Anson man killed in crash in Taylor County

WINTERS ENTERPRISE

WINTERS- An Anson resident was ejected from his car after overturning and stroking a fence last Tuesday, January 21, 2014 on FM Road 707 in Taylor County, 2 miles north of Tye. David Reyes Rodriquez, 54, of Anson, was pronounced dead at 5:06 a.m. by Judge Dean Body and taken to Abilene Professional Services Funeral Home. Officials said that he was not wearing a seatbelt at the time of the wreck.

According to the Texas Department of Public Safety this is the most recent fatal crash in the area that stands out with one common theme, the driver was not wearing a seatbelt.

At 4:40 a.m. Rodriquez was driving a 2004 Toyota Tacoma southbound on FM 707 when his unit went off the west part of the roadway, overturned, and struck a fence. He was ejected and pronounced dead on scene.

The weather was cloudy and the road dry. Trooper Justin Tabor, of Tuscola is investigating this

"It's common knowledge that it's the law in Texas to wear seatbelts. Seatbelts remain one of the most critical safety devices available to vehicle operators and passengers," stated Frederick Biddle, spokesman for the Texas Department of Public Safety for the Abilene area.

"So why do we have so many people refusing to wear them? Is it uncomfortable? Are we too busy to take the time to put them on? Are we so sure we are careful enough that it 'won't happen to me'? Those who don't wear them have their own reasons why; is it worth your life? No matter how good a driver we are, we don't have complete control of what's around the next curve. For the sake of you and your family, please wear your seatbelt," he WINTERS- During their first meeting of the year, the Winters City Council voted to appoint a new member to fill in a vacant in the city governing body. With three votes for and one abstention a motion made by Brenda Briley seconded by René Woffenden was passed to appoint Lisa Yates as the new alderwoman.

Yates was sworn in and incorporated to the city council for the meeting.

Woffenden, Briley and Armando Tamez voted for the motion, while the abstention was recorded by alderman Chris Bahlman without further discussion.

Brenda Briley was appointed at the meeting as Mayor Pro-Temp, and a recognition was made to Tony Torres for his 25 years of service with the City of Winters.

Enprotec, Hibbs and Todd representative Sage Diller presented a status report for the water system improvements project funded by Rural Development and gave a status update for ongoing projects. The council passed a motion to enter a contract with Carolyn Gully for the purchase of real estate for water exploration. Discussion was made following a petition for the City to provide water and ground keeping services to the historical Blue Gap Post Office recently re-located to Main Street, just north of the Winters Public Library. The agenda item was tabled until further information is provided by the petitioners.

The City Council also discussed an ordinance requiring annexation into the city limits for water and waste water service. No action was taken and the agenda item was tabled until the next council meeting.

Aldermen unanimously approved to increase the fee of the improved cabanas at the Winters lake from $22 to $25

The council passed a petition presented by the Winters Police Department for the sale of surplus office equipment and to take a vehicle to auction.

Monthly reports were presented by Mayor Lewis Bergman and the Winters Police Chief Randall Davis. According to Davis there are currently between six and eight properties in Winters ready to be bulldozed while 18 more waiting for action by the City Council.

Winters City Attorney Ken Slimp was also present at the council regular meeting.

Compton leads Enterprise

WINTERS ENTERPRISE

WINTERS- David Compton first had the opportunity to address his new staff on January 6. He used words such as pride, effort and world-class content / customer service to outline his expectations for the future of the Ballinger Ledger and Winters Enterprise. Many of the tactics he described probably sounded more like how you would motivate a football team, but to David winning anything takes the same core ingredients.

David explained, "I believe you achieve success by surrounding yourself with talented people that refuse to settle for mediocrity. Winning is never achieved by having the right furniture. It always comes down to having a great plan and talented, dedicated people around you.'

His teams have certainly done well in recent years literally winning hundreds of state and national awards in Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky, Connecticut, Ohio and Oklahoma. Included in that was the prestigious Inland Press Association's New Horizon's (National) Award for best overall online journalism in 2010 and Associated Press's (Ohio) columnist of the year for 2011 for his personal work. He was also selected as the Young Business Professional of the Year in 2010 (Darke County, Ohio). David claims to have got the "ink in his blood" at the early age of 11 when he sold his first newspaper ad to his dad for the school newspaper. However, it might have been even before that because if you dig further in his past you will find that he is a second-generation newspaperman. His father was a reporter in the United States Army for a number of years. He has been in newspapers ever since that early age and professionally for the better part of two decades. Professionally he has led 26 newspapers, 10 shoppers, several monthly magazines, dozens of websites and specialty publications with combined circulations of over a halfmillion. His teams have always been particularly strong in product development across multiple platforms, customer service and client/audience engagement. "Newspapers are part of the fabric of any community. Like any good business model, we are evolving and the delivery of our message may be changing, but make no mistake community journalism is alive and well. We will continue the tradition of the Ledger / Enterprise and deliver a world-class product to this community,' added Compton. SEE PAGE 3

Ruby Nell Rougas entered her heavenly home on Thursday, January 23, 2014 at Abilene Regional Hospital. She passed peacefully and was surrounded by her loving Ruby Nell was born on September 14, 1928. She was raised by her Aunt Gertrude and uncle Press Edwards. Through years of love and encouragement she graduated from Winters High School at the age of 16. She went on to enter the Cadet Nurse Corps at Shannon Hospital from which she graduated in 1949 as a registered nurse.

Ruby Nell enjoyed a long successful career in nursing which ranged from teaching classes to LVN's, to holding the position of Director of Nurses at the Ballinger Hospital, to handling medical records. While doing medical records she became aware of the ever changing rules and regulations for Medicare patients, thus prompting her to work with the State Health Department to establish the Swing Bed Program, which allowed Medicare patients who met the criteria to have additional days of hospital care including physical therapy and nursing care. She retired from nursing at the age of 65, but stayed on as a medical records consultant for the next 11 years. In 2004 she retired and moved to Abilene to spend time with her children, grandchildren and great-grand-

Jimmy Wayne Nesbit

Jimmy Wayne Nesbit, age 57, passed away at home peacefully on Friday, January 24, 2014. Although he gave a good fight the Lord decided it was his time and took him home. He was a man with a large heart and many laughs. Jimmy loved fishing, hunting, camping, the outdoors, and nothing like a good ride through the country.

Jimmy lived most of his life in Winters, Texas. He will be missed by his children and grandchildren, numerous friends, nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews and several extended family mem-bers. Jimmy will always be remembered for his open heart and kind words.

He will be gone but never forgotten and in our hearts he will remain. Arrangements where made through

Q: Is an "ice storm" really a storm?

A: Yes it is, says Brent McRoberts of Texas A&M University. "An ice storm is a storm with large amounts of freezing rain that quickly coats trees, roadways. power lines, and other objects with ice," he confirms. "They result from the accumulation of freezing rain, which is rain that becomes supercooled and freezes upon impact with cold surfaces. Supercooled means that the rain must be in a liquid state at temperatures below 32 degrees Fahrenheit. Water must have something to freeze onto when temperatures are below freezing. Once this rain --which is colder than 32 degrees -- falls on an object that is below freezing, it will instantly freeze on that object and form a sheet of ice. As ice forms, it helps to freeze other raindrops that fall onto the sheet, and this process helps freezing rain accumulate quickly.

THE ORGANIZATION OF RUNNELS COUNTY

The official opening of Ballinger

CONTRIBUTED BY RUTH COOPER

WINTERS- The date had arrived, June 29, 1886. An estimated crowd of 6,000 eager lot-seekers as well as persons from all of the surrounding area and all along the railroad line were in Ballinger, Texas. They had come from all sections of the United States. This was an official opening of the town and was an event of some note in the area of West Texas and such an occasion was not likely to be repeated at any time in the foreseeable future. No one wanted to miss it. The carnival atmosphere in and around Ballinger drew people like a magnet.

The instrumental factor of the historic day was the publicized real estate offerings of the railroad company. Farmers and ranchers loaded their families in wagons or hacks and drove for days to be present and experience the exhilarating excitement. Many of these same people had to climb back into their wagons and hacks after the sale and again drive until they reached their homes.

The lot sale itself began at 10 o'clock in the morning. A. B. Parrish bought the first lot and paid the highest price - $1,070 because he had a good saloon building already on the lot. By nightfall, the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Company were $106,000 richer on an investment of $6,000 from the land they bought from the Rouths. The railroad company could well afford to offer all of the residents of Runnels City a free residence lot and free business lot if they would move their homes to Ballinger.

With the official lot sale over and the opening over, the new city was off to a booming start. Orders for building materials poured in on the six lumber yards. To supply the newcomers' demands, 100 carloads of lumber arrived in one day and the carpenters worked very quickly. Not only was lumber in demand, 200,000 bricks from a local brick kiln were ready for the new homes.

The busiest people during this time were the contractors employed in moving houses and buildings from Runnels City to Ballinger. The railroad had aided and abetted this general move by offering the free lots. Some emigration had been in progress even before the town lot sale.

The dust raised by the thousands of people milling around at the lot sale had hardly settled when the question came up of moving the county seat. The Runnels City residents felt the county seat could be saved, that another railroad would possibly be secured. In the matter of voting, the majority of Ballinger's residents were not eligible to vote for or against anything.

The Runnels County Commissioner's Court met in Regular Term August 9, 1886 in the Town of Runnels City. The court paid some of their bills, appointed road viewers and reviewed a petition from qualified voters to lay out a first-class road from the Town of Runnels City to Ballinger in Precinct 1. "The road would be from the public square in the Town of Ballinger to Hutchings Avenue to its intersection with Third Street, thence NW with Third Street to it terminus. Then crossing Elm Creek at a point just north above the Railroad Bridge; then in a northeasterly coarse intersecting the Runnels and Paint Rock Road at a point on the south boundary line of Section 175 of E.T.R.R. Co. near the SE corner of W. N. Copeland's position then to the said Runnels and Paint Rock Road to the

The Honorable Court ordered that a person who was destitute and sick or crippled without means of his own and without friends or relatives to aid him, one who is not able to support himself shall be defined and considered a Pauper. A Pauper who comes into this county shall be returned to the County from whence he came. A person shall not be treated by a Doctor at the expense of the County unless he is declared a Pauper by an investigation of the County Commissioners or the County Judge. A certificate will be given to that effect to the Doctor and that will be his authority for treating the person as a Pauper at the expense of the county. The court then determined the boarding of a Pauper and all other expenses incurred when dealing with them.

of not less than 100 free holders who were residents of Runnels County in the State of Texas was presented to the court. The purpose was the removal of the county seat of Runnels County from the Town of Runnels City to the town of Ballinger. The request was for holding an election at the various voting precincts over the county.

A written application

The election was desired no less than 30 days nor more than 60 days from the date of the order. The County Judge, C. H. Willingham, ordered an election be held on the ninth day of October, A. D. 1886. All persons declared to be qualified electors under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas shall be entitled to vote. The voter shall write or cause to be written or printed, "For Removal to Ballinger" or "For Remaining in Runnels." The presiding officers of each precinct would conduct as near as he could like election for county officers and the returns be made to the County Judge. The Sheriff, John M. Formwalt, was ordered to post a certified copy of the order in each precinct at least 20 days prior to the election. Now, the wait until October 9, 1886 for the decision of the voters.

RUNNELS COUNTY HISTORICAL COMMISSION ANNUAL REPORT

The year 2013 began with a total of 22 appointees being appointed to serve on the Runnels County Historical Commission for the two year term of 2013-2014. The Runnels County Historical Commission met January 12, 2013 at Casa Cabana for their first meeting of the year. The election of officers was held. The following were elected to serve the two year term. 2013-2014. They were Chairperson - Ruth Cooper, Vice-Chairperson -Marilyn Egan, Secretary - Alton O'Neal, Treasurer - Anthony Lange, Reporter - Betty Thomason. For the first program, Anthony

Lange presented the paper, Norton, The Town and The March 9, was the date of the second meeting. Harold Jobes of Burnet County, a member of the Edwards Plateau Historical Association, presented the program about the Barbed Wire Wars in Runnels and surrounding counties.

The third meeting was held May 11, 2013 at the Carnegie Library with former Runnels County Judge, Retired Marilyn Egan presenting the program. She presented information about her time in office as the County Judge.

July 13, 2013, Betty Thomason presented the program about Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow. The Commission met at the Casa Cabana Restaurant in Winters, Texas.

September 14, 2013 was the fifth meeting at Casa Cabana Restaurant with Dr. James Hays of Early, Texas presenting the program. He has researched and documented history of his ancestors settling in the Southeast part of Runnels County before it was organized. His exhibit included firearms used in the 1880s.

November 9, 2013 was the sixth and our last scheduled meeting of 2013. The program was presented with a Power

Point presentation by Susan Conner, and the volunteers restoring the Blue Gap Post Office, Fred Watkins, Mike Kozelsky, Charles Brewer and Roger Stephenson. They explained the process they have gone through to restore the 136-year-old

At the close of 2013, 100 percent of the appointees had completed the Open Meetings Training. We worked with the application for a historical marker for the Chick Inn Diner Site just south of Winters. It was approved January 25, 2013. September 28, 2013 was the date of the dedication to be held at the marker site. Due to the abundant rainfall, the event was moved to the Winters Cafeteria with a standing room only crowd. Sunday afternoon, September 29, at 1:30 p.m., the unveiling of the marker took place with a group of people attending.

Two Historic Texas Cemetery dedications were held in 2013. The Crews dedication was held April 27, with 70 people attending. A former employee of the Texas Historical Commission History Programs Director, Retired, spoke about historic cemeteries and their care. July 27, 2013 was the date for the Pumphrey Cemetery Dedication as a Historic Texas Cemetery. After the dedication, the crowd went to the Rock Hotel for lunch and visiting.

Five appointees of the Commission attended the Edwards Plateau Historical Association meeting May 4, 2013 in Camp Wood, Texas when they celebrated their 100th birthday of their county. Saturday, October 5, two appointees attended the Edwards Plateau Historical Association held in Junction, Texas.

One appointee took the online workshop training July 17, 2013 regarding marker applications. August 24, an oral history workshop was held at the Lawn Atlas Missile Base. It covered histories of the Cold War Period that begin at the end of WWII and lasted through the Viet Nam War. Five appointees attended the workshop. Four appointees spent several hours working at the office in the Courthouse Annex organizing the materials we have accumulated over the years and will continue to work to get the office organized. We continue to work to get more cemeteries designated as Historic Texas Cemeteries and are working on Old Runnels Cemetery at the current time. In June, several appointees met to begin restoring our historical markers. We restored a total of eight markers, Poe Chapel, Pumphrey, Drasco, Crews, Ranger Peak, Ranger Campsite and Cotton Production in Runnels County. The markers at the First United Methodist Church, Winters FFA and the Dr. Robert Cooke, M.D. were all cleaned. Bluebonnets were sown where possible around the markers.

We located the six bridges that are being replaced in Runnels County and took pictures of them. Tx-DOT contacted us and we completed a report to them about the condition of the Colorado River Bridge, Elm Creek Bridge and South Orient Bridge and the historic significance that would be affected by any changes.

The commission met with the Commissioners' Court July 23, and received the Distinguished Service Award for 2012.

Two appointees attend the meeting at the San Angelo Art Museum in October. The invitation included a program by the Director of Museums from Washington, D.C. and a formal dinner at Miss Hatties' Restaurant.

The Runnels County Appraisal District called to get information regarding all of the cemeteries of the county. Research and documentation has been done and a list has been submitted to them and the Texas Historical Commission. There are a total of 45 known burial places in Runnels County, both public and private.

A summary of our year is as follows:

Eight markers restored, three markers cleaned, and will continue with restoring

The program also included a skit by local teens and a video presented by Ballinger High School graduate Evan Wilson. Pictured in the ribbon cutting is owner Paul Morrow, along with the Chamber of Commerce Red Coats, and Miss Ballinger and royalty. The theater was bought by its new owners in August of 2012, and the extensive remodeling included the seating, wiring, lighting, new tile in the lobby, all the woodwork, the place was also plaster-coated, and the walls were chipped off to reveal the stone underneath.

The stage was extended and given a proscenium arch facade. An addition was made to the back of the building to accommodate storage, an office, dressing rooms and staff

The new theater has a rated capacity between 150 and 180, and is now open for fully business.

CRMWD hosts second deer hunt of the season for kids

WINTERS ENTERPRISE

BALLINGER- On January 18, 2014, the Colorado River Municipal Water District hosted its second deer hunt of the season for the kids from the South Texas Children's Ranch. Beautiful weather was the setting as two girls and three boys participated in the doe and

Each child received a participation gift card, plus five more were awarded for the best marksman, biggest spike, biggest doe, first deer harvested, and one random drawing.

The girls once again took the marksmanship prize, which was won by young lady hunter Jasmine after a very competitive shoot. The three boys were tied for first place and where discussing a shoot off when Jasmine stepped up to shoot. She ended that conversation with a score of "41", two points higher than the boys. The biggest doe was awarded to young hunter Josh, with a doe field dress weight of 60 lbs. Since there was no spiked harvest, Josh got two gift cards for the biggest doe. Andrew was awarded the prize for first deer harvested and it was a 58-pound doe that was 6-and-one-half years old. A random drawing prize was also given to young hunter James.

Sausage and biscuits were provide by Elm Creek Village of Lake Ivie, and a delicious lunch was provide at noon by the Concho Park Marina, also of Lake Ivie. David and Vicky Stewart of Voss, Texas provided soft drinks and breakfast pastries for all. After lunch, everyone enjoyed sweet treats baked-up by Noreen Jamison of Voss, and Carol Sessom of Millersview.

A program on Texas game laws was provided by Texas Parks and Wildlife Game Wardens Jacob Crumpton of Concho County and Lee Morrison of Coleman County, Texas. After a short time of rest and visiting, it was time for the evening hunt.

Debra Halfmann of Lake Ivie provided taco soup with fixings for a quick Saturday evening meal before hitting the road to return home.

Those assisting as hunting guides were Carol Sessom of Millersview; Thomas and Mary Ann Evans of Lake Ivie; Mark Halfmann of San Angelo; and Kurt Wankowski of Doole, Texas.

Deer corn was provided by the Jacoby's Feed and Seed of Melvin, Texas; Coleman Grain Inc; Ballinger Shoppin' Baskit and Ballinger Feed and Seed.
