Indians Take District Track Meet

An elated Haskell High School coaching staff brought home a victorious Indian Track Team from the District 7AA meet on Thursday night, winning the meet with 123½ points over Stamford with 106½; Hamlin, 105; Anson, 101; Rotan, 45; and Merkel 4.

Coach Bobby Dodd said, "It was truly a team effort, with our boys taking the meet on points in every division. We're proud of them, and we're proud of the support and following of Haskell people. We do want the merchants to know that we appreciate their support in last week's paper, and, too, we want to thank every resident of Haskell who attended the meet. It is because of the big crowd the boys had behind them, we feel, that they gave their very best, and came home with the track meet in their pockets, and qualified nine boys to go to the Regional events in Odessa Friday and Saturday. I attribute Haskell's win to the team effort of the boys; to all the other coaches on the staff, and the support of Haskell."

Haskell speedsters set three new district records during Thursday afternoon events. Eric Whitaker set a new record in the 880 with a time of 2:00.2 over the old 1970 record of 2:00.7 set by Hudson White of Winters. Joe Kretschmer shared a record-breaking honor with Cork of Hamlin in a 6'2" high jump. The old record of 6' was set in 1970 by Rick Waller of Hamlin. Then big Bob Shea broke Clifford Campbell's 1971 record in the shotput of 48.7½, by setting a new one of 49.4.

Track meet events, and Haskell's entries include: 440 yd. relay team: Frank Jirek, Vernon Pruitt, Walton Wooten and Kenny Ivey, 5th. 880: Eric Whitaker, 1st, new record, 2:00.2; 4th, Ruben Martinez, James McCoy, 7th. 120 yd. hi hurdles: Randy Ivey, 2nd, 15.6; David Dodson and Tim Pringle.

300 yd. dash: David Dodson, Vernon Pruitt, Kenny Ivy. 440 yd. dash: Walton Wooten, 6th, 54 flat: Frank Jirek, Jackie Young, both made the finals.

The City will provide trucks to haul away rubbish and trash that becomes a menace to health as well as causing an unsightly appearance. All trash should be placed in containers for quick handling, but if unable to obtain containers, rubbish should be piled in a location accessible to the city trucks. For this one week of the year only, this type rubbish will be picked up by the city crews.

Here are some of the things residents can do to help promote the city-wide clean-up campaign:

Clean out garages, basements, attics, etc., of things that might be a fire hazard; clear yards and lots of all trash; trim shrubbery, hedges, clear off any vacant lots or space around your premises.

In the business section, keep windows clean and sidewalks clear, rear entrances free from unsightly refuse; don't throw garbage or refuse of any kind in back yards or vacant lots; place garbage and trash in accessible locations.

Let's make Haskell sparkle with attractiveness!

High School GED Tests Slated To Be Given At Rule

The General Educational Development test, which qualifies those who pass it for a high school equivalency diploma given by the Texas Education Agency, will be given Saturday, April 22, 1972 at Rule High School.

The test will begin at 8 a. m. in the school library. Registration fee is $10.00.

Rule is the center of Adult Basic Education classes held at Rule and in Weimert, Knox City, Haskell and Stamford.

According to Miss Irene Stewart, adult basic education director for the four towns, over 200 persons participated this year in the classes that helped to prepare them for the GED.

4,633 Register In Haskell Co.

At the end of the deadline for registering to vote in the May 6 primary election, 4,633 voters had registered in Haskell County, according to County records. Only four or five more have registered since that time, making them eligible to vote in the elections later in the year.

Deadline for registering in order to be eligible in case of any run-off election in the County is May 2, according to County Tax Assessor-Collector Jimmy Owens.

Bloodmobile Visit Set May 23

Two more orientation meetings were held last week by

Haskell County Red Cross Chapter, according to general chairman, Dr. Troy Culpepper, to make the county become eligible for participation in the Red Cross Red River Bloodmobile, effective May 1.

The first, held Tuesday evening by Charles Thornhill, vice-chairman of the chapter and Blood Program chairman, was to acquaint those of his committee with the procedures of gaining and scheduling blood donors. The system, organized so that prospective donors are contacted and scheduled before the arrival of the vans, is a good one, in that no volunteer donor's time is wasted on Bloodmobile day. All persons who feel that they qualify for dominating blood are asked to contact one of the committee, and give them their name and phone number. The appointments are set up for each visit so that it is a simple matter to arrive at the donor site, and leave in a very short time after. The preliminary work on the part of the blood committee is a vital factor because of the time element involved.

Texas Futurity Winner Owned By Haskell Men

Top Moon Master, the 2-year-old Quarter Horse owned by Royce Adkins, Myron Biard and R. W. Herren, all of Haskell, and trained by Kenneth Grisham of Lubbock, won the Texas Futurity, the biggest futurity in Texas, Sunday, April 9, at La Bahia Downs in Goliad, Texas. Total purse for the race was $111,000.00, with the winner receiving approximately $29,000.

154 horses from 25 different states were entered in the futurity, and time trials were run April 1, with Top Moon Master qualifying for the futurity with the 8th fastest time.

Top Moon Master was purchased in the All American yearling sale at Ruidoso last August. The colt was raised by Gordon Steinmiller of Lamar, Colorado. His sire is Top Moon and his dam is Mikeela Bars by Tonta Bar Gill.

The colt was ridden in both the trials and futurity by Joe Richards of Houston, Texas, and now has 1972 earnings in excess of $31,000.00. He has run 7 races, with 4 firsts, 1 second, 1 third, and 1 sixth. His winning time of 17.19 seconds for the 330 yard dash, run against a strong headwind, was AAA time. The colt has recorded 3 AAA races and all but one race has been run in Register of Merit time.

Governor Preston Smith was on hand to present the trophy, which has been on display in the lobby of the Haskell National Bank, and Miss Brucine Smith, Miss World U.S.A., was on hand to present the owners' wives with a beautiful bouquet of red roses.

Jimmy Owens Makes Statement To County Voters

I appreciate the opportunity that has been mine to serve you as Haskell County Tax Assessor-Collector for the last three and one-half years. I believe that you, the people, have found that my staff, as well as myself, have tried to serve you in an efficient and courteous way. Our records are public records, and I invite you to check them anytime you would like to.

As most of you are aware, most of our work is under the supervision of the Texas Highway Department and the State comptroller's office, and sometimes we cannot do things we would like to in helping our customers, but usually we can work out the problems concerning car papers and tax problems. With your help we can maintain and keep a better set of records concerning our tax rolls.

I hope to see most of you before election time, but as you know, I have responsibilities at the office which require me to stay here and work. So if time permits, I will try to see each of you before the first primary. Thanks again for letting me work for you. My one pledge to each of you is to devote full time to the duties of the Tax Assessor-Collector's office. Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

Thanks, Jimmy Owens.

Bloodmobile:

Haskell's fair share has been set at 70 pints per visit of the Bloodmobile van. The Center wants no more than that and—hopefully, no less, to take care of this entire county's blood needs. Jon Ayres of the Wichita Center was on hand to help with this orientation.

The next meeting, held on Thursday evening, was conducted by Charles Fordor of Fort Worth, and briefed all officers and board members of the County Red Cross Chapter of the services rendered a community by Red Cross, and ways best designed to utilize these services.

Also at the Thursday meeting were Jon Ayres of Wichita Falls, and John Guckian of the Fort Worth office, who helped Fordor in his presentation.

Haskell County is shooting for a May 23 date for the first arrival of the Bloodmobile van here, and the Bloodmobile committee will appreciate very much the efforts of every person in the county to have their names registered.

This service for Haskell Memorial Hospital is needed very much and is considered one of the safest, and surest, ways to have healthy blood at the hospital at all times for our needs.

The most impressive part of this type blood program has been discussed at every meeting. It is the fact that volunteer donors' blood is the safest ever on record in any blood bank of any type. There are two reasons for this. Donors are never paid, thus it is the healthy ones who donate blood, which brings up the average of safety in transfusions. Volunteer donors are checked very carefully and are deferred if the slightest discrepancy appears in their medical history. It is a safe, comfortable procedure that takes very few minutes of one's time, and a doctor is on call at all times, as well as a registered nurse, during the Bloodmobile visit.

All Is Ready For Annual Sing

Hallie Chapman, president, says plans have been finalized and everything is in readiness for the 48th annual singing convention to be held here Sunday, April 23, and judging from the number of quartets and music lovers indicating they will be on hand, it will be one of the biggest and best.

The day-long program will get underway at 10 a. m. and will continue through 4 p. m. in the American Legion Hall.

Haskell's singing convention dates back almost 60 years and is one of the area's most historic and traditional institutions. There was one lapse of a few years, due to lack of housing facilities for the meeting, but it has now enjoyed a straight run of 48 annual assemblies.

Chapman will again preside over the day's activities, for the 34th consecutive year.

A business session will be held at the close of the convention to name officers for the coming year and to transact other business on hand.

There's plenty of parking space available on the grounds near the Hall, located on Highway 277. Picnic tables and other facilities in nearby Rice Springs Park will be available for family groups attending the singing.

Employed by Santa Fe Drilling Company, Dewayne has worked on the deepest and largest oil rigs in the world located in Kuwait and the North Sea of Europe. He is currently working off the Scottish coast on rigs in the deep sea that will drill 20 wells simultaneously.

For the past three months, Dewayne's wife, Diane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Montgomery, and their children, DeLynn 10, Wayne 8, and Delane 7, have been visiting in Haskell with their parents. licious governmental officials. The Petit (or Trial) Jury determines factual issues in disputes in civil matters and guilt or innocence in criminal matters. As Mr. Watson points out, "It, too, is a bulwark in a broad sense but probably not as much so as the Grand Jury." In criminal cases the jury protects the individual against the government and, if it be necessary, it guarantees the individual protection from the judge himself.

The president of the Texas Bar Association observes that presently efforts are being made by some to do away with the right of trial by jury for the sake of expediency. There are also advocates for altering the number of jurors and modifying the requirement for a unanimous verdict. There have been suggestions that agreements by a certain percentage of jurors, such as two-thirds, be sufficient to render a verdict.

The jury system serves a fundamental purpose in our society and the right to trial by jury should be the right of every Texas citizen. As Mr. Watson observes, "there must be substantial justice, not necessarily precise justice; the jury gives that common sense approach..."

Service as a juror is accorded only to free men. It is an essential element in a free democratic society. It often brings the average citizen in touch with his government in a substantial and awesome manner. The juror is called upon to judge and to make important decisions. It becomes his vital civic duty as well as a privilege.

Judge Watson says that he exhorts those called to jury service not to seek to be excused, if at all possible for them to serve. He believes that if a particular time for which one has been summoned is critical to him the citizen should seek to rearrange his appearance for jury duty instead of seeking to be entirely excused.

It is a duty, a responsibility and even a privilege to serve as a juror and something to be taken seriously. It can also be found intensely interesting.

Our Bar Association President ends his comments by quoting a current TV commercial which says, "Try it, you'll like it."

ties. But more and more accommodations are being provided as fast as possible. There are several good facilities near the dam, reached through Jasper and Burkville on the Texas side.

More and more facilities are being installed as rapidly as possible on the upper end. This area is reached out of St. Augustine. A multi-million dollar causeway has been constructed across the lake here, connecting San Augustine, Texas, with Many, Louisiana.

For the bait fisherman, minnow and form stands are available at both ends of the lake. Early fishing, for the most part was done from the flat-bottom john boats so prevalent in both east Texas and Louisiana.

However, larger boats are now being towed to the lake every day for some of the best fishing of either state from the Sam Rayburn reservoir.

Every week now the newspapers and the adjacent areas publish many pictures of large fish taken from this fantastic lake. Because of the reciprocal license agreement, Texas fishermen flock to the other side, and in turn Louisiana anglers head this way. (Greener pastures, you know.)

A word of warning, however, don't try to fish the lake without a license. Working the area are very active game wardens from each state. They are friendly but firm.

A fisherman who likes to try different water can very easily wind up with a pocketful of expensive licenses. Those anglers who like to fish the lakes bordering their states really have a problem.

Texas and Louisiana anglers are fortunate. Heads of these two states worked out a reciprocal program for the waters of Toledo Bend, on the Sabine River the stream that forms the natural boundary between Texas and Louisiana. Each state has agreed to honor the license of the other while fishing on this fabulous reservoir which covers some 200,000 acres when full.

Non-resident fishermen already had a good deal with Texas' universal fishing license costing the same to them as to Texans—$2.15 a year—and covering the Gulf as well as all Texas waters (excepting, of course, private ponds). Now, with their Texas license, they can also fish the Louisiana side of Toledo Bend.

Both Texas and Louisiana stocked Toledo Bend Reservoir heavily with largemouth black bass in the very beginning. Louisiana put in 1,800,000 and Texas put in 1,500,000. These, of course, were in addition to the natural spawn from fish native to the river.

In one year those bass grew to two and three pounds each and now they are of jumbo size. The lake's popularity with anglers still exceeds its facilities.

Little League Works For Lights; Organizes Teams For Season Play

Haskell Little League still is working very hard to get the money for new and adequate lighting for Little League field. People have rallied from a few organizations in town, and the trend is promising that the goal can be accomplished soon—hopefully before the season schedule begins in earnest.

It is the first big, major drive Little League has been faced with, and officials feel confident that all residents of the county can see the vital need for lights to keep the program running.

League officials and workers spent three busy days last week, too, at tryouts, and getting the boys lined up on teams, managers for each team, and the hundred and one other details it takes to make the program work smoothly.

Not many eight-year-olds have signed up for the Little League program and officials feel there might be a misunderstanding on the birthday rule. Any boy who will attain the age of 8 before August 1 of this year, and any boy who will attain 13 before August 1 of this year, shall be eligible to compete in the Little League program.

It is NOT too late, but you must hurry! Application blanks for Little League are available from Raymond Andrada, either at his home or at J&R Radiator Shop. Parents of children who want to play, or the children, may pick up an application blank from Raymond Andrada at either place, but must do so soon.

A complete major league roster, with managers, follows. The rest of the teams and their sponsors, will be printed in coming weeks.

A Factor Overlooked

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is reprinted from the April 2, 1972 issue of the Vernon Daily Record, about W. S. (Bill) Healy, State Representative of the 101st Legislative District.)

Austin correspondents were no doubt taken by surprise when Rep. W. S. Healy relinquished the chairmanship of the House Appropriations Committee at the opening of the special session. His action brought to a close the longest tenure as chairman of a major committee in the State's history. But it was not in keeping with the image members of the Capitol press corps had been building up over the years.

In making the statement a day prior to the opening of the session, Mr. Healy said he did so in order to eliminate the possibility that he might be an issue in the Speaker's race. The election of a Speaker came off without incident and expected controversy didn't materialize.

It is common knowledge that Mr. Healy is not exactly a public official most admired by Austin correspondents. Over the years no opportunity to give him adverse publicity has been overlooked. Part of the explanation is personality, but more than anything else is the fact that a top position in the Legislature can be held a long time by a member from a rural district.

Mr. Healy's competence in handling the complicated task of spending billions of dollars of taxpayer's money has never been publicly challenged. Nor has his knowledge of State Government been questioned.

Admittedly Mr. Healy isn't the most tactful person in Texas official life. Even his friends agree he would make low marks as a politician of the traditional pattern and could very well do with less brusqueness and could use some of the Dale Carnegie philosophy for winning friends and influencing people.

But from the time he first went to Austin as a freshman Representative he has held choice committee assignments. This, colleagues from big cities and members of the Austin press corps have been unable to understand, although the explanation is quite simple. When other members are partying, Bill Healy is boning up on legislation and studying reports from the Comptroller's office which show where the State's money comes from and how it is spent.

There is no substitute for work, even in public office. Speakers have given Mr. Healy membership on significant committees because he will work and knows what he is doing. If, as some of his critics affirm, he has been top man in the House for the past dozen years or so, it is quite a compliment, because the record has been good. The public service has been improved and expanded to meet the needs of a growing state, while costs have been held to relatively low levels. This is the point his critics miss.

Byron Tunnell For Railroad Commissioner

Bad news makes the headlines — but, good news seldom does!

In these troubled, turbulent political days in Texas this newspaper feels compelled to call attention to one bright spot on the political horizon — to some good news for a change.

Byron Tunnell, Chairman of the Railroad Commission of Texas is seeking re-election to his second full term on this extremely important and powerful state regulatory agency. He deserves your vote and support.

The Railroad Commission is, of course, a misnomer because this one regulatory body is responsible for the regulation and supervision of all trucks, buses, and railroads hauling for hire within the confines of this State; regulation of the oil and gas industry including the safe transportation of these commodities, regulation of gas pipeline rates, certain jurisdiction over local gas utility rates and services, the fixing of oil and gas allowances each month; regulation of the drilling and spacing of oil and gas wells; regulation of the liquified petroleum gas (L.P.G.) industry; and pollution control over produced waste oil and gas.

Thus, each and every Texan house, wife, laborer, consumer, landowner, businessman — has a vital stake in the daily operation of this agency and its decisions.

Historically, the Railroad Commission has been a nationally recognized bulwark of just and fair regulation in the public interest. Byron Tunnell is molded in this tradition.

All is not bad news—the excellence and integrity of our Texas Railroad Commission is good news which deserves to be recognized by all Texans.

TRIM GLITTER
The coming seasons are going to be really glittery. The rhinestone geometrics, stars, moons, and arrows started by Yves St. Laurent are brought into full bloom in the form of stick-on and sew-on paved rhinestones and diamond appliques. For sporty braids, the look is child-like animal prints. Dressy braids are combining embroidery and gold and silver lurex strips to form tiny geometrics. Little checkered designs are going to be very strong. Also Baroque-looking and playing card designs are formed on velvet bands sprinkled with jewels and tiny stones.

TRIM A TIE
The latest looks from Europe include the glitter necktie, so easy to make with a bit of jeweled trim. They're being worn with velvet and silk blouses.

WHEN SEEDLINGS SPROUT

Move seedlings to individual pots as soon as their second set of leaves is grown. A table fork, with its long, sharp tines, makes an excellent tool for this job.

Set each seedling's roots gently into prepared soil or a mixture of soil and sterile material. Firm soil to roots with gentle fingers. Water well.

The best way to assure yourself of the precise kind or variety of vegetable or flower you want to grow in your garden is to buy the seeds and start the plants yourself. Should the selected kind be one needing a longer growing season than your climate affords, then start seeds indoors.

Allow, at most, 4 weeks to frost-free date in your area. Don't start seeds before or they may grow tall and spindly by the time they can be set outdoors.

Seeds do not need light to sprout. But, as soon as they pop up they need your sunniest window or equivalent artificial light. They also need water to sprout and to grow and fertilizer if you sowed them in a sterile medium like peat, vermiculite or milled sphagnum moss.

When the second leaves have formed and seedlings are crowded they should be transplanted — a delicate operation for which a table fork, with its long, slender tines, is an excellent tool.

Fill clay or peat pots with soil or part soil and part one of the materials named, setting it by knocking the pot against a hard surface. Make a small depression in the center, carefully insert the roots of a single seedling, use your finger tips to firm soil around roots.

Water thoroughly, let drain, shade for a few days, then grow on in that sunny window, watering and fertilizing as needed to keep plants growing until they can beautify your garden.

Lions Club Hears Musical Program

Haskell Lions Club enjoyed a musical program Tuesday at their regular noon luncheon meeting at Haskell Steak House. Mrs. Linda Chapman from Paint Creek brought three girls, "The Crystal Dawn", who sang to her accompaniment. The

W. R. Watt, Jr. Named Manager Of Fort Worth Fat Stock Show

W. R. Watt Jr. has been named general manager of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show to succeed his father, W. R. Watt, who had held the post since 1950.

The younger Watt, who was formerly assistant manager, is succeeded by Miss Grada Lee Johnson, who has served as office manager and secretary to the president since joining the Stock Show staff in June 1946.

The new manager will continue to serve as secretary of the Stock Show board, a post to which he was elected last year. W. R. Watt will continue as president, a position to which he was elected in 1946, and Amon Carter, Jr. will continue as chairman of the board.

The appointments were announced by the show's executive committee, which held a brief meeting after the annual meeting of the board of directors.

Eight new directors elected for 1972-1973 are Gary M. Allen, J. Don Gamel, Elmo Klingenberg and Arthur B. Scharlach of Fort Worth, John E. Birdwell of Lubbock, William C. Dunsell of Marathon, Harry V. Dulick of Morgan and Eugene C. Swanson of Stamford.

A Fort Worth native, the new general manager holds a bachelor's degree in animal science from Oklahoma State University. He began working part-time at the Stock Show in 1955 while attending college, and has held various responsibilities.

Active in the cattle business, Watt is president of the Watt Cattle Company which operates ranches in Fort Worth, Throckmorton, and Ramah, Okla. He was recently elected a director of the Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association. He is vice president of the American Livestock Show and Rodeo Managers Association.

A Certified Professional Secretary since 1962, Miss Johnson is a charter member and twice president of the Trinity Chapman, and Gene Long led the singing.

Guests were Skip Lane and the Rev. Pittman, Leon O. W. Tooley reported to the club on the success of their annual Mop and Broom sale held last week, and Dr. Frank Cadenhead was in charge of the program.

Sr. Mrs. Ed Fouts, president, presided, and roll call was answered by naming and showing an Iris. Mrs. S. P. Kuestler had charge of the program, when Mrs. Couch gave a very kind

Ben Barnes FOR GOVERNOR

REFORM: Both as House Speaker and as Lieutenant Governor, Ben Barnes initiated legislative reforms to make the Texas Legislature more responsive to the people. He has fought for joint rules for the Senate and the House, and for the creation of conference committees so that ten men would not have to be behind closed doors, most of the major legislation, notably state bonds.

18-YEAR-OLD VOTE: Ben Barnes has long supported lowering of the voting age to 18. He was the key mover behind swift Senate ratification of the 26th Amendment to the United States Constitution during the recent legislative session.

INTEGRATION AND Busing: Ben Barnes' record on human rights is outstanding. He has long been outspoken against discrimination and busing. He has opposed busing children for the sole purpose of achieving balance in the schools, believing that this is self-defeating and unfair to children of all races. He has criticized the wobbling, confusing public administration on this issue.

WELFARE: Calling the State's welfare program "the biggest mess in Texas," Barnes advocates creation of a single administrator or secretary for the welfare department who is directly appointed by and accountable to the Governor.

EDUCATION: Ben Barnes believes that high schools and junior colleges should develop more vocational education programs. He believes vocational training should be among the top priorities facing Texas in the field of education. He believes job training should be available for everyone who wants it.

PRESS CENSORSHIP: Ben Barnes says, "There is no greater danger to Texas than a censored press."

FACULTY SALARIES: RESEARCH: Ben Barnes has long supported increases for Texas school teachers and for University faculties. During the 62nd Legislature, Barnes fought for reinstatement of salary increases and for the elimination of the House version of the appropriation bill which were eliminated from the House version of the appropriation bill.

Barnes was named one of "Five Outstanding Young Texans" by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. In January, 1959, he was named one of "Ten Outstanding Young Men in America" by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce. Each year the Jaycees choose ten men between the ages of 21 and 35 to have made a substantial contribution to their profession, their community, or their fellow citizens. Previous recipients of this honor include the late President John F. Kennedy and President Richard M. Nixon.

"MONTH OF APRIL

"Loudest month" found many advocates with the deadline for filing income tax out as a minor source of income for less than 60 years ago, has become the most burden, the Chamber of Commerce income taxes—the Constitution's 16th in 1913. Before that, about 40 percent came from custom duties with most alcohol and tobacco taxes. Now, almost all revenues are from income taxes.

passed this Constitutional amendment in budget was $884 million. Today, the federal costs more than that.

amendment was finally ratified, spending had annually. This year, that sum wouldn't pay national debt for two full weeks.

have been modified, changed and existing their existence. Unfortunately, programs have not received the same scrutiny, says. Today's taxes are likely paying for no longer needed, and these taxes could be used for other purposes.

important that Congress make sure taxes are needed programs as it is that such taxes be fairly—in the first place, the National otherwise, each April can be expected to grow "smaller", as taxpayers are presented with tax bills.

They are some of the rare and endangered species that were discussed at an inter-agency conference in Austin on April 5. The conference was called by the USDA Soil Conservation Service, and was attended by representatives of 26 state and federal agencies, universities, and various organizations interested in preserving Texas plants and wildlife.

Just how does the Soil Conservation Service fit into preserving rare and endangered species?

We have been working statewide with rare and endangered species of plants and animals for several years. In our work with landowners in the California Creek and Wichita-Brazos Soil & Water Conservation Districts, we are always encountering questions in treatment as it may affect these and other endangered species. But we have found that there are a lot of conflicting ideas about rare and endangered species, their habitat requirements, and how they can be preserved.

The April 5 conference in Austin was the first time there has ever been a statewide attempt to coordinate work of this type between agencies and organizations. A steering committee was elected to function during the year with SCS being designated to serve as agency chairman, Clyde W. Graham, State Conservationist. Dr. Frank Gould, Range and Science Department, Texas A&M University, College Station Mrs. Robert H. Dooley of Dallas, President of the Texas Garden Clubs, Inc.; Mr. John Spinks Jr. of Austin, Southwestern Representative of the National Audubon Society; and Dr. Charles Ramsey, Texas Agricultural Extension Service of College Station were elected to serve on the steering committee along with Mr. Graham. Dr. Gould and Mrs. Dooley will be concerned with rare and endangered plant species. Mr. Spinks and Dr. Ramsey will work on rare and endangered animal species.

It is hoped that each group will take an interagency approach to try to accomplish four broad objectives:

1. Prepare a watchlist of our state's rare and endangered species of plants and animals.
2. Determine the type of habitat required by each species and develop a list of measures important to the preservation of each.
3. Develop and initiate a system of monitoring rare and endangered species and their habitat.
4. Develop cooperative measures to protect various species found to be in danger.

What are some of the ways you can help in the preservation of rare and endangered species?

As we of the SCS, work with you on your individual farms or ranches, you can help us by planning to preserve and maintain wildlife habitat. Most conservation practices benefit wildlife either directly or indirectly.

You can point out any unusual or rare plant that you have seen on your lands, or any species of wildlife that you are not familiar with. The plants or animals may be a rare and endangered species.

Unemployment Expenditures For Texas Employers Lowest In Union

Texas employers are paying less unemployment tax per worker than are employers in any other state of the union.

For every worker covered by unemployment insurance, the Texas employer pays out an average of $9.17, a survey of 1970 UI taxes compiled by Texas Employment Commission shows.

At the other end of the spectrum, Alaska employers pay out $276.18 per worker to support unemployment insurance benefits. California is next high with $97.41, and Virginia is next lowest to Texas, paying out an average of $11.89.

"Texas has unusual stability in its employers and in its work force, and their cooperation in the program administered by Texas Employment Commission accounts for this record," says W. S. Birdwell Jr., employer representative on the Commission.

"The Commission is proud of this record for Texas, and is determined to maintain it. To that end we have launched an intensive program to improve our services to the public."

The Commission collects taxes from more than 162,000 Texas employers who are covered by the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act, to finance unemployment insurance payments. The worker pays no part of this tax.

The law requires employers with one or more workers in 20 weeks on the payroll, and employers who pay $1,500 or more in wages in a calendar quarter, to pay the tax. Certain non-profit, charitable and educational organizations are subject only if they have four or more workers.

The money collected is set up in a permanent trust fund.

The tax is based on wages up to $4,200 paid to each employee in a calendar year, but wages are reported to the Commission up to $9,000, which are used to calculate unemployment benefits.

The experience rate and the amount of tax each employer pays is based on chargebacks to his account which is based generally on the rate of his worker turnover. The minimum tax which an employer may have is 0.1 per cent and the maximum is 4.0 per cent. Ninety per cent of experience rated employers in Texas pay the minimum rate of 0.1 per cent.

Employers who come under coverage for the first time in 1972 (other than the successor in a change of ownership) are assigned an entrance tax rate of 1.0 per cent. Newly subject employers in subsequent years are assigned entrance tax rates of 2.7 per cent. Within two years, employers become eligible for an experience rate, based on chargebacks to an individual employer's account.

Ellis Campbell Retires April 14

Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director for Internal Revenue Service's Dallas District, has announced his retirement effective April 14, 1972. The veteran tax executive entered the Internal Revenue Service on August 10, 1933, and will have served a total of 38 years, 8 months and 5 days.

He became the chief of Internal Revenue Service's tax collection activities for the 143 counties in the north half of Texas on February 1, 1950. During the more than 22 years as the tax chief for this district he has been among the leaders in Internal Revenue Service's attempt to make the "Service" part of their name meaningful. Mr. Campbell has become known for his dedication to the principle that each taxpayer should pay all the taxes he owes, but not 1c more than he owes. His attitude toward taxpayers and his tax collection job is best exemplified by his statement, "If I were a young man selecting a career, I would choose to be a tax man again. I know of no job in which I could better serve my fellow man and of no position in which I could be of more help than doing what I have done during my career."

Albert W. Brisbin, Internal Revenue Service Regional Commissioner for the eight Southwestern States, announced that A. G. Weaver, Assistant District Director for the Dallas District, will serve as Acting District Director pending the selection of the new District Director by Internal Revenue's National Selection Board. Mr. Weaver has served as Mr. Campbell's Assistant Director since Nov. 19, 1952.

'Middle Man' Gets The Big Profit

WACO—Farmers and ranchers are concerned about statements in the national news media that food prices are too high, according to Texas Farm Bureau President J. T. Woodson.

"We in agriculture are afraid that these inflammatory statements might result in popular demand for price controls on raw farm products," the farm leader said. "If this happens, and we are saddled with controls, the consumer will really have something to worry about."

"Prices for agricultural products are not likely to get out of hand," Woodson said. "We will respond to any price increase by producing more. The consumer is protected by the competitive enterprise system in agriculture."

"If, on the other hand, price ceilings are imposed on us," Woodson said, "producers will be forced out of agriculture in droves, and the consumer will pay higher prices for his food. The only way we have survived higher production costs up to now is through increases in efficiency."

"Only just now are certain segments of our agricultural industry—livestock, for example—beginning to receive decent prices," the farm leader said. "Egg producers are actually selling eggs at or below cost of production. Imagine what it would do to the poultry industry to put a freeze on their current prices."

The farm leader said that farmers and ranchers appreciate some of the statements made in defense of agriculture in recent days. He referred to statements made by President Nixon, Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz and Treasury Secretary John Connally.

"These men are in a position to know the true situation in agriculture," Woodson said. "We thank them for telling it like it is."

President Nixon said in a recent press conference that it is a mistake to blame farmers for the food price increase because they receive only one-third of what consumers pay for food.

"The other two thirds goes to the middlemen," Nixon said, adding that the spread has widened and is too great.

"The public is being fed a lot of malarky about meat prices,"

Secretary Butz said in defense of farmers and cattlemen. He added that a food price investigation — now planned by the Price Commission — was long overdue. He said farmers were being blamed unjustly for rising retail food costs, especially for meat, to cover up sharp increases in what he called "hard costs" of processing and distribution.

All Young Men Required By Law To Register At 18th Birthday

AUSTIN, Texas—Col. Melvin N. Glantz, State Director of Selective Service for Texas, has reminded young men of their requirement under Federal law to register for Selective Service. Some young men may believe that because future military manpower requirements may be met by volunteers that the requirement to register is past; however, the law does require registration by all native born young men and all resident aliens within 30 days of their 18th birthday. Legal registration may be completed 30 days before, or 30 days after, the young man reaches age 18. If a young man fails to register with Selective Service, he is subject to a fine or imprisonment, or both, under provisions of the Military Selective Service Act. In most Texas counties, young men may register at the office of their local draft board, or with voluntary registrars located in many area towns. If a young man has allowed more than 30 days to pass fol-

For West Texas Center In Abilene

Texas farmers and ranchers have been major supporters of the Center, which is funded primarily through contributions from the general public.

According to Col. Tex Herring, auctioneer, the first annual W.T.R.C. farm equipment auction is slated to begin at 10:30 a. m., Saturday, April 22, at the Tex Herring Equipment Company in Lawn, Texas. Farmers, ranchers, and farm and ranch suppliers are urged to provide auction items. A contributor can donate an item to go on the auction block, or merchandise can be consigned for the regular 10% commission rate. All donations are tax deductible and receipts will be provided. An attendant will be on duty to help with unloading. The sale will feature a wide variety of farm equipment and related items. More than 3,500 invitations are being sent to buyers throughout Texas.

According to Shelley V. Smith, Executive Director of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, it is hoped that the auction will provide the necessary funds to take up the slack resulting from the Easter Seal Campaign that failed to bring in the expected monies to go into the Center's operating budget.

Smith added that the auction could become an annual event.

Western Texas College To Open Twelfth Building

The Learning Resource Center, twelfth building on the Western Texas College campus to be completed, has been accepted by the board of trustees and was open for students on Monday, April 10.

Located in the center of the campus, the structure contains the media center; programmed learning material; carrel center, including the language lab and individual carrels; specialized classrooms; developmental reading center; periodical room and rare book room; stack areas, along with numerous small rooms for individual study. In the center of the building is a fountain and reflecting pool surrounding the stairway leading to the second floor.

Equipped with some of the latest instructional facilities, the building contains a six-channel wireless system that enables students to select the program from one of the six channels, depending upon individual needs.

Until the Historical and Teaching Museum is completed within the next two years, the LRC will house the museum for Scurry County.

"All citizens of the area are encouraged to use this new facility," Dr. James Tulley, director of the LRC said. "Presentation of a valid Scurry County Library card makes the use of the facility possible."
