

Several Run-Offs Set For Saturday Elections

In Democratic party primary runoffs on Saturday, June 2, voters from Fulbright, Rosalie, John-town, East Cuthand and Bogata will vote at Bogata City Hall.

There are no Red River

County offices still undecided.

Titus County will have several run-offs at a local level on the ballot.

Ronnie Logan will be in a runoff with J.W. Terrell, Jr. for the Precinct 3 Commissioner's race, and Bobby Joe Spearman will face off against Dick Dixon for the Precinct 3 Constable's position.

June Roach will be in a runoff against Jo Mars for the position of county tax assessor-collector for Titus County. Mrs. Roach is a former deputy to the retiring Assessor-Collector, and garnered 2,296 votes to Mars 1,236, but there were three other candidates in the race.

On a state level, there will be three runoffs, the most widely publicized that of Lloyd Doggett, a state senator, and U.S. Representative Kent Hance, who are battling for the undisputed nomination for U.S. Senate.

Place 2 and Place 3 on the Court of Criminal Appeals are also undecided. Incumbent W.C. (Bill) Davis is facing Roy E. Greenwood for the Place 2 spot, while Bill White is opposing Thomas B. (Tom) Thorpe for the Place 3 seat.

Voting in Talco will be at Talco City Hall.

A low voter turnout is expected, although citizens are urged to vote.

Weekly Ag Update

By Paul D. Payne
May 31 is the date established to spray pecan trees for control of the Casebearer. This date may vary some with variety of pecan and location within the county.
Insecticides that are suggested are Sevin, Malathion or Guthion. We would suggest that individuals add some NZN or cinz sulfate to the spray mixture. Either chemicals is compatible with these insecticides.
Many pecan trees have those knots or galls on the new growth again this spring. These are correctly called Phylloxera. Individuals finding a heavy infestation to those conspicuous swellings should not become alarmed. Neither should they go out and spray their trees, because the damage has already occurred.
Many of these galls are splitting open presently and jillions of the tiny insects can be found on the leaves. They will do no further damage unless there is new growth. If there is, the insect will secrete a substance that causes another gall to form and deposit eggs inside.
The 1984 wheat crop is beginning to turn which means that harvest is about two to three weeks away. All signs point to a possible record crop as about the only two things standing in the way is a hail or extreme wet harvest conditions.
Leaf rust is showing up more on area wheat, but it is too late for this year's crop. Rust was found on several of the varieties in the demonstration of last week.
Interested individuals are invited to stop by and inspect the varieties as they are individually identified. It is located midway between Evergreen Cemetery and Paris High School.

PUBLIC NOTICE

A public hearing will be held June 5, 1984 at 7:30 p.m., at Bogata Rodeo Grounds to discuss a proposed project under the Texas Department of Community Affairs, Community Development Grant Program.

A public hearing has previously been held by the City, and at that meeting it was decided to consider an application for Street Paving in the South Main, Bryson Street area of the City.

This proposed project will be further discussed at the hearing scheduled above, and all interested citizens are encouraged to attend.

REWARD

We will give $100.00 Reward if anyone will give us the right information as to who shot the picture off on our sons monument in Talco Cemetery. We are literally disgusted by such a thing. Why children are allowed in the Cemetery with an air rifle is hard to understand. Parents, wake up, know where your children are before its too late. Boys were seen playing in the cemetery. All that is left of our son's (J.W.) picture is his smile. Would appreciate any cooperation.

Nichols Worth

By: Nanalee Nichols

By Nanalee Nichols Moving...for those that do it often it may not be such a chore. For those, like myself, who haven't done it for fourteen years, it is something of a shock. To begin with, we had only been married for a very, very short time at our last household move...that meant that just about everything we owned would fit in the bed of one pickup truck. Oh, that it were so now!

During the past few weeks we have been wrapping and packing such things as several sets of china (I seem to have a passion for dishes, one I'm beginning to regret) fragile pieces of glassware carefully brought back from trips, and pictures and paintings by the box full.

It seems incredible that closets I thought were cleaned out pretty well only a few months ago could be so full of things I never even knew I owned!

For instance, what possibly prompted me to keep a whole sack full of felt scraps, the largest of which wasn't the size of a quarter? Why did my husband carefully box and store a whole set of aviation maps which were useless and out of date back when they were stored, much less now?

Why did I keep lipsticks from...and this is not a joke...1967?

In one drawer there was the instruction booklet, warranty and installation brochure on every appliance, phone, fan or any other thing we ever owned.

Most of them went the way of worn out household goods many moons ago, and their yellowed booklets are the only reminder that they ever existed.

In the veterinary department, due to my fondness for pets, there was a startling array of little white envelopes, most with one or two pills, tablets or capsules inside. They might be useful if they had ever been labeled as to what they were used for.

The list could go on and on and on...but it won't.

The main thing is that at the present time the trash sacks are outnumbering the "keep" sacks about two to one!

Mechanical Shearer

A robot that will safely shear a sheep in three minutes—about as fast as humans can—is being developed by Australia's wool industry. Controlled by a computer, the mechanical shearer is so sensitive that it doesn't nick skin even when the sheep breathes. Someday it may replace manual shearing—and even beat its time, National Geographic reports.

Ten-Digit Dialing
To Take Effect June 3

Beginning June 3, all 214 area code residents and business customers must dial 214 before making any long distance calls within the 214 area code.

Rapid growth throughout North Texas is the reason for the change in dialing procedures. Forecasts for customer growth indicate that phone numbers in this area will be exhausted by the end of 1984. As growth occurs, the availability of combinations decreases. By implementing ten-digit dialing, the telephone company can create new combinations using numbers previously reserved for area codes.

These dialing changes do not affect local or long distance rates. Calls that are local or long-distance now will remain local or long distance after the conversion.

Junior Rodeo Set At Clarksville

The Red River County AIA, Agricultural Improvement Association, will sponsor a junior rodeo at the Bruce Emery Arena on June 1 and 2 beginning at 8 p.m.

The rodeo is sanctioned by the Four States High School Rodeo Association. Paul Allen, chairman of the rodeo committee, stated that some of the most outstanding rodeo athletes will be present to compete in the rodeo.

Both nights, the concession stand will be available to those in attendance. The ladies in the Dimple Community are coordinating the food with help from other ladies throughout the county.

The purpose of the AIA having a rodeo is twofold: 1) provide junior rodeo participants a local contest and 2) raise money to make improvements at the fairgrounds such as restrooms in the ladies building.

Tickets for the event can be obtained from the directors of the AIA, County Extension Office or Allen Lumber Company. Prices for the tickets are $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for youth and should the rodeo rained out, money will be refunded.
