

Indians Play Running Game

The 'new' look of the Haskell Indian basketball team is truly a spectacular sight. Last Friday night the Indians defeated the Stamford Bulldogs in a fast and furious running attack. The Bulldogs could not run with the Indians in a 90-85 Indian win.

Paced by Joe Kretschmer with 26, and Tim Pringle with 24, the Indians led the Bulldogs until two minutes before the end of the half when the Bulldogs tied the score at 38-38. The Bulldogs led for a short time just before the half which ended in a 44-44 tie.

The second half was almost a repetition of the first with the Indians controlling the entire game. Outscoring the Bulldogs 26-12 the third quarter gave the Indians enough lead to drop nine points in the final period.

For the Indians Jackie Young had 17, Bobby Cobb had 9, Robin Colbert had 7, and Frank Jircek finished with 2.

The Maidens also won their game with the Bulldogs by a score of 66-36. Elliott paced the girls with 28 and Olson had 32 of Stamford's 36 points. Other scorers for the Maidens included Pam Colbert with 12, Terry Walton with 11, Margie Kretschmer with 6, Glenda Chapman with 5 and Marsha Berry with 4.

The B team lost 76-60 led by Randy Ivy with 27 and James McCoy with 18.

Tuesday night the Indians traveled to Merkel and were defeated by the number one pick of the district by a score of 75-56. Young paced the Indians with 15 followed by Jircek with 12, Kretschmer with 9, Cobb and Pringle both had 7, Jim Bob Miekler had 4 and Martin Randle had 2.

The girls won their game 44-38, led by Elliott with 16. Walton had 14, Chapman had 10 and Colbert had 7 for the Maidens.

The B team lost by a 41 point margin of 69-65. Ivy had 21 and McCoy had 17 for the B team.

TIM PRINGLE AND MARY ELLIOTT putting the ball up in an attempt for two points show the type of action Indian fans have witnessed all year. Pringle has averaged just over 10 points per game since district play opened last week. Elliott who has been high point individual for the girls consistently all year has averaged 18 points per game in district play.

M. E. Overton served as foreman of the jury.

Voter Registration Is Well Under Way

Permanent voter registration is well underway in Haskell County at the present time with 2,827 people already registered. County Tax Assessor-Collector Jimmy Owens has requested that all residents register by the last of this month so that his staff can complete the necessary voter rolls before the first primary.

A person registering this year and voting in any primary or general election will be registered for three years. In addition that person will be permanently registered if he continues to vote in at least one general or primary election each year.

February 28, 1971, there were 3,879 people registered to vote in Haskell County and with a Presidential election this year, everyone should make an effort to register and vote.

The majority of the eligible voters now live in urban areas but with a large turnout of rural voters, American government can be controlled by the rural population. Almost all colleges and large cities now have voter registration campaigns which are forcing the rural resident not only to register and vote, but to do everything possible to get all other rural residents to register and vote.

City Council To Take Bids On Airport Hangars

In the regular monthly meeting of the Haskell City Council Tuesday, called to order by Mayor H. V. Woodard, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The council voted to pay Council of Governments dues for the following year and to see about financial aid from the Federal Government available through COG.

Council members decided to take bids on hangars at the new airport. Specifications for the hangars will be available at the City Secretary's office before 5:30 p. m., January 25.

Discussion was held dealing with the purchase of new furniture for the Council room and it was decided that the Council would take bids and decide at a later date if the new furniture was possible.

Bills from December 28th to January 11th were presented and approved.

Present at the meeting were Councilmen Anderson, Duncan, Johnson and Gholson. Others present at the meeting were Mayor Woodard, City Secretary Ira Hester, Marvin Collins and Joe Williams.

Haskell Resident Stabbed

Juan Enrique Contreras, 21, of Waco, was charged with murder with malice aforethought before Justice of the Peace Hubert Bledsoe. Contreras is being held in the county jail where bond has been denied.

The incident reportedly took place during an argument concerning family matters.

Funeral services for Maximino Lopez Camacho were held at St. George's Catholic Church in Haskell Monday, January 10, with Father Sheen Sheeran, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Willow Cemetery under direction of Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

He was born in Haskell April 1, 1947, and lived here all of his life.

Hospital Board Seeks Assistance

Alfred Turnbow, Haskell Memorial Hospital Administrator, and the hospital Board of Directors have been told by the architectural firm of Killebrew-Rucker Associates that the bond issue of $200,000.00 is about $100,000.00 short of the mark needed to complete the proposed addition as it was specified in the original plans.

At the time of the bond issue the architectural firm assured the Hospital Board that the amount of $200,000.00 would be sufficient to complete the project as it was proposed.

In an effort to build the project in its entirety without having to pass another bond issue, the board is seeking financial assistance from the State Department of Health. Any funds received from this agency will supplement the bonds already received.

The following letter was mailed seeking information about the financial aid available.

HNB Statement Down From 1970

The yearly report issued by the Haskell National Bank showed slight reductions in assets and liabilities because of a late cotton crop.

Assets of $11,372,948.05 were $26,472.43 short of the 1970 total of $11,598,520.48.

Liabilities of $10,572,976.26 were $182,960.09 less than the 1970 total of $10,755,937.25.

Total Liabilities, Reserves and Capital Accounts were also short of the 1970 mark by $126,472.43.

With the possibility of two cotton crops in a single year Haskell National Bank could very possibly set a new record for deposits in a single year.

into the harvesting of their 1971 crop. What has resulted in a record-breaking delay in a cotton harvest still promises to produce a respectable crop. The past week of good weather, cotton strippers are working round the clock to get the cotton out of the fields, and farmers have finally been blessed with beautiful, spring-like weather for the operation.

Market prices are good, too, and gins are running in full-swing. County Agent Max Stapleton's gin report for Haskell County, through January 10, reported these results:

Haskell: Farmers Co-op Gin, 1085 bales; Haskell Co-op Gin, 668 bales; Duncan Gin, 411 bales.

Rochester: Paymaster Gin Co., 835 bales; Reeves Gin Co., 553 bales; Farmers Co-op Gin, 3064 bales.

O'Brien Co-op Gin, 3178 bales. Sagerton Gin Co., 1031 bales.

Rule: Rule Co-op Gin, 4271 bales; Lisle Gin Co., 4421 bales.

Weinert: Paymaster Gin Co., 1142 bales; Weinert Gin Co., 1,455 bales.

Total: 18,194 bales

Merchants Plan Dollar Days

Haskell merchants met Monday night to discuss the plans for the Dollar Days in Haskell. The Retail Trade Committee, led by Charles Thornhill of M-System, called the meeting because the circular promotion, used to publicize Dollar Days in Haskell for many years, had to be discontinued. The January announcement of the postal increase of 23.9% on this class mail was the final deciding factor in ceasing the circular's publication.

Progressive merchants, in discussing means of continuing the Dollar Day promotion for the betterment of Haskell, decided to use the solid county coverage of the Free Press to publicize the event, plus throwing surrounding towns city-wide with the promotion edition each month, at their discretion.

Dollar Days in Haskell will continue to be the third Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each month. They will also continue to offer the shopper the best buys possible on quality merchandise from each business in Haskell.

Attending the meeting were Bill Lane of Lane Apparel, Charles Owen of Owen TV &

Electric, Darold Roberson of Western Auto, Buster Gholson of Gholson Grocery, Jack McAdoo of Ben Franklin Store, Sue Fincher of Fincher's, Opal Adkins and Veta Furrh of The Personality Shoppe, Mrs. Hardin Cofield and Wilma Rogers of Cofield's Dept. Store, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Frazier of Frazier's Appliance, Mattie Muerell Felker and Francis Lane of Lane-Felker, Pat Hale of Hale Farm Supply, Chamber manager Rex Felker, Haskell Free Press publisher Bill Comedy, and Thornhill.

Phase I? Phase II?

These two phases of President Nixon's price freeze have been in the news since August 16, 1971. As a whole, the people of the United States have complied with the President's recommendations.

However, the Postal Service has recently asked for—and has been granted—an increase of 23.9% on third class postal rates, to go into effect January 24, 1972.

More and more in our national news, items crop up that have been protested as "unconstitutional". The Federal government has said a business firm cannot raise prices over the 2.5% granted in Phase II. The Post Office Department at one time was a government organization, but has recently been phased over into an independent body.

An increase on this third class rate might be needed, but 23.9%, during Phase II?

What happens if all independent businesses do this? And doesn't this set a precedent for further increases on first and second class postage, far above the 2.5% granted in Phase II?

It's worth considering. Must the general public suffer this?

Hospital . . .

(Cont. from Page 1, Sec. 1) have previously voted a bond issue in the amount of $200,000.00 for some much needed improvements to the hospital. Upon opening of bids on the proposed project, we found that the lowest bid exceeded our funds by almost $100,000.00. Our architectural firm of Killebrew-Rucker Associates of Wichita Falls, Texas, has been attempting to revise the plans to bring them within the available funds. There are so many necessary things that we have to eliminate that we feel that we need some additional assistance rather than to eliminate all of these items. We would like to make formal application for assistance on this project and will appreciate your advising us the proper procedure and furnishing us with the necessary forms if you have them available.

It is my understanding that in the past, applications on behalf of the Haskell Memorial Hospital have not been favorably received because of the existing water supply. However, Haskell is now included in the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority and the Water Authority is at this time buying land for the construction of a new lake which will furnish Haskell with an adequate approved water supply. We feel that since this water issue has become settled and definite action was being taken, that perhaps your department would look with more favor on an application for assistance at this time.

Any advise or assistance which you can give us in connection with this matter will certainly be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Signed: Alfred Turnbow

TEC Announces Benefit Dates

U. S. Secretary of Labor J. D. Hodgson has notified the Texas Employment Commission that the national trigger for extended unemployment benefits will be in effect beginning Jan. 2, 1972. The first date on which a claim for extended benefits can be filed in Texas is January 10, and claims filed through January 21 may be backdated to January 10. Claims filed after January 21 will not be backdated.

The extended benefits become payable to individuals as a result of amendments to state and federal law and are payable only to claimants who have exhausted their regular benefits," says R. L. Coffman, TEC Administrator. A claimant for extended benefits may receive as much as 50 percent of his total regular unemployment benefits, payable at the same weekly rate as his regular benefits. To be eligible for extended benefits, a claimant must not have entitlement to regular benefits in any state or territory; must have a benefit year that ends on or after January 2; must file for extended benefits covering weeks subsequent to Jan. 2, 1972; and must be totally or partially unemployed. He must also meet the conditions required to draw regular unemployment benefits, such as filing a claim, being able to and available for work, and actively seeking work.

Claimants must file with the Texas Employment Commission for extended benefits in the same manner they file for regular benefits.

The cost of extended benefits will be shared on a 50-50 basis from the state unemployment insurance trust fund and the federal government.

As required by federal law, the extended benefits program was incorporated in the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act by the 62nd Legislature.

Lions Club Views School Board Film On Safety

The regular meeting of the Haskell Lions Club was held on Tuesday with Bud Pogue, president, presiding.

After the opening prayer by David Brocus, Lion Gene Long led the club in a song session, accompanied by Ellen Walling. In a short business session, Lion Oscar Tooley read the minutes of the board of directors meeting which were approved as read.

Program chairman Gene Long introduced Jim Smith who is employed by the Texas Department of Public Safety. Smith asked for the cooperation of the club in getting the drunk drivers off our highways and read a short poem dealing with traffic safety. Smith then showed a film entitled "Mechanical Death" which showed many accidents on the highways of the State of Ohio. Viewing the film was enough to make all members of the club vow to drive safer at all times.

No guests were present.

Records Broken By Land Bank

Joe Harper, Manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Haskell, announced today that The Federal Land Bank of Houston closed more than 100 million dollars in loans during 1971.

The previous record for loans closed in a single year was set in 1965 when the Bank closed more than 94 million dollars in loans.

"Farmers generally have been a little more optimistic this year, a little more confident of the agricultural economy," Harper stated. "Then, too, the number of land sales are up somewhat this year over last year." Next year will also be a big year, Harper predicts.

"By midyear we will have the new Farm Credit Act implemented. This will permit us to lend more money in some instances and will also broaden the scope of our loan service to agriculture in other respects," he stated.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes farm and ranch real estate loans throughout Texas and on December 30 had more than 575 million dollars in loans outstanding to over 35,000 farmers and ranchers. The local association makes and services loans in Haskell, Baylor, Jones and Knox counties.

Aunt Sarah, I love you.

Remember my 10th birthday, when you gave me that funny piece of green paper and everybody made such a fuss over it. (Except me.) Frankly, it was a pretty disappointing present for a kid. I couldn't eat it, couldn't play with it, couldn't wear it—and Mom took it away from me practically the minute I got it.

And every birthday after that (and Christmas, too), you gave me another one of those Bonds, you called them. I thought you were pretty gooney.

At least, I never had to guess what I was going to get from good old reliable Aunt Sarah.

And what I got was good old reliable U.S. Savings Bonds.

What I didn't realize then was that you gave me a gift of security for the future. Thanks so you and those Bonds, I had extra funds for college. And they helped when I bought my first new car.

Next week, I'm giving my nephew, Harry, his first U.S. Savings Bond. I know the kid is gonna think I'm some kind of nut. But, someday . . .

Take stock in America.
Now Bonds pay a bonus at maturity.

—some for good reason and some perhaps not so good. Times and conditions have changed in recent years—one wonders if those of us who enjoy the out-of-doors have recognized the change and adjusted accordingly. By failing to abide by common-sense rules which should not have to be written in a book of instruction, hunters have invited an anti-hunting attitude in many parts of the Country. The State Legislature of Connecticut is considering abolishing all hunting. A continuous effort is being made by some organizations, news media and other methods to create opposition to any type of hunting and most use an approach of considerable appeal. A few simple observations for the hunter could considerably improve this situation. Of course, if the criticism comes from those who feel that hunting game is inherently a social evil or those caught up in the general revulsion against guns as related to violence, then rationale on the subject would be of little use. There is still, however, a conscience to be exercised by the hunter, even if for his own comfort and certainly for proper preservation of game for another day. There has always been the slob hunter—there always will be. Fortunately, his type is few among many but brings reproach on all. He is the fellow who wounds game and makes no effort to locate it. It is sometimes easier to shoot more without looking for cripples. The "no-rules" fellow may waste and kill game illeg-

Texas Number One In Exports Of Beef Cattle

AUSTIN—Texas, already No. One in the nation in exports of beef cattle, will show further gains in the coming years due to several programs being promoted by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White outlined these projects now being conducted by TDA to expand cattle exports:

- 1. Personal contacts by TDA personnel in lining up buyers and sellers of cattle for foreign purchases.
2. New export handling facilities to be built at a half dozen locations in the state.
3. A tour of Mexican government officials under auspices of TDA personnel to the Houston, Sulphur Springs, Panhandle and San Antonio areas of the state January 12 to 14.
4. Recently, about 200 head of dairy cattle were shipped from Central Texas to Mexico as a result of TDA personnel contacting Mexican buyers and getting them in touch with Texas' producers.
5. The cattle were shipped from the Evans Reese Auction Service barns near Waco.
6. Next—Drag your carcass to the car, place it over the hood—in the hottest place. This way it will dry out after awhile, catch all the dust and people can see you got one.
7. On the way home, stop at a beer joint and after warming up, tell all about it.
8. By being delayed you won't be home until well after midnight. Wake the locker plant man and tell him the way you want every piece cut.

business amounted to more than $12.5 million in 1970.

The Texas Legislature appropriated about $750,000 for construction of the new export facilities. Present shipping pens have been condemned.

Specifications for new facilities at Eagle Pass and Del Rio are expected to go to bidders by Feb. 1, 1972. New facilities will be located at the Houston International Airport and will be the largest of the proposed facilities.

"The new Texas facilities will be unequalled anywhere in the United States and far exceed minimum standards set by U. S. Department of Agriculture and Mexican authorities," said White.

Economic Stabilization

Q—What wage and salary adjustments must be pre-notified and approved and what are those that need only be reported?

A—Wage and salary adjustments which affect 5,000 or more employees, and all wage and salary adjustments for employees in construction must be pre-notified and approved by the Pay Board before they are made effective.

Wage and salary adjustments which affect from 1,000 to 5,000 employees must be reported to the Pay Board. For this group no pre-notification is necessary.

Q—How long will the second phase of the Economic Stabilization Program last?
A. No time limit is being set.

The objective is to end the program as soon as possible, but it will be kept in operation until the pattern of sharply increasing prices and wages has been broken. It will be ended when stability has been restored to the economy. As we approach the goal, controls of particular sectors may be removed or relaxed when that action is consistent with the general objectives of the program and will assist the transition to price stability. A task force of the Cost of Living Council has been established with a continuing responsibility to recommend steps to insure that the program is not unnecessarily prolonged.

Now on deer hunting here are some facetious tips:

- 1. First you need a fast car—so you can get there early on the first day of the season—get the best place and save a chance of being shot at before you get in the brush.
2. Be sure to shoot at anything that moves.
3. When you finally get your deer (maybe at 50 yards) be sure to pump a few more shots into the hams, backstrap and stomach.
4. Be certain not to bleed the critter.
5. If you skin your deer, roll him around in the dirt real good and then wrap him in newspaper.
6. Next—Drag your carcass to the car, place it over the hood—in the hottest place.
7. On the way home, stop at a beer joint and after warming up, tell all about it.
8. By being delayed you won't be home until well after midnight.

Well, the ideal hunter is a fellow like Burlison who couldn't hit that well-known bull with a bass fiddle but likes to be out-doors—to smell powder and hear the crack of the shot. And, too, there are the colors of fall, the wind in your face and coffee around a campfire—and the game still safe.

CAP Meeting

Beginning this year the Health, Education and Welfare department of Texas is requiring immunizations for all public school children.

The Haskell CAP Center held a clinic last Saturday giving 161 immunizations. The next clinic is set for Saturday, Jan. 15, at 2 p. m. at the CAP Center, located at 706 N. Ave. D East.

Dr. T. W. Williams urges all school children to take these immunizations on this day because state law requires all public school children to be immunized by the end of January.

Receives Award

Bill Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Cox, has been selected for the second consecutive year to Who's Who in American High Schools. Less than 1.5% of the students from 2300 high schools in the United States are selected to this honor.

Cox, a senior student at Haskell High, was selected for the same honor during the 1970-71 school year. Selection to the position makes Cox eligible for a $1,000.00 scholarship.

Students are judged on academic, athletic and extracurricular activities and other outstanding achievements.

MRS BAIRD'S Baked with family pride. The cattle were shipped from the Evans Reese Auction Service barns near Waco. ADVERTISING DOESN'T COST . . . IT PAYS!

CARD OF THANKS
 The Haskell Garden Club wishes to thank everyone who participated in any way in the Christmas Lighting contest. The Free Press gave us such nice advertising, running our entry blank for three weeks, and Mr. and Mrs. Comedy were most cooperative. The West Texas Utilities Company gave the 3 prizes for the Overall entries. Lone Star Gas Company gave first prize in the door entries, and M-System and Renfro Grocery gave the 2nd place prizes for door and window entries. The Garden Club gave the other prizes and the Rural Electric Co-operative gave 150 watt bulbs to each of the contestants who did not win any other prizes. The Garden Club members thought that Haskell was unusually beautiful this Christmas, and appreciated all the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce and the Haskell merchants in lighting the Courthouse and the square. Many homes were lighted and were not entered in the contest. Our out-of-town judges said it was the best lighted town they had ever judged, and they were most complimentary about Haskell homes. Thank you.

CARD OF THANKS
 To All of our friends who made our Christmas a very merry one, thank you.—The Guadalucazars. 2p

Sagerton . .

The A.L.C.W. of Faith Lutheran Church held its first meeting of the year last Thursday evening in the church basement. Miss Lillian Niernast, new president for 1973, took over the office and conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Yvonne Swofford discussed the topic, "Parables" and there was a group discussion. Refreshments were served by Miss Niernast and Mrs. Will Stegemoller.

On the sick list this week are: Lillian Niernast, who is a patient at Stamford Memorial Hospital; Mrs. J. W. Threet, who is a patient at Hendricks in Abilene; and Mr. J. W. Threet, a patient at a Houston Hospital. Mrs. Elmer Boedeker had surgery at Stamford Hospital last week. We wish them all a speedy recovery.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Y. Benton for dinner Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Gene Marr of Weatherford.

Mrs. Etta Leach left Monday for Fort Worth with her daughter, Mrs. Wilson Gibson. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gibson and family there and Mrs. Leta Polk.

We have another house in Sagerton as of last week. Mrs. Otto Lehmann has moved her house on the lots just north of the Stegemoller Grocery. She is having to wait to get the plumbing, etc. done before moving in, and we will be happy to have her here closer in to neighbors and her church. Of course her neighbors out south of town will miss her.

Several neighbors and friends gathered in the cotton field of Elmer Boedeker on Thursday evening of last week and stripped his cotton for him. Lunch was prepared by the ladies at the Boedeker home. Mr. Boedeker had heart surgery this past fall and is unable to do his own work now, and Mrs. Boedeker underwent surgery Thursday at the Stamford Memorial Hospital.

This week the farmers in the community plan to harvest Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Helm's cotton. Mr. Helm has been unable to get in his fields because Mrs. Helm has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ulmer and Mrs. Ulmer's sister and brother-in-law from New Orleans as their guests last week.

Mrs. Joe Clark took her daughter, Peggy, back to her classes in Austin at Concordia College Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell were called to Cross Plains recently for funeral services of Mr. Bell's brother, Buster.

Many in the community have been ill with colds and there are still some cases of chicken pox and mumps.

Mrs. Glyn Quade and son, Lyndell, went to Arlington Saturday for the wedding of a nephew, Danny Rash and Jan Webb, at the First United Methodist Church in Arlington. Lyndell went on to Austin where he is a student at Texas University.

Consumerism Is Club Program

The Magazine Club met Friday, Jan. 7, 1973, for the first meeting of the new year. Miss Nettie McCollum, president, began the meeting by having a silent prayer in honor of Mrs. R. R. Enebish, a long time Honorary Life member of the Magazine Club for 57 years. The silent memorial was closed with Miss McCollum reading the club collect.

The program, "Women are concerned with Consumerism" was directed by Mrs. Hill Gates. Mrs. Robert Wheatley discussed the topic "Protection for the Consumer". She explained that a fourth branch of the government as it could be called, is made up of the half-dozen major government agencies whose job is to regulate the large portion of the nation's business activity. Their duty is to protect the consuming public from unsound and unfair business practices, therefore they exercise some kind of control over the U. S. economy. Mrs. Wheatley named the big six among the regulatory agencies: Federal Communications Commission, Civil Aeronautics Board, the Federal Power Commission, the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Federal Trade Commission. The last named has the broadest assignment—it is actually the foremost consumer protection agency of the government. False advertising is one of the unfair practices they attack.

Mrs. Wheatley mentioned how long it took to get the word "liver" out of the name Carter's Little Liver Pills. By 1969 and 1970 much activity was noticed by the F. T. C. Their work was spurred on by the high cost of living and the rising tide of complaints about products and services. The U. S. Consumer movement is definitely coming along. Many major companies lately have appointed top-level officers to new positions solely concerned with consumer affairs. While the government is making concerted efforts to protect the consumer, the consumer also has a role to fill. Namely, read all tags and labels carefully, try to get definite information on the product to be purchased.

Mrs. Raleigh Lemmon discussed the topic "Consumer Education". She said an A. P. business analyst says that the American consumer today is a more self-reliant person, more so than he was even 10 years ago. Often the American consumer is pictured as a malignant and helpless creature buffeted by the sellers wanting his commercial world; he is used, abused, stimulated, manipulated by the sellers wanting his dollar. The evidence today points to the fact that the average American buyer has stiffened his resistance, that he is growing wiser and more self-reliant. Newspaper and magazine articles have been a big factor in educating the consumer. Other help has come from TV programs, classes in economics and business reports to the consumer. Proof of his getting "wise" is shown in the savings rate, auto sales, etc.

The savings rate is perhaps the most obvious indication that the consumer is being less gullible. Mrs. Lemmon said that an excellent article in the Readers Digest, Sept. 1970, explained how to save on household appliances. Other magazines have given detailed comparisons of the major appliances. Mrs. Lemmon also said there is an effort to educate the young people. In Dallas, the Dallas Health and Science Museum is offering a course, "The American Consumer", to the area young people. They will be the Mr. and Mrs. American Consumer in a few years.

Mrs. J. G. Vaughter and Mrs. Conner Christian served cake and coffee after the program.

Refreshments were served and a social time followed. The February meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. William J. Kemp. Mrs. John Smith will be program leader.

CONSERVATION NEW POINTS

J. C. YEARY, JR.
District Conservationist

New year, let's be in closer harmony with nature. A high quality environment. We need pure air, stable soil, natural wildlife. We also need food at reasonable prices. Conservation of our environment are by-products of water conservation.

Texas conservationists are working to prevent erosion and pollution until environmental restoration. As a result, millions of acres have been kept out of agriculture. It is still our largest industry. Sediment from mud, if you like, is to leave our valleys, streams, lakes and can be ruined by sewage wastes, fertilizers, and chemical "hitch a ride" on soil particles. Sedimentation is the cost of progress. Improved tillage, better grassland, better crop rotation.

History of Farmers Union

Jan. 12, 1910—Farmers Union asked measures to combat gambling in farm products, the beginning of a campaign which resulted eventually in adoption of the U. S. Warehouse Act and the Cotton Futures Act in 1916 and the Grain Futures Act in 1922.
Aug. 6, 1910—The National Farmers Union convention, held at Galveston, Texas, asked Congress to prohibit gambling in farm products. Evidence submitted over a period of years substantiated the need for legislation and led eventually to adoption of the Cotton Futures Act in 1914, the Packers and Stockyards Act of 1921 and the Grain Futures Act of 1922.

For instance, do you know all about deductions for child care or casualty losses? Or, that if your income increased over the last few years, you may save tax dollars by "income averaging"? And even if you did, would you know how to go about "income averaging" to begin with? Probably not. And there's no reason why you should. After all, you're an amateur when it comes to doing income tax.

Furthermore, if your return is audited we will accompany you, at no extra cost, to the Internal Revenue Service and explain how your return was prepared, even though we will not act as your legal representative.

This means that H & R Block is ready to offer you year 'round tax service for just one low fee a year, with no extra charge for audits and estimates.

H & R Block's charges start at $5 and the average cost was under $12.50 for the 7 million families we served last year.

Cotton Harvesting Interrupted Again

Cotton harvesting was interrupted again most of this week by unfavorable weather in the area serviced by the Munday Cotton Classing Office, reports Shirley A. Sewell, Officer-in-Charge. According to the USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service, 6,315 samples were classed this week bringing our season's total to 20,470.

Quality statistics for the week ended January 7, 1972 show 12% of the cotton was classed in the white grades which was the same as last week. 39% Strict Low Middling Light Spotted and 29% Low Middling Light Spotted were also about the same as the previous week. 14% of the cotton was classed in the Spotted grades, down 8 percentage points from last week. 38% of the cotton classed was reduced in grade due to bark or grass compared to 36 per cent the previous week. A breakdown of staple lengths show 31% staple 30, 47% staple 31, 19% staple 32, and 3% staple 33.

The micronaire readings were slightly lower this week with 11% having a reading of 3.4 and below and 89% reading in the desirable range of 3.5-4.9.

Cotton prices increased this week with farmers continuing to offer freely. Farmers are presently selling their cotton for 30 to 32.50 cents per pound hog round.

Statement of National Farmers Union

Presented by Joe D. Rankin, Vice President of Texas Farmers Union Presented to the House Agriculture Cotton Subcommittee. Concerning H.R. 11706 and related bills to require the Secretary of Agriculture in the event of natural disaster, to make adjustments in payments yields for producers of cotton.

November 29, 1971

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Subcommittee:

My name is Joe D. Rankin. I am a cotton farmer in Crosby County, Texas. I am serving this year as Vice President of Texas Farmers Union. My appearance today is in behalf of National Farmers Union. With me today is Reuben L. Johnson, Director of Legislative Service, National Farmers Union.

Farmers Union is vitally concerned with the future of cotton and of American agriculture. Today we see an agriculture that is efficient and is providing ample supplies at the lowest cost to consumers in history while farm income continues to decline. Farmers Union is on record as opposing the present farm program because with it we see reduction of net income, elimination of marketing quotas, loss of supply management controls and gross inequities of production payments.

It is indeed encouraging to know the Cotton Subcommittee is considering legislation to correct the inequities of production payments that have imposed hardships and injustices and have significantly reduced net farm income of cotton producers.

The real issue before this Subcommittee today is to assure that fair adjustments be made in determining the "paying" average yield of producers who have abnormal yields in any year caused by natural disasters.

The paying average yield concept is a basically sound method to make production payments, which cotton producers endorse; provided, that natural disasters will be given adequate consideration. The crux of the problem can best be illustrated by reviewing the actual yield per acre for the last 10 years in the United States.

As the table indicates the entire cotton belt experienced disasters in 1969, 1970, 1971 and not much better in 1967. We must go back as far as the 1970 projected yield, in order to realize the extreme penalties and losses to producers. The 1970 projected yield is very important because it was substituted in lieu of the actual yields for the years 1968 and 1969 when computing the 1971 average yield and it (1970 projected yield) will be substituted in lieu of 1969 actual yield when computing the 1972 average yield.

In Texas, when the 1970 yield was computed it was virtually on actual production as allocated to the counties; 186 counties had a reduction of projected yields for 1970, 121 of these 186 had the maximum of 13% reduction of county projected yield. Fifty-two counties had a slight increase and one cotton producing county remained the same as in 1969.

When the ASCS County Committee made allocations to producers in 1970, some projected yields were reduced by as much as 30%; this being the extreme case. Reductions of 15 to 19 percent were common. Producers were obviously without adequate provisions for natural disaster and most producers lost heavily.

Beginning with the 1970 projected yields which did not provide proper adjustments for natural disasters the 1971 average yield was computed by picking up the 1970 actual production, which was another belt wide crop disaster. However, the Department of Agriculture provided up to 80% adjustment for natural disasters in 1970. Now producers are faced with the 1972 average yield computations picking up the 1971 actual production, which appears to be another disaster, but providing up to 90% adjustment for natural disasters.

How much has this affected producers?

As an example of what has happened to producers who have had natural disasters the last three years a 650 lb. projected yield in 1969 has been reduced 182 lbs. or 27.8 percent loss. Mr. Chairman, I have with me a projected yield loss for years 1970, 1971 and 1972. I would appreciate your permission to insert the explanation into the record at this point in my remarks. The explanation is attached to my statement as Exhibit "A".

Farmers Union believes and recommends legislation should authorize and require the Department of Agriculture to adjust average yield to 100% of the prior year for disasters.

to 100% of the prior year for disasters.

The Department of Agriculture correctly and properly evaluated the Pink Boll Worm Program in the Imperial Valley of California a drastic and punitive to cottoners and will allow "hardship" payments of average yield up to the last year's average yield. However, the Department of Agriculture should recognize that almost all cultural production areas can have extreme, severe and disasters, such as drought, hurricanes, pink boll worms, hail, and early freezes. State of Texas we have experienced all of these extremes in 1971. Provisions are not made in 1972 average yield to what is a equitable level. The producer have a disaster will be further realized another two years, due normal conditions beyond the control.

In conclusion, the 1971 Cotton program, by delayed penalizing has created an uncertainty and anxiety among producers. By these shortcomings can be corrected by legislation that will provide adjustments of cotton average yield to 100% of the previous year, assuring a fair return to the producer and adequate supply of cotton to the industry. This was the intent of Congress in passing the 1971 Act.

 WACO—(Spl)—Farmers and ranchers have won a clear-cut victory in regard to farm truck driver regulations, according to J. T. (Red) Woodson, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

30 YEARS AGO
Jan. 16, 1942
 The final revised regulations which have been issued and in effect since Jan. 1 are in accordance with Farm Bureau's recommendation, the state farm leader said.

30 YEARS AGO
Jan. 16, 1942
 Woodson said Farm Bureau members around the nation responded to a call for action last Spring that resulted in a decision by the Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety to change the proposed stringent rules on farm truck driver qualifications. Leaders of the American Farm Bureau Federation said the proposed response by farmers and ranchers was one of the greatest ever seen. The proposed revisions announced on June 8 are similar to the final revised rules.

30 YEARS AGO
Jan. 16, 1942
 In brief, these revised regulations provide a complete exemption from federal regulations in the case of a driver of a farm truck:

(1) If the gross weight of the truck is 10,000 pounds or less, or

(2) If the truck is a straight truck with a gross weight over 10,000 pounds, within a radius of 150 miles of the farm, or

(3) If the truck is engaged in transporting machinery or supplies to or from a farm for custom harvesting or transporting custom harvested crops from the farm to storage or market, or

(4) If the truck is engaged in hauling bees in seasonal movement.

A partial exemption is made in the case of the driver of a farm truck which is a combination truck with a gross weight in excess of 10,000 pounds, within a radius of 150 miles of the farm. In such cases, the driver must be at least 18 years of age, and after next Jan. 1, must carry with him while driving a certificate showing he has passed a medical examination.

In addition to the provisions spelled out in the revised rules, the Bureau of Motor Carriers said that: "Generally, the operation of trucks wholly within a state are not subject to the Driver Qualification Regulations."

Farmers or their employees who are not exempt as provided above are subject to the same regulations as non-farm drivers. These requirements are that the driver must:

(1) Be at least 21 years old.
 (2) Take a road test in driving a truck.
 (3) Take a written examination in the federal motor vehicle safety regulations.
