Football, Parties, Speakers Slated For 10th Homecoming

Coming home . . . A place I long to see Mom, Dad, childhood friends Old home, so dear to me.

The plans are laid, the stage is set. From the three o'clock registration Friday all the way through to the singing Saturday night of Haskell High, dear Haskell High, it looks as though this weekend will be the biggest and best yet in the history of Haskell Homecoming.

Two full days, October 22 and 23, lie in store for all Haskell High exes as they gather to celebrate this 10th Bi-Annual Homecoming. The Homecoming Association has been laboring for weeks in preparation for this weekend, devoted to bringing old friends and classmates back here for a couple of days of remembering, entertainment, mingling, and planning for all the people of Haskell.

kell ex-students, all present and former teachers, employees and School Board members, and patrons of the Haskell schools.

And a definite purpose was expressed for the organization at the 1955 meeting. A purpose to promote contact, friendship, and goodwill among its members. And secondly, but just as important, to promote the welfare and advancement of Haskell schools.

Two years later, at the October 26, 1957 homecoming, the Association, with president Royce Adkins presiding, was to decide to hold the Haskell Homecoming every other year.

And then four years later, October 6-7, 1961, the organization decided to adopt a sugges-

Win District Opener

Injuns Blast Pied Pipers, 33-16

The Fighting Haskell Indians dashed to a quick two touchdown lead over the Hamlin Pied Pipers and then had to play tough to stay ahead as the Pipers came alive on their home field Friday night. But the Indians proved too much speed and power for the younger, lighter Pipers and stuck them with their sixteenth straight loss, 33-16.

Jackie Young ran wild in the first half for the Indians, scoring on runs of 72 yards on the first play from the line of scrimmage and on a 78 yard punt return as Haskell captured its fourth win in six games for the year and will carry an unblemished district mark into next week's Homecoming encounter with the Anson Tigers.

Anson dropped its opener Friday night at home to Stamford, 28-6.

With the Indians setting up business on the 28 yard stripe, Young took a handoff from QB Bobby Cobb and started looking for open spaces. Breaking several tackles along the way, the junior speedster saw daylight and turned on the afterburner. Not too many can catch Young if he gets loose which the Pipers quickly found out. He went in standing up and, after Jim Mickler added the kicked extra point, Haskell had a 7-0 lead with only 24 seconds gone in the ballgame.

Pipers Can't Run
When the Pipers finally got their hands on the ball, the Indian defense showed them that they had little chance to move the ball on the ground. Rangy Hamlin back David Willis was nearly torn apart as he tried to run on the Indians. Later the Pipers would go to the air for their gains.

Two minutes after Young brought the crowd to its feet with his scoring run, he moved under a Piper 39 yard punt on his own 22 yard line.

Again his legs and determination sifted through the Piper defenders. He has such powerful strides that any Piper who tried to tackle him high would just bounce off. Eventually the Hamlin boys would learn how to tackle and nearly contain Young in the second half.

But for now, Young was sailing down the Hamlin sideline with nothing but green grass and fresh air between him and paydirt. Ol' Jim Bob Mickler, who Coach Tommy McAdams says "does everything", put the extra point through the uprights and it looked like it might be a long evening.

Hamlin coach Deane Wright had different ideas though. He inserted big Milton Jones in at quarterback replacing Steve Mackey, and Johnny Jones at halfback for Willis, and suddenly, with the powerful thrusts of big Barry McDonald, the Pipers had an offense.

The Pipers tried to capitalize on a bad snap on an Indian punt as they took over on the Haskell 46. After Danny Smith (Continued on Page 5, Sec. 1)

Area Towns Lose Papers

Residents of Rochester and Rule who can offer proof of subscription to the Rochester Reporter or Rule Review within the last 9 months, at the Haskell Free Press office may have one year's subscription to the Free Press for half-price, if they are not now subscribers to the Free Press. Since the papers are no longer in operation, subscriptions will be honored here in this way so that our county subscribers may continue to have their hometown paper. This offer is valid through November 30, 1971. The Haskell Free Press will be on sale at the Jackson Drug Store in Rochester and at Wood's Pharmacy in Rule.

Not long ago the Herring Publishing Co. bought and combined the Rule Review and Rochester Reporter newspapers.

Today these newspapers have ceased publication.

In neighboring Knox County, the largest two cities, Knox City and Munday have both lost their newspapers in the last week.

The merchants of Knox City and Munday who have advertised in the local papers have met and banded together in hopes of finding someone to rebuild the publications.

However, the Haskell County towns of Rule and Rochester are without a local newspaper, and as of this date, no plans are known of starting one.

The Rule Review and Rochester Reporter was last published Thursday, October 7.

The Haskell Free Press will attempt to give these two nearby cities home town coverage with news, advertisements and sports.

Publisher Bill Comedy of the Free Press stated, "It's really a tragedy when towns like Rule and Rochester and the two Knox County cities lose their local papers. But we want subscribers of Rule and Rochester to know that we will try to increase and better our coverage of your communities."

"The Free Press welcomes all new subscribers," he said, "and we want you to feel that this is your newspaper, too."

The Free Press will continue with Mrs. Dale Lewis, Rule, Mrs. Henry Smith, Weinert, and our new correspondent from Rochester, Sherry Sloan, to provide reports of happenings in our surrounding towns.

These ladies will also be available if you have a question concerning advertising, subscriptions, or news.

Rule Farmer Dies After Car Wreck

A Rule farmer died as a result of natural causes early Thursday morning, October 14, after he had been involved in an automobile accident Wednesday afternoon on U. S. Highway 380, three and one-half miles east of Rule.

Pete Flores, 74, a resident of Rule for the last 25 years, was a passenger in a pickup driven by his brother, Gregorio, also of Rule, when it came in collision with a 1965 automobile driven by Marie Fouts, Sager-ton.

Highway Patrolman James Davis reported the accident had occurred at 1:20 p. m. Wednesday and that the 1972 pickup the Flores brothers were in, was headed west on the highway.

Both cars were extensively damaged but Mrs. Fouts and Pete Flores were the only two who required medical attention. Hospital officials said both were treated for minor injuries and released.

During the night, Flores began respiratory problems and died at 12:10 a. m.

Services for the longtime farmer were held in the Catholic Church at Haskell, Friday, October 15, the Father Sean Sheeran reading mass.

Flores' survivors include: a daughter, Dora Martinez, Austin; a son, Jesse, Austin; eight grandchildren, three great-grandchildren; two brothers, George Flores, Rule, and Santos Flores, Quanah; and two sisters, Andela Sanchez and Carmen Estinoza, both of Dallas.

Pinkard Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

County Towns Have Another Wet Weekend

Rain continued to pelt the county towns as up to five inches fell in various parts. The heaviest rain was reportedly north of Weinert, while in the town of Weinert, 3.2 inches were recorded.

Another electrical storm passed through the county Saturday night, knocking out electricity in some parts.

O'Brien recorded a 4.20 inch rain Saturday night, while some of the towns in the county were hit very light.

Haskell got only .07 inch of rain Saturday and then .33 of an inch early Monday. Though the clouds and lightning looked bad here Saturday night, only light, compared to what we have had, rain fell.

Sagerton recorded a half inch of rain while just north of the town received two inches and hail.

Rule had 2.10 inches of rain and was pelted by golf ball size hail stones Saturday night.

Over at Paint Creek only a trace of .02 inch was recorded over the weekend.

$1,000, a scholarship would be given with the surplus to a Haskell student. The scholarship would be given on merit, scholarship, and grade average.

The first recipient of the Haskell Homecoming Association's annual scholarship was Riley Middleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Middleton, who is currently attending San Angelo State University. The latest student to receive the honor of the Association's scholarship is Lynda Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lane, now attending Texas Tech University.

Down through the years of the organization many men and women of Haskell have given of their time serving on the various committees and boards for homecoming.

The presidents have included Oates, Adkins, Mrs. Alice Irby Paine (1959), R. W. Herren (1961), Clay Smith (1963) Ira Hester (1965), Wallace Cox, Jr. (1967), Raja Hassen (1969), and the current president, Dr. Wm. J. Kemp.

Homecoming Highlights
Tracing back through the years to find out the standout events of Haskell Homecoming brought an exhaustive number of speakers and guests who have made homecoming festivities more interesting and delightful.

The distinguished doctors, Dr. Frank Spencer and Dr. Henry William Post, who will speak this weekend, join a long list of well known former Haskell students that returned to their hometown.

Glancing back in time brings these memories to mind: 1957, when Judge Tom Davis introduced as speaker, the Honorable Clyde Grissom, Chief Justice of the Court of Criminal Appeals . . . 1959, former Haskell student and now president of Litton Industries, Charles Bates Thornton was the speaker and Miss Maybellé Taylor was in attendance all the way from Recife, Brazil . . . 1961, when Mrs. Ann Taylor Fisher presented the delightful, "Remember When" assisted by Nancy Burton Toliver, Carolyn Pippin, Mary Sherrill Chapman, Addie Cobb Middleton, and they are caused!

CLASS OF 1940—How many of these will you see at Haskell Homecoming?

This seemed to be the theme of C. O. Holt's comments on safety on October 5, when members of the Lions Club visited the Lake Creek Power Plant. Holt cited the power plant's enviable record of only one "lost time" accident in 18 years of operation. "It's 99 per cent true," Holt said, "that for every accident, someone made a mistake."
We goofed once!
The result was the loss of the little finger on our right hand—at the first joint. We were working on a Menges folding machine, trying to take some of the bums and rattles out of it. We goofed because we had employees who had nothing to do but work on the machine (but we had to help).

We had put grease on some of the meshing gears, and when the machine started running we noticed a smear of grease that would mess up the papers when we started running them through. We made a swipe at the grease with a rag! We shouldn't have done it!
When the gears caught the rag, we stubbornly held onto it, and continued to do so until our hand also became caught. It was an accident—but we had goofed again.

One of the hardest words for us to say is "Goodbye."
Not that it's a tongue-twister or anything like that, but to us it sounds so final.
Which reminds us of when we went to Munday back in 1938. We had a teenager high school student working part time on the newspaper, and the first time we entered the saw room in the back shop we found where he had scribbled these words on the wall: "Please be careful. Death is so permanent!"
We kinda regard goodbye in that category; therefore, we don't use the word very often. Even when leaving home for a day, or half-day, or two hours as the occasion may be, we kinda give the Mrs. a peck-buss and say: "Well, good day"—not goodbye!

So, as we close out some four weeks at the editorial desk of the Haskell Free Press, as we have done on several occasions in the past, we're not going to use the word "good-bye." The "boss lady" don't want us to use it, anyway, because she says: "We might need you again sometime."
As we turn the reins, the desk, chair and typewriter over to the newest employee of the Free Press—Steve Foster—we're just going to borrow the words of a top-rated comedian, Red Skelton, and say: "So long for now—and may God bless!"
And that's not "tomfoolery."

Homecoming 1971!
The Lions Club of Haskell will kick-off the festivities with a Pancake Supper Friday prior to the football clash between the Anson Tigers and the Indians of Haskell.
The 1971 Homecoming Queen will be crowned during halftime ceremonies of the football game.

The main event of Saturday begins at 2 p. m. in the high school gym. The General Assembly will be opened by Royce Adkins giving the Invocation, Karen Pippin, accompanied by Ellen Walling, will sing God Bless America. Following this will be the welcome to all exes by president William J. Kemp, who will also introduce Dr. Spencer and Dr. Post.

The Homecoming Association will pay a memorial tribute at the General Assembly to all the exes who have passed away. It will also recognize and honor early day pupils up to class of 1900, the class with the largest number attending, the largest immediate family of ex-students present, recognize all former teachers, and the person who came farthest for the homecoming will be honored.

An agenda for the Homecoming activities has been printed elsewhere in the Free Press.
Class Parties
Also on tap for the weekend are various class parties and luncheons.

The classes of 1956, '57 and '58 will gather for an 11:00 a. m. till 1:00 p. m. luncheon at the Country Club. Mary Sorrell and Betty McBroom hosting.

The class of 1929 will meet after the Homecoming football game Friday night at the home of Elyse Eastland, 1800 North Ave. F. Also, an after game party will be held for the 1961 class at the home of John Wallace.

That same 1961 class will also gather at Audie Stock's Saturday night, 7:30 p. m.

The class of 1941, ironically which both speakers, Dr. Spencer and Dr. Post are members, have three meetings slated. The class will meet after the football game at the home of Patsy Cobb, Saturday at 9:30 a. m. at Felker's Restaurant, and that night at 7:00 p. m. at Dr. William Kemp's.

The classes of '32 and '49 are invited for morning coffee Saturday at 10 a. m. to the home of Col. and Mrs. Jim Isbell, 807 N. Ave. F.

The big day will close out Saturday night when everyone will gather at the Legion Hall for the finale. Homecoming 1971 will have come and gone . . . but it will be remembered.

Editorial Tomfoolery

By AARON EDGAR

"The time will never come when you do not need a friend. The time may come when you'll need every friend you have."

We closed out a column many years ago with the above statement. For some reason this type of "foolosophy" has been popping up in our thoughts.

We had had a rash of petty shoplifting in our town, and local merchants had become worried about the situation. Since many of the early-school-aged youngsters were members of prominent and respected families, rather than talk to their parents or law enforcement officers, they "put the bee" on us to try to remedy the situation.

They thought perhaps our column would encourage the youngsters to do something about their sticky fingers and bulging pockets when they visited a local store. So we tried, pointing out that the very people from whom the wrongdoers were snatching items were their very good friends who were trying to make a living selling the merchandise that was disappearing from their counters.

We don't know whether our dissertations, mingled with admonitions, did any good or not. Anyway the mischievousness subsided—maybe because the kiddoes just grew out of that period. So far as we know, they all went on to make substantial citizens. We had pleased a customer, and received no "kick-back" either from the petty snatchers or their parents.

We think the philosophy is still sound. We'd hate to go through life without a friend in the world. We've seen the time when a goodly number of them was plumb helpful!

Swinson Tells Lions Club Members About Cotton Pickin' Russians

"As we came near the United States, the pilot came over the speaker and told us that we were over the Statue of Liberty." Charles Swinson told the Lions Club of Haskell, "we all stood in the aisle of that airplane and sang God Bless America."

Swinson was telling of returning home, but his subject in the regular meeting of the Lions at Felker's Restaurant Tuesday noon was his trip to Russia.

"I enjoyed the trip thoroughly," said Swinson, "but I was glad to get home and I have no desire to go back."

He told of his trip to the Communist country to learn, along with other cotton farmers, of the Russian cotton farming. He related of the impressive facts the Russians gave them on the increasing farming and equipment use there.

But he also brought out the fact that the Russian farmers work only for the government and are paid little.

Before Swinson began his program, the Lions discussed other business including the big Pancake Supper to be held prior to the Homecoming football game Friday night. A big crowd is expected for the annual Lions sponsored event.

Farmers Union Supports Same Policy Statement

Ask yourself what you like about your organization. If you approve of it, support it. If you don't approve, then you have the right to get out.

This was one of the highlights of the speech delivered to the annual meeting of Farmers Union by Kenneth Moss, Lubbock Moss is State Organization Director of Farmers Union and he made the speech Tuesday, October 12, at Felker's Restaurant.

Nearly 50 members and guests attended the yearly meeting to elect officers, hear Joan Caddell of Weinert, and to hear Moss tell of why farmers should belong to Farmers Union.

Moss brought up the question of the difference farmers get for cotton and what the mills get.

Included in the guests for the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Foy Mitchell, Rotan, District III Director of the Union.

Miss Caddell showed slides and discussed her trip to Washington, D. C., which the Farmers Union help to sponsor.

Willard Mullins was re-elected to the presidency of the local union, while others named were, Hollis Calloway, vice president and County Organization Director, H. E. Fischer, second vice president, and Mrs. Janet O'Neal to replace outgoing secretary-treasurer Mrs. J. R. Perry.

In the resolutions committee meeting of the Union held on Tuesday morning at Felker's Restaurant, the members felt that the Bracero Program should be reinstated into their policy statement. Other than this, the Union felt that the 1971 policy statement was sufficient in stating their feelings.

"We felt that this program should be reinstated," stated Farmers Union president Willard Mullins, "due to the shortage of dependable farm labor," available at Haskell Free Press.

Tray Presented to Mrs. Edie Cennel For Outstanding Young Homemaker

The monthly meeting of Haskell Young Homemakers was held October 14 at 7:30 in the homemaking cottage. Year-books for 1971-72 were distributed before the meeting began. The meeting was called to order by President Billie McKeever who led the group in reading of the creed of the organization. Grace Hannsz then gave the inspirational for the evening. Officers presented the emblem service to the members as they did it at the Area IV convention. Ten guests were recognized and welcomed, including Mary Jennings, Sandra Guinn, Carolyn Weaver, Janet Strickland, Linda Willbanks, Julie Ewing, Jeanne Forehand, Jamie Weaver, Aleene Foster and Peggy Darden.

Mrs. Edie Cennel was presented a silver tray and arrangement of red carnations. This tray was to have been presented to her at the Area IV convention where she was named runner-up for Outstanding Young Homemaker. However, it was not available at that time so the local organization was privileged to make it a special evening for her.

Vice-president Judy Brister introduced the program for the evening. Jim Silverman gave a very informative talk on "Modern Anesthesia." Those present were very interested in what Mr. Silverman had to say and enjoyed his presentation.

Reports were heard from various committees and it was noted that the club had already collected $101.98 for the West Texas Rehabilitation Center with the soft drink bottle drive.

The club voted to assist the Adult Basic Education classes at the CAP Center with volunteer services from the members.

The meeting was adjourned and members and guests retired to the living room for refreshments. Hostesses for the evening were Lynda Burris, Louise Thornhill and Betsy Bell.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Willie L. Boecker of Stamford, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Siri, to Mr. Roger Stevan Livengood.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Stamford High School and has attended West Texas State University. Mr. Livengood, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer E. Livengood, Rt. 2, Haskell, Texas, graduated from Paint Creek High School and attended Texas Tech University for two years.

Both are presently students at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, Texas, where they plan to continue their studies.

The wedding will be January 8 in the First Baptist Church in Stamford.

Magazine Club Gives 'Tribute'

Haskell's Magazine Club paid a tribute to Pioneer Women in their regular meeting Friday, October 15.

Before Mrs. R. L. Lemmon's talk on how women helped shape early history, Mrs. Wallace Cox, Sr., read the Chuckwagon Supper poem written by Mrs. C. L. Lewis.

In her program, Mrs. Lemmon spoke of Dorothea Dix, Prudence Crandall, and other women who had various parts in the making of U. S. pioneer history.

"A Tribute" was given by Mrs. L. R. Burkett. Four red candles were placed in the background to light four white candles in the front as a tribute to four club members who passed away last year. Mrs. Burkett paid a fitting tribute to Mrs. Richard Brieger, Mrs. C. L. Lewis, Mrs. C. T. Jones and Mrs. C. V. Payne by playing a recording of "Others."

The program for the evening was under the direction of the Legislation Committee. Mrs. Clyde Bland, chairman, introduced guest speaker, Mrs. Frank W. Martin, recognizing her participation in school, church and civic activities of our town.

Mrs. Martin reviewed her recent trip as a member of a group visiting seven countries and at least fifteen major cities in 22 days. Using a large map the speaker traced the itinerary of the "Grand Tour of Europe." As she described sites and events of interest she showed numerous pictures from each city.

The tables in the clubroom carried out a Halloween motif, with an orange and black cat design.

Mrs. Herren Cites Need For Youth Concern

Mrs. R. W. Herren was in Austin over the weekend representing the 24th Congressional District in the Senate Democratic Executive Committee meetings held there.

She remained in the state capitol for a special meeting of the nominating committee of SDEC as several names of prominent Texan men were presented to the organization as candidates for chairman of this politically powerful committee.

The weekend began for Mr. and Mrs. Herren as they took the young man representing this district, Mark McCoy, a sophomore at Abilene Christian College, to the Youth Advisory Meeting in Austin.

"We feel that because of the gap that exists between young people today and the older people," Mrs. Herren said, "that there is a need to have the younger generation represented in the committee."

"These young people are urged to go back into their communities to try and organize and interest others of their age group," she said.

Mrs. Herren left for Dallas and the Wednesday meeting of the SDEC at the Adolphus Hotel.

Fashion Review Shown to FHA

The Haskell Future Homemakers were presented a "Fall Fashion Preview" in their meeting at the High School library, October 11.

Mrs. Sue Fincher, of Fincher's Ready-to-Wear, was in charge of the presentation and described the clothes as they were shown.

Later, the F.H.A. discussed their trip that they took October 16 to the State Fair in Dallas. Too, they talked of helping the Young Homemakers organization collect bottles in their drive for funds.

The club also announced their candidate for Homecoming Queen as Nancy Kay Middleton and presented as F.H.A. beau, Ricky Phemister.

Door prizes were given at the conclusion of the meeting.

'Cats Rule Over Bronte

It's going to take a team more powerful than the Bronte Longhorns if the Rule Bobcats are going to lose a ballgame. The Class B powerhouse from down the road a few miles rolled over the Longhorns at Bronte Friday night, 27-6.

Rule is still undefeated after five outings while it was just the second loss in six games for Bronte.

Don Hisey, Bobcat halfback, scored twice in the opening period to get the ball rolling. He escaped for scoring jaunts of three and ten yards and along with Bobby Anders extra point kicks, pushed Rule to a 14-0 first quarter lead.

Things calmed down a bit until the third quarter when Hisey decided it was time to liven things up. The halfback flashed 65 yards for another TD to put the game out of reach of Bronte. The try for extra point was short.

Art Briles took a Ricky Lehmann aerial of 20 for the last Rule score and Anders tacked on the extra point.

The Longhorns finally dented the scoring column on a pass play that covered 82 yards from QB Allen Barbee to end Jim Raughton. The run for extra points failed as did the Bronte hopes as time ran out.

HASKELL INDIANS, class of 1944. Can you recognize either of them? They were on the track team.

Steers Lose, Pirates Edged In Class B

Area Class B football teams, other than Rule and O'Brien, failed to gain victories as the Rochester Steers and the Paint Creek Pirates were still searching for a winning formula.

Rochester was punted by the Matador Matadors Friday night, 48-0. The Steers can't seem to get untracked offensively or defensively in this disappointing season.

The Pirates did make a game out of their meeting at home with Strawn Friday.

They held the stronger Strawn team to eight points through three quarters but couldn't put anything on their side of the scoreboard.

Joe Galindo went to the air 65 yards to Roy Diaz to give the Pirates a glare of hope, but it didn't come until the fourth quarter.

Bobby Reiser took a pass for the extra points from Galindo. Strawn tallied on runs of 25 and 33 yards by Bill Hinkson and Wes Whitley and added a safety when Galindo was tackled in his own end zone.

Hamlin Edges Haskell 'Bees'

The Haskell Indians 'B' team dropped a close decision to Hamlin's 'B' Pipers, 22-20, Thursday afternoon at Indian Field.

The Indians opened the scoring midway through the first period when they drove down to the Hamlin 11. Promising quarterback Kenny Ivey then hit O. D. Johnson for the score.

But the Indians were unable to get the extra point or contain the Pipers. They marched right back down the field to tie the game.

Later, in the second quarter, the Indians allowed Hamlin to take the lead with a long scoring pass and extra point. The third stanza Ivey found Tim Pringle with another touchdown pass, and Pringle would also get the extra points.

The gem of the ballgame occurred in the fourth quarter. Tim Pringle somehow took the ball away from the Hamlin runner and went 88 yards for another Haskell score. However, a failure for extra points was the results of the game as Hamlin was able to score once more and get their extra point.

O'Brien Turkey Shoot

There'll be a Turkey Shoot held all day Saturday, October 23, at the Old Bob's Grocery Store on Main Street in Knox City. Carmen Conn reported that the O'Brien freshman class would be sponsoring the Shoot.

PENS to fit every purpose—Bies, Paper Mate, Lindy, Flair, Cross, available at HASKELL FREE PRESS.

Cliff Plays With Injuries

Haskell Indians is not the only team hobbling through the season. Our home grown Clifford Campbell, now starting offensive tackle for the Texas Tech frosh, has been bothered by a bruised chest and most recently a bad ankle.

Clifford, playing at 228 pounds, is making a good showing for the Picadors and has figured prominently in the line in the first two games. Tech tied Arkansas freshmen in the opener, 7-7. Cliff spent considerable time nursing his chest bruise that he had received in practice.

Then, last Wednesday, he played on the bad ankle, another practice injury, throughout the game as the Pies were edged out by SWC newcomer, University of Houston freshmen, 14-7.

Both teams managed just over 200 yards in total offense in the game that turned into a defensive head-knocker.

The Pies moved early with a 64 yard, 10 play drive that got their only score of the game. By the end of the game, they were down to playing their third string quarterback, losing the other two to injuries.

"He's really enjoying Lubbock and he says the coaches have really been co-operative," says his mother, Mrs. Lois Campbell, "but he is looking forward to coming home this week."

Hayes Leads O'Brien Win

For a while there in O'Brien Friday night, it looked like the six-man Bulldog gridders may have met their match. A second half surge carried O'Brien to a convincing 62-30 win.

A determined bunch of Paint Rock Indians were bent on upsetting the powerful Bulldogs and managed a tie as late as halftime.

But after intermission, O'Brien decided to make mincemeat out of Paint Rock's defense as they pounded out 40 points to the opponents eight in the final 30 minutes of play.

Chargin' Rayland Hayes went to work for the Bulldogs and scampered for three touchdowns and eight extra points.

O'Brien field leader Danny Del Hierro scored twice in the win, while Louis Conn, Arly Watson and Albert Alfides each crossed the goal line for the Bulldogs.

Rule Grad To Lead Cheering

Peggy Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark of Rule, has been elected as one of the 1971-72 cheerleaders at Concordia Lutheran College in Austin.

Elections were held during a Purple and White basketball game held in conjunction with Fall Festival activities.

Fall Festival is a weekend set aside during the month of October for all the parents to come and visit on the campus.

Peggy is a 1971 graduate of Rule High School.

Duck—Nov. 3 through Jan. 11.

...TIMERS have an idea as to the identity of All-American? Jim Thorpe... Knute Rockne Not quite, but a star in his own right, Here still lives here in Haskell, is getting ready to the uprights.

Pipers Come Alive
At the close of the third quarter Hamlin began the drive to put their first points on the board. Jones mixed his passes to Johnny Jones, King, and the quick moves of 128 pound Joe Mayes to get the Pipers into scoring position at the Haskell one. McDonald pushed in for the score and Milton Jones escaped around right end for the two extra points.

Twins Eric and Ed Whitaker were now in the backfield for Haskell and were moving the ball well when an errant Cobb handoff was fumbled into the clutches of Hamlin's Dwayne Hertel.

The Pipers tried to move on the ground and the Haskell line just wouldn't budge.

The Indians got the ball on downs at their own 44 and Jirick and the Whitaker twins drove in seven plays down to the Piper two. Walton Wooten drove the final couple of yards for the Indian fifth touchdown.

The two point conversion try failed when Cobb's lateral to Ed Whitaker was fumbled.

Milton Jones went air-mail all the way down to the Indian two on a 64 yard drive that ended with a scoring pass of two yards to Willis. Johnny Jones raced to the left corner for the extra points to get Hamlin their last points.

Coach Comments
"We were really happy to get those 14 points on the board with only one play from scrimmage," commented Coach McAdams. "This was our best night offensively this year. But we've got to shore up our pass defense. Our goal is not to allow our opponents over 75 yards in passing."

Coach McAdams continued, "Frosty Mayfield, Mickler, and Sam Powell did some fine blocking for us tonight as did the entire front line. And Bob Shea did, as usual, a good job defensively."

Rural Development More Beneficial To Big Cities, White Says Recently

Editor's Note: The following is a recap of a speech made by Agriculture Commissioner John C. White within a few days after his visit to the Haskell County Fair.

and Ranch Club and the Wichita Falls Farm and Ranch Club. White called for a massive rural redevelopment program in the state, which, he said, "is absolutely essential if our cities and rural areas are to survive."

Big cities will benefit the most from a rural redevelopment program, Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said in Dallas Monday, October 11, at a combined meeting of the Dallas Agriculture Club, the Fort Worth Farm

He predicted big cities will continue to receive untrained rural residents who will end up on city welfare rolls. "This has happened hundreds of thousands of times in Texas during the past 20 years. It can only continue to increase unless all of us—city and rural people alike—work together to reverse this trend," he said.

White said rural areas now amount to "a vast open-air home for old folks." City people, meanwhile, he said, "have their own cubeculture. They imprison themselves at night in maximum security apartments and they look out of their barred windows at the decaying blight and fail to see the solution before them."

That solution, White said, is a rural development program which joins together city and rural programs augmented by federal and state aid. He listed these essentials:

1. Metropolitan officials are going to "have to realize that rural areas do indeed offer a solution to their problems."

2. A national policy of rural-urban economy and society must be developed and implemented.

3. Rural areas will have to be made attractive in order to keep and attract people to them.

"A healthy and prosperous rural trade area can be of great economic value to the servicing city as demonstrated by the fact that 60 to 80c of each dollar generated in rural trade areas will eventually find its way through the economy of the city," White said.

"City officials must learn and realize how a new attitude toward rural development will be to their cities' advantage as

THE WAGE - PRICE FREEZE

QUESTION AND ANSWER COLUMN

This column of questions and answers on the Wage and Price Freeze is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service. The column answers questions most frequently asked about the Wage and Price Freeze announced August 15 by President Nixon.

Q—Can travel agencies raise their prices on tours in foreign countries?

A—Yes. Travel agents can raise prices on tours to the extent that the costs of foreign services offered in the tour package, such as foreign hotel rates, restaurant meals, transportation costs, etc., are increased. However, prices cannot be raised on that part of the tour package relating to services in the U. S. In addition, markup for overhead and profit cannot be raised.

The records of the travel agency must clearly establish that each increase meets this test. If it cannot be so demonstrated, this exemption will not apply to the increase.

Q—I'm a Federal employee and I'm supposed to get a within-grade increase next month. Can I still get this raise?

A—No. Merit and longevity increases, such as Federal Government within-grade raises, are not permitted during the freeze.

Q—My landlord is installing dishwashers in each apartment compared with continued efforts, as in the past, to all-out efforts to attract industries to their cities, which they are unable to adequately serve.

"A rural development program can relieve the cities of the problems of the immigration of rural people who are ill-suited to city life," White said.

Rural areas, too, will have to cooperate in providing the services to attract and keep people. These include, he said, jobs, topflight educational facilities, recreational areas, adequate housing, and adequate medical care.

in my development. Can he use this as a reason to raise rent during the freeze?

A—An increase in rent can be charged for property which undergoes a substantial capital improvement, such as this, if this improvement equals at least three months rent with a minimum of $250 and would be classified as a capital improvement by the Internal Revenue Service.

If these conditions are met, the unit may be treated as a new apartment, with rent no higher than that charged on comparable apartments in the market area. Also, your monthly rent must not increase by more than 1 1/2 percent of the amount spent on improvement. Q—Who is responsible for the price freeze? A—The Council of Economic Advisors of the Executive Order. Emergency Provisions of the freeze are questions and answers provided by the Internal Revenue Service and the Department of Agriculture. Advertising

More than 20 projects out- lines, now ready for use, can be obtained from local, state and Federal Rural Develop- ment Committees. These com- mittees are made up of repre- sentatives from the Soil Con- servation Service, Farmers Home Administration, Forest Service, Rural Electrification Administration, Economic Re- search Service and Extension Service.

If you are concerned, regard- less of where you live or work, let me urge you to join in the refitting effort for a better environment.

"Working together," conclud- ed Secretary Hardin, "millions of individuals and their orga- nizations can put quality into our environment."

Environmental Thrust — how it works: The hundreds of local,

CLASS NUMBERS HAVE INCREASED at HHS since this 1911 picture. Look for some of these at Haskell Homecoming.

State and Federal offices of the U. S. Department of Agricul- ture are staffed with people whose daily duties relate to the environment.

The Environmental Thrust campaign aims to muster all a- vailable resources of the agri- cultural community so as to reach every rural county and town to help build and protect the quality of life. We want every source of pollution, ugliness, and blight to be challeng- ed.

As alert citizens we see press- ing environmental problems on all sides. We hope you, as con- cerned citizens, will also see environmental opportunities for voluntarily working together to solve problems.

Environmental Thrust seeks to get things started. It is de- signed to provide citizens with help in first initiating and then carrying out community-wide activities in environmental quality — concentrated efforts that can attain tangible, meas- urable goals.

As government personnel, USDA people in Haskell will help with planning and devel- opment, as well as putting in- to effect whatever environment improvement program the peo- ple of Haskell County and its communities decide to under- take.

Agriculture's concern with the environment is as broad as the definition will allow—the total of our surroundings, con- ditions and influences. Yet,

Lutherans "Reformation Rally" To Be Held at Abilene Civic Center October 31

Preparation is moving into high gear for the upcoming reformation Rally. This service will be held at the Abilene Civic Center at 4:00 on October 31. Committee members from the 13 Big Country Lutheran congregations have been meet- ing and working for the event during the past three months.

The theme for the worship will be "God Cares...We Care". The Rev. Orris Sougstad, pas- tor of First Lutheran in Waco, will be the guest speaker. All people are invited and encour- aged to come and worship.

The emphasis of the Rally is on active participation in the event by as many people as possible. One of the ways in which this will be done is through music. Mr. Charles Dickey will be the organist and Mr. Paul Kelly will be the choral director. Anyone from the community interested in helping with the music should meet at the Civic Center at 2:00 on the 31st. There will also be a brass quartet.

John Fischer, pastor of Trin- ity Lutheran, will be the pre- siding minister. Henry Hart-will assist him, and a layman will also assist in the worship.

Another special addition to the worship service will be the use of worship banners. Each congregation is to design their own banner as an expression of their congregation's life. These colorful banners will be used to create a backdrop for the service.

The congregations involved in sponsoring this event are Grace, Our Savior and Zion of Abilene; Trinity of Albany; Bethel of Avoca; Redeemer of Cisco; Trinity of Haskell; First Salem of Roscoe; Faith of Sagerton; Grace of Snyder; Christ of Stamford; Faith of Sweetwater, and St. of Winters.

Old Timer Revists Haskell Sheriff

EDGAR County's first Sheriff, he met the sheriff, Garth Hill. He had ex-whitened his teeth but silver in his caused him to kneel. He got a walld still clicked a remarkable Jessie Charlie ever had."

He claimed his home as Mobeetie, Texas, "but I got my stuff scattered," he said. He arrived in Haskell Wednesday morning and went calling on Sheriff Garrett in his office on the third floor of the County Court House. As he visited with Garth, Mr. Hill said he was 90 years old, having been born in Clay County on February 13, 1881.

The family came to Haskell the first time in 1888, he said, "when I was a small boy. I met the first sheriff Haskell ever had."

SHERIFF GARTH GARRETT poses with Jessie Charles Hill of Mobeetie, who said he met Haskell's first Sheriff when he stopped in Haskell in 1888.

Mr. Hill's memory of that era was kinda vague (he was only 8 years old). He couldn't remember the name of Haskell's first sheriff, but kept thinking it was something like A. W. Springer, but maybe he had it "mixed up with Throckmorton County."

"Haskell County History," by R. E. Sherrill, first lists A. D. Tucker as sheriff (1885-88), then W. B. Anthony served from 1890 to 1896.

Hill said his family arrived in Haskell, coming from Clay County, traveling by covered wagon, and were enroute to Jones County. "We settled just about a mile north of where the present town of Hamlin is," he remembered.

After about 6 months in Jones County they moved to Stonewall County, then to Cochran County, (Morton) in 1902. "We didn't like it there," he said. "I had some good horses and that grass and sand would ruin them. Only one person stayed there when we left, and he was herding his cattle with burros."

Leading a sort of nomadic life, he returned to Stonewall County for a spell, then moved to Cottle County, and finally to Wheeler County (Mobeetie) in 1950. He was married at Guthrie and is the father of six children, five boys and one girl. Three of the boys preceded him in death.

It seems this "old timer" is just visiting around at present. He went from Mobeetie to Abilene, where he visited a brother, P. H. Hill, and another brother, Dan Hill, lives at Aspermont.

"Haskell is a lot different to what it was when I first saw the town," he remarked. "I like it here, though. I feel better here than any place I've been."

Garth helped him cross the room without the aid of his walker, and the two posed together while Clydene Comedy took their picture. When it was over, the 90-year-old gentleman hobbled back toward a chair.

"I've got to sit down and rub my old knee," he said.

Mineral Wells To Host Jehovah's Witnesses Meet

J. M. Winn, minister for the Haskell congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, has announced a 3-day assembly at Mineral Wells for October 29-31. The meeting, which will be in the high school auditorium, is for advanced Bible instruction and a study of modern gospel preaching methods.

This is one of several meetings held each month and is sponsored by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. Winn explained: "The gathering is not a revival, but a part of an advanced ministerial training program for all persons interested in the Bible. Special attention will be given to Bible instruction and a better understanding of prophecy to enable those attending to apply Bible principles more fully to their everyday lives."

Part of the program is arranged for the youth; and, for that reason entire congregations with their families will be in attendance, Winn said. No special delegates are selected to represent congregations.

W. H. St. Clair, Watertower Circuit supervisor, will be one of the key speakers during the three-day meeting.

Approximately 35% of 4-H members live on farms; 42% in towns less than 10,000 population, and 23% live in urban and suburban areas with population over 10,000.

Haskell County History

40 YEARS AGO (Sept. 24, 1931)

Governor Ross S. Sterling placed his signature on the measure restricting cotton planting in 1932 and 1933 to 30 per cent of the land now in cultivation and forbidding the planting of cotton thereafter on the same land in successive years. The measure as passed will reduce the 1932 cotton acreage by fifty per cent.

Rev. H. R. Whatley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is in a meeting at Albany this week and during his absence Sunday the pulpit will be filled by Rev. W. R. Underwood of the Albany church at both services.

Haskell county can now boast of an all-weather road north and south through the county, following the completion Wednesday of this week of paving work on the stretch between Weinert and the Knox county line. Contractors on the road began Thursday morning moving the large amount of machinery and equipment used on the project to Shamrock and Paducah for use of those sections.

Aid will be denied to applicants if jobs are refused. When it is established that a man has been offered the opportunity to pick cotton and has refused, he will be promptly turned down by the charity and relief organizations, and will be informed why.

The Post-Maloy Chevrolet Company have moved their sales rooms and service department to the Magnolia building on the southeast corner of the square.

Traverse Everett, who has been employed for several years in the Barber Shop of Parks & Adkins on the north side of the square, assumed the management of the West Side Barber Shop last Friday. Mr. Everett takes the place of M. H. McCarty, who has been manager of the west side shop for the past two years, and who is leaving the city.

Mr. E. Robertson of Seymour, a member of the firm of Robertson Bros. Co., was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr came in from Goree and spent a day or two here.

We just learned this week of the death of J. T. Knowles, Esq. at the home of his son, Rice Knowles, at Waco on Wednesday, October 4. Squire Knowles moved to Haskell about ten years ago and served four years as justice of the peace in this precinct. Deceased was about 70 years old.

Mrs. J. F. Collier went down to Stamford Saturday evening to spend a day or two with Mrs.

60 YEARS AGO (Oct. 14, 1911)

The Haskell Civic Club, composed of many of the best women in the town, has issued an appeal for a cleaner Haskell, designating October 18 as clean-up day.

A few farmers assembled at the court house last Saturday afternoon and met Prof. Latham, the government expert, who explained to them some things about the demonstration farm work that is now being inaugurated in Haskell county.

Last spring, Mr. F. G. Alexander gave Mr. G. W. Bedford of this city a dozen seed of long staple cotton. Mr. Bedford planted the seed and got some stalks of the cotton. The cotton fruited well, and Mr. Bedford gathered about two pounds of the cotton. He will save the seed for planting.

We are now offering 40 head of registered white tip Poland China hogs to exchange for fat hogs, milch cows or driving horses. J. J. Steip & Co.

Information On Nominations To Academies Given

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Congressman Omar Burleson reminds young men who are interested in competing for nominations to the service academies, for the class entering July 1972, he uses a competitive method of selection so that all young men who meet the necessary requirements may be considered.

The service academies are the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.; the Military Academy at West Point, N. Y.; the Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs, Colo.; and the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, N. Y. These institutions offer a fine education and a great opportunity for service to their country by young men who wish to follow a military career.

In order for Congressman Burleson to consider applicants, a candidate must meet these requirements: (1) He must be a U. S. citizen; (2) He must be over 17 and a legal resident of the 17th Congressional District;

Caddell and son at Springtown. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Phemister spent Sunday night and Monday with his mother, Mrs. Ida Phemister and brother, Hugh, at Montague.

Lions Club

The Weinert Lions Club met at noon at the Community Center. President Jimmy Griffith presided. After a short business meeting, Joan Caddell showed slides of her trip to Washington, D. C. with the 4-H group. She then spoke on what our Flag stands for and how we should honor it.

Present at the meeting were: R. W. Raynes Jr., R. M. Walker, R. S. Sanders, Melvin Vojkufka, R. L. Edwards, Rev. Charles Reynolds, Lester Hutchinson, Jimmy Griffith, J. E. Jetton and guest, Joan Caddell.

(3) He must be under 22 years of age on July 2, 1972; (4) He must never have been married; (5) He must be physically fit, including excellent eyesight; (6) He must have a good high school record.

Burleson stresses that political influence is not a factor in his nominations to the Academies. The important thing is not who you know but what you are.

Interested young men who meet the above requirements should write Congressman Omar Burleson, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515, no later than October 15. Examinations will then be scheduled as a rating device to set up slates for nomination. The competition is keen but Congressman Burleson wants to assure that all young men who are interested in a military career may have an opportunity to compete for nomination.

Over 1,600 delegates are expected to attend the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 28-Dec. 2. They will be accompanied by more than 250 leaders and greeted by some 300 representatives of 4-H donor organizations. Total attendance at the Golden Anniversary event is expected to exceed 2,300.
