Labor Day Weekend Will Claim Lives

The Texas Department of Public Safety has estimated as many as 51 persons will be killed in traffic accidents during the Labor Day holiday. The estimate includes traffic deaths which may occur on urban streets and rural highways. Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director, says Texas has about 14 percent fewer fatal accidents now than at the same time during 1982. "We are hopeful the trend will continue downward for the remainder of the year. However holiday weekends always seem to bring higher death tolls than do other times of the year," Adams said.

The DPS reported 50 deaths during Labor Day last year. However, the inclusion of subsequent deaths due to traffic injuries received during the 78-hour period raised the final count to 57. "During the 1982 holiday, 27 people were killed in accidents where DWI or speed was a contributing factor. This represented close to half of all the fatalities which occurred during that particular holiday," said Adams. The DPS director called for sober driving, use of seat belts and a reduction in speed. "We know alcohol contributes to about half of our traffic deaths, so it is obvious that a driver should not drink and drive. Also, we can prove the lifesaving effects of seat belt usage and our statistics show that slower speeds enhance one's chances for survival if an accident occurs," said Adams. The DPS said the most recent holiday, July 4th, was one of the most deadly recorded in the past decade. "We had 55 persons killed during the Fourth of July and some are still seriously injured and will probably die before the year is over. This makes that holiday the deadliest 78-hour period holiday since 1970," he said.

Hearn's Honored On 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Benny Hearn of Bogata was recently honored with an open house reception for their 25th Wedding Anniversary.

The reception, hosted by their four sons, was held at the Hearn Home, Sunday, July 17, from 2-5 p.m. More than 65 friends and relatives signed the guest book.

The serving table was covered with an Irish Linen Table Cloth, brought from England by Mrs. Hearn's brother as a wedding gift, and used on the original wedding reception table, was centered with a two tiered wedding cake topped with the miniature bride and groom used on their wedding cake, and crystal punch bowl, flanked with crystal candelabra on both sides, holding white tapers with pink bows. The candelabra belonged to Mrs. Hearn's late mother, who had received them as a wedding gift.

Mrs. Peggy Colman of Dallas, sister of Mr. Hearn, served the punch, and Mrs. Willetta Jewett of Flandreau, South Dakota, aunt of Mrs. Hearn, served the cake. Mrs. Jewett had served the cake at the Hearn's wedding.

Miss Stephanie Bailey of Tyler, Texas, niece of Mrs. Hearn, attended the guest book and received the gifts. The gift table was centered with a pink and white floral arrangement, accented with four American Beauty red roses which represented the four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Hearn.

Assisting with the reception was Mrs. Vicky Hearn, daughter-in-law of the Hearn's, and Mrs. Diane Jewett and Mrs. Kay Jewett of St. Joseph, Missouri, sister-in-laws of Mrs. Hearn. Little Miss Nikki Gayle Hearn, granddaughter of the Hearn's, assisted with the gift openings.

Mrs. Hearn the former Helen Joan Jewett of Craig, Missouri, and Benny Jeff Hearn of Bogata, was married July 19, 1958, at the First Church of the Nazarene, Craig, by the Rev. Jim Tracy. With the exception of two years spent in Tacoma, Washington, their entire married life has been spent in the Dallas area. The Hearn's moved to Bogata in April of 1982.

Mr. and Mrs. Hearn are the parents of four sons, Brad of Sherman, Edward of Dallas, and Neil and Nelson of Bogata. They have one granddaughter, Nikki Gayle Hearn of Sherman.

Of the original wedding party, eight were present at the reception.

Mr. Hearn is the owner of B.J. Auto Repair in Bogata and Mrs. Hearn is employed at Baylor Hospital in Dallas.

Smith's Horses, Bulls, Crucial To Good Rodeo

And then there's the bucking horses and bulls...when most people think of "rodeo", they think of cowboys and cowgirls, hats and boots, big belt buckles and pickup trucks pulling horse trailers. But looking closer, looking behind the bucking chutes where the cowboys congregate, lies the crux, the true embryo of any successful rodeo...the bucking stock.

The horses and bulls that await their turn in competition are not unlike the cowboys who try to win money and points by making that "perfect ride". They are the utmost in athletic proress, tuned to a fine point through proper diet, exercise and experience. The animals are tried and proven, as any superior athlete, before being put to the supreme test, that long, hard haul down the famous "rodeo road".

Not just any horse or bull will do, not by a long shot. Bucking horses, good, solid campaigners, sometimes take generations of careful breeding and supervision. Cross-breeding in cattle herds to finally attain the greatest bull herd in the world is surely the goal of any stock producer. And then there is no guarantee of a finished product, while the breeding in horses is contained closely to assure that the temperament and disposition from an outstanding sire or mare is there in their offspring. Some of the best bucking horses are sored saddle horses, obtained after years of trying to break them for other uses. These horses are many times the foundation of a long line of bucking stock.

And then, as mentioned, it may take years before a particular horse or bull "comes to himself" and settles down to bucking consistently. The majority of the horses and bulls tried never make the cut. This is the reason why premier rodeo stock comes at such a high cost.

Wing Ranch Rodeo Company has not come into the rodeo business overnight. Through well over two decades of training, learning and experimenting, Jerald and Joan Smith have become known nationwide for their outstanding bucking stock. Some stock has been bought from dispersal sales of other producers, some from individuals and some from ranch stock on their ranch in East Texas near Bogata. At the present time, there stands a herd of weanling, yearling and two year old colts the Smith's have raised, hoping they can take the places of their mothers and fathers who have already proven their mettle in rodeo competition.

In another pasture stands a herd of crossbred bulls, raised on the ranch, and sired by bucking bulls who once took their share of the limelight in the area. One in particular, unnamed to date, the son of J.J., a bull of unquestionably overwhelming strength and power, who Smith hauled for several years. The bull was ridden once in two years, with over 300 disqualifications to his credit.

A weanling colt stands beside his mother today at the ranch, named "Instant" derivative of his famous mother "Sanka". Sanka was voted Bucking Horse of the Year in 1979 and was semi-retired to motherhood at the end of that season, after a cranky bull had jumped a fence during the Finals that year and gored her in the stomach. It was doubtful if she could breed, much less nurse a colt. Her first colt died in 1982 from a mysterious disease.

She, like many famous bucking horses, was a broke horse who could never tolerate a saddle on a regular basis. She has western pleasure points in the AQHA, a good looking chestnut sorrel with a flaxen mane and tail. Sanka came out of retirement this year to make a return appearance at her hometown rodeo in Bogata, after nearly two years. She didn't disappoint the crowd. She did, however, disappoint the cowboy she threw over her head before kicking so high that she threw herself down. And yes, Instant was there with his momma, proudly wearing her championship halter, cut down to his size. But he'll have to pull his own weight when the time comes and win his own awards.

Another example is the sorrel stocking legged bareback horse firebranded AL, that has garnered numerous awards for his outstanding performances. AL, named First Chance, was voted Bareback Horse of the Year in 1981 by the bareback riders of the association and received Bareback Horse of the Finals honors the same year. He came from a ranch that is noted for breeding bucking horses. There were three of them, almost identical, named First Chance, Last Chance and No Chance. The latter two didn't make Smith's scrutinizing eye. They would have had trouble living up to First Chance's reputation. The sorrel horse has unseated approximately 75 percent of all his counterparts, quite a record for a bareback horse, and when qualified on, has never placed the cowboy aboard below second in the money.

Then there's a saddle bronc named Strawberry Hill. He's been Saddle Bronc of the Year more than once and Saddle Bronc of the Finals, also. His trophy halters and awards are displayed proudly in the Smith ranch house. Strawberry contracted a rare equine disease last year, one that claimed more than several head of good horses at the Smith ranch. Unlike the others, Strawberry somehow managed to stay on his feet long enough to haul him to a veterinarian. Though blinded by the disease, Strawberry allowed the vets to work feverishly to try and save his life, and after many days and nights of "if he can pull through one more day", the sorrel roan came back, as if to proclaim he isn't finished yet. And indeed he isn't. He has been qualified on twice in competition in 1983, once at Bonham, Texas to a marking of 89 points for Dennis Crawford of Manvel, Texas to walk away with the bronc riding championship at that rodeo.

Now we come to the celebrated bulls, such as Pole Cat and K-Bob. Pole Cat, who weighs in at well over 2,000 pounds, which is extremely large for a bucking bull, has thrilled crowds and thrown cowboys over fences and chutes, all over a four state area. The black and white spotted crossbred fills the chutes, wall to wall, with something only great bucking bulls possess, heart.

Purchased as a relative youngster, Pole Cat took a while to find his "spot" in the arena and when he found it, he stayed. In his first full year under Wing supervision, the bull was ridden twice in over 120 outs. In 1982 he was voted Bucking Bull of the Year in the CRA for his accomplishments and he hasn't slowed down yet. In 1983 he has been ridden three times since the first of February. These rides will long be remembered by the cowboys who made them, the latest of which was at Paris, Texas when Mike Harbor of Ft. Worth scored 87 points and won the bull riding buckle.

Then there's K-Bob, a small red mottled face crossbred bull who has withstood challenge upon challenge. Small in stature perhaps, but this is where the similarity ends.

K-Bob's history is quite interesting, too. He was purchased as a two year old by Smith and was so wild and wirey he never did settle down and try to do anything much. So, as others who aren't drafted the first round, had to find another home, and so he did. He went to a ranch as a herd bull. The little bull was forgotten, for a while anyway. Then there came a phone call several years later, the rancher was rotating his bulls and the red was going to the sale barn. Smith's brother, J.C. just happened to be at the sale that day and came back to the ranch with K-Bob, again. K-Bob must have missed the hospitality because he decided to begin earning his keep. He was started out slowly, in order to get back in shape, and progressed to the unbelievably rank bull he is today. Rank, in K-Bob's case, is defined as blowing out of the chute about five feet in the air, rolling over on his side (called sunfishing) and kicking over his head before his feet hit the ground. If anyone is still aboard after his first shot, he has more goodies awaiting his match, and, they aren't easier than the first.

K-Bob has been termed as possibly the rankest bull in the world, bar none, by many stock producers. This mitey-mite is truly something to behold. In two years of competition, K-Bob has been named Bucking Bull of the Year both years. Though he can't wear the gold and silver buckles he has garnered the Smith family, he seems to convey that he knows what he has accomplished. Recuperating from eye surgery only three weeks ago, K-Bob is now ready to return to his life's work, bucking.

So, you see, rodeo is more than unloading a truckload of horses and bulls at the arena and loading them in the chutes. Rodeo is a life's work for Jerald and Joan Smith. They live it 24 hours a day, eight days a week.

Stop by the ranch sometime when they are working stock. There's a story behind each head of the horses and bulls. Stories just as interesting and totally consuming as the ones of these few chosen animals.

As a final note, there always seems to be a footnote to every story, or a hidden tribute behind every success. Rodeo would like to say "Thank You" to Jerald and Joan Smith for their undying support of rodeo and for their never ending contributions. But knowing Jerald as everyone does, he would be the one to say thank you to those who have put him where he is today.

And to mention just a few, Crafty Jack, Hood, Sioux, J.J., Gentle Bill, Dark Alley, Snuffy, CC Rider, Mean Joe

Use Energy Wisely

... STOP HOT WATER WASTE

Up to twenty percent of total energy used in your home is probably used to heat water. A leaking hot water faucet dripping at a rate of only one drop per second can waste a whopping 113 gallons per month. Water you bought and then paid to heat is going down the drain. To use energy wisely check all your water faucets and repair as necessary. For more energy-saving tips ask for our free booklet, "A Guide To Better Home Energy Management."

Texas Crime Rate Shows Slight Decrease

The Texas crime rate for the first half of 1983 declined three percent compared to the same period last year, according to statistics released by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

"Figures compiled by the Department's Uniform Crime Reporting Bureau showed a rate of 2,989.7 major crimes reported for each hundred thousand of population for the first half of this year," said Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director.

"The rate for the comparable 1982 period was 3,083.1."

"Although the specific reasons behind this decrease would be difficult to determine, I'd like to think that widespread citizen participation in police crime prevention programs continues to be a factor," Adams said.

"We hope this decrease in the crime rate will carry through the rest of the year."

A total of 456,840 major criminal offenses were reported by Texas law enforcement agencies from January through June of this year, reflecting a slight increase of 0.4 percent in the actual number of crimes.

"Every major crime category except theft registered a decrease in the first half of 1983," Adams pointed out.

The number of murders decreased by 7.9 percent, while rape declined by 7.1 percent.

Robberies and aggravated assaults were down by 5.7 percent and 5.2 percent respectively.

Motor vehicle thefts dropped 8 percent. Burglaries decreased by 5.2 percent. The number of thefts increased by 6.4 percent.

"DWI arrests were up almost 42 percent in the first half of this year compared to the same 1982 period," Adams said.

"This indicates that Texas police agencies are keeping the pressure on the potential DWI offenders and removing increasing numbers of these violators from the roads."

Statewide arrests for criminal offenses totaled 458,926 in the first six months of 1983, posting a 4.1 percent increase over the 1982 period.

Three Texas law enforcement officers were killed in the line of duty by criminal action during the period. Four other peace officers died as a result of job-related accidents. A total of 1,833 officers were assaulted while on duty.

Statewide totals for

January - June of 1982 and 1983 are: Murder- 1,153 in 1982 and 1,062 in 1983; Rape- 3,290 in 1982 and 3,057 in 1983; Robbery- 15,723 in 1982 and 14,821 in 1983; Aggravated Assault- 22,441 in 1982 and 21,273 in 1983; Burglary- 136,961 in 1982 and 129,854 in 1983; Theft- 232,192 in 1982 and 247,085 in 1983; and Motor Vehicle Theft- 43,147 in 1982 and 39,688 in 1983.

DWI arrests for the first half of 1983 totaled 71,972 compared to 50,786 in the first half of 1982.

Jewett Reunion Held At South Lake

The twelfth annual Jewett Reunion of the descendants of Frank S. Hattie Gard Jewett was held the weekend of July 15, 16, and 17th, at South Port Lake, and Bogata.

This years reunion was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Benny Hearn and family of Bogata. Mrs. Hearn was a granddaughter of the late Frank Jewetts.

The weekend event began with a cookout on Friday evening at the Hearn Home. On Saturday, the group met at South Port Lake where that evening a fish fry and dance was enjoyed. On Sunday, the group met at the Bogata Community Building and later in the day all attended the 25th Wedding Anniversary Reception for Mr. and Mrs. Hearn.

Frank S. Jewett and Hattie Belle Gard were married December 26, 1894, and raised a family of 11 children: Marion, Pearl, Guy, Otis, Betty, Rose, Edward, Leslie (Joke), Albert (Eck), Orville (Bud), and Robert on farms near the Tarkio, Skidmore, and Craig, Missouri areas. After their retirement Mr. and Mrs. Jewett moved to Craig, where they spent the remainder of their lives. Mr. Jewett passed away December 16, 1953 at the age of 80, and Mrs. Jewett, January 30, 1972, at the age of 95.

After the death of Mr. Jewett, it became a family tradition to gather the Sunday nearest Mrs. Jewett's birthday, which was July 20th, and have a basket dinner in her honor. After her death it was decided to keep this tradition and start a family reunion to be held each year. The reunions have been held at Tarkio and Big Lake, Missouri, Flandreau, South Dakota, Loveland, Colorado, Grover City, California, El Dorado, Kansas, and Savannah, Missouri. The 1984 reunion will be held at Pismo Beach, California.

At this year's reunion four of the five living children of the original eleven were present: Rose Rouse of Mound City, Missouri, Orville Jewett of Lincoln, Calif., Otis Jewett of Gustine, Calif., and Edward Jewett of Flandreau, South Dakota.

Otis Jewett, 82 years of age was recognized as the oldest present, and Amanda Medlin, of Wichita, Kansas, 2 years the youngest. Jean Foster of Arroyo Grande, Calif., was recognized for coming the greatest distance which was 2,000 miles. She was also recognized as the oldest living grandchild of the Frank S. Jewetts. Mrs. Marvel Jewett of Flandreau, S.D. was recognized for having the most members present from her family.

71 persons attended from the States of South Dakota, California, Millouri, Kansas, and Texas. Family members attending were: Orville Jewett, Lincoln, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jewett, Mrs. Jackie Jones, Jimmie and Charles, Mrs. Marvel Jewett, David Jewett, D.J. and Justin, Mrs. Glenda Hansen, Tom, Karla, and Kim, Carol Dietuuh, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sorensen, Jody and Jason, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Peper, Lori, Travis, and Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dahmen and Paul, all of Flandreau, South Dakota.

Mrs. Rose Rouse of N and City, Missouri.

Mrs. Jean Foster of Arroyo Grande, California. Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jewett of Gustin, Calif., Mrs. Loretta Giberson and Mike Hataway, Conroy, Texas. Mrs. Blanche Jewett of El Dorado, Kansas, Mrs. Penny Medlin, Lucas and Amanda of Wichita, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jewett, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy L.

THOUGHT FOR FOOD

Chilled Sour Cream Mushroom Soup

1 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1/4 cup (1/2-stick) butter
1 leek, chopped
2 tablespoons flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
4 cups light cream OR half-and-half
1 cup dairy sour cream
Chopped chives, if desired
Sliced fresh mushrooms, if desired

Toss mushrooms with lemon juice. Melt butter in a 3-quart saucepan. Saute mushrooms and leek until tender, about 8 minutes. Stir in flour and seasonings until smooth. Remove from heat and gradually stir in cream. Heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Boil and stir 1 minute. Cool to lukewarm. Stir in sour cream until well blended. Chill, covered, several hours until icy cold. Serve garnished with chopped chives and fresh sliced mushrooms. Yields 7 cups.

Footprints From The Past

By John W. Hood

This is an exciting time of the year for me and has been even when I was a small boy. This is the time of the year when parents are busy buying school clothes and supplies for their children and for the kids it is a time of renewing old acquaintances with some of their friends that they have not seen very much of since school was out last spring. It is also the time of year when you will be meeting new kids and getting to know them. Who knows, maybe you would get to know someone who would turn out to be your best friend even if you did not meet someone new, there was always the new teachers and you would get to see just how far you could go with them. When you got a little older there was always the thrill of football and getting to go to all the new and exciting places to play ball and I don't know how it is now, but when I was in school, we were always glad to get to go to school as it meant that we would get out of a lot of work in the fields. When I was a small boy, we went to a country school and there was not too much to do when school first started, as we did not play football and it was too hot for basketball so we would either play with our tops or we would shoot marbles and we kept the teacher busy checking if we were playing for keeps or not, the most of the time we were and sometimes you would have more marbles than you could hold in your pockets and sometimes you would have to ask Dad to buy you some more as you had lost all of the ones you had at the start of school. The only one that you never did put in the ring was your favorite toy or shooting one. I remember one time I had me a great big old marble that we called an agate and I used that same marble for two or three years. I got in a fight one day on the way home and lost my shooting toy and also some skin. I was not worried about the skin as that would grow back, but I never did find my shooter and I felt like I had lost a good friend, but I lived over it and got me another one that was nearly as good. We lived on the farm when I was going to school and we had to work to earn the money to buy our clothes with and as there was only one way to earn any money back then. That was to pick cotton and believe me that was hard work as in those days you would get you a long ducking sack and put the strap over your shoulder and drag the sack behind you with all the cotton that you had picked and I do mean picked, for you could not have any burs or trash in the cotton that you had picked, for in those days they did not have the machinery to get it out of the cotton. If you got too much of the leaves and burs in with the cotton, it would ruin the sample and the farmer could not get as much for the bale, so they were very careful not to get too much trash in with what you had picked. I was always glad to see school start and I was also very glad to see it be out in the spring, as that meant some good times playing baseball and getting to ride your pony with your friends and also to play at cowboy and Indians.

DWI Problems Being Worked On

Last year 100 persons were killed in a nine-county area, according to L.L. Jester, Jr., District Engineer for the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

"Alcohol and speeding continue to be our greatest problems," said Jester. "Here in the Atlanta District, which includes the counties of Bowie, Camp, Cass, Harrison, Marion, Morris, Panola, Titus, and Upshur, we had 6,288 traffic accidents."

The number of accidents and fatalities in this area is cited as the reason the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation (DHT) will be working more closely with local traffic officials, police departments, and the schools.

To help combat the DWI problem, DHT has provided funding for increased enforcement programs, intoxilyzer instruments which measure alcoholic level content of drivers, rehabilitation programs, and workshops for prosecutors, judges, and probation officers.

We also firmly believe in education as a way to relieve future problems," Jester said. The Department recently previewed a new alcohol education kit, called "No, Power," which will be delivered to all school districts within our area of responsibility, free of charge. "No, Power" is designated to help young students resist the peer pressure to drink and to educate them on the dangers of the drinking-driving combination.

The department will also be supporting programs to increase the use of safety belts and child safety seats. Workshops and loan programs will be generated throughout the state, according to Jester, with special emphasis on making child safety seats accessible to those who might have difficulty in purchasing them for themselves.

"We have the tools to reduce our traffic problem and save lives. If people would obey the speed laws, wear safety belts and eliminate drunk driving, our fatalities would drop by at least 80 percent," said

Jester. "We build our highways with every safety precaution. Our motorists need to drive with that same kind of precaution. Our chances of being in a traffic collision are 1 in 4. Those odds are too high to gamble with lives."

Calves Being Vaccinated For Brucellosis

About one million calves will have been vaccinated this fiscal year in Texas for brucellosis control, according to estimates from the Texas Animal Health Commission.

"Our fiscal year ends August 31, and it appears that we will have about a million calves vaccinated.

In fact, we might even surpass the million mark by a few thousand head," Dr. John W. Holcombe, executive director, Texas Animal Health Commission, said.

Estimates thus far indicate 996,650 calves will have been vaccinated by August 31. Whatever the final figure, this will be the highest number of calves ever vaccinated in a year in Texas for brucellosis.

Last year, there were 877,637 calves vaccinated. That represented 33 percent of all eligible calves vaccinated. Final figures for this fiscal year should be available around September 15.

"We have seen a steady increase in the number of calves vaccinated in Texas during the past few years.

In 1980, for example, there were 557,788 calves vaccinated. Our estimate for this fiscal year will be approximately double that of just three years ago," Dr. Holcombe said.

"We are encouraged to see this response in vaccination from producers statewide. Vaccination is a key element of the Texas brucellosis program. We hope and expect this trend will continue as more producers learn about the value of vaccination," Dr.

Holcombe said.

He listed these advantages: a vaccinated animal can move more freely; vaccinated cattle are worth more; vaccination provides protection against brucellosis.

Regulations of the Texas brucellosis program are written to provide for freer movement of a vaccinated animal versus a non-vaccinate.

Recommended ages for vaccination are 4 to 12 months of age for all breeds.

BUDDY'S WORKSHOP Keep Aluminum Doors and Windows Looking Their Best

My aluminum doors are beginning to lose their shine and turn white. What can I do to prevent them from showing their age? I don't want to paint them.

New aluminum doors and windows will keep their shine if coated with paste wax or an aluminum preservative, which may be purchased in a spray can. Older doors and windows that have some evident signs of corrosion should be cleaned with fine steel wool. This restores the shine and the application of wax or spray preservative will keep it that way for a longer period of time.

Recently, a friend came by as I was finishing a painting job and saw that I was cleaning my paint brushes with kerosene, the only thing I had on hand for the job. He said the kerosene would damage the bristles of the brush and probably cause painting streaks the next time I use the brushes. Is he right?

Most professional painters consider kerosene an acceptable brush cleaner. They should know. If you have doubts, clean the brushes again in paint thinner before using them.

Other than price, what are the basic differences between plastic and ceramic tile?

Ceramic tile is the more permanent installation. Plastic tile, particularly when used in bathrooms or areas subject to moisture conditions, expands and contracts, becomes less adhesive, and tiles begin to drop off.

Careful Fishing Key To Catches

"How many of us have thrown fish back to grow up because they were too small?" Everyone who owns or has access to a favorite fishing hole wants to catch fish. They want the larger fish for trophy or a high number for the skillet. Improper harvest of fish ruins future fishing in more Texas ponds and small lakes than any other cause, according to Ed Schwille, biologist with the Soil Conservation Service.

Pond owners and other anglers frequently over harvest the black bass population in the first two seasons of fishing. This allows the perch or bream and many times bullhead catfish to over populate the pond and cause poor survival of young bass. In other cases, when bass harvest is too low, bass become overcrowded and sunfish survival rate or bass forage is poor.

Results of improper harvest is overcrowding and poor fishing. Sound familiar. Schwille says that realignment of thinking on pond harvest is needed if the pond owners are interested in catching bass over 15 inches. The 8-12 inch bass must be controlled. Annually about 25 8-12 inch bass should be harvested per acre. The removal of these small bass reduces competition and allows some fish to grow over 12 inches.

Proper harvest is just one tool used in pond management. According to Schwille, other management tools to consider are proper pond construction, water quality, fertilization, analysis of fish population, pond renovation and proper stocking.

Talco-Bogata Recaps Progress

During recent months, school personnel have been busy doing the usual repairs and maintenance while school was out. In addition to work that was done by school personnel, a few major improvements and renovations have been made with some still not quite completed.

On the Bogata Campus, new windows are being installed in the Junior High building and the gymnasium. These windows are insulated and tinted with bronze aluminum frames. Also, new door units will be installed to help the appearance of this building. All the old space heaters in the various buildings on this campus are being replaced with suspended gas heaters. These two improvements will not only improve the heating and cooling, but will also add to the looks.

The Talco Elementary School has received a general face lifting during the summer months. The cafeteria has received extensive work with some old equipment being replaced, paint work and other general improvements. The building has had ceiling tiles replaced and the ceiling in the science room has been lowered and will have new lighting. The playground area has been renovated with fill dirt hauled in, leveled, and has been reseeded and fertilized. Overall, the Talco Campus was in good condition and looked good with the opening of the new school year.

Rivercrest, being the newest facility, does not require any extensive repairs - just the routine maintenance, floor work, and some minor painting. Probably the most extensive work on this campus has been the renovation of the football field which has been needed for some time. Top soil was hauled in and leveled and the field was reseeded and fertilized. An automatic, underground sprinkler system was also installed. All of this work will make this one of the best and more attractive playing fields in the area. Also, the bleachers and fences were painted along with some other work.

Overall, grounds and facilities on the three campuses showed improvements from the previous school year.

Only two new additions were made to the faculty this year. Bobby Cole is the new Industrial Arts teacher at Rivercrest and Ricky Logan is the new Junior High coach and teacher at Talco. Superintendent Talmadge Morgan said that he considered it a plus for the school district in having such a small turnover. The recently approved school budget included a $200 increase in the amount paid professional (degree) employees and teachers above the State Salary Schedule which raises the amount paid above to $1400 per year. He further stated that teachers did not get the sizeable increase in salary that was anticipated from the 68th legislature and the amount paid above from local funds is an effort to help by the school Board and district. However, he said that is his opinion it was a sad situation when a beginning teacher makes only $11,110 a year on the State Salary Schedule and that if this teacher happens to be the head of the household, married with two children and no other income, the school age children would qualify for free lunches in our school district.

Travel In Britain, Everything's So Old

by Nanalee Nichols
What is the main thing we discovered rambling around the British countryside? Why, what babies we are here in the U.S., that's what!

With only around two hundred years of history to draw on, three at the most, it was quite astounding to us to find people who had literally four thousand years!

Stonehenge, a mysterious monument of huge stones, is around that old, was created by people with a precise knowledge of the sun's movements, and is otherwise much an enigma.

Roman ruins can be viewed, one in astonishingly good condition.

Buildings, houses and castles are as commonplace as can be, and yet they date from the 1000's on up to more modern structures built in only the 1700 or 1800's!

We stayed in a palace built in 1700, an inn built in the 1600's.

We viewed cathedrals that took 250 years to complete! The entire attitude towards age (in structures at least) is different. They spend a great deal more time restoring old buildings to live in than they do building new ones. And the new ones frequently mimic their older counterparts.

One very special thing is their churches, abbeys and cathedrals. Every town the size of Paris (Texas of course) has one, maybe several, each astonishingly beautiful, each a historic site in its own standing.

There are literally hundreds of them, designed by the most famous architects of the times, built with loving care.

Inside they display breathtaking stained glass, beautiful carvings, gorgeous gold or gilt trappings.

Nowhere did we find one in a run-down or decrepit condition.

Castles are often the same. In Wales there are over 100 castles still to tour. Many more have descended into ruins. Now remember, Wales is about the size of the area we call East Texas, if you don't get for out of the piney woods!

Of course, they built to last, and have a big advantage over the United States...stone was their major source of building supply.

Even barns, outhouses and sheds are built of solid stones!

Miles and Miles of stone walls separate the rolling sheep fields of Scotland and upper England.

Stone they had in abundance, and even today new homes are likely to be constructed of stone with a slate roof.

Even in London, where they have skyscrapers and modern architecture in abundance, we never saw a composition shingle roof. Their high rise apartments featured the durable slate stone roof.

All farm houses have

HEREFORD cathedral, which dominates Hereford, England, the original home of the hereford cow, is only one longest day of the year. Built by people with a knowledge of astronomy, its true purpose is still a mystery to scientists. (Staff Photo)

Cheerleaders Take Honors

The 1983-84 Rivercrest High School Cheerleaders recently attended a cheerleading camp on the campus of East Texas State University. Approximately 300 girls attended the camp which is sponsored annually by the Universal Cheerleader's Association. Staff members included outstanding college cheerleaders from all parts of the United States. During their week-long stay, the cheerleaders were taught new cheers, chants, pyramids, partner stunts, dances, and basic cheerleading techniques.

Members of the Varsity squad in attendance were Leilani Barnett (Head Cheerleader), Donna Jo Davis (Alt. Head), Kim Reeder, Jerry Smith, Julie White, and Jena Mangrum.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders present included Lucinda Craig, Shawna Craven, Amy Stansell, and Tammy Steward.

The squads were evaluated daily and were awarded ribbons according to their performance. RHS Varsity won four blue ribbons for superior performances and one red ribbon for an excellent rating.

J.V. Cheerleaders were evaluated separately and received two superior blue ribbons, two red ribbons for excellent performances, and one white ribbon for an outstanding rating.

Spirit sticks were awarded daily on the basis of cooperation, enthusiasm, and spirit. The Varsity squad won a spirit stick Tuesday night. Wednesday through Friday nights the Varsity and JV combined their enthusiasm to win 3 consecutive spirit sticks.

The girls proudly brought the award home to be placed in the trophy case at Rivercrest.

RHS was represented in the Varsity division of the final competition between the top 10 squads attending camp on Friday morning. The Varsity girls were given a gold superior ribbon for being among the squads selected for this honor.

ETSU honored campers with special activities throughout the week.

The squads send special thanks to everyone who visited during the week.

The Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders look forward to a year of spirit and enthusiasm under the guidance of their sponsors Miss Brenda Gunter and Mrs. Patsy Groves.
