Patrons Invited To View Films Used In Schools

Films and other instructional materials available to the public schools through the Lubbock-based Region XVII Education Service Center will be shown to interested citizens during a quarterly one-day review session set for Friday, January 25, 1980.

The open house is scheduled for 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Media Division of the Service Center, 1218 Fourteenth Street, Lubbock.

Persons wishing to view certain materials should notify the Media Division at least 10 days in advance, said Gerald Rogers, director of media and technology, so that they can be made available.

Requests may be made by calling 763-5014, the Media Division of the Education Service Center.

PANTS ALTERING CLASS OFFERED:
Naomi Wheeler, Assistant County Extension Agent, will be at the Neighborhood Center Monday, January 14 at 1:30 to give a lesson on altering pants. The public is invited.

Recent style changes brought in the slim leg look in pants rather than flared or wide legs. Many women need to use the pants they have but want to make them more stylish. Ms. Wheeler will show how it is done.

In the championship bracket, Nazareth, which will meet the Abernathy girls tonight for the title, downed Brownfield 44-29 behind the 20-point scoring of Doretta Ramakers. Angela Russell led Brownfield with 14 points.

In boys' action, Mark Tackitt tossed in 26 points to lead Happy to a 58-35 victory over Kress. Eddy Johnson led Kress with 12 points.

Nazareth blasted Olton 52-32 behind the 14-point effort of Gary Cook. Vance Stroebel paced Olton with 6 points.

In the championship bracket, Brent Wilkes scored 25 points to spark Brownfield to a 56-47 win over Springlake-Earth and a berth in the tournament final against Abernathy. Jim Gonzales led Springlake-Earth with 15 points.

ABERNATHY TOURNEY RESULTS OF SATURDAY GAMES

Scott Morrison scored 18 points to lead Abernathy to a 69-47 victory over Brownfield in the finals of the Abernathy tournament Saturday night. Dirk Bush had 14 for the Cubs.

In the girls' championship, Michelle Acker had 13 as Nazareth edged the host Antelopes 44-39 despite Carrie Lee Lutrick's 16 points.

Rounding out the boys' bracket, Joe Malouf scored 11 as Friona beat Springlake-Earth 56-34 for third place and Brian Huseman's 18 points paced Nazareth past Happy 56-52 in the consolation game.

Happy got 14 points from Sherry McCune to edge Brownfield 48-43 despite Cub Marcy Holladay's 20 points in the third place girls' game, and Kress beat Springlake-Earth 34-29 in the girls' consolation match.

The Antelope coaches enjoyed the tournament, Abernathy's first in four years as much as the kids and the spectators.

"All the guys did an exceptional job," said boys coach Carl Irlbeck. "We were thrilled to make 105 points and thrilled to win the tournament."

He said he doesn't want any losses in 1980 and the tournament was a good start.

Girls coach Diana Lewis said, "I thought the tournament was super. The organization, the teachers, the kids--all were super. The only thing that could have been better is if we (the girls) had won, too."

She appreciated the really good crowds of spectators--especially Saturday night.

Sunshine Group To Meet Jan. 17

Abernathy's Sunshine Group will meet at the city hall clubroom Jan. 17 for a luncheon and program. Activities will get underway at 11 a.m. All members and prospective members are urged to attend.

A special memory goes with each angel. Myrna recalls the friend or relative who gave her each one and when she received it. She and her sister, Helen Gough, made some of them.

Myrna never consciously decided to collect angels. She just realized one Christmas that she seemed to have quite a few and began to make them the theme of her holiday decor. She was in the hospital the Christmas of 1978 and well wishes added 23 angels to her collection.

She gets out her host of angels right after Thanksgiving and finds it great fun to arrange them differently each year. AHS Faculty Member To Appear On National TV. Thursday, January 10

AHS faculty member Betty Cagle is scheduled to appear on a segment of ABC's television program "20/20" tonight (Thursday) at 9 o'clock.

ABC filmed parts of a "Richer Life Seminar" Betty attended at the North Park Inn in Dallas November 11-15. Abernathy Independent School District sent her there to help her prepare to teach Zig Zigar's "I Can" course in Abernathy schools.

Betty also attended a "Positive Thinking Seminar" at the Fort Worth Convention Center featuring Dr. Norman Vincent Peale and Art Linkletter. She also heard Billy Burden, a memory expert, and David Wailty, an expert in motivation techniques for athletics.

Betty enjoyed the seminars tremendously and is enthusiastic about use of the positive thinking principles in Abernathy schools. The Review will report more about the local program later but to get the idea, watch Betty on "20/20", with Hugh Downs as host, tonight on Channel 28.

School Board Agenda, Jan. 7

Ralph and Myrna Davis host to a heavenly host every Christmas. Two hundred fifty angels--maybe more--all sizes and all materials decorate every room in the house--even bathrooms--throughout the Christmas season.

The angels do a lot besides look pretty. They are music boxes, candle holders, candle attachments, bells, lights, table arrangements and tree decorations. They are made of ceramic, china, straw, wood, fabric, wood shavings, stained glass, and even auto glass. The collection even features an angelic black jazz band from New Orleans.

Cal and Polly Tucker's Christmas tree is decorated each year with beautiful jeweled egg-shaped ornaments. They look like expensive fine painted china but really are EGGS--chicken, duck, goose, turkey, peacock (rather, peahEN), and bantam eggs.

The Tuckers made them every one over a period of six months about four years ago. They had so much fun making the ornaments and were so pleased with the finished handwork, they have used them every Christmas since.

The making involves emptying the egg shells through tiny holes in each end, painting on a protective coating, applying Christmas card illustrations to the shells in a painstaking process, adding jeweled crowns to both ends, and a finishing fine coat of lacquer.

Only Cal has the patience to handle the delicate paper peeling process necessary to get the pictures ready to put on the eggs. The results are well worth the effort, however, the ornaments, in spite of their delicate beginnings, are quite durable. Not one has broken in all the seasons of use and storage.

Polly majors in decorating every area of the house for Christmas with wreaths on tables, greenery centerpieces, and statuary. She is most proud of manger scene figures made by her late sister Josephine Barron. They are displayed on a table in front of the Tucker's high north picture window.

Cal's talent as an indoor gardener is obvious in and flourishing blooms and greenery near that window. Many plants that look like the picture of health were pitiful things on their last legs when given to Cal. A Crown of Thorns plant, which is supposed to bloom only once a year at Christmas, has bloomed continuously for Cal in the six years under his care.

The Tuckers are an interesting and talented couple. They enjoy painting ceramics and plaster

Bettie Hardin Awarded For Special Service

Chaplain Reginal Bridges from the State School in Lubbock came to the Sunday morning worship service at the First United Methodist Church in Abernathy January 6 to present Bettie Hardin with an award pin for special services for 2,000, plus hours over the past eight or nine years for special services at the State School.

Rev. Tommie Beck, pastor of the local Methodist Church said, "Chaplain Bridges gave a very touching speech before presenting Bettie with the award. He quoted him as saying, 'that when Bettie gets her crown there will be many who she has taught over the years at AHS who will say they want to help put the jewels in her crown and there will be many at church where she has played the piano for many years who will say they want to help put jewels in her crown, but there are many at the State School who would like to say they want to help put jewels in Bettie's crown but they can't in this life but, when they get to heaven they will be able to say they want to help.' Rev. Beck said, it was a very moving presentation to a very deserving lady."

JUST SHARING by Vicki Havens

(by Vicki Havens)
Here we are in a new year and a new decade ready to press on in faith that God is in control of His children and is faithful to all of us. As I was reading the Bible on New Year's Eve the LORD gave me a scripture that is a blessing. It is Psalms 99:5.

Praise (Exalt) ye the LORD our God, and worship at his footstool for he is holy. As I sat and thought about this verse at that time and later on, I felt like the LORD was saying that He wants His children to learn to really praise Him in all things. There are 3 scriptures that came to my mind, the one in St. John 4:23-24, but the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. 24. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth, and 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18, Rejoice evermore. Pray, without ceasing, in every thing give thanks for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. The last scripture says we are to give thanks in everything. There are many things in life that we may not feel like thanking the LORD for but, I think He is telling us to be thankful that He is in ever, thing with us giving us the grace and faith to go through everything we face in this life here on earth. So many times when we are having a circumstance in our life that is hard to understand or painful we begin to complain and doubt. We know that in this world we will have tribulation because Jesus told us in St. John 16:33, These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer: I have overcome the world. This scripture says that in Jesus we will have peace. There are many hurtful things that we experience in life but, there is still that abiding peace when we have Jesus Christ. I feel like it is very important to praise the LORD and be thankful everyday and when this is part of our life with the LORD when times of trial comes that will be a part of us and will be our strength. The second part of Ps. 99:5 says, and worship at his footstool: for he is holy. I feel like this says for us to have a quiet time with the LORD each day to give Him the praise He enjoys and wants from His children, to read and study his word and talk to Him about everything. He loves us and desires that we take time to be alone with Him. There is not one area in our lives that He is not concerned about no matter how small or big. He knows all about suffering, pain, rejection, loneliness, depression, oppression that you may

MRS. SHERLIN GERHART (nee Kathy Taylor)

Kathy Taylor-Sherlin Gerhart Wedding New Year's Eve In Methodist Church

Kathy Lynn Taylor and Sherlin J. Gerhart exchanged wedding vows in a candlelight ceremony on New Year's Eve in the First United Methodist Church. The Rev. Strader Taylor, uncle of the bride, officiated the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor of Abernathy and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Gerhart of Fairfield are parents of the couple.

A scalloped brass candelabra interlaced with greenery adorned the altar, balanced on either side of the railings were arrangements of white spider mums which accented the setting.

The bride wore a white gown of Lustre knit and Venise lace. The moulded bodice featured a high neckline with a sheer, i-shaped inset. The mandarin collar and sheer yoke were defined in Venise lace and sprinkled with seed pearls. Venise lace and seed pearls encircled the fitted waistline. Long bishop sleeves were shirred to a wide cuff, edged in Venise lace.

The accented pleated a-line skirt fell to floor length and swept to the back forming a chapel-length train, and was edged in Venise lace.

To complete her ensemble, Kathy chose a waltz length silk illusion veiling, caught to a Camelot capulet covered in Venise lace. The entire veil was embellished in Venise lace.

Her bouquet was a white cascade highlighted with powder blue. She carried the bouquet on top of an ivory Bible belonging to her mother.

Maid of honor was Belinda Taylor and Beverly Taylor was the honor attendant. Both are sisters of the bride. They wore identical gowns of blue Tinaseta knit and chiffon. Their criss-cross bodices were gathered with two spaghetti straps on each shoulder.

The accented pleated a-line skirts fell to floor length from empire waistlines. Matching chiffon capelets fastened at each shoulder with a self fabric bow. They carried blue and white nosegays.

Best man was Kenneth Gerhart with Phillip Gerhart as the groomsman. Guests were seated by Ronald Taylor and Larry Gerhart, brothers of the groom, and the father of the bride wore matching navy tuxedos.

Candlelighters were Trey Jacobson of Denton and Laurie Hughes of Dallas, cousins of the bride. Kyle Jacobson of Denton, Teri and Matt Dolgener of Denton, and Jamie Taylor of Dallas handed out rice bags.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall. Guests were served by Cindy Bates of Lubbock, Peggy Wilson of Pampa, Tori Goska of Austin, Susan Chapman of Midland, and Kelly Henderson of Midland.

Assisting with hospitalities were Charles and Mary Rose Bowen, Hoppy and Mona Toler, Richard and Vicki Havens, Bill and Billie Jean Harrison, and Gean and Nita Nunn.

The bride and groom are attending Texas Tech University. They plan to make their home in Lubbock.

I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth. Ps. 34:1

Knights' Mobile Home at Cloudcroft Hit by Fire Jan. 6

A mobile home five miles east of Cloudcroft, N. M., owned by the Jesse Knights of Abernathy, was badly damaged by fire that started about 3:40 a.m. Sunday, Jan. 6.

In the mobile home when the fire broke out were Mr. and Mrs. Knight and their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Knight and son Scotty. The fire started in, and was contained to, the vacant back bedroom of the unit. None of the occupants was injured in the fire.

Jesse Knight estimated the damage to the mobile unit at $3,000.00, or more. Loss of contents in the back bedroom included the clothing taken on the trip by the Boyd Knight family, estimated at $700.00 or more.

Jesse Knight said he has insurance to cover all of the damage and loss.

Knights credited the quick response of the Cloudcroft fire department in holding the damage to that bedroom. Also, he and Boyd had taken steps to shut off oxygen to the burning back bedroom while waiting for firemen.

The mobile home is parked near two big pine trees. Had the fire spread to the entire mobile home, a forest fire might have resulted. The wind was blowing near 40 miles per hour during the fire.

Investigation indicated that the fire resulted from electrical wiring, Knight said.

Denice Knox-Russell Abbe Repeat Vows In Candlelight Ceremony December 28

The First Baptist Church of Abernathy was the setting for the 7:30 p.m. candlelight ceremony that united Denice Rena Knox and Russell Layne Abbe in marriage, Friday, December 28, 1979.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the bride's cousin, Rev. Murry Brewer.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Pete Knox of Abernathy and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mullins, Jr. of New Deal.

The altar was decorated with a fan candelabra, two spiral candelabras and two seven branch candelabras, complemented by white tapered candles, entwined with greenery.

Denise Christopher presided at the bridal book as guests arrived. Missy Webb and Mrs. Angela Pope provided wedding music and accompanied Bobie Miller, of Floydada as he sang, "If, "Wedding Song", "Lord's Prayer," and "Whither Thou Goest."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a chapel length gown of ivory sheer organza over ivory taffeta. The bodice fashioned with a high maderin collar with a neck ruffle, featured a yoke of cheney lace laid with hand sewn pearls. Long fitted lace sleeves with hand sewn pearls and a ruffle at the wrists completed the look.

The princess styled skirt with appliques scattered about it swept into a chapel length train with a ruffle at the bottom. A camelot headpiece of matching lace and patterned beadwork held a walking length veil edged in lace. The bride carried a cascade of white carnations accented with dusty rose carnations and baby's breath.

For something old, the bride wore a 1959 penny in her shoe. A blue garter, worn by her mother at her wedding, was worn for something blue. For something borrowed, she wore a diamond necklace of her grandmother's, Mrs. E. M. Crow.

Maid of honor was Debbie Knox, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Becky Albers, Janet Mitchell, and Mrs. Amanda Curry. The attendants wore formal length dresses of silista chiffon over taffeta in a color of rosebud. The dresses were fashioned with elbow length split sleeves and a Mouson bodice which fell to a natural waist line and an accented pleated skirt. Each attendant carried a nosegay of white, burgundy and rose-colored carnations with baby's breath.

The groom was attired in a formal candlelight tuxedo featuring dark brown velvet lapels and a matching cummerbund. Rex Kirk of New Deal served as best man. Groomsman were Freddie Harkey, Kevan Looney, and Scott Mullins, brother of the groom, all of New Deal.

Guests were seated by Rusty Householder, Darren Knox, brother of the bride, Leslie Reed and Kenny Thiel. A reception followed in the fellowship hall. The bride's table was covered with an ivory lace tablecloth with silver appointments and a silver candelabra. The groom's table was covered with a brown knit cloth with a German chocolate cake. Coffee was served from a silver service set.

Assisting with the hospitalities were Mmes. Charles Bowen, Lewis Lutrick, Jim Odom, James Pope, George Riddell, Delwin Webb and Mrs. Betty Albers.

The bride is a graduate of Abernathy High School and attended South Plains College and Tarleton State University. She is employed by W. D. Wilkins Co.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A man held a gun on a frightened cashier in a small bank in New Mexico, while his girl-friend scooped up stacks of money.

Just as soon as they ran from the bank, the alarm was sounded. They were arrested following a car chase, and then they discovered that only the outside bills were real. The ones inside were fake bills.

Isn't that just like sin!

Sin promises you thrills, but get past the first one or two and it produces ills.

Sin promises you a kick, but after a little while you receive a kickback.

Sin promises life's fair bloom, but gives the bitter ashes of the tomb. In its deliberate deception, it does not appear as a hornet but as a hummingbird, not as a locust but as a butterfly.

Sin promises you the fruit of life. But when you come to eat it you find that it is green or rotten. It is never just right. It does not satisfy.

But the Lord saves and satisfies. Like David said, "Because the Lord is my Shepherd, I have everything I need."

ELECTRICITY FROM COAL...

It's good to know there's something we can depend on.

Almost all of us depend on electricity in our homes, factories, and offices to provide for more jobs... greater productivity... and a higher standard of living. Yes, electricity plays a big roll in the scientific and technological developments that make these things possible.

The constant striving for these innovative and advanced ideas and achievements of tomorrow means we will need more electricity. That's why Southwestern Public Service is continuing the building program of new electric generating plants that use coal as fuel. Because it's good to know there's something we can depend on.
