Wasted Time. It's a subject many people dwell on. It's the subject of lots of poems, lots of songs. "You're afraid it's all been wasted time"...or "there's only so many springs, so many summers".

With the traditional end of summer, Labor Day weekend, behind, even though the weather hasn't changed, the feeling that summer is over and autumn is approaching creates a melancholy feeling.

Wasted time. What is it? Why do we waste so much of it when it is so precious?

According to the puritan, wasted time was any time spent not working or praising God. But there are lots of times that are priceless, yet not "productive".

It isn't wasted time to look for long minutes at a beautiful scene. It isn't wasted time to work hours on a treat or toy for some youngster whose eyes light up at the sight of it.

It isn't wasted time to spend an hour talking to a lonely person, nor taking care of less fortunate people.

What could possibly be wasted about a pleasant hour or two floating on the water or working in a flower bed?

The time spent reading a book that takes ones total attention is certainly not time wasted, nor is time spent watching a television program that does the same thing ill spent.

What is wasted time is watching television because it's "there". Wasted time is working at something that doesn't really need doing simply because of the need to be "busy".

Time is miss used when it is spent doing anything that provides the doer with no satisfaction, the one it is done for with no satisfaction, or doesn't contribute to the betterment, either financially or spiritually, of anyone concerned!

No one enjoys every part of their job, or of housework, or yard work, or the daily "grind". But there should always be the sense of satisfaction of having achieved something, if only the production of a tasty meal for the family or a better tuned car.

It's all too often that we spend an afternoon or evening doing little, feeling bored, and then say "gosh, why didn't we go ride around, or go visit so and so". Instead of wasting that time, think before hand and go do something!

Because it's true, the old platitude that "life's too short to waste" is perfect.

Time spent enjoying anything, working profitably, or helping others is so much more satisfying than "wasted time".

One Dead, One Injured In Fiery Crash

One dead, one injured was the result of a Tuesday afternoon one-vehicle accident on FM194 just outside of Blossom.

According to DPS reports, Gerald Theodore Huffman, age 47, of Paris, was the driver of a 1988 Ford pickup and William Floyd Easter of Reno, age 42, was a passenger.

Reports indicate that the Lamar

County Electric Cooperative vehicle was heading southeast on the road when the right front tire blew out, jerking the vehicle to the right, into the ditch, where it sideswiped two trees, then impacted head-on into another large tree, overturned on its left side and burned.

Pronounced dead at the scene was Easter. Huffman was transferred to a Paris hospital, then Care-Flighted to a Dallas hospital.

Reports indicate that he suffered burns and other injuries.

Blossom Volunteer Firemen and Reno Rescue Workers worked to extinguish the flames and extricate the men from the wreckage.

BLOSSOM VOLUNTEER Firemen and Reno Rescue Workers were at the scene of the fiery crash that claimed the life of William Easter and injured

Theodore Huffman Tuesday afternoon. The truck in which they were traveling near Blossom on FM194 apparently blew a tire, and the vehicle jerked into the ditch, struck trees, overturned and burned. (Staff Photo by Nanalee Nichols)

Combines Are Running In Red River Valley

By Paul D. Payne

The hum of combines harvesting milo, soybeans and corn can be heard from about 10 a.m. until after dark as area farmers take advantage of ideal weather conditions to get the 1989 crop in the storage bins. As a general rule crop yields have been very good and this compensates for a generally poor wheat crop.

Much of 1989 crop is being harvested by custom operators from the midwest or West Texas who specialize in harvesting crops throughout the growing season. Most of these start out with the wheat crop and follow wheat harvest north and then come back for this harvest. These custom operators have big bucks invested in their equipment and the high cost is the main reason more and more producers choose not to do their own harvesting.

This past week I had an opportunity to work with a husband and wife team from Kansas who was harvesting soybeans for Joe Sanders and other farmers in the Direct area. They enjoyed their work and seemed to get a lot of satisfaction from the friendships made with their producers.

Part of the county soybean variety demonstration was harvested last week. Located on the Joe Sanders' farm, the Group III varieties averaged 22.8 bushels while the Group IV varieties averaged 32.3 bushels. One variety, Crawford, was not harvested as it is a late Group IV maturing variety.

Atrazine is no longer cleared for pre-emerge weed control in rangeland or Bermuda pastures and meadows. As this chemical has been pulled from the market, the only pre-emerge herbicide available for use on pastures is Kamex, and it can only be used when establishing a new stand.

A number of inquiries have been received this summer about the control of Dallis grass in pastures and meadows. I know of no safe herbicide. DSMA is not labeled for use in this method. I would also be afraid of poisoning cattle where they grazed the treated forage, as DSMA is an arsenic base spray. Round Up would do an effective job of controlling Dallis grass if applied only to the Dallis and not Bermuda.

CIBA-Geigy has also dropped a number of other chemicals, Igran, Milogard, Acaraben, Sancap and Tenoran. Existing supplies of these products can continue to be used. However, CIBA-Geigy advise users to expeditiously deplete their inventories since withdrawal of current tolerances would make residues on crops treated with these products illegal. Normally, EPA provides a six months notice prior to official withdrawal.

Bogata V.F.W. Has Annual Cook-Out

The Bogata V.F.W. Post 8187 hosted their annual Labor Day cook-out. The public was invited to share the meal of barbeque brisket with beans. The ladies provided vegetables, salads and desserts.

Approximately 100 people were served. After a meal, a 42 tournament was held with J.D. Barnett and Marie Carr winning the first place trophies and Tommie Corbell and Wanza Sheffield winning second place trophies.

It was an enjoyable day for all.

WOW! We finally made it to our first day as Kindergarten-ers. (Staff Photo by Keye Lee)

Emergency Farm Loan Applications Being Accepted

Applications for Emergency farm loans for losses caused by tornadoes, flooding and severe storms which began May 4, 1989 are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration office located in Clarksville, FmHA County Supervisor, Frank B. Stroud, said today.

Red River County is one of 37 in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture, Clayton Yeutter, as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the tornadoes, flooding and severe storms.

Stroud said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80% of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business of $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate is 4.5%.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30% loss of production to be eligible for an FmHA Emergency Loan, Stroud said. Farmers participating in the PIK or Federal Crop Insurance programs will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

Social Security Notes

By Ray Hudson, District Manager
Paris Social Security Office

Social Security number use is widespread.... No Social Security laws are being violated by the increasing number of private concerns who routinely ask people for their Social Security numbers on application forms.

Schools, apartment rentals, credit applications, and even car rental companies no often require that individuals supply a Social Security number before an application will be processed. Because the number for each person is unique, it has become widely used as an individual code in many recordkeeping systems.

Government agencies may require a person's Social Security number only if there is a law or regulation which either orders or authorizes them to do so. Agencies are required to tell the person what that law is when asking for the number, but no law prevents a private organization from using people's Social Security numbers in keeping its records, if the organization gets the numbers from the people themselves.

The Social Security Administration has not encouraged the use of Social Security numbers for purposes other than its own programs. However, we want to make it clear that we will not supply any information about a person which is protected by laws dealing with the confidentiality of Social Security records.

People with questions about Social Security programs should contact their local Social Security office. A representative will be happy to provide the requested information.

Rebels Set To Kick-Off '89 Season

The final tune-up for the '89 football campaign for the Rebels of Rivercrest High School resulted in a 3-0 scrimmage win over Detroit Eagles last week at Johnstown. The effort, which included a 75-yard touchdown by senior split-end Clint Tidwell on a pass from junior quarterback Shane Beers, a swell as a 35-yard touchdown by Beers while playing defensive linebacker, pleased Rebel coach Terry Giddens to a degree. "We looked good, except for the last 10 plays," he added. "The forty-five minute delay due to a back injury to freshman Danny Tabb, threw us off-track. But we have got to maintain our concentration and be able to pick up where we left off, for the same situation might occur during a game that really counts. However, both the offensive and defensive unit really worked well in the first half of the rugged tiff."

The Rebels now focus on arch-rival and traditional season opener, Prairiland, a team whom the Rebels have not beaten in the last five years. The Pats are one of three class 3A foes the Rebels will encounter prior to district play, and are a solid team, according to the evaluation of Giddens. "Their strength is the defensive line, they pose a stiff 6-2 defensive front, making it tough to run against them. Our game plan must include the use of the pass early on, in an attempt to break up the wall, so we can run at them."

The Rebels return 14 lettermen from last year's 4-7, District 17AA runner-up squad. However, many of these will be playing at new positions. Graduation and the lack of overall depth, only 27 players have reported for pre-season, forced the changes. "We have little reserve, especially at the offensive guard, a position critical to the success of the Wing-T scheme we employ, and in the defensive secondary," Giddens observed. Junior Shane Beers, a fullback and linebacker last year, will take over the quarterbacking chores this year. Ronald Simmons, also a junior, will spell Beers at the post, but will be primarily responsible for the defensive secondary coverage. "Simmons is more valuable to the team in this spot, and Beers has been looking good under center," added Giddens. We plan to be able to pass more from the Wing-T this season, and our passing game has been a real surprise thus far.

Others in the backfield will include strongman Marcus Savage, a powerful tailback with breakaway speed, who occasionally will line up at fullback. Seniors Jeremy Abshier and Clint Tidwell will alternate at both the tailback and split-end slot. Tidwell is a real threat at the split-end post because of his burning speed. Abshier is steady, whether he plays offense or defensive secondary.

Opening the path for these will be the interior offensive line. Quick guards will include junior Stacy Horton, and transfer student, James Hampton, also a junior. Strong guard will be bulky Jesse Woods, a junior who anchored the slot last year. Tackles will be senior Chad Ingram and sophomore Russell Ward, while senior Kevin Binion will line up at center. Completing the offensive line will be sophomore Josh Abshier, younger brother of Jeremy, who will also play defensive outside linebacker.

Defensively Binion, Beers and Savage will join sophomore Jo Dellis to bolster the line, which will see most of the starter on offense making the conversion on defense. Woods and Ward will hold down defensive tackle posts, while Josh Abshier and freshman Tony Sanders will play on either end of the line.

The secondary will be completed by transfer student Mark Teel, a senior who will also see action at wingback, and junior David Davidson rounds out the squad.

"We will be forced to play some freshmen, because of our lack of depth," commented Giddens. Presently, the coach does not plan to field a junior varsity unit.

Ragsdill-Gill Exchange Vows

Jenny Lea Ragsdill became the bride of Jeffery Dewayne Gill at 8 p.m. Friday, August 18 in Ann Minga Chapel of White Rock United Methodist Church in Dallas. Rev. Gary Regan officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Lee Ragsdill of Allen.

The groom is the son of Clyde Gill of Ennis and Mickey Stinson of Dallas.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Bianci gown designed with beaded satin applique bodice and silk organza skirt with chapel length train. She wore a veil with beaded pearl headpiece and carried a cascade of gardenias and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Sherry Boyle of Flower Mound. She wore a black and white tea-length dress and carried a cascade of gardenias. Johnny Archer of Dallas served as best man. Jason Stinson, brother of the groom, served as usher. The candlelight service was decorated with four candelabras and white gladiolus altar arrangement. Soloist was Terri Overton, aunt of the groom, from Mesquite.

The bride and groom's selections were "Because", "I Love You Truly", and "The Twelfth of Never".

The reception was held in the church parlor. The bride's cake was three-tiered white cake with strawberry filling decorated with white roses. The groom's cake was chocolate with white chocolate roses on top. Members of the houseparty included Bridgett Bell, Christi Cicero, Melissa Crook, Jackie Moore, Cheryl Kolstad and Sharon Cocoran.

Jenny Lea's grandparents were the late R.T. Pick and Tina Anderson of Deport and the late Joe and Vera Ragsdill of Bogata.

Luther and Velma Floyd of Dallas were honorary grandparents in the wedding.

Local relatives attending were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson, Reva Stout,
