

NICHOLS' WORTH

By: Nanalee Nichols

There are things in this world that will make you crazy. They will drive you mad, send you up a tree, cause you to lose your mind.

Some time ago, I ran a column on "questions I have about the way things are in the world". Things like, why are there so many more horses backside than there are horses, or what would chairs look like if knees bent backwards?

A number of people have been adding to my collection of questions, so here are a few more.

How do needles manage to multiply at such a fast rate, only when dropped into the carpet? Leave them in a pin cushion and they vanish...drop them in the carpet and it apparently creates a frenzy of reproduction.

Why do we have to have itches we can't scratch...like on the roof of our mouth...deep within our ears.

Why do we go to the doctor's office and when he asks "how do you feel", announce grandly "just fine, thanks".

Why does a car tire go flat only when the changer of said tire is dressed in their very best clothing, never when one is in old jeans.

Why does Bermuda grass grow better in the flower beds than in the yard?

Why does your neighbor manage to mow his yard at six o'clock on the ONE morning you can sleep late instead of on the other six when you need to be up?

Why do flies want IN the house...don't they have enough room outside?

Why do dogs go off and drag trash up to your yard...instead of taking trash OFF somewhere?

Why do children want the sugar on TOP of the butter on their oatmeal instead of under the butter?

How can a man sleep through two war movies but then complain that the frogs and birds are too loud to let him sleep when the TV is turned off?

How can a mosquito remain completely silent until time for bed and then manage to whine so loud?

What makes children automatically sense when food is nutritious and what makes them hate it so when it is?

Why does mud only come off of tennis shoes on a carpet, never on the door mat?

These are but a few more in what may turn into a continuing saga of the "Whys of the Universe".

Bogata Marshall Report

I wanted to publicly thank everyone that assisted me in the search for the four runaway juveniles, it makes me very proud to work in a town where the citizens will get involved and help when needed.

Also a special thanks to Tony Mauldin who worked his regular eight hours and then was out till two in the morning still searching for the runaways when I found him and advised him I had taken the last tow runaways to Clarksville. Since these were juveniles their names cannot be published in the paper.

In reference to the junk, inoperable or abandoned vehicles that are not inspected or licensed that are in violation of a state law, and parked on a public street or roadway in the city limits of Bogata.

Any person owning a vehicle that does not run, or is not currently inspected or licensed by May 23 and falls under the state law that is still parked on the street or public roadway will be subject to a fine for each day of the violation and possibly having their vehicle towed away.

There are a few of you that have called me requesting that I publish my days off and the hours that I am on patrol, and this I cannot do due to the fact the criminal element would know this also and it would be bad for the citizens, not to mention the businesses.

If you cannot reach me at my home phone or through City Hall, call the Sheriff's office in Clarksville and they will reach me by radio or if I'm out of town they will send you a Deputy.

Remember, I work for you the citizens of Bogata and if you have a problem call me and if I cannot help you with it, I will refer you to someone who can.

Thank you,
James Elston
City Marshal

SEARCHERS from Bogata, Deport, Talco, Lone Star and the surrounding areas combed the

Search Made For Possible Suicide

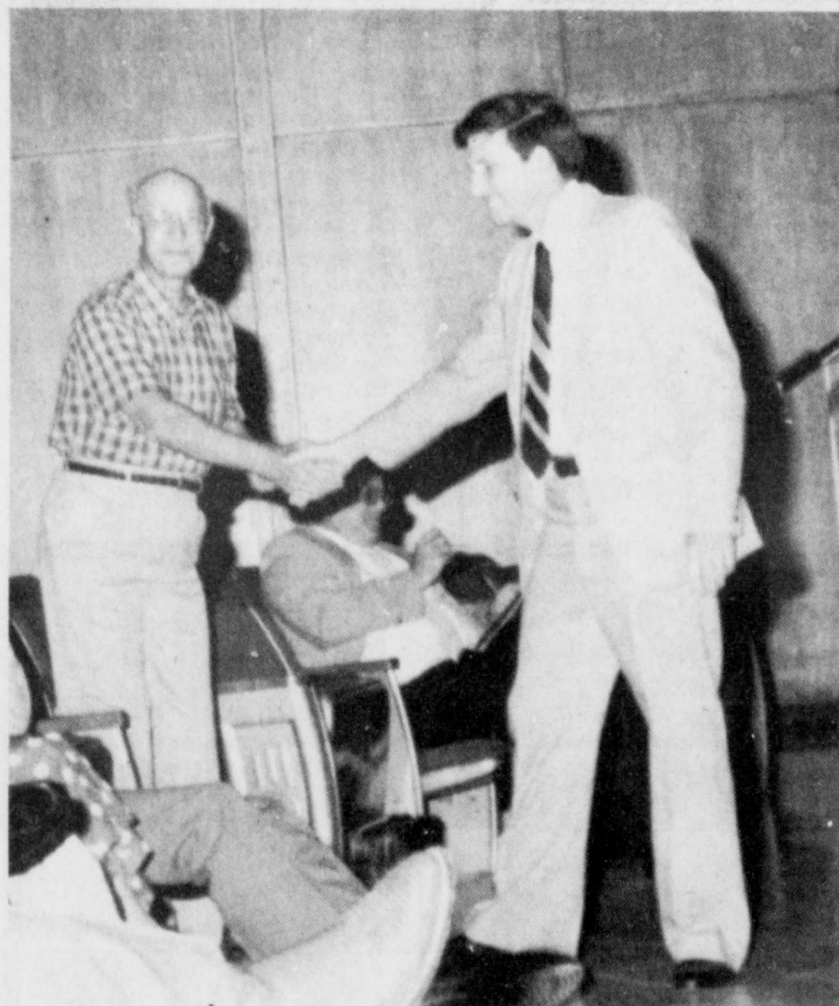

Volunteers from area fire departments, the Red River County Sheriff's Department and other concerned citizens gathered in the Lone Star community to search for Clifton Cooper, a possible suicide victim, Friday evening through Saturday, May 8 and 9.

Cooper, a resident of Grand Prairie, was visiting with his mother, Esther Cooper in Lone Star. According to the County Sheriff's report, a note indicating possible suicide was written by Cooper and found by his mother. The Sheriff's Department was contacted and a search of the wooded area behind the Cooper home began. Searchers rode horses and four-wheelers to come the woods. According to Deputy Sheriff Carl Motley, a homemade firearm was found taped to a tree in the area east of the home.

The official search for Cooper has stopped. The County Sheriff's Department received a report that Cooper was seen in the Lone Star community Sunday afternoon, but they have been unable to verify the report.

An all points bulletin has been issued by the Red River County Sheriff's Department for Cooper. Deputy Sheriff Motley said that the bulletin was strictly in concern for Cooper's welfare.

RIVERCREST REBEL Booster Award was presented to A.D. Stephenson during the program at the Sports Banquet held Tuesday night. The award was

Bogata Lions Still Need Funding For Park

The Bogata Lions Club is still in the process of building a city park on the community center grounds. So far, sidewalks have been poured on both sides of the creek, three benches have been erected around the sidewalk, three barbecue grills have been installed, seats have been added to two picnic tables, the creek has been cleaned out and is now full of water and the grounds are being cleaned.

Future plans include more benches, more picnic tables and barbecue grills, sand box, playground equipment, and camper facilities.

There are several squares of sidewalk left that has not been purchased. For fifteen dollars, you may purchase three feet of sidewalk and have your name engraved on a brass plate and installed in the sidewalk.

The Bogata Lions Club is in desperate need of funding to further these projects. Anyone wishing to purchase sidewalk, or make donations for the purpose of paying for playground equipment may do so by contacting any member of the Lions Club or send to Bogata Lions Club, P.O. Box 697, Bogata, TX. There is a special sidewalk account set up at the bank.

For further information, contact Jack Crane at 632-4447 or Regan Bell at 632-5885.

Shane Dodd In Theater Production

The members of the Garland Civic Theater acting class of 5, 6 and 7 year old children presented "Moon Girls" Saturday, May 9 at the Garland Performing Arts Center. Martha, played by Kate Kemp, and Debbie, played by Shana Dodd, dreamed they constructed a spaceship and flew it to one of Jupiter's moons. They met many different moon creatures, one of which was the moon monster. The moon girls discovered he wasn't a monster at all, but just a lonely creature.

When the girls awoke they were surprised they had the same dream. Then they heard a tiny voice saying "Sweet dreams. Thanks for your help. Come back and see us sometime." The girls reaction was a bewildered "wow".

Shana's special guests to the performance were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Dodd, Johtown and Nadine Caldwell, Talco; Mrs. Terry Cope, Kami Ford, Claudia Cope, Irene Johnson and Eddie Dodd, Dilas; Elizabeth Bradley, Mrs. Helen Baurque and Jolene, Mrs. Virginia McBee and Amber, GAYla Dodd and Chad, Garland.

Refreshments of cookies and punch were served to the cast of eleven and guests.

Opry Plays To Packed House

The Rivercrest High School Auditorium was filled to capacity with opry fans Thursday night to watch the Rivercrest Chapter of Future Farmers (all male) Opry Show.

School principal, Mr. Smith, welcomed the guests and introduced Porter Wagoner (Mike Tidwell), who was welcomed with loud applause and cheers as he sang "The Same Way You Came In".

The first Opry star Porter Wagoner welcomed was the all time favorite Kitty Wells (Wood Armstrong) who entertained the audience with "Talk Back Trembling Lips".

Randy Travis (Bill Ruthardt) came on stage next. He brought Kitty Wells with him and sang to her "On The Other Hand". It's no wonder Randy Travis won so many awards!

Loretty Lynn (Coach Giddens) sang "Fist City" and thrilled the crowd with her excellent guitar picking as well as her melody of song.

Crystal Gayle (Jimmie Branch) with hair almost to the floor, sang "Ready For The Times To Get Better". Times were definitely better while she was on stage!

ELVIS!! An Elvis impersonation by Donnie Strain created mounds of excitement and applause as he did "Blue Suede Shoes".

Ronnie Milsap (Vince Blankenship) found his way, with the help of Porter Wagoner, to the piano. He was looking "sharp" as usual, wearing a white glittering cutaway coat with tails. He played and sang his recent hit "Lost In The Fifties Tonight".

Beautiful Barbara Mandrell (Morris Foster), wearing a blue lace evening dress, pleased the fans with her song "Crackers". She threw small packages of crackers to fans on the front row.

No song could have thrilled the audience more than "Elvira" by the Oak Ridge Boys (Donnie Smith, Robert Kennedy, Joe Travis Kelsey and Eddy Denny).

Johnny Cash (Gary Huddleston) and his lovely wife, June Carter Cash (Buddy Damron) really put their hearts into their song "Jackson". The crowd cheered as they left the stage arm in arm.

John Conlee (Vincent Lum), known as the working man's entertainer, sang "Rose Colored Glasses". He was well received by working man, women, children, young and old alike.

Presley's Mountain Music Show of Branson, MO was represented by their comedian Herkemer VanCleve (Neil Rozell) and the news reporter (John Brooks). The sound system must have been sobbing from John Conlee's sad song for it wasn't loud enough during this comedy act. The news reporter was asking Herkemer about a man he had seen streaking through the grocery store, the gas station and also streaking at the basket ball game. "The Streak".

"I Fell In Love Again Last Night" one of the top tunes today of The Forrester Sisters (Peter Taylor, Coach Copeland, Frank Stubblefield and Craig Ingram). The fans fell in love with these girls as they sang. They were all dressed so pretty and were lovely to look at.

The program jumped from these pretty girls to that tough cowboy, Hank Williams, Jr. (Lindy Guest). Porter Wagoner said when he introduced him that Hank Jr. had said at the award program, "People don't have to be afraid of me. I'm as gentle as a lamb and sweet as sugar". The fans were convinced of this as he sang "This Ain't Dallas".

Lovely Reba McEntire (Damon Ward) so charming and talented, no wonder she won so many awards. She thrilled the fans with "Who's Ever In New England".

The winner of Best Video of the Year, Most Entertaining Group of the Year and on and on went to this group's awards, Alabama (Larry Garretson, Bill Buckman and Charlie Lewis). They sang "Old Flame". Not only were they wearing their Alabama shirts, they were wearing sneakers and big grins also.

The funny storyteller from the mouth of the Mississippi, Jerry Clower (Ralph Cawley) told about "Marcell's Talking Chain Saw". All Marcell wanted, it seems, was a cool red soda water, but they gave Marcell the beer joint!!

Old and young alike loved the next Opry star, George Strait (Mike Garretson) as he sang "All My Exes Live In Texas". Barbara Mandrell stepped back on stage and tossed a few of her crackers to him as he sang.

The Judds (Rusty Jones and Donald Porterfield) sang "Why Not Me". We don't know 'why' either, girls, for you were so pretty. We could hardly tell which was the mother, which the daughter.

That slow mellow singing man with headband, pigtail across one shoulder, earring in one ear, guitar strumming man, none other than Willie Nelson (Bud Pyron) pleased the fans with "Georgia On My Mind".

All the fans, men especially, were waiting for the beautiful blond "Doll" to come out. Dolly Parton (Danny Eudy) picked her guitar and softly sang "I'll Never Forget". She sang "If I Live Forever, I'll Never Forget". The audience will never forget her performance Thursday night. We were all sad to see one of her long red fingernails break off as she picked her guitar.

"Let's Chase Each Other Round The Room", that great entertainer Merle Haggard (Coach Barker) had the audience wild with applause as he sang and played his guitar...could he ever play that guitar!!!

George Jones (Dr. E.E. Brooks) was invited to perform "Still Doin' Time" No Show Jones! He did it again!

The Pointer Sisters (Charlie Hines, Billy Scales and Willie Fulbright) performed "I'll Be There", they were there too!! The crowd went wild as they sang and performed. The Opry fans will remember the Pointer Sisters for a long time.

Porter Wagoner was such a good master of ceremonies. He introduced each star with such style. He called all the Opry stars back on stage and together they sang "We Are The World". The Grand Ole Opry Stars had put on a very good show.

We want to thank Nanalee Nichols and her newspaper staff for the excellent coverage she gave our project...because of the papers wide circulation and good coverage, we were able to get the Opry information to lots of folks. $1,048.00 was collected at the door and about 50 VCR movies of the show were sold.

We can't say enough to the fellows who performed. They were all such good sports and were excellent performers and certainly thrilled everyone in the auditorium. They all performed with such a sweet spirit...Fellows, we appreciate you so very, very much.

Our thanks to all the friends in the community for coming out to support our F.F.A. program and a big thanks to all others who helped so much.

HERKEMER VAN CLEVE and the news reporter (Neil Rozell and John Brooks) were only two of the hilarious all male performers at the Rivercrest Grand Ol Opry held last Thursday to a standing room

RANDY TRAVIS, nee Bill Ruthardt, performed "On The Other Hand" at the Grand Ole

Opry Show with Kitty Wells (Wood Armstrong) at the Rivercrest High School last Thursday.

BARBARA MANDRELL (Morris Foster), pitched crackers to the audience as she sang "Crackers" at the Rivercrest FFA Grand Ole Opry last Thursday night.

CRYSTAL GAYLE (Jimmie Branch) performed "Ready For The Times To Get Better" for the audience at the Rivercrest FFA Grand Ol Opry last Thursday night.

She returned this year to again claim the district title for her second year in a row. Kim drew a bye in her first round, to go on and defeat Honey Grove in the second round. She faced Malone of Wolfe City for her second victory and Childress of Wolfe City for the district championship. The Gary McConnell Athletic Award was presented to Wesley Hood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Hood of Talco by Coach Giddens. The award is given in memory of Gary McConnell, who while a student at Rivercrest High School, participated in football and track and exemplified a Christian attitude toward both athletics and his personal life. He was a team oriented player who responded positively to coaching and was very popular with his peers, displaying strong leadership qualities and outstanding citizenship. Each year the high school coaches select the name of a male varsity athlete, who best fulfills the qualities listed above, to receive this award.

The Fighting Rebel Award was presented to Chris Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson of Talco. The high school coaches select a male varsity athlete, preferably a senior, to receive this award. He must have participated in at least two varsity sports, be a good player, and show a strong desire to compete. Chris was also chosen as the recipient of the Outstanding Track Award for his achievement in boys track.

Amy Gladden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Terrell of Talco was chosen to receive the Girls Track Award for her achievement in girls track.

The Rivercrest Rebelette Award, presented in recognition of accomplishments which exhibit those values that should be reinforced by participation as a Rebelette was awarded to Kim Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark of Bogata. The following criteria determine the recipient of this award: academic, athletic and citizenship. Teachers, sponsors and coaches rate each girl with whom they have had contact in the three areas above on a scale of one to five. The Rebelette with the highest point is the recipient of this award.

From time to time there is that person or persons who go far beyond the normal requirements of time and effort to support athletics at Rivercrest High School. When the coaches feel that such a person makes this outstanding contribution to the program they present a small plaque in an effort to convey their appreciation and that of the athletes.
