak of his running career learns that he is dying of cancer. The film relates the last 18 months of Baker's life. What he accomplished from May 1969 to November 1970 is a shining example of courage, turning bitter tragedy into a legacy of hope.

4-H members viewing the film have had such comment as "an example of strength I'll never forget" and "I hope I can be like him."

"John Baker's Last Race" will be shown in Hale Center 7:30 p. m. at the Junior High Cafeteria on November 20, and the Co-Op in Halfway on November 21 at 7:30 p. m. The Edmondson and Abernathy Clubs will be seeing the film in February. Visitors are always invited to all 4-H Club meetings and activities and this film is too good to miss.

4-H offers many good things for today's youth, and the first step to getting involved is to contact the County Extension Office at 6th and Ash or call 296-7466.

Land Swap Proposal, Glider Problem Again Demand Council's Attention

By Jacquelyn Smyers

Discussions about Abernathy Airport and the Lakeview Addition land swap took most of the city council's time Monday night, November 13. All councilmen were present.

City Manager Larry Fields reported that a scout for Hunt Oil Co. asked if the city would consider leasing oil rights on Abernathy Airport land for $50 per acre. The council authorized Fields to agree to the lease should the company representative contact him again and to advertise for bids on leases to land at the airport and at the city sewer farm. The city leased rights to Amoco in 1971.

Max Crowell, of Crowell Aviation, came to discuss recent glider operations at the airport. He leases Abernathy Airport facilities and has put in a lot of hard work improving them. The day the glider operation began, said Crowell, the airport was very busy with powered aircraft traffic. When the glider showed up, the other aircraft cleared out immediately. He thinks it hurt his business.

Councilmen were concerned because they like what Crowell is trying to do to the airport and want to protect his efforts as much as they can. They cannot, however, grant him an exclusive franchise to operate.

Crowell and Fields reported on talks with Federal Aviation Administration officials and people at other airports from which the glider had operated. One airport made the glider operation leave because of several mishaps involving student pilots. Councilman Harold Thompson said glider flying is sport flying and in the same class as parachuting. It doesn't appear to mix well with business flying. They discuss safety factors, mentioning the vehicles on runways necessary to launch gliders and lack of communication with other planes and the airport. This glider has no radio.

The council instructed Fields and Crowell to talk to other sources and get concrete objections on which to base their position. Someone mentioned that some glider operators even lease turnarounds from which to launch their aircraft.

LAND SWAP

The council considered again land developer Jackie Barton's land swap proposal. At its last meeting, the council approved the final plat of Barton's Lakeview Addition, including an acre of land in the northwest corner which belongs to the city. The city's main sewer lift station is located on city property near the southeast corner of Barton's development. Barton proposed that he trade some of his land around the lift station for the city's acre in the northwest corner of his addition. The city, however, must advertise for bids even on a swap and there is some concern about what would happen if several bids were submitted.

The main question is whether or not the city needs land around the station for future expansion. The council feels it would not be right to trade the northwest acre for property it doesn't need. The northwest acre will be more and more valuable as Lakeview Addition develops and could be profitably sold. On the other hand, the city owes Barton some consideration because his development is increasing the property's value. He is also cooperating with the city in developing his addition a section at a time instead of all at once which would be very expensive for the city.

The council thought it might take quite a bit of land in the "lake bottom" area to equal the value of the acre in the northwest corner and they aren't sure the city needs or even wants that much. Another problem is that a lift station overflow pipe is located on Barton property and will have to be moved if the city doesn't trade. Fields said that doesn't matter because the station has experienced mechanical trouble only a couple of times and there's nowhere for the overflow to go but the lake.

Councilman Jerry Givens expressed concern about that and future EPA and state health regulations. Fields said the city would be liable if it were negligent or had planned the overflow.

That is not the case so any overflow will be an "act of God" type thing. The council wondered if Barton or future owners of the lake bottom could claim damages for overflow. Barton said he wouldn't unless it happened often.

Barton said he isn't asking for any favors from the city--only consideration. He said he will have less success with the southeast part of his development because of the lift station. It was pointed out, however, that the lift station was there when he planned his development. Both he and the council are concerned about what could happen should someone else buy the city's northwest acre. They could upset Barton's overall plan.

Givens was still concerned about the possible overflow and city liability. He felt the city should consult its engineer about the situation. Other councilmen felt the engineer is the only one who can decide whether or not the city will ever need land around the lift station. They agreed that should be done before they take any action.

OBJECTIONABLE PUBLICATIONS

Fields told the council that a citizen complained about local display of publications not generally considered suitable for viewing by all ages. Fields said he saw the material and agrees with the citizen and local pastor who contacted him.

He said the city has no ordinance against objectionable publications but might need to consider passing one. Ordinances must be able to stand up in court though, and state laws governing pornography are quite vague. Councilmen said local businessmen usually police the material themselves. However, local employees of stores that are not locally owned have no say about their products and displays.

They decided to contact top officials of the company and give them the chance to cooperate voluntarily with prevailing community opinion before taking more forceful action.

ALARM SYSTEM

Several local businesses have alarm systems hooked up to City Hall and the police department. A Lubbock company installed the line without city permission and with some damage to city property. The businesses served by the system like it very much and Abernathy Police Chief Clyde Vandygriff says it makes the police department's job much easier.

City Manager Fields thinks the council needs to form some sort of policy about alarm systems. The present line can handle only so many businesses. A private residence recently inquired about the service. Should more want to install the system, it could become necessary for the city to hire extra personnel to monitor it.

He wanted the council to be aware of what's going on. He doesn't think it's fair for the alarm company to make money from businessmen for a system that the city has to operate for free.

FARM-CITY WEEK OBSERVANCE SET NOVEMBER 17-23

(From Last Week)

COLLEGE STATION--- Agriculture is one of the most efficient and productive industries in the United States. Thanks to that fact, Americans continue to enjoy a bountiful food supply at reasonable prices. The contribution of agriculture and its role in the total economy of Texas and the nation should be recognized during Farm-City Week Nov. 17-23, contends Dr. Carl Anderson, marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Farm-City Week, sponsored annually by the National Farm-City Council, Inc. and Kiwanis International, is designed to promote better understanding between farm and city residents.

"Americans should be thankful for a strong and efficient agricultural industry, one in which output per manhour of farm work has increased 30 percent from 1970 to 1976. At the same time output per manhour for non-farm business rose about 10 percent. Along with the increased output, crop and livestock production rose 16 percent during those six years," points out Anderson.

"Our nation's farmers account for only 3.6 percent of the total population--a far cry from the Soviet Union, for example, where one-third of the people are engaged in farming," notes the economist. "With most Americans freed from producing food, they can devote their efforts to producing goods and providing services."

ROUTINE

The council authorized Fields to take bids for city oil and gas supplies and for insurance and to buy a camera for the city building inspector to use. He suggested several dates for the annual city employees Christmas party.

that enhance the overall standard of living."

Americans reap the benefits of our efficient agricultural industry as they typically spend only about 17 percent of their disposable incomes for food. This reflects a decrease of 15 percent in 15 years. During the same period, per capita food consumption increased 10 percent. While food costs have risen some in recent years due to increased marketing, processing and related costs, the actual farm value of food costs amounts to only 40 cents of every food dollar.

"Agriculture also carries the load as far as our foreign trade is concerned," emphasizes Anderson. "It is the only sector of the U.S. economy with a trade surplus, which should total about $13 billion for 1977-78. This surplus has been a tremendous factor in offsetting the huge trade deficit brought on by imported oil costs."

In Texas agriculture is a mainstay of the state's economy. The total agribusiness industry is expected to add some $30 billion to the economic activity of Texas in 1978. This is based on cash receipts of farm and ranch marketings of about $8 billion and the result of a 3.7 multiplier effect. Further depicting the immensity of Texas agriculture is the fact that the value of farm assets--land, buildings, livestock, machinery, crops and related inventory--totals more than $50 billion.

"While agriculture is strong and vibrant both in Texas and the U.S., farm folks must depend on their urban neighbors to consume their products while at the same time needing products and services provided by people in the city. This makes it all the more important that both farm and city people understand and recognize the contributions of each to a unified and prosperous America," contends Anderson.

HUNTER INFLUENCES DEER MEAT QUALITY-The quality of venison the hunter brings home is determined to a large extent by how he handles the deer carcass, says a wildlife specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. To begin, select a female deer if possible as the meat will have a less intense flavor. Place the shot in the neck or head to insure a clean, rapid kill. Field dress the animal as soon as possible. Leaving the skin on the carcass helps conserve moisture. Hanging the carcass in a locker for about a week before final processing provides for a more intense flavor.

READ and USE WANT ADS REGULARLY

Profiles and Things

by don watkins

As this introduction to Profiles and Things is being read locally, there are 15 other area papers carrying the same column. In two weeks time, this column has sold to 18 publishers in the Panhandle area. The reason for what seems to be a mathematical error is because it was already being published in two papers. The kind word of praise from readers of the initial publications gave the writer the necessary courage to "venture" out.

And by way of further introduction, let me quickly say that further columns will hopefully be more readable to the public. Nothing is more tedious than reading insipid introductions about unknown personalities. Thus, to give some insight as to the author of this column, he has been a teacher and coach for 20 some odd years. During those years, he has written news stories, feature stories, and columns for the local papers within the communities where he was teaching.

In 1967, his column, then titled "Potpourri," was fortunate in winning second in the Panhandle Press Association's annual contest, coming in a far second to H. M. Baggarly of the Tulsa Herald. But then, who hasn't?

Since that time, the writer of Profiles and Things has had articles published in the Ft. Worth Star, the Daily Oklahoman, the Lubbock Avalanche Journal and the Amarillo Globe News as well as metropolitan publications outside the state. He's had some small articles printed in state magazines, and he has also thrown myriads of his own inept pages in his trash cans.

There is so much more that could be said but time and space does not permit. Thus, this columnist would like to conclude this introduction with a special word of thanks to the publishers, both present and future, that have shown and will show, their confidence in him. And to the readers, he asks that they please bear with this initial column in their own local papers. Hopefully, the ones to come will be far more entertaining and on lightning.

TEL Class Meets With Mrs. Slater

The T. E. L. Sunday school class of First Baptist Church met with Mrs. A. L. Slater Friday afternoon. Mrs. Forest Sageser had charge of the meeting. Mrs. Grimsley led us in prayer. Then we discussed our Christmas meeting to be held on December 10 in the home of Mrs. J. A. Bruce.

Mrs. Sageser turned the meeting to Mrs. T. L. Pool and Mrs. J. D. Higginbotham who brought a poem on "Christ is our inexhaustible answer and His grace is sufficient for all our trouble." She also brought a poem for Thanksgiving. Mrs. Pool brought a good Bible quiz which we enjoyed and got a blessing from. She read a poem on Thanksgiving. It was good, too.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. J. L. O'Neill, J. L. Miller, Martha Phillips, J. A. Bruce, T. L. Pool, Forest Sageser, H. E. Anderson, J. D. Higginbotham, S. H. Lebow, E. R. Slater, and W. S. Grimsley.

We closed the meeting by singing Amazing Grace and our class song. Mrs. Bruce and Mrs. Sageser offered closing prayer.

County Line Chit Chats

(By Faye A. Nelson)
Come one, come all to County Line Community Club meeting Tuesday, November 28 at 2:00 p. m. Bring your children to the new nursery that was fixed up in October for the community. New officers will be elected for 1979. Pam Connell and Faye Pope have a fun program. So put on your blue jeans and shirt and come.

Miss Judy Valdez, of Austin, a law student at University of Texas has moved back to Lubbock to continue her studies.

County Line Community extends their sympathy to Jeri Floyd in the death of her brother-in-law at Anton.

We were sorry to hear about Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Moralez losing their home in a fire last week. He is a brother to Eloy Moralez of County Line.

Add extra wardrobe potential by buying or making fashionable vests that are reversible, suggests Becky Culp, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The Texas A&M University System.

From the Right Well?
If you are still thirsty inwardly (this means spiritually within your heart) let me suggest that you begin drinking from the wells of salvation. This is a spiritual term in the Bible used to describe the abundant life obtained through Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Israel.
"But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up unto everlasting life." John 4:14
"Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation." Isaiah 12:3
It may be that you are thirsty and empty deep within your heart. Let me suggest three things that will quench your thirst and give you a lasting peace.
1. You must have a well. You can come to Jesus Christ, who is the well. He has a vast reservoir of living water and healing streams of mercy. "And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. (Jesus, the Sacrifice.) Rev. 22:1
2. You must have a bucket. Spiritually speaking, your heart serves as the bucket. It will hold all the water (new life) that you need. Recognize that your heart is empty (born with a sinful nature and needs a cleansing touch.)
"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23
3. You must have a rope. The rope is yourself. You have to let go of yourself and say, "Jesus, fill my life with your life."
Now you lower your bucket (heart) with the rope. (This is an act of your will.) You recognize and admit, "I am a sinner. I need fresh water. I need cleansing by the blood of Jesus."
You now begin to pull. Pulling is believing. "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness." Rom. 10:10a. Now take a long drink of pure, fresh water. Say (confess) that you want Jesus Christ to be the Lord of your life.
"With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." Rom. 10:10b. You are now receiving His Spirit into your innermost being.
If you have just felt the need for spiritual rebirth, you can say this prayer:
God, I believe that Jesus Christ is your Son and that He died on a cross for my and has been raised from the grave. I believe that I am now being born again and made new as I confess that Jesus Christ is Lord and Master of my life.
Dear Friends:
If I can help you in your desire to know God and to walk with His Son, Jesus

PSALMS ONE HUNDRED

A Hymn of Praise
Sing to the LORD, all the world!

- Worship the LORD with joy; come before him with happy songs!
- Never forget that the LORD is God. He made us, and we belong to him; we are his people, we are his flock.
- Enter the Temple gates with thanksgiving; go into its courts with praise. Give thanks to him and praise him.
- The LORD is good; his love is eternal and his faithfulness lasts forever.

Scripture of Praise and Thanksgiving
Praise the LORD, my soul! All my being praise his holy name!

- Praise the LORD, my soul, and do not forget how kind he is.
- He forgives all my sins, and heals all my diseases.

Psalms 103: 1-3

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER
By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A little girl fell on the floor and hit her head. Immediately she started to cry. But her mother comforted her as she applied a cold pad to the lump. Kissing her tenderly, the mother said, "Let's pray about it."

Soon the tears stopped and the girl ran off to school. That night, before going to bed, the mother and the daughter knelt for prayer. "What shall we thank God for?" asked the mother. "My bump," answered the girl. "Why?" asked the mother. "Because," said the girl, "now God can make it well." How often we fail to thank God for our problems, yet they give Him an opportunity to show us His power, and in the hurt we can experience His healing.

To our ever-present and never-failing Lord every problem is a possibility in disguise. Need is an opportunity for supplying, sin is an opportunity for forgiveness, ill health an opportunity for healing.

Prayer can turn your trials into triumphs. Patience can turn your barriers into bridges, and praise can turn your gloom into gladness.

Like the little girl, bless God for your bumps, then your bumps will become your blessings!

THE SPANISH TEACHER
—Sadowsky y Garcia ©appl. '78

A fat man bought some groceries. He wanted to ask "How much" in Spanish. The dictionary listed "how" as "como" (COH moh) and "much" as "mucho" (MOO cho). He said, "Como mucho" which actually translates as "I eat much". The grocery clerk looked at him and replied, "Se nota" (seh NOH tah) which means "It is noticeable".

Word for word translations don't always come out as intended. "How much" is "cuanto" (coo AHN toh).

Words used in asking questions include:

Who?	¿Quién?	(kee EHN)
What?	¿Qué?	(KEH)
When?	¿Cuándo?	(coo AHN do)
Where?	¿Dónde?	(DOHN deh)
Why?	¿Por qué?	(por KEH)
