Raymond Franke of Cross Plains, Chairman of the Callahan-Shackelford County Farm Bureau Peanut Advisory Committee, represented this county at a meeting June 27 in Brownwood to discuss organizing a Peanut Division in the Texas Farm Bureau. He is shown here with J. T. Woodson of Gober, President of the Texas Farm Bureau; and Seeley Lodwick, Washington, D. C., Director of Governmental Affairs for the American Farm Bureau Federation. Lodwick discussed current legislative issues affecting peanut producers. One purpose of the meeting was to surface problems of peanut producers so that these matters could be incorporated in the Farm Bureau Policy Development Process at the county level. There are now 15 peanut-roducing counties in Texas which have Peanut Divisions at the county level. The Texas Farm Bureau presently has State Commodity Divisions for rice and cotton.

He stood at the plate with his heart pounding fast; The bases are loaded; the die has been cast.

Mom and Dad cannot help him; he stands all alone. At hit at this moment, would send his team home.

The ball nears the plate; he swings and he misses. There's a groan from the crowd, with some boos and hisses.

A thoughtiess voice cried, "Strike out the bum." Tears fill his eyes; the game's no longer fun.

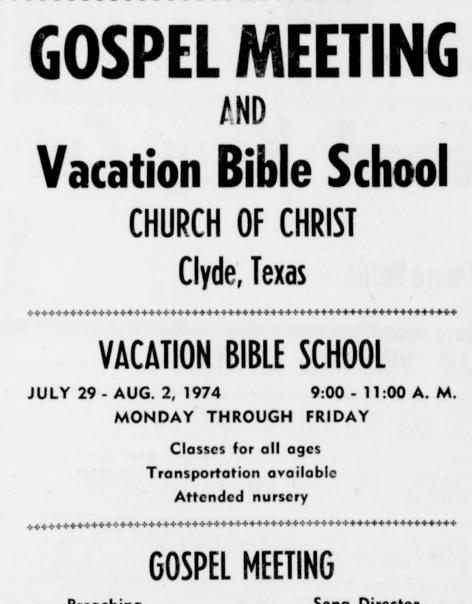

Remember, he's just little boy who stands all alone. So open your heart and give him a break.

For it's moments like this a man you can make. Keep this in mind when you hear someone forget.

He's just a little boy and not a man yet.
