

Adv. For Bids On New Lake

As hoped for in the last news story on the Miller Creek Lake project, NCTMWA manager Pete Beecher walked in to our office this week to advertise for bids on the new dam site. It's been a long and rocky road to this concrete fulfillment of the dream of a new water supply for Haskell, and this date, March 23rd publication to advertise for bids, was its culmination. With the addition of the purchase of the Danny Fancher property, the Sam Portwood property, and the L. W. Hobert property, some 573 additional acres were added to the 2,100 previously announced in the last news release, for a total of 2,673 acres. The Munday office has completed purchases of land for the reservoir side of the lake, and is still working on other, smaller purchases, and on supply line easements and tracts for storage and pumping facilities. The tract for Knox City pumping facilities and storage is complete, and NCTMWA has already entered a lease agreement with the City of Haskell for its storage and pump facilities at the City Airport site. They've also reached an agreement with the City of Goree, so they are now in the process of tying up the loose ends on the lake requirements that will supply Haskell, Goree, Knox City and Munday.

Bloodmobile Program Plans Made

Haskell Memorial Hospital hosted a dinner meeting Tuesday night in City Cafe for some 20 county residents and representatives of the Red River Bloodmobile Region of American Red Cross from Wichita Falls and Fort Worth. Hospital Administrator Alfred Turnbow welcomed everyone, and introduced Jon Ayres of Wichita Falls, the administrator of Red River Blood Region and Wichita County Chairman, and Charles S. Fodor of Fort Worth, division representative of West Texas division of American Red Cross.

Purpose of the meeting was to affiliate Haskell County, if possible, with the Bloodmobile program. Jon Ayres explained the complete operation of the program to those attending and outlined organization, financing, use and availability. The program provides services designed to meet the entire blood needs of a community or supplement existing blood supplies. The service provided in any region is dependent upon responsible local judgement of how the blood needs in that community can best be met. The program collects and processes blood from volunteer donors and makes available whole blood and selected blood products for the therapeutic care of the sick and injured. It consists of a network of separate regional programs in which Red Cross chapters participate. In most regions a portion of the cost of collecting, processing and distributing blood is passed along to the recipient, but no charge is made for the blood itself. The foundation of the program is the volunteer. In addition to depending upon volunteer donors for blood, the program involves volunteer workers in many of its medical and non-medical functions. Charles Fodor then spoke to the group, explaining that an active Red Cross Chapter for Haskell County must be formed, in order for the county to function under the Bloodmobile program. Haskell County chapter has been inactive for some time, and it is necessary that a Red Cross fund be available to help defray expenses of the program, among other things.

The Red Cross' primary function is to furnish voluntary aid and communication to our people in Vietnam, and servicemen in other parts of the world. Its secondary function is to assist in time of disaster. Both these functions have been utilized by County people many times, but with no active chapter here they must contact the Red Cross office in Fort Worth or Abilene. All funds are raised usually in one drive a year, on a local basis. Of these funds, 50% stays within the county, to help with such programs as the Bloodmobile. The other 50% is used in their communications between local people and their servicemen, and in disasters, such as tornadoes, drownings, floods etc. A goal of $1,692 is suggested for a county with the population of Haskell.

To end the meeting Hospital administrator Alfred Turnbow appointed a nominating committee consisting of chairman Dr. Troy Culpepper, Coy Huett of O'Brien, Eddie Sanders of Weinert, Mrs. Wm. Penman of Rochester, Bud Herren of Haskell, B. O. Roberson of Rochester, Mrs. Francis Campbell of Rule, and Delbert LeFevre of Sagerton.

This committee will appoint officers of the newly organized Haskell County Red Cross Chapter, so that our county may join the Red River Blood District, and utilize its services.

After the legally stipulated time following conclusion of the advertisement for bids, they will be examined by HUD officials, Engineers, the Texas Water Development Board, the Texas State Department of Health, and the consulting engineers for the Authority. Bids will be let as soon as possible after this.

Busy Jaycees Enjoy Family Cook-Out Night

Some 50 Haskell Jaycees, their wives, children and guests met Tuesday night, March 21, to enjoy a cook-out supper and family night. A very fine time was had by all, in this probably last entertainment for the Jaycees, who will be busy and have no more spare time until June because of the upcoming Jaycee-Rice Springs Rodeo.

Next Tuesday night, the meeting will be held in Albany with the Albany Jaycees hosting an area forum of some 150 Jaycees. The meeting will include a program by the State president Rick Clayton of Abilene. Various area barristers will also attend, and a barbecue supper is planned.

SPRING CLEANUP

The Howard Cemetery organization of Paint Creek has set Saturday, March 26, as clean-up day. All citizens interested, and all having people interred there, are asked to come and bring their tools to work. A lot needs to be done.

THE CATTLE DRIVE — 70-years-young Mrs. Giles Kemp with her new mount at the end of the Haskell Auction Barn's annual cattle drive. She helped drovers herd her husband's herd some 6 miles into town and enjoy a barbecue lunch as much as anyone present.

Cattle Drive Draws Huge Crowd

Drovers drove, and they were the most popular as Haskell Live Stock Auction Barn's ninth annual drive brought in the best of the best from the county.

have missed it for the world," she said, "and if a big black dog hadn't appeared and gotten my horse a little skittish, I'd have stayed behind the herd all the way." She almost did—just before they got to Haskell Auction Barn, she circled the cattle and rode on in to find a suitable place to tie her mount, and get ready for the giant barbecue dinner James Powell and Pete Burkhalter furnished for the riders and their friends.

The drive gets bigger—and better—every year. It is unique in Texas anymore, to see a cattle drive, much less to ride in one. Earl Sargent and his lovely wife from Wichita Falls also joined the drive, although Mrs. Sargent didn't ride all the way. "But I did ride in the drive for a little while," she laughingly told us, "it's just not something I've done before, and I wanted to do it."

Even Danny Lammert, a Haskell product that works down the road a ways, ventured to mount Jetty Clark's trusty palomino mare, Penny, and join in the fun. "It was great," he said, "but I'm sure glad that mare knew what she was doing."

Although Pete Burkhalter couldn't make the ride this year, James Powell led the group, along with Haskell County Sheriff Garth Garrett, and Earl Sargent. The rest of the cowboys and cowgirls were a mixture of old pros, and amateurs, ranging in age from 4 years old to 70-plus.

It's a grand event—typically Texas—that Powell and Burkhalter sponsor here each year, just for the fun of it, and to invite our friends and neighbors out for a free barbecue.

Annual SEC Meeting Is Dedicated To Memory of Elwood Carlson

Over 800 families and friends were in attendance at the 33rd Annual Meeting of the Stamford Electric Cooperative, in Stamford, Saturday, March 18. This year's Annual Meeting was dedicated to the memory of Elwood Carlson, who died on August 10, 1971. Mr. Carlson was the last of the original Board of Directors, serving continuously for 32 years, the last two as Secretary-Treasurer.

Executive session at the close of the meeting, M. E. Overton, Paint Creek, was re-elected as President of the Board, Weldon Walker, Vice President, R. P. Nunneley, Secretary-Treasurer and Leo McKeever, Luaders, Asst. Secretary-Treasurer. Other board members are Ed F. Fouts, Haskell; O. G. Lewis, Rule; C. A. Baucum Jr., Anson, and Mack Doty of Nugent.

Becky Garvin and Isaac Castro, winners of the recent Government-In-Action Youth Tour, gave their winning speeches on "My Future in Rural Texas."

Feature speaker, Bob Murphy, a practicing lawyer from Naacogdoches, entertained the audience with a continuing barrage of down-to-earth wit and country humor injected with his own personal philosophy. Directors elected for 3 year terms were R. P. Nunneley, Anson, for Place 1; Allen Davis, Old Glory, Place 2; and Weldon Walker, Stamford, Place 3. In

Dunnam, Neal Receive Honors

Rule's annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet, held Tuesday night in the school cafeteria, saw Faye Dunnam named "Woman of the Year" and Morris Neal "Man of the Year" to climax a year's activities of the civic organization. Both were warmly commended for their excellent work during the past year, and for many years, in helping to make Rule a better place to live and work. Awards were presented by Weldon Norman. New officers were introduced during the night's activities, by president Herbert Rinn. They are: president, A. D. May; vice president Lavon Beakley; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Nona Norwood. Board members introduced, who's terms expire in 1975, were L. W. Norman, Norris Anders, Faye Dunnam, Harold Woods and R. C. Ezell. Those who's terms expire in 1974 are W. H. Dodd, Lamar Casey, Lavon Beakley and Frank Campbell; and board members who's terms expire in 1973 are N. S. Ousley, M. B. Hertenberger, Herbert Rinn, Mrs. James A. Lisle and Bill Denison. Outgoing officers of the Rule Chamber of Commerce are president Herbert Rinn; vice president D. D. Dodd; and Mrs. Nona Norwood, who was re-elected to her office as secretary-treasurer. Leonard Malone gave the invocation before a steak dinner was served; and guests were introduced by Morris Neal. The banquet hall was decorated in a St. Patrick's Day theme, with shamrocks and the green predominating on the tables. The mothers of the RHS junior class prepared the meal, as a fund-raising project for the senior trip. Entertainment was provided by a lively vocal group, con-

Dist. III F.U. Hosts 200

Texas Farmers Union District III hosted well over 200 agricultural people Tuesday night at a banquet in the school cafeteria. The fruits of Haskell County harvest were cleverly used to decorate banquet tables, with cotton bolls predominating. The decorations were themed to patriotism, and red-white-and-blue colors were used throughout the hall. At head table were Texas Farmers Union president, Jay Naman; Haskell County Farmers Union president, Willard Mullins; HCFU secretary, Janice Pace O'Neal; chairman of the banquet committee John Scarborough of Hamlin; State Senator Joe Christi of El Paso, also a Democratic candidate for Lt. Governor; F. A. Lollar of Anson; and Dr. William Kemp, Haskell dentist. Christi, main speaker for the occasion got straight to the point upon reaching the podium, to tell his audience that the job of Lt. Governor is the most important elective position in Texas and this election year will be the most important year in Texas until 1991. "You have more opportunity to vote on officials than at any other time until then," he said. Christi, the only candidate thus far who has filed as a public document his latest income tax return and made a sworn statement of his sources of income with the secretary of state, called on Texas Farmers Union members to work together and cooperate with one another. He informed his audience that he voted against the controversial trailer brakes legislation, and has a strong commitment to law enforcement which brought him the 'outstanding freshman senator' title in 1967 from Texas Sher-

Family planning information and services will also be provided.

Rainfall Far Below Normal For 1972

The sun continues to shine over Haskell County, with temperatures up to 86 degrees and the low hitting 46 this month. Farmers have finished their late, late cotton harvest and most land is laid by and ready for spring rains. Wheat crops are in some need of rain at the present time, although the heavy rainfall last fall has put a good deal of moisture underground. Normal rainfall for this time of the year is 2.85, but Haskell, according to Sam Herren, official weather observer, has received only .46 in 1972.

Dr. Kemp spoke to the group on "Patriotism" and ended his talk with the now famous, "I Am A Sick American." Guests were welcomed by HCFU president Willard Mullins, and guests were recognized from the counties of Wilbarger, Hall, Ford, Cottle, King, Knox, Jones, Fisher, Taylor, Stonewall, Haskell and from Dist. ### A Week To Be Observed Local & County FHA Girls

Attention to what over half-a-million young men and women are doing to improve personal, family and community living. Betty Sue Steele, chapter president, points out that several million young people have been challenged by the unlimited opportunities offered for this through membership in Future Homemakers of America over the 25 years since its establishment as a national organization for home economics students in the secondary schools. "They have an opportunity to grow as an individual," she stated, "to contribute to home and family living, develop leadership and cooperation, open doors of service to others, prepare for a vocation or profession, make new friends, find new experiences, gain an understanding of others, make creative and constructive use of leisure time and most importantly, be a part of a national organization of teenagers concerned with people, families and communities."

The 65 members of the Haskell FHA Chapter have scheduled a number of activities for this week. Officers of the Haskell chapter are: Betty Steele, president; Pam Klose, vice president; Judy Wittenborn, secretary; Judith Moeler, treasurer; Judy Lehde, reporter-historian, and Margie Kretschmer, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Mary E. McColum serves as adult advisor.

Fred Boon was in charge of the program, and introduced Headstream who explained the expansion plans now in progress at the Haskell Mental Health Clinic. He also informed the club about how many persons are aided daily with this facility on a local basis, and how many more people they will be able to serve when the expansion is completed.

He stated that there were 342 patients receiving some type of aid at the present time at the clinic and that the labor involved included fulltime employees, part time and volunteer assistance. One of the new programs instituted is a child guidance program which is proving most successful, he stated.

The three counties, according to state figures lead the entire state in high percentage of recovery both from drug addiction and alcoholic beverages or usage. He gave credit for a great part of this first place classification to the excellent facilities of the local AA organization.

It avoids any effort at "big time" for its singers and dancers and actors are business and professional men, ranchers and cowboys, housewives and students, who give themselves to this community effort. The Fandangle is a light-hearted musical tribute by the people of Albany to their West Texas heritage.

Director James Ball is composer of many Fandangle songs and a longtime working associate of the late Dr. Robert Nail, beloved creator, director, and producer of the Fandangle.

Black Gold In Texas Is Program

Mrs. W. A. King was elected delegate to the Mesquite District Convention held March 20-21 in Abilene, at the regular meeting of Weinert Matron's Club last week, with Mrs. R. C. Liles elected as alternate.

After the business meeting, Mrs. H. W. Liles and Mrs. Marvin Phemister gave a program entitled, "Black Gold in Texas." Mrs. Liles told of the Texas oil boom when fields were brought in at Nacogdoches, Breckenridge, Burkburnett, in Jones County, Stonewall County, Shackelford County, and in the Panhandle. In Kilgore, where 1,000 oil derricks blossomed in the 1930's, when towns grew from double their population to 10 or 20 times that, almost overnight. She brought out the fact that the first well in Brownwood was hand-dug while people were digging for water. They found the water, too, but when oil kept seeping in the mixture was bottled and sold for medicine.

Mrs. Phemister quoted 76.2 percent of energy used comes from oil, and explained the steps of refining to get gasoline, kerosene and diesel. The crude left needs to be put to some use, and she told of the research along these lines that is being done. It has thus far produced things such as plastics, nylon, polyester, acrylics, neolyte soles, shoes, etc.

Eleven members attended the meeting.

Looking Forward To His 98th!

If there's anything in the world more fun than celebrating your ninety-sixth birthday with old friends, it's celebrating your ninety-seventh! According to Haskell's beloved senior citizen, Mr. Iron Pearsey. And he's one who speaks from experience—that's just exactly what he did last Friday when almost a hundred people called between the hours of 2 and 4 p. m. at City Floral.

He is honored each year by City Floral owners, Mrs. Bill Steele and Mrs. Gene Campbell, with an assist from Richard and Mary Bisehofhausen and Nina Cook. They get together with a huge birthday cake, traditionally decorated in the St. Patrick's Day colors of green and white, and have the party so that all Mr. Pearsey's old friends can wish him "the best of the day".

It all began years ago when the two owned the Cafeteria on the East side of the square. Mr. Pearsey's "day out" was always Saturday, after he retired, and he spent the bigger part of that time in the Cafeteria, visiting with friends and having lunch. On one such day, the owners found out his birthday and cooked him a "surprise cake" to share with his friends. The tradition has continued, except for a year or two between the time Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Campbell sold the cafeteria and put in the flower shop.

And, the parties—as is obvious from the registration list—have grown each year. No one enjoys them any more, either, than does Mr. Pearsey. As he greets each caller, his sharp wit puts them at his mercy, and he rarely has to be coached on who's daughter Mrs. So-and-So is—he knows the family history of the long-time residents here much more than a lot of others around town. His greatest delight comes from that knowledge, too. As he greets one caller, he might recall something they did when he was working for the school system here, and rarely are his facts wrong.

It was a great day for everyone who attended, and it ended with Mr. Pearsey making big plans for his 98th... as well it should.

Happy birthday, Mr. Pearsey! May you have many more!

Speaker Reviews Tension, Unrest

"Not one of us can help but be concerned over the restless, unreasonable, explosive and unpleasant face of our American Society." These were the preliminary remarks of Mrs. Temple Driver when she spoke to the Magazine Club on guest day, March 17, 1972.

Speaking on the subject of "Tension and Unrest", Mrs. Driver forcefully challenged the club women to take stock of the present-day situation in which we find ourselves engulfed. Young people rid themselves of tension in their search for knowledge. Some of their methods are hardly acceptable to us. The tension that is part of our relationship with others is approaching the limits of what we can bear.

Mrs. Driver continued, "To meet this problem, we must renew our faith in humanity and find a pattern for our lives if we are to emerge from this period of hatred, distrust and suspicion that surrounds us." The speaker enumerated three major reasons for tension. "First we are aware that we are doomed. Life is just a matter of uncertainty—life and death which gives us a sense of useless futility. Second, we have a guilt complex but we try every method of escaping from ourselves. Third, we have a well developed sense of loneliness which to alienate us from others."

Mrs. Driver spoke of the four buttresses that have been lost to man. "First, we have lost our union with nature. Nature is no longer a comfort. We have lost our solace in nature. Second, the refuge of society has been taken away. Man has been too rushed and careless. I see a class fight between the haves and the have-nots. Third, the refuge of man is removed and this is God. Man must choose his own highest good for himself. It can not be done without God's help."

"If these basic foundations are shot full of holes what is there left for us? There must be a real returning search for the meaning to life; a real returning search for unity with one's fellowman, a search for moral judgement, and above all a returning to God." Mrs. Driver concluded, "This life is nothing unless we strengthen relationships with our fellow man. Our only refuge lies in a return to Christian Faith." This her solution to the great problem of Tension and Unrest.

The Magazine Club room was artistically decorated with Texas Day theme. The social committee, Mrs. Jack Pippin, Mrs. C. O. Holt, Mrs. L. R. Burkett and Mrs. Buford Cox served as hostesses for the occasion. A lovely tea table was arranged on a "red-checked" table cloth. Colored peppers made the centerpiece a typical Texas arrangement. Sandwiches, cake and coffee was served to members and guests.

The Lions Club met at the Haskell Steak House at noon Tuesday, March 21, with president Bud Pogue, presiding for the luncheon meeting.

An overflow crowd of members and guests enjoyed the program presented by the Haskell High School band students under the directorship of Wendell Gideon. Program chairman for the day, Hugh Ratliff, introduced the popular band director who in turn told of some of the recent meets that band students had attended and the medals and honors won. The local band members brought back a total of 28 medals from the Sweetwater band meet some two weeks ago.

First on the program was Susan Gilleland who played a solo on the tenor saxophone. She was followed by the flute quartette composed of Susan McAloo, Helen Mary Cadenhead, Diane Tidwell and Shirley Abbott with Helen Walling providing accompaniment on the piano. Helen Mary Cadenhead completed the day's program with an excellent flute solo lasting approximately six minutes. Director Gideon announced that this is the first year that Haskell High Band students will be competing in the state meet to be held in Austin the first week in June.

Invocation for the meeting was given by J. C. Yeary and the song session led by Wallace Cox Jr.

Paul Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cox Jr. was introduced as a guest and one new member recognized in the person of Gerald Owen.

It was announced that the Lion's Club mop and broom sale would be held April 11th with all club members acting as salesmen.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ABOUT SIN?

From the time that Satan beguiled Eve, sin has been the device of Satan to deceive men and to cause them to lose their souls, having been separated from God. We should ourselves be learning to recognize sin and know its consequences.

"THE WAGES OF SIN IS DEATH." (Rom. 6:23). If we would inherit eternal life, we must be faithful to God unto death.

"UNRIGHTEOUSNESS IS SIN" (1 John 5:17); "SIN IS TRANSGRESSION OF THE LAW." (1 John 3:4). To be righteous is to do right. If we do not do right, we are unrighteous. When we fail to obey God's law for us, we have transgressed and therefore we have sinned.

"TO HIM THAT KNOWETH TO DO GOOD, AND DOETH IT NOT, TO HIM IT IS SIN." (James 4:17). There are two kinds of sin: (1) Doing that we ought not to do and (2) not doing things we ought to do.

"WHATSOEVER IS NOT OF FAITH IS SIN" (Rom. 14:23). "Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God." (Rom. 10:17).

JESUS OUR SAVIOUR WILL TAKE AWAY YOUR SINS. "For this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins." (Matt. 26:28). Paul said, "He hath purchased (the church) with His own blood." (Acts 20:28). "He is the saviour of the body (the church)." (Eph. 5:23; 1:22, 23). Thus Jesus Christ saves the church, the church being composed of the saved (Acts 2:47).

THERE IS REMISSION OF SINS IN OBEYING THE TEACHINGS OF JESUS CHRIST. Jesus said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Mark 16:16). The preacher told Paul, "And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord."

THE BIBLE TEACHES THAT SATAN LEADS US INTO SIN, BUT THAT THROUGH OBEYING JESUS CHRIST EVERY SIN CAN BE TAKEN AWAY.

Get In Years, Important Is Nutrition

Make a meal plan that's easy to follow. Such a plan helps the homemaker include all the necessary foods in daily meals.

"With fewer to cook for, you may find it more economical to buy foods in smaller units than you once did," the agent advised. "If half a giant size box of cereal goes to waste, it's food money lost."

Consult cookbooks to know what ingredients to buy for making smaller amounts of food than before.

For best nutrition, use leftovers in creative ways. Toss strips of ham or chicken with greens to make an attractive chef's salad. Or combine meats with sauces, canned soups or vegetables in the oven to have a delicious addition to your meal with less watching than when you reheat leftovers on the range top," Mrs. Elliott said.

Freeze leftovers and later they'll seem like new dishes. "Nutritional health is just as important when you get older as it was when you were younger," the agent said. "Make the effort and take the time to eat nutritious meals."

SAGERTON

The big news around Sagerton is the clean-up, fresh-up campaign that is going on. All the businesses have either cleaned up and painted their places of business or plan to do so before April 1. The vacant lots have been cleaned up around town, and the trash hauled off thanks to the county trucks and equipment. The State Highway Dept. has put up distance markers at the park drive. The Community Park has been raked and mowed and the tables, which were actually wire spools donated by West Texas Utilities and Stamford Electric Coop, have been painted orange, green and yellow.

A clean-up, fix-up campaign for the Community Center was started by the ladies of the L.O.C. Home Demonstration Club and with the help of others much work has been done. We hope to get it all finished before the judges of the Community Improvement Contest come the first part of April.

On the sick list are: Barney Ross, who had surgery at the Haskell Hospital Monday; Fred Ender, Johnny Spitzer, who had surgery at the Stamford Hospital last week, and A. Q. Knipling, who is recuperating at home after being in the Hendrick Hospital in Abilene. We wish a very speedy recovery to them all.

Guests in the August Balzer home Saturday night were: Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cornelison and daughter, Kathy, of Lewisville, her girl friend, Kathy, of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Balzer of Schulenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert LeFevre and Jill, Pastor and Mrs. Joe Aalbu, C. The key word is "earnings." Income from interest, dividends, royalty, other retirement plans, rent, etc., should not be included in the report of 1971 earnings and expected 1972 earnings according to Baker.

The annual report is used to determine if a beneficiary was paid the correct amount of cash payments last year. It's also used to adjust his monthly payments for this year according to his estimated earnings, the district manager said.

Beneficiaries who were over 72 during all months of 1971 do not need to make an annual report of earnings Baker said.

"There are monetary penalties for beneficiaries who file late or forget to file such an annual report, Baker said. Annual report forms are now available at any social security office or by phoning (915) 677-5262 at Abilene.

Annual Report Of Earnings Required

People who got at least one social security retirement or survivors check in 1971 and who earned over $1,680 in 1971 are required to submit an annual report of their earnings to social security by April 17, according to Wayne Baker, social

TEC Executive Director Speaks At Munday On Texas Work-Force

Munday—Work will soon begin on a proposed state manpower policy to seek solutions to Texas' work-force problems, related Harold K. Dudley, executive director and chairman of the Texas Employment Commission, as he spoke here Friday.

The TEC official was here to visit the local office of the agency and to address local and area civic leaders who met in the Chamber of Commerce building. Bill Comedy, Haskell Free Press publisher, attended the Friday meeting.

While visiting in Munday, the TEC chairman stated that as the state manpower policy is developed, a great amount of attention will be concentrated on problems of the rural areas and of less densely populated towns.

The TEC official related that when Gov. Preston Smith appointed him chairman and executive director of TEC in November 1979, he asked Dudley to begin development of a state manpower policy that would serve as guidance for future state activities in this new field.

Dudley also brought out the fact that Texas ranks 32nd among the states in compensating its employees, according to the latest comparative data available. He called for public support of his program to increase status and pay of state workers.

A recent study revealed that approximately one-half of all the state's classified employees make less income than is required to maintain a "lower standard of living" as defined by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, he said.

"This situation has undoubtedly contributed to the high turnover rate of state employees. In Texas, approximately one out of every four classified state workers left his job during the last fiscal year. Moreover, turnover was inversely related to salary level. Over the past eight years, the average turnover rate for Texas state employees has been 26.74 per cent," Dudley said.

"If Texas is to provide its citizens with the best in services, this state must be able to attract and keep competent employees by providing adequate pay," Dudley continued. "So while visiting our offices over the state, I am urging the public to support more equitable pay for state employees. I am asking citizens, when they discuss their own individual interests with their legislators, also to urge the legislators to put a high priority on the welfare of state classified employees."

WASHINGTON

"As it looks from here"

OSCAR BURSON
Congressman
17th District

Washington, D. C.—Probably a lot of people are becoming a little weary of hearing about the big hassle over Congressional and Legislative redistricting. Although the matter is settled for the time, we are bound to hear more about it in the future, and particularly, at the next regular session of the State Legislature.

More strict reapportionment of Congressional Districts became necessary by a Supreme Court ruling in 1964. Frequently referred to as the "one man, one vote" ruling, its purpose was to make Congressional Districts more closely reflect the distribution of our national population. It was necessitated in part by the drastic shift of our population from rural to urban surroundings. Redistricting is the responsibility of State Legislatures. They are responsible for maintaining the integrity and continuity of Congressional Districts. The Constitution of the United States provided a census every ten years. The Supreme Court has told the States they must redistrict to reflect the "one man, one vote" ruling but, of course, there is no such thing as an exact proportion in every case. Even if a plan was "on the nose" today, it would be off next week. So what is "reasonable" should prevail. Our State Legislature did a good job of reapportioning Congressional Districts in its last session but it did not suit a three-judge Federal Court in Dallas. Not only did they void the action of the Legislature but "legislated" their own plan. Senator Lloyd M. Bentsen expressed concern that the Court's recent redistricting plan for Texas disturbed further than necessary the political institutions of the State than is required by the Constitution. Acting as an amicus curiae (friend of the court) the Senator requested the Supreme Court to stay a decision rendered by the three-judge Federal Court in Dallas. He expressed the thoughts of many that the power of redistricting should rest with the Legislature as set forth in the Constitution and not with the Federal courts.

Certainly, continuity of Congressional Districts was not maintained in the Court's plan when it sliced Tarrant County and San Antonio in half; cut Knox, Haskell and Brown county in two and moved counties in and out of Congressional Districts with total disregard for "community of interest" and other practical aspects involved.

The stay has been granted and the 1972 elections will be held in Districts drawn by the Legislature but what will happen when the Supreme Court reviews the case next Fall is anybody's guess. It is highly likely however that the Legislature's plan will be maintained for another two years, allowing for consideration at its next regular session in 1973.

The stay has accomplished one thing—it has given all concerned time for rational and less hurried thinking on the matter—a necessity when it comes to reapportioning a state the size of Texas. It will give our Legislature time to rework and, if possible, improve its plan to comply with the ruling handed down by the Federal Court, which has assumed jurisdiction over it.

In all reasonableness, it appears that the Districts as drawn by the Legislature will remain until the regular session of the Legislature when it may have to submit another for the Court's approval, as distasteful as that is to those of us who feel our Legislature is eminently qualified to carry out its responsibility for redistricting given it under the constitution.

Next week we will describe and characterize in a general way the 31 counties making up our 17th Congressional District.

Tax Questions ... And Answers

(This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.)

Q) What effect will the new tax law have on the amount of tax withheld from my paycheck in 1972?

A) As a result of changes in the withholding system for 1972, single employees earning up to $25,000 a year and married employees, whose spouses are not employed, with earnings up to $31,000 a year, can generally expect to have their full tax withheld. Wage earners should determine if it is necessary to file a new withholding exemption certificate, Form W-4, to avoid overwithholding and unnecessary reductions in take-home pay. Specifically, employees should (1) claim all the withholding exemptions to which they are entitled, (2) claim the new "special withholding allowance" if single and earning $25,000 or less or if married and earning $31,000 or less (allowance may not be claimed if employee has more than one job), and (3) claim the "additional withholding allowances" shown on the back of Form W-4 if their itemized deductions are substantially larger than the standard deduction.

Q) I was out on strike last spring. Do I have to pay tax on the strike benefits I received then?

A) Yes, strike benefits are taxable, unless the facts clearly show they were intended as a gift. See IRS Publication 525, Taxable Income and Non-Taxable Income, for complete information. It is available free by dropping a postcard to your IRS district office.
