The phrase "Country Banking" takes on new meaning over at my brother's establishment!

As president of a country bank, Hugh is pretty familiar with the usual things that make up a rural financial institution. He knows all about customers needing money to buy piglets and calves, fund raising drives for school and community organizations, and loves the fact that his customers wear more boots than suits.

But, lately, it seems the bank has been for the birds...and the goats...and the snakes!

True, the bank isn't on main street, but it isn't exactly out in the woods either. That doesn't seem to stop it from attracting a weird variety of wild life!

Guineas were one of the first fowl visitors to show up. The speckled, prehistoric looking birds were scratching around in the shrubs and lawn, happily giving their unusual little chirps and clucks. Each day, he claims, the flock got a little larger.

Some days they would be there, others not.

Then there were the goats. They had to be run off, instead of rooting around in the shrubs the goats were eating them!

Of course, a time or two the employees have had to run a calf or two back to its pasture, too.

Then, a month or two ago, the sissortails showed up. Several of them.

For days the poor birds kept beating against the glass on the doors and windows.

According to Hugh they certainly "made some hefty deposits!"

Without explanation, the sissortails left.

Then there is the closet that the female employees refuse to open. Just because of the snake that came slithering out!

The frogs managed to find their way in too, back during the rainy season.

For a few weeks the bank was critter-less. Only for a few, though. Yesterday it was turkeys. That's right, gobblers!

They were pecking on his office window. Perhaps they wanted to borrow enough money to take a vacation along about Thanksgiving? Or perhaps the hens were seeking life insurance on the toms?

Hugh claims he's thinking about opening a special branch bank. Would it be called "Critter Credit" or perhaps "Fauna Finance"?

I can just hear him now.

"Yes Mr. and Mrs. Hogg, I know you live in a pig sty, but we really can't accept ham as collateral!"

Or perhaps "Sure Mr. Turkey, you can have a loan, unlike most birds you don't seem too flighty!"

County Seeking Opinions On Consolidation Of JP's

In an effort to cut back on county government expenses, the Red River County Commissioner's Court is looking at several ideas.

One of these ideas is consolidating the Justice of the Peace Office until there were only two in the county.

Judge L.D. Williamson says that they are seeking the public's opinion on this.

According to Williamson "the two jps would serve the whole county from two precincts, probably by putting Precinct 1 and 2 together and 3 and 4 together".

The position would continue to be an elected one.

This combination would be for justice of the peace offices only.

People who would like to express their opinion should contact their county commissioner or they may direct their opinions to the Red River County Judge's office at 200 N. Walnut, Clarksville, 75426 or call 427-2680.

Country Cooking

By Gerrie Bankhead

The Country Cooking column is coming from the kitchen of Ruby Ray this week. She has lived in the Blossom area for the past 16 years and has attended the First Baptist Church in Blossom during these years.

Ruby is the mother of six children: a daughter, Nelda McGuegg of Savoy, and she has 4 girls, Penny, Carolyn, Benny Jean and Nancy, and she has 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Another daughter, Nedra and husband, George Henderson of Paris, and they have one child, Barbara and one grandchild. Another daughter, Louise Cannida and husband Charlie of Choctaw Ridge and they have six children, Joey, Chuck, Steve, Bobby, Robbie and Renee and they have five grandchildren. A son, Billy Jack and wife, Aline of Mt. Pleasant and they have six children, Theresa, Rita, Debbie, Billy Wayne, Ricky and Sheila and they have six grandchildren. Another son, Jerry Wayne and wife, Minnie of Hugo, and they have four children, Patty, Tammy, Duane and Christopher and one grandchild, Callie. Another son, William and wife Tammy of Choctaw Ridge and they have two sons, D.J. and Taylor. This makes a total of 23 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild for Ruby.

In the past few years, Ruby has served on the hospitality committee and is presently on the Womens Missionary Union of the church. She also enjoys playing 42 at the Senior Citizen Association, piecing quilts, cooking, sewing, making dust dolls and embroidering.

Ruby says she has made every married granddaughter a quilt and is working on more for the rest of the children.

Trying new recipes is another thing Ruby enjoys. She loves to attend the cooking school held each year in Paris and collects all the recipes they give out. Ruby said with all the members of her family she has to know how to cook. All of them meet on special holidays and her birthday and she plans and prepares many days in advance for the events.

The dust dolls are made from yarn. She said she has probably made more than 200 of them. She gives them as gifts and sells them. They are unique. Ruby likes to embroider scarves and pillowcases. She also does some sewing for herself and granddaughters.

Ruby has chosen a variety of foods to share with the readers this week.

The Fruit Cocktail Cake recipe came from her sister in Bonham, Bonny Faye Clark, and she's used it about 13 years. The Kraut Salad recipe came from a Home Demonstration swap she attended in 1964. Her entire family really enjoys this recipe.

The Meatballs and baked beans recipe is liked by all her children and grandchildren. She got this recipe from the late Mrs. Jim Eatherly back in 1961.

The Pineapple Zucchini Bread and Muffins recipe came from a cousin in Honey Grove, Florence McCormick, about two years ago. She gets lots of comments on this recipe.

I am also including another diabetic recipe from Nell Wolf and I hope you enjoy it.

If you've enjoyed the article, request a recipe or have a recipe to share or suggest a feature, please call 652-6032 or write Rt. 1, Box 67A, Deport, TX 75435.

Familiar Faces

..By Denise Wood

It's a rare occasion when you meet someone who is not concerned about what you are able to do for them, but instead of what they are able to do for you. This person is Bryan Baggett, who is this week's Familiar Face.

Bryan was born and raised in Albuquerque, New Mexico and attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth. In 1988 he graduated from the seminary as well as married his wife, Susan, who works for Dr. Robert White. In December, 1988, they moved to Bogata where Bryan is the Minister of Youth and Music for the First Baptist Church.

Bryan and Susan love the small town atmosphere that Bogata offers. He enjoys working in a church that allows him to be in contact with people of all ages. The youth and senior citizens of the town are his main concern. At the moment, Bryan teaches classes on Wednesday at the Red River Haven Nursing Home and has just returned from taking a group of children and youth to church camp.

During recent months, Bryan has had to fill the shoes of full-time pastor of the church. He has served the congregation and the community well and is looking forward to working with the new pastor that the church has hired.

Being a minister in this day and time is not always easy, but having someone who is as caring and devoted as Bryan, Bogata should count themselves lucky. Bryan truly makes a difference.

JASON FREELLEN was named Most Valuable Player for the Red River Dixie Minors. (Staff Photo by Denise Wood)

KYLE KENNEDY participated in the 14-year old Pony League All Star Tournament held July 13 in Paris. The tournament was based on a three-game elimination. Kyle's team, the Mt. Vernon All Stars, won one of two games in the tournament. He plays hind catcher and was the only player from Bogata participating in the tournament.

Four states have active volcanoes: Washington, California, Alaska, and Hawaii.
