He said a trial on the merits would be necessary to determine the ownership of the disputed land in question and the status of the road, but such a trial would not be held until after the appellate procedure is completed.

He also said the line cannot be built along the road maintained by the county if doing so will 'interfere with the rights of the general public's use of said road' or 'interfere with the right of Haskell County in the maintenance of said road'.

WTU admitted during the testimony that it can build an

He was the only person to testify twice during testimony from six witnesses-all called by the utility company. Preceding testimony and evidence from the recent hearing was also admitted as evidence during this hearing.

Brady, while testifying, also said the utility would remove existing General Telephone Company poles along the road and put the telephone wires on the WTU poles. He offered no written contract for such agree-

Abilene Surveyor George (Ed) Chase and former Haskell County Judge Alfred Turnbow both discussed the location of the poles. Turnbow, a county commissioner when the road in question was widened and improved to its present condition more than 25 years ago, testified the Tate Frank Spencer told him to use as much land as needed to improve the road, but admitted no title to the land was ever exchanged. The road was ruled by the court to be called 'road in question' and struck from the record all reference to the road as a county road. Turnbow testified that it would be 'impossible' to maintain the road if the utility poles were in the barrow ditches adjoining the road, or on the side of such ditches.

Other witnesses testified and sometimes agreed, sometimes disagreed with this testimony.

Attorneys for the plaintiffs were Royce Adkins and Charles Chapman, both of Haskell, and Ray Hollabough and A. G. Andrews Jr., both of Stamford.

Abilene attorneys Bob Alvis and Chuck Erwin and attorney Charles Brownfield of Stamford represented WTU to fill an unexpired term, was elected to the office of Mayor of Haskell in July, 1966, and has been re-elected every election for the past 51/2 years.

He has a full time business-Woodard Farm Sales - yet he has served his city well in the office of Mayor. Many, many improvements for the City of Haskell and its people, have been finalized under his leader-

During the past year, Mrs. Woodard has been in M. D. Anderson Hospital in Houston several times for treatment. He has been with her for as much of the time as possible, and tried to carry on with business here, and his duties as Mayor, but at the City Council meeting January 25, he turned in his resignation. The list of his accomplishments could be itemized, it's true, but it would fill many galleys of newsprint. Sufficient to say, they have added a great deal to the efficient functioning of our city, to the economy of our city, and certainly to the beauty of our city. It is for these reasons the page is dedicated to Woody Woodard, inside this edition.

We join each of the people in saying, "Thank you, Woody, for a job well done.

John Henry Faulk and Cactus Pryor To Speak At Chamber Banquet

Not one, but two, nationally known speakers will highlight the annual Haskell Chamber of Commerce 'Smile' Banquet, slated for Feb. 18 at 7:30 p. m. in the Elementary School Cafe-

One, John Henry Faulk, a famous radio and television personality, belongs to that seldom-found species, the true American humorist. His wit and deep insight into his fellowman combined with a rare sense of showmanship, make him a unique entertainer indeed. As Will Rogers did, Faulk portrays a love for America, tempered by a tolerance for its weaknesses that he can translate into the priceless gift of affectionate laughter.

He's a farmboy from South Austin, Texas, a graduate of the University of Texas, and lectured a class in philosophy at Yale at one time, and taught English at Texas University for a time.

He has a special style: urbane yet folksy, wry but sunny.

The other, Cactus Pryor, is LBJ's favorite emcee, and cohost to the Darrel Royal TV show. He is manager of Radio Station KTBC, Austin, and has made two movies with John Wayne. He is a regular contributor to the Texas Star Magazine, and an after-dinner speaker that has entertained all over the country.

Both will be featured at Haskell's annual Chamber of Commerce banquet, with Dr. William J. Kemp serving as master of ceremonies.

New officers and directors Band, directed by Wendell Gideon, to the two nationallyknown speakers.

Combined HD Clubs Hear Safety Talk

A combined meeting of the Josselet, Evans and Center Point Home Demonstration Clubs was held Tuesday. Feb. 28, to hear Jim Smith, Texas Highway Department Safety Education officer of Mineral Wells give a program.

Highlights of his talk included learning to live together in a more democratic way, and being more courteous, friendlier, and safer

Emphasizing his talk with the fact that Texas has had an alltime high in traffic deaths in 1971 of over 3,000 people, he then gave each woman present a written driving test.

He stressed at this point that in the near future a written test will have to be passed by all before driver's license are re-

He ended his talk by saying that the department is not teaching drivers to obey laws so much as they are teaching 'defensive driving'.

PTA Urges Film Viewing By All

Haskell PTA's, in cooperation with Abilene Association for Mental Health, are sponsor ing a project designed to present ideas for enriching relationships between parents and children, and teachers and children.

In the form of three television films, they are scheduled on KTXS-TV at 7 p. m. on Feb. 11, the film "Just a Minute" on March 24 at 7 p. m., "Yellow Summer"; and on April 21, "Listen to the Rain".

The films are specially produced to stimulate the thinking of youth, and to stimulate all us to create an enriched some atmosphere, effective discipline, sincere family talk, and a family rapport to cope with the push to maturity.

Parents—a@f children—are urged to view these films.

CARD OF THANKS I am back on the job, feeling portunity to thank all my friends or the lovely flowers, cards good food I received durmy illness, I would also the to express my appreciation or the folks in the courthouse for helping in my office during my absence. Thank You.

The running game created close-knit clashes of opposing players gaining a spot under the goal while running full-tilt and fouling couldn't be avoided in a few instances. Joe Mickler and the Hamlin player be was guarding were pulled off the courts early in the game on a called foul, and Jackie Young suffered the same fate in the third quarter.

The Indians last game of the season saw Joe Kretschmer leading the scoring with 15 points, followed by Tim Pringle with 12 and Martin Randle with 16. Other Indians adding to the total were Frank Paul Jircik with 8. Jackie Young with 6. Bobby Cobb and Jim Mickler, four each and Robin Colbert with 2.

The Maidens ended their season in one of their best games of the year, ending in a nerve-wracking 51-49 score . and it stayed that close all during the game. Terry Walton led her teammates with 19 points, followed closely by Pam Colbert with 17, Mary Elliott with 7, and Glenda Chapman and Pam Klose with 4 each. Guards seeing action were Nancy Middleton, Paula Middleton, Helen Cadenhead and Jill Fincher.

At the end of their game, the Maidens formed a full circle in the middle of the court, and sang the school song. The hush that fell over the crowd was not broken until the song's conclusion, then both Haskell and Hamlin fans gave the girls a rousing standing ovation, to sadly end their season.

The Indian B team also met defeat at the hands of Hamlin by a 57-50 score. Grand made 23 big points for the Indians, and McCoy totaled 16 more. Hamlin's Scifers totaled 21.

We salute all the basketball coaches of Haskell High School for a great season for all their teams.

A former student at Haskell, Darleen Abbott, who now lives in Snyder, made the All State Band. Darleen was drum major this year at Snyder High School. The All State Band will perform for the Texas Music Educators Association this month.

Our great Stage Band, directed by Wendel Gideon, entertained Monday night for the Teacher's Banquet, held at the Elementary School Cafeteria. They can really perform!

Grant Teaff, head coach of Baylor University at Waco, will be featured speaker for our annual Athletic Banquet, set for March 4 at 7:30 p. m. in the Elementary School Cafeteria. Players will be recognized and awards will be made at that time.

We hear the mothers are really putting in a lot of hard work on the decorations and planning of this banquet.

The convention, which is expected to draw more than 1,000 cattlemen and their wives, is with registration at noon in the Shamrock Hilton Hotel. The first general session is scheduled at 9 a. m. March 14 with Lewis presiding.

In addition to the agricultural speaking program, the TS-CRA convention will feature a beef-cutting demonstration by a marketing specialist from the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

A special ladies program will highlight this year's convention with a fashion show, a tour of the historic home of Miss Ima Hogg and a visit to the famed Galleria, one of the nation's newest and most modern shopping complexes.

Nightly entertainment for the three-day meeting will be headlined by a nationally known Country and Western Singer. Jim Ed Brown, and the world famous Ed Gerlach Orchestra.

Some people may be confused by advertising which seems to suggest that some private health insurance plans have an official connection with Medicare, according to Wayne Baker, Field Representative of the social security office in Ab-

'Some advertising may, at first glance, suggest that a private company has access to Medicare records," Baker said. Some may use envelopes similar to the envelopes used to send out monthly social security checks. The names of some private health insurance companies may resemble a Government bureau."

The facts are, Baker said: 'Medicare records are confidential by law. Private insurance companies do not have access to Medicare records. Even if the company is a Medicare carrier or intermediary, its authorized employees are restricted in their use of the Medicare records."

"People who have questions about private health insurance advertising that involves Medicare should get in touch with Wayne Baker who visits Haskell regularly. See the current schedule at the Post Office.

county agricultural agents or Ellis Campbell Jr., IRS District Director for North Texas, said today.

The booklet, IRS Publication 225, shows how farmers should scheduled to open March 12 fill out the 1040 tax return and which schedules should be attached. A listing of important Federal tax dates for farmers can also be found in the publication.

Written in non-technical language, the tax guide contains many examples of how farm transactions are handled for Federal income tax purposes.

Although primarily written to help farmers prepare their 1971 tax return, the Guide is useful as a reference throughout the year.
