

NICHOLS' WORTH

By: Nanalee Nichols

I am not a big fisherman. This past summer, however, I spent a lot of afternoons and late evenings sitting on a bank with my nine-year old nephew, being the assistant fisherman. That, translated, means cleaning slime and water weeds off of hooks, helping hold the fish's mouth open while hooks are removed, keeping up with lures, baits and equipment, untangling lines and generally being his "flunky".

We had a wonderful time. This past weekend we went up to Spavinaw, Oklahoma to do a little swimming and relaxing with friends, and to visit my aunt, uncle and cousin.

Spavinaw is where my grandmother lived until her death. She taught me to fish.

Now, grandmother was a fisherman. There was no doubt about it. She knew where the big ones were, what bait they wanted, when they wanted it. What I know about fishing I learned from her.

We would get up good and early, drive down to the lake, lower her little fishing boat into the water and take off.

Anchored in some quiet, shady cove called "Deer Hollow" or "Black Foot Cove", we would fish for crappie, bass or bream as happy as clams.

She would tell me stories of the Indians, or point out different varieties of trees on the shoreline. Sometimes we would see beautiful deer coming down to the water to drink, or raccoons.

She would instruct me in general fishing knowledge, and served, I fear, in exactly the same capacity as I did this summer...general flunky to my baiting, fish removing and line tangling.

Once, I recall, I was told I had to remove a dead minnow from the hook. I had an aversion at that age (I hope I was quite small, but don't recall) to dead minnows, or live ones for that matter.

I refused. She said that I didn't have that option, the minnow HAD to come off and we weren't going home until it did.

I tried to grasp it lightly and gave a timid tug. Of course, the minnow's corpse didn't budge.

She gently, but firmly, insisted I try again. If I recall, it took about twenty minutes to get the blasted thing wellowed around until it finally, more or less on its own, FELL off the hook.

I was sobbing and whining by that time. She was a firm and gentle as ever...as implacable as the sun coming up, and as dependable.

As soon as I had overcome the minnow problem, we went for a nice, long cruise round the lake, looking at water lily blooms, opening up the throttle just for fun.

The dead minnow quickly became a standing joke between us. Of course, she never did overcome my distaste of putting live minnows ON the hook...which may be why I don't fish to much these days.

I wished for her this summer. How much more knowledge Jeffery would have obtained had she been around to teach him. How much more patience she had than I do!

Everyone needs someone to fish with...they are small. Most of us had someone. I can only hope that today's instructors were as special as those who instructed US...and that the memories we create in the process will become as treasured.

Summer Is Through, The Signs All Say

Summer is through. Oh, sure, there are some hot days left, but those nights when folks without an air conditioner can lie awake all night long waiting for the temperature to drop below eighty degrees are over for one more year.

It is a typical East Texas September. The winds are cooler and more frequent, but the afternoons can still provide a sunburn and a lot of sweat.

Trees and animals know that fall is coming slowly and deliberately though.

Take a long look at the leaves. Willows are turning pale yellow when the sun shines through. The bois d'arc leaves are falling to the ground...they are one of the last trees to leaf out in the spring and one of the first to de-leaf in the autumn. Perhaps they don't wish to take chances...not believing it's warm til the last and getting ready for an early cold spell sooner than anyone else.

Pecans are getting ready, hackberry and oak haven't a leaf without an insect chomp or two out of them.

Flowers such as roses are putting on their last display of color, hopefully to last until October, but in East Texas no one can predict when the first frost will do it's work.

School is back in session. Youngsters, when queried, will pull long faces and answer that they don't like to be back in school. Every morning, however, they can be seen laughing, running and singing as they go into the school buildings. Parents cast doubtful eyes at least year's winter garments, wondering whether they fit, or will last another year. Soon it will be cool enough in the mornings for jackets, but before noon too warm to wear them.

The temptation to don long-sleeved, new fall clothes will be in evidence, too.

Animals are restless, feeling the urgings to prepare for winter. Fur gets thicker, hair longer, those which store food do so.

Something closely akin to spring fever in reverse affects humans as they, too, scurry around getting beds ready for winter, trimming, mowing and cleaning.

They, too, know that autumn is here and winter not far behind.

Yes, summer is through for one more year, in spite of last flings of lakeside visits and yard mowing!

BOIS D'ARC apples, better known as "horse apples" or "bowdark apples" and yellowing leaves mark the end of the summer season. Signs of autumn are slowly beginning to appear as the season rolls around once more. (Staff Photo)

RRC Water Bd. Recommending Reservoir

In a letter to its 1400 meter holders, the governing board of the Red River County Water Supply corporation has recommended the Dimple Reservoir as "the cheapest way to supply water" to its customers and as "an assured source of water that we can depend on."

"With the vote on Dimple Reservoir coming up September 19, we thought our customers should be given the facts on water costs so they can decide for themselves whether to vote "Yes Yes Yes" on the three items on the ballot," says Corporation President Tommy Van Deaver.

The letter asserts that water pressure from Texarkana Lake is not sufficient to assure an adequate water supply for RRCWSC customers, that water from Lamar County is prohibitively expensive at $1.57 per thousand gallons, and that improving the capability of delivering Texarkana Lake water would cost Red River County customers an additional $10 per month.

The Red River County Water Supply corporation is the largest water supplier in Red River County. Its 1400 rural customers compare with about 1100 meters on the Clarksville system.

On September 19, Red River County voters will vote on three inter-related propositions to confirm or reject the Red River County Water District, which was authorized by the Texas Legislature earlier this year. The District's directors plan to build a reservoir at Dimple that would meet the entire county's needs for industrial and domestic water through the year 2040.

Arigo Riders Club Meet

By Dee Tabb
The Arigo Riders met at the Bogata Community Center on September 1 for their regular meeting. This was the first meeting of the new year.
New officers were elected. The 1987-88 officers are: president, Scott Denny; vice-president, Brandon Williams; secretary-treasurer, Toy Varner; reporter, Dee Tabb. Council delegates are Scott Denny and Toy Varner. Refreshment chairman is Jeff Marris, his helpers are Danny Tabb and Chris Earley.
Club members turned in their money and tickets they had been selling to raise money. If anyone wishes to buy a chance on a 1987 pickup, they should call Dee Tabb at 632-4387. The club hopes to raise enough money to purchase an American and Texas flag. At this time, the club wishes to thank everyone who has helped the club this year.
The 1986-87 year under the leadership of Mike and Dianne Williams was very successful and enjoyable. We were very active and really learned a lot. Thank you, Mike and Dianne, for all your hard work.
The 1987-88 leaders are: Johnny and Debbie Hudson; assistant leaders, Mike and Dianne Williams, Vicki Tabb, Donnie Smith, Dennis and Janice Martin, Brenda Russell, Brenda Gibson, Jim Bill Chaloner and Judy Mankins. We are looking forward to another great year.
The next meeting is October 6 at 7 p.m. at the Bogata Community Center. All new and old members are asked to attend. If you know of anyone who might be interested, please tell them to attend this meeting.

JAMIN Graham was honored on his 9th birthday with a party at his home at Rivercrest Heights. Games of horseshoes, basketball throw and video games were played and prizes given to the winners.

An ice cream cake was served and favors given to those attending. Jamin received several nice gifts. Those attending were the honoree, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Graham, his sister, Jerah

Dear Editor,

Thank you for allowing me this opportunity to express myself concerning the Dimple Reservoir.

First, to those that don't like long letters, let me urge you at this point to vote for the Dimple Reservoir on September 19.

Soem people are confused on the beginning of the reservoir, its location, its purpose and other matters. The proposed reservoir had its beginning on May 14, 1984. On this date we (Soll Conservation Service and local leaders) were conducting a countywide meeting in the Chamber of Commerce building on the Resource Conservation and Development (RC&D) program. County needs were discussed. The group asked me to select a reservoir site. I knew the entire county needed water. Therefore I selected a site best suited for the county. The site was selected based on its central location in the county, its water storage capacity, drainage area in comparison to storage, soils suitable for dam construction, water quality and other characteristics.

Sometime later, most entities in the county donated money to have a feasibility study made. The money was used to hire an engineering firm (HDS) to prepare the feasibility study. A geology firm made several core drills to prove the soils suitable. The engineering firm confirmed the site to be excellent on all the above characteristics. I would challenge anyone to find a better site using the same criteria.

Some say this is a Clarksville project. This is not true. It is a countywide project and will benefit the entire county. Some say it will benefit certain landowners joining the lake. Tell me this, where could it be built without joining landowners? No landowner knew about the proposed reservoir before or during site selection. And, for the record, I do not own property north of Clarksville.

Now, about the countywide water district. I recommended such a district over two years ago, because it is the only way the reservoir can be built. Furthermore, I am for the district because I want the state water permit to be in the district's name, having local ownership and local control.

Some say they are against the project because of the proposed tax. I don't like property tax either, but since it is the only way, I say lets go. We property owners must get the reservoir installed and sell water to any city or water district in the county at the same fair price. Yes, it will cost, but didn't the county courthouse cost property owners when it was built?

The Dimple Reservoir is a must for the future of Red River County. According to the latest census figures our population dropped 4.1 percent from 1980 to 1986. Population does not increase without water.

It has been over three years since the proposed Dimple Reservoir was started. It is time we work together in Red River County, whether we live in Avery, Annona, Bagwell, Bogata, Clarksville, Detroit or somewhere in between. We can no longer afford to gripe about Clarksville or the "city" folks gripe about farmers and ranchers. We all have problems and needs. One of those needs for the entire county is water.

So, on September 19, vote for our children and grandchildren, and the future of Red River County. Vote for the Dimple Reservoir. Respectfully yours, Charles L. VanDeaver have a nice weekend...

WATER IS AVAILABLE FOR RED RIVER COUNTY

The City Of Paris has contracted from Pat Mayse Reservoir 58 million gallons of water a day. The City of Paris WITH ALL ITS INDUSTRY uses ONLY 19 million gallons of water a day. 58 million less 19 million leaves 39 million gallons of available water a day.

The Lamar County Water Supply has a contract with City of Paris and is now using about 3 million gallons a day. 39 million gallons less 3 million leaves a surplus of 36 million gallons of available water a day.

The 410 Water Supply Corp. and Red River Co. Water Supply Corp. have contracts with Lamar County Water Supply and deliver water by pipeline from Pat Mayse Reservoir to a great part of Red River Co.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for the surety of a grain warehouse fund to be established by the grain industry for the protection of farmers and depositors of grain in public warehouse facilities."

"The constitutional amendment authorizing agreements between the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation and the Texas Turnpike Authority and the governing bodies of counties with a population of more than 400,000, adjoining counties, and cities and districts located in those counties to aid turnpikes, toll roads, and toll bridges by guaranteeing bonds issued by the Texas Turnpike Authority."

PROPOSITION NO. 6

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to establish three separate development funds. A Texas product development fund could be established to aid in the development and production of new or improved products in the state. The amendment would authorize the issuance of up to $15 million of general obligation bonds to provide initial funding for the program. A Texas small business incubator fund could be established to foster and stimulate the development of small businesses in the state. Small businesses operating under the program would be exempt from ad valorem taxation. The amendment would authorize the issuance of up to $10 million in general obligation bonds to provide initial funding for the program. A Texas agricultural fund could be established to promote the production, processing and marketing of agricultural products produced primarily in Texas by small Texas agricultural businesses. The amendment would authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds in the amount of $100 million outstanding at one time to carry out the agricultural fund program. The legislature could require review and approval of the issuance of bonds and the use of bond proceeds.

Such property could be taxed by a county, school district, or municipality if the governing body of the political subdivision took official action to provide for the taxation of the items while they were located in the political subdivision. If the governing body of a political subdivision took official action to tax the items before January 1, 1988, the tax would be effective for the 1988 tax year. Of the $400 million authorized, $200 million would be designated for conservation and development of water resources, $150 million would be designated for water quality enhancement, and $50 million would be designated for flood control. The amendment also authorizes the legislature to provide for review and approval of the issuance of the bonds and the use of the bond proceeds.

Annona Seeking Donations For Vietnam Memorial

The City of Annona has been contacted recently by the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund of Texas. A memorial is being built at the State Fairgrounds to honor all Texas veterans, but most particularly those individuals who served in the Vietnam conflict.

Half of the $2.5 million dollars for the cost of the memorial has been raised, the design is completed, the land on the State Fairgrounds has been donated and the Texas legislature has formally indicated its support of the project.

The people of Annona are being asked to make a contribution in the amount of $1,000, if possible, in honor of Army Sergeant Ernest Ervin English, a member of the community, born June 8, 1944, who lost his life in the service of his country on April 24, 1970. His name will appear on the monument along with the names of his colleagues who also made the supreme sacrifice.

Mr. English was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest English and brother to George, Frank, Billy and Faye.

All contributions will be greatly appreciated and may be sent to: Mayor Carol M. Nally, City of Annona, P.O. Box 100, Annona, TX 75550.

Checks should be made payable to the Vietnam Memorial Fund of Texas. Deadline for receiving donations is September 15.

For any further information, please call 697-3608.

ENTERTAINING IDEAS

Pistachio Wafers—Fun Party Treat
Have a party! Warmer weather brings pleasant evenings—a perfect excuse for an outdoor affair!
Quick to prepare, Pistachio Cheese Wafers are ideal for impromptu nibbling. The dough may be made ahead of time, then sliced and baked when party time rolls around. Serve the delicate, crisp wafers warm or cool and accompany with a favorite beverage, bubbly champagne or sparkling cider.
A big bowl of nuts is always welcome at any kind of party, too. And since pistachios are so fun to crack open and eat, keep the nut bowl filled with this distinctive, tasty nut.
California pistachios are available dyed a fuchsia red or cloaked in their own natural, distinguished beige shells.
A wonderful out-of-hand snack for any time of the day, pistachios from California are also great to use in cooking.

Add to baked goods, sprinkle on desserts or appetizers, toss into salads or incorporate into entrees.
Bright green in color, unique in flavor and stylish to serve, pistachios from California are truly the nut for nut connoisseurs.
PISTACHIO-CHEESE WAFERS
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
Generous dash bottled hot pepper sauce
1/2 cup flour
1/4 teaspoon each baking powder and paprika
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup chopped, shelled natural California pistachios, divided
Beat together cheese, butter and hot pepper sauce. Combine flour, baking powder, paprika and salt. Add to cheese mixture with 2 tablespoons pistachios; knead until well blended. Shape into a log about 7 inches long; roll in remaining pistachios, pressing into dough. Wrap in plastic wrap and refrigerate at least 2 hours. Cut into 1/4-inch slices. Bake at 400°F. about 8 minutes or until edges are slightly browned. Makes about 2-1/2 dozen.

Rebels Drop Season Opener

By Stan Anderson
The Rivercrest Rebels dropped their season opener Friday night against the AAA Prairiland Patriots, 14-0. However, the young team offered a sample of what to expect during the '87 campaign.
This year's version of the fighting Rebs is sporting a new wing-T offense inserted by Reb coach Terry Giddens, during the off season. The new look showed flashes of brilliance early in the contest as the Rebels offensive line tore massive holes in the Patriot defense, allowing the Rivercrest backfield to erupt for 36 yards and two first downs. Before an unsportsmanlike conduct call against the Rebs stymied their first possession of the game.
Following a 22-yard punt by Bradley Woods, the Patriots took over on their own 26-yard line, but the larger Patriot team found the Rebel line tough to cross, despite a definite weight advantage. A quick attacking Rebel defense collared the Pats for three yards in 30 plays.

The Reb offense set up on their own 43-yard line after the Patriot punt. Rivercrest went to work on the Prairiland line as the Reb combo of Lafayette "Scooter" Brown and Geary Savage ripped off seven and six yards respectively before a fumble gave Prairiland the ball at mid-field. The Patriots pushed the ball to Rebel 25 before fumbling the ball back to Rivercrest.
The defenses took over at this point of the game as neither team was able to mount a serious scoring threat until the 6:00 minute mark in the second quarter when the Patriots marched 46 yards in 11 plays to take a 6-0 lead on a 1-yard plunge by Pat quarterback, Martin Babb. The extra point attempt was mishandled and the score stood at Prairiland 6, Rivercrest 0 at the half.

The defensive struggle continued throughout the third quarter as both teams traded punts. The Patriot size advantage began to wear on the smaller Reb team. During the third period, Prairiland gobbled up sizeable chunks of yardage, but were constantly turned back by the defensive charge led by linebacker Sammy Sparger and defensive backs Jimmy Lewis and Donald Combs.
The fourth quarter proved to be Rebs undoing, though, as the Rebels coughed up the ball on their own 19-yard line. The Patriots set up on the Rivercrest 19 and used only two plays as Pat fullback Steven Johnson rambled into the endzone from 10-yards out. Following the TD, the Patriots opted for the two point conversion. The attempt was good, giving Prairiland a 14-0 lead at the 5:00 minute mark in the fourth quarter.
Rivercrest had two more possessions in the contest, but were unable to advance the ball on the Patriots the remainder of the contest, giving the Prairiland Patriots a 14-0 win over Rivercrest.
This week the Rebs host the Farmersville Farmers for their first home game of the '87 season. Farmersville is a AAA school that defeated Rivercrest in last year's outing and should prove to be a worthy test of the young Rebel team. Kick off is set for 8 o'clock at Rebel Stadium.

THE RIVERCREST REBELS Dropped their season opener in spite of valiant efforts. Lafayette

Brown, number 34, carries the ball for some yardage against the Patriots. The Rebels came head
