Sometime in the past I've written a column expressing my part amusement-part disgust over some of the television commercials that pop up on the screen.

We've all noticed the toothpaste commercial which turns users into absolutely gorgeous, irresistible to the opposite gender creations.

It's amazing to me that a certain brand of shampoo immediately adds three or four inches of length to a head of hair, gives it a $100 styling job and even manages to correct crooked teeth on the model!

There are some new ones to this list that have sprung up recently.

One of (strictly my opinion, you understand) the stupidest commercials I have seen lately begins: "The weekend's RUINED". It continues as this distraught lady goes on that the house is full of company and there are SPOTS on her dishes left by the dishwashing liquid she uses.

Oh Lands! SPOTS...on the dishes. Oh heavens, what a problem. I don't know about you, gentle reader, but personally I'd love to have nothing more important to worry about than spots on my dishes.

Now if this lady had a toilet that was stopped up and a house-full of company I could sympathize. If they had shut off the electricity, or perhaps an invasion of flies had descended on the house, now those would be problems to cope with while entertaining guests. But spots on the dishes? To borrow a phrase "Get Real, People".

Some sort of sinus medicine shows this girl struggling with exhaustion and drowsiness because she didn't take their product, but some other type. Standing at the altar, dressed in her wedding gown, she is yawning. Oh sure! I beg to theorize that there isn't a bride alive who isn't so nervous and jumpy at her big church wedding that tension more than overcomes the effects of a sinus medication!

I don't mind those commercials that are deliberately exaggerated. Those are frequently clever and funny.

Sometimes I do have a little bit of a problem with appliances that smiles or grimace.

Of course, I personally think that the most tasteless, tacky commercial on television right now has one star...and roll of toilet paper. A close up shot of it, as the "days roll by". Give us a break folks...that commercial is tacky!

Oh well, the New York ad campaign executives don't ask me (I don't think they ask anyone ordinary) what they want to do.

Orientation Planned For 8th Graders At Rivercrest

An orientation and planning night for parents of all prospective high school students is set for Thursday, February 8 at 7 p.m. in the Rivercrest High School cafeteria.

All eighth graders and their parents are urged to attend. This meeting is held for the extreme importance of choosing high school subjects. Graduation requirements will be covered during the meeting. Legislation has changed many methods of pre-registering, in that what is chosen at the beginning of a student's high school career.

The General Academic Seal showing the completion of required subject; the other is an Advanced Academic Seal, showing more advanced subjects being completed. These are two types of seals that are available and that will be placed on your child or children's transcript at high school graduation. Your child, with your approval, must choose either the General Academic or the Advanced Academic route at the freshman level, in order to complete required subjects.

If you have any questions, please notify Dr. James W. Smith, Principal at Rivercrest, or Kay Kennedy, counselor.

CASI Is Coming April 14!

CASI is coming April 14? So What? So Who? So Why?

CASI stands for Chili Appreciation Society International, Inc.

And, due to the efforts of Sammy Wilkerson of Bogata and Don Denison of Deport, there will be an official CASI sanctioned chili cookoff at Deport on April 14.

The CASI cooks work towards cooking 40 times during a year so that they can participate in the World Championship (and world famous) cookoff at Terlingua each year. But most important, all these cookoffs are aimed at raising money for charity. The funds from this event in Deport will go to various service organizations.

Right now, organizers of the event expect about 60 teams, from Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma to participate in this cookoff. The lady who judged at the World Championships last year will be the judge at this cookoff, which has been dubbed the "Prairland Chili Cookoff".

There will be a local cookoff open to anyone from anywhere, as well as the "professional" cooks competition. The night before there will be a big fund raiser stew stupper, which volunteers from the communities will help with. The next morning the cooks will have a free breakfast.

There will be a "people's choice" award, where visitors can purchase a tasting cup and try various chilis from the cooks. The most popular of those will receive the people's choice award.

The Deport Methodist Women will have food for sale at the lunch hour that Saturday, plus there will be arts and crafts booths.

Over the next few weeks this paper will be running more about who this interesting society was formed, and about some of their rules.

Anyone who wants more information, who would like to place an entry in the local division, who would like to have a booth or sell something or, perhaps the most important of all would like to volunteer to help with this event should contact Sammy Wilkerson at 632-5182 or Don Denison at 652-2425.

It's a great opportunity to have fun, raise money for your own organization, and help the community.

ONE HUNDRED eighteen justices of the peace from Region 6 attended a 20-hour seminar Nov. 28-Dec. 1 in Tyler conducted by the Texas Justice Court Training Center headquartered in San Marcos. Topics covered were a review on new laws recently passed by the 71st Legislature, civil procedure, code of judicial conduct, landlord/tenant law, bonds, appeals, auditing procedures, administrative hearings and distress warrants. Attending were, left to right: J.B. Holley, Red River County, Pct. 1; Eva Rae Laing, Titus County, Pct. 1; James Davis, Red River County, Pct. 4; Kay McNutt, Titus County, Pct. 2; J.C. Watson, Red River County, Pct. 2; and Paul Lovier, Franklin County, Pct. 1.

Bogata Junior High Girls Play Ball

The Bogata Junior High Rebellettes played Blossom last Monday night at Bogata. They knew this was a game they had to win to stay in the zone tie for wins.

In the first quarter it was a close game with Blossom leading 9-8. Second quarter was a tough go to keep up with Blossom, because the Rebellettes could not make their free throws at the end of the period they trailed 18-15.

After talking at halftime, they struggled even more by only scoring one point to an unanswered 5 of Blossom. The Rebellettes worked hard in the last quarter to put the pressure on Blossom, as they scored 11 points to their three and with :05 seconds left on the clock, Misty Taylor made two points and tied the ballgame for an overtime period.

The Rebellettes went on to win, 32-31. High scorer for the game was Misty Taylor and Keitha Gillis with nine points each, Ashley Ross with eight, Konya Nickerson with three, Teri Speir with two points and Jorene Simpson with one point.

The girls traveled for their last basketball game of the year to Detroit on February 5. Detroit Eaglettes took an early lead in the first quarter, 8-4. The Eaglettes maintained the lead throughout the second quarter and at halftime, led the Rebellettes 12-6.

After a long talk with their Coach, Ronnie Ross, they hoped to come back. The Eaglettes changed their minds and the Rebellettes just couldn't make the basketball go through the basket. At the end of the third quarter, they trailed by 7 with the score 28-15, Detroit.

Going into the final period, the Rebellettes started strong and held

Detroit to only six points. However, it was not enough to get them within winning range and Detroit won by a score of 38-29. High scorer was Misty Taylor with 12, Ashley Ross, Tina Smith, Konya Nickerson, Jorene Simpson all with four points each and Keitha Gillis with two points.

Junior High Rebels Play Ball

Blossom visited Bogata Gym this past Monday night to play basketball against the Junior High Rebels.

With the Rebels taking the lead all the way, first quarter score was 13-8. The second quarter was evenly matched as Blossom scored nine points to the Rebels eight, leaving the halftime score at 21-17, Rebels.

The third quarter started a little differently, when Blossom held the Rebels to only six points. Blossom came within two points at the end of the quarter, with the score 27-25, Rebels.

When the fourth quarter action took up, it was the Rebels all the way, as they held Blossom to only three points in the fourth quarter, leaving the Rebels on top 43-27.

Monday, February 5, the Rebels traveled to Detroit to challenge the Eaglettes to end their season. The Eagettes took the lead with a score of 16-10.

When the Rebels came onto the court in the second quarter, they began to warm up and play basketball, holding the Eaglettes to an unanswered 11 points.

The halftime score was Rebels 25-Detroit 22.

Resuming play in the third period was evenly matched for the Rebels being so large, they had to be careful not to foul the Eaglettes. Though they were extremely shorter in size, the Eaglettes were fast as lightning and the score at the end of the third quarter was 34-29, Rebels.

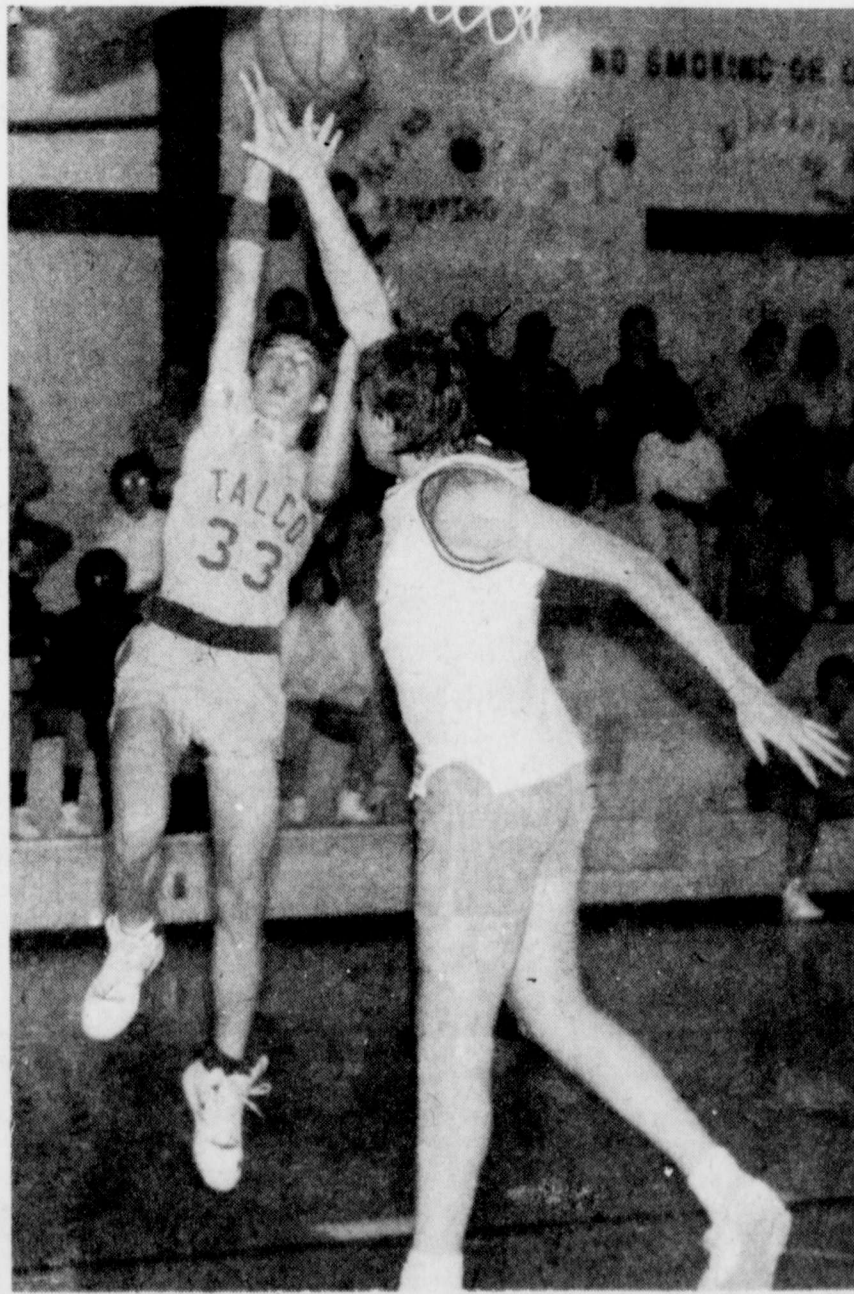

Final period of play was hard fought by the Eaglettes to try to stay within range of the Rebels. Height was the advantage for the Rebels and they defeated the Eaglettes by a score of 48-36.

Roundball Roundup

Rebels, Rebelettes Enjoy One Win, Suffer One Loss

The Rebelettes have made the final turn and headed for home as they go into the last week of their season. The Rebels have two weeks left of regular play and good possibility of play-off action. Both teams enjoyed a win and suffered a loss last week.

The Rebels avenged an earlier season loss to Leonard with a rugged 55-49 victory. The Rebels called on junior guard, Galen Logan, to key the win. Logan hit a 3-pointer at the third quarter buzzer, to give his team a 38-31 lead. That play worked so well that Logan repeated it twice in the first minute of the fourth period to make the score 44-33. Logan continued his torrid streak to score the first 10 points of the stanza, advancing his team's lead to 48-36. Logan led the Rebel scorers with 15 points. Good ball movement and accuracy from a charity stripe allowed the Rebels to hold on for the win. Jason Pogue finished the game with 12 points, while Kevin House, Donald Combs and Jeremy Abshier had 8 apiece.

On Friday night, the Rebels faced a rejuvenated Cooper Bulldog team, who provided the most intense competition for the season. It was a heart-breaking loss for the men from Johtown, as Cooper defeated them 36-35, in a game which saw the air taken out of the ball in a slowdown affair.

The Rebel loss pushed them into a tie for second place with Wolfe City, each having three losses, one game behind Chisum. The Rebels are in great position for the stretch run, since they face both teams at Rivercrest.

The Cooper game was a see-saw battle, with neither squad attaining more than a 3-point lead. Ronald Simmons scored four first quarter points to bring the Rebels within 3. The Rebels managed to knot the halftime score at 18 all, as all six Rebel players who saw action managed to score in the first half. After Bam Morris, who led Cooper with 13 points, opened the third quarter, Rebel Kevin House repeated his opening game shot, a lean-in jumper from the free throw line. House finished with 8 points, one behind leader Donald Combs, who gave the Rebs a slim lead with a tip-in at 6:30 of the third. The 'Dogs Morris and Byron Bonds reacted for a 25-22 lead, but Rebel senior Jeremy Abshier, who would play a crucial role into the final seconds, scored the next six points to give the Rebs a 28-25 lead.

In the fourth quarter, Combs again tied the score at 33 all with 4:09 to play. After the Rebels stalled for over a minute, House scored what would prove to be the final Rebel points to post a 25-23 lead. But Cooper's Stacy Miller hit a pair of free throws, and after turnovers by both units, Morris hit the front end of a one-and-one with 1:26 to provide the point that would be the margin of victory.

Jason Pogue, who also had five blocked shots in the game, rebounded the second foul shot, Abshier drove to the basket but was hammered by Bonds, creating a two-shot free throw opportunity. Calmly, the Rebel arched the ball toward the hoop, only to see it devilishly rim out. After a time-out, Abshier again stepped to the foul line, eyed the basket, and lofted the orb, which plinked off the front of the iron, aborting any Rebel opportunity for victory.

The Rebelettes encountered tenth ranked Leonard, seeking the win which would enhance their playoff hopes. But it was not to be as the Rebelettes could not hit early, allowing the Tigerettes to build a 15-0 lead in the first six minutes. That proved to be the margin of victory as Leonard defeated the Rebelettes 62-47. The loss virtually ended aspirations of advancement to post-season play, since it was the feds third district loss.

The Rebelettes cut into the lead in the second quarter as Krista Weatherall found the shooting touch. The feisty sophomore finished with 20 points. Jerilyn Russell grabbed five defensive boards in that contest, while Kristi Brooks and D'Ann Stephenson played good defense against the Leonard sparkplug, Jill Lewis, who led with 32 points in spite of their efforts.

Kristie Stansell and Amy Gladden netted 11 points each, but the Rebelettes poor field goal percentage made the difference.

But the Rebelettes coasted to a 63-39 victory on Friday night at Cooper. The Rebelettes decided quickness and height advantage was far superior to Cooper. All 41 first-half Rebelette points came from within 8 feet of the hoop. Gladden led the Rebelette attack with 19 points, while Stansell hit for 11, 10 in the first half.

Senior Kristie Brooks, who continues to show hustle in each game found herself in the right place for numerous tip-ins, and ended with 15 points. Sophomore Tiffany Parish showed a picturesque jump shot, scored six of her eight points in the first quarter.

Jim Gifford Joins Peoples National Bank

Jim L. Gifford, Paris banker, will join the staff at Peoples National Bank in the near future, according to Terry L. Christian, president of Peoples.

Gifford will be vice-president and manager of the new banking facility being constructed. He will be at the downtown facility until the new building and drive-in are completed.

Gifford has eight years banking and loan experience in Paris. He was with Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. in real estate before joining a local bank eight years ago. He is a member of the Calvary United Methodist Church, a native of the Deport area and is a graduate of Deport Schools and Paris Junior College.

He has a bachelor of arts and a masters degree in education from ETSU and a doctorate in education from Oklahoma State University. He has one daughter, Amy, who is attending Tyler Junior College.

Leah Bull Is Photography Finalist

Leah Bull, sophomore at Paris Junior College, is a finalist in the 10th annual college photography contest sponsored by Photographer's Forum magazine.

Bull's color photo of a rainbow was one of more than 24,400 photographic entries from college photographers throughout the United States and Canada. The first through fourth place winners will be announced February 18.

Nell Campbell, Photographer's Forum photo editor, selected Ms. Bull's photograph as one of the top 7% of the contest's entries. Judges of the winning entries are: Charles Potter, instructor of photography, Art Center, College of Design; Rob Winner, instructor of photography, Brooks Institute of Photography; and Wanda Hammerbach, fine arts photographer.

The finalists' photographs will be published in the Best of College Photography Annual: 1990, according to Glen R. Serbin, publisher.

Bull, who is majoring in life and earth science education, plans on attending East Texas State University in Commerce this summer upon graduating from Paris Junior College. She is the daughter of Robert and Jan Lewis of Bogata.

Jennifer Glass Honored With Shower

Miss Jennifer Glass, bride-elect of Chad Barnes, was honored with a lingerie and rice bag shower at the home of Mrs. Justin Strawn on Tuesday evening, January 30. Guests registered in the honoree's wedding book. The registry table featured a miniature bride and groom and red wedding hearts tied with streamers. Miss Glass opened an array of lovely gifts. The guests then enjoyed a light supper of hors d'oeuvres, dips, chips, petit fours, decorated cake and sherbet punch. Centering the refreshment table was an arrangement of red roses and white dahlias flanked with red tapered candles. An enjoyable time was had as everyone helped with making the rice bags in the bride's chosen colors of red and white. Special guests included the honoree's mother, Mrs. C.D. Glass and grandmother, Mrs. Claude Lewis. Hostesses were Jane Strawn, Carolyn Strawn and Sharon Strawn.

First Baptist WMA Meets

The WMA of the First Baptist Church of Talco met in the home of Mrs. Nancy Keck in Mt. Pleasant on February 6 for their regular monthly meeting. Jo Coil, president, presided during the meeting. Prayer requests were made and Joyce Alexander voiced the prayer. Eula Mae Hall brought the devotional from Jeremiah 45:5. Her subject was "What Do You Want and What Will You Get" in everyday life for Christ. Minutes and a card of thanks were read. Lola House will bring the devotion for the March meeting with Jo Coil as hostess. Geneva Kelso said the blessing before the covered dish supper. Dismissal prayer was given by Vivian Westbrook.

Glass-Barnes Exchange Vows

Jennifer Kay Glass of Bogata and Chad Lee Barnes of Paris were united in marriage Saturday, February 3 at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Bogata. The Rev. Bryan Baggett officiated. The bride is the daughter of C.D. and Jane Glass of Bogata, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lewis of Detroit. The bridegroom is the son of Ardie Barnes and Glenda Dotson, both of Paris, also the grandson of Mrs. C.G. Young of Paris. The grandfather of the bride, Claude Lewis, read I Corinthians 13, as requested by the couple.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. For her wedding, she chose a satin gown trimmed in Chantilly lace, fashioned with a fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline outlined in lace cut-outs jeweled with pearls and sequins. The dropped waist formed a point in the front and back featured wire-edged ruffles and a satin bow on each side above the waist. Rows of wired ruffles formed the tops of the long sleeves which were appliqued with lace motifs and adorned with satin bows and wired ruffles extending to form a cathedral-length train. The bride's headpiece was covered in English net wired ruffles and beaded flowers and leaves and held her waist-length veiling.

She carried a cascading bouquet of red and white satin roses intertwined with English ivy and gypsophelia, made atop her mother's Bible. She also carried a white lace handkerchief belonging to her great-grandmother. She wore her mother's blue wedding garter.

Dusty Pettiet of Abernathy was matron of honor and Deanna Damron of Sulphur Springs was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Janelle Dillon, cousin of the bride from Marshall and Misty Wilkerson of Lufkin. The attendants dresses were red satin with red lace overlay, each dress was accented with bows of white ribbon and red silk roses. They each wore a hairpiece of white lace, ribbon and roses. The attendants carried a white rose accented with red hearts and lace and bows. Erica Barnes, niece of the groom, was flower girl, and she wore a white satin dress with white lace overlay and carried a white basket decorated with red lace and bows. Joshua Barnes of Paris was ringbearer. He wore a white tux accented with red and carried a white satin pillow with lace overlay and accented with red roses and ribbons, pillow was heart-shaped and made by the grandmother of the bride. Aaron Barnes, nephew of the groom and Benjamin Glass, brother of the bride, were candlelighters. Neil Barnes, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsman were Ardie Barnes, father of the bridegroom, and John Janes, both of Paris and Blaine Jones of Boxelder. Ushers were Wayne Dillon, cousin of the bride and Benjamin Glass, brother of the bride. Mrs. Kay Oney, aunt of the bride, presided at the register.

The altar was centered with a brass heart-shaped archway intertwined with grapeleaf ivy and white satin miniature roses. Red satin bows, white lace and white doves completed the design. The archway was flanked by two brass spiral candelabras decorated with grapeleaf ivy and white satin miniature roses. Behind the archway were two 15-branched brass candelabras decorated with massive arrangements of white gladiolus and white satin roses. Completing the scene were two red satin covered hearts, with arrangements of white satin roses, baby's breath and white doves. Large silk ferns adorned the altar.

The pews were marked with brass hurricane lamps decorated with red satin hearts covered with arrangements of white satin roses and silk leather leaf.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the fellowship area of the church. The bride's table had a white lace tablecloth accented with red hearts and bows at the corners, an arrangement of satin red roses on one end of the table and a 3-tier white cake decorated with red roses and "precious moments" topped the cake. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl.

Members of the houseparty were Donna James, Laura Janes and Joleen Sisler of Paris and Susan Baggett of Bogata.

After a ski trip to Purgatory, Colorado, the couple will make their home in Deport.

The bride is a 1986 graduate of Rivercrest High School and received an associate degree in radiology from Tyler Junior College. She is employed at McCuiston Medical Center.

The bridegroom is a 1981 graduate of Paris High School and attended Texarkana Community College for paramedic certification. He has been employed by the City of Paris as a paramedic since 1980.

Ardie Barnes, father of the bridegroom, was host for a rehearsal dinner Friday night following the rehearsal at the First Baptist Church in Bogata. The couple presented the wedding party their gifts.

English-Whitney Exchange Vows

Jessica Lynn English became the bride of James Kent Whitney in a double-ring ceremony at 8 p.m. Friday, January 19 at the First Baptist Church of Bogata. The Rev. Gregg Bowers heard the couple repeat their vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. English Sr. of Bogata. She is the granddaughter of Opal English of Morrow and the late Jess English. Lorene Mays of Bogata and Lewis Williams of Clarksville. She is the great-granddaughter of Iva Williams of Red River Haven Nursing Home.

The groom is the son of Fern Whitney of Talco.

Mrs. Kathleen Mendenhall, pianist, accompanied Evette Alford and Torina House as they sang "You Light Up My Life". Mrs. Mendenhall presented traditional wedding music.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents. The bride presented her mother with a long-stemmed burgundy rose and a kiss and a message of "I love you" before reaching the altar.

The double-ring vows were repeated before the altar under an archway of greenery, with the bride's colors of pink and burgundy bows and ribbons, with two white doves at the top. A candelabra of fourteen branches, flanked each side of the archway.

For her wedding, the bride chose a floor-length white silk, southern style dress by Jessica McClintock, with layers of ruffles and silk bows accompanied by a long bow at the back. The neckline was a Queen Anne style, lined with sequins and pearls. The sleeves were mid-length baby doll sleeves trimmed with sequins and pearls. The bride chose a southern style hat with sequins and pearls with a mid-length veil. She carried a cascade of pink and burgundy carnations accented with baby's breath, simulated pearls with pink and burgundy ribbons. Her neckpiece was a single strand of white pearls.

Melissa Sarter of Phoenix, AZ was maid of honor. Lillian English, sister of the bride and Melissa Mask were bridesmaids. They were attired in pink tea length dresses and carried flowers of pink and burgundy carnations with ribbons of pink and burgundy.

Kevin Chapman of Mt. Pleasant, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Buddy McMikel, cousin of the bride, and Billy Wickerson of Mt. Pleasant, were groomsmen.

Chuck English, brother of the bride, was usher. The groom and his groomsmen were dressed in Army dress uniforms.

Chelsea Barboe and Dewayne Young, cousins of the bride, were flower girl and ringbearer. Brandon and Kevin Williams were candlelighters.

The bride presented her sister-in-law, Kathleen Chapman of Mt. Pleasant, with a long-stemmed burgundy rose after the ceremony.

The bride's parents hosted a reception in the reception hall immediately following the ceremony. Coletta Tippitt, Debbie English and Lee English, aunts of the bride, served at the bride's table. Vickie Bryant and Linda Eilers served at the groom's table.

Patches Raines and Cami Eilers served at the registry. The bride's niece, Jessilyn English, passed out rice bags of white tied with pink and burgundy ribbons, to the guests.

The bride is a 1989 graduate of Rivercrest High School, attended Paris Junior College and is employed at Red River Haven Nursing Home. The groom attended Rivercrest High School and is in the U.S. National Guard.

The couple will reside in Bogata.

Bogata Kin Takes Campaign Post

Earl J. Wilkinson, business and political editor of the Tyler Courier-Times-Telegraph has accepted the position of press secretary in the congressional campaign of Paris businessman Hamp Hodges. The 24 year old Tyler native's appointment was effective Wednesday, Feb. 3, 1990. He will coordinate media coverage and serve as an aide to the District 1 Congressional Candidate.

Wilkinson is the son of Fred Wilkinson of Tyler and the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilkinson of Bogata and nephew of Mrs. Iva Hooker and Mary and Truman Laster.

Wilkinson has been with the newspaper for six years, including nearly five years as business editor. He developed the Business section, has written weekly columns and covered numerous stories. He also served the Tyler newspaper as political editor since late 1988.

He has received several journalism honors, is a graduate of Robert E Lee High School, attended Tyler junior College and graduated from the University of Texas at Tyler. In 1986 he was one of 50 students selected nationwide for Georgetown University's Institute on Political Journalism. He has also worked in the Washington Office of U.S. Rep. Tom Tauke, R-Iowa.

His new role with Hodges, a Republican challenging Democratic incumbent Jim Chapman, will base him in Paris.

PUBLIC NOTICE
 CITY OF BOGATA DRILLING AND MINING ORDINANCE
 An ordinance to regulate and restrict the drilling of oil and gas wells as well as open mining operation in the City of Bogata, Texas.
 WHEREAS, the City Council of Bogata deems it necessary in order to promote the health and general welfare; to conserve the value of property; and to encourage the most appropriate use of land throughout the City;
 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BOGATA, TEXAS:
 It shall from this day forward be unlawful to commence the drilling of an oil and/or gas well or any mining operation within the corporate limits of the City of Bogata, Texas, without first obtaining a drilling/mining permit from the Bogata City Council. The Bogata City Council may require the applicant to submit sufficient information in regard to said drilling/mining application.
 Based on the information submitted and other pertinent facts, the Council shall either grant or deny said permit in a timely manner.
 PASSED AND APPROVED THIS THE 9th day of October, 1989.

Contel Installs Customer Information Numbers

Contel of Texas has recently installed toll free 800 numbers in its business offices for customers who have questions or problems regarding repairs, billing and service orders.

District Manager James Wise of Whitehouse explained, "We've installed these numbers in order to serve our customers more efficiently. Although we have always reverse-billed calls to our business office, many customers have expressed concern when they have to dial direct. With the new 800 numbers, there should not be any confusion--Contel will pay for the call no matter where our customers are calling from. "Most important, with the three separate numbers for repair, billing and service orders, our service representatives can immediately pinpoint the nature of our customers' inquiries. The 800 numbers are simply another way we can provide quality service to our customers."

Contel customers may call 1-800-848-1575 for repairs; 1-800-828-1501 for billing; and 1-800-848-1601 for service orders.

Contel Corporation, a company with over $3 billion in annual revenues and sales, provides a broad range of telecommunications products and services. Contel of Texas, a subsidiary of Contel Corporation, supplies telephone service to more than 161,000 rural customers across the state.
