Patrick Lewis In Movie To Be Aired Feb. 6

with LeVar Burton, Ted Bessil and Cloris Leachman

By Keith Tooley

Patrick Lewis of Abernathy will be featured on NBC's Movie of the Week, "The Acorn People" February 6th with film star LeVar Burton, Ted Bessil and Cloris Leachman.

The movie will be aired Friday of next week as the two hour Movie of the Week beginning at 8:00p.m.

"The Acorn People" is based on a book by Ron Jones about the insensitivity of parents who send their handicapped children to summer camp and the trials and tribulations the children encounter there. It is a sensitive as well as shocking movie because it surfaces the attitudes of handicapped children toward people that are not handicapped and in return how people view the handicapped. The movie has many humorous segments also.

The movie revolves around a camp director who knows more about his military background and boy scouts than handicapped children, and Ted Bessil, a summer camp counselor named Jesse. Jesse has a hard time adjusting to the handicapped children at the camp. Ted Bessil, as you may remember, played the role of Marlo Thomas's boyfriend in the old comedy series "That Girl".

LeVar Burton, star of "Roots," plays the role of Rodney, also a camp counselor. Rodney helps Jesse make the adjustments necessary to cope with the handicapped.

Cloris Leachman plays the role of nurse Nelson. She provides emotional support for both counselors and campers.

Patrick's Role

Patrick Lewis plays the role of STEWART, a handicapped boy attending summer camp. STEWART, helps Jesse face his fears of living around the handicapped and accepts Jesse as a member of the acorn people.

It is a special honor to be one of the acorn people. It symbolizes that you are a member of a special group of nuts or that you have been accepted by the handicapped. All members of the acorn group wear necklaces of acorns.

How Necklaces Got The Part

It all started when Patrick attended Camp Soroptomist at Dallas. He went to this camp the summers of 1978 and 1979. Camp Soroptomist is a summer camp for the handicapped. There Patrick met the Executive Director of the camp, Carl Seifert.

Patrick returned to Abernathy only to be contacted by movie producers Charles Joffe and Larry Brezner in October of 1980. These producers decided to make a movie about summer camps for the handicapped. Carl Seifert, the camp director, referred the producers to Patrick as a potential actor for the movie. The NBC producers then contacted Patrick and David Sharp, Counselor, who sent them a video tape of Patrick.

The producers liked the tape and set up an audition with Patrick in mid October. Patrick got the part and in the latter part of October, David Sharp and his wife Linda took Patrick to Dallas to film the movie.

Patrick remained in Dallas for a month until the movie was completed. He lived with his mother Irma Carlton in Dallas. The producers gave him a tutor to help him keep up with his studies while the filming went on. The movie was completed in mid November and Patrick returned to Abernathy. David Sharp said that in the original script, Patrick had the biggest child's part. Now it is speculation as to how big a part he will have in the movie.

Filming The Movie

Patrick and David were amazed at how a simple two minute scene would sometimes take two days of filming.

When asked what LeVar Burton, Ted Bessil and Cloris Leachman were like, Patrick said they were neat people and fun to work with. Patrick became good friends with Ted Bessil while filming the movie. Ted has been writing and calling Patrick since the movie.

David Sharp noticed that LeVar Burton and Ted Bessil seemed to have trouble adjusting to the other handicapped children who played roles in the movie, but they adjusted eventually. Cloris Leachman was at ease and just great with the children, Sharp added.

Patrick Special Honoree Of

The House Of Representatives
Patrick received the following letter from State Representative Ron Wilson, January 9, 1981:

Dear Mr. Lewis:

I would like to invite you to attend as a SPECIAL HONOREE before the full body of the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES along with other REPRESENTATIVES in the movie. I am now in the process of securing transportation for your trip to Austin, however, in order to finalize these plans, I will need written permission from your parents/guardians. Your parent or guardian must accompany you on this trip and during all the activities. Tentative schedule for activities on January 28 are as follows:

9:00a.m. - Arrival ACORN Kids at State Capitol where they will be assembled at the tour guide desk. This desk is located on the first floor east side entrance. A representative from Representative Ron Wilson's office will guide them.

Patrick was born in Abernathy and raised by his grandmother, Inez Lewis. He is presently attending Abernathy Junior High.

Patrick is the only person from this area to be in the film. All the other ACORN Kids are from the Dallas area. In the future, he would like to get a Screen Actors contract.

Local Movie Star - Patrick Lewis sits between Ted Bessil, on the left, and LeVar Burton, on the right. All three are wearing their "Acorn People" necklaces.

No Thanks - LeVar Burton serves Patrick not so tempting meatloaf at summer camp.

Grandparents' Brag Pages Featured In Valentine Edition

Grandparents and grandfathers will again be given an opportunity to show off their grandchildren in a special Valentine feature in The Abernathy Weekly Review.

Grandparents (or parents) who would like their "pride and joy" to be featured in a Valentine heart are asked to bring a photo and necessary information (child's name and age, parents' name and address, and grandparents' name and address) to our office before Monday, February 9th. The charge is $6.00 to pay for photo reproduction and a portion of the space.

Black and white photos allow better reproduction, although color photos can be used. The sweethearts are to be featured in the Thursday, Feb. 12, issue.

Trophies To Spare - Bobby Cunningham displays the 35 medals and trophies he has won in races since he began running long distance in 1979. Presently Bobby is training for the Boston Marathon April 20th. (Review Photo)

Bobby Cunningham To Run Boston Marathon

By Keith Tooley

Bobby Cunningham will be a participant in this year's Boston Marathon held in Boston, Massachusetts April 20th.

He qualified for the Boston Marathon by achieving a time of 2 hours 40 minutes in the 26 mile Clavis Marathon held earlier last October 4. Runners have to achieve a time of 3 hours 10 minutes or below to qualify for the Boston Marathon.

Recently Bobby won the fifth annual Palo Duro Marathon at Palo Duro Canyon. He ran in this race Saturday, January 10 and came in first place in his division.

Bobby runs in the age 40-49 category in all of the long distance races. Besides winning first place at Palo Duro, Bobby bettered the previous course record in the 40-49 division with a time of 2 hours and 44 minutes. He broke one of five records that were bettered that day. Bobby said this was his favorite race because of his performance and the beautiful weather that day.

One of the toughest races he has been in was the Whiterock Marathon in Dallas. This race was December 6 and the humidity was over 90% that day, Bobby recalls. With the forces of nature against him he still succeeded in getting third place in the 40-49 division and 5th place overall defeating 2,746 of the 2,800 entered.

The biggest race Bobby has been in was the Austin Capital 10,000 meter. This race is a distance of 6.2 miles. Out of 8,200 people in the race, Bobby came in 53rd. He came in fourth in the 40-49 division also.

Bobby began running January 7, 1979. He trained for six weeks and then ran his first race at the Brownfield Marathon. In his first race Bobby placed 3rd in the 30-39 division. Since then he has been trying to run in at least 2 to 3 marathons a month. Bobby lost 40 pounds two months after he started running.

In the short time since beginning long distance running in 1979, Bobby has run in 42 races. He has 35 trophies and medals to show for it. His favorite distance to run is about 13.1 miles.

When asked why he enjoyed running so much Bobby said, "Running relieves stress and relaxes me after a hard days work." He also enjoys the competition encountered at the races.

In his younger days, Bobby ran the mile for the Littlefield High School track team.

Bobby will run four marathons from now until April 20th to prepare him for the Boston Marathon. He will run the Brownfield, Lubbock, Amarillo and Austin races. Bobby is a member of the West Texas Running Club that sponsors most of these races.

"7,000 people will probably run in the Boston Marathon this year. This will be my first time to run it," Bobby said. In preparation for the race he will run around 75 miles a week. His game plan for the race will be to start out slow and finish strong. Bobby said it is also essential to know who is favored in the marathon and stay close to their pace throughout the race.

Bobby's advice to beginning runners is to start out slow. Start out running 1/2 mile a day and work up. He also said it is important to get good running shoes and a physical before starting a regular running program.

Methodist Chili Supper

The Methodist youth will be sponsoring a chili supper at the school cafeteria February 3rd from 5-8p.m.

The price will be $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children. This price includes drink and dessert. Ya'll come!

Young Farmers Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Abernathy Young Farmers Monday, February 9, at 7:30p.m. in the Vocational Agriculture Building.

The program will be presented by Guy Finstad, Voc. Ag. teacher at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch.

He will give an inspiring slide presentation of life at the Ranch. All interested persons are invited. There will be a brief business meeting following the program.

On The County Line

BY KEITH TOOLEY

THE THREE BIG ISSUES of the year are over. The hostages were released, Reagan was inaugurated and an uneventful Super Bowl 15 passed quickly before our eyes. But will these issues be forgotten?

The former hostages were supposedly returned to us healthy and unharmed. I read the other day that several were experiencing traumatic mental problems since being released. Others were beaten and mistreated by Iranian ignorants, rather militants. 52 hostages may have been mentally bruised for life. This will not be forgotten.

President Reagan was inaugurated as our 45th leader of this nation. Now that he has been elected president will he pick up the broken pieces of the past? Or will he simply wait out his term at the presidency. I don't think so. But the promises will not be forgotten.

As for the Super Bowl, the Cowboys have not forgotten a cold performance at Philadelphia. They will be back. I read the other day the Cowboys were going to change the color of their blue uniforms to another tint of blue. I'm not superstitious, but they did lose a heck of a lot of football games in those blue jerseys.

HEARD THERE WERE A LOT OF BURGLARIES occurring in town and in the smaller communities of the area. If the public is aware that burglaries are taking place in their own neighborhood or community, they can take the precautions necessary to prevent burglaries. I guess people figure they'll get broken into again if they report a burglary. You owe it to your neighbor to report burglaries. Please notify the Review of any burglaries or break-ins and we'll tell the community about it. It would also be appreciated if citizens could notify us about any obituaries that need to be recognized each week.

Congratulations to Patrick Lewis on his movie and his achievements this past year. His accomplishments will help give Abernathy the recognition it deserves as a small town with talented people.

A TORN TOWN

There was once a farmer who had such a fear of tornadoes that he built the strongest storm cellar in Texas. Whenever there was a cloud in the sky, he would take his growing family to the safety of the cellar. Together over the years, they sweated out cloud after cloud in the cellar, and, of course, nothing ever happened. As the kids grew, they had less and less respect for their dad's judgment.

He became aware that they were laughing behind his back, that, actually, he was becoming the laughing stock of the whole community. The children grew derisive, disobedient, and they almost rebelled when he ordered them into the cellar as another cloud passed over. Yet, his phobia about tornadoes was overwhelming, so he continued to make them go to the cellar with him.

One day after the family had been in the shelter for more than two hours, he stuck his head out the door to see whether it was safe to go outside. He looked to the west; the barn was demolished. He looked to the south; the windmill was tipped over, the tank on the ground and the water spilled. He looked to the east: a big tree balanced across the crushed top of the family car. Then he looked to the north where the house was supposed to be: there was no house anywhere to be seen.

Turning back to his family, he grinned and exclaimed, "By golly, this is more like it!"

Society

Great Society Extension Homemakers Discuss Recycling Cloth Clothes

The Great Society Extension Homemakers association met for their regular monthly meeting Jan. 19th at the Neighborhood Center in Abernathy with seven members and one guest present.

Maybell Glass, the president, opened the meeting with prayer and Olean Mathis, the secretary, called roll with the members answering by saying "how they recycled their old clothes".

Wynon Mayes, the county agent, brought the lesson on "Easy Recycling - For Fit". She reminded the members it is easy to make a garment more attractive by improving the way it fits. Clothes that fit well make you feel and look good. You can save money for you and your family by recycling garments to make them fit.

She also gave the group ideas for major changes. One example was to take a man's suit and make a skirt for yourself, a boy's or girl's suit, a jumper for a child or child's coat or jacket.

Maybell Glass and Imogene Suttle earlier in the day attended the extension council meeting at the Aggie

Bldg in Plainview where the recommendations for the ensuing year were presented to the council members to take back for their local clubs approval.

Mrs. Suttle is chairman of the Family Life Committee.

Those present for the Abernathy meeting were: Juanita Brantly, Imogene Suttle, Alice Pace, Juanita L. Dominguez, Tomita Betancur, Olean Mathis and guest Kala Pace, Maybell Glass and Wynon Mayes, the county extension agent.

Who's New

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Agnew of New Deal proudly announce the birth of their son, Kelby John, born December 31. Kelby weighed 5 lbs. 12 oz.

Both parents graduated from New Deal High School. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Basil Agnew and Mr. and Mrs. John McNew, all of New Deal.

1935 Study Club Meeting

The 1935 Study Club met January 22, 1981, in the home of Mrs. Hilburn Barrick, with Mrs. Erzell Givens in charge of the program. Mrs. H.E. Williams reviewed the book "The Generous Years" by Chet Huntley. This book offers a delightful contrast to most modern literature, and we enjoyed Esther's relating some of the boyhood adventures experienced by Mr. Huntley as told by him in his book. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be February 12 in the home of Mrs. Owen Benn with Mrs. Ralph Davis in charge of the program.

Vance Powell To Exhibit Paintings and Sculptures

Abernathy native Carroll Powell will exhibit his paintings and sculptures at the Abernathy Public Library during the month of February.

Carroll is a teacher and coach at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, an area that provides him with a variety of subjects for his painting.

Carroll graduated from Abernathy High School in 1959 and earned his degree in art and physical education from West Texas State University.

Powell's water color paintings of old Tascosa, site of the present-day Boys Ranch, are among his works best recognized.

He paints in all mediums and sculpts in bronze. The artist's interests extend past his professions of painting and teaching to archeology, a hobby that has led to searching for artifacts.

At Boys Ranch, Powell teaches art in the school and coaches youth in athletics. In addition to his paintings of the area in which he lives, Powell has varied his subject matter from snow scenes to sports.

Besides his education at WTSU, Powell has studied with Dr. Emilio Cabellero, Bud Diggs of Dallas, "Taurine" Brotherton and Craiger of Arizona. His art has been exhibited in Arkansas, New Mexico and Washington, in addition to shows in Texas.

Carroll is married to the former Wanda Ryan, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Conrad Ryan, formerly of Abernathy.

He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Powell and the brother of Dale Powell of Abernathy. He has another brother, Reggie of Arkansas and one sister, Willa Kay Carter of Hereford. He is a cousin of Richard DuBose.

Talk of the Town Mrs. Betty Reynard has returned from Denver, Colorado, where she attended the funeral of her sister-in-law Mrs. Nettie Reynard Bixler.

The "Murk Family Musical" will perform Monday night at the First Baptist Church in Abernathy. Everyone is invited to come.

Musical To Be Presented At First Baptist Church

Monday night, February 9, the people of Abernathy will have an opportunity to hear one of the finest Christian music groups in the country. The Abernathy Ministers' Association will sponsor the "Murk Family Musicales" in concert at the First Baptist Church. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The program is designed to emphasize the importance of strong family relationships as well as presenting the Good News about Jesus Christ. This is accomplished through a very professional musical presentation. They have given over 400 concerts in 49 states, Canada, Mexico, Central and South America, Israel, and Europe, including appearances at hundreds of conventions, large business corporations, service clubs, civic group conferences, schools and churches.

The Murk Family has performed for the U.S. Senate and staffs in Washington, D.C., and the Pentagon. Their performances also include national television and radio in the U.S. and foreign countries.

With music both vocal and instrumental, secular and sacred, from the finest classical to the best contemporary, the Murk Family presents a beautiful blend of singing/strings and voices which will satisfy the music tastes of all.

"We are very fortunate to be able to book a group of this caliber," said Don Moore, local singer. The Murk Family will be appearing here between performances in Lubbock and Amarillo on their tour through the western United States. Everyone is urged to attend. There is no admission charge, but a free-will offering will be taken.

The following article was taken from the Methodist Church Newsletter. The TV set is my shepherd. My spiritual growth shall want. It maketh me to sit down and do nothing for His name's sake, because it requirith all my spare time. It keepeth me from doing my duty as a Christian because it presenteth so many good shows that I must see. It restoreth my knowledge of the things of the world and keepeth me from the study of God's word. It leadeth me in the paths of failing to attend the evening worship services, and doing nothing in the kingdom of God. Yea, though I live to be a hundred I shall keep on viewing my TV as long as it will work, for it is my closest companion. Its sound and picture, they comfort me. It presenteth entertainment before me, and keepeth me from doing important things with my family. It fills my head with ideas. I hope to see you in church next Sunday morning and night. I Love You, Bro. "B"

COTTON TODAY

A NATIONAL COTTON COUNCIL SERVICE

BETTER YIELDS NEEDED: National Cotton Council economists report that yield improvement is essential if cotton is to offset ever-rising production input costs, compete with other crops for acreage, and be price-competitive in market.

"This is an area of research that cannot be neglected without serious consequences for cotton's future," Gaylon Booker, economic and market research director, told delegates to the Council's annual meeting. Booker pointed out that although annual cotton plantings have varied by only 7% or about a million acres over past four seasons, production has varied by a third or about 3.5 million bales.

Records for the past decade clearly show yield variability is the principal cause of cotton's year-to-year production instability, Booker said. The economist said yield trends have apparently

"Superfarms" To Benefit From Federal Support Programs

When Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland announced at a National Farmers Union convention almost two years ago that USDA would conduct a series of nationwide hearings concerning the marked trend toward a food production system controlled by a handful of huge farms, critics accused the Carter Administration of political show-casing prior to an election.

Now, with a comprehensive report of findings recently released and political motives obviously not a factor Bergland's report documenting the danger of a system of "superfarms" and analyzing the government's policies that are accelerating the trend falls on the desk of incoming Secretary of Agriculture John Block.

Newly elected Texas Farmers Union President Mike Moeller says the findings confirm "what the Farmers Union has been warning all along" and that he hopes the Reagan Administration will look seriously at the recommendations detailed.

"We don't really understand why it took a two-year study to predict the obvious," Moeller commented. "However, it would be not only a waste but a grave error to discard the report, and we want to work with the congress and new administration to rectify the problems addressed," he said.

Highlighting the study are findings that the federal government's farm support programs, farm credit system, and tax policies such as capital gains computations and the investment tax credit all work to the advantage of the very largest of farms and either fail or work directly against small and medium-sized farms. The report also criticizes the government's "land-grant colleges" for providing educational assistance that centers around high-technology, expansion-oriented agribusiness practices that are often out of the financial reach of the average farmer and beneficial only to the operator who has substantial capital for investment in new equipment and additional acreage.

Recommendations of the report include redefinition of eligibility for receipt of target payments, disaster payments and low-interest loans. Also included is a recommendation to continue and expand the Carter Administration's reserve program which the Reagan Agricultural Transition Team has already reported it intends to scrap.

"Farmers in our organization want a continuation of the reserve program, although we advocate raising release prices so that it works to protect and stabilize farm income and not cap it," said the TFU head.

"We share the concern that the bulk of support payments is going to a handful of giant farmers and corporations. But we plan to work diligently to encourage congress to reform the payment disbursements yet maintain programs that are so critical in the Southwest such as the disaster program," continued Moeller. Texas No. 1 In Number Of Farms

WASHINGTON — Texas went against the national trend in 1980 and became No. 1 in the nation for number of farms in the state, mainly because of the increasing popularity of farming as a part-time pursuit, according to new federal statistics.

Preliminary Agriculture Department figures show the number of farms in Texas climbed by 1,000 last year, reaching 186,000, a total that is expected to hold steady through this year.

The state had more farms than any other, leading second-place Missouri which had 120,000 farms last year and third-place Iowa with 119,000.

Among the new directors are: Eduardo C. Esteve, Dallas; Rufus Grisham, Lubbock; Robert A. Grove, Galveston; and Samuel T. Reeves, Fresno, Calif. Re-elected directors include: T.W. Detamore, Oklahoma City; Peter Hirschfeld and Charles C. Wisler, both of Dallas; Frank Jones, Lamesa, Tex.; Guido Lombardi, Porterville, Calif.; and Robert A. Lyman, Corcoran, Calif.

Texas had declined steadily since 1975 when there were 189,000.

"There's an increasing number of small, part-time farms coming in," Arnold Bollenbacher of the Census Bureau said. "One of the major things that is occurring there is that there is a sizable increased count of places with under 50 acres, especially, and much of this is part-time."

The increasing number of farms in Texas and their decreasing average size both ran counter to national trends.

The total amount of land devoted to farming, however, declined slightly since 1975 to follow the national trend that has prompted mounting concern over the disappearance of the nation's farmland.

The Agriculture Department estimates show farm acreage in Texas for 1980 at 138.8 million acres, down by 100,000 acres from the previous year and by 1.2 million acres since 1975.

Projections for this year show the amount of Texas farmland holding steady.

A farm is defined in the report as a place that sells at least $1,000 of agricultural produce.

Area cotton prices dip

Prices paid High Plains farmers declined another 1/4 to 2/4 cents per pound compared to a week ago, according to Mack Bennett, area director for USDA's Marketing Services Office at Lubbock. Prices were 3 to 4 cents lower than two weeks ago.

Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and 52, staples 30 and 31, mike 35-49 around 71.60 cents per pound, down 240 points from a week earlier. Mixed lots of mostly grades 41 and 42, staples 32 and 33, mike 35-49 brought around 78.40 cents, down 150 points, Bennett continued.

Gins paid growers $110 to $125 per ton for cottonseed, mostly $115 to $120.

Trading in Lubbock's spot cotton market ranged from light to active. Supplies of cotton for sale remained heavy and demand ranged from weak to good.

FINAL STAGES of the harvest saw many more gins close the season with more expected to finish by the middle of next week.

Lubbock's office closed 127,000 samples during the week ended Jan. 15. The season's total neared 1,344,000. This compares with 1,173,000 graded by the same date last season.

Predominant grades during the week were grade 42 at 36 percent, grade 52-27 percent, and grade 43-12 percent. About 31 percent were reduced one grade because of bark, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Staple 32 was predominant at 45 percent. Staple 33 was 23 percent followed by staple 31 at 20 percent. The week's average staple was 32.0, unchanged from the previous week.

Micronaire readings in the 35-49 range accounted for 64 percent. One percent miked higher while 35 percent miked lower.

substantiation of its policies by the report in areas such as prohibition of foreign and corporate ownership of farm land, and investment of pension funds and reserves in land speculation that drives prices out of reach for young farmers.

"We have cried out repeatedly for attention to the escalation of control of food and fiber resources by foreign and domestic corporations and the serious ramifications of losing America's family farm structure," Moeller said.

"From what we know about John Block, we're encouraged that he will be a defender of the family farm. The big question that remains, however, is who his key advisors will be and how much influence Reagan economists in other departments, men who have already made position statements that are anti-farmer, will have on agricultural policy," Moeller concluded.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

It is impossible for us to adequately thank the Ambulance Service, Ralph Wolf, June Odom, and Wanda McKinney for the services rendered to us Monday morning, Dec. 19th. Perhaps we can make each family in Abernathy aware that they should not wait until an emergency such as happened to us come to them before they adequately appreciate the facility and the team of volunteers connected with it.

These unselfish people donate their time and knowledge without pay. Please recognize the importance of this service and help them to help us as citizens by your support.

Sincerely,

How To Aid Winter Colds And Flu

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, January 9, 1981 - Joggers, construction workers, policemen, pre-schoolers and the elderly all have one thing in common. They are prime targets for winter colds and flu. They, and you, could lessen the risk, however, by following a few simple precautions. Who's most affected by colds and flu? Infants, pre-schoolers, children, young adults and senior citizens - ages 1 to 101!!

Family infections are most often initiated by children and up to three-fourths of family outbreaks may be introduced by children of pre-school age. People who work outdoors, such as construction workers, city service employees, firemen and policemen are more susceptible than others because of the variance of outdoor and indoor temperatures. Joggers are also prime candidates for colds and flu because of temperature variance.

Of course, the elderly must observe every precaution to prevent common colds or flu since their reaction to a virus is much more severe.

According to the researchers at Wagner Thirst Quencher, the most common warning signs for the common cold and flu of which everyone should be aware are: moderate cough, scratchy throat (hoarseness), nasal congestion and discharge, weakness and muscular pains, mild headache, chills, loss of appetite, and nausea.

If you or a member of your family experience such symptoms, the following corrective measures can be taken for relief:

Drink plenty of fluids or the favorite drink of physically active people, Wagner Thirst Quencher, formulated with potassium, magnesium, sodium, carbohydrates and phosphorus to revitalize and stabilize body fluids.

Plenty of bed rest. The body requires more rest during this time because body organs are working faster to fight off the virus.

Keep warm. It is important to keep the body clothed with warm attire to insure proper retention of body warmth.

Most importantly, consult your physician. Don't play doctor.

Keeping your body properly hydrated is as important year-round as it is during the winter. Balanced and adequate body fluids are crucial to good health and well-being, especially while working and exercising outdoors during the winter.

Apology To Newspaper

The Abernathy Weekly Review would like to apologize to Jo Nell Hudson and the staff of the New Deal High School newspaper for not giving them the appropriate attribution they so rightly deserved on their story about basketball coach Jan Whisenunt.

The story was entitled "New Coach Brings Hope" and it was ran in the Thursday, January 15 issue of the Review on the New Deal News page. We hope we can work together in the future with the fine newspaper staff at the New Deal High School.

Girl Scouts To Sell Cookies

Beginning Friday, January 30, 1981, thousands of girls clad in brown and green uniforms will be knocking on doors selling cookies. The annual Girl Scout Cookie sale is here.

For two weeks until February 15, Girl Scouts ages 6-17 will be selling six varieties of cookies and a snack cracker for $1.50 per box. This year mint, chocolate chip, scot- tea, savannah, chocolate and vanilla creme and a new flavor, dutch 'n such will be available. Golden yangles, a cheddar cheese bite sized snack cracker will also be sold.

Girl Scouts began selling cookies in 1936 as a fund raising project. It has since become an American tradition to which many people look forward. Although it is a national fund raising project, the proceeds remain in each individual council and directly benefit the girls who sell.

The funds support troop and council activities, help local girls participate in national Girl Scout events, and purchase camping equipment. This year, the proceeds will also help finance three new building developments at Camp Rio Blanco, northeast of Crosbyton.

According to Mrs. Nolen Swain, Council President, 36.9 percent of the money raised this year will go to the council for camping and program services to troops. The cookie company receives 39 percent, while 14.1 percent will be used for camperships and awards to cookie sellers. Individual troops will receive 10 percent of the proceeds.

Girl Scouts are presented awards according to the number of boxes they sell. A two-week campership is awarded to those selling 180 boxes or more. Certificates, posters, patches, T-shirts, and one-week camperships are also awarded.

Camp Rio Blanco is the resident camp for the 18-county Caprock Girl Scout Council. Troops and their leaders camp at Rio Blanco HAWAIIAN TRIP CONTINUED FROM LAST WEEK.....ALOHA.

I wore two watches so I could keep up with the time at home and the time in Hawaii...you get your days and nights all mixed up. When we got to the room on the 22nd floor there was a pineapple all cut and chilled just ready to eat. It tasted so good after the long trip. Then we had pineapple every meal from then on and our mouths started getting sore so we decided that we might be eating too much pineapple so we found free coupons in our tour kit for free hamburgers at McDonalds. Just 17 of them scattered around on the island. They really tasted good after so much fruit and large meals.

We took the Pearl Harbor tour first. Now the next day we took the bus tour to the Punch Bowl Cemetery...National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific...Punch Bowl or Puowaina, literally translated means "Hill of Sacrifice". It is the final resting place of thousands of World War II, Korean and Vietnam veterans. It overlooks the vast expanse of Pearl Harbor, Honolulu and Waikiki.

The bus driver was Hawaiian and he would stop and let us walk around the stops and say take ten minutes and hang loose...which gives us five more minutes. We ride on those big Grayline busses.

This island Oahu called "The Gathering Place" was once the common meeting ground for Hawaii's island kings. Since those ancient times, through tribal wars, arrival of missionaries, the rising and falling of a monarchy, the island of Oahu has remained "The Gathering Place"...with its stunning tropical metropolis, Honolulu.

Honolulu is modern, with soaring structures, broad thoroughfares, bright lights, and music for all moods. Streamlined cargo ships stand in the harbor. Industrial and financial networks stretch across the Pacific. At the East-West Center, important cultural and academic interchange takes place.

We looking out on the water from the restaurant and saw this oil derrick being pulled by a tugboat and you would see it moving slowly and that was on Saturday and it finally got out of sight...then Sunday morning we looked out the hotel window and saw it back where it started from and the boys in the hotel said the wind and water were so rough that it was pushing it back faster than it could go forward. It was being towed from Japan to California. Wayland told them looks like it would be cheaper to just make it in the States and set it up.

Well, to continue our bus tour we go from the Punch Bowl to Oahu, the third largest island of the Hawaiian islands, has an area of 608 square miles and is the home of 719,600 persons...80% of Hawaii's population. In the last century Oahu has become the center of activity of the islands with the state capitol located in Honolulu...our next stop. The state capitol, situated on a square block between four streets was dedicated in 1969 and houses the governor and legislature, and is a unique building architecturally designed to represent the islands' volcanic origins.

We saw "Chinatown" and was told it was not safe there at night. Next was the Aloha Tower...one of the islands most famous land marks with spectacular views of the city from the 10th floor observation deck.

TO BE CONTINUED NEXT WEEK

Lakeview Philosopher

Ponders The Contention That People Are Thought To Be Smarter Than Hogs

Editor's note: The Lakeview Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses hogs and diet this week, some what.

Dear editor: The newly appointed Secretary of Agriculture, a hog farmer named John Block, made a statement before a Senate committee the other day that I've been thinking about. He said you can put the proper feed in front of a hog and he'll balance his diet by eating the proper amounts of protein, carbohydrates, etc.

"Surely," Mr. Block said, "when it comes to eating, people are smarter than hogs."

That's what I've been turning over in my mind. For example, if you put potato chips, candy bars and rice in front of teenagers, which product would you rather be selling?

On the other hand, some of the fastest, most durable professional football players seem to have come from families whose diets the experts would call miserably lacking in food value.

None the less, their million-dollar salaries allow them, not the hogs, to bring home the bacon.

Moreover, nearly everybody is familiar with over-weight doctors telling over-weight patients what to eat to slim down.

But now the experts aren't sure what over-weight is. For years they've been using a chart that says if you're so many feet tall your weight should be so many pounds. Yet now some researchers claim the chart is wrong and that people heretofore called over-weight actually live longer than slim people, and hence nobody knows what the right weight is.

What this boils down to is that some day food experts, if given enough research money, will discover that man is equipped with taste buds and possibly the way to enjoy life is to eat what tastes good, but not all at one meal. This advice doesn't apply to hogs. When they reach a certain weight you know what happens to them.

Yours faithfully,

WORD of GOD

If you have accepted Christ, invited Him into your life and been filled with the Holy Spirit - there is more!

And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

SAVE $14.00 OUT OF EVERY $50

By Shopping In Abernathy

Did you ever drive 60 miles or more to take advantage of a super special? An item that costs you $50 locally would have to save you $14.40 if you drove 60 miles round-trip to get it and just wanted to break even.

The American Automobile Association certifies that 24.0 cents is what it costs to drive your car one mile. That sweet buy can suddenly turn quite sour.

And each 60 miles takes 3 to 6 gallons of gasoline which the potential shortage of oil-derived fuels would encourage us to save.

Local merchants, whether they sell groceries, clothing, drugs, hardware, appliances or whatever, feature top line nationally advertised products at competitive prices. These same merchants support your schools, churches and civic groups. They help us all pay for the improvements that make this a better place to live.

So save yourself some money, help fight the energy crisis and support local merchants. And save the drive to faraway communities. Shopping at home is a wonderfully simple way to do yourself several favors at once.
