ANIMAL CONTROL - PART I

ach year several cases of rabies develop in Texas. Rabies seems to thrive where there is an abundance of wildlife and unvaccinated domestic animals. However, it is possible to control the disease and the more we understand about the issue, the easier it is to overcome.

In the next few articles, I will be share information about rabies in an effort to educate our public and hopefully prevent an incident of rabies infection in the Winters area.

Historical fact and fiction

Rabies, sometimes called "hydrophobia", was identified centuries before the birth of Christ. Documents written during the lifetime of Aristotle recorded cases of rabies with amazing clinical accuracy. The name hydrophobia, meaning "fear of water," was given to rabies at that time because the ancient Greeks observed rabid animals' "aversion" to water. Actually, the reason animals with rabies do not drink water is because of throat paralysis. It was this fact that produced the classic picture of a beast "foaming at the mouth". Saliva accumulates in the paralyzed throat and drools from the corners of the mouth, giving the impression of "mad-dog foam". Ancient people were terrified at the sight of these animals and thought they were "demon-possessed".

Through the years, superstition built and remains today to a smaller degree. Even in modern times, many people believe that the bite of a small spotted skunk invariably leads to rabies. Actually, while all skunks are susceptible to rabies, laboratory studies have shown not all spotted skunks are rabid.

What is rabies?

Rabies is a virus that affects the central nervous system. The virus can be transmitted by the bite of a rabid animal, through the saliva of a rabid animal to a fresh scratch, and rarely by other contact. If you think you have been in contact with an animal that could be rabid, you should immediately see your doctor.

Where is rabies found?

Your Source

Rabies has occurred in almost every part of the world. An interesting exception is Australia, where there has never been a confirmed case diagnosed. Some countries that were once affected by rabies have successfully eliminated it by stringent control and enforcement measures. Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Hawaii, and the British isles have been free of the disease for many years. Prior to World War I, rabies was eliminated from England, but it was reintroduced and had to be re-eradicated. Currently, rabies is most prevalent in Russia, Belgium, France, the United States, Africa, Mexico and the lower Americas

The Winters Police Department is committed to doing everything we can to inform the public on ongoing health and safety issues. We want to remind the public the City of Winters Code of Ordinances require all domestic animals within the city to be vaccinated and registered. Your local veterinarian can vaccinate your family pets, and animals can be registered at city hall.

FOLLOWING A TRADITION started in 1923, the Davis and Nichols families held their 87th annual reunion. (Photo: Contributed)

Davis-Nichols family reunion

Winters Enterprise Staff Report

INTERS, Texas.-It started way back when three Davis brothers married three Nichols sisters. The results of these unions met for the 87th time Sunday, July 18, 2010 at the Winters Housing Authority. One can only imagine the resulting "double cousins" and the mixup of descendants that followed. Understandably, it is increasingly difficult for even the ones closest to the families to keep up with "who is who."

The trails of both families started at different times and from different states. W. T. Nichols moved his family from Selma, Alabama to Milam County. W. S. Davis moved his family to Milam County from Mississippi. The two families were close neighbors and close friends. It was not so far fetched what happened then. Three Davis brothers married three Nichols sisters.

Both families then moved to Runnels County in 1900.

W. T. Nichols had a deep appreciation and love for his family as did W. S. Davis. However, it was W. T. Nichols that is credited by the family for starting the annual reunion during 1923. For 87 years it has been held on the third Sunday in July.

Little blond headed blue eyed Keigan mesmerized everybody there and a good time was had by all.

noticed, it's summertime and it is hot. While the mornings are bearable, just after noon it begins to get hot, and if the wind guits and the lake gets glassy, it is really hot. While smooth water is good for skiing, wakeboarding, boat riding, and other water sports, the fishing seems to go south--way south.

The only things on the move are the schooling white bass which surface chasing shad and minnows and churn the water for generally less than a minute. If you're lucky enough to be within casting distance of these schooling fish, they'll hit anything that gets in the meylay. Just after they leave the surface, they head down and move in any direction until they again locate a school of lunch and surface again. This past week we found the largest schools in the main lake near the dam in water generally over 70 feet. Chasing these fish and trying to figure them out will cause a fisherman to eat cheese bait. While we did get about 50 whites, nearly all of them came off deep shelves near the super deep water. So we get on a 30-50 foot drop and just wait until they find us.
