

NICHOLS' WORTH

By: Nanalee Nichols

Folks, it's hot out there. There ain't no "if's, and's or but's" about it.

We get a lot of newspapers in here from other places... Sulphur Springs, Mt. Pleasant, Cooper, Honey Grove, etc.

Almost everyone of them has featured something about the heat...kids with ice cream cones, articles on how to keep from suffering heat stroke, dogs in swimming pools, that sort of thing.

Here's my contribution to the heat wave.

What are a few of the very nicest things you can think of to cool off?

Here's some of ours. What feels much better than curling fingers around a tall, cold water-beaded glass of iced tea?

What's better than walking into a cool, air conditioned house after trimming the hedges or mowing the lawn?

What's better than a cold coke after hauling hay?

What's sweeter than that first lick of an ice cream cone at an amusement park?

What's better on sunburn than cool medication?

What's prettier than a thunderstorm building up to provide much needed rain?

What's more refreshing than a flurry of breeze about dark?

What's more fun than diving into a swimming hole on a hot afternoon?

What's snicker than the trickle of running water at a stream?

What's more relaxing than the slap of water against a fishing boat early in the morning?

What's more spectacular than the sun setting in a perfectly round, fiery ball against the horizon?

What's as tasty as a ripe, red, icy cold watermelon?

What's nicer than any of these things?

Well, to my mind, there is one thing. Wait until the yard work is all done. Wait until your hair is plastered to the top of your head, your feet are hot and throbbing, your back aches from mowing, or trimming, or the hay meadow, or combining or whatever...then turn on the shower without ANY hot water added at all.

Just standing there for about ten minutes positively HAS to be the nicest, coolest, best way to beat the heat ever!

World War II Still Real In England

By Nanalee Nichols

Editor's Note: This is the second in a travel series on England. From the response to last week's column, you folks must be enjoying it, so here we go for another column.

On Saturday, we woke to rain and gray skies, a change from our Texas temperatures that delighted us.

The morning was spent doing laundry. This means washing in the kitchen sink, then fitting clothes into a spin dryer which extracts the excess water most efficiently. Then, the clothes had to be hung inside to dry. Laundromats are available, but unhandy to get to on the bus since a lot of people don't have cars.

The afternoon was devoted to the Royal Air Force Museum at Hendon Airfield and the British Air Museum. Here, Thomas simply went a little crazy. So many planes, so beautifully displayed. A short film on the Battle of Britain, complete with air raid sirens, brought tears to Mic's eyes as she was taken back to the dreadful days when bombings came every day, night after night.

Both Mic and Lee were in the women's services during the second World War. They drew a crowd wherever people overheard them telling us just what it was like.

The realization of just how much England lost during that war soaked in on us during the week with them as never before. As Americans, we suffered some shortages...and lost a lot of soldiers.

But we never knew what it was like to huddle night after night in the underground stations while bombs laid waste to our cities overhead. We never knew real hunger, nor what it was like to not even be able to purchase a needle for years on end!

As we proceeded through the museum, hearing recordings of Winston Churchill's inspiring speeches, looking at uniforms and displays showing what life was like, Mic became quieter and quieter, finally beginning to tell us about the dreadful nights that she lay awake, waiting for the British and American bombers to return from their own bombing raids...and how the numbers returning were so horribly short of the numbers that had gone out.

It was a sobering, eloquent experience to have the times brought so alive to us.

After practically having to drag Thomas from the planes, we went to a Finchely china shop for some gift giving, then to Lee's apartment for a buffet dinner. Lee's daughter, Sue, and husband, Neil, were there, along with Pam, Lee, Mic and Thomas and myself.

Sunday was spent in London...the one square mile that makes up the actual city of London. For me, going to Fleet Street, the hub of the newspaper industry in Britain, was a special treat.

Even the pubs on that street have newspaper related names, and the whole street is geared towards newspaper production and life.

At St. Bride's Church, we were treated to the most beautiful choir we had ever heard. The famous choir and organ blended together to send hymns echoing throughout. Underneath the church, we went through the exhibits showing the various artifacts found when the Roman was bombed during the war. Roman walls and ruins were found when the bomb rubble was cleared, then artifacts from later ages.

St. Bride's Church is located on what is considered to be the oldest site for Christian worship in England...dating from 60 A.D.! It was a moving experience to see the remains left behind by such early Christians while modern day music drifted down the stone steps into the crypt.

Also included on our day with Lee and Pam in downtown central London was a visit to Dr. Johnson's house, and a trip to the Old Curiosity Shop, made famous by Charles Dickens.

Then we headed for the tower of London. A tour courier friend had provided the entry tickets to the tower in advance, and promptly at 2, when the gates opened, we rushed through, leaving lines of people behind. We were able to have a leisurely view of the crown jewels while everyone else was waiting in line for their tickets!

Those jewels are absolutely awesome. The workmanship and beauty is exquisite, while the size and number of the jewels simply boggles the imagination!

Afterwards we toured parts of the tower, including a visit to the tower ravens. Legend says that if the ravens ever leave the tower it will crumble...and taking no chances, they clip a few wing feathers to make sure it doesn't happen!

The bloody history of beheadings, murders and executions bring one the struggles that took place for control of the empire over the centuries.

As usual, we were awed by the age of things. For a nation with only a little over two hundred years of history, seeing buildings six, seven or eight hundred years old is really something.

Where we slap a historical marker on anything over 100 years of age, they simply figure it's nearly new housing and just getting broken in good!

After the tower, we drove along the embankment...the road that runs along the River Thames. Cleopatra's needle, a huge stone obelisk given to the nation during the 1800's, rears up alongside the water, guarded by two sphinxes...one with shrapnel holes torn from an exploding bomb in World War II.

A monument designed by the famous Christopher Wren commemorates the Great Fire of London, which devastated the city in 1666...but also broke the plague that had been killing people for the previous year.

We walked through the area peopled by barristers, solicitors and judges, impressed with the gracious dwellings the legal profession inhabits.

In a crowded city, parks are the saving grace. St. James and Regents Parks provide gorgeous expanses of green grass, stately trees and ponds for people to enjoy.

A special surprise was revealed near Regents Park, as Lee leaped out of the car and dragged us down a narrow hallway. There on the wall was a simple plaque marked "Texas Legation". It marked the room where the Texas Delegation from the Republic stayed during the time the state was it's own republic and sent ambassadors and delegates to what was then the most powerful empire in the world...Great Britain. It's a fair bet that most tourists from Texas ever even know of it's existence.

A meal on Indian food completed a busy day. Indian food, from India, not "our" kind of Indians, of course.

Hot and spicy, it capped a day well spent roaming through what may be the world's most famous city.

Cancer Society Meets Goal

The Red River County Chapter of the American Cancer Society met their yearly goal in this year's crusade. For the past eleven years, the Red River County Chapter has been awarded the Golden Achievement Award. To get this award, a chapter must surpass the previous year's totals.

Local workers in the crusade included Fulbright and Rugby: Jimmie King, Stella Ridens and Eva Bryant, Rosalie, Nancy Denny, Lone Star; Blanche Childers, Cuthand; Martha McCall, Johtown; Freda Jean, Bogata; Billie Harville, Duanna Lawson, Sherry Cheatwood, Mildred Eudy, Donnie Lewis, Mary Lynn Horn, Carol English, Stella Mankins, Pat Jeffery, Dora Thompson, Anita Stubblefield, Beverly Hinson, Frances Griffin, Lynn Barker, Becky Brooks, Patricia Harris, Debbie Hare, Marilyn Garretson, Sharon Posey, Judy Marshall, Lou Ada Watkins, Mary Jo Whatley and Donna Robinson.

Kim Kelsey was chairman of the local crusade and would like to thank those who helped make the drive a success.

Detroit To Hold Gospel Singing

The First Annual Detroit All Night Gospel Singing will be held Saturday night, August 15 beginning at 8 p.m.

The event will be hosted by Dale Halyard and will be held at the Detroit Tabernacle in Detroit.

Groups featured on the program will be The Toney Brothers, Garland; the Joint Heirs Quartet, Mesquite;

Admission is free, an offering will be taken. Concessions will be available. A large crowd is expected so bring your lawn chairs and come out and enjoy some of the finest gospel singing you've ever heard. Everyone is invited. For information, please call 674-5415 or 674-4812.

Methodist To Have Promotion Day

The United Methodist Church is planning a Round Up Promotion Day on August 30 with activities beginning at 9:45.

The children will be taking part in the morning worship services. Make plans to dust off your cowboy hat and polish up your boots and join all the exciting events of the day.

LONDON's finest clown around with tourists and native Londoners alike. These two were more than willing to pose for pictures with Nanalee, far left, Lee, and Mic, far right. They are tactful and helpful, but expert at crowd control and other police functions. Known as "bobbies" they have a distinct uniform. (Staff Photo)

An Investment in COMFORT

When you buy a new heating and cooling system, you're making an investment in comfort and in energy efficiency. Here is a free checklist of features your new heating and cooling system should offer.

1. Does the unit have a Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (SEER) and Energy Efficiency Ratio (EER) of at least 8.0? The higher the rating, the better the efficiency.
2. Is the unit properly sized to serve the required cooling area?
3. Have you obtained information at your local Texas-New Mexico Power Company office about energy efficient cooling/heating systems? At TNP, we don't make or sell air conditioners or heaters, but we do have information on how to get the most for your energy dollar.

Wells-Morgan Exchange Wedding Vows

Mrs. Clint Morgan

In a formal candlelight ceremony August 1 at seven in the evening at the First Assembly of God Church in Mt. Pleasant, Tammie Renee Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wells, became the bride of Clint Glynn Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin G. Morgan of Linden. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Marlin Roby, pastor of Christian Faith Baptist Church in Mt. Pleasant.

Clint is manager of Marvin's Wildflower Restaurant in Mt. Pleasant and Tammie is a student at NTCC and is employed as a computer operator. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Tucker of Bogata, Mrs. Annie Wells of Johtown and Roy Wells of Johtown.

Vows were repeated before an altar decorated with arrangements of gladiolas, two seven-branched candelabras decorated with greenery and bows and centered by a unity candle. Pews were marked with bows of mauve and burgundy.

Guests were registered by Sherry Wilborn. Tonia Duffee provided pre-nuptial music and accompanied Janet Sullivan as she sang "Through The Eyes of Love", "We've Only Just Begun" and the "Wedding Song" was sung to solemnize the lighting of the unity candle.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a designer gown fashioned of soft organza, trimmed with Venice bridal lace encrusted with tiny pearls and clear iridescent sequins. It had a traditional high neckline with applique cameo illusion modified leg-o-mutton sleeves, fitted bodice and basque waist and full skirt flowing into a chapel length train. Skirt and train featured a deep flounce topped with Venice lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion flowed from a beaded headpiece and was encircled in Venice lace which coordinated with that of her gown. The bride's free style bouquet was composed of white roses accented with pale mauve rosebuds stephanotis, backed with English Ivy and streamers of lace and pearls with ribbons tied in love knots. A brooch that belonged to her great-great-aunt was pinned to the bouquet and she carried a lace handkerchief which was her great-grandmother's. She carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed, blue and a six pence in her show.

Traditional wedding music was played as the mothers and grandmothers were seated. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wells chose a floor length burgundy dress featuring a lace bodice, long chiffon sleeves and a pleated skirt with a separate lace jacket.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Morgan wore a silver-gray floor length dress. Both mothers wore corsage of silk roses.

The bride paused entering and gave her Mom a rose, and when leaving she gave a rose to her new mother-in-law.

Gratta Westbrook served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Carla Gillette of Irving, Rebecca Morgan of Hughes Springs and Sherry Westbrook of Mt. Pleasant. Amanda Brown, cousin of the bride of Shreveport, LA was flower girl.

The attendants wore floor length dresses of mauve silk taffeta, featuring a scooped neckline in front and back with puffed sleeves and accent bows at the band. The fully gathered skirt flowed from a low V in front and back. They carried bouquets of burgundy and mauve silk roses with miniature roses and pearl sticks and streamers of lace and ribbon. The flower girls dress coordinated with the attendants but featured a sweetheart neckline and a bow sash in back. She carried a basket of cut flowers.

Kyle Morgan, cousin of the groom served as best man. Groomsmen included Greg McMillon of Hughes Springs, Drew Baker of Austin and Delmoe Crouch IV of Tulsa, OK. Jerry Mack Brown, Jr., cousin of the bride of Shreveport, LA served as ringbearer.

Ushers were Victor Wells, brother of the bride and Jerry Paul Abernathy of Hughes Springs, friend of the groom.

Candlelighters were Daniel Barker of LaGrange and Jim Green of Linden, nephews of the groom.

The groom wore a solid white Dynasty tuxedo with tails. All other men in the wedding party wore Sharkskin grey Dynasty tuxedos accented with mauve cummerbuns and bow ties. Boutoniers were burgundy rose buds.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Wells honored the couple with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white taffeta tablecloth gathered to a high point in the center and draped to the floor. A silver punch bowl and crystal and silver appointments were used. An arrangement of flowers in the bride's chosen colors of mauve and burgundy adorned the table. The bride's cake featured a flowing fountain separating layers of white and decorated with pale mauve and white roses embossed with doves and gazebo emprints. It was topped with a gazebo decorated with greenery and flowers and centered with the traditional bride and groom.

The groom's table was draped with a burgundy taffeta cloth and featured a silver coffee service and crystal appointments. The tiered German Chocolate cake was monogrammed in the initial "M".

Members of the houseparty were Christy Tucker, cousin of the bride of Watauga, Donna Buchanan, Sherry Wilborn, Shana Hawkins and Christy Swearingen, friends of the bride. Bird seed bags were distributed by Gween Green, niece of the groom.

For her going away outfit, the bride wore a white polyester two piece suit with a softly pleated skirt accented with wine colored daisies and matching accessories. Following a wedding trip to Jamaica, the couple will be at home in Mt. Pleasant.

Following the wedding rehearsal, the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin G. Morgan were hosts for a dinner at Marvin's Wildflower Restaurant. The couple chose this occasion to present their attendants with gifts of appreciation.

Notice of 1987 Effective Tax Rate for City of Bogata

The purpose of this notice is to inform you about your taxes. The 1987 effective tax rate is a tax rate that would levy the same amount of operating taxes the taxing unit levied last year on property taxed in both years, plus the amount the unit needs to pay certain long term debts this year. The rate is calculated as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes 1986 maintenance & operations tax levy (.53713), Less taxes levied to recoup 1985 appraisal roll errors and adjustments for lost value (None), Equals adjusted 1986 maintenance & operations levy (.53713).

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes 1987 total tax base (14,259,331), Less adjustments for value of new property (167,070), Equals adjusted 1987 tax base (14,092,261).

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes The adjusted 1986 levy divided by the adjusted 1987 tax base and multiplied by 100 equals the effective maintenance & operations tax rate (.3811 / $100).

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes Plus rate to correct for appraisal roll errors (None / $100).

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes Plus rate needed to pay debts and obligations (None / $100).

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes Equals 1987 effective tax rate (.3811 / $100).

Table with 2 columns: Description and Rate. Includes 1987 effective tax rate (.3811 per $100 of value), The maximum rate the governing body can adopt without publishing notices and holding a hearing is (.3925 per $100 of value), The maximum rate the governing body can adopt before taxpayers can initiate rollback petitions is (.4115 per $100 of value).

This notice contains a summary of the calculations used to determine this year's effective tax rate. You can inspect the full calculations at 101 W. Broadway, Clarksville, Tx 75426

SCHEDULE A: Unencumbered Fund Balances

This taxing unit estimates that the following balances will be left in the unit's accounts at the end of the fiscal year. These balances are not encumbered by a corresponding debt obligation.

Table with 2 columns: Type of Fund and Balance. Includes General Fund with a balance of $5,745.39.

SCHEDULE B: 1987 Debts Paid From Property Taxes

This taxing unit estimates that the unit will pay the following amounts out of property tax revenues for long-term debts that are secured by property taxes.

Table with 5 columns: Description of Debt, Principal or Contract Payment to be Paid, Interest to be Paid, Other Amounts to be Paid, Total Payment. Includes Total Amount Required for 1987 Debt Service (None), Less Amount That Will Be Paid From Funds Listed in Schedule A (None), Total To Be Paid From Property Taxes This Year (None), Amount Added in Anticipation That the Unit Will Collect Only (% of its Taxes in 1987) (None), Total Debt Tax Levy (None).

BAPTIZED-Angela Suzanne Boorda with parents, Cmdr. Joel A. Boorda and wife Suzanne, are in the center of this picture taken aboard the USS Blakely, where she was baptized. She is the first baby to be baptized on board the ship, using the ship's highly polished bell.

Angela Suzanne Boorda Baptised On Board Ship

For most Navy personnel, the words "commitment" and "underway" are synonymous. But for the men of the USS Blakely, a commitment may be anything from a month underway in the Caribbean Sea taking part in a fleet exercise to completely rebuilding a schoolhouse and an orphanage in the Bahamas.

The special event that took place May 2 was no exception when Angela Suzanne Boorda became the first baby to be baptized on board the USS Blakely in the highly polished ship's bell. "I could not think of a better way to welcome my baby daughter into the world," commented Lt. Bob Boorda, Angela's father.

Cmdr. Joel A. Porter, the commanding officer of the USS Blakely, complimented Boorda and his wife, Suzanne, on their decision to have Angela baptized on the ship. Lt. Boorda and his wife live on the base at Charleston, SC with baby Angela Suzanne and their three-year old son, Michael Ted. Suzanne is a niece of Mrs. Gene Hawkins of Johtown and Mrs. Jess Morris of Clarksville. Suzanne grew up in the Washington, D.C. area where her father, the late Ted Baxter, was near retirement from the Government printing office when he succumbed to a massive heart attack in 1980. Ted was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Baxter of Johtown where he grew up before going to Washington, D.C. at age 18.

Johtown News

Glenda Cox of Commerce visited over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lee Cox. Mrs. Cox's brother, Donald Wilson of Bogata, visited Friday evening.

Visiting Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Ora Crafts were her daughter, Louise Henderson and daughter, Michelle Hanson and sons, Jason and Jeremy, all of Dallas. Saturday visitors of Mrs. Crafts were Michael St. James, Margaret Newsome, Shane and Amanda, all of Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Parker, Robin Harville and Kyla had lunch in Paris Sunday.

Mrs. Patsy Collins and Kathy Hiltzman and Clay of Longview visited last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Boots Roberts. They picked up Clay Hiltzman, who had been visiting the previous week with the Roberts, and went to Dallas where they visited six flags. Mrs. Collins flew from Dallas to Kansas City on a business trip and Mrs. Hiltzman and boys returned to their home in Longview.

Mrs. Ora Pirtle recently received word from Phoenix, AZ of the death of her sister, Lauda Kidd. Mrs. Kidd and her husband were former residents of Johtown for many years. Mr. Kidd preceded her in death in 1980. They had four children.

Wesley Askins is ill in Titus County Hospital in Mt. Pleasant. Jimmy Cotten came home Sunday after surgery and is doing well.

Visitors of Faye Faulkenburg and Boots Cooper last week were Rebecca Wright of Corpus Christi and Robin McLaughlin of Ft. Worth. They attended their sister, Lilly Watts, who has been critically ill in McCuiston Hospital in Paris.

Loy Cooper of Paris had lunch with his sister, Faye Faulkenburg Sunday.

Ben Ward Family Reunion Held

The Ben Ward family reunion was held this past weekend at Lake Leon, which is located south of Ranger.

Eighteen families were represented at the reunion. There were 42 individuals present from Carlsbad, NM, Longview, Mesquite, Ft. Worth, Dallas, Abilene and Bogata.

Visitors of Mrs. Oma Hudson last Saturday were Avretta Hansborough of San Diego, CA, Margie D. Crittenden of Wichita Falls and Rev. M.A. Hall of Ft. Worth.

Arbiter Spencer was overnight guest of Marla Williams last Wednesday. The girls enjoyed swimming on Thursday.

Charles Harper is a surgery patient in St. Joseph's Hospital.

Visitors of Mrs. Ruth Wood last Monday were Mrs. Van D. Craddock, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Van D. Craddock, Jr., Chris and Kathy of Longview. They attended the memorial service for an aunt of Mrs. Craddock, Sr. Sunday visitors were Mrs. Bill Goloby, Amy and G.W. of Houston.

Nina Hudson, Odella Cheatwood of Cuthand and Patsy Hudson of Mesquite vacationed a few days last week in Hot Springs, AR.

Floyd Hanna of Kilgore spent the weekend with his daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Cheatwood and sons, and Eyvette Hanna.

Mr. and Mrs. Mutt Cooper of Killeen recently visited with Mrs. Jackie Lewis. Mrs. Lewis' brother, Calvin Barton, visited with her last week and attended the funeral of Mrs. Ella May Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. M.E. Roach, Mollie Williams, Mandy and Marla and Robin Harville and Kyla ate in Paris and shopped Saturday night.

Mrs. Luella Swaim spent last week in Tyler with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Swaim.

CODY CHEATWOOD was honored with a Crayola birthday party for his second birthday on August 2. The occasion was hosted by his parents, Ricky and Sherri Cheatwood and his brother, Clinton, at his grandparents, Roney and Billie Cheatwood, in Cuthand. Cody's grandmother, Billie Cheatwood, made his cake which was the shape of the number 2 and was decorated with "Happy Birthday Cody". Helping celebrate his special day were Ellen Hanna and Joey of Longview, Floyd Hanna of Kilgore, Mavis McGuire and Randy of Clarksville, Angie and Nikke Burgess and Boe Burns of Bogata and Odella Cheatwood of Cuthand. Cody received many nice presents.

Talco Locals

Leon and Sue Hale attended her uncle, Charlie French, funeral services in Carthage last Friday at 2 p.m.

Recent guests of Rev. and Mrs. Gary House were Mrs. Peggy Cupp and Brant of Junction City, LA.

A group of seventeen members and friends of the First Baptist Church traveled to Tyler to see the singing quartet group "The Cathedrals". Some of those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, Jo Coil, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Cobb, David Zimmerman, and Rev. Gary and Lola House and Kevin Wednesday, August 12, at 6:30 p.m. will be the annual Church Conference at the First Baptist Church. At this time, new officers and teachers will be elected for the new church year which begins September 1.

The First Baptist Church is planning an all day outing at Walleye Park on Lake Cypress Springs August 15. All church members and guests are invited to come and enjoy a day or a few hours of swimming, games and fun. Guests must furnish their own refreshments and lunch.

Three families from the Talco area spent 10 days camping out at Walleye Park on Lake Cypress recently. Those enjoying a nice vacation were Gene and Marvie Sue Goates and Kristie, Cliff and Jean Jones and Duck and Janice Jones and family. Gene and Marvie Sue drove back into town for the Class of '62 reunion on Saturday.

Roger and Mary Lou Hall and Chasity attended the junior rodeo held in Powderly Monday night. The rodeo stock was provided by Gene Smith of Talco.

Melanie Flenniken Is Finalist

Melanie Flenniken, as an eighth grade student at Crockett Middle School, was recognized as a Distinguished Nominee to the Joseph Baldwin Academy for Eminent Young Scholars on the campus of Northeast Missouri State University.

Of the 2,900 eligible applicants, Melanie was a finalist and was then awarded the position of "alternate". The recognition and program nomination were accorded Melanie as a result of her scoring in the upper three percentile on a nationally-normed examination and her being recommended by a nominating school official.

The Academy is an opportunity for students of high ability to be challenged by college-level curricula. It also allows students to experience the excitement of intellectual interchange between gifted minds, said a PISD spokesman.

Melanie will be a freshman student at Paris High in the fall. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Flenniken and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Flenniken of Bogata.
