NICHOLS' WORTH

By: Nanalee Nichols

Those of us here at these weekly papers just don't get any respect! Since the papers only come out once a week, some events are several days old before we can print 'em...and the daily papers have already jumped on 'em like the proverbial duck on a june bug!

I mean, we just don't GET any breaks...I swear, it seems like most things happen two hours after we get printed for the week!

Last night I watched a movie about a big city paper, with editors enthroned in leather chairs in private offices, buffered by secretaries. The reporters had big expense accounts and an uncanny nose for big stories...and of course, so many big stories they practically had to flip a coin to see who got which one!

Around here, of course, we answer the phones for ourselves...and take care of classified ads, regular ads, circulation and news all in one number.

A private office? Well, I, for one, just now managed to get a partial room divider to hang a few things on.

And those BIG stories. Where are they? They just don't come around small towns much. We do get a scoop on them painting a water tower or fixing a street.

Of course, every now and then visions of major awards and the opportunity to really get into something BIG comes along.

Of course, we could always create a story...some folks can make mountains out of mole hills really well...but that's never been my style. No, I don't think that the Pulitzer Prize will ever grace these office walls.

But sometimes, when we share the joy of a winning school team...when we record the pleasure in the birth of a new grandchild, or the sorrow of death, well...things seem okay.

Friendships flourish through this paper...we print the things that those big papers won't touch...kids on the honor roll, five generation pictures, birthday parties...you bet, we'll print it.

So what if we do run pictures of kids at camp or the first bale of cotton over at the gin? Who really cares...after all, we're just doing what we do best...caring, covering and taking care of business...our business...the people of THIS area. And you know, that feels pretty good!

Drue Pirtle of Jothtown, Avery City Councilman Bill Bunch, Carl Wilcox of Annona, County Democratic Chairman Tommy Corbell, Commissioner Jackie Barton of Detroit, Clarksville City Manager Jack Holt, Red River County Judge L.D. Williamson and Clarksville Times publisher Don Fisher traveled to Austin Monday, June 9 to meet with Governor Mark White concerning three things of potential benefit to the county: a prison unit, a new lake and economic development.

According to County Judge L.D. Williamson, the governor suggested that the county needed to concentrate on developing the industrial community as a whole and urged the group to keep trying to sell Red River County to industries.

A member of the governor's economic development staff will travel to Red River County to help area leaders develop a package to present to industrial prospects.

Williams stated that Red River County will begin working closely with the governor's economic development department to ensure the northeast Texas county is remembered when these requests are made. Developing a package for the county will also aid in making the bid for a prison unit.

Former Bogata Resident Recalls Theater History

By Mollie Williams
I received an interesting letter this week from Mildred (Stephenson) (Hill) Whitt, former Bogata resident, concerning the history of the old Bogata theater. Mildred was married to Henry Hill, a one time Bogata J.P., in 1931. He died in 1968. She married Jack Whitt in 1971. He died in 1985. Mildred now resides at 132 E. Oak Ave., Paris.

According to Mrs. Whitt's letter, the theater dates back to 1929 when Red Peyton owned the theater as well as the drug store. Paul Hamilton worked at the drug store during the day and sold show tickets at night. Weldon Horten ran the projector. The movies were silent and there was an electric player piano. "We made as much noise as we were allowed to, held hands with our dates, and stole kisses in the darkness of the theater," writes Mildred. There was no popcorn, then, it came later. Some of the names Mildred mentioned as movie goers at that time were Travis Hale, Dude Summers Lassiter, Ruth Craddock Woods, Jimmy Underwood, Carl and Zelma Woods, Francis Woods Franklin, Frances Franklin Summers, Nora Parks Glover and Francis Parks Shoffner.

In the late 40's and early 50's, Johnny Gill bought the show and for several years Lela Buffo Ford was a silent partner. Mildred's son Billy Gene Hill, took a job at the theater running the projector and being janitor. He decided he didn't want to be the janitor, so Mildred took that job. Dot Simpson sold the tickets during this time.

Sometime later, Lela and her brother-in-law, Luther Phelps bought out Johnny Gill's part. Lela's sister, Leona Phelps, took over the ticket sales. By this time Billy Gene had quit his job of running the projector, but Mildred continued the janitorial work. Some who ran the projector were Don Porterfield, James Cody, Truman Stephenson and Luke Phelps.

Lela's sister and her family moved to Mt. Pleasant, so in addition to the janitorial work Mildred also began selling the tickets and popping the popcorn. Mildred recalls, "Some of the kids I remember selling tickets to at this time were Neil and Francis Mayes Rozell, the Mankins twins, Jimmie and Nelda Huddleston Williams, Jerry Chandler, Bill Buckman, Paula Wilson, Donna and Mary Rozell, the George Marshall children, Ruth Vaughan and her children, Madge Francis, James Francis, Martha and Nina Vaughan, Jim Ed Lee, Lonnie and Dorothy McBride, Dereca Jo Choate Buffo, the children of Murl Roach, M.E. Roach, Horace Adams, Thad Screws, Raymond Screws, Hollis Mathena, George Allums and the grandchildren of Roy Gibson."

Mrs. Ford closed the theater in the early 60's. The building has recently been torn down due to the construction of the new post office.

"Life is a jigsaw puzzle with most of the pieces missing."

Notice Affording Opportunity For Public Hearing

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation is planning the reconstruction of Farm to Market Road 1734 in Titus County at Tankersley Creek.

The proposed project will generally follow the existing highway. Length of the project is approximately 0.1 mile. The proposed roadway section will have a crown width of 34 feet with two 11 foot traffic lanes and 6 foot shoulders. Existing right of way is a minimum of 80 feet in width. Additional right of way will be acquired to a maximum of 120 feet in the locations of bridge relocations.

Maps and other drawings showing the location and design, environmental studies, and other information about the project are on file and available for inspection and copying at the office of Supervising Resident Engineer Warren Moreland located at 2210 West Ferguson Road, (U.S. Highway 271) in Mt. Pleasant.

Maps and drawings showing the location and design have also been placed on file with Titus County Judge James Adams in Mt. Pleasant.

Although no relocation of individuals or businesses is proposed, information about the State's Relocation Assistance Program, the benefits and services for displacees and information concerning the relocation assistance office, as well as information about tentative schedules for acquisition of right of way and construction, can be obtained at the Resident Engineer's office in Mt. Pleasant.

Any interested citizen may request a public hearing be held covering the social, economic and environmental effects of the proposed location and design for this farm road project by delivering a written request to Supervising Resident Engineer Warren E. Moreland, P.O. Box 891, Mt. Pleasant, TX 75455 on or before July 17, 1986.

In the event such a request is received, a public hearing will be scheduled and an adequate notice will be publicized about the date and location of the hearing.

Girl Scout Day Camp Successful

Girl Scout Day Camp 1986 got off to a great start Monday afternoon, June 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen White with members from six troops registered for a total of 35 girls, 11 leaders, assistant leaders and helpers.

They were: Daisy Troop No. 4, leader Anaya Phillips, Bonnie Phillips, Amanda Belcher, Mallory Chaloner, Candace Nickerson, Christina Vaughan and Latisha Miles. First Grade Brownie Troop No. 157, leader Mollie Williams, Marla Williams, Amber Spencer, Amanda Alford and Lindy Phillips. Second grade Brownie Troop No. 12, leader Kay Griffin, assistant leaders Terri Easterling, Terri Watkins and Vicki Tabb, Haley Griffin, Mandy Williams, Julie Watkins, Dee Tabb, Brandi Easterling, Latoshia Nickerson, Crystal Bell, Jane Weiselogal and Elizabeth Scott. Junior Girl Scout Troop No. 32, leader Paula Speir, Teri Speir, Jennifer Bagley, Michelle Townes, Konya Nickerson, Ashley Ross, Julie Hammond, Dorie Smith, Misty Taylor, Keitha Gillis and Troop No. 91, Cami Eilers, Cadette Troop No. 70, leader Miriam Stephenson, D'Ann Stephenson, Darla Jean, Kristi Brooks and Shane Webb. Senior Troop No. 22, leader Alice White, Becky White and Melissa Warren. Craft Director Karen Bagley, Camp Nurse Gladys Mauldin and Business Manager Linda Eilers.

The theme chosen for this year's camp was the Sesquicentennial. The girls learned about the Six Flags over Texas, toured the Red River County Courthouse and Jail and visited the first grave in the Bogata Cemetery, and participated in various other activities in order to earn the Sesquicentennial patch.

Each troop had its own campsite, with a tent, picnic table and other necessities. Each day the camp was opened with a flag ceremony in which troops took turns in raising and lowering the U.S. flag and posting the Texas flag and the other flags which have flown over Texas. The girls had an hour each day of swimming with Becky White doing lifeguard duty. A craft class was provided each day by Karen Bagley and Miriam Stephenson. The girls made various craft articles, such as paper plate pictures, egg carton jewelry, nail punch hang-ups and others.

Miriam Stephenson's troop Cadettes assisted the other troops. Each of the girls planned and initiated activities for their appointed troop and in doing so, earned credit hours toward their gold awards.

One troop each day cooked their meal on an open fire, with each girl helping with building the fire, preparing the food, cooking the food and cleaning up the cooking area.

Troop 32, assisted by leader Paula Speir, took a tour of the First National Bank and the House of Flowers, learning about business and earned the business-wise badge.

Each troop participated in the community service project which was to wash the windows of the empty buildings downtown.

An open house was held Thursday evening, June 12 at 6 p.m. Parents, friends and relatives came and visited the campsites and saw the crafts the girls had made during the week. A special ceremony was presented for the Daisy Girl Scouts to bridge to Brownies and the Cadettes to bridge to senior Girl Scouts. Appreciation gifts were presented to those who had helped with the day camp by Alice White, the Bogata Girl Scout Neighborhood Chairman and Day Camp Director. The entire congregation joined in the flag ceremony with taps played by Robert White.

The last day of Day Camp was Friday, June 13. The troops took down the tents and camping gear and packed it away until next year when day camp time comes around again.

In Loving Memory Of Dessie Black Corbell

Grandmother, "A million times we've missed you, a million more we've cried." If loving you could've saved you, you never would have died. In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you too. In our hearts there is an empty place none can fill but you. You were the one that brought love, happiness and understanding into our lives and now that you are gone there is so much missing. There will never be another grandmother like you. The pain doesn't go away, it just grows. It broke our hearts to lose you but you never went alone. For part of us went with you when God took you home. His garden must be pretty, he only wants the best. He puts his loving arms around you and said, "My child came home to rest."
