High School Enrollment Way Down

Abernathy High School enrollment is way down compared to previous years. Enrollment figures released from the school the second day of school revealed that High School enrollment is down 60 students. At this time last year, 306 students had enrolled for high school. This year only 246 have enrolled. Two years ago, (1979-80 school year at this time), 328 students enrolled in high school

The elementary school had a slight decrease in students and Jr. High enrollment remained stable.

In September of 1979, 1022 students enrolled. And this year the total enrolled at Abernathy School is 939.

Former Abernathian-Missionary To Africa Past Two Years

BY HELEN WADE

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Skipper and family are visiting in Abernathy for two weeks after serving as missionaries for two years in Ghana, West Africa. They are on a three month furlough and will be returning to Africa this week. They went to Ghana in the summer of 1980

Mike is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Skipper of Abernathy. He is a 1966 graduate of AHS and graduated from Texas Tech in 1970. He worked three years for the Abernathy Weekly Review while in high school.

Skipper worked in commercial banks in Lubbock and Delaware until

The Skippers make their home in Delaware. They spent the first two months of their forlough there. Michelle was born in Delaware a little over two months ago. They have two other children Brett 6 and Robin 4.

Jan's parents live in Tulsa, Oklahoma and they spent the first two weeks of August visiting them and then traveled to Abernathy to be with his mother and father.

Mike and his wife, Jan, both are missionaries and they work for the "Navigators." This is an inter-denomination organization and is based in Colorado Springs, Colorado. The stated purpose of the Navigators is to fullfill Christ's Great Commission by making disciples for Christ. They primarily work in small bible study groups, personal evangelism or assist the churches in the Christian Education Program. Jan's main work is with her family, but she does help with the ladies bible study groups and help Mike however she can.

Ghana is located on the Western coast of Africa just west of Niagara.

Accra, the capital, is on the coast 200 miles north of the equator. There are 1 million people here and, percentage wise, about 60 percent of these people profess to be christian; however many continue to practice some form of their traditional religion.

There are four couples and three single people from the states with the Navigators in Ghana. They help the denomination churches as laymen to these churches.

The people of Ghana are very receptive to spiritual teaching and most will believe in a spirit world and God, who has control over the spirit world, when told about it. The major task is to present God and who he is, as revealed in the Bible to these people.

Ghana was a British Colony for 75 years and English is the official language. In 1957 Ghana got its Independence from Britian. English is the language used in the schools.

In the newer parts, in the cities are modern buildings made of concrete construction because termites destroy the wood structures. In the older areas of the cities, they have older structures and no running water or other

In the rural areas, they still have thatched roofs and smaller dwellings. All of the people in the rural areas are farmers. It is very small scale farming from 2 to 10 acres in a plot. The major crops are corn, rice, cassava (which is a root plant) and cocoa. There are some large scale modern type farms, but predominantly hand agriculture applies and they use the hand hoe and hand tools.

Mike's major responsibility is business manager for the Navigators. This involves government liaison about Ghana, which is very time consuming. He also does accounting and financial

Ghana has a very hot and humid climate. The average temperature the year around is 90 and the humidy is from 70 to 90 percent. Mike went on to say, "no need for a coat there. Many of the houseplants we have in the United States grow wild there. There is lots of shrubbery and brush in Ghana."

Mike said, "They thoroughly enjoy the relationship with the Ghanaian people. They have a reputation all over Africa as being very warm and gracious and hospitable people, and he certainly has found that to be true. Brett Skipper goes to International School. One-half of the children are from Ghana and other half are from countries outside of Ghana. Children of diplomats, other missionaries, and business people who are living in Ghana, attend this school.

Mike states, "They were really impressed with the school." School in Ghana starts about one year ahead of school here in the states. The equivalent of our kindergartin begins at the age of four and 1st grade starts at 5 years there.

The U.S. Embassy sponsors a 4th of July picnic each year in Ghana and the U.S. Embassy and U.S. Aides and other Americans living there attend this picnic. Usually approximately 300 attend this occassion. There are probably more Americans in Ghana, but some don't attend the picnic.

Aluminum Kaiser has a large US Business plant there that employs a lot of people. It has American supervisors, but primarily the workers are Ghanaian.

The Skippers will be in Ghana for two more years and that will finish their term as they signed up for four at the end of the century, statistically

MISSIONARY FAMILY TO GHANA...Mike and Jan Skipper recently returned to Abernathy to visit Mike's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Skipper. They are missionaries to Africa and have been there for the past two years. Also pictured is daughter Robin and son Brett, (in the tree), and in Jan's arms is new daughter our children have one school year in the states in Delaware.

In conclusion, Mike stated "Africa, years. "At this point, Mike went on to will be the most christian country in say, "we are planning to go back after the world if the rate of the church continues to grow as it has, one-half of the people will profess to be christian, so the major task will be education and discysleship training," he ended.

To sum up the entire trip, I would have to say that California is truly "life in the fast lane". It offers practically everything a person could want as far as entertainment goes. But I think Faye Ann Nelson (who went to California two weeks ago) and others would agree, that there is no place like home. The air here is clean, the roads are not congested with traffic and our society here, as a whole, is more conscientious and conservative. Our values in life are more treasured in this portion of Texas. California is a state that glitters, but I am reminded of the phrase, "all that glitters is not

OVER THE LABOR DAY WEEK-END, the Department of Public Safety estimates that 47 traffic deaths will occur in Texas alone.

The DPS advises that drivers could help limit the number of fatalities by using seat belts, maintaining a safe speed and refraining from drinking while driving. Half of the holiday deaths will probably involve drinking, according to DPS Director Colonel Jim Adams.

So watch out for those drunk drivers and for the heavy traffic over the Labor Day weekend.

Some of the most interesting things about human beings are the values by which they live. Many of us never take time to sit down and really think through the moral precepts that consciously or unconsciously guide our daily ways by which we live.

By reading Robert Louis Stevenson's personal creed, it might help us to review

AMERICA: NEW AND EXCITING We have just returned from an exciting trip to San Francisco and all the wonderful scenic places in-between Lubbock and California. This is our second or third trip to California. It has so many beautiful places to see that we see something different every time we go. One notable aspect of the area is the agricultural setting that provides much of the country's wealth. There were thousands of acres of grapevines and fruit orchards. We found purple seedless grapes, which we do not find in Texas. They are much sweeter than the green thompson grapes.

Beef and dairy cattle graze in the foothills and plains. Cows heads dotted the landscape. Fields of green corn touched the roadside at placed and extended along the highway to form a vast mesh. We spent two nights in Petaluma, Calif., visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson who use to live in Hale County. Robert is blind, but he does amazing things such as running his lawn mower and working on his friends' and neighbors' cars. He is an inspiration to

We left Petaluma and went up to Placerville and spent two nights with another cousin, who has the ideal place in the country. It is so peaceful and quiet. We watched the deer come up to the back yard to get water. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dayton, (Mildred is Wayland's; cousin), have to fence in all the garden and flowers to keep the deer from eating them. She showed us trees that they had eaten on and practically destroyed. Kenand they use the wood cook stove to prepare their food. She fried chicken and baked a pie on the wood cook stove.

McNew-Riley Wedding Vows Exchanged Saturday

Miss Tammi Renae McNew became the bride of Wesley Wayne Riley in a candlelight ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Abernathy Saturday August

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John McNew of New Deal, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Riley of Aber-

Rev. Jimmy McGuire of New Deal, performed the ceremony which took place in an archway of brass candelabras with white candles and white satin bows. Immediately following the ceremony, the couple solemnized their vows by lighting the unity candle.

The wedding selections, sang by Jill Blalock and accompanied by Clinton Barrick, were: "Through The Eyes Of Love," "He Has Chosen You For Me," "If," and "The Lord's Prayer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of white silken organza and corde lace. The all lace bodice featured a deep square neckline outlined in scallops and highlighted in seed and drifted beyond the length of her train. The bride carried a bouquet of pearls. The scalloped lace also marked the highrise waistline and continued down the front of the gown and encircled the train forming a redingote effect. Long sheperdress sleeves were caught to scalloped lace caps and were gently gathered to wide lace cuffs edged in natural scallops. The entire silhouette was complimented by a matching beaded lace mantilla veiling, which was caught to a lace camelot headpiece

Attendants were: Mrs. Terri Agnew, sister of the bride and Matron of Honor; and bridesmaids were Melissa Mayo, Sammie Stephenson, Nan Riley and Kim Mullins. The bridal attendants were attired in burgundy dresses made of luster glo a sheer bodice with spaghetti straps and University System. empire waistline with a sheer silk chiffon cape. The bride's table was covered with a sheer white ruffled cloth over white, centered with a three tiered cake, towered a top a lighted fountain with sparkling pink water fully illuminating the cake. The cake was decorated with miniature burgundy and pink roses. The bride's keepsake top was a white satin bell encircled with lace.

The groom had two tables which were also covered with white ruffled cloths over white. One table held the groom's cake, which was a large round german chocolate cake served by Tina Covey. From the other table, coffee was served from a silver coffee service by Diana Buford.

Mrs. Riley chose a white eyelet dress with white accessories as her going away outfit. The couple is at home in Abernathy. The Groom is employed by Levelland Middle School, and the bride is employed by Methodist Hospital.

Williams-Burton Wedding Vows Read Aug. 7

Tanya Ann Williams and Ricky Dean Burton were united in marriage Aug. 7 in an outdoor ceremony at the bride's parents home. The double ring ceremony was officiated by Rev. Jimmy McGuire of New Deal.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. David Williams of New Deal, Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Speer of Rt. 2, Lubbock, and Mr. W.M. Burton of Olton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of dotted voile over white satin with a cathedral length train. The finger tip veil was trimmed in matching lace. The gown was designed by the bride and fashioned by her grandmother, Elizabeth Williams, of New Deal. The bride carried a bouquet of white and blue silk roses against a sandalwood fan belonging to her great-great grand-

Honor attendants were Melissa Mayo of Lubbock and Terie Williams, the bride's sister-in-law of New Deal. They wore blue voile street length dresses with handkerchief hemlines, and carried white lace parasols trimmed with matching blue Serving as best man was Bob Heath of Hale Center. The groomsman was Eddie Speer, brother of the groom, of Rt. 2, Lubbock. They wore blue cutaway tuxedos. The groom wore a matching white tuxedo.

A reception followed the ceremony in the home. The table was decorated with an antique linen cloth and an antique crystal punch bowl. Presiding at the table were Sonya Burton, sister of the groom, of Longmont, Colorado, and Sharla Heath of Hale Center. Bauer Participates In Force Exercise

Sgt. Thomas J. Bauer, son of Gladys M. Bauer of Elgin, Neb., and brother of Donald S. Bauer of Rural Rt. 1, also of Elgin, has participated in an Air Force Strategic Air Command (SAC) exercise called Global Shield 82. Bauer, an aircraft maintenance specialist with the 28th Organizational Maintenance Squadron at Ellsworth Air Force Base, S.D., joined others from all SAC units in the United States and selected Air Force Reserve and Air National Guard units to take part in command post and field training exercises. Global Shield 82 was the fourth such exercise held by the command in as many years. It was designed to enhance readiness and the ability of the command to carry out orders which support U.S. national policy, should deterrence fail.

Components of the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps, as well as elements of the Canadian forces, also participated in the exercise.

Dear Mr. Struve:

This will acknowledge your letter August 10 concerning the depot at Abernathy.

Following an inquiry from Mr. Charles Bowen, President of the Abernathy Area Chamber of Commerce, we wrote him the following under date of April 5, 1982:

"This will acknowledge your letter April 1 concerning the Santa Fe depot at Abernathy and yes, you did in fact have my name spelled correctly!

From A Teacher's Scrapbook Do you remember when the field house was the band hall-before that it was the lunchroom, grades 7 - 12 were all in the present Junior High building and grades 1-6 were in old building where the Administrative offices now are, Junior High included grades 4-8, the first year Shallowater had a band. Teachers didn't have to take candy, gum and peanuts because the kids don't have them in school. Graduating classes of eighteen or nineteen were considered large, the old Ag shop was in the east end of the bus barn and there wasn't an Ag farm.

Basketball games were played in the old gym and there was only one dressing room for boys and one for girls and those were in the basement. SHS had a choir and a baseball team, could see the boys eyes-they wore "crewcuts," the first basketball team went to State, we couldn't see the girls knees and they all wore "bobby socks," the seniors raised money to finance their class trip each spring, students didn't mind working for their grades, we had male cheerleaders, we shared our school nurse with another school, the first class with more than 20 was graduated ('64 with 23; '65 had 35), eighth graders took a class trip to Carlsbad, Caverns and had graduation exercises? Do you remember when??

"A Friend For Every Season"

Your Daddy taught you the value of a dollar and the reward of hard work, but you keep wondering, how much of this reward you can stand. You expected to ride herd on everything from cash flow to tractor driving. You are a part-time gambler, accountant, market expert and mechanic, and now when profit margins are thin, you are not sure your banker will understand your problems.

Sure, most banks will stand by you when profits are good and money is plentiful, but it takes a banker with a great deal of trust and insight to stand by you when times get tought. Folks like M.J. Williams, Doyce Middlebrook, and Gary Grant at First State Bank have the knowledge and experience to help you in good times and bad times.

We realize that hard times can be the best time to start a good relationship, and we will be there when you need us. That is why we are growing and we want you to accomplish

The Volunteer Fire Department has recently purchased a 1978 GMC 1 ton 4-wheel-drive duly. This truck will be equipped with a 350 gallon tank and a 350 gallon GPM Hale Pump. It should be in operation sometime within the next month. New Deal's volunteer Fire Department officers consist of six men, these men are: Terry Martin, chief; Randy Teeter, Asst. chief; Red Phillips; sec-treasurer;

Rick Pledger, training officer; Basil Agnew, President and Dunae Markham, Vicepresident.

Our other volunteer firefighters are: Marvin Kelly, Bennett Massey, J.C. Teeter, Bryan Taylor, Jeff Parrish, Jim Roberds, Ray West, Larry Stephenson and Alvin Stofel

New Deal would like to thank these men for the time they volunteer working together to protect the people of our community. We can also thank the three volunteer officers who took one week of their time to attend the Brayton Firemans Training School at College Station July 30. These officers were: Terry Martin,

Randy Teeter and Rick Pledger. Our appreciation can also be shown through donations made to New Deal's Volunteer Fire Department

New Minister At Church Of Christ

New Deal's Church of Christ is proud to announce the arrival of its new minister and his wife. They are Richard and Colysta Wallers who came ot New Deal from Gover City, California. They will also be working for LCC. Richard is in charge of the remodeling of the Alpine Quad Apartments and Colysta is employed as a secre-

Richard was born in Berkeley, California and has lived all of his life in California. From 1946-1972 he was self-employed as a licensed building contractor in Modesto, California. He was also an almond farmer for some twelve years during that time. He served as a deacon for the Davis park congregation in Modesto for 10 years. He had already submitted an application to preaching school and he also felt that he was a little young at that time for the eldership.

From 1972 to 1974 he attended Bear Valley School of Preaching in Denver, Colorado. He supported himself through school savings. Since finishing school, he has preached for congregations in California. He co-authored a book for preachers and their wives, "About My Father's Business." It can be purchased through the Sunset School of Preaching.

Colysta was born in Texas, but has also lived most of her life in California. She too has been involved in camps, lectureships, and workshops. She has written for Christian Bible Teacher and has three publications on illustrations and attendance charts. She has taught ladies' classes for many years.

Richard and Colvsta have three children: Ken, age 25, Clayton, 23, and Brenda 21. We would like to welcome you folks to New Deal!

Myopia: Seeing Things Close Up

Myopia is what your eye specialist calls it when an examination shows you can see things better close up than far away. But myopia is not an advantage. It's a vision problem. Your eyes focus on an object too soon.

If you're very nearsighted, you can't even hold a book at the normal distance for reading. You have to bring it closer to your eyes. And any distant object will be seen only as a blur.

If a child is nearsighted, the condition will probably get worse before he becomes an adult. Then it will probably stay the same for awhile. There's no guarantee that it won't need further correction. That's why regular eye checkups are impor-

Our eyes change as we grow older. A condition like nearsightedness may improve; or it may get worse. If your glasses or contact lenses are not giving you clear vision, you can probably benefit from a change in prescription. If you haven't had your eyes checked lately, now is a good time to make an appointment.

LUBBOCK, August 27, 1982

Officials of the High Plains Boll Weevil Control Program for weeks have foreseen a 1982 resurgence of weevil infestations greater and more widespread in the area than anything experienced since 1978. And they are gearing up to meet the challenge.

The signs have been unmistakable since late winter and early spring -- a mild winter with abundant moisture followed by higher and earlier trap catches, some in areas such as eastern Dawson County where no weevils have been found in almost four years.

An aggregate of some 700,000 acres were sprayed with insecticide in 1978, but with that intensive control effort, plus weather unfavorable to weevil overwintering and development, it was necessary to spray only about 40,000 acres in each of the 1979 and 1980 seasons. The acreage figure grew to just over 80,000 acres in 1981

This year Ed Dean, Field Service Director for program-coordinator Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. of Lubbock estimates that stopping the weevils' spread to "clean" cotton above the Caprock will require treatment of at least 200,000 acres.

"And if the weather should interrupt our spraying schedule one or more times this fall, spraying might have to be spread over considerably more acres," Dean says, "but we are getting ready to handle whatever acreage is required.

"Areas of weevil infestation and potential infestion have been mapped; 52 aerial applicators have been invited to submit bids on spraying, and 43 two-member survey teams are at work locating fields in which weevil populations justify an early treatment.

"Applicator bids will be opened at PCG's Lubbock office September 3; the successful bidder will report to the Spur Airport September 10, and the first three or four spray planes will take to the air

The control program, a PCG producer service, has suceeded each year since 1964 in preventing the spread of boll weevils across the concentrated cotton acreage west of the Caprock. Its cost is borne jointly by Plains cotton producers, the U.S. and Texas Departments of Agriculture. USDA matches funds contributed by producers and the TDA.

COTTON

Bollworms continue to be active in many cotton fields. Egg lays have ranged from 0 to 220,000 per acre, averaging around 20,000. Small larvae (less than 1/4") have had very low bollworm infestations. Usually as Podworm (corn earworm) populations are on the increase. In fields scouted this past week, counts have ranged from 4-18 per 30 row feet. Reports of several fields reaching economic threshold (30/30 row feet) have been received. Numerous corn earworm eggs can be found on the leaves and stems. reached or exceeded the threshold for headworms (corn earworms). For a threshold, an average of 2 small larvae per head should be used in commercial fields and a threshold of 0.5-1 per head for seed fields. Headworms are generally easy to control since the larvae are in an exposed location and pesticide coverage is good. Insecticides suggested for control are carbaryl (Sevin), chlorpyrifos (Lorsban), methomyl (Lannate or Nudrin), parathion, or toxaphene.

Spider mites have become a problem in a few fields. Plants will tolerate mite damage better if protected from water stress. Mite densites and maturity of the plants will determine the

When the "starch line" is completely down or black tips can be found at the base of the kernals, growers should check the corn for moisture content to see if it is at the desired moisture for harvest. Growers have reported that elevators are not going to take high moisture grain this year and will start accepting around the 23 percent level.

Southwestern corn borer are beginning to girdle and lodge plants. Lodging has been ranging from 0-5 percent with most averaging aroung 1 percent.

Spider mite infestations seem to have stablized and beneficials have moved back into treated fields to help reduce populations.

Livestock And Wheat Grazing Meetings Slated

Three livestock and wheat grazing educational meetings will be held in Hale County according to County Agent Ollie Liner.

The first one will be at p.m., Thursday, August 26 in the County Agent's Office on the Courthouse square in Plainview. The next meeting will be held Thursday, September 30 at the First State Bank Meeting Room in Petersburg beginning at 7: 30 p.m. The third meeting will be held at the Halfway Farm Chemicals Company in Halfway beginning at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, October 14.

Dr. John McNeill, Extension Livestock Specialist, headquartered in Amarillo will be on hand to discuss the economics of grazing wheat pasture in the fall of 1982. The program is designed for those interested in either owning their own cattle or leasing the pasture to others to graze.

Dr. McNeill will also cover the following topics: wheat pasture management, cattle health management, management techniques to maximum gain, pasture lease arrangements and the use of computers to make management decisions.
