CORNER DRUG STORE

As to Parcels Post Business

Contributed by Postmaster Dean to give the public an idea of the magnitude of the postal business.

There are 60,000 postoffices and postmasters in the United States. There are 42,000 rural carriers, covering 1,060,000 miles.

There are 12,000 star route carriers, covering 153,000 miles.

The above carriers serve 20,000,000 people. In all the departments there are over 200,000 employees.

Last year's business amounted to approximately $300,000,000.

There were over 12,000,000 pieces of mail sent to the dead letter office on account of improperly addressed letters and packages. 70,233 of them contained money, so anyone can see it is not safe to send money in an ordinary letter.

I now call your attention to the parcels post department of the dead letter office containing everything from Bibles to bassoons. Thus one passes a mountain of dry goods then runs into a pile of castings that would load a train on the W. V. R. R. Turning from these you run into a collection of toys that one would take for the warehouse of Santa Claus where he is storing his stock for Xmas. Oh! if Solomon and Brigham Young could have had such an assortment to have selected from they would have had more peaceful hours. Next you run into an assortment of handkerchiefs that would make the most pessimistic hay fever patient's heart glad. Further on you run into several hundred pieces of airships that have gone astray and those who ordered them have lost their religion cursing postmasters for not giving them out before they arrived. Next you run into a big pile of speedometers and hundreds of other pieces of auto furnishings that have been called for at offices from which they were ordered 9999 times and the postmaster accused of holding them back for pure meanness. We now come to an assortment of switches that would equal the crop of whiskers raised in Kansas by the Populists during the Bryan campaign in 1896.

Interest on School Lands Due GENERAL LAND OFFICE

Austin Texas, June 25, 1915

Editor Free Press:

Permit me, through your columns, to advise those of your readers who have not paid their last years interest due on their school land that it will be necessary for them to pay by about the middle of August if they desire to prevent a forfeiture of their land. This is necessary on account of the importance of getting the money into the State's Treasury before the close of the present school year on August 31st in order to help prevent a deficit in the school fund apportionment. No one should wait for a personal notice before sending in his payment.

Yours truly,

J. T. Robinson,
Commissioner.

Storm Does Considerable Damage

That the storm of last week did several thousand dollars worth of damage is now generally conceded. Probably the heaviest losses will fall upon the farmers, many of whom had their growing crops destroyed. The most extensive crop damage appears to have been in a strip between Haskell and Weinert, in many places the hail literally stripping cotton and corn, and in places growing cotton was beaten into the ground. It is not believed that the damage to grain was as extensive as was at first believed. This is doubtless due to the fact that most of the grain had been cut and was in the shock. However, in many instances the shocks were torn down and widely scattered.

In the city much minor damage occurred to the residences and out-buildings, and many windmills were demolished. The damage to the residences consisted mainly in broken windows and wrecked flues and chimneys. At the home of K. D. Simmons the windmill was blown down and fell squarely across the door of the storm house. But there was no one in the dug-out at the time. There were two gins in town that were badly damaged, and a third one partially unrooted. At the Free Press office a portion of the roof was blown off, and the force at work at the time did not feel exactly as comfortable as they might have in a dug-out.

Possible the heaviest losers in the city of Haskell were the Haskell Ice and Light Company and the Haskell Telephone Company, as most of the telephone wires in town were either blown or damaged. The local service was badly crippled while the long-distance connection was almost wholly cut off. The Western Union Telegraph Company's wires were also down for a time. Thus Haskell was for a while practically isolated in the matter of communication with the outside world.

At Weinert considerable damage was done to the gins and several small houses were blown down, and one store house was damaged. Two box cars were blown from the siding at Weinert onto the main line and a 16-year-old boy, who was working on the section boarded the runaway cars as they were passing and brought them to a stop two miles down the track.

At many places over the county farm buildings were considerably torn up, while many sections report no damage at all. At the Nolen Ranch three miles east of Weinert, three barns and two houses were demolished. The residence on the farm of Uncle John Hallmark was also destroyed.

The estimates of Haskell's County's damage has been placed at different figures by different parties, and it is really difficult to arrive at a conservative estimate at this time, as the extent of the crop damage has not been wholly determined. We are glad to note that many of the farmers losing their crops carried storm insurance, and were at least partially remunerated for their losses.

In town everything has about gotten down to normal again, and most of the damage to the

1776 July Fourth 1915 LIBERTY

ONE Hundred and thirty-nine years ago on the Fourth of July the DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE was signed by the members of Congress of the United Colonies of England. It was drawn up by five men appointed by Congress, the leading member of the committee was Thomas Jefferson, then a mere youth of Virginia. After the signing by the members of Congress it was proclaimed to an expectant people by the triumphant peals of the LIBERTY BELL

You liberty loving men of America—are you fair to your bodies? Give them comfort and freedom. Dress them in a Palm Beach Suit. We have them here, the genuine Palm Beach, too. Shirts, underwear, socks, shoes and in fact everything to keep you cool and give your bodies freedom.

Please sir, feel at liberty to come here any time and look through our store and buy or not buy.

We liberty loving Americans are going to close our store the entire day of July the 5th, to celebrate that memorable day and take for ourselves a day of liberty and freedom.

A reproduction of a steel engraving of the Declaration of Independence will be in our main show window July fourth.

• Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Sustains Broken Ankle

On Thursday afternoon of last week Mrs. Jas. Goodwin happened to a painful accident, in which one ankle was fractured. The accident occurred at the farm home of Mr. Mrs. Goodwin, within a few miles of town. We understand that Mrs. Goodwin was engaged in milking at the time she was hurt and that in some manner she turned her foot breaking the ankle bone.

Meat From Sorghums.

Until quite recently the meat supply of the country was dependent very largely upon the production of corn. If there was a large corn crop meat was cheap, but if the corn crop was short that meant sacrifice in feeders and demoralization of the cattle industry.

With the silo conditions will likely change. The silo makes one acre far more efficient in feeding cattle than ever before and it reduces the number of acres needed for pasture. Furthermore, farmers of the Southwest have learned that the grain sorghums are more reliable than corn in localities where rainfall is rather uncertain. Kafir, milo, feterita and sweet sorghum yield more than corn in many localities and endure drouth better, consequently they save the live stock in seasons of extreme drouth.

The possibilities for feeding cattle, sheep and hogs in the Southwest are just being realized. Those who produce the grain sorghums are leading the way. And this may mean that Texas and other states of the Southwest will make a new record on meat production in the future.—Farm and Ranch.

HASKELL, TEXAS, July 3, 1915.

Again—Cut the weeds.

Let us continue to boost for Haskell and Haskell County.

Many improvements are apparent in Haskell these days.

"A cogate on the square Monday evening." Reads something like old times, doesn't it?

Many weeds have gone down before scythe and hoe, but many yet remain. Keep cutting weeds is the word.

Cut the weeds and swat the fly. The dividends thereof will be good health and a prettier town this summer and fall.

Another chapter was Saturday night added to the killing records of the city of Fort Worth. This time the victim was the Captain of Police of the North Side.

While some of the splendid crops in this county suffered by reason of last week's storm, yet there is a splendid outlook for bumper crops. So let us be not discouraged.

The Anniversary edition of the Waco Semi-Weekly News reached our desk in the form of sixty well gotten up, readable pages.
It was a great newspaper. The Tribune always is good.

It now looks from here as though the pool hall prohibition law may be knocked out. However, there appears to be a conflict between the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the State in regard to the law.

We note in the Stamford Leader where Editor English states that he regretted that Editor Lowry, of Honey Grove, was at the State meeting of the editors, recently held at Corpus Christi.
However, reading farther into the article, we see he says that Mr. Lowry was elected poet of the Association in his absence. So, we take it, the Linotype ran out of "Nots" just before reaching that paragraph.

A move has been set in motion for the organization of a band for Haskell. A good band is an asset to any town, and the prospects are favorable for the early organization here with from eighteen to twenty pieces to begin with.

We are striving to improve the Free Press, and believe we are doing so, in the matter of news.
But the paper would be a far better criterion of the country's prosperity if it carried a larger volume of home advertising. We commend this thought to your consideration, Mr. Business Man.

The noted Leo Frank case at last is settled; at least, for the time being. Former Governor Slaton of Georgia, just before retiring from office, commuted the convicted Atlanta man's death sentence to life imprisonment. Gov. Slaton was very severely criticised for his action by many, but he says that he acted in accordance with the dictates of his conscience, and could not have done otherwise.
Among other things, the Governor's statement contained the following paragraph: "Honest people may disagree with me, an honest man, but we realize that we must be measured by our conscience. Two thousand years ago another governor washed his hands of a case and turned over a Jew to a mob. For two thousand years that governor's name has been accursed. If today another Jew were lying in his grave because I had failed to do my duty I would all through life find his blood on my hands and would consider myself an assassin through cowardice."

PERSONAL LIBERTY

Sherman Democrat: In Dallas nine negroes were treated at the Emergency Hospital for wounds received while celebrating June 19, Emancipation Day.
The colored people of Sherman enjoyed the day quietly with a picnic at Woodlake, in conjunction with their colored fellow-citizens of Denison, and not even the presence of peace officers was needed. Things surely have changed in this section for the negro since the banishment of the saloon, and the change has been for the better.

Yes, but are not your colored citizens deprived of their personal liberty? Have they not a heaven-born right to tank up on rot-neck whisky, grow obstreper-ous and run amuck with their trusty razors? Of course your colored people, being oppressed by prohibition, may have enjoyed their holiday in a quiet, temperate and decent manner. But think how greater was the advantage owned by their Dallas contemporaries, the nine distinguished fellow-citizens who had access to liberty and who got themselves slashed, hacked, stuck, shot and bludgeoned by their conferees!—State Press, Dallas News.

Two PURE Cinnamons— One strong, the other weak— Why?

Cinnamon is the bark of a tree.
It gets its flavor from a volatile oil in the bark—the more of this oil the better and stronger the flavor.

The amount of oil varies according to the age of the tree, the soil, climate and the cultivation of the tree itself. Later, the handling of the bark must be such as to preserve the oil from evaporation, and finally the grinding must be so done that loss of oil will not occur during that process.

Thus you see that from the very start it is much more than purity that must be preserved for you—it is flavor and strength which can be lacking even in perfectly pure Cinnamon.

White Swan Cinnamon is made of high-grade, relatively high-piced and most carefully selected bark from young trees. In every step of handling and manufacture the greatest care is devoted to keeping the strength and flavor (the oil) intact. It is packed with the same care. We recommend it and guarantee its flavoring strength to be at least four times that of ordinary "pure cinnamon."

Ask your grocer—he can tell you what White Swan means to quality.

Ought to Paint

I ought to have painted last year, but I hated to pay $2 a gallon.

I've got to paint this year; it'll take a little more paint; I suppose 1 gallon in 10; and a little more work, I suppose 1 day in 10.

My job would have cost last year about $50; it is going to cost this year $55.

$5 gone. I suppose it'll be the same again, if I wait again.

What if paint goes down to $.75 a gallon? $2.50 on the job!
I shan't wait; what a fool I was!

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst.

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years.
It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

At the Photoplay Airdome Manager Nolen has had some bad weather to go against since last report, but the shows at the Airdome have been good, nevertheless. The storm of last week also considerably damaged the playhouse, but everything was soon back in shape and running smoothly. There have been highly pleased audiences to witness the productions of this week, and especially does this apply to Wednesday night, when the "Who Pays?" picture drama was presented. This series seems to get better and better all the time, and has made a pronounced hit with local theatre-goers. To any one who has seen each of the "Who Pays?" series it would seem hard to conceive that the pictures could get any better, but it seems to be the unanimous verdict each Wednesday night that the series grows better and better each time.

The firm of Sanders & Wilson has placed an order with the Job Department of the Free Press for a large number of folders, to be mailed out over the country generally. The booklet is well gotten up and sets forth many interesting facts in regard to the Haskell country, in a manner that we believe will result in much good to the town and county from a standpoint of advertising.

Traveling Man's Experience
"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from four a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I a double dose according to directions, and went to sleep after the second dose. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.

A Good Peach Crop
From reports coming from all portions of the county, we judge that the 1915 peach crop is going to be the heaviest in years. The early crop is selling on the streets now every day and at a fair price. Peaches always sell, especially when the canning season is in full blast. The present supply of peaches are rather small, and some say they are not so sweet as the later crop will be, but with all the defects of the present crop we are in position to appreciate it. —Foard County News

Calomel Dynamites a Sluggish Liver

Crashes into sour bile, making you sick and you lose a day's work Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a 50c bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

Rutledge Visits Knox City

Chas. E. Rutledge, Secretary of the Haskell County Home Circle and Accident Association, of Haskell was in Knox City and was a pleasant caller at this office. Mr. Rutledge says he added 27 new Knox City names to their association last week and a total of 42 from Knox City and O'Brien. This is a home institution and is receiving the support of the home people. They write a good policy at a cheap rate. Mr. Rutledge says that crop prospects are the best he has ever seen and that he is a booster for West Texas and Knox and Haskell counties in particular.—Knox City Journal.

Bilious Attacks

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter Obtainable everywhere

Sam Craft painfully injured

On last Friday evening Mr. Sam Craft, of this city, received quite a painful and what were at first thought to be serious injuries. Mr. Craft was coming into the city and was riding his motorcycle. When he reached the Lamm place, about a mile or so from town, his machine struck some obstruction in the road which it is believed was blown there by the storm of the previous day. The machine was badly wrecked, and Mr. Craft sustained a number of painful bruises and lacerations. After the accident he was brought to the city and Dr. Jas. A. Odom was called and rendered first aid assistance.

When Mr. Craft reached town he was quite weak from the loss of blood, and it was at first thought he was seriously injured. He is still confined to his bed at this writing, but it is believed that he will soon be up and about again.

Bad Accident Narrowly Averted

Last Thursday afternoon when the storm came up there was a crowd of girls and young ladies out on a short distance from town, picnicing. When the bad looking cloud came up they decided to start for home, and started walking in on the railroad track. During the heavy wind, a box car in the railroad yards got loose and started on a mad rush down the track towards McConnell. The young picnics narrowly missed being struck by the car. The sand was so dense and the noise so great from the wind that they failed to see the car that was bearing down upon them until it was within a few feet of them, and when they stepped to one side of the track the car rushed by.

The car that got loose here was not stopped until it reached McConnell, being propelled by the wind from here there. It is said that it was making record time, too.

LIV-VER-LAX

All the Effectiveness, Not the Effect, of Calomel.

LIV-VER-LAX is one of the most important medical discoveries of recent years. For a long time medical experts, realizing the harmful effects of calomel, have been striving to find a liver cleanser that would be just as effective as calomel, and yet be absolutely harmless in its action. Recently this remedy was actually put forth by L. K. Grigsby, in his LIV-VER-LAX.

LIV-VER-LAX is a harmless vegetable compound, designed solely for the treatment of liver complaints. The immediate favor it has met with in thousands of homes is proof positive of its real value.

If you feel worn out, tongue coated and skin sallow, don't delay until it becomes dangerous, nip the trouble in the bud with LIV-VER-LAX. Insist on the genuine, bearing the signature and likewise of L. K. Grigsby, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. For sale by Corne Drug Store.

WHEN PRESIDENT WILSON pressed the button to open the Panama-Pacific Exposition, the electric impulse that was flashed across the Continent started a great Busch-Sulzer-Diesel Engine in the Palace of Machinery. Texaco Urso Oil is the only lubricant that has ever been used on this splendid machine.

Knowing that this engine would attract great attention, the builders took particular pains to secure the best possible accessories for the production of maximum efficiency. Their choice of

was made after numerous tests.

Though the Diesel Engine is a new prime mover, it has received so much attention and study from the Lubricating Engineers of the Texas Company that we are able to lubricate it efficiently and economically, and we hold the leadership in this particular class of lubrication.

This is a fair example of Texaco Service, the service which means that we can give you an oil exactly suited to any condition of speed, heat, or pressure, for steam engines, gas engines, turbines, ice machines—anywhere a piston moves or a wheel revolves.

We invite you to get in communication with our nearest office and let one of our representatives show you the Red-Star-Green-T products of quality.

A Coyote on the Square

We have it, upon what we consider reputable authority, that a full-grown coyote made its appearance on Haskell's public square Monday evening, about dark. The animal was seen by many, and some made a fruitless attempt to capture it, but it proved too fleet of foot to submit to capture. It is the theory that the animal was driven in to town in an endeavor to locate some eatables, as it appeared to be in a half-starved state.

I will have some buyers here from Kansas in a short time, and if you want me to show them your land, list it with me at once. 26tf
