

Bulldogs Score in Last Minute to Win District 7AA

Indians Drop 24-20 Heartbreaker

and Coach Ray Sefcik. The third row, in the same order: Head Coach Tommy McAdams, Frank Jirek, Walton Wooten, Milton Schmidt, Danny Smith, Steve Guess, Ed Whitaker, and Trey Burson. The back row, in the same order: Coach Bobby Dodd, Jackie Young, Charles Erwin, David Dodson, Bob Shea, Phillip Josselet, and Coach James Ivy.

With 52 seconds left in the halgame, Stamford's revitalized offense scored a touchdown from three yards out to throw the brakes on Haskell Indians' hopes of repeating as District 7-AA champs. The Bulldogs scored the determined Indians, 24-20, Friday night in the seesaw battle of district leaders.

The Bulldogs called on 185-pound-senior, Wayne Marsh, to barrel through the right side of the line for the winning points. This set up a clash between Stamford and the State's number one ranked AA team, the Eastland Mavericks, for bidistrict.

Haskell had to fight and scrounge to get into this halgame last Friday. They fell behind 10-0 at halftime due to an incompetent offense of fumbles and missed blocks.

The first time Stamford handled the ball they moved 63 yards in 8 plays to go ahead on a two yard dash by Rick Medford with 6:48 left in the first period. Junior Alan Plumlee kicked a true extra point to move Stamford out to a 7-zero lead.

Indian workhouse Jackie Young had his troubles the first half. His sweeps were ineffective with defensive ace Steve Hobbs along with strong Bulldog tackles, Oscar Cedillo and Pat Gillespie, holding the junior Haskell talent to only 42 yards in 10 carries in the first half.

Medford, a speedy Bulldog back, looked like he might never be caught on his sweeps the next time Stamford handled the pig. The flashy senior took a pitchout from QB Randy Leavitt and headed for a first down but Ricky Phemister broke through to give Medford second thoughts as he threw him for a loss. The Haskell defense had their fire lit on that play.

When Stamford got down to a first and goal to go at the Haskell 8 yard line, Charles Erwin and Frosty Mayfield made clutch tackles on Medford and Leavitt to make Stamford settle for a 22 yard field goal by Plumlee.

On the second play of the second half Ed Whitaker plucked the ball out of the arms of Leavitt and Bob Shea fell on it to give Haskell momentum and the ball at Stamford's 26. Young and Frank Paul Jirek moved the ball to the Bulldog five yard line. On fourth down, Young faked an end run and passed to end Randy Ivy. The little sophomore was all alone for a touchdown with 9:10 left in the third period.

Haskell's next possession moved 51 yards in 8 plays for the go-ahead score. Included in the drive was a 14 yard Bobby Cobb to Eric Whitaker pass, and a pass interference call on Stamford's Robert Stephenson that gave the Indians an opportunity to move in.

Young scooted 9 yards for the second Haskell touchdown with 4:14 still to go in the third period.

Four minutes later, the Indians had the ball in scoring position again at Stamford's one. Cobb went twice into the Bulldog line before scoring for the Haskell side.

When Jirek tipped Leavitt's 4th quarter pass and Mayfield intercepted in the Haskell endzone, the Indians looked like a cinch to get a re-match with Eastland.

On third down and five from the Haskell 36, Young fumbled and Robert Gillespie recovered for the Bulldogs with six minutes left in the game. The Indians were leading 20-10.

Shea nearly decapitated Leavitt on the first play from scrimmage, but Marsh drove five times into the Haskell line to score with 4:56 on the clock. Leavitt passed to Fred Washington for the vital two extra points.

With only minutes left in the contest, Jirek punted 32 yards when the Haskell's next drive halted. On a well-executed, determined drive, Stamford marched 65 yards in 9 plays.

Leavitt hit two clutch passes to Washington and Bingo Bolin in the deciding drive. One pass that could have swung the victory pendulum over to Haskell went through the hands of Young as he tried to intercept a pass intended for Mike McKeever.

Lynda Goes Bananas For Paint Commercial

Take a close look at the girl with the dab of paint on her nose in the next Dupont Lucite Paint commercial you see on the television.

You may recognize the face as the face of the home-grown Haskell girl, Lynda Ivey.

Miss Ivey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ivey of Haskell, wrote home that she had got the commercial part through her agent. She said the commercial should start being shown sometime in December.

In telling about her first TV break, Miss Ivey wrote, "We shot the commercial in an east side New York studio.

"In case you can't recognize me on a black and white set, my first line is 'I think I'll go bananas,' whereupon I paint a large banana on the wall."

The man who acted as Miss Ivey's husband in the commercial is a regular on the daily soap opera "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing." She also mentioned that her hairdresser on the set was the same one that worked on Jane Fonda for her performance in the recent movie hit, "Kluge."

In one segment of the 60 second commercial spot, she dabs paint on the tip of her nose. She added as an afterthought, "After 25 takes and having to wash my nose 25 times, my nose was plenty sore."

Lynda Ivey, a 1962 graduate of Haskell High School, has lived in New York since 1966. She has had several stage roles since beginning her show business career. In Dallas Quadrangle Theater production of "The Last Sweet Days of Ossie", she had the leading female role.

Lately she has done acting as a secretary on consumer panels in New York. She had good training for this role, as she worked for two years as a stenographer with the Nieman-Marcus Store in Dallas.

Weather Insight

Total Loss In Rule Farm House Fire

The house on the farm of Frank Turner burned to the ground Thursday morning, November 11. There were no serious injuries but the farmhouse was a total loss.

Powell Moreno and his family were occupants of the house, which is located about five miles north of Rule.

Mrs. Moreno reported that she had gone into the kitchen and turned on a light when something suddenly exploded. She rushed to awaken her husband, six children, and her aunt, who was living at the house at the time of the fire.

The Rule Fire Department was alerted and answered the call. However, the house could not be saved and the Moreno family lost all their belongings.

Mrs. Moreno was the only injury from the fire. She suffered burns on her arms and legs. She was taken to Haskell Memorial Hospital where she was treated and released.

The house was owned by Mrs. Bill Burt of Dimin, New Mexico.

Work Completed On Highway 277

The construction work has been completed on 6.5 miles of U. S. Highway 277 in Haskell County. This project began 6.5 miles north of intersection of State Highway 6 north of Stamford and extended to the south city limits of Haskell.

A contract in the amount of $1,298,073.43 was awarded to J. H. Strain & Sons, Inc., of Tye, Texas, by the Texas Highway Commission on October 30, 1970, for the construction work on this project.

The work consisted of constructing two additional lanes to make a four-lane highway. The usual construction consisted of an additional roadway of 24-ft. pavement and surfaced

Haskell May Drop To Class A In '73

If facts and requirements remain the same as they are today, in 1973 Haskell High School will drop back to a Class A school in the University Interscholastic League.

Dr. Frank Cadenhead, president of the Haskell School Board, told the Free Press Wednesday morning that if the A.D.A. (average daily attendance) figures remain stable or go down, we will be a Class A team in two years.

The requirements now are that a Class AA school have an A.D.A. of 230.

"We were just six students above the quota for a Class AA team last year," Dr. Cadenhead said.

Four years ago the average for a Class AA team had to be 250. But at the 1970 meeting of the coaches, principals, athletic directors, and school board members, it was decided to drop the requirements to an A.D.A. of 230.

"They may drop the requirements again by 1973," Dr. Cadenhead added, "and we might remain in AA. However, right now, we are running an average of 13 under the 230 limit."

"Scheduling and areas also have a lot to do with the Class you're in," Dr. Cadenhead stated, "they try not to put you in a Class where you would not be located fairly near your opponents."

For now, it is positive that Haskell will remain in Class AA for at least the next two years.

This was just one of the topics discussed by the Haskell School Board in their November 9 session.

Also discussed was the teachers' pay raise. Now that the Phase II of President Nixon's Wage-Price Freeze is in effect, the school board is waiting to see when the teachers will be allowed the raise they were supposed to receive September 1.

Haskell County History

48 YEARS AGO
October 22, 1931

Teachers of Throckmorton, Haskell and Stonewall counties will meet in the city Friday and Saturday of next week for their annual Tri-County Teachers Institute. Over 300 teachers are expected in attendance.

Eleven Texas counties without a single Negro in their population, and two counties with more Negroes than whites were the extremes in color and nativity statistics announced by the census bureau. Census records show Negroes in Harris county, which contains Houston, than in any other county in the state.

John A. Couch reached golfers' paradise here Saturday afternoon and entered Haskell's first name in the lists of the "Hole-in-One Club". He achieved this record in the second hole of the local greens, which was the eleventh in a tied match on that particular occasion. The feat broke up the match.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Robertson and daughters, Misses Leta and Hazel, and Mrs. French Robertson and daughter, Emily, visited French Robertson Sunday in the Alexander Sanitarium at Abilene. He is recuperating from an appendicitis operation.

Sam A. Roberts left Thursday morning for Snyder on business. He was accompanied to that city by Hon. Marvin Jones, who was enroute to Lubbock.

Christmas card mailed by a soldier in England in 1918 has just been received by an Indian woman. The mail may be late, but it generally arrives sometime.

"All should learn to drive a car," says an advertisement. Especially a lot of fellows who are already driving them.

According to a statement of the Haskell National Bank, demand deposits had reached a total of $256,414.96.

60 YEARS AGO
November 4, 1911

Following is an enumeration of some of Haskell's modern conveniences and industrial enterprises:

A well equipped electric light and power plant.

An ice factory of 15 tons daily capacity.

A cotton seed oil mill of 40 tons daily capacity—brick building and most modern equipment.

A grain elevator with first class equipment.

Three large ginning plants.

A broom factory, capacity 1000 brooms per day.

A creamery of large capacity, equipped with latest machinery and apparatus.

An ice cream factory and bottling works.

Grist and feed mills.

A telephone system, owned by local parties, with a paid-up capital of $100,000 and operating exchanges in 16 towns and over 1000 miles of toll lines.

An up-to-date steam laundry.

Three banks—two national and one state.

An opera house.

Two automobile garages.

Three lumber yards.

One first-class newspaper and a job printing office.

Numerous dry goods, grocery, hardware, implement, furniture, paint and saddlery stores, and various shops.

Two new hotels and a new 25-room one nearing completion. This building has unusually large, airy rooms, an independent lighting system and is equipped with hot and cold baths.

Three commodious and well-furnished public school buildings.

There are five church buildings, Presbyterian, Church of Christ, Christian, Baptist and Methodist, the last recently erected at a cost of $25,000. Several other denominations, the primitive Baptists, Episcopal and Lutherans, hold regular services here.

The I.O.O.F., Masons (including K.T. Commandery), W.O.W., and M.W.A., have strong lodges here.

The city owns a water works and sewerage system which was installed about two years ago at a cost of over $30,000.

The water supply is pumped from two large connected wells to a large elevator reservoir, and several actual fire tests have proven the supply ample. While on the water question, we will state without fear of contradiction, that no other town in Central West Texas has so large a natural supply of good drinking and steam-making water as is found at Haskell.

An experimental fusion machine, which may help revolutionize energy-producing mechanisms, has been dedicated at the University of Texas.

Three railroad union legislative boards have merged into a single United Transportation Union, Texas Legislative Board to represent 12,000 railroad and bus line employees on legislation.

Captain Bates Tells Haskell Lions Club About New Army Procedures

An all-volunteer army was the topic discussed in the weekly meeting of the Haskell Lions Club, Tuesday at Felker's Restaurant.

As guest speaker for the meeting, Dr. J. F. Cadenhead presented career officer, Captain Larry Bates.

Capt. Bates is a much decorated veteran of Vietnam and is currently at Hardin-Simmons University with the R.O.T.C. program.

The officer delivered an informative outlook on the new program taking place within today's new Army.

"The program was initiated in three bases on the continental United States. Now it extends to thirteen more bases, with one of those being in Europe," Capt. Bates said in opening the discussion.

The volunteer program is an effort to update Army policies so that more men will find a career in the Army both self-rewarding and dignified.

Capt. Bates pointed out the number of R.O.T.C. scholar-

Felker Finishes Basic Training

ET. POLK, LA. (AHTNC) Oct. 27—Army Private Kenneth J. Felker, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Felker, of Haskell, Tex., recently completed eight weeks of basic training at the U. S. Army Training Center, Infantry, Ft. Polk, La.

He received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, combat tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

His wife, Diana, lives at 603 North Avenue G, Haskell, Tex.

Civil Service Test Dates

The U. S. Civil Service Commission last week announced three test dates for 1972 summer jobs in Federal agencies.

Candidates whose applications are received by Dec. 3, 1971, will be tested on Jan. 8, 1972; those whose applications are received by Jan. 7 will be tested Feb. 12; and those whose applications are received by Feb. 2 will be tested March 11. Applications postmarked after Feb. 2 will not be accepted.

Complete instructions for filing, and information on opportunities available, are contained in CSC Announcement No. 414, Summer Jobs in Federal Agencies, which may be obtained from any area office of the Commission, many major post offices, most college placement offices, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. 20415.

Applicants rated eligible in 1971 need not take the written test again unless they wish to improve their scores. They will be sent a special form by Dec. 1 to update their qualifications and indicate their availability for employment in 1972.

The Commission urged candidates to apply early for maximum consideration, and emphasized that the number of jobs available through the nationwide test will be extremely small in proportion to the number of competitors. Last year, 157,485 persons were tested and only 12,600 were appointed through the nationwide CSC exam.

In addition to providing details about the types of jobs that will be filled through the nationwide test, Announcement 414 contains information on other summer jobs that will be filled through merit procedures administered by individual Federal agencies. Last year, more than 22,000 jobs were filled through such procedures.

Chavez Runs Wild Team Victory

DAVID BURSON is the coach of the girls' basketball program at Haskell High for the 1971-72 season. A '58 graduate of Haskell, and a graduate of Texas Tech, Burson is in his first year of coaching here.

Francisco responded with a 6 yard run and also ran the extra point.

Only a few plays later, Adam Sanchez recovered a Stamford fumble. This set up Chavez's second score on a one yard plunge.

But the hero turned goat for a few minutes when Chavez fumbled the kickoff following Stamford's second touchdown. The B Bulldogs capitalized on the break and took a 19-14 half-time lead.

The bottom fell out for the Bulldogs in the last half.

Chavez started the scoring spree with a 23 yard touchdown run, and went ahead and ran the extra point to give Haskell back the lead.

Sophomore quarterback Kenny Ivey took over from there and had a hand in the last three touchdowns.

The accurate-throwing passer nailed Ollie Johnson with a 11 yard spear for one score, sneaked one yard for another, and passed to Martin Randle for 55 yards and the final tally.

The Haskell ground game accounted for 512 yards in the runaway.

Radio Team Wins First Place Honor

The Haskell F.F.A. classes have been practicing for the last month on a parliamentary procedure team, a quiz team, and a radio team. These three teams went to Hamlin Wednesday, Nov. 10.

The Radio team, consisting of Steve Guess, Forrest Mayfield, and Ricky Phemister, won first place in their division.

The Radio team went on to Big Springs, Saturday, to compete against other teams from throughout Texas.

The senior parliamentary procedure team, consisting of Ricky Phemister, Joe Kretschmer, Danny Wainwright, Alvin Sammons, Allen Moeller, Keith Hannaz, Ray Isbell, and David Hill, finished seventh in competition.

The junior parliamentary team consisted of Bill Cox, Joe Mickler, Chris Conner, Pat Dulaney, Jimmy Lancaster, Forrest Mayfield, Kevin O'Keefe, and Bobby Cobb.

The Greenhand quiz team, made up of Leo Sanchez, Bobby Howard, Steve Guess and Steve Sammons, placed third in competition.

Sport Notes

By STEVE FOSTER

I have covered or reported on football games from the Cotton Bowl to Copperas Cove, but those two pressboxes at Stamford still confused me. I mean, like where do you sit? In the pressbox on the conventional side (the home team side) or in the smaller box on your own team's side?

I am afraid that I goofed. I sat on Stamford's side the other night and watched our Indians get oozed out of the District Title.

Friend, that Stamford side was out for blood. The drama going on in the pressbox was enough to curdle your cream.

Hardly ever does this faint heart get really excited at a football game. Don't misunderstand me, I love the game. But you know that if you were to up and move 200 or more miles to a strange town (no offense intended), you couldn't get up tight about the local team. Not right off the bat, anyway.

But the air of the game, the mere excitement and tenacity of that game in Stamford got my adrenalin flowing. I felt like back in my old South Oak Cliff High (Dallas) days when the Golden Bears were the cream of the crop in high school football.

I could hear the Haskell band when they first stepped off the bus. When they came marching in with that bass drum pounding, I swear my heart was beating in time with that big drum.

I thought Stamford looked bigger physically than did

Haskell. But their biggest man is Robert Gillespie at 210 pounds on the program. A full ten pounds lighter than Bob Shea.

Those Stamford folks were wild in that first half when they held a 10 point lead. However, I've never heard the like of belly aching they started when Haskell took the lead.

When Jim Bob Mickler busted their back and made him fumble the ball, I went wild in the pressbox. I was up there hollering, "All right! All right!" People in front of the pressbox were looking up there to see what kind of fool was loose upstairs.

The place got quiet when Haskell took the lead. When Bobby Cobb went in for the third touchdown I was hollering "Yes Sir! Yes Sir!" They started beating on the pressbox down below.

The man beside me was so uptight when they were down by 10 points that he just started walking. About two miles

Texas Parade Magazine Recalls Jarrin' John As "Saturday Afternoon Deputy"

"I missed—through no fault of my own—all 19 regular season Aggie victories Jarrin' John had a hand in, but for 9c cash I was able to ride along with him as he made the Western World a safer place for us all in "Sundown Jim". Though I failed to see him in his finest hour, running roughshod over Tulane in the Sugar Bowl, your faithful Saturday Afternoon Deputy was right there on the front row when he came to town starring as the "Lone Star Ranger."

The above is taken from the November issue of Texas Parade magazine and was penned by Carlton Stowers.

Stowers recalls in his article, "Reflections of a Saturday Afternoon Deputy", how he and his other twelve year old buddies used to make it to the theater every Saturday to see their heroes in action.

One such hero, as mentioned above, was Jarrin' John Kimbrough, now a Haskell resident. Kimbrough was, of course, the famous All-American football player at Texas A&M and star professional for the Los Angeles Dons.

and a pack of ciggies later, he was patting me on the back, "How about that, huh, how about that?"

The game was over. After two and a half hard months, the Indians were through for 1971. The excitement was gone, the wake had started. It's a long time till next September.

Sewing Your Own Winter Coat Is Easy, Select Pattern and Fabric Carefully

Make your own coat to keep you warm this winter. Mrs. Barbara Elliott, Haskell County Home Demonstration Agent, suggests.

"If you select just the right pattern and fabric, sewing a coat should not be difficult," says the Agent. Avoid collars, lapels, bound buttonholes and extra bulky fabrics—these are trouble makers.

Winter 1971 looks feature capes, and hooded and wrapped coats. Capes are a great fashion item, yet are easy to make. Selection of a hooded style will eliminate collar and buttonhole construction. And even though the wrap coat has a collar and lapels, you can forget about buttonholes, Mrs. Elliott reminds.

In addition to construction details, the fabric you choose can also create sewing problems. Select material with an interesting look, such as a tweed or tapestry.

"A flannel or gabardine material can make an easy coat pattern hard to construct. These very plain fabrics will show every stitching or pressing mistake," Mrs. Elliott says.

Bonded fabrics also deserve consideration if you make a cape. However, according to the agent, avoid using them to mold and shape a coat.

Look for a closely woven fabric. It's more stable and easier to handle than soft stretchy fabrics. Many fabrics sold for coats are thick and spongy, thus difficult to sew and press.

Even if you're not the most experienced seamstress, your coat-making can be a success if you select the proper pattern and fabric.

Gardening Club Will Give Gifts

Mrs. S. P. Kuenstler spoke about "Indoors Landscaping" to the regular meeting of the Haskell Garden Club, Thursday, Nov. 12, at the home of Mrs. T. B. Robertson.

Interesting house plants were discussed in the monthly roll call session, led by Mrs. Ed Fouts.

Also at the meeting was Mrs. Ed Hester. She gave a report on the District VIII Fall Meeting of the Texas Garden Clubs, in Big Lake, Texas, November 5 and 6.

At next month's meeting, according to the Garden Club reporter, Mrs. Norman Bevel, members will bring a gift for patients in the Vernon Hospital.

The December gathering will be in Mrs. Ed Hester's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clois Thomas have announced the engagement of their daughter, Vicki Diane, to Roy David Pittman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pittman.

All Type Jeans Are Fashion Hits Yearly

COLLEGE STATION — Invented over a century ago for miners to wear while panning gold during the California rush, jeans are one of the all-time fashion hits, reports Becky Dunlap, Extension clothing specialist at Texas A&M University.

Jeans today are worn by youth around the world, Miss Dunlap notes. In fact, according to a current merchandising survey, jeans sales in the U. S. account for 20-72 percent of all pant sales, depending on the type of store involved.

Teenagers who comprise the biggest market for jeans, are demanding the pants in fabrics besides denim. In addition to denim, current best sellers are velvet, crushed velvet and corduroy. Available in a wide range of colors and styles, jeans are worn around the clock and for every occasion.

One key to jean popularity, Miss Dunlap explains, is their low cost and easy maintenance.

But another important factor is that jeans allow teens freedom of expression. "Today's youth feel neither individuality nor distinction can be bought in a clothing store. They are rejecting artificial looks," the specialist says.

They feel expensive clothes may enforce social constraints, she continues. For example, in some clothes, the wearer must be careful where he sits or leans, thus restricting movement. According to Miss Dunlap, jeans give the wearer freedom of physical and psychological comfort.

Jeans are not a youth uniform, yet they are a "sign of the times." They signify the value of direct, honest communication with others, the specialist concludes.

Noted Actor Jack Lemmon Fights Air Pollution As Christmas Seal Chairman

Jack Lemmon claims to be optimistic about the people's battle for good health.

"Do you realize we're all polluters? Conscious polluters?" Jack Lemmon, the renowned actor, comedian, and now crusader announces the fact with horror. "All of us who drive cars that poison the atmosphere we breathe are polluters. All of us who use a product or service that fouls the air are guilty of poisoning our planet—and our families and ourselves, to boot."

Mr. Lemmon, interviewed in his new role as National Chairman of the 1971 Christmas Seal Campaign for the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, is passionately concerned with the problem of air pollution.

"We've all got homicidal and suicidal tendencies, I guess. Look at us. We drive our cars at every opportunity—sometimes when it's just a few blocks and a walk would be great exercise. And we go on buying new cars—regardless of how they pollute—because we like the styling, or the color, or—worst of all—because the car's got a lot of horsepower!

"Everyone knows that air pollution plays havoc with our economy. In my state, California, the damage to crops in one year is 132 million dollars. But that's nothing. What's even more appalling is the cost in human lives. Human health. Human misery. There's one recent study, as a matter of fact, which concludes that if the air pollution in our big cities could be cut even by half, sickness and death from respiratory diseases would go down 25 percent."

Smiling as he ends his gloomy outburst, Jack Lemmon goes on more calmly. "But I'm hopeful things will change. I'm basically an optimistic guy. I can't believe that that the good people of this country are going to go on spending billions of dollars every year for air pollution. For something nobody wants and everybody complains about."

"I think the public is going to wake up and do something about it."

Asked what he thought could be done, Mr. Lemmon offered some down-to-earth suggestions.

"First, people have to decide what they really want and how badly they want it," he says. "If it's clean air they want, for themselves and their kids, there are plenty of things to do. They can cut down their own polluting. They can encourage strict enforcement of anti-pollution laws, and can refuse to buy from polluters."

"Another thing people can do is to work with their Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Associations. These organizations are real fighters. They've had a lot of experience. Beginning with tuberculosis.

"Today these associations have a bigger job than ever. Respiratory diseases like emphysema and chronic bronchitis are skyrocketing, and both smoking and air pollution have an awful lot to do with respiratory disease. So they have their work cut out for them and they need help."

"That's why I'm glad to be the National Chairman of their Christmas Seal Campaign this year. And that's why I'm asking the people of this country to be especially generous this year when they send in their contributions. Because I know there's more than ever to do with the money."

"But I hope those people won't stop with a check. I hope they'll take an active part in the fight against air pollution. In fact, I'm counting on them. As I said—I'm an optimist."

Abilene State School Discussed At Meeting of Professional Women

Hobson Collins, Abilene State School representative, spoke to the Haskell Business and Professional Women's Club meeting Tuesday night.

Collins, director of the Outreach Program, told the club that in 1899 the Legislature voted to establish a State School. In 1901, Abilene donated a tract of land for the school. This was for epileptic patients mostly. In 1957 they changed the school to an institution for the mentally retarded.

They think of this School as a self-city, self-sufficient, with 2,000 residents ranging in age from 4 months to 82 years. 70 residents are blind.

The children are taught in school the same as public schools. Besides the academic part, these children are taught courtesy, cleanliness, arts, crafts, and physical fitness.

Homemakers See Cosmetic Display

Haskell Future Homemakers met in the cottage, Nov. 8, to hear an interesting cosmetic program.

Mrs. Melba Howard gave the Mary Kay Cosmetics demonstration and showed everyone present how to make-up themselves.

Betty Steele, president of F. H. A., discussed painting trash cans as a new project for the club. It was also noted that the F.H.A. bought a new dishwasher with some of the money netted in the recent Tupperware sale.

Guests At Matthews

are placed in a circular band around the tree about 2 inches from the trunk.

A mound of dirt 6 to 8 inches should then be packed against the tree. Care should be taken to make sure crystals are not placed in contact with the tree since damage to the trunk will result. Next spring the mound should be level back to the original ground line.

Place 1/2 ounce of PDB crystals around 2 to 3 year old trees, 3/4 ounce around 4 to 5 year old trees and 1 ounce around older trees.

To be most effective this procedure should be carried out within the next two weeks.

Three Named To Study Team

Three men have been appointed by the Haskell Industrial Foundation to obtain information concerning the organization of an industrial team.

At a Wednesday, November 10, night meeting at Felker's Restaurant, Foundation president, Royce Adkins, named the three appointees as J. B. Gipson, Charles McCauley and Bob Philpot.

The meeting was for the officers and directors of the Haskell Industrial Foundation.

It was also announced at the meeting that W. A. Collins, manager of Community Development Services for Lone Star Gas Co., in Dallas, is slated to meet with the Foundation next month.

Collins will be here Wednesday night, Dec. 8, at discuss industrial development.

"Masses of gum found around the base of the trunk of peach trees are a good indication that the peach tree borer larva is causing its damage," said Max Stapleton, County Agricultural Agent.

Peachtree borer larva feed in the trunk of the peach tree at or near the ground level causing large amounts of gum to build up at the ground line. Infested trees may be killed in one to three years depending on the number of larvae present and the size of the tree.

Paradichlorobenzene (PDB) crystals applied around the infested trees will control the peach tree borers when applied properly. All weeds and grasses should be removed from around the tree trunk for about a foot. Then the PDB crystals

The Haskell Jaycees, in conjunction with the Haskell Gun Club, will sponsor the second annual JC Turkey Shoot, Sunday.

The shooting will begin Sunday at 1 p. m. and will be held at Wallace Wooten's. The public is invited.

Wooten, reporting the event, said, "We will have qualified instructors present and novice shooters are invited. The instructors will help new shooters with their shooting problems and questions. We don't want people to think that this Turkey Shoot is just for expert shooters."

Any gauge shotgun is eligible for use, but only shotguns will be allowed. Shells will be available for entrants. Clay targets will be used.

Rosson Named To Committee Judicial Reform

AUSTIN (Sp) — State Representative Renal B. Rosson of Snyder has been named by Texas House Speaker Gus F. Mutscher to the Interim House Committee on Judicial Reform.

Chairman of the committee is Rep. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi. The committee authorized by House Simple Resolution No. 527 is for the purpose of studying the judicial system in Texas. The committee was initially formed in 1969 and will continue its research until the regular session of the Legislature in 1973.

"Rep. Rosson is an experienced lawmaker," said Mutscher. "During the 61st Session in 1969, Rep. Rosson served as Chairman of the Judicial Districts Committee and held membership on Judiciary. This past 62nd Session, he served as Vice-Chairman of the Judiciary Committee and served on the Criminal Jurisprudence Committee."

"Rep. Rosson," said Mutscher, "is certainly qualified and capable of his interim committee assignment." Rosson, a practicing attorney, has been a member of the Texas House for seven terms. 4-H'ERS TO 'RAP' ON CONCERNS OF YOUTH

SPECIAL - More than 1,600 youth delegates to the 50th National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 28-Dec. 2, will get at the "gut" issues of the day. Using the theme, 4-H Bridges the Gap, the delegates will meet in workshop sessions largely planned and conducted by the youths themselves.

They will "rap" about what is right and what is wrong in the country today as they see it and what they personally can do about it. The ten main issues for discussion concerning youth and all America are: politics, religion, poverty, race, personal development, health, communications, environmental ecology, community development and economics.

The five-day program also will feature tours to Chicago's cultural centers, concerts, parties and numerous recognition events for the accomplished young people. During the gala affair some 270 scholarships valued at more than $180,000 will be presented to national and regional winners in their respective programs.

The Golden Anniversary of National 4-H Congress will culminate with a gigantic banquet scheduled for McCormick Place, Chicago's newly rebuilt convention center. Several thousand persons, including Congress delegates, 4-H alumni, donor representatives, Extension Service leaders, dignitaries from the world of government, education and business, as well as personalities from the entertainment field, will be in attendance.

While this Congress will be a highlight of the 50 years of such events, throughout that period the business community has provided its financial and technical backing and support.

Among those companies which will lend their support at this National 4-H Congress and in other ways assist 4-H throughout the year are Olin Corporation, Ralston Purina Company and Amchem Products, Inc.

Also included in the list of business organizations are the Chicago Board of Trade; Eastman Kodak Company; The S&H Foundation, Inc.; Tupperware Home Parties; Moorman Mfg. Co. and The Upjohn Company.

Other 4-H donors are Elgin Watch; International Minerals & Chemical Corporation; The Singer Company; Chevron Chemical Company's Ortho Division; Homelite, a Division of Textron Inc.; Sunbeam Corporation; E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, and The West Bend Company.

Several scholarships also are being presented in the name of former presidents of the National Committee, Edwin T. Meridith, Thomas E. Wilson and the recently deceased Chris L. Christensen.

Over 60 corporations, foundations, individuals and civic groups come together to make the National 4-H Congress the largest national 4-H event of the year.

Information about opportunities for 4-H membership and leadership is available from the county extension office or State 4-H Office at the land-grant university.

I am often accused of being wordy and long winded. But I found something the other day to put me to shame. Why say—due to the fact that—when you can say "because." But some people want to sound important or hide their meaning, and say—it is more easily promulgated with dynamic confrontational determination than effectuated with maximized definitive success—instead of "it's easier said than done."

Old Soldier Returns From Convention

L. B. White returned last week from the 43rd reunion of his World War I comrades on Veteran's Day in Beaumont, Texas.

It was Mr. White's twentieth consecutive year to attend the convention for what has been dubbed "Col. Hoover's Iron Men."

White, a retired farmer, lives just southwest of Rochester. His son, Scott, a World War II pilot, resides in Rule.

Company C of the 143rd Infantry is the group that gets together every Veteran's Day at the Mariposa Hotel in Beaumont.

When asked if he or his WWI buddies were upset over the recent change of date for the celebration of U. S. Veteran's Day, Mr. White answered, "No, we don't really care . . . but we are going to keep on meeting every November 11. That is our day to meet and it will be until we are all gone."

He said that every year the number of old soldiers at the convention is less.

Mr. White is 75 years old and lives alone on his small farm. His wife passed away the first week of October of this year.

Have Documents Ready to Prove Age When Applying For Social Security

You're as old as you feel. We have all heard this old familiar cliché. How is it with you? Are you feeling old enough to start drawing your social security benefits?

If you are getting ready to claim your social security benefits you will need proof of your age or date of birth because just feeling old enough is not sufficient. According to Wayne Baker, social security field representative who is at Annex, City Hall on every Thursday in November, except the 25th, you can speed up the claims process by getting your proof of age documents together early. Your first thought may be that you have no proof of your age. Types of age proof are so numerous you may have just the thing you need without being aware of it.

First of all, do you have a birth certificate? A birth certificate which has been recorded as long as eight years ago may be all that you need to establish your date of birth. You will need to know whether or not there is a birth certificate recorded for you. If there is a birth certificate on record, we will want to see a copy of it. If you have not checked with county clerk or custodian of public records in the city or county where you were born, you should do this as soon as possible. Your social security office can furnish you a form letter to use in writing to the custodian of the records.

If you have checked the records where you were born and there is no birth certificate recorded for you, what do you do now? Don't panic—remember there are many other records that can be used. Some possible proofs are: early baptismal certificates, family Bible records, school records, children's birth certificates, insurance policies, driver's license, lodge records, etc.

If you are not sure what you will need, if you need assistance, or if you need advice about getting possible records, call the social security office now for full information and assistance.

Your social security office is as near as your telephone. In Haskell and the surrounding area, the nearest office is in Abilene and the number to call is (915) 677-5262 unless you can meet the field representative here.

Newcastle Dims Cats Title Plans With 26-20 Victory

The chances of the Rule Bobcats winning a second straight district championship were dealt a severe blow Friday, when the powerful Newcastle Bobcats won the "cat-fight" by a score of 26-20. This marked the first district loss for Rule and also the first loss of the season for the Bobcats.

The Rule Bobcats still have a chance to tie for the title, providing they beat Rochester Steers and if Throckmorton should upset Newcastle, then the district would end up in a 3-way tie and a flip of the coin would be necessary to determine the team that would represent the district in the playoffs.

With the chance to win a clear cut district championship, the Rule Bobcats took the field Friday night and put a score on the scoreboard early in the first quarter. On the second series of plays for the Bobcats, quarterback Ricky Lehrmann threw an out pass to end Art Briles who took the ball on the Rule 45 yard line, sidestepped a Newcastle tackler and raced 55 yards into the end zone completing a 70-yard pass and run play for the first score of the game. The try for extra point was blocked, leaving the score 6-0 in favor of Rule with 4:45 left in the first quarter.

The aroused Newcastle Bobcats came fighting back and racked up three scores before the Rule Cats could score a gain. On the first play from this point, quarterback McWhorter dropped back and set and threw long to flanker back Anderson who hauled the ball in at midfield and raced on into the endzone, completing an 80-yard pass and run play. The kick for extra point was good, making the score 14-6 in favor of Newcastle with three minutes left in the first quarter.

On the next series, quarterback Lehrmann dropped back to pass and threw long in the

Rule Boosters Bolster Morale

A large crowd of approximately 45 members attended the Monday night meeting of the Rule Booster Club. President Norris Anders called the meeting to order. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Sam Turner, and approved.

Thursday night, Nov. 18, when Rule plays Rochester at home, was decided to be Parent's Night. All parents of the football boys are asked to be at the football field by 6:45 so that they may be introduced with their son, in the pre-game activities.

direction of Briles, but, a Newcastle defender stepped in and intercepted and returned to the Rule 12 yard line. After two carries and a first down by Creel, quarterback McWhorter sneaked in from the one yard line for Newcastle's third touchdown. The try for extra point was wide, leaving it 20-6 in favor of Newcastle with about 9 minutes left in the 2nd quarter.

Fine defensive play by the Rule line forced a Newcastle punt to be short, Rule took over at their own 45 yard line and began a touchdown march with 2 minutes left in the half. Don Hisey made some short gains, but key passes from Ricky Lehrmann to Steve Lehrmann kept the drive alive. Then with 3 seconds left in the half and Rule on Newcastle's 12 yard line, all the flanker receivers went to the right with Bobby Anders slipping out of the backfield and going left to the flag. Lehrmann spotted him all alone in the corner and hit him with a perfect toss for the touchdown with time already out on the clock. The try for extra points was successful on a pass from Ricky Lehrmann to Steve Lehrmann, making the score read 20-14 in favor of Newcastle at the half.

The third quarter turned out to be mostly a defensive test as neither team was able to muster a scoring drive. The punting of Larry Barbee kept Rule in fair field position most of the quarter. Late in the 3rd quarter the Newcastle team put on a tremendous punt rush and partially blocked a Barbee punt with the ball going only 17 yards and setting Newcastle up on the Rule 30 yard line. On the first play of the 4th quarter, McWhorter hit Anderson with a short sideline pass and Anderson raced into the end zone, making the score 26-14 Newcastle. The try for extra points was a pass which was broken up in the end zone, leaving the score 26-14.

Jesse Macias returned the kickoff to midfield, setting the Bobcats up in good field position. After some short runs by Hisey and a pass completion to Anders down the middle, Rule faced a third and 7 at the Newcastle 30 yard line. From this point Lehrmann rolled right and found Briles on the 5 yard line in the left corner. Briles took the pass and sped into the end zone, making the score 26-20. The kick for extra point was low, leaving the score 26-20 with 7 minutes remaining. Newcastle kept the ball on the ground after receiving the kick-off and used up valuable time. The Rule Bobcats did get the ball back with 50 seconds left to play and after picking up a first down at the Rule 35 yard line, three incomplete passes and a fumble stopped this drive and the Bobcats.
