Rainfall Way Below Normal For the Year

According to Sam Herren, "The Weatherman", rainfall for the month of June fell below normal, as it has done each month thus far in 1971.
Precipitation for June was .85 of an inch, while normal rainfall for the month is 2.84. Normal rainfall to date is 11.93; however, a total of only 6.45 inches has been gauged here for the first six months of the year.
Here is how the rains came during June: June 12, .13; June 16, .19; June 21, .41; June 22, .12. Total .85.
Lowest readings for the month were on June 6, 15, 16, 27 when the temperature dropped to 66 degrees on each of those four days. Highest reading was a sultry 99 degrees on June 7th.

C of C Hears Progress Report

Officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce met at the City Cafe at 7 a. m., Tuesday, July 6th, with president Elbert Johnson, presiding for the business session.
The meeting was opened with a prayer by Director Pat Hale after which the manager read the minutes of the last meeting and also presented a financial statement for the month of June.

Director Frances Lane, who served as chairman for the recent Hey Day Pageant, gave a financial report which showed total receipts including entry fees, gate receipts and donations of $1544.60 with expenditures of $622.96, leaving a net balance of $921.64. This amount of money will be allocated toward up-keep of the County Museum, scholarship fund and the auditorium fund.
Rex Felker, manager, reported that the County Museum would be kept open a few days a week now with caretakers and also that an underground electric cable had been installed at the Trailer Park whereby 12 trailers could plug in for electricity at the same time and that a sewage disposal had also been installed. It is estimated that from one to two hundred vehicles, either travel trailers or campers, are passing through Haskell daily this summer and all service stations are urged to give these vacationers one of the cards telling about the trailer park, which the chamber of commerce recently had printed for that purpose.

Mayor H. V. Woodard told of current developments on the airport and the Miller Creek Project but particularly stressed the need for cooperation of all citizens of Haskell to assist local police to stop the vandalism currently being done. He cited the recent turning on of three fire hydrants which left the city totally without water in case of fire, the taking of letters from the marquee sign, destruction of the Volly Ivy Memorial, the damage done to the rest rooms at the fair grounds during Frontier Days and the damage done to memorial markers in the cemetery. "Even though we have hired another full time night watchman, we still need all citizens to give assistance in order to stop this vandalism," he stated.
Relative to the city water situation, he stated that "all pumps were currently being run at full blast and that in case of continued drouth, it was quite possible that we would be on some type of water restriction plan before the summer is over."

Cotton Country to Pick Queen

According to Mrs. Luther Burkett and Mrs. Barbara Elliott, committees are at work and plans are progressing on schedule for the Haskell County Annual Cotton Queen contest to be held Thursday night, July 15, at 7:30 o'clock at the Elementary School.
Mrs. Burkett and Mrs. Elliott stated that several young ladies will vie for the Cotton Queen honors.
A reigning Miss Cotton will be chosen to represent the county at the State Cotton Queen Contest. Selected from the sophomore age group will be a Junior Miss Cotton who will reign at county activities with the senior Miss Cotton.

To be eligible to enter the contest the young ladies must have been a sophomore, junior or senior in high school in the 1970-71 school term, and be unmarried. Deadline for entries is today, Thursday, July 8th.
Rehearsals will be held Tuesday, July 13, at the Haskell Elementary school, followed by a Tea at the Country Club.
Contestants will model two cotton outfits: a cotton formal and a cotton sports outfit. They will be judged first in their sportswear while giving a two-minute talk on any phase of cotton, then while in formal attire will be asked one question to test poise.

The contest is being sponsored by the gingers, cotton warehouses and seed companies of Haskell county.
A list of the contestants, judges, and a more detailed article concerning the contest will be released in next week's issue of the Free Press.

Firemen Answer Call To Albert Address Home

Haskell Volunteer Fire Department answered a call at 8:35 a. m., Tuesday, to the Albert Address residence, nine miles northwest of Haskell on FM Road 2163. Origin of the blaze was undetermined.
Fast and efficient firemen had the blaze under control in about five minutes, with only minor damage.
Mrs. Address said most of the damage was in the south bedroom.

Boy Wants Mail

Almost five years ago, 9-year-old Rocky McKinney, son of Wanda White of Stamford and grandson of Mrs. Othor Meeks of Haskell, was blinded by the accidental explosion of gunpowder at his grandmother's home. He entered John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, February 25, 1966, for an eye transplant. That operation was not performed at that time because of complications.
A week ago, the eye transplant surgery was performed at that same hospital, thanks to the help of the Lions Club of Stamford and the Commission for the Blind of Lubbock. Complications also prevented this surgery's success, however, and one week later Rocky again underwent surgery at John Sealy to correct the complications.
It has been a five-year session for Rocky, now 14 years old and still blind, but with a great deal of hope. Doctors still feel that eye transplants can restore his sight.

But the intervening years have been filled with countless surgeries. His entire face was badly burned, and plastic surgery has restored both his facial contours, and completely replaced his eyelids.
He has not forgotten his nurse friends at Haskell Memorial Hospital, and all the people at Paint Creek. He remains cheerful and hopeful that soon the hospital sessions will be over and he can again see, as he could as a 9-year-old.
He does, however, need mail. His nurses and his mother, who stays with him, read all his letters and cards to him. If you would like to send a card or letter to Rocky, his address is: Rocky McKinney, 8C Room 834, John Sealy Hospital, Galveston, Texas 77550.

The tournament will follow the usual double elimination format with the champion eligible to advance to the state NBC tournament July 28 in La Grange.

Cristi Guess Crowned Queen

Haskell's Little Miss Hey Day show is like cold watermelon and homemade ice cream--it's a summer treat that can't be beat. Pretty little Misses from 23 Haskell County homes paraded across the stage of the Texas Theatre Thursday night (with their equally charming escorts), to entertain a capacity crowd. Little Miss Cristi Ann Guess was crowned 1971 Little Miss Hey Day. Ember Miller was first runner-up, with Camille Klose being second runner-up.
Cristi is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Guess of Weinert. She is 6 years old and in the first grade. She was sponsored by the W. B. Guess & Son Oil Company, and was escorted in the pageant by Master Joel Griffith. Cristi reported her hobbies as swimming and bike riding.
First runner-up, Miss Ember Miller, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Miller of Haskell. She was sponsored by Gholson Grocery, and her escort was Bernie Holder. Ember is 8 years old and will be in the third grade this fall. Ember likes to play with her pets, and play ball.

Second runner-up, Miss Camille Klose, is the 7 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Klose of Haskell. Camille's escort was Aaron Weaver, and she was sponsored by Kennedy Lumber Company. She enjoys swimming and reading.

The stage was decorated in the 'Crown Jewels' theme, with a giant gold glittered crown riding high against the ceiling, flowing glittered streamers of red, purple, lilac and pink, draped from the crown down to the sides and floor of the stage. This formed an appropriate backdrop for a throne, elevated on a dais with a gold carpet leading up the steps. 1970 Little Miss Hey Day, Miss Linda Fischer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Fischer, crowned the new queen; presented her with a bouquet of red roses, and pinned her banner on. She also presented the two runner-ups with a single stem red rose.
1971 Miss Hey Day, Karen Pippin, charmingly entertained the audience by singing to the

Granddaughter of O'Brien Resident Is Competing In Miss Texas Pageant

Beth Manley, 1971 Miss Wichita Falls, is in Fort Worth this week competing in the Miss Texas Pageant.

Miss Manley is the granddaughter of Mrs. D. T. Elmore of O'Brien, life-long resident of Haskell County. Her mother, the former Lois Elmore graduated from Carney High School and also taught at O'Brien.

Miss Manley's other grandmother, Mrs. Ed (Mae) Manley now of Cleburn, is a former resident of Rochester, and her father Preston Manley is a graduate of Rochester High School.

Beth's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Preston Manley, live in Petrolia where he is pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Beth most enjoys the talent portion of the competitions. She loves to sing and this year will do a medley of Mama Cass songs arranged especially for her contralto voice. She's an accomplished pianist, too, and has found deep enjoyment in Bach during her seven years of study.

Last year Miss Manley was runner-up to Mae Beth Cornany for Miss Wichita Falls. Miss Cornany was a Miss Texas finalist.

Miss Manley is now a sophomore at Midwestern University and in Alpha Phi sorority there. At PHS she was in Future Homemakers of America four years, was chosen best all round, neatest, a sophomore and senior beauty and junior class favorite.

Service is more than a word to Beth. She taught arts and crafts at Northside Girls Club as a staff member, and in her church at Petrolia she organized a group of teenagers called "Young Messengers" who frequently appear on special programs. Soft spoken, yet articulate, fond of seafood (especially butterfly shrimp), mystery novels and Norman Vincent Peale, she is convinced that work can be supremely enjoyable "if people will take a positive attitude." Beth Manley has her sights set on the Miss Texas title.

PREMIUM INCREASE

The premium for medical insurance under Medicare was increased by 30¢ a month beginning July 1, 1971, according to Bob Tuley, Abilene social security district manager.

The law requires that this part of Medicare be kept on a "pay-as-you-go" basis and increased use of medical services, as well as higher costs made a premium increase necessary. The additional 30¢ paid by the beneficiary will also be matched by the Government as is the balance of the premium. This means that the medical insurance will continue to be worth twice the amount you pay.

For most beneficiaries the monthly premium will be $5.60 and if they are receiving a social security check, it will be automatically deducted from the check. Those people who are not receiving a monthly check will be billed for the additional premium amount on their regular quarterly billing schedule.

If you need more information regarding Medicare, call your social security office at 677-5262, or if you prefer visit the office at Room 2321 Federal Bldg., Abilene. Hours: 9:00 a. m.—5:00 p. m. Monday thru Friday.

THE BACK TO SCHOOL (SEWING) will also begin at the Center next week. This project is allowing the girls to begin getting their school wardrobe ready before school this fall.

If you would like to come and help at any time your information would be greatly appreciated.

Rotarians And Guests Hear J. C. Yeary

At the Thursday, July 1, noon-day meeting of the Rotary Club at the City Cafe, J. C. Yeary Jr., District Conservationist, presented an interesting and informative program relative to the Big Country Conservation Development Project, of which his office is serving as coordinator.

Rex Felker served as program chairman for the day and introduced the speaker. "There are twelve counties involved in the project which is strictly not a part of the SCS," Yeary explained.

"The RC&D's are the natural outgrowth of Soil and Water Conservation Districts. Districts were started over 35 years ago and co-operating with CCC Camps, many of the structures built then are still functioning, even though the farming enterprise has changed much in 35 years," Yeary stated.

RC&D concept is based on the full development of natural resources. Here is recognized that people are a resource and that people, especially their leadership, must personally become involved in the development of their area.

RC&D is also "Community Action" and must involve groups, both urban and rural and the efforts of the project is being endorsed by cities and Chambers of Commerce, State and Federal Agencies, USDA committees, County Program Building committees, County ASCS Committees, FHA County Committees, and Service Clubs.

Yeary presented the program with the use of colorful slides and narration.

The new club president, C. A. Thomas Jr., presided over the meeting. Invocation was voiced by Ferrel Coston, and Bob Herren led the singing with Ellen Walling at the piano. Out-of-town guests, Jim Schroeder and son, Kurt, of Baltimore, Maryland, were introduced by R. C. Couch Jr.

Effective July 1, 1971, Texas law requires that a one-cent sales tax be charged on newspapers in towns which have a local sales tax. This law applies to Haskell. The Haskell Free Press will be priced at 14 cents plus one cent tax, or

tax included

This increase is called for by rising costs of publication as well as by the addition of the sales tax. The rising costs also make it necessary to increase subscription rates. One of the major factors in this consideration is the much-publicized increase in postal charges for second class mail, which is more than for other classes. We have elected to postpone raising the subscription rates until all readers have been forewarned so that they may have a chance to save by subscribing or renewing present subscriptions at the old rates. We shall continue to accept new subscriptions or renewals of existing subscriptions at the present rates through July 31, 1971.

Grass Is One of The Most Effective Pollution, Air Conditioning Devices

Grass is one of the most effective pollution control and air conditioning devices that nature has to offer.

"One acre of grass releases about 2400 gallons of water on a summer day through evaporation and transpiration," according to J. C. Yeary, Jr., head of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service office in Haskell.

"This much evaporation equals the cooling effect of a 70-ton air conditioner," Yeary continued. "And grass is ideal for erosion control, beautification, and animal forage."

Yeary said grasses vary widely within individual species. There may be dozens of strains of side-oats grama, for example, growing within an area of only a few counties. These variations are caused by differences in climate, soils, elevation and other factors.

SCS conducts a constant search for superior strains of grasses and other plants, Yeary said.

"What we're looking for are strains of grasses that will help solve some specific environmental problems," Yeary explained. "In Texas, we need grasses that will thrive on several drouthy soils; cool season plants that will extend the grazing season; and plants that will provide forage for livestock while also providing better food and cover for more kinds of wildlife."

Yeary added that conservationists also need salt tolerant grasses that will grow on a wide variety of problem sites, forbs and woody plants useful to wildlife and livestock that can be planted in range seeding mixtures, and water-tolerant plants that will curb wave action on earthen dams.

To help coordinate the search for better plants, SCS operates 20 plant materials centers in the United States. One is located in Texas at Knox City. Scientists at these centers grow and evaluate plants from all over the world to help find strains reported that Bob was standing outside in the icy February weather.

With considerable coaxing, I finally got the brownskin, lovable little tyke into the office. The tears still flowing abundantly down Bob's cheeks...but after much talking I convinced him that he had done a good job, as he had sold 13 papers on his first "solo", and had gathered several tips. Finally little Bob controlled the tears, smeared a dirty little fist over his face, to wipe away the tear stains, clutched his sack of popcorn in one hand, and a handful of nickels and pennies in the other, and with a smile on his face, walked with quickened step out the door. It had been a big day in Bob's life... It was his first day to "go it alone", hawking his papers, but he had won...and had touched the hearts of the newspaper staff.

Food for thought: What the mind desires, the hands must provide. Just itching for something isn't enough; you've got to get out and scratch.

that will solve specific problems.

The most recent grass selected and put into use by SCS plant materials work in Texas is Selection 75 Kleingrass. Released in 1968, the plant is a leafy, highly palatable grass that is now being grown widely in Central Texas. It is used mostly in tame pastures where high rates of fertilizers are used.

R. F. Costin, cooperating with the California Creek Soil and Water Conservation District, has a trial planting of Selection 75 Kleingrass on his farm south of Haskell.

Milton Christian, cooperating with the Wichita-Brazos SWCD, has been furnished trial plantings of two strains of Western Wheatgrass by the Knox City Plant Materials Center.

Christian will plant these seed along with commercial Western Wheatgrass this coming September or October in an 8-acre grassed waterway. The plantings will be used for field evaluation studies for forage production. The waterway will be shaped under Christian's Great Plains Conservation contract.

TAX MAN SAYS

In the good old summertime Texans' thoughts turn to the swimming hole, suntans, and maybe watermelon, vacations, and lots of things, but most Texans don't think about keeping income tax records. Keeping tax records is a year 'round job and while you are enjoying the good old summertime you oughta remember how cold it will be next January when you try to remember how much that tax deduction was that you should have made a record of or put up the receipt on 'way back in the heat of the summer.

Owens Electric
Is Your New
Good Neighbor

Haskell has welcomed us warmly, since we bought this business just a few short weeks ago," said Mr. and Mrs. Charles Owens, owners and operators of Owens Radio & Electric, formerly Woodson Radio & Electric. The couple is assisted in the operation of the business by their daughter, Mrs. Charlene Brooks. They moved here from Roaring Springs with one desire—to give the people of their trade area the best in merchandise and service from their business. They specialize in Zenith TV's, radios, stereos, and all electrical appliances for the home.

It's a good, friendly business with plenty of room to grow, and the Owens plan to do just that. They have many new ideas, and many plans for a wider stock and more services.

Mr. Owens is an electronic technician, and is capable and experienced to take care of any needs in this type of work. He has 22 years experience in radio, TV and appliance repair work. He already has put that experience to work in Haskell, and plans to keep on offering this service to his customers.

In the complicated field of electronics, it takes experience to do a fast, efficient job, and EXPANSION AND A BIGGER STOCK is the aim of Owens Radio and Electric, as they begin their first year of business in Haskell. They invite everyone to stop in and see their store.

Mr. Owens is confident that you will be pleased with his work. He is also confident that anyone will be pleased with a Zenith brand TV, stereo or radio.

Being the dealer for such a dependable, nationally-advertised brand as Zenith carries its own responsibility, and he can meet it. For 22 years he has been in charge of the radio, TV and appliance repair done by Thacker Supply Company of Roaring Springs. It is the desire of Mr. Owens to set the same record of dependability for his Haskell trade area customers.

The Owens family has done a lot of work on their displays and arrangement of their store since buying it June 7th, and would like to issue a special invitation to everyone in this trade area. They'd like you to come in and meet them! browse around their store, and to get to know them; as well as the stock and services they offer. They firmly believe and support the "Trade in Haskell" promotion is the best way in the world to get acquainted with their future customers, and to let you get acquainted with them, and the services they offer.

Stop in next time you're in Haskell, and say 'hello' to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Owens, new owners and operators of Owens Radio & Electric.

Cars, Campers Displayed At Toliver Chevrolet

Vacations are fun under almost any conditions, but vacations in a brand new family car are even better. Bailey Toliver Chevrolet Company in Haskell has the unit to please any family... sedans, station wagons, sports cars, economy models... you name it, and it's on the lot. Bailey Toliver has been in business as your local Oldsmobile-Chevrolet dealer for the past 15 years. The business is located at 517 North First St., and is owned and operated by Bailey Toliver. He employs 17 people to give you the best service possible. His salesmen are Jerry Jetton, R. O. Gipson and John Darnell, Opal Dunning and Joannie Ivy take care of the office work.

Ralph Cyfert manages their huge service department, and working with him is J. C. Green, John Bartley, Leonard Vinson, Amador Benavides, Gene Butler and Al DelHerrin. Clyde Williams heads the body shop, and working in the parts department are Truett Parsons, Mike Crawford, Billy Parsons and Van Josselot.

Selling those beautiful new model Chevrolets and Olds is only a part of their obligation to their customers. Keeping the residents of this wide trade area supplied with parts from their big stock; offering a complete service in their body shop; plus maintaining a 24-hour wrecker service; is just as important to this Chevrolet-Oldsmobile dealer.

BEAUTIFUL NEW CHEVROLET AND OLDS are always on display at Bailey Toliver's dealership, plus the extra bonus of Williams Craft recreational vehicles, including campers, travel trailers, motor coaches and camper covers.

On June 1, the company became the dealer for the beautiful Williams Craft recreational vehicles—campers, travel trailers, motor coaches and camper covers. They handle all the parts for them, and will take a trade-in on the purchase of a new one. So, they have both used ones and new ones on display on the lot, for you to choose from. The service men will also mount the campers on your pickup for you, and they sell the easy lift trailer hitches.

Because Bailey Toliver Chevrolet's dealer area covers a big portion of this part of West Texas, they feel doubly obligated to give the same friendly, courteous service to every resident in their dealership. For this very reason, they stock the largest inventory of parts in this area, and service any make or model car. It's a point of pride with them to offer the same services to the resident who lives in the fringe area of the dealership—which covers Haskell and Knox counties—as they offer to the man who lives right here in town. And that same point of pride enables them to stock more units at all times so that the customer may have a varied selection of cars to choose from. More pride goes into the fact that both the Chevrolet and the Oldsmobile are beautiful and serviceable cars that they can sell with pride, both from the point of economy and luxury.

The Personality Shoppe 25th Anniversary

"It's a proud year for us," stated Mrs. Opal Adkins and Mrs. Veta Furrh, "and the 'Trade in Haskell' promotion gives us a wonderful opportunity to express that pride, and our appreciation to this area for making these 25 years possible."

These two sisters are the owners and operators of The Personality Shoppe, a dress shop originated and functioning with one aim—that of offering women of all ages in this area, beautiful, high fashion clothes. The fact that they have more than fulfilled that aim is quite evident. A boutique bar and a beautiful shop, well displayed, gives their customer a quiet and relaxing atmosphere in which to shop and see the latest designs of the fashion world.

Opal and Veta have five employees to assist them, Mrs. Lorene Mullins, Mrs. Marie Howeth, Mrs. Lois Martin, Mrs. Bertha Humphrey and Mrs. Marvita Middleton. As a special bonus to their customers of long standing, the two ladies opened a complete bridal salon on March 1. Already they have planned and outfitted complete wedding parties. This was one other step forward for The Personality Shoppe to better serve their valued customers of Haskell's wide trade area.

SPACIOUS, WELL-DISPLAYED AISLES give the shopper at The Personality Shoppe a beautiful and restful atmosphere in which to select from the fashions on display.

cepts its civic responsibility right along with all the other businesses in Haskell. Whenever an event is being planned, one that affects the betterment of Haskell, the two are always a big part of it and doing just a bit more than their share to make it a successful venture. They both feel that businesses should shoulder that responsibility as being a part of the service to the residents of this area, and meet it with the same dedication.

Famous name brand merchandise is on every rack of the store and regular customers come from many parts of Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma to shop with them. Display windows are changed often, and always give the passerby a beautiful hint of the variety of fashions inside. It's a wonderful world—the world of fashion—and The Personality Shoppe is proud to be a part of it. It is their aim to continue to bring to their valued customers, the newest and latest in fashion. Opal Adkins and Veta Furrh, on marking their 25th anniversary of business, pledge to constantly strive to please their customers. That aim is always uppermost in their minds.

Your special invitation to help The Personality Shoppe celebrate their 25th year of business in Haskell is their sincere message to you. Stop in—next time you're in Haskell!

Smith, Panola Watchman of Carthage; Craig Woodson, Brownwood Bulletin; Troy Martin, Canyon News; Bob Hamilton, Iowa Park Leader; and Bob J. Hickey, Mineral Wells Index.

The Association also dedicated its new building at 718 West Fifth Street in Austin, and unveiled a state historical marker at the conclusion of the annual summer convention.

CONSERVATION VIEW POINTS

J. C. YEARY, JR.
District Conservationist

Someone has said the planet earth, on which we live, is a space ship. For millions of years it has been spinning through space with its self-renewing cycles of air and water, soil and plant life, life and death.

Life on this planet, the only known life in the universe, exists in a very thin, global envelope only a few hundred feet deep. This life supporting layer is known as biosphere.

But, our spaceship earth is in trouble. Man has seriously disrupted natural processes within the biosphere, processes essential to support life.

Pollution of air, water, and land is our problem; and pollution is caused by people, too many people crowding aboard spaceship earth with their needs for clean air, clean water, food, clothing, shelter and living space.

In this country, we enjoy the highest material standard of living on earth. Our scientific achievements have been tremendous. But they have been bought at the terrible cost of environmental deterioration, pollution of air and water, decrease in living space, urban congestion, and a loss of wild nature. We may well have won the moon and lost the earth in the process.

Thus, the need is great for a nationwide educational good turn beyond the traditional conservation program of the Boy Scouts of America. That special activity is Project SOAR (Save Our American Resources).

This activity was launched during Boy Scout Week in February of 1971. It is designed to arouse all members, youth and adult, to their responsibilities for the future and through them to alert millions of other Americans. In essence, Project SOAR is vitally involved in citizenship training and participation. Its basic objective is to create attitudes of concern for the quality of our environment and to motivate action programs that will improve that environment for life and living.
