Worth

By Nanalee Nichols
Gee, sometimes it's nice to be the "veteran". For me, even after five years in the newspaper business, that doesn't happen too often.

At last Friday night's football clash between Prairiland and Rivercrest I found myself in the position of being just that...the veteran sports photographer.

Now, that doesn't mean I know much about sports photography...I don't.

It isn't really my strong point...but compared to the other camera-laden folks wandering around on the edge of the field I was an expert!

Diana, from Bogata, was learning to take football pictures for the first time for the Bogata News and Talco Times.

The man from the Paris News stopped to talk to me...it was his very first attempt at taking pictures.

The youngsters from the annual staffs were out there for the very first time too!

It was really nice not to feel inferior for once!

There I was...with my load lightened from previous years of experience (a camera bag that starts out weighing 10 pounds weighs 50 before the night is over) I know when to move up and down the field at the end of quarters...I knew to watch out for the "chain gang" as it zipped by.

I was able to look through the telephoto lens without backing up...that makes football players all look like mean Joe Green, and they seem to be within two feet of you.

Oh, it was amazing the skills and knowledge I possessed...at least comparatively!

It felt real good...for once I was the seasoned professional instead of the novice!

Of course, as to the quality of the pictures...well...much as I hate to admit it, I don't think there was a bit of difference!

Rivercrest Downs Prairiland In Opener

By Thomas Nichols
You can put the cat in the bag, but if you don't keep that bag tightly shut it will get loose! That's exactly what seemed to happen to the Prairiland Patriots last Friday night when they appeared to have a solid season opener "in the bag" until the last quarter of the game, when the tough Rivercrest Rebels charged back to come from a 12-0 situation and downed the Red Pride 24-12.

The Patriots, led by the running of Mike Connot, Dennis Rhodes and Craig Gibson had a problem with their passing game until the second quarter, when they passed on third down with 23 yards for a first down. Most of the first quarter seemed to be a see-saw situation with neither team going much past the center field for long.

The Red Pride QB Todd Davis threw a screen pass to first year player Joe Smith. Smith alertly lateraled the ball to Craig Gibson who then charged all the way down for the TD.

Barry Johnston's extra point attempt failed, however.

At half time it was 6-0.

At the first of the third quarter the Rebs fumbled the ball on the Prairiland 28 and shortly thereafter a roughing the kicker call and two interference calls on Rivercrest gave the Pats a 1st and goal on the Rivercrest nine yard line.

Two plays later Craig Gibson squirted around the end to make the score 12-0.

A 51 yard pass reception by Bobby Thomas set up the first Rebel touchdown made by Randy Galloway.

Then again early in the fourth quarter Rivercrest's Kelly Jeffery passed to Scotty Goates for a tie-up score making it 12-12.

The Patriots were unable to get back on the board against a determined Rebel team. With 3 minutes and 43 seconds left in the game Kelly Jeffery, Reb field commander, faced with 4th and 12 passed to Bobby Thomas for a go-ahead TD that put the Rebels in front by a touchdown. The Extra point was no good.

The Rebels finished their breakout with an intercepted pass from Red Pride quarterback Todd Davis which was picked off by Rebel star Randy Galloway.

Galloway gathered in the pass on the Prairiland 39 yard line and streaked down field for the fourth Rebel score.

Again the point-after was no good, and the clock allowed the Patriots an almost hopeless task of scoring at least twice with 2 minutes and 32 seconds left.

Rivercrest's Coach Milford Groves said, "I believe the turning point of the game was just before the half when we kept the Patriots from making that score." The Rebs gambled in the third period on a 4th and inches situation.

Quarterback Kelly Jeffery kept the ball on a sneak play and made the necessary yardage.

Lees, Lyles Take First Week's Football Loot

The response to the very first week of this year's football contest in this paper was overwhelming! More entries were received this first week than ever before.

The first and second place loot went to Lee King of Bogata, who had seven misses and guessed that Rivercrest would win over Prairiland 22-12.

Close behind him was his wife, Ruth King, who tied with her husband in numbers of misses, but had Rivercrest taking Prairiland 24-8.

In third place with 7 misses and guessing Rivercrest over Prairiland at 19-0 was Paul Lyles of Paris.

Each of the three will receive their checks of $12.00, $7.00 and $5.00 respectively.

Close behind and each having only eight bobbles the guessing contest were Tim Skidmore of Deport, Melvin Hines and Kay Byndas of Bogata.

Entry rules in the football contest can be found along with the new set of games for this week's contest on page four of the paper.

Clip the page out, fill in the choices you make and take a chance on winning some loot

Winning teams for the week were: Florida, Green Bay, California, Ore City, Miami, Garland, Boston College, Pittsburg, L.A. Raiders, Honey Grove, Leonard, Texas High, Tulsa, Denver, Mt. Vernon, James Bowie, U. of Arizona, North Carolina, Georgia, Dallas, Dekalb, Paul Pewitt, New Mexico, White Oak, Houston, Pittsburgh, Daingerfield, adn New Orleans. The Tiebreaker was Rivercrest 24 Prairiland 12.

GALLOWAY AGAIN. Randy Galloway zips through a Patriot line for some yardage during the season opener last Friday night. The Rebs beat the Patriots 24-12, making a tremendous comeback from a 12-0 situation in the first half. Charlie Roberts, Number 24, is aged of Galloway,

Texas Poll Shows People Want Tougher Drug Laws

Three out of four Texans believe the state's drug laws are not tough enough, Dick Collins, President of the Texas Foundation for Conservative Studies, said today. The results of a statewide poll commissioned by the Texas Foundation for Conservative Studies (TFCS) in which one of the questions sought to find out what Texans think about the state's drug laws.

"A clear majority of Texans-74.6 per cent-said that our drug laws are not tough enough. Only 6.9 per cent felt that the drug laws were too tough.

"This indicates to me that Texans want stronger anti-drug laws from our state government. The overwhelming consensus in the state is that our laws are not tough enough on drug abusers."

The poll was conducted by Arthur J. Finkelstein and Associates, a nationally recognized polling firm and is accurate within plus or minus 4 per cent at the 95 per cent confidence level.

"The view that Texas' drug laws are too weak increases among Texans, women, hispanics and older Texans.

"By geographical area, Texans along the Border, by the largest majority, feel the state drug laws are not tough enough, with 89.4 per cent of those residents wanting the drug laws strengthened and no one answering that the state's

Footprints From The Past

By John W. Hood

Living on the farm or in the country back in the twenties or early thirties could get boring if you did not have something to occupy your time as there were no TV's and not too many radios. You could not go to the movies very often, as we did not have the good roads or good cars that we now have, so we were just about stuck with what you could do at home so we visited a lot in those days and we could play a lot of dominoes and flinch. How many of you remember Flinch?

We used to have some really spirited games of Flinch, as the whole family could play. In the winter when the weather was bad, the men folk would gather at someone's home and have some really good, hot domino games and they would last all day or until it was time to go home and feed the stock and milk the cows. The stock always had to be taken care of, no matter what else there was to do.

Most of the farmers had at least one team of mules and one cow to be milked and also two or three hogs to feed, so you can see that there was plenty to do on a farm, but there was also plenty of time to do other things like playing dominoes and flinch or a lot of other games that we played to help pass away the long winter nights. The days sure did get to be long and cold especially if there was something you had to do on the outside when it was cold and raining. I remember one time just after I had gotten married and I was helping my father-in-law plant some oats. We were in what we called the grey land part of the farm. It had been snowing and the ground was frozen and you could hardly keep your plow in the ground it was so hard, sometimes it would jump out of the ground and you would have to back up the team and plow to where it had jumped out of the ground, as it would not take the frozen ground.

I kept telling Mr. Edwards that we were wasting our time as the seed could not come up, but he said we had plenty of seed and as we had nothing else to do, we might just as well be doing the spring planting. I thought some spring planting and it snowing so hard that you could hardly see. Well, I could hardly wait until the spring of the year so I could say I told you so and to my surprise that was the best stand of grain that we got and also made the most, so I never did get to say I told you that the crop would never be any good. Some days all we got to do was get up, build a fire, feed the stock, milk, eat breakfast and play dominoes all day. There were three of us and we would play heads up with the one who was sitting out getting the wood for the fireplace and the wood for the cook stove. We would eat two meals a day and play dominoes until time to do the night chores, then we would eat our evening meal and then the whole family would either go to visit someone or they would come and visit you and then you would play flinch until bedtime. Sometimes there would be three or four families at one house and then you would sit up two or three tables with some playing flinch and some playing dominoes. We did have fun and we got to know our neighbors and also had time to talk and be a family with our brothers and sisters. They were good old times and when you think back over them, they seem like they were better than they were.

FROZEN FISH
Whatever the season, fish can make a fantastic dinner. The frozen product offers the convenience of seafood that is already cleaned, cut, boned and 100 percent edible. It is the pick of the catch available year-round in the supermarket freezer. A fish dinner can take less than 30 minutes by teaming it with other items from the freezer. Prepared seafood items—such as shrimp chow mein, had-dock almondine, fish sticks or breaded fish portions—require no advance preparation and need only be heated before serving. Vegetables, potatoes, rolls and dessert round off the menu. Fish makes a nutritious main course any time of year. It is a prime source of protein and an excellent source of vitamins and minerals such as iodine, magnesium, calcium, iron and potassium. Many species are also low in calories.

Fiberglass tubs and showers eliminates the task of cleaning grout between tiles, and, with proper care, it maintains its finish for years. Use liquid cleaners for routine cleaning. Stubborn stains can be removed by using a powdered detergent in a damp sponge. Two or three times a year, wax your fiberglass tub the same as you would your boat or car.

Use Energy Wisely... Insulate Your Water Heating System

One of the simplest ways of using energy wisely is to install an insulation blanket around your water heater. Also insulate hot water pipes, particularly if they are in the attic or basement. Check your water heater thermostat to be sure it is operating properly and reduce the setting to 140° (110° if you do not use an automatic dishwasher). Also check the heating elements and drain the water heater yearly. For more energy-saving tips ask for our free booklet, "A Guide To Better Home Energy Management."

Savings Bond Sales Up

Savings Bonds Sales UP in Texas..... During the first half of 1983, sales of U.S. Savings Bonds in Texas up.....

During the first half of 1983, sales of U.S. Savings Bonds in Texas amounted to $137,573,100, an increase of 38.2 per cent over the same period a year ago, John W. Dixon, Chairman of the Board & CEO of E-Systems, Inc. in Dallas and Volunteer State Chairman for Texas, announced today. These sales represent 61.2 per cent of the state's 1983 assigned dollar goal of $224,700,000.

Sales of Series EE Bonds were $8,876.00 during June, 1983, for a total of $46,738.00 for the first six months of 1983 in Titus County, W. L. Means Volunteer County Chairman, said. These sales represent 52 per cent of the County's 1983 assigned dollar goal.

Nationally, June 1983 sales of Seies EE Savings Bonds amounted to $332 million, up 33 per cent over June 1982, making a January-June 1983 total of $2.11 billion, an increase of 37 per cent. Redemptions of Bonds for the first six months of 1983 were $3.3 billion, a decrease of 31 percent from 1982.

According to County Chairman Means the new competitive interest rate that EE Bonds now pay is the primary reason for sales being up and redemptions down. The new market-based rate for Bonds held five years or more was effective November 1, 1982. The rate is adjusted each six months, i.e. May 1 and November 1, and is 85 per cent of the rate paid on 5-year Treasury marketable securities. The rate on EE Bonds for the first six months ending April 30, 1983 was 11.09 percent. For the second six-months period ending October 31, 1983, the rate is 8.64 percent for a first year average rate of 9.87 percent.

BANK CENTS

By Neil Rozell

Banking systems are clogged with paper.

The statistics on just the checks written are mind-boggling!

In 1939 there were some 27 million checking accounts in America, and 3.5 billion checks were written. Less than 25 years later there were 58 million accounts and 14.5 billion checks written for a total of $4.6 trillion!

In the next 10 years these figures nearly doubled to 97 million accounts, 23 billion checks totaling $10.6 trillion!

It is this staggering paper flow that has led many to examine the concept of a "checkless, cashless society." Methods for transferring funds electronically are being explored at all levels of the banking system.

The technology to establish an electronic funds transfer system is currently available. Most experts agree, however, that we will be well into the next century before a complete checkless, cashless society could become a reality.

We want you to know more about our business!!!
