WHAT IS THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

Doubtless many people have and are asking this very question about the people who live in their neighborhood and refer to themselves as members of The church of Christ. Well, first, The church of Christ is neither a denomination, or a sect. It is neither Protestant, Jewish, nor Catholic; it endeavors to avoid substitutes in any form, shape or fashion. (Rev. 22:18, 19; Gal. 1:7-9).

Second, The church of Christ is that institution which Christ, about six months before his death promised to build, when he said to Peter: "That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." (Matt. 16:18).

Third, The church of Christ is that Spiritual institution which was established on the first Pentecost day after the resurrection of Christ, A. D. 33. Peter preached the first sermon in the name of the crucified and risen Lord and about three thousand obeyed the Lord and were added to the church (Acts 2:1-47). That same institution has been existence ever since.

Fourth, The church of Christ is that institution over which Christ reigns, and in which the Holy Spirit dwells. The great apostle Paul, in referring to the members of The church of Christ at Corinth, has this to say: "Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular." (1 Cor. 12:27).

Fifth, The church of Christ is the one body mentioned in the New Testament. Paul says "There is ONE body." Eph. 4:4. Now, since the body is the church of Christ (Eph. 1:22,23). Does it not come with all the force of logic, that there is one church—one, and only one?

Sixth, The church of Christ is a blood bought institution which was established on the first is its policy made by a group of men. Christ purchased it with His own blood. (Acts 20:28). He is its saviour. "For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is head of the church: and He is the saviour of the body." (Eph. 5:23).

Seventh, The church of Christ honors the name of Christ. It does not wear the name of man made titles such as the denominations wear. The church of Christ wears the name of Christ, also each member wears his name. (Romans 16:16; 1 Pet. 4: 16).

Dear reader, will you not investigate The church of Christ in the light of the things said, and compare with God's Word. The truth will make nothing but members of The church of Christ.

NEWS from your County Agricultural Agent Texas A. & M. College Extension Service

An irrigation meeting is planned for Tuesday, July 2, at 1:30 P. M. on the Cecil Edwards farm, 3 1-2 miles northeast of Roby. This meeting should prove to be both interesting and beneficial to those who are already irrigating or are planning an irrigation system. R. B. Thurmond, Irrigation Specialist with the Texas Extension Service will conduct the meeting. For more information on this meeting, see article in this issue.

Hay is an essential part of most successful and well-rounded forage programs, says E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist. Even when pasture is provided, hay will serve as a valuable supplement, for when cows are grazing plant that are 80 to 85% moisture they do not get enough dry matter to satisfy their body requirements.

Planning will pay off in hay production, says Trew. The producer must first consider the kind and amount of hay that would best feed his livestock. Then he must consider his facilities. If he does not have the proper haying equipment, storage facilities and land for hay production, he may find that buying the hay would be cheaper than producing it.

Proper seedbed preparation is necessary when hay crops are to be planted. The fertility requirements depends on the condition of the soil and the kind of hay being produced.

Cutting the hay in the proper stage is also important for it has a direct effect on hay quality, says the specialist. Sorghums should be cut in the hard dough stage or later; alfalfa in one-tenth to one-fourth bloom stage; Johnson grass in the boot stage; Sudangrass when the first heads begin to show; cowpeas when the first pods turn yellow; soybeans when the pods and seed are fully formed and vetch when the first seed are half formed. In general, the younger the crop at time of cutting, the higher the quality and the lower the yield. The crop should be cut at the time to give the best combination of yield and quality.

Proper curing of hay is very important, for this is one of the more critical stages in hay production. Curing should be completed as quickly as possible to prevent loss of quality from sunlight, rain and dew. Overcutting results in losses of leaves, nutrients, dry matter and color while undercutting hay is high in moisture and often heats, molds and spoils. Legumes should be wilted and windrowed for curing to prevent loss of leaves but this is not necessary for grasses. Hay may be chopped and stored loose to save on labor and baling and storage.

Having plenty of good quality hay takes planning and work, but it is like having money in the bank, adds Trew.

Egg production in Texas has dropped only slightly during recent months while total production in the nation was up by two percent. Too, points out Extension Economist John G. McHaney, stored holdings for all kinds of eggs on April 30 were greater than on the same date last year.

Cold storage holdings on April 1, 1957, were below the five-year average with the exception of shell eggs, which were 8.6 percent above the average. But, points out McHaney, 88.9 percent more shell eggs were in storage in April 1957 than a year ago.

The outlook for improved prices in the months ahead is good, he says. Commercial hatchery output of egg-type chicks in Texas for the first four months of 1957 was 23% below the output for 1956. In the nation, the drop was 21% for the same period and eggs in incubators on May 1 numbered 7% fewer than a year ago.

Based on this background, McHaney says, it is reasonable to expect a decrease in production with a corresponding increase in price. Prices he adds, should be much stronger during the latter part of 1957 and the first four months of 1958.

Because of economic stress in the roiler industry, many cases of hatching eggs for broiler purposes may be switched into the channels of trade. This would increase the supply of market eggs and could influence future prices. The extent to which this may happen will depend upon the demand for broiler hatching eggs. Currently, broiler hatchings and placements in the nation are running ahead of the 1956 figures, says McHaney.

Yes, sir, Mr. President! As the Electric Servant, my average hourly residential wage has been going down steadily, right along!

Let's look at the record of my hourly wage in homes across West Texas:

In 1937 (20 years ago) it averaged . . . 4 1/10¢ an hour

In 1947 (10 years ago) it averaged . . . 4¢ an hour

In 1952 (When you became President) it averaged 3 3/4¢ an hour

In 1957 (Today) it averages ONLY . . . 3 1/4¢ an hour
Can anything else that you know of match that matchless record?

Barnes-Hardin Vows Said in Chapel Wedding

Summer colors of orchid and pink were featured in the wedding of Jenetta Barnes and Morris Hardin when the rites were read Friday evening of last week in Weathersbee Chapel.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hardin.

The Rev. Bill Cook, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Garden City and brother-in-law of the bride, read the double ring rites.

Bridal altar featured background of jade, centered with baskets of gladioli and plumosa, linked by satin roping to branched candelabra. Cathedral tapers burned in graduated arrangement.

Ushers, who served also as groomsmen, were Pat Murphree and Gerald Adams, both of the Hobbs community. Candelighters were Judy Ann Ashley and Joy Burk of Roby, cousins of the bride. Karon Cook of Garden City, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Maid of honor was Frankie Smith of Roby. Bridesmaids were Mary Ruth Asbill of Garden City, and Peggy Barnes, sister of the bride.

Best man was Ralph Hardin of Odessa, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a bridal creation of her own design and workmanship. Bodice of the gown was French chantilly lace over satin, with draped, portrait neckline forming tiny cap sleeves. The bouffant skirt featured tiers of net over satin, ending in oval train in the back. She wore elbow length lace mitts and carried a white orchid showered with stepnotis and satin on a white Bible. Her veil of illusion was banded with lace and fell fingertip length from a tiara of seed pearls.

Her attendants were gowned identically in princess line frocks of orchid cotton satin, with elbow length mitts of matching material. They wore shoulder length orchid net veils attached to profile bandeaus of seed pearls. They carried pink and orchid asters.

Wedding music was by Mrs. Bill Cook of Garden City, sister of the bride. Soloist was Bobby Smith.

Following the wedding, a reception was hosted in the home of the bride's parents.

For the wedding Mrs. Barnes wore pink silk shantung with white accessories and corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Hardin was gowned in navy rayon crepe with white

New Chevrolet Bel Air 4-Door Sedan with Body by Fisher

It's got the heart of a lion

(but it's a lamb to handle)

To know a Chevy in all its glory, head one into the open—the more mountains the better. You'll soon see why so many people dote on that smooth sure Chevrolet response and stout-hearted power. Chevy's performance makes their dollars look big!

You don't have to urge this car along. A Chevrolet comes alive with the flip of an ignition key. The power is charged with gumption. The wheel responds in a twinkling to tight corners or turns. And on a back road a Chevrolet steps with ease over ruts that would look like barricades to lesser suspension systems. In short, a Chevy shows "savvy." You can, too. See your Chevrolet dealer!

Niece of Mrs. Curry Wins Modeling Contest

Mrs. Wade Curry of Rotan, has learned that her granddaughter, Petria Kay (Pat) Morrison of Cincinnati, Ohio, was one of 30 girls chosen from a field of 479 teenagers in a modeling contest sponsored by H&S Pogue Co. of Cincinnati. She is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. T. F. Morrison of Cincinnati.

Winners were chosen for a year of modeling teenage clothing and awarded a $750 scholarship in a modeling school. They will be given their clothing during the period and be featured in a number of special events sponsored by the store.

Judges for the event included the orchestra leader, Johnny Long; Miss Universe, Carol Morris; Disc jockey Tom Clay, and Venita Kelly, from the Cincinnati Times. The girls were featured in the city's leading newspapers and on television.

Petria Kay is no newcomer in beauty contest honors. She's been a winner since she was 12. Last year she was winner in a contest sponsored by a beauty salon and was awarded special course in hair modeling. She has been modeling teenage hair styles on TV for the salon for the past year.

She is a junior in Greenhills high school in Cincinnati and is 16 years of age.

Petria Kay lived with her grandparents, Mrs. Wade Curry, and the late Wade Curry, for a period of time when she was a child and attended Rotan schools. She was born in Abilene. Her mother is the former Virginia House.

Abilene aunts of the beauty contest winner are Mrs. T. E. Akins, 810 Palm St., and Miss Vera Cozart, 181 Palm. A Rotan aunt is Mrs. Perry Eaton.

Miss Annabell Brown is attending West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon for several weeks.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health,
HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

The Rotan Advance

Thursday, June 27, 1957 No. 23

Austin—Although summer has hardly started in Texas, school days are practically around the corner and it is time that mothers should start thinking about getting the young ones ready for school again.

Special consideration should be given to the thousands of Texas youngsters who will be starting to school for the first time.

Most school districts have certain requirements which must be met before a child may be entered in school. Foremost in nearly every school is proof of birth.

If you don't have a copy of your child's birth certificate, a certified copy may be obtained from the Texas State Department of Health for a one dollar fee.

Write to the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Texas State Department of Health, Aust. Be certain to include the child's name, birth date and birth place, and the name of his parents. Also, enclose $1.00 cash (at your own risk) or money order. Do it now and avoid the rush.

Every child should have a pre-school health examination. Height, weight, posture, vision and hearing should be checked. Often school beginners' problems can be traced to faulty vision and hearing.

Have your dentist go over your child's teeth again. With the excitement and challenge of school, new physical—and emotional—demands are made on him and to get the most out of school, he needs to be physically ready for it.

With school comes more chances for exposure to communicable diseases. This isn't the school's fault—it's because your child is becoming a part of a bigger world.

To help prevent illness, check up on immunizations, especially your school district's requirements. See that your child is still protected against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, smallpox and by all means have his polio series started if you have not already done so.

Going to school will be all new to your child. It means new children, a new place, new adults, new things to do. It's the same child, but one who is changing physically, mentally and emotionally.

If he is healthy and you keep him healthy, his adjustment into school life will be made much simpler, and he'll be happier.

Mrs. Shed Ragsdale returned Thursday night of last week from a visit with her niece, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kevelighan and daughters in La Harbra, and her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ashley in Downey, Cal. Mrs. Ragsdale returned home by plane and brought Jenna, Janie and Carol Kevelighan home with her for a visit. The children will also visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ashley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Morrow went to Fort Worth Sunday to visit relatives.
