Welcome To Frontier Days

Wal, folks, the election primaries are over and the summer re-runs have taken the politician's place on the boob tube; we have been blessed with good rains and can't rightly "cuss" the weather man with a good conscience; the city is cutting the sidewalks back around the square, so a fellow might think that there isn't much to look forward to around the old hometown. That might be true in other places, but it shore ain't the case in Haskell because in just four days from the time you are reading this, the Big Frontier Days Celebration is going to bust loose with plenty of exciting things for all ages.

For instance, if you enjoy good clean entertainment, you can whet your appetite to the fullest extent by merely showing up along about eight o'clock next Monday night at the Barnyard Theatre at the fairgrounds. That is where the Frontier Cavalcade show is going to take place and no matter how hifalutin' your tastes might be, there is bound to be something on that show that will strike a responsive chord in your makeup. The old fiddlers are already putting resin on their bows, the square dancers are limbering up, the singers are shaping up their vocal chords and the guitar pickers are strumming lively tunes, all just agettin' ready for the big show.

Then on the other hand, if it is beauty you like, just amble back to the same place the next night and you will see as pretty a spectacle as you ever focused your two eyes on. This, of course, couldn't be anything else but the Frontier Days Queen's Pageant which is going to be presented with about 30 or 40 of the prettiest gals you ever saw together in one bunch. They will be dressed up in stunning old time dresses that were in style when Grandma was a teenager and will look just like they had walked out of the pages of an 1890 fashion magazine.

Then, if it is color you like, just make plans to be in the frontier town of Haskell about five p. m. next Thursday and you will see plenty of that while the street parade winds its way along the downtown streets. There will be hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of the best boss flesh in Texas all decked out in fine saddles, bridles and fancy dandads and ridden by cowboys and cowgirls duded up in the most colorful western clothes you ever saw. All of this plus some of the best high school bands in the country to provide lively music for the high stepping horses, novelty and specialty entries, guarantee that your

Ms Ford Country To Visit Haskell

Miss Ford Country, Sandy Lankford, will visit Haskell on May 18, to attend the parade and rodeo.

Sandy has been traveling the State of Texas wearing her specially designed Ford blue western outfit representing Ford dealers at rodeos, civic events and personal appearances. In addition to her personal appearance schedule, Miss Ford Country has been featured in Ford Dealers' radio and television commercials as well as newspaper advertisements and billboards throughout the state.

Besides her title of Miss Ford Country, Sandy is the reigning Miss University of Texas at Arlington. A junior physical education major, she is also a member of the Tri Delta sorority. At the university she has been a varsity cheerleader, a school favorite and Reveille Beauty of 1970.

Past honors held in her hometown, Graham, Texas, include FFA Sweetheart, Homecoming Queen and Possum Kingdom Roundup Rodeo Queen.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lankford of Graham, Texas, Miss Ford Country will make her tour of Texas rodeos and civic events in her official car, a 1972 blue LTD Ford convertible.

Miss Ford Country will be at Bill Wilson Motor Co. from 10 a. m. until parade time.

Runoff Seen In Several Races

A total of 3,095 voters went to the polls in Haskell County Saturday to practically "wipe the slate clean" of incumbents with opponents in statewide races, voicing their desire to change the leadership of our state.

Dolph Briscoe, a reform candidate rancher from Uvalde, carried strong in Haskell County as he did in almost all agricultural portions of the state. He will be in a runoff with Frances (Sissy) Farenthold, House member of Corpus Christi, who surprised many Texans with her strong bid for the governor's mansion.

G. T. (GARTH) GARRETT ... wins without run-off

Two incumbents, however, did carry by a wide margin here—Robert S. Calvert, the 80-year-old Comptroller of Public Accounts, garnered 1,275 votes, and got in the runoffs, and Jesse James, State Treasurer, carried this county with 1,557 votes and won his race statewide.

Locally, incumbent G. T. (Garth) Garrett took the sheriff's race with 1,577 votes, and the Constable, Pct. 6 race saw L. V. (Sonny) Pittecock garner 260 votes and Raymond Denson receive 248.

The referendum against school busing totaled 2,047 for it, and 476 against it here in the county.

A complete breakdown of the way Haskell County voted is in another part of this paper.

Elliott To State

Miss Mary Ann Elliott, Haskell High School track team contender in Class AA both in the high jump and the triple jump, will leave early Friday morning for Austin. It's a trip she's been preparing for all week, and she and her track coach, David Burson, both feel she is in good condition for the events.

Mary Ann, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Elliott and is a junior student. This is not her first trip to state competition. She also qualified in two events for state last year, in the high jump, and she was on the mile relay team from Haskell that placed fifth. But, this is her first trip to Austin for the events. They heretofore have been held in Abilene, but the girls' events moved to the state capital city this year for the first time. In 1970 she also was on the mile relay team that competed in state events.

Mary Ann has always been interested in all sports, and is an avid golfer, besides the athletic events she enjoys through the school system. She has been a member of the HHS tennis team for the past two years. She has played basketball all three of her high school years; was named to the all-district team in 1972 and the all-area team. In track in 1970, she was named to the all-tournament team; and this year has been named to two all-tournament track teams.

She is also vice president of the Pep Squad this year, and has been elected its president for her senior year, 1972-73. Mary Ann is a member of the H-ettes Club at Haskell High School, and is president of her United Methodist Youth Fellowship group at her church.

All Haskell is backing her at the state meet this weekend! A sincere congratulatory salute to Mary Ann, from schoolmates, friends and merchants, in this edition tells her how much her town is supporting her in her two events!

Happy Anniversary

We are proud to salute Haskell Livestock Auction this week, on their sixth anniversary celebration. James Powell and Pete Burkhalter, co-owners, have seen the business grow and expand during their years of ownership.

The number of local people they employ has grown accordingly, too, and their Saturday sales bring in cattle and hog buyers from all over the state.

They annually sponsor a cattle drive into the barn, and host a free barbecue for riders and friends. This year, they have sponsored two—just yesterday a herd was driven into town, and a barbecue was enjoyed at the Auction Barn after the drive.

The two have proven to be good friends of Haskell in many ways. Often, they lend their public address system to worthy efforts when needed. They allow their arena to be used for many things, including a 'play day' for the kids here in town who love riding horses, and to the Barrel Racing Association annually for their time trial events.

They also stop their busy Saturday sale once each year to auction off the animals for the Junior Livestock Show, and have for many years.

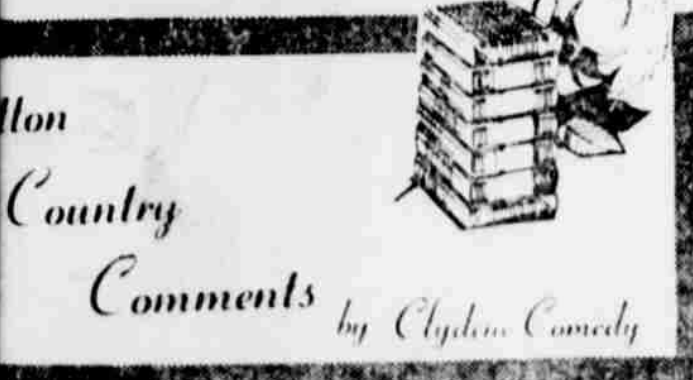

Haskell Livestock Auction is Haskell's leading industry, and Haskell is proud to wish them a 'happy anniversary'!

HASKELL LIVESTOCK AUCTION, co-owned by James Powell and Pete Burkhalter, celebrates its sixth anniversary this week. Holding pens at HLA are filled to overflowing each Saturday—sale day—with the best in cattle that this part of Texas has to offer. The livestock auction has grown tremendously during its six years in Haskell, and buyers come from all over, to the sale each Saturday. Aside from being Haskell's leading industry, Haskell Livestock Auction is one of the biggest supporters in many ways, of almost every worthwhile effort for Haskell.

MORALES, mounted on his favorite saddle mule "Gun" has apparently set off a double charge of black powder "bang-bang" bent for leather—to get to Haskell in time for Frontier Days Celebration and Jaycee Rodeo scheduled for May 15th through the 20th.

 time will be well spent.
 If you are hungry after watching the parade go by, then you can also satisfy that craving by going down to the rodeo grounds about six o'clock. That will be the time when the fireboys will begin dishing out an old time chuckwagon supper that will satisfy the tastes of the most fastidious diner and kind of make him want to edge around and go back for seconds.

 Then again, if it is danger or excitement you like, you have a choice of either one or three nights to get all of that you want by just purchasing a ticket for the Jaycee rodeo which is going to kickoff with a lot of thrills and spills on Thursday night. We already know that some of the top cowboys and cowgirls in the Southwest will be here and can assure you right now that they will have stiff competition. The Jaycees like to do things up proud and they don't much believe in softies and party-waists so they done contracted one of the roughest strings of bucking stock to be found in the Lone Star State. They got bosses that will jolt your eye teeth out of their sockets and Brahma bulls guaranteed to have as mean and onery a disposition as any mother-in-law ever showed off to her daughter's husband.

If all of this don't completely fulfill your desires and you feel that something is missing, then just take the missus, if you have one, and if you don't, try to cabbage on to some pretty gal and show her a good time by taking her out to trip the light fantastic at the American Legion hall where the rodeo dances will be held.

Yes sir, you can bet your last dollar that none of the necessary ingredients for staging a full week of lively entertainment, western style, have been left out and you are cordially invited to spend a part or all week in Haskell for the Frontier Days Celebration and Jaycee rodeo the dates of May 15 through the 20th.

Farm Bureau Members, Guests Meet State Representative Bill Heatly

State Representative W. S. (Bill) Heatly was special guest of Haskell County Farm Bureau Tuesday night at a dinner meeting in Haskell Steak House. Senator Jack Hightower, also invited to their "Meet the Candidates" evening, was unable to attend.

Heatly, in Texas government for 18 years, has served under five governors and has had opponents only four times in his career. His 101st district serves 15 counties — all rural — of which Haskell is the third largest in population.

Answering questions from the floor, Heatly told the farmers group that the controversial trailer bill would probably be amended so that it would require no lights on farm trailers in the daytime, and no brakes.

Weldon Norman emceed the event; Harlan Weisert gave the invocation; and FB president Marvin Phemister welcomed members and guests. Past board members and past presidents of Haskell County Farm Bureau were also recognized.

Local Woman In State Contest

Mrs. A. C. Richardson entered the 1972 Texas Grain-Fed Beef Cookoff Contest April 16 with a gourmet recipe, "Beef Tarragon", and was informed by Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White's office on Friday that she had been named one of the 12 finalists in the State cookoff.

Becky has already won a round-trip to Austin with all expenses, plus $50.00 cash. If she wins her category (the other two are Casseroles and Stews, and Ground Beef) she will win $200, and if her entry is the grand prize winner, she will receive $500.

Becky will cook her recipe Saturday at 1 p. m. in the Civic Electric Center, and Haskell is wishing her the best of luck!

Study Club Dinner Meeting Final For Year

The final curtain was drawn on the Progressive Study Club 1971-72 program year last Thursday night in the home of the president, Mrs. R. C. Couch, Jr. Officers of the club entertained members with a salad supper served at tables accented with multi-colored cornflowers.

Especially welcomed were three new club members, Mrs. Raymond Liles of Weinert, Mrs. Gerald Owen, and associate member, Mrs. Elbert Johnson, both of Haskell.

Theme of the Study Club has been "Our Town", after the play by Thornton Wilder. Led by Mrs. Couch and directed by Public Affairs chairman, Mrs. R. A. Lane, the club made a gigantic effort for beautification of Haskell. Every civic organization was enlisted and better than $400 was raised to pay for a major project, the landscaping improvements around the courthouse and along the creek and bank in city park. Although the club year has come to a close, efforts for the improvements in "Our Town", of course, have not; much remains to be done.

Mrs. Abe Turner, vice-president, made presentation of awards of excellence to Mmes. R. C. Couch Jr., R. A. Lane, and Viars Felker.

The special highlight of the evening was installation of officers for the '72-'73 year by Mrs. C. T. (Sonny) Everett of Sweetwater; Mrs. Everett is past president of the club. To charge the new officers, she used different types and sizes of shoes to delightfully symbolize the needs of each office. Each new officer was pinned with an artful reproduction of the shoe on paper.

New officers are: Mrs. R. C. Couch, Jr., President; Mrs. Bailey Toliver, Vice-President; Mrs. Charles McCauley, 2nd Vice-President; Mrs. Frank Martin, Rec. Secretary; Mrs. Tommy McAdams, Corr. Secretary; Mrs. Pat Henry, Treasurer; Mrs. A. C. Richardson, Historian; Mrs. Viars Felker, Board Member.

The couple will make their home in California where he is serving in the Air Force.

KATHY BURSON Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Burson, Jr. of Haskell announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Kathy Rose, to Alan Lynn Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Pearson of Byers, Texas.

The couple plans an August 5 wedding in First Baptist Church of Haskell, with the pastor, Dr. Troy Culpepper, reading the vows.

Refinish Furniture Is HD Club Project

Weinert Home Demonstration Club met May 2 at the home of Mrs. A. J. Sanders. After a short business session in which Mrs. M. C. Cunningham was elected Weinert's nominee to the County Council as a delegate to the State Convention, it was decided that each member would make a lap spread for Rice Springs Care Home.

HD Agent Barbara Elliott then began a project of refinishing furniture. She gave beginners instructions and then each member started applying paint remover to the piece of furniture she brought to the meeting. Other steps were then taken to finish the piece to look the best when work was completed. The pieces could not be finished, so the club met again Wednesday at 1:30 to do more work.

Present were six members and the HD Agent.

Guild Hosts A Former Resident

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First United Methodist Church was happy to welcome a long-time friend Monday night, Mrs. T. R. (Anna B.) Odell of Lubbock. Mrs. Odell is the widow of T. R. Odell, former attorney in Haskell and Throckmorton.

Mrs. Odell spent the 1970-71 year working as a missionary of the Church of Christ in Brisbane, Australia. The program presentation of her experiences on the continent "down under" included slides.

Mrs. Clay Smith introduced Anna B., following a devotional given by Mrs. Carl Rastetter. Mrs. Rastetter reported on the first check received by three children in India, a local Guild project.

Mrs. Smith also welcomed special guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Connel, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Burris, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boone, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Foote, Mrs. Cecil Gregory of Stamford, Mmes. Opal Adkins, Artie Mae Burkett, Rozelle Wilkinson, Juanita Hester, Patsy Cobb and Viars Felker. A covered dish salad supper was served for the occasion.

In her talk, Mrs. Odell emphasized that the missionary commitment she had made for one year meant hard work on the Australian field, where only 50 churches minister to app. 12.5 million people on a continent as big as the U. S. Nevertheless, she enthusiastically recommends this opportunity for selfless service and enriching

First Baptist T.E.L. Class Has Social

The T.E.L. Class of First Baptist Church met May 1st in the church annex for their monthly social. Nine members were present.

After the business meeting, group one served refreshments to Mesdames Ed Fouts, Rose Phillips, Ethel Bird, Stella Josselet, Walter Copeland, Ema McDonald, and those on the program.

Clear View Lodge Holds Open House

Nursing homes in Texas will participate actively in Nursing Home Week being sponsored by the Texas and American Nursing Home Associations.

In joining the program, Mildred Bennet, Administrator of the Clear View Lodge, announced they will be having an Open House on Mother's Day. This year's theme is "Nursing Homes—We Care." "All of us in the nursing home profession are going to get the community to come in for a visit. We can provide for all of the needs of our patients but one—we can't show them that the community cares—we cannot relieve their feelings of remoteness from community life—unless the community does care and does come in," said Mrs. Bennet.

"The health care revolution that is occurring in America is probably affecting the nursing home more than any other type facility," Mrs. Bennet commented. "We want to show people what our nursing home is like and what we are capable of doing for our senior citizens."

Governor Preston Smith has proclaimed May 14-21 as Nursing Home Week in Texas.

your home, and many of their favorites are bright-colored and decorative. Hedges and other dense shrubbery provide shelter and fit very well in the background scene. Trees for nesting and singing offer shade and beauty to the householder. Sunflowers and other colorful annuals are seed producers. A small wildlife pool is an attractive addition. Birds have simple needs—they look for places to feed, sing, court, nest, rest and hide. As you do your landscaping, you can provide these places with mixtures of trees, shrubs, vines, and other plants. Even in small yards, the right choice of plantings can meet many of these needs.

When planting for birds, you need to consider such things as soil, slope, drainage, exposure aspects, and climate as well as your personal wishes. Added benefits occur where plantings help provide shade, stabilize soil, and control potentially damaging water runoff.

In general, trees and shrubs that attract birds grow satisfactorily on well-drained, fairly fertile, somewhat loamy soils not particularly suited for vegetables and flowers. All of the soils of Haskell are well adapted to such plantings.

Some of the common birds found in this area and the plantings they like are: Blue Jay's—acorns, sunflowers, cultivated grains; Cardinals or Redbirds—Autumn Olive, corn, sunflower, and various berries; Mockingbirds—Autumn Olive, pyracantha, holly; Robins—cottoncane, Russian Olive, and various berries; and many others too numerous to list.

Bird houses, baths, and feeders can supplement the plantings to make your yard even more inviting. Select the kinds that blend in with your landscaping; the more simple and natural they look, the better they are. Feeders with fruits and grains are food sources in late winter after fruits from your plantings have been depleted.

You can get further information on plants, soils, and conservation methods at your local soil and water conservation district office located in the Soil Conservation Service office at 102 North Ave. E in Haskell. Come in and visit with us.

Musical Program Given To Rotary

Haskell Rotary Club members and guests met at the City Cafe at noon, Thursday, May 4, with president C. A. Thomas Jr. presiding for the luncheon session.

J. B. Gipson, program chairman for the day, introduced his daughter, Mary Frances Lusk, and Mrs. Leonard Malone, of Rule. Mrs. Lusk sang five Gospel songs which were well received by all present. She was a member of the popular Nineteens when a student in Haskell High School. Mrs. Malone is the wife of Rev. Leonard Malone, pastor of the Baptist Church of Rule.

The invocation was given by Bob Beauchamp and the song session was led by Charles Thornhill with club pianist Gail Barnett providing accompaniment.

First Annual Lueders Bible Conf. To Be Held Saturday, May 13

Jack R. Taylor, Pastor of Pastored New Hope Baptist Church in Ranger from 1953-1957; and past moderator of the principle speaker at the First Annual Lueders Bible Conference to be held on Saturday, May 13, 1972 at the Lueders Baptist Encampment.

Taylor is a graduate of Allison High School, Hardin-Simmons University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has worked with Youth Evangelism in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

In August 1972, Broadman Press will release his second book entitled "Much More."

MacGorman is a graduate of Colby College, University of Texas, Southwestern Baptist Seminary, Texas Christian University, Duke University and a Research Associate in History from American University of Beirut. He has traveled throughout the country such as the Bahama Islands, South America, Beirut, Lebanon and West Africa.

The music will be under the direction of Murry Vise, Minister of Music, First Baptist Church, Sweetwater. Conference Director is Howard Jones, Pastor of First Baptist Church, Hamlin.

The morning session will begin at 10:30 a. m., afternoon session at 2:00 p. m., and the night to begin at 6:30 p. m. Registration fee will be $3.00—which includes insurance and (2) meals. One meal $1.50. Bring the family. Maximum cost per family is $7.00.

Plainview PCA Meet Slated

Agriculture credit specialists from Rolling Plains Production Credit Association gather in Plainview May 10-11 to look closer at how best to meet the growing credit needs of Texas farmers and ranchers.

Area participants include James R. Gleaton, vice president, Stamford; Robert Proctor, Jr., field office manager, Childress; and Clint J. Norman, field office manager, Munday.

J. L. Hill, Jr., PCA president, Stamford, said the two day conference is designed to help PCA credit men meet the money needs of agricultural producers who last year borrowed almost $1 billion from Production Credit in Texas.

"Agricultural loans are becoming larger and more complex," the PCA officer pointed out. This special training will better prepare us to service these needs which increase daily due to higher operation and expansion costs.

The conference is sponsored by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, source of funds for the state's 34 PCAs.

'Clean Up' Posters Now On Display

The Haskell Young Homemakers, in cooperation with Progressive Study Club's recent 'clean up' drive, recently sponsored a poster contest, open to all elementary school children. The students were asked to make a poster in some way supporting the cleaning up of their hometown, and the results are pleasing and surprising, in some instances.

The posters are on display in the empty buildings on the north side of the square, and everyone is invited to take a good look at the excellent work done by these school students.

Similar To Motor Oil Arteries Young, Flexible

flexible material that serves as the scaffolding of body organs. A loss of elasticity in elastin would help explain the development of hardening of the arteries.

studies at a special meeting of scientists supported by the Heart Fund.

He described his collaboration with Dr. William R. Gray, a biochemist, in seeking to unravel the chemical structure of elastin.

Working with tropoelastin, a precursor of the elastin fiber, the researchers pieced together the partial molecular structure of the substance. From this, Dr. Grey went on to build a three-dimensional plastic model, which he was able to "fold" or "bend" easily into a structure resembling motor oil.

According to Dr. Sandberg, motor oil is composed of a long chain of carbon and hydrogen molecules linked together in sequence, an arrangement that gives it its springy, flexible, lubricating quality. Dr. Sandberg found the inner part of his plastic molecule also was formed of a long chain of carbon and hydrogen atoms.

The "backbone" of his molecule was composed of a chemical arrangement that "likes" water, the Utah researcher explained, which would account for the energy required to stretch elastin rubber-band fashion. The water forces the molecule open and seeps into the interior. The now-extended outer portion of the molecule—the carbon and hydrogen chain, a chemical situation that's averse to the presence of water—works to expel the water and springs back to its natural position.

In an interview, Dr. Sandberg said he thinks hardening of the arteries could result from factors that cause the elastin molecule to flip-flop, so that the water-favoring and water-hostile sides of the molecule are reversed. This switch would cause elastin to lose its stretchability, thereby making the artery much more brittle and hard. The Utah researchers hope that continuing efforts to blueprint elastin's makeup will help provide clues, for instance, as to why aging causes blood vessels to deteriorate.

In their studies, the investigators have been working with pigs reared on copper-free diets. Copper is a vital cross link in elastin tissue. Without it, the fibers are more readily isolated and broken down for chemical investigation.

To advance their research efforts, Dr. Sandberg recently left for a six-month visit to Australia, where some grazing lands cause sheep to become copper-deficient naturally.

Cotton Shirts Are Cooler, Now Are More Durably Permanent Press

Atlanta — For Father's Day next year, Dad will be able to put on a durable press shirt far superior to any available on the market today.

The prediction was made here Thursday (May 4) by S. Frank Moore, director of the Cotton Incorporated Research and Technical Services Center at Raleigh, N. C.

The shirt will be made of 60 per cent cotton and will be treated with a vapor phase finish developed by Cotton, Inc., the research, sales and marketing company sponsored by America's cotton growers through their dollar-per-bale programs.

Moore told an audience of the American Cotton Shippers' Association that the vapor phase treatment is working well on garments with at least 60 per cent cotton. He said fabrics are being made already.

He also said that, for the first time in five years, on-farm and off-farm agricultural research is being funded at higher levels than product research.

Cotton Incorporated will spend over $1 million more on agricultural research during fiscal 1973 than on product research. Yet product research is also being accelerated.

The trick, Moore said, lies in the Cotton Incorporated Research Center, now under construction in Raleigh and scheduled for occupancy in the early summer.

The new facility will enable Cotton Incorporated to conduct expanded research programs in its own laboratories—at considerable savings of producer dollars.

The new research center will house an enlarged research and fabric evaluation laboratory and new biochemistry and product development laboratories.

The product development lab will contain some $400,000 worth of knitting machines.

"We are moving cotton into double knits," Moore promised the shippers. "No more 'hot' in the summer, 'cold' in the winter, plus snagging problems."

He said the technical services department is now in full swing and is receiving daily calls from the textile industry. Cotton Incorporated's technical service experts have visited plants of all the top 50 textile mills in its programs to service what it sells—cotton.

Moore also discussed Cotton Incorporated's participation in the boll weevil eradication experiment and the company's research on short-season cotton and byssinosis.

Medicare Needs Explained by SS

"To keep your Medicare in force, you must buy this policy," could be the words that some unscrupulous salesman may use to you when he comes to show you an insurance policy, or telephones you about such a policy, says Bob Tuley, District Manager of the Abilene Social Security Office.

"This in no way reflects on legitimate insurance salesmen; nor is it meant in any way to cast a shadow on bona fide insurance companies. But, we have had in recent months," Tuley stated, "certain people who have under pretense of selling insurance to our aged residents in the Big Country, make such a claim."

Tuley said that he wished to emphasize to all Medicare beneficiaries there is NOTHING they need to buy from any salesman to keep their Medicare in force. Medicare is administered by the Federal government. If you are a social security beneficiary, no doubt the premium is deducted from your monthly benefit check unless you also get Old-Age Assistance. In that case, the State of Texas pays the premium. If you are not currently receiving social security benefits, you pay your premiums directly to our own collection office.

Tuley stressed that there are many good policies offered by bona fide companies that pay that part or all of the charges not covered by Medicare. "But," he added, "you do not have to buy any kind of other insurance to keep your Medicare in force. If you have someone to call on you, telling you otherwise, please contact our office at (915) 677-5262. Get the name of the person and the company which he represents. If possible, get the model of his car and his license number. Remember, Uncle Sam doesn't do business that way."

HASKELL TRIP

May 3, Freshman and Sophomore homemaking classes visited Lyles Jewelry Store in Haskell with Mrs. Louise Chambers and Miss Rhonda Cason. Mrs. Lyles showed them the different types of silverware and china and pottery. They were also served refreshments of cookies and punch.

SPORTS BANQUET

The Rochester All Sports Banquet was held last Tuesday night at the school cafeteria with the speaker for the evening being Ray Overton, head coach of Abilene Cooper. Mr. Overton urged the students to set a goal and head for it, as they would be more useful citizens if they aimed high and reached whatever goal they could achieve. He said everyone could reach a higher goal if they aimed high.

Mistress and Master of ceremonies were Patti Acree and Paul Strickland. Invocation was given by Sharon Foster, and

Coach Archie Scott presented the basketball, football and track boys and presented them with their special awards.

Coach Homer Terry then presented the Bi-District Champs in volleyball. Coach Ronnie Partain introduced his basketball girls and presented their special awards. Band director, Stephen Wolf, presented the band, twirlers and cheerleaders. He praised the band for their efforts this year and their part in planning a II in Concert and a I in Sight Reading at the UIL meet in Abilene recently.

The banquet meal was served by the eighth grad students not in band. Mrs. Louise Chambers, homemaking teacher, and Miss Rhonda Mason, student teacher, and the homemaking girls from all classes, prepared the food. They were presented red roses from the Sports Department for their hard work.

FAREWELL PARTY

Miss Rhonda Cason was honored with a going away surprise party May 5. The Rochester homemaking girls hosted it.

Miss Cason had come to Rochester eight weeks ago as a student teacher. She soon became a friend of everyone in RHS and when it came time for her to leave the girls could not see her leave without a party, to show their appreciation for help she had given them.

The girls presented Miss Cason with a housecoat. Then refreshments of tea, cookies and mints were served.

Next year Miss Rhonda Cason will be a sewing teacher at Childress.

JUNIOR PLAY

The Junior class of RHS presented their annual plays Friday night at 8 p. m. The two one-act plays were directed by Ronnie Partain as sponsor. The first play was "Hercules Night Out." Characters were: Randy Speck, Tommy English, Kenny Cockrell, Randy Hines, Debbie Beauchamp, Lisa Grinstead, and Gerald.

The 2nd play was "Tramps, Teens and Terrors. Jackie Neatherly, Patti Acree, Riva Hitt, Donna Scott, Sharon Foster, Robert Wright, Frankie Berryman, Mark Pittman and Carlos Carmack, were the characters.

The characters were well cast and if you missed seeing these two one-act plays then you missed a great laugh as comedy was the theme of each play.

HERE AND THERE

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Wolf were in Graham Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis. They met their son, Mr.

and Mrs. Aubrey Wolf and Shane of Hurst there and brought Shane home with them to spend the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wadze-k were in Abilene Friday visiting Larry Wadzeck.

Jimmie Alvis of Abilene spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alvis and sister, Mrs. Earlene Austin and Todd.

Ozzie Tibbets came home recently from Hendrick Memorial Hospital after a very serious illness.

Dr. Dale Loner, Math teacher in Rochester high school, announced his engagement to Mary Elizabeth Schwab of Yoakum, Texas last week. The wedding is set for June 17 at 3 p. m. in St. Joseph Catholic Church in Yoakum.

Mesquites Are Some Small Help

The troublesome mesquite trees that dot Texas rangeland have at least one point in their favor: they provide the most palatable forage for livestock.

Many ranchers have noticed through the years that cattle often prefer the grass that grows under herbicide-treated mesquite to the grass in open areas. John Brock, rangeland researcher for Texas A&M University, has come up with some interesting results of tests.

Better forage is not the only advantage to the shaded grass. It also serves as a source of reseeding the open areas after droughts or periods of close grazing.

"Generally, the grass under trees seems to be better because animals cannot trample it as easily and also because a better microclimate exists under the mesquite canopy," concludes Brock.

"The better grass response is probably due to more favorable soil-water relationships under the trees," he reports. His conclusions centered around the re-sults of soil samples taken from under mesquite trees and also from open areas.

The soil texture was the same and there was only a slight difference in soil nutrients. Soil from under the trees was more porous in the top six inches, but the same at lower depths. The big difference came in water infiltration rates. Soil from under the trees took water four times as fast as soil from open areas.

RULE, TEXAS

Our Desire to Serve You has not changed... we have up-dated our merchandise a bit. The only way we turn back the clock is in bringing our old-fashioned courtesy to our customers but we strive to keep the most modern store in West Texas to beautify the homes in this area. Stop in and browse around, while you're in.

Shown above is an example of the popularity of our sale. It includes Buyers, Sellers and Visitors.

It's Our Sixth Anniversary

*We promise to give you the best Livestock
Auction possible, and hope the next six years are better for all.*

Shown are Pete Burkhalter; Morrison Carpenter, weight man, and Mrs. Rip Collier, ticket taker. Burkhalter and Powell are co-owners.

And We Are Still Growing!

In the last six years we have grown several fold. We started our operations in 1966.

This leads us to believe we are one of the fastest growing auctions in the state, if not the fastest, for which we are grateful.

This, we feel, is due to offering one of the best services and markets in the entire area. We offer the same courteous service to the farmer with one animal as the rancher with a herd, and sincerely appreciate the business of all.

SAGERTON NEWS

MRS. DELBERT LEFEVRE

The rain is the big news this week. Farmers are going around with great big smiles on their faces because we received 2 1/2 to 3 inches of nice slow rains here over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Norvell Lehmann and family of Rule and Mrs. Otto Lehmann visited in Austin with Mrs. Sylvia Tiemann and they attended the State Track and Tennis Meets last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert LeFevre and Jill attended the State Track Meet in Austin last weekend and visited with the J. S. LeFevres in Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kieke went to Houston last week for the funeral of Leonard's uncle.

Mrs. Johnny Tschelma hosted a salad luncheon at her home Wednesday of last week for members of the LOC Home Demonstration Club. Plans were made of the catering service the club does to raise money for their club.

Mrs. Adele Nierdieck and Mrs. Christine Stremmel gave the program on "Slick Tracks in Sewing", keeping the club up to date on the latest sewing aids, and telling how to use them to the best advantage.

Several members and their guests also attended the "Sew Fair" in Haskell Friday afternoon.

Sixteen different towns from this area were represented at the "Town and Country" Meeting at the Sagerton Community Center Thursday evening, May 4, with approximately 110 persons in attendance. Group discussions were held on ways of improving our area and working together on agriculture, industry, recreation, schools, and highways; and making the best of what we have. Everyone went away much more informed and encouraged.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cornelison of Lewisville visited with Mr. and Mrs. August Balzer last weekend.

Mrs. Alice Lewis, Chairman of the Cancer Drive in this area, reports that $223.94 was collected and turned in for this area and the Plainview Community east of us. Her helpers were: Mrs. John L. Brooks, Mrs. Lena Boedeker, Mrs. Hilda Kieke, and Mrs. Evelyn Ulmer.

Mrs. Alice Lewis and Mrs. John L. Brooks visited with Mrs. Fred Spitzer in Haskell Sunday afternoon.

We extend our sympathy to the Quade family in their loss of husband, father, and brother, Walter Quade, for whom services were held Tuesday, May 9, at Faith Lutheran Church here, with interment at Willow Cemetery in Haskell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark had the privilege of having their grandchildren, Evangelyn and Kyle Clark, with them some last week, while their mother, Mrs. Bob Clark, had dental surgery at Stamford Memorial Hospital. Bob Clark came for them last weekend and they went home to Houston.

—THANKS— HASKELL COUNTIANS

I am indeed grateful to the people of Haskell County who voted for me and supported me in my campaign for re-election as your Sheriff, making it possible to win over two opponents without a runoff.

Words just cannot express how thankful I am only for having won the race, but for the warm friendship and trust you have placed in me.

As your sheriff, I have always put forth the best possible to serve the good people of Haskell County to the best of my ability and will continue to do so.

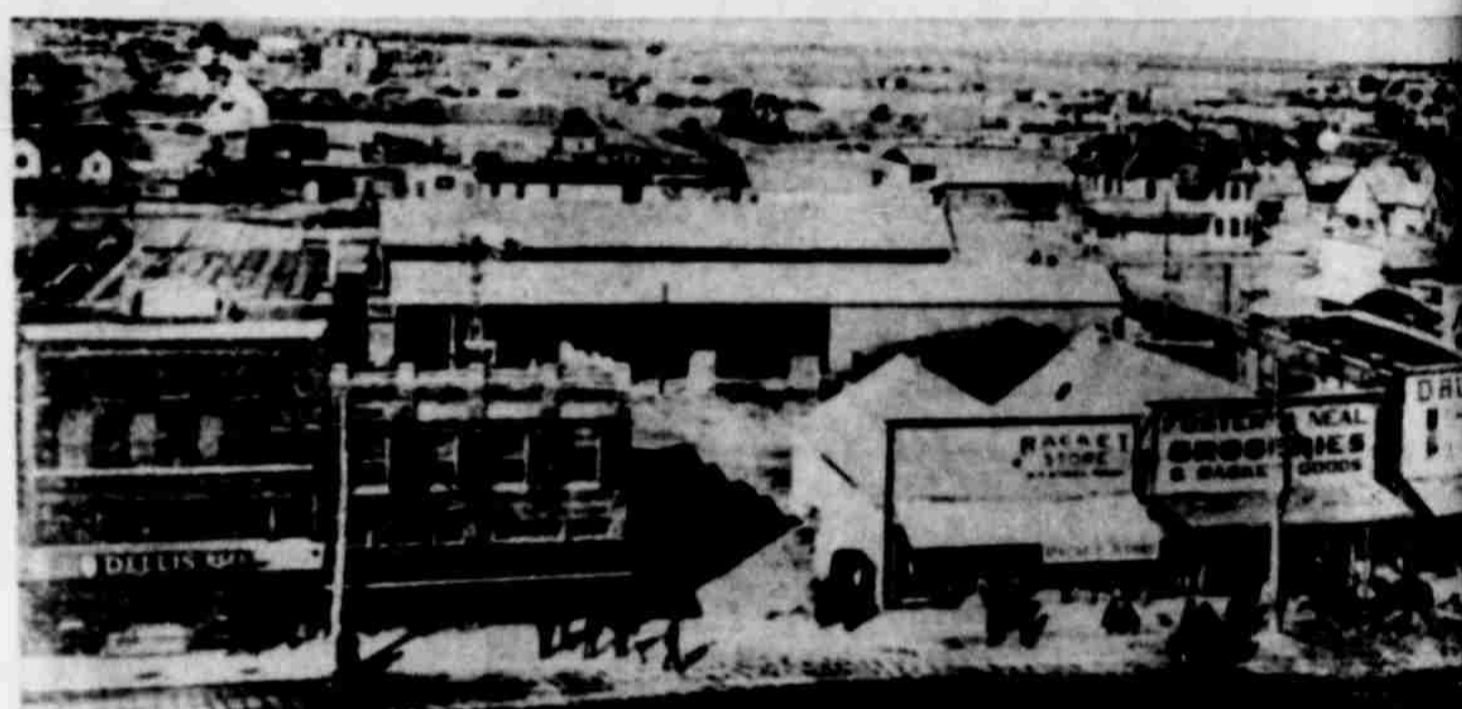

I know I have learned much during the time I have been in office and can serve you better and more efficiently in the future due to my experience.

I hold no ill will toward my opponents or toward those who saw fit to vote for them.

Again I say "Thanks A Million."
