Girl Scouts Have Supper, Awards Night

A box supper and gold award ceremony was held Monday night, March 9 at Rivercrest. Parents, friends, relatives Girl Scouts and leaders met in the cafeteria for supper. Each family brought a decorated box filled with food. Troop 12 was in charge of the flag ceremony and Troop 91 led the grace.

Following the meal, a Gold Award ceremony was held and several presentations were made in the auditorium. M.C. for the program was Melissa Warren.

Miriam Stephenson, Troop 70 leader, gave the welcome for the Gold Award ceremony. Those receiving the award from Troop 70 were Kristi Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks of Bogata; Shane Webb, daughter of Mrs. Wayne White of Bogata; D'Ann Stephenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Stephenson of Bogata; and Darla Jean, daughter of Mrs. Myra Jean of Johtown. To earn the Gold Award, the girls earned interest patches for Creative Cooking, Roughing It Camping, Skills for Living, and Emergency Preparedness, they worked as volunteer helpers at the Red River County Library as a challenge project, worked as office assistants at Bogata Junior High and did baby sitting. All work had to be documented and evaluated through a resume. The girls each worked one week in Girl Scout Day Camp, one week in Bible School, and teaching Sunday School. They earned a purple volunteer service bar from the World of the Arts for their work at the library. Alice Ann White, Bogata Neighborhood Chairman, tied the sashes on the girls followed by an explanation of the patches earned by Shane Webb. Mrs. Debbie Bergman, Executive Director of the Red River Valley Girl Scout Council pinned each girl with the challenge pin and the explanation of the pin was given by Kristi Brooks. Mrs. Pat Nash, Field Director, pinned each girl with the Career Exploration pin and the explanation of the pin was given by D'Ann Stephenson. Mrs. Kathy Jensen of Red River Valley Girl Scout Council Public Relations pinned each girl with the leadership pin. Mrs. Priscilla Merriman, Field Executive, District III, pinned each girl with the Service Bar. Explanation of those two pins was given by Darla Jean. The mothers of the girls pinned them with the Gold Award pin and each girl then presented their mother with an award. Mrs. Georgia Weddle, president of the board of directors, presented a letter from the President to each girl and an application for a scholarship. Harold Cowley, superintendent of Rivercrest High School presented the girls with an award.

Certificates of appreciation were presented by Miriam Stephenson to Alice Ann, Glen and Robert White, John Denison, Roy Lee Hutson, John Howison, Nina Stewart, Dale Jean, Dana Anderson, Myra Jean and John and Kay Brooks for their help to the girls in earning the Gold Award. A special thanks was given to A.D. Stephenson for his help.

A musical program which included "The Orange Blossom Special" and "Faded Love" was presented by Jerry House and Becky White was presented followed by songs sung by all the Girl Scouts and led by Becky White.

A Top Sales Award was presented by Girl Scout Cookie Chairman Kay Ross to Brandi Easterling, who sold 250 boxes of cookies.

Pat Nash presented a leadership training certificate to Alice Ann White, who took the training in New York in February.

BAND MEMBERS in the Talco-Bogata CISD who entered the solo-ensemble contest at Harmony

High School on March 6 won first division medals. Students participating from Rivercrest are, left to right: Timmy Jones, two 1st divisions; Rosine Leffel, one 1st division; Janie Steward, two 1st divisions.

Leonard Bond, Retired Principal, Coach, Teacher

By Mollie Williams

A familiar face on the streets of Bogata almost every day and also at every ballgame at the Bogata gym is that of retired principal, coach and teacher, Leonard Bond.

Mr. Bond is now 87 years old, yet he still makes his way around town quite well. He remembers with clarity his former days working in the various schools.

Mr. Bond began his teaching career in the Mt. Livingston school district. He taught there five years. He then spent two years teaching at Mauldin, followed by one year at Mosley, back to Mt. Livingston for two more years, then to Cuthand for four years, Maple for seven years, Bogata for one year, Hagansport for five years and Annona for two years. Even after retiring, he taught in Clarksville and Blossom for one year each. In all the schools except Clarksville and Bogata and Blossom, Mr. Bond was coach and principal part of the time.

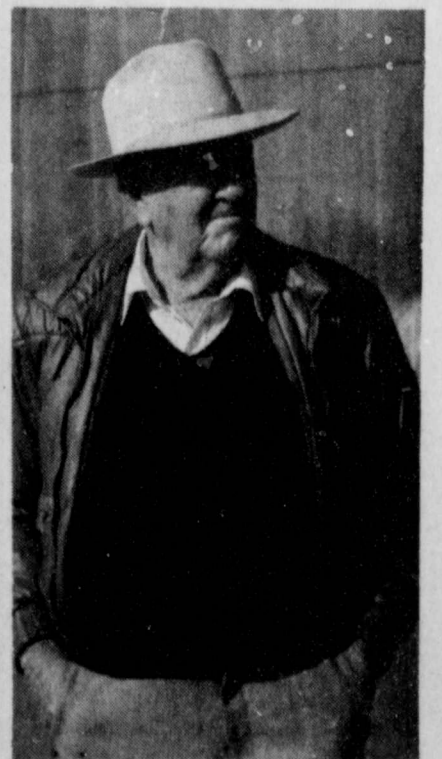

Talking with Mr. Bond, it doesn't take you long to see how much he enjoyed his job as basketball coach. He also coached Little League for 23 years. When asked if he thought the games had changed any, he replied, "Oh, shoot yeah, they've changed a lot. I keep up with it though. I go to all the games, even the Little Dribblers."

Coach Bond boasts of some pretty good teams during his time of coaching. He spoke of the boys team at Hagansport and recalled that Zack

Frazier was his best goal shooter. "He was good," says Bond, "and Bobbie Roach from Bogata was my best goal shooter on the girls' team. All my players were good, but those two were extra good at making the goals."

When asked if he missed working in the schools, he replied, "No, I don't miss it. I really enjoyed it all those years, but I'm glad I'm out. I do what I want to now. I mow a lawn now and then and go to all the basketball and baseball games."

Mr. Bond has lived in Bogata for approximately 32 years and has two children, a son, Albert Bond, Jr., who lives in Grand Prairie and is retired from the Navy and near retirement with the Civil Service Commission in Ft. Worth, and a daughter, Neva Dell Burns, who works at the First National Bank in Bogata.

Campbell, two 1st divisions; Lori Bush, two 1st divisions; and Clifton Joplin, one 1st division (not pictured).

Local Names On Unclaimed Money List

The Texas Treasury has about $80 million in unclaimed money, safe deposit boxes, oil royalties and stocks and bonds that it wants to return to about 100,000 Texans.

"On Sunday, March 8, we will publish this annual list of names," Treasurer Ann Richards said, "and we hope to return a sizable portion of that money to its rightful owners."

Persons who find their name on the list may reclaim their property by calling the State Treasury, toll free at 1-800-321-2274 or by writing to the State Treasury at P.O. Box 12608, Capitol Station, Austin, TX 78711.

She said that last year, the State Treasury published a similar list and about $50 million was reunited with owners.

In Deport, Terry D. McNutt. In Talco, Charline Horton and Willa Jo Mills.

In Bogata, Glenn H. Babb, Nickey R. Eudy and George H. Rape.

In Detroit, Martha W. Briscoe, Mrs. George W. Collier, Carroll R. Denison and Martin Graham.

Under state law, checking and savings accounts, mineral royalties, insurance payments, safe deposit boxes, utility deposits and the like are turned over to the state if accounts are inactive for at least three years.

The state may use the funds for general state services and for education, but the owners or their heirs may file a claim at any time in the future for the money held by the state.

Burrow Pannell Scholarship Open

A $150.00 scholarship to an R.N. student and a $75.00 scholarship to an LVN student currently enrolled in a nursing program will be awarded May 8. The Odessa Burrow Pannell Scholarship is not solely on academic standing or financial need but is based on the judgement of the committee as to which applicants best typify the nursing ideals by which Odessa Burrow Pannell practiced her profession. Application forms are available through Red River General Hospital and must be completed and received by 3 p.m. April 6, 1987. Mail application or bring to: Irene Bryant, R.N., Assistant Administrator for Nursing, Red River General Hospital, P.O. Drawer 1270, Clarksville, TX 75426.

Six Flags To Begin 1987 Season

Six Flags Over Texas will begin its 1987 season Saturday, March 14.

Highlighting the opening day activities will be the premieres of two new musical revues.

Because this year's opening coincides with the Spring Break period for most schools in the region, the Arlington theme park will be open daily through March 22. After that date, Six Flags will be open Saturdays and Sundays only for the remainder of the spring season. Daily operation for the summer months will begin May 23.

A major musical production, "Stars and Stripes Salute" will debut in the Southern Palace Music Hall. The show features a cast of fourteen with lavish sets and costumes by Broadway designer Winn Morton.

Morton's designs will also add sparkle to "Country Express," the new six-performer country music show in the park's Crazy Horse Saloon.

More than 2.5 million visitors are expected before the season ends in early November.

Citizens Warned Of Telephone Scheme

Citizens are urged to be on the alert for a telephone scheme which has been reported used in the area lately.

The scheme usually consists of two people. One asks to use the telephone for a local call or directory assistance while the other keeps the victim occupied. The one using the telephone then makes long distance calls on the phone, charging the calls to the victim.

With nearly 3 million current members, girls and adults from every walk of life, the Girl Scouts have a 75th Anniversary coming up — on March 12, 1987! We extend expressions of appreciation for the fine work accomplished over these years by the members of this fine organization and wish them the best in the years to come.

Bogata Locals

Jettie Minshew, Zelma Mauldin and Chrystine Baker were visitors over the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. K.C. Yale, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Yale, Mrs. Kenneth Pitts of Ft. Worth, Renee Yale of Arlington and Nina Pybus of Grand Prairie. They attended the F.G. and Roxie Ann Mauldin Latimer family reunion on Sunday in Crowley. The Latimers were old time Red River County settlers. There was lots of visiting, food and recalling the good old days. The Red River Recollections was on display and thanks to Nell Leatherwood Tucker had some of the early history of the family in the book.

Visitors last week of Mrs. Josie Fennell were two cousins, Ruby Roberts and Willie Wilson of Paris, and her grandson, Stan Dickerson of Bedford and J.H. Dickerson of Talco.

Weekend visitors of Rev. and Mrs. Allgood were Bill and Kathie Van Hosse, Emily and Danny of Garland.

Mrs. Sybil Robinson visited Thursday through Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Oma Gatlin at Red River Haven. She took Mrs. Gatlin for lunch at Bogie's Cafe on Friday. She also visited her sister, Georgia Black in Deport.

Visiting Horace and Opal Benham Sunday were their son, Jerry and his wife, Lanna and great-granddaughter, Kayli Sugg, all of Paris and Russell Benham of Bogata.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wood had as visitors over the weekend, Mrs. Earl Clipper and William of Hooks. They visited Mattie Chesshir in Red River Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roberts of Ft. Worth visited recently with their daughter, Mrs. Harold White and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Wims of Grand Prairie and D.A. Wims of Paris visited last week with their father and brother, Paul Wims.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Swaim of Tyler and her mother, Mrs. Gertrude McKee of Tlaucherville, LA spent last Friday with Mrs. Gus Swaim.

Julie Randolph, junior student at Rivercrest High School, spent last weekend with her mother, Ann Randolph, of Tyler.

Several women from the First United Methodist Church attended the World Day of Prayer Program held at McKenzie Memorial Methodist Church in Clarksville. More than 100 from Detroit, Annona, Avery, Bogata, Clarksville and Bagwell attended. From Bogata were Mildred Eudy, Gertie Choate, Iva Hooker, Eleanor McCluer, Bess Ruthardt, Judy Marshall and Betty Puckett.

Robert White, student at College of Dentistry, Baylor University, spent the weekend with his parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Glen White and Becky and grandmother, Emmie Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman of Celina, Ohio spent Monday night with Mrs. Vera Craddock. The Zimmermans are on their way to Arizona.

BANKING — A People Business!

The right place to bank isn't necessarily the bank that boasts the most!

The right place is with people who understand what banking is all about. People who listen. People with people-caring understanding.

At BOGATA FIRST NATIONAL our banking staffers recognize the need to develop a good working relationship with the people who are our customers. They're people who understand that what comes first in banking is people.

At Bogata First National, what comes first is you!

Johntown News

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Graham over the weekend with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joey Harrison and Jonathan of Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lee Cox, her brother, Don Wilson of Bogata, and sister, Betty and Jessie D. Evans of Mt. Vernon visited their brother, Hobert Wilson in Hughes Springs last week. The group celebrated Mrs. Cox's birthday. They lunched in Daringfield and visited the park there. On their return home, they stopped to visit in Marietta with an aunt, Moody Hancock. They learned that she had recently gone to the nursing home but visited with her daughter, Audrey and Marshall Smith.

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lee Cox visited in Bogata with their son, Eugene Cox and family. Eugene and his daughter were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cox on Saturday.

Betty and Jessie D. Evans of Mt. Vernon attended Sunday services with Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lee Cox last week. In the afternoon they visited their cousin, J.C. Albritton of Bogata. Mr. Albritton has recently been released from the hospital in Paris, and after a few days at home, entered the Deport Nursing Home.

Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lee Cox visited their son, Victor and grandson, Dustin in the Lone Star community.

Darla Jean received the Girl Scout Gold Award in special ceremonies at Rivercrest High School Monday night.

Rev. and Mrs. Billy Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shirley and girls attended the Girl Scout box supper at Rivercrest Monday night.

Terry Cope and daughters, Kami and Claudia visited over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Dodd.

Mark Collins of Longview spent Friday through Monday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Boots Roberts.

Circus Coming To Clarksville

The Kelly Miller Bros. 3 Ring Circus will be performing in Clarksville, Monday, March 16 for two big shows. The performances will begin at 4:30 and 7:30 p.m. The circus promises to be the best to ever hit Clarksville, with three rings, trained animals, comedy acts, trapeze artists and other stars offer excitement for everyone.

Every child should have the opportunity to see the circus. They'll love it, with smiles every minute.

Save money by purchasing advance tickets good for either the 4:30 matinee or the 7:30 performance. Adult tickets purchased in advance are $5.00 and children under 12 are $3.00. Tickets will be $1.00 higher at the door.

Tickets are available at The Korner, Quickie Drive-In, Allen Lumber Company, Red River National Bank, Citizen's Bank, J.P. Harvey Motors, Chamber of Commerce and County Extension office in Clarksville; 7-11 in Detroit; Kwik Korner in Bogata; Medford's in Avery, Tom's Place in Annona.

This circus is sponsored by the Red River County Agricultural Improvement Association and all proceeds will go toward the Red River County Fair.

THE GIFT OF ESTEEM

By Vanessa Hay
 Ruby Lee Moore, as insignificant to the universe as a particle of dust is to an individual, was the sun which her family revolved around. Her love was like the warm spring sunshine. It was free to those who would venture under its glow. Her giving nature was like the spring rains which nourish the land. She gave of herself unselfishly thereby quenching the needs of many. Her care was like the spring breeze, a breath of fresh clean air that revitalizes the land after a long winter. She cared for those around her and thereby encouraged them to hope for better tomorrow.

Ruby Lee Moore was my grandmother. She was a loving, giving and caring person. These qualities of her's, I have always known and felt, but the impact the combination these qualities bring to me was beyond my grasp until her death. When you combine the qualities of unselfish love for others, unselfish giving of yourself to others, and unselfish care for others, you can give the recipient of these qualities perhaps the greatest gift of all, that of self-esteem.

Grandmother Moore touched the hearts and enhanced the self-esteem of all her grandchildren. She has made each and every one of her twenty grandchildren, feel very special and unique. Through paired-bonding, we learn to give and receive love. I felt I had a very special paired-bond with my grandmother. You know, I was her favorite grandchild. She shared so many of life's pleasures and pleasures with me. She helped my mother burn my bottles. She taught me to drive, even though she didn't drive herself. She made my wedding garter. Those are only a few instances in which we shared with each other. I felt her loss greatly as any of you who have ever lost a grandparent may know.

As I drifted through the funeral I talked with many of the other grandchildren. In my conversation with each one I kept hearing the same statement. This statement or remark always evoked a voice in my mind, ignited a warm glow in my heart, brought a smile to my face, for them this remark I realized our grandmother had been of superior stock. The remark made by each of the other grandchildren was: "You know, I was her favorite granddaughter;" or "You know, I was her favorite grandson;" and even "You know, I was her favorite granddaughter-in-law;" or "You know, I was her favorite grandson-in-law."

Ruby Lee Moore, poor in the possession of money, poor in the possession of jewels, poor in the possession of gold was a very rich person who shared her richness with her grandchildren.

Our grandmother's memory will be immortal because of her ability to enhance our lives by teaching us how to love. Our grandmother's memory will be celebrated each time one of us gives unselfishly to someone else. Our grandmother's memory will heighten the quality of our own lives because she has taught us to look toward tomorrow for hope. Our grandmother's memory, hence, justifies the gift of self-esteem she gave each of us.

Mrs. Moore was the mother of Bell Borders, Helen Barnett and Jean Lindsey.
