WINTERS - The Rock Hotel in Winters, Texas is sponsoring its annual Chili Lunch to be held on Sunday, March 13, from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the historic building on West Dale. Volunteers and the Rock Hotel Board of Directors will be serving Randall Conner's world famous "Heartburn" chili.

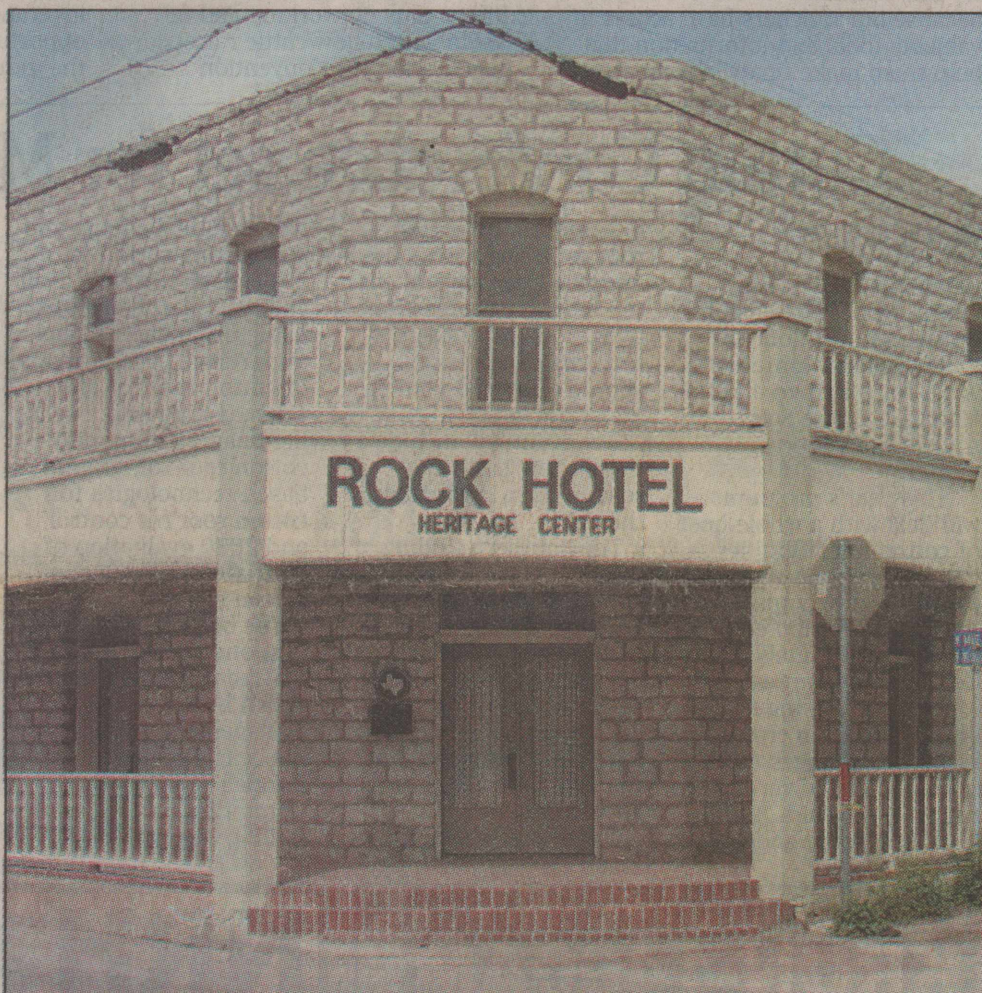

There will be a curb service, orders to-go and dine-in. Chili will be served along with corn bread, a variety of desserts and iced tea.

The meal will be the March fundraiser for the Rock Hotel and Z.I. Hale Museum.

"This will be a great opportunity to enjoy a very good meal, do some networking, talking and enjoy with friends," said Joyce Carbery, Advisor for the Rock Hotel Board of Directors. Donations will be accepted and greatly appreciated.

As one of the most unique assets of Winters and all over West Texas, the museum at the Rock Hotel is the keeper of the town heroes, local community members and a wide array of history bits including war memorabilia ranging from World War II to both of the Middle East conflicts.

The hotel was originally built over a century ago, to accommodate tourists and visitors, and now displays several exhibits.

On Sunday, March 13, the Rock Hotel will be hosting a chili luncheon with Randall Conner's world famous "Heartburn" recipe.

The two-story building is filled with history; memories, pictures, and belongings of legendary people. One room honors the memory of a Major League baseball Hall of Famer, Rogers Hornsby, who was born and grew up in Winters. Hornsby played with the St. Louis Cardinals, New York Giants and Boston Braves and his accolades are kept in 1920's newspapers and other well preserved memorabilia. "The Rock Hotel and Z.I.

Hale Museum need funds every month to pay for the utilities and general expenses, and this is one of the fundraisers we are putting together, along with some volunteers, to help us pay for everything," said Carbery.

FORT WORTH - Ranchers and landowners interested in gaining valuable education and resources needed to protect their business should attend the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association's (TSCRA) 17th annual School for Successful Ranching March 31-April 2 during the TSCRA Convention Weekend in San Antonio.

"TSCRA's School for Successful Ranching is an opportunity for ranchers to gain the education and resources they need to protect and secure their ranching operations during good and bad times," said Dave Scott, rancher and TSCRA president. "The Texas cattle industry has continued to survive in part because our ranchers have access to valuable tools and information that help them make financially smart decisions."

On Thursday, March 31, school participants will attend a special series of classes and live demonstrations. Day two of TSCRA's School for Successful Ranching offers 10 classes covering a variety of issues including ranch security, ranching employment, animal health regulations, business and marketing techniques and wildlife management.

WINTERS ENTERPRISE

STAFF REPORT

SAN ANGELO - The Texas AgriLife Extension Service's ninth Concho Valley Cotton Conference is set for 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. March 22 in the San Angelo Convention Center.

"This year's program will deal with a whole host of cotton-related topics important to our region," said Rick Minzenmayer, AgriLife Extension entomologist for Runnels and Tom Green counties.

"We'll be looking at everything from crop insurance changes to management of verticillium wilt," he said. "We'll also have some good information on cotton root rot along with updates from several cotton industry representatives. So if you raise cotton, this conference should sure lead your 'must do' list."

The event will include a trade show that will remain open throughout the day.

The Southern Rolling Plains' Cotton Growers Association will hold its annual meeting at the end of the conference beginning at 3:20 p.m. The meeting will include an election of officers and a look at the current cotton economic situation and outlook. Other conference topics will include: hedging and contracting cotton in 2011, deep nitrogen availability, consequences of using products off-label, importance of field maps of cotton root rot affected acres, using remote sensing imagery to monitor cotton root rot, ground-based technologies for cotton root rot control and 2010 evaluation of Flutriafol for control of cotton root rot.

The biennial conference is sponsored by AgriLife Extension's Runnels/Tom Green Integrated Pest Management Committee, the Tom Green and Runnels County Crops Committees, the Southern Rolling Plains Cotton Growers Association and the Runnels/Tom Green counties' AgriLife Extension staffs.

Three Texas Department of Agriculture continuing education units will be offered to those staying for the entire program (one laws and regulations and two integrated pest management).

To pre-register, call the AgriLife Extension office in Runnels County at (325) 365 2219; Minzenmayer's office at (325) 365 5212 or the AgriLife Extension office in Tom Green County at (325) 659 6523 by March 18. After that date, a $10 late registration fee is required.

Byler dedication raising awareness

RUBEN CANTU-RODRIGUEZ
WINTERS ENTERPRISE

BALLINGER - The dedication ceremony held last week in Ballinger to praise Army Specialist Justin Byler, one of the city's sons fallen at war, triggered a reaction among area communities, claiming similar honors for their heroes.

The San Angelo Standard Times, an influential member of the E.W. Scripps newspapers, echoed the memorial in their editorial, recalling the dedication of the six-mile stretch of Highway 158, north of Ballinger.

According to the newspaper's "Our Opinion" editorial, Ballinger and Runnels County "should be commended for honoring Byler and for making a clear and permanent statement that his sacrifice will not be forgotten."

William Justin Byler, a Ballinger High School Class of 2000 graduate, was killed on October 31, 2005 during his second tour in Iraq. He was 23 years old.

The editorial lists a series of war casualties of people of San Angelo and Tom Green County, such as Elias Torres, a Marine lance corporal from Veribest, or Jason Poindexter, a Marine private from San Angelo, both of whom were killed in Iraq in 2004, or for Army First Sergeant Lawrence D. Ezell, who lived in San Angelo and died in Baghdad in 2008. All of them have been mourned and honored, but none have a permanent memorial.

The dedication ceremony for Army Specialist William Justin Byler was held on Friday, February 25 led by the Texas Department of Transportation, sponsored by the City of Ballinger and Runnels County, and supported by the Ballinger High School and the whole community.

Stock Horse of Texas encouraging new members

WINTERS ENTERPRISE STAFF REPORT

SAN ANGELO - Local members of the Stock Horse of Texas organization held a meeting on Tuesday, March 8 at Mejor Que Nada restaurant on Bryant Blvd. The purpose of the meeting was to inform and encourage interested people to join the organization. The Stock Horse of Texas' motto is to make a better horse and horseman and their clinics that are held prior to most shows do just that.

Most people are afraid to get involved in this type of organization for fear their horse is not good enough or their horsemanship skills will not meet the expectations of the clinicians. The horse loving people in this organization go out of their way to help everyone. The shows are filled with friendly people of all walks of life.

The organization dues and the shows are inexpensive. Go to the Stock Horse of Texas website, or the American Stock Horse of Texas website for additional information.

The organization gathers with their horses for a practice session in April prior to the San Angelo SHOT Show being held in May at the Spur Arena.

For additional information, contact Stephanie Sheen at 949-0852 or Elaine Lee at 656-0600.
