

1986 Leaves Memories For The "Attic"

By Nanalee Nichols

It's very hard to close out a year without some feelings of sadness, relief and regret.

The year 1986 is over now, through. No one has the chance to go back and redo what has been done...it is all relegated to the attic of memory.

And, like an attic, whatever has been shoved into that crowded space last has less dust on it and sparkles more. So it is with 1986 memories...they haven't had long to settle into the past.

As a natural part of life, some memories are painful and disturbing. The losses suffered during a year are permanent, leaving behind empty spaces unfilled by those gone.

Other losses may be in friendships, associates, or a variety of things.

It can be depressing to realize just how few things have been achieved over a year. "Keeping above water" sometimes seems like a losing battle, especially during frightening economic times such as these.

For those who are on fixed incomes, those having lost jobs, those afraid of losing them, the upcoming new year can hold hopes for better things...or it may hold fear that the "water level" will make gains.

Unmet goals, unrealized dreams, unachieved projects can send the thoughtful person into depression at this season of the year.

But for every unmet goal, there is usually at least one that was realized. For every loss there is usually a gain. If "staying above water" has been difficult...the effort has usually sharpened "swimming skills"!

Some years are bad years for some people. Others can truly say they have had a good year.

But no year is one or the other entirely. Those with bad years can find good things that happened...even in the worst of times. And those whose year has been successful and pleasant can always find a few unpleasant incidents to look back on.

Perhaps the main thing to consider is how to make plans for the future, how to strive to make things better, how to make 1987 better than 1986.

It isn't always up to the individual. But when it is, every effort must be made to meet the challenge.

Looking back at those attic memories can be helpful and even pleasant.

But for 1987, don't forget to look forward. Set those goals, raise hopes, promise to do better. Hope is one of the things that sets humans apart from any other species.

NICHOLS' WORTH

By: Nanalee Nichols

The common baby rattle is probably one of the first and most common toys an infant becomes familiar with. Very little thought is needed to see why the bright colors and noisy sounds produced are the reason for the rattle's existence. However, that is not entirely the case. The rattle has its origins in something much deeper...the well-being, indeed perhaps the survival of the infant itself!

In the 17th and early 18th centuries, every well taken care of child had a "coral and bells". This was an ornate concoction of bells, whistle, or rattle, with a smooth, curved stick of coral on the end. The coral was for teething on. (Remember, soft substances such as rubber or plastic were not available.)

The elaborate toys were family heirlooms, handed down for generations. Colonial records reveal that silversmiths were called upon to replace the coral, repair bells, straighten out dents. The toys were handcrafted by famous silversmiths (Paul Revere probably did a few), and were of real silver.

The forerunner of today's humble plastic rattle, right? Right. The whistle and bells were for entertainment, the coral for babies to chew on while cutting those pesky, painful teeth. Obviously.

But what were the coral and bells a forerunner of? Why choose coral, why bells and whistle?

Because of the superstitions of even earlier times!

In earlier centuries, belief in witchcraft, sorcery and evil spirits was as common as today's faith in computers. Careful parents made sure their children were protected in as many ways as possible.

Coral has been associated with protection against illness and demons for thousands of years. Ancient peoples used it powdered in medicines for treatment of illness, and carved it for amulets against physical and spiritual problems.

Evil spirits were thought to dislike the shrill, piercing tones of a whistle, almost every ancient culture believed so.

Similarly, the rattle of beads or small stones, or the jingle of bells was thought to discourage evil from hanging around.

Therefore, the combination of coral, bells and whistles was a simple form of protection for baby, while providing entertainment and teething relief too!

In a time when infants were as likely to die before the age of five as to survive, frantic parents would avail themselves of whatever means they could to increase survival chances.

As simple and innocent as they are today, there was once a time when they had a much more important role in an infant's upbringing!

'Twas The Day After Christmas

By Mollie Williams

'Twas the day after Christmas, and all through the town, Merchants were busy pricing mark downs. Christmas had come, and gone once again, leaving behind presents from the Jolly Ole Man.

The Pyrons, Bud and Susan, that is, and all their employees, were in a great fizz taking down Santas and tinsel and lights, hoping and praying the books balance out right.

Bill and Morris were back on the job, dispensing out pills for all the sick mob. Lorene and Janie, and Dixie, too, were busy at Bogie's preparing good food.

Linda, Lynn, Gayle, Belva and Bell had resumed their curling, with rollers and gel, and around the corner at Inez's Shop, appointments, appointments, no time to stop.

Gary and Dean, down at their stores, were smiling at customers as they walked through the doors.

Over at the Kwik Korner, the chicken was on, folks buying it up, 'cause the turkey was gone.

Old Smiley was open for a haircut or two, he might get a shave, or maybe shampoo.

At Mary's Boutique, the bills were all due, and Mary was hoping returns would be few.

Jettie and Jim had opened their doors, and J&J Trading was busy once more.

The girls at the clinic of Dr. Jack Troutt, were off until Monday and were happy, no doubt.

But up at Brooks, Doctor and crew had not been so lucky, they were treating the flu.

The mail was all waiting and heaped in a stack, ready to be posted by Postmaster Jack.

The bank girls were adding, the accounts were a wreck, there'd been lots of spending and lots of hot checks.

The Video Shops were all filled up full, parents checking out movies for kids out of school.

Red River Haven's, moms and dads were happy from visits that they have had, caravages and stations were servicing cars, holiday travelers pulling in from afar.

While down at the Tip Top, inside and out, teenagers were gathered and milling about.

With notebook in hand, and camera too, Molly was busy collecting the news.

Thomas was out selling his ads, making the boss happy and glad.

Christmas in Bogata was happy and dear, may God bless and keep us all, throughout the New Year.

Rivercrest hosted the first annual Holiday Classic Tournament last weekend. Both Rivercrest teams walked away with the first place trophies Saturday evening.

Saturday's action found the Rebelettes and Rebels playing for first place. The Rebelettes played the Redwater Dragons in a close contest that Rivercrest broke open late in the game. The Rebelettes led only 28-25 at the half, when Rachel Smith connected on six long-range bombs during the second half to pull the Rebelettes further ahead and give Rivercrest a 55-45 victory and the first place trophy. Cynthia Thompson led the Rebelette attack with 18 points, followed by Rachel Smith with 13, Kim Clark with 10, Barbi Rackliff with eight, Lori Alford with three, Deanna Varner with two and Rhonda Collins with one point.

The Rebels squared off against the Saltillo Lions in the men's finals. The Rebels were tagged for 25 penalties that allowed Saltillo to keep the game close. Rivercrest led 27-22 at the half and had to fight down to the wire to take a 65-64 win for first place. Chris Anderson led scorers with 24 points, followed by Brad Anderson with 13, Craig Savage with 11, Bradley Woods with eight, Russell Rozell with six and Danny Brown with three points.

Rivercrest placed four players on the All Tournament team. The Rebelettes chosen were Cynthia Thompson and Barbi Rackliff. Brad Anderson and Chris Anderson were chosen from the Rebel team.

Firemen Host Dinner

The Talco Volunteer Fire Department hosted a Christmas dinner for the firemen and their families on Tuesday, December 23 at the Fire Hall. Members of the Rescue Squad and the members of the Explorers and their families were also invited.

Frog legs, hamburgers and brisket were supplied by the firemen and other food was brought by the families. Thirty-seven people attended.

After the dinner, gifts were given to Fire Chief Randy Carroll and Assistant Chief Wayne Binion by the other members of the Fire Department. Bingo was played with some nice prizes given away including an axe, a flashlight, screwdriver sets and other gifts.

Dear Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone in our town who helped to make Christmas so special for my family. Those who take the time to decorate their homes, and our town, those who prepare for and present programs, those who put so much effort into a beautiful Christmas Parade and many other things are to be commended.

I'm sure I have not mentioned everything but the appreciation is expressed nonetheless. It is a blessing to live in a small town like Bogata. Sincerely, Linda Gray

Dear Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to two organizations in Bogata. The Lions Club and the V.F.W. and their Ladies Auxiliary made a happier Christmas for many people in our area through their generous contributions of food and toys. These two organizations help people in need throughout the year.

The Lions Club has taken charge of maintaining and renting the Community Center and the building of a City Park. They sponsor the Christmas Parade and Frontier Day. They also buy eye glasses for children whose parents cannot afford to buy them.

The V.F.W. and Ladies Auxiliary sponsor and run Bingo at the Red River Haven Nursing Home. They also donate several thousand dollars to organizations such as the Boy Scout Council, the local Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the Bogata Baseball organization, the Women and Girls' Softball Leagues, the Fire Department, Red River Ambulance Service, Red River County United Way, Cancer Society and medical assistance to those who need help in paying their medical bills.

I would like to thank Bud Pyron, owner of Bogata True Value Hardware and V.S. Variety Store. Bud donated several hundred dollars worth of toys and candy to needy families. This store is truly an asset to Bogata.

I would also like to thank Daphne Pointer, Mildred Eudy, Mable and Travis Hale, Mable Troutt, Jack Crane and Regan Bell who helped gather and distribute the toys and food.

Happy New Year to all, Santa Claus

Thinking about buying a new washer or dryer?

If you are in the market for a new electric washer or dryer to ease your work load, look for these features.

WASHER

- Does the unit have water level controls that let you adjust the amount of water to the size of the wash load?
- Does the unit have various warm and cold water options so you can take advantage of lower cost cool water washing?
- Do the cycle options let you match soil conditions from light (short cycle) to heavy (soak cycle)? Can wash water be reused on additional loads (suds saver)?

DRYER

- Does the unit have a time setting to allow for a specific number of minutes?
- Does the dryer have thermostatic sensing to detect temperature increases in the air exhausting from the dryer?
- Does the dryer have moisture sensing, which responds to the moisture level in clothes?

Quick and easy microwave cooking, it can be "in the bag." You can cook fresh foods in pouches in your microwave with the help of a new device. Use on counter, wall or under cabinet, it seals eight inch bags and closes most other plastic food wraps. The space saving design of this Daze Micro-Seal™ takes a minimum of counter space. Try this delicious and economical Salisbury Steak with Mushroom Gravy recipe for microwave magic in a pouch:

Salisbury Steaks
1 lb. very lean ground beef 1 pkg. (5/8 - 3/4 oz.) mushroom gravy mix
Form beef into 4 patties. Sprinkle and pat gravy mix on both sides of meat. Slide patties into 8" x 12" pouch. Seal with Micro-Seal. Label pouch with contents and freeze or cook immediately.
To Cook: Place pouch on plate
Puncture pouch with fork
Microwave 5-7 minutes on HIGH

A new sealing system allows you to cook fresh foods in pouches in your microwave oven.
